The preliminary hearing in the prosecution of Mrs. Dietz for acting as a physician without a license was held before Justice Tracy, Tuesday night. As yet Mr. Tracy has not given his decision. Mr. and Mrs. Dietz and Mr. Hargan will contest the case and plead not guilty to the charge of "publicly professing to cure or heal." Public sentiment in Belmond is almost universally in favor of the defendants and the progress of the case is being watched with intense interest.—Belmond Press.

Married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bachman, on Wednesday, May 5th, at 5 p. m., Lena Bachman to B. F. Remer, of LeMars, Iowa, Rev. A. B. Wolfe officiating. Only a few of the intimate friends of the bride and groom were present at the marriage. The bride has grown to young womanhood in Goodell and is well known to everyone. The groom we are not acquainted with but hear that he is an exemplary young man and will make an excellent husband for the woman of his choice. After a dainty supper prepared by Mrs Bachman, Mr. and Mrs. Remer departed for their home at LeMars, Iowa, on the 7:55 train.—Goodell Globe.

CHAMBERLAIN'S LINIMENT

This is a new preparation and a good one. It is especially valuable as a cure for chronic and muscular rheumatism, and for the relief from pain which it affords in acute inflamatory rheumatism. Those who have used it have invariably spoken of it in the highest terms of praise. Lame back, lame shoulder and stiff neck are due to rheumatism of the muscles, usually brought on by exposure to cold or damp, and are quickly cured by applying this liniment freely and massaging the affected parts. Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is allayed by this liniment. For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

OUR BUSINESS IS BANKING
BANKING IS OUR BUSINESS

The sign "Bank" does not make a bank and is often misleading. It requires time, energy, close attention to business, a substantial capital and ripe experience in banking to make a bank. We claim, without blushing, all essentials necessary to make our business that of banking, and tender our patrons a service thoroughly seasoned by years of experience, backed by substantial capital.

The First National Bank

CAPITAL $25,000

YOU BUY

..Satisfaction..

When you buy

Lowe Brothers' High Standard Paint

Spreads better, wont check or blister, colors are true, Beware of the "Just as good" as Lowe Brothers.

MARTIN SENOUR'S

School House Red for Barns

Put up in 1 gal. pails or 5 gal. kits. It covers most, spreads best, looks best, wears longest, gives best results

BRIGHTEN

Your Linoleum with Vernicol

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile, both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

Buy Your SCREENS NOW

The Flies Will Soon be Here

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, AGENT
KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

Base Ball, Saturday, May 15

Dows High School vs. Klemme High School, at 2:30 o'clock p. m.

PUBLIC STATEMENT

By a Public Official—County Treasurer of Granbury, Texas.

A. A. Perkins, County Treasurer of Granbury, Hood Co., Texas, says: "Years ago a severe fall injured my kidneys. From that time I was bothered with a chronic lame back and disordered action of the kidneys helped to make life miserable for me. A friend suggested my using Doan's Kidney Pills, which I did, with the most gratifying results. I made a public statement at the time, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, and am glad to confirm that statement now."

Sold by all dealers, 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Coaxing the Brute.

Eve had given Adam the apple.

"I suppose," she mused as she constructed the fig leaf suit, "after this I'll always have to feed him to get a new dress."

Subsequent developments confirmed her fears.

STATE OF OHIO CITY OF TOLEDO, } ss.
LUCAS COUNTY.

FRANK J. CHENEY makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. CHENEY & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of CATARRH that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

FRANK J. CHENEY.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D., 1886.

{ SEAL } A. W. GLEASON, NOTARY PUBLIC.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by all Druggists, 75c.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Thrilling Experiences.

"Have you ever had any hairbreadth escapes from death?"

"Yes, two. Once I was judge in a baby show. Another time, I interfered with a man who was beating his wife.

Many a Day Is Spoiled

By a cough which cannot be broken by ordinary remedies. But why not try a medicine that will cure any cough that any medicine can cure? That is Kemp's Balsam. It is recommended by doctors and nurses, and it costs only 25 cents at any druggists' or dealers'. Keep a bottle always in the house and you will always be prepared to treat a cold or cough before it causes any suffering at all.

Trust your fortune to hard work, perseverance, and the determination. You hold your future in your own hands. Never waver in this belief.—Treves.

WRIGLEY'S

You won't get the delicious crushed mint leaf flavor unless you see that spear Remember that!

The flavor lasts.

CANCER CURED WITH OUT KNIFE OR BURNING PLASTERS
CURES GUARANTEED
REFERENCE AND CONSULTATION FREE
DR. H. NEVINS PEORIA ILL.

Des Moines Directory

TEXAS PANHANDLE LAND. Go with us to Dalhart, Texas. Private car leaves Des Moines 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of each month. Write us for text books. ROYAL LAND CO., 201 Commercial Bldg., Des Moines, Iowa.

The State Insurance Company

of Des Moines, Iowa, has paid over FOUR MILLION DOLLARS for

Fire, Lightning and Tornado Losses

The season is on—get a Policy now. Prompt and fair treatment is our motto.

Talking Machine Free

trial to responsible people. Special outfit complete: Our Victor. Evans Special Model C. with 19-inch black horn; 1 extra 21-inch flowered horn; 1 self-cleaning record brush; 1 oil can; 1 bottle oil; 1 modulator; 1000 needles; 1 tube graphite; 1 record case (holds 50 records); 6 ten-inch records; 1 needle holder.

Our price $37.50—Worth $52.00. Sold for cash or monthly payments. Send for special outfit bargain list.

F. O. EVANS PIANO CO., Des Moines, Iowa

POSTS NEW LAWS

Last Legislature Passed Many School Measures

COPIES BEING SENT OUT

Actions of Legislature as Relating to Schools and Teachers Are Synopsized and Scattered.

Des Moines, Iowa, May 8.—Although the recent legislature turned the proposed revision of the school laws down cold the solons enacted several laws of especial interest to teachers as a synopsis just completed by State Superintendent Riggs indicates. Copies of the synopsis are being sent out.

Briefly stated, the new laws as they apply to education are:

Compulsory education law, extending time of attendance from four months per year to six months, excusing children from attending because of religious duties and employing the city marshal as probation officer in small towns.

Exemption of school bonds from taxation, extending duration of school bonds to twenty years when amount issued exceeds $450,000.

Providing for renewal of certificates upon showing certificate of professional study.

Compelling all doors of school houses to open outward.

Prohibiting high school secret societies.

Authorizing school boards to estimate $20 per person of school age for teachers' fund and $7 for contingent fund.

Authorizing independent districts to become indebted for school purposes up to 2 1-2 per cent.

Authorizing educational board of examiners to determine when library catalogs shall be issued.

These laws all take effect July 4.

Carroll Instructs New Board.

Governor B. F. Carroll called the members of the state pharmacy commission before him, told them that they will be expected to keep correct and complete data as to their travels about the state and their per diem expenditures and discussed with them the new laws relative to drug stores, such as the Hammill liquor sale law, the law forbidding the sale of cocaine, etc. The board has practically decided that examinations will be held every other month as at present and not quarterly.

Muster Out Company.

Adjutant General Logan has issued orders that Company E of the Fifty-third Iowa National Guard at Cresco be mustered out. The action is the result of the report of Inspector Martin of the war department, who recently inspected the companies of the state. Lieutenant Martin reports that the Cresco company is below the standard of efficiency and recommends that it be mustered out and General Logan has adopted the recommendation.

National Guardsmen to Shoot.

Rifle practice by the Iowa National guard will begin June 9, at the range, which has been constructed by the state near the Belgrade station on the Inteurban. This will be the first practice engaged in by the entire militia since the completion of the new grounds. About one hundred men from different companies will make up each detail, and each shoot will last about ten days.

Optometrists Submit Names.

Before the state optomertrists meet in this city in annual convention two weeks hence, Governor Carroll will be expected to name the new state board of optometry examiners provided for at the recent session of the legislature. The executive committee of the association has given the governor a list of men from whom he may make his selections and who will be satisfactory to the optometrists throughout the state.

Combine Two Expositions.

A joint meeting of the executive committees of the Iowa Corn exposition of the Iowa Dairy association will be held in Des Mines May 20 to try and arrive at a basis for a consolidation of the annual dairy convention and show with the Iowa Corn exposition and contest to be given in the new Coliseum, November 29 to December 11.

Sends Power to Guard.

Adj. Gen. Guy Logan has sent 300,000 rounds of ammunition to the various companies of the Iowa National guard, and there is going to be some shooting. The ammunition is for the target shooting, which starts May 1.

SYSTEM IS A BIG SUCCESS

Water is Heated to Ninety-Five Degrees and Flows Constantly Through The Bath Tubs.

Des Moines, Ia., May 6.—Arrangements have been completed by the state board of control for the installation at the Cherokee and Independence state hospitals of equipment for treating violent and maniacal patients by immersing them in bath tubs filled with water heated to about 95 degrees and kept flowing constantly through the tubs.

Without straps, chains or straightjackets, the raving maniac who is sent to one of these hospitals will be put into the magic bath and in a few moments the disturbed brain of the lunatic will be soothed and calmed until he becomes as docile as a child. If necessary patients will be kept in the tubs continuously for three or four days, although twelve hours is usually long enough to quiet their nerves.

System Called Wonderful.

Four such tubs for each institution were purchased yesterday by the board of control and will be installed at once. The system is known as the Kraepelin hot water continuous bath treatment and in adopting it Iowa will be one of the first states to make use of what is declared to be the most wonderful method of treating violently insane ever devised.

Violent patients will be required to strip and lie in a hammock-like canvas, which folds over them in the tub. A system of tubes around the outside of the tub allows the water to flow into it at five different places on the same level, while an outlet higher up discharges the water as it cools. Thus the water is continually flowing in and out.

According to members of the board who have investigated the new water treatment, patients eat and sleep in the water contentedly and are with difficulty induced to leave the tubs. The treatment induces sleep and that is what the excited cases need most. The object of the treatment is to quiet and soothe the patient, and in some cases it is declared to have worked a complete cure. It is equally valuable for patients suffering with melancholia or mental depression.

What is Value of Iowa.

Governor Carroll has begun the herculean task of ascertaining how much the state of Iowa is worth. Land, stock, personal property—everything that is assessable will be ascertained by the governor and laid before the executive council for use in making up the assessment next July. Six years ago it was stated that the railroads were not paying their share of taxes. Thereupon this same procedure was adopted and full reports received from every county auditor. The result was that railroad taxes went up $25,000,000. This year the procedure will be followed for the first time since then, but the executive council has directed the governor to make the inquiry simply on a basis of information and not because the members have any particular interest in mind. The letter which the governor is sending to every county auditor is sent under direction of a section in the code which places this power in his hands.

May Re-Collect.

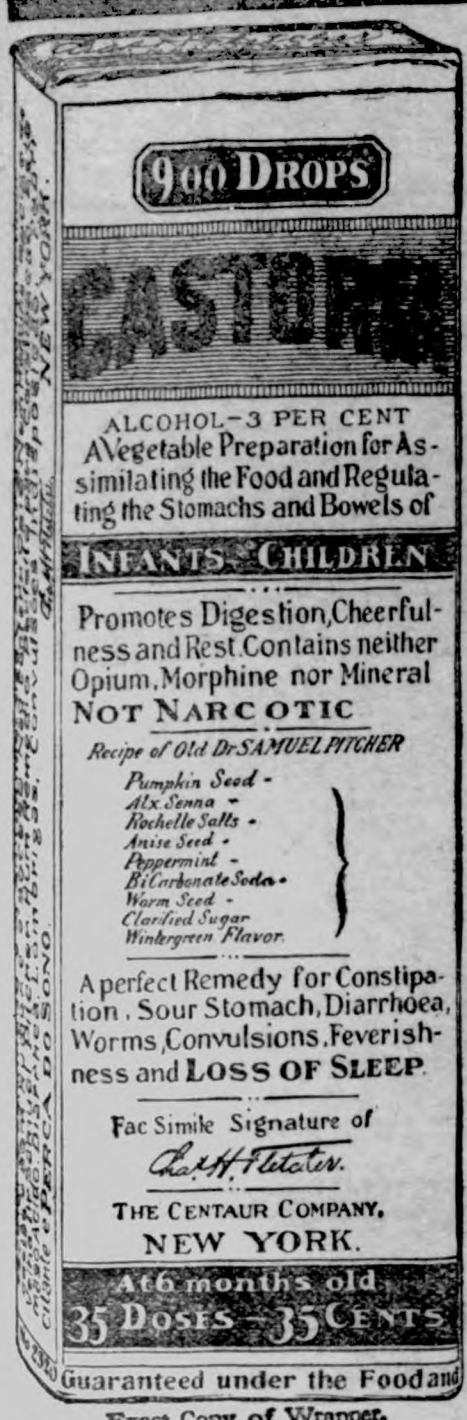
An important ruling to the effect that a bank, if it mistakenly overpays a man may recollect the amount of the overpayment, was handed in today by the state supreme court. The Fidelty Savings bank of Marshalltown paid John A. Reeder $1,385.22 when he went to draw out his savings, which was $100 more than he had on deposit. The bank discovered the error and sought to re-collect the $100. It was claimed that Reeder admitted the mistake and agreed to make it good, but later denied that any mistake had been made. The jury found for Reeder. The bank appealed and the supreme court has sent the case back for a new trial. The court says that the right to recover money paid by mistake is well established.

Asks for Bank Reports.

The National Monetary commission wants to know how much money is in the Iowa state and savings banks. Accordingly State Auditor Bleakley has issued a special call to these institutions requesting a report as to condition on April 28. This report is to be forwarded to the state auditor and turned over to the government. The reports will not need to be published by the banks unless they so de-

Apointed Oil Inspector.

Gen. Melvin H. Byers, of Mills county, former adjutant-general, has been apointed head Iowa oil inspector, to succeed Captain Pickell. Mr. Byers was a candidate for appointment as adjutant-general under Governor Carroll, but was induced to step aside to help in the restoration of harmony in the ranks of the Guard.



Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

ALL ROADS NOW LEAD—To Seattle

"Westward, Ho!"—Haven't YOU heard the cry?

All accounts show that all over the country, the people by thousands are getting ready to come to Seattle this summer.

YOU, too, would better make your plans to come to "the Fair that will be ready," —the ALASKA-YUKON-PACIFIC EXPOSITION, which opens on June 1st. You'll never have so good a chance again to see this wonderful country.

WE INVITE YOU TO MAKE OUR OFFICES YOUR HEADQUARTERS, where you can receive your mail, write your letters, meet your friends, and get all the information about the great Northwest, and about the one best investment of all, UNITS OF SEATTLE'S CENTRAL BUSINESS PROPERTY.

If I can be of any assistance beforehand, please write to me.

FRANK T. HUNTER, President,
THE TRUSTEE COMPANY, Central Bldg., Seattle, Wash.

Corn Planting is here—Distemper among horses may be near at mares are foaling—Distem may take some of them—corn planting may be late if your ho have Distemper.

SPOHN'S DISTEMPER CURE

is your true safeguard—a cure as well as preventive—50c and bottle—$5.00 and $10.00 dozen, delivered. Large is more than twice smaller size. Don't put it off. Get it. Druggists—or send to manufactur

Spohn Medical Co., Chemists and Bacteriologists, Goshen, Ind., U.S.

See the West at its Best

Take a western trip this summer. Go to the Pacific Coast and see the remarkable progress made since you studied geography. Spend a week at Seattle seeing the "world's most beautiful fair."

Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition

June 1 to October 16

Low fares every day this summer via Great Northern Railway only $50 round trip from St. Paul and Minneapolis, $55.40 from Des Moines. Two daily trains. Compartment-Observation cars, Standard and Tourist Sleeping cars, Great Northern Dining cars. Send for free booklet describing most attractive route, entitled "To the Scenic Northwest."

W. M. ROMINE
District Passenger Agent
406 Sixth Ave., DES MOINES, IA.

National Irrigation Congress, Spokane, Wash., August 9—14, 1909

Epworth League Seattle July 6—12, 1909

GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE FLAVOR LASTS

Dr. McINTOSH celebrated Natural Uterine Supporter gives immediate relief. Sold by all surgical instrument dealers and leading druggists in United States and Canada. Catalog, price list and particulars mailed on application.

THE HASTINGS & McINTOSH TRUSS CO., 912 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., manufacturers of trusses and sole makers of the Genuine stamped "McIntosh" Supporter.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water

Shave in 5 Minutes
NO STROPPING NO HONING
Gillette
KNOWN THE WORLD OVER

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT

Don't monkey with cheap, worthless goods, get the best. A-B-C Liniment At All Druggists.

D LEGAL HOLIDAY

he Opinion of Attorney Ge eral Eyers

LY 5 ALSO APPLICABLE

s Suggested That if the Saloons Consult Their Own Interests They Will Not Open May 31.

es Moines, Ia., May 10.—While not nding in an official opinion on the ject, Attorney General Byers in a ter written to City Solicitor Jos- R. Frailey of Ft. Madison, says May 31, although it may be obved as Memorial day, is not a legholiday as designated by the sta- and therefore saloons cannot be pelled to remain closed on that . The attorney general suggests if the saloons consult their own interests, however, there will be hing doing in the alcoholic bever- line on May 31.

his view of the attorney general l not only affect the Monday after morial day, but likewise the Mon- following July 4, which also falls Sunday. Interest in the question been intense in all sections of the te.

The attorney general quotes from a ision of the supreme court of Neska, which says that where staes designated certain days as legholidays and prohibited the courts m transacting business on such ys, the restriction is confined to the ys named in the statutes and where such days falls on Sunday the ceeding Monday is not to be obrved as such holidays, as far as it affect the presentment and dend of commercial paper.

The Iowa statute designates May 30 a legal holiday. Hence under the ebraska decision that date and day a legal holiday and May 31 is not.

LECT FINANCE COMMITTEE

. R. Boyd of Cedar Rapids, Presiident, D. A. Emery of Ottumwa, Secretary, and Thos. Lambert.

Iowa City, Ia., May 7.—The state ard of education met at Iowa City d elected the finance committee as llows:

W. R. Boyd of Cedar Rapids, presint; D. A. Emery of Ottumwa, secrety, and Thomas Lambert of Sabula. r. Emery is also secretary of the ard of nine. Offices will be at the ate capitol.

This committee will assume their ties July 1. The committee will ve virtually powers under the state ard as an executive committee and s charge of the state university at wa City, the agricultural college at mes and the state normal at Cedar alls.

Body is Still in the River.

Iowa Falls.—Many people in this rt of the state are taking much inrest in the case of Chris Anderson, ho was drowned in the Cedar river Waterloo several weeks ago and hose body has not been recovered. nderson formerly resided at Popey and Dows and was well known in e country north of here. It now evelops that he carried a policy of ,000 on his life, but the insurance mpany refuses to pay the widow e insurance money unless the body produced. After many efforts to cover the body hope of doing so ems about abandoned, and in hopes adding an incentive to another effort to find the body the widow has fered a reward of $1,000. Two oth- men lost their lives at the time nderson was drowned.

Oats Crop a Failure.

Fort Dodge.—It is believed that ractically the entire oats crop of ebster county will be a failure this ason owing to the fact that the seed ready in the ground is rotting and rmers have begun to plow up their ats and small grain fields in prepartion for the planting of corn. The old and damp condition of the round is believed to be responsible r the situation.

Producing Sugar in Iowa.

Waverly.—That the sugar beet inustry in Iowa is making headway is hown by the fact that the Iowa Sugar ompany has placed at different staions tributary to Waverly on the Rock Island and the Great Western ailways sixty families of beet workrs numbering about 300 people.

Kicked to Death by Horse.

Oskaloosa.—A fatal accident ocurred at the Temple home, five miles south of Keota, when Clifford, was killed. He was currying a horse which backed him into a corner. He struck the animal with the currycomb to make it move out of the corner, and it kicked him in the abdomen.

VIOLATED ORDER OF COURT

MEMBERS OF THE FARMINGTON SCHOOL BOARD HELD GUILTY.

Must Answer to the Grand Jury for the Payment of Alleged Illegal Warrants.

Fairfield, Ia., May 10.—The Farmington school board, consisting of B. F. Ketchman, treasurer, George C. Junkins, H. F. Barton, Joseph Steinmeyer, M. L. Barger and Fred Venkfall, arrested on a bench warrant for violating an injunction of the court restraining them from paying or attempting to pay certain warrants to the amount of $11,044.40, which had been declared by both the district court of Van Buren county and the supreme court of Iowa to be void and worthless, were convicted of the charge by Judge Eichelberger and bound over to the Van Buren county district court in bonds of $200 each, which through the courtesy of counsel for the prosecution, William Walker of Keosauqua, were reduced to $100 each. Mr. Walker also dismissed the complaint as to Henry Mulvihill on account of being confined to his bed by illness.

The news of the decision of Judge Eichelberger was sent to Farmington by telephone, where it was said to meet with the joyful approval of citizens.

IN PRISON SINCE YEAR 1878

He Awaits With Childish Joy His First Glimpse of Modern Cities

Des Moines, Ia., May 7.—By an unanimous vote the state board of parole went on record favoring a pardon for William B. Glyndon, who has served thirty-one years in the Fort Madison state prison for a crime, which members of the board say there is grave doubt of his having committed. The recommendation has been submitted to Governor Carroll.

Only a stroke of the governor's pen now stands between the old man whose strength and hope and soul have all but died within the walls of an Iowa prison and freedom. That stroke will be backed by the united conviction of three men appointed as a competent advisory tribunal, that Glyndon has suffered long enough, that he not improbably is the victim of an appalling miscarriage of justice and that he should be allowed to pass his twilight days a free man.

Glyndon is 70 years old, and since 1878 he has breathed prison air, worn convict's clothes, and passed his days with the companionship of criminals within the four walls of the Fort Madison penitentiary. He has been in prison longer than any other man, living or dead, in the United States.

WOULD KNOW REALTY VALUE

Secretary Davison is Sending a Circular Letter to the Auditor of Each County in the State.

Des Moines, Ia., May 5.—Secretary A. H. Davison of the executive council is mailing a circular letter to the county auditor of every county in Iowa asking for a comparative statement of the real and assessed valuation of lands within the county. The information will be used in determining the assessments of Iowa railroads next summer.

Six years ago a similar canvass was made by the council and the result was a 10 per cent boost in the railroad assessment. It was found in 1903 that the average rate of assessment of land was 80 per cent of the real value, and this percentage was applied with some modification to the assessment of railroad property.

In 1902 the total assessed valuation of railroads in Iowa was $51,307,950. After a canvass ordered by Governor Cummins had shown that farm lands were paying taxes on 80 per cent of their real value, the total assessed valuation jumped to $56,541,513, or about 10 per cent. Increases in earnings since 1903 have increased the assessed valuation until last year it was $63,457,616.

No attempt will be made by the council to ascertain the comparative valuations of personal property or of city real estate.

Attempt to Extort $500.

Centerville.—Nathan Chapman, a prosperous merchant in South Centerville, received a "black hand" letter in which he was told to deposit $500 under the doorstep of his place of business or his life would pay the forfeit. Arming himself, Mr. Chapman and son sat up all night guarding their place of business and watching for someone to come and get the $500 which had been placed under the step. No one appeared and it is thought that persons making the threats knew that the place was watched. As yet no attempt has been made on Mr. Chapman's life.

BEST STOMACH REMEDY FREE

It is an old saying that if the stomach is sound the whole body is safe, because so much depends upon the proper working of the stomach. Many persons find themselves with a disorder of the stomach which produces dyspepsia or a peculiar state of biliousness.

If you suffer from both stomach trouble and constipation you are on the way to a very serious disease. From just such conditions come appendicitis, rheumatism, skin diseases and similar disorders, because the waste matter that should have been dispelled from the system through the bowels has found its way into the blood and vitiated it. What is needed at this point is not simply a violent cathartic tablet or salt, which usually does more harm than good, but a gentle laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which people have been using for these ailments for nearly a quarter of a century. It cured J. C. Lanham, of Warrensburg, Mo., of stomach trouble of long standing, also William Voll, of 903 Ellison St., Louisville, Ky., who had the trouble for fifteen years.

However, if you have stomach trouble you want to know from personal experience what Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will do for you, If so, send your name to the doctor and a free trial bottle will be sent you. You are urged to send for the free bottle, as the results from it will be the best recommendation of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Then you will do as over two million people did last year—go to your druggist and buy a regular bottle at 50 cents or $1, according to the size you prefer. We could mention hundreds and hundreds of families who are never without it. You can never tell when some member of the family will need a laxative, and then no time should be lost taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 201 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

NEVER SAY DIE.

She—But if you have completely cured Mrs. Tooter, you have done away with one of your most lucrative sources of income.

The Doctor—Ah, but I'll present her with my bill, and then I'll have to treat her for nervous prostration.

Fattest French Soldiers.

Occasionally our Paris contemporaries entertain their readers with an account of the tallest and the shortest conscript. Now a journal has gone one better and discovered the fattest recruit in the French army, who has been found at Corbeil. This honorable distinction belongs to M. Laverdit, the son of a merchant in the locality. The young man turns the scale at 268 pounds, avoirdupois, or rather over 19 stone.

Cow Never Said a Word.

When one of the fenders of the City railway cars picked up a young heifer at the corner of Third and Jersey streets the conductor filled out the required report blank to Superintendent Edward Howell. In answer to the question: "What did the victim say?" the employe wrote: "She was carried along on the fender for a short distance, then rolled off and ran away without saying a word."—Dayton Columbus Dispatch.

NOT DRUGS
Food Did It.

After using laxative and cathartic medicines from childhood a case of chronic and apparently incurable constipation yielded to the scientific food, Grape-Nuts, in a few days.

"From early childhood I suffered with such terrible constipation that I had to use laxatives continuously going from one drug to another and suffering more or less all the time.

"A prominent physician whom I consulted told me the muscles of the digestive organs were partially paralyzed and could not perform their work without help of some kind, so I have tried at different times about every laxative and cathartic known, but found no help that was at all permanent. I had finally become discouraged and had given my case up as hopeless when I began to use the predigested food, Grape-Nuts.

"Although I had not expected this food to help my trouble, to my great surprise Grape-Nuts digested immediately from the first and in a few days I was convinced that this was just what my system needed.

"The bowels performed their functions regularly and I am now completely and permanently cured of this awful trouble.

"Truly the power of scientific food must be unlimited." "There's a Reason."

Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Eyes Are Relieved By Murine

when Irritated by Chalk Dust and Eye Strain, incident to the average School Room. A recent Census of New York City reveals the fact that in that City alone 17,928 School Children needed Eye Care. Why not try Murine Eye Remedy for Red, Weak, Weary, Watery Eyes, Granulation, Pink Eye and Eye Strain? Murine Doesn't Smart; Soothes Eye Pain. Is Compounded by Experienced Physicians; Contains no Injurious or Prohibited Drugs. Try Murine for Your Eye Troubles; You Will Like Murine. Try It in Baby's Eyes for Scaly Eyelids. Druggists Sell Murine at 50c. The Murine Eye Remedy Co., Chicago, Will Send You Interesting Eye Books Free.

No Injuries.

"Bre'r Jones done fall off de watah wagon."

"Was he hu't?"

"No, suh. He was a hardened sinnah."

Breaking Up Colds.

A cold may be stopped at the start by a couple of Lane's Pleasant Tablets. Even in cases where a cold has seemed to gain so strong a hold that nothing could break it, these tablets have done it in an hour or two. All druggists and dealers sell them at 25 cents a box. If you cannot get them send to the proprietor, Orator F. Woodward, Le Roy, N. Y. Sample free.

A Natural Rise.

"Coal is going up this year."

"Are you sure?"

"Perfectly so. Doesn't it always go up in smoke?"

Look before you pay. The spear and the name WRIGLEY'S always go with the delicious mint leaf flavored gum.

Some men are content not to do mean actions, I want to become incapable of a mean thought or feeling.

Ladies who take pride in clear, white clothes should use the new RUSS BLUE. Sold by grocers.

You are right, Cordelia; to-day will be yesterday to-morrow.

The Surest Preventative

The quickest acting and most reliable remedy for all disorders of the Stomach and Bowels, Bladder and Kidney troubles, Gout, Jaundice, Headache, Biliousness is

DR. D. JAYNE'S SANATIVE PILLS

They are the highest standard of excellence for all these ailments. Used as a laxative, purgative or cathartic they are most soothing and effective.

Sold by all druggists in two size boxes, 25c and 10c.

SICK HEADACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cured by these Little Pills.

They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature

Brent Good

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

WRIGLEY WRIGLEY SPRIGLEY

Western Canada the Pennant Winner

"The Last Best West"

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

The government of Canada now gives to every actual settler 160 acres of wheat-growing land free and an additional 160 acres at $3.00 an acre. The 300,000 contented American settlers making their homes in Western Canada is the best evidence of the superiority of that country. They are becoming rich, growing from 25 to 50 bushels wheat to the acre; 60 to 110 bushels oats and 45 to 60 bushels barley, besides having splendid herds of cattle raised on the prairie grass. Dairying is an important industry.

The crop of 1908 still keeps Western Canada in the lead. The world will soon look to it as its food-producer.

"The thing which most impressed us was the magnitude of the country that is available for agricultural purposes."—National Editorial Correspondence, 1908.

Low railway rates, good schools and churches, markets convenient, prices the highest, climate perfect.

Lands are for sale by Railway and Land Companies. Descriptive pamphlets and maps sent free. For railway rates and other information apply to Superintendent of Immigration, Ottawa, Canada, or the authorized Canadian Government Agent:

E. T. HOLMES, 315 Jackson St., St. Paul, Minn.; or W. V. BENNETT, 801 New York Life Bldg., Omaha, Neb.

WRIGLEY'S

Do it Now

Tomorrow A. M. too late. Take a CASCARET at bed time; get up in the morning feeling fine and dandy. No need for sickness from over-eating and drinking. They surely work while you sleep and help nature help you. Millions take them and keep well. 894

CASCARETS 10c a box for a week's treatment, all druggists. Biggest seller in the world. Million boxes a month.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c. and $1.00 at Druggists

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT PEPSIN GUM

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Books free. Highest references. Best results.

W. N. U., DES MOINES, NO. 20–1909.

Moving Pictures Here to Stay

Invest Your Money in Moving Picture Theatres. You Will Get Greater Returns from This Than from Any Other Investment

It pays big to amuse the public. It requires but a small investment to start and maintain a MOVING PICTURE THEATRE. It is a fact that most of these theatres pay 500% on their original investment in one year. FORTUNES are being made in this business on SMALL INVESTMENTS.

The STANDARD FILM EXCHANGE is one of the largest and most reliable companies who make a business of EQUIPPING THEATRES COMPLETELY. We handle everything that belongs to the business. We instruct you how to convert a store room or hall into a MOVING PICTURE THEATRE. We sell you CHAIRS, MACHINES, CURTAIN and SUPPLIES, and RENT YOU MOVING PICTURE FILMS and SONG SLIDES.

WRITE US FOR FULL DETAILS and ESTIMATES. We invite you to call at our offices, where every courtesy will be extended. Address us as follows:

Standard Film Exchange

Dept. 828, 79 Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois

Kindly mention this paper when writing.

Are You Going to PAINT ?

It pays to keep your buildings well painted, and when you paint it pays to use the best you can get. We handle the best in

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, etc. etc.

Call and see us and get our prices.

Washing Machines

We handle some of the best made. Call and see the

"Quicker Yet"

The best place to buy

Hardware & Groceries

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA

HELLO THERE

Where are you going? I'm going to H. Lau & Son. They handle all kinds of farm implements, Port Huron threshers also the Aultman & Taylor machinery, the 20 Century and Appleton manure spreader, McKinnon and Clinton wagons, Anchor and Velie buggies, Ohio and Kingman cultivators, stirring and gang plows, the open mould board sulky plows the lightest draft, Towers cultivators, Imperial and Challenge wind mills, hog fencing, barb wire, smooth wire gates, pumps and piping of all kinds, feed mills and the international gas engines from 1 to 40 H. P., Milwaukee mowers, binders, Dane hay loaders and buckers, nails and fence staples, wind mills and pump repairing on short notice, the sharpless cream separator the best made today, the Crack a-jack line of samples for tailor made suits.

In the Household—As Hygeno is regularly used by thousands as a household remedy, disinfectant, germicide and insecticide the greatest cleanliness is exercised in its manufacture. For sale here.

H. Lau & Son.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion.
Display advertising 10 cents per inch.
Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

Hains, the murderer of Annis, has something new in the way of defense, called "circular insanity." We believe that disease is curable. How would it do to try a long piece of rope fixed in the proper manner on some of these insane murderers? Perhaps there would then be less insane.

The pure food law is causing the mail order houses a lot of grief. A couple of fellows at Hampton have recently got into trouble over selling tea which does not come up to the required test. People will in time come to know that the home dealer is the man who sells the reliable goods.

Senator A. B. Cummins, of Iowa, is making some of the old heads in the Senate sit up and take notice. He is giving voice to his views on the subject of the tariff, thus establishing a precedent in the American House of Lords. Of course a man isn't expected to open his head in that august body until he has served from six to ten years, but Senator Cummins has some decided opinions on the doings of one Aldrich and he is "speaking out in meeting" Dolliver is also getting into line on the wants of his constituents in the matter of tariff revision, so that Iowa is now well represented in the U. S. Senate.

Land Brings $145 an Acre

A farm near Odebolt was sold the other day for $145 an acre. H Hollander was the owner of the farm which consisted of 200 acres, and Oscar Anderson was the purchaser. A couple of days later, Mr. Anderson was offered $1000 for his bargain, but refused.

Hotel Orleans Burns

The Orleans Hotel at Spirit Lake, which was to be ready for occupancy on May 15th, burned to the ground Monday. The fire was caused by an overheated gasoline stove. A house maid was doing some cleaning preparatory to getting the house ready for the opening.

This is the second time this hotel has caught fire, the old hotel being burned two years ago. The loss to the building and furniture was well covered by insurance

The Register and Leader having observed that Jefferson walked on foot to the oath of office when he was inaugurated, moves the Cedar Falls Record to remark:

"If Jefferson really walked on foot he was carrying out a physiolcgical principle that obtains even in this day. It is hard for a fellow even in these days of advancement and inventions to walk any other way. To do otherwise would be on a par with vocal music by a brass band. We are glad that Jefferson and the other fathers of the republic walked on foot. We of a later generation are following gloriously in their footprints."

This is one on a Garner boy who has been coming down to see a Klemme girl for some time: He was making his usual call a few evenings ago and valiantly offered to brave the dangers of the back yard to bring a bucket of water. He got outside all right, set the bucket down and turned a crank vigorously for several minutes. His efforts met with utter failure and he returned to the house with the statement that the pump was out of order. On inspection it was found that he had set the bucket by a wash tub and had been busy turning a dilapidated clothes wringer.

A new drainage district is wanted by a large number of farmers in the vicinity of Ventura to the north and west of Clear Lake. This drainage district is to be asked for in a petition, the names of the signers of which are to be headed by N. J. Nelson.—Mason City Times.

Such a Suit as this for $8.00

THINK OF IT!

A new dark brown Suit, with fancy stripe, fancy cuffs and pocket flaps, all for $8.00. Yes, this is one of our

Suits for Hard-Wear

We have a long table piled high with just such Suits. We sell them at $5.00 $6.50

$8.00 $10.00

Look these over before you buy your Spring Suit. IT WILL PAY YOU.

Arthur Wellemeyer.

Where your Dollar does its duty.

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

LATEST STYLES AND BEST QUALITY

Are embodied in our fine line of

MILLINERY GOODS

To appreciate this fact, you must see our line of Pattern Hats and Trimmed Hats. Nice line of headwear for the Children. We have the best assortment ever shown in Klemme or the surrounding towns. Don't buy until you have seen our display. A first class trimmer who will be sure to please you.

A fine line of Corsets. Also Hair Rolls, Ladies' Waists, Collars, etc.

MRS. J. JOSTEN.

KLEMME MARKET.

.....	60 to 65c
.....	48 to 50c
.....	80 to 100
.....	55 to60 c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	6.30 to 6.70
.....	3.00 to 6.00

OCAL NEWS

h fruits, strawberries, Kluckhohn's.

Mrs. Josten's new mil- ad in this paper.

John Gruetzmacher was at Garner Saturday.

R. Bloom is having his r building re-shingled.

mine the Wisconsin bee handled by N. L. Palmer.

Marguerite Costello, of l, was in Klemme last Sat-

Becker, one of our val- bscribers, called on us eek.

Fuller, of Belmond, was st Saturday in his Inter l auto.

N. L. Palmer and Mrs. C. kow were Garner visitors turday.

R Bloom shipped one car s Sunday morning and one dnesday morning.

ufen Bros. came to the with a change of ad this Don't fail to read it.

p cool. Try our cool sum- rinks, ice cream and Sun The place is Kluckhohn's.

ial prices on Wheeler & and Singer Sewing Ma- at Frank Gruetzmacher's.

t overlook our last page week. Boys and girls read the article on the Contest on that page.

n Schneider, of Garner, n Klemme last Thursday way to Belmond. This acknowledges a pleasant Standard oil wagon was mme yesterday. This is a item, as the oil man has en able to make this town ny moons.

NTED—Having leased the eder pasture, I will be in a n to pasture your stock ming season.

Fred C. Griewe.

mme has the necessary ial with which to make a nd and a good, fast ball and these things all help ls making a live town. someone start something?

y for changes in ads should this office not later than ay of each week, and if possible. We like to me to set the ads in good which can't be done when ome in at the last minute.

ou think of buying a rug pay you to look over my which consists of Wilton s, Axminsters, Saxony nsters, Colonial Velvets russels made in sizes 6 x 9, 10 x 6, 9 x 12 and larger. for rugs G. F. Schuler.

Times last week received y of the Dumont (Iowa) al, published by G. A. Gris- at one time publisher of aper. The Journal appar- is enjoying prosperity. Its ns are well filled with well- s and good readable news. is a good fellow and we ad he is prospering.

Ice cream every day at Kluckhohn's.

For bee keepers supplies call on N. L. Palmer. 41-3

August Wenz was at Britt Monday and Tuesday.

Reports say that the small grain that is up is looking fine.

What is ten dollars worth? Read the StateSavings Bank ad.

The Northern Lumber Co. have a new ad on the first page. Read it.

FOR SALE—Choice Rhode Island eggs. Mrs. J. P. Larsen, Klemme, Iowa. 41-2

Parties owing me on account are requested to pay as soon as possible. Dr. Geo. Zinn. 40-2

P. M. Griesemer and Lawrence Larsen were transacting business at the county hub Monday.

I have just added to my stock a nice line of Lace Curtains at 75c up to $6.00 a pair at G. F. Schuler's. tf

Anyone wishing their lots in the cemetery graded up or taken care of make arrangements with Wm. Fuller. 2w*

Miss Vera Duffey, who teaches the Newberger school east of town, was a Garner visitor Saturday and visited here Sunday with Miss Avis Sage.

Our good friend Herman Stroemer found time from the strenuous work on the farm to make us a pleasant call last Monday, which we enjoyed very much.

Fern Suckow, Mattie and Martha Muehlmeier and Esther and Gail Bloom did a little "Weston" stunt last Saturday afternoon, walking up to Garner and returning on the evening train.

Ed. Schaefer, a prosperous Germantown farmer, sold a fine bunch of eleven months'-old hogs to W. R. Bloom this week. There were six of these famous mortgage lifters and brought Mr. Shefer $125.60.

Wm. Lau and family of Garner spent Sunday in Klemme at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Blank. Will is figuring on building some nice porches on his house in South Klemme, occupied by the Times family.

We made a mistake in names in one of our items last week, where we gave John Farmer credit for selling August Lau that fine bunch of fat steers. It was that good farmer, John Tanner, who made the sale. We hope to be able to get these names correctly when we get better acquainted.

C. C. Suckow is painting the exterior of the hotel building this week. This building has been repaired and thoroughly renovated inside and outside and will soon be opened to the public, so Klemme will soon have a good, clean up-to-date hotel. This will be a grand thing for the town and we hope Mr. Elder will do a satisfactory business, and we feel confident that he will

The Klemme High School ball team will cross bats with the Dows aggregation on the Klemme diamond next Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The boys are figuring on a good, close game, as the Dows team is playing fast ball. Turn out and root for the home team. To help meet the expense necessary in getting this game, an admission fee of 25 cents for gentlemen and 15 cents for ladies and children, will be charged.

Try those fine ice cream sodas and Sundaes at Kluckhohn's.

Read the new ad of the State Savings Bank on the first page.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schaper were down from Garner yesterday.

Fishing is now the popular pastime with a number of our people.

Don't forget the ball game Saturday afternoon. Encourage the boys with your presence.

The Times wants correspondents to write the news from all our neighborhood points Call and see us.

Mrs. C. H. Mann who has been visiting with her son and family, left for her home at Garner Friday.

Mrs. Arnold Sr., and her daughter, Mrs. L. Larson and children were Garner visitors last week Friday.

C. J. Schneider and M. Hyde, of Garner, whizzed through town Monday morning in Charley's gasoline go-devil.

L. Alberts, one of our good subscribers, called on us last Thursday and dropped the price of a year's subscription in our till.

Mrs. Gittie M. Sweigard and Miss Church of Goodell, visited at the home of A. R White and family east of town Friday and Saturday.

If the weather continues favorable, the majority of our Hancock county farmers will be planting corn the latter part of this week.

Miss Rose Jordon, teacher in our public school, left Friday for Spencer, Iowa, called there on account of the sudden sickness of her sister.

As May 30th comes on Sunday this year, Monday, the 31st, has been recommended to be observed as Memorial Day. We fail to see why Sunday would not be a most appropriate day for the observance, but most of the towns are planning to honor the soldier dead this year on the 31st.

Rev. Wessel left last evening for Kirkwood, Missouri, with Mr. Wm. Brandt, who will take treatment in the Osteopath Infirmary at that place. Mr. Brandt has been a sufferer with a spinal trouble. We sincerely hope he may find relief and eventually be restored to good health.

Much credit is due those in charge of the cemetery for the great improvements which have been and are being made in the same. A cemetery well kept up and taken care of speaks well for a community. Wm Fuller has charge of the grounds and is setting out evergreens, grading up the lots and otherwise beautifying the premises, and he is doing the work well.

We dislike very much to dun our readers through the columns of this paper, and we hope it will not be necessary to do so very often, but the fact of the matter is that our subscription list shows that a number of our readers are delinquent and we kindly ask those who owe us to call and see us as soon as convenient. We have purchased the list as it stands and as we have been to considerable expense in getting here and getting settled, we need the money that is due us on subscription. If you will attend to this at once it will help us to give you a better paper and enable us to meet our obligations as they become due.

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

German M. E. Church Items

Grace Blank is assisting Mrs. H. Griffen with her work this spring.

Rev. C. A. Schuldt was in Klemme Tuesday, delivering nursery stock for Mr. Dueseberg.

Rev. W. V, Schlung is kept busy in Germantown this week. There ought to be "music in the air" when he gets all the instruments tuned and cleaned.

The Klemme "Standard Bearers" Society will meet with Hulda and Esther Gruetzmacher, Friday evening for their monthly missionary study.

Rev. Wessel preached in Giard and Pleasant Ridge last Sunday. Monday he canvassed in the interest of the college endowment, returning Tuesday evening.

The third quarterly meeting for Klemme and Germantown will be held Saturday and Sunday in Klemme. Rev. W. H. Rolfing, the district superintendent, will conduct the same.

Rev. W. Berg came up from West Grove, Iowa, last week and got Mrs. Berg who has been staying with her mother several months. She has improved a little, but is still quite helpless. The Rev. has charge of four appointments and a promising field.

There were two men in town last week who pretended to be very religious, at any rate they were profuse with their shouting. But instead of being pleasant and winsome, as a Christian ought to be, they acted repulsive and abusive in many homes Tney tried to sell books and a paper, and as many of our people would not buy, they felt it their duty to shake the dust from their garments and pronounce a curse on our village. They said the people of Klemme were nearly all going to hell. As near as we could find out they are Mormons with which this country is flooded, and yet many of our people do not detect them and ignorantly patronize this dangerous octopus of our republic.

Anna Griewe closed her work as teacher in No. 7, German township last Friday. That she has given good satisfaction and endeared herself, not only to her pupils, but parents as well, was well attested in various ways. She had arranged a picnic for the last day, which will long be remembered by those present. A four course dinner was served by the older ones, and the little ones—well, they went at it like little pickaninnies after melons. The afternoon was spent in playing games, and it would be difficult to say who played the hardest and enjoyed it the most, the little ones or the parents. To wind up, ice cream, cake and coffee were served. Those present as visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stille, Donald and Elvira, Mrs. E. H. Schuldt, Lydia and Geneva, Mrs. W. J Schuldt, Minnie Lau, Friede Schuldt, Mrs. H. Griewe, Owen Nuehring, Cyrus and Opal Griewe, Mr. and Mrs. J. E Stille and Andrew Wellemeyer.

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to night calls.

F. C. GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Highest cash price paid for hides. Home rendered pure lard a specialty.
We solicit your patronage.

RESTAURANT
—We have a complete line of—
Home Made Bakery Goods, Candies, Cigars, Tobaccos, Soft Drinks, Fruits and Canned Goods.
Try our Van Camp's Sterilized Evaporated Milk.
Lunches and Meals at all Hours
A. Kirkwood & Son

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
☞ Eyes Tested Free.

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
☞ Call in

Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition
This year you can make the trip you have had in mind for so long—a trip to the Pacific Coast. Go now, while rates are low and routes arranged so you can see the most at lowest cost, including the great exposition at
SEATTLE, WASH.
June 1 to October 16, 1909
It covers an area of 250 acres, located on two beautiful lakes, overlooked by snow-capped mountains, and will interestingly exhibit the wonderful development and possibilities of Alaska and the countries of the Pacific. Very low fares daily during the summer. Let me tell you how comfortably and conveniently the trip is made
Thro' Scenic Colorado
AND
Yellowstone Park
VIA
Rock Island-Frisco Lines
Ask for descriptive folder.
L. O. TURGASEN, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher

KLENNOSE - - - IOWA

Other Washington papers are so bright that it is a wonder the Congressional Record doesn't speed up a little.

Florida is flourishing in spite of occasional spring freezes. A cold March induces tourists to stay a month longer.

"Green hats for greenhorns," suggests an Indiana paper. Whoever wears a green hat and the new green shoes will be a devil of a fellow.

A slump in diamonds is predicted. If agreeable to Her, you'd better wait a few days and you may pick up a real bargain in an engagement solitaire.

Elbert Hubbard suggests that "for a whole year we let the heathen rest." But maybe those Newport swells would object to no mention whatever for 12 months.

A new fraternity is known as "The Amalgamated Order of Moose." From a gastronomic point of view, an amalgamated moose might properly be called hash.

An interesting suggestion that the continental powers might induce Great Britain to cut down her navy by reducing their own. But somewhat academic, eh?

Observers declare that wild geese, when they fly overhead nowadays, do not honk so much as formerly. It may be that they dislike the idea of being mistaken for automobiles.

A Maryland expert says that not one man in a thousand who eats terrapin knows whether it is the genuine diamond backed article or not. Then what difference does it make?

Some English statesmen are in favor of taxing bachelors in order to appease the suffragettes. We were under the impression that some of the English suffragettes were married.

Some English statesmen are in favor of taxing bachelors in order to appease the suffragettes. We were under the impression that some of the English suffragettes were married.

Since other British possessions have set the example we may expect to hear almost any day now that William Waldorf Astor has put a Dreadnought in the slot and drawn out a peerage.

Atlanta Constitution: Countries in search of a new constitution are informed that we have an old one which, when taken from the top sheif and thoroughly dusted, is a model for the world.

Surely the burglars have not yet cleaned up things so thoroughly that they are now driven to the extremity of stealing things so cumbersome and hard to dispose of as horses and vehicles.

As to the Boston woman who sued her husband for divorce because he threw a pie at her, there may be two sides to the question. Possibly it was a cherry pie of her own baking, with the pits in it.

A Georgia court rules that to call a man a liar in the south is a breach of the peace. As Washington practically is in the south it would seem that a certain distinguished citizen has got away just in time.

Government experts have been testing a rifle provided with electric lights for night work. Soon the luxurious soldier will refuse to fight unless his weapon be provided also with consoles and janitor service.

Lieut. Shackleton has named a south pole mountain peak after Queen Alexandra of England. But if he expects her to traipse down there to unfurl a flag or break a bottle of champagne, he will be disappointed.

Thirteen men were killed in Maine by deer hunters last season. It is only just to say for the hunters that none of them has made any complaint concerning the ammunition that was wasted when the mistakes were made.

At last the hired girl, butt of heartless generations of jokers as she has been, is getting her innings and can throw her proud "defi" at the chorus girl. A kitchen maid in New York has just fallen heir to a fortune of a million dollars.

A congressman is sending the Congressional Record to the public schools in his home town, hoping in that way to induce the pupils to take an interest in the doings of congress. He is counting his readers, too, just as the baseball season is opening.

When Gen. Booth establishes the Salvation Army in Russia it is hard to see how he is going to avoid the organization of a few good active Cossack regiments to bring the thing to the attention of the plain people in the way they are accustomed to

HER INFINITE VARIETY

By BRAND WHITLOCK

ILLUSTRATIONS BY RAY WALTERS

COPYRIGHT 1907 BY BOBBS-MERRILL CO.

SYNOPSIS.

Senator Morley Vernon's visit with his fiancee was interrupted by a call from his political boss at the state capital. Both regretted it, the girl more than he, because she had arranged to attend a dinner that evening with him. She said she yearned for a national office for him.

CHAPTER II.

When Vernon went into the senate that Tuesday morning and saw the red rose lying on his desk he smiled, and picking it up, raised it eagerly to his face. But when he glanced about the chamber and saw that a rose lay on every other desk, his smile was suddenly lost in a stare of amazement. Once or twice, perhaps, flowers had been placed by constituents on the desks of certain senators, but never had a floral distribution, at once so modest and impartial, been made before. Several senators, already in their seats, saw the check this impartiality gave Vernon's vanity, and they laughed. Their laughter was of a tone with the tinkle of the crystal prisms of the chandeliers, chiming in the breeze that came through the open windows.

The lieutenant governor was just ascending to his place. He dropped his gavel to the sounding-board of his desk.

"The senate will be in order," he said.

The chaplain rose, and the hum of voices in the chamber ceased. Then, while the senators stood with bowed heads, Vernon saw the card that lay on the desk beside the rose. Two little jewels of the moisture that still sparkled on the rose's petals shone on the glazed surface of the card. Vernon read it where it lay.

"Will the Hon. Morley Vernon please to wear this rose to-day as a token of his intention to support and vote for house joint resolution No. 19 proposing an amendment to section one, article seven of the constitution?"

The noise in the chamber began again at the chaplain's "Amen."

"New way to buttonhole a man, eh?" said Vernon to Bull Burns, who had the seat next Vernon's. "What's it all about, anyway?"

Vernon took up his printed synopsis of bills and resolutions.

"Oh, yes," he said, speaking as much to himself as to Burns; "old man Ames's resolution." Then he turned to the calendar. There it was—house joint resolution No. 19. He glanced at Burns again. Burns was fastening his rose in his buttonhole.

"So you're for it, eh?" he said.

"To hell with it," Burns growled in the gruff voice that spoke for the First district. In trying to look down at his own adornment he screwed his fat neck, fold on fold, into his low collar and then, with a grunt of satisfaction, lighted a morning cigar.

"But—" Vernon began, surprises multiplying. He looked about the chamber. The secretary was reading the journal of the preceding day and the senators were variously occupied, reading newspapers, writing letters, or merely smoking; some were gathered in little groups, talking and laughing. But they all wore their roses. Vernon might have concluded that house joint resolution No. 19 was safe, had it not been for the inconsistency of Burns, though inconsistency was nothing new in Burns. Vernon ventured once more with his neighbor:

"Looks as if the resolution were as good as adopted, doesn't it?"

But Burns cast a glance of pity at him, and then growled in half-humorous contempt. The action stung Vernon. Burns seemed to resent his presence in the senate as he always resented the presence of Vernon's kind in politics.

The rose still lay on Vernon's desk; he was the only one of the 51 senators of Illinois that had not put his rose on. He opened his bill file and turned up house joint resolution No. 19. He read it carefully, as he felt a senator should before making up his mind on such an important, even revolutionary measure. He remembered that at the time it had been adopted in the house every one had laughed; no one, with the exception of its author, Dr. Ames, had taken it seriously.

Ames was known to be a crank; he was referred to as "Doc" Ames, usually as "Old Doc" Ames. He had introduced more strange bills and resolutions than any member at that session; bills to curb the homeopathists, bills to annihilate English sparrows, bills to prohibit cigarettes, bill to curtail the liquor traffic, and now this resolution providing for the submission of an amendment to the constitution that would extend the electoral franchise to women.

His other measures had received little consideration; he never got any of them out of committee. But on the female suffrage resolution he had been obdurate, and when—with a majority so bare that sick men had to be borne on cots into the house now and then to pass its measures—the party had succeeded, after weeks of agony, in framing an apportionment bill that satisfied every one, Dr. Ames had seen his chance. He had flatly refused to vote for the reapportionment act unless his woman-suffrage resolution were first adopted.

It was useless for the party managers to urge upon him the impossibility of providing the necessary two-thirds' vote; Ames said he could get the remaining votes from the other side. And so the steering committee had given the word to put it through for him. Then the other side, seeing a chance to place the majority in an embarrassing attitude before the people, either as the proponents or the opponents of such a radical measure—whichever way it went in the end—had been glad enough to furnish the additional votes. The members of the steering committee had afterward whispered it about that the resolution was to die in the senate. Then every one, especially the women of Illinois, had promptly forgotten the measure.

As Vernon thought over it all he picked up the rose again, then laid it down, and idly picked up the card. Turning it over in his hand he saw that its other side was engraved, and he read:

MARIA BURLEY GREENE
Attorney and Counselor at Law.
The Rookery Chicago

Then he knew; it was the work of the woman lawyer. Vernon had heard of her often; he had never seen her. He gave a little sniff of disgust.

The senate was droning along on the order of reports from standing committees, and Vernon, growing tired of the monotony, rose and sauntered back to the lobby in search of company more congenial than that of the gruff Burns. He carried the rose as he went, raising it now and then to enjoy its cool petals and its fragrance. On one of the leather divans that stretch themselves invitingly under the tall windows on each side of the senate chamber sat a woman, and about her was a little group of men, bending deferentially. As he passed within easy distance one of the men saw him and beckoned. Vernon went over to them.

"Miss Greene," said Senator Martin, "let me present Senator Vernon of Chicago."

Miss Greene gave him the little hand that looked yet smaller in its glove of black suede. He bowed low to conceal a surprise that had sprung incautiously to his eyes. Instead of the thin, short-haired, spectacled old maid that had always, in his mind, typified Maria Burley Greene, here was a young woman who apparently conformed to every fashion, though her beauty and distinction might have made her independent of conventions.

The Femininity of It Touched Him.

Physically she was too nearly perfect to give at once an impression of aristocracy; but it was her expression that charmed; it was plain that her intellectuality was of the higher degrees.

As Vernon possessed himself he was able to note that this surprising young woman was clad in a black traveling gown that fitted her perfectly. From her spring hat down to the toes of her boots there was nothing in her attire that was mannish, but she was of an exquisite daintiness wholly feminine and alluring.

All these superficial things faded into their proper background when, at last, his eyes looked full in her face. Reddish brown hair that doubtless had been combed into some resembiance to the prevailing fashion of the pompadour, had fallen in a natural part on the right side and lightly swept a brow not too high, but white and thoughtful. Her other features—the delicate nose, the full lips, the perfect teeth, the fine chin—all were lost in the eyes that looked frankly at him. As he gazed he was conscious that he feared to hear her speak; surely her voice would betray her masculine quality.

She had seated herself again now made a movement that sugge a drawing aside of her skirts to m a place for some one at her side, then she spoke.

"Will you sit down, Senator non?" she said, with a scrupulou gard for title unusual in a woman must make a convert of Senator non, you know," she smiled on other men about her. Her accent plied that this conversion was of utmost importance. The other me whom she seemed to be quite s evidently felt themselves under compulsion of withdrawing, and fell back in reluctant retreat.

CHAPTER III.

The surprise had leaped to Ver eyes again at the final impressio perfection made by her voice, and surprise changed to a regret of and irreclaimable opportunity he reflected that he had lived for y near this woman lawyer and yet n had seen her once in all that When Miss Greene turned to look in the face again, after the of were gone, Vernon grew sudd bashful, like a big boy. He felt face flame hotly. He had been m tating some drawing-room speech; had already turned in his mind a p ty sentence in which there was a creet reference to Portia; Vernon just at the age for classical allusi But when he saw her blue eyes f on him and read the utter seriousn in them he knew that complim would all be lost.

"I am one of your constituents, ator Vernon," she began, "and I down, frankly, lobbying for this r lution."

"And we both," he replied, "ar believe, members of the Cook co bar. Strange, isn't it, that two cago lawyers should have to wait til they are in Springfield to meet

"Not altogether," she said. "I not so very strange—my practice almost wholly confined to office wo I am more of a counselor than a rister. I have not often appeared court; in fact I prefer not to do s am—well, just a little timid in part of the work."

The femininity of it touched h He might have told her that he not often appear in court himself, he was new enough at the bar to h to practice the dissimulation of young professional man. He indul himself in the temptation to allow to go undeceived, though with a p he remembered that her practice, f all that he had heard, must be m more lucrative than his. Somethin the pretty embarrassment she felt fore courts and juries was evide on her in this her first appearance the senate, but she put it away; breast rose with the deep breath resolution she drew, and she strai ened to look him once more in eyes.

"But about this resolution, Sen Vernon; I must not take up too m of your time. If you will give your objections to it perhaps I may able to explain them away. should very much like to have y support."

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

To Save Horses from Fire.

When a horse is released from stall during a fire, says a techni paper, he will not leave the stable, the stall is the only place in which believes himself to be safe. A n patented device, which consists o pipe running through the stall to outside of the stable, is designed cure this. In case of fire a turn o handle brings a hose nozzle into po tion and a stream of water pours o the head and shoulders of the ho which drives him into the gangw from which it becomes a comparati ly easy matter to lead him into street.

Safe Rules for Living.

We ought always to deal justly, only to those who are just to us, likewise with those who endeavor injure us. And this too, for fear by rendering them evil for evil should fall into the same vice. So ought likewise to have friendship, t is to say, humanity and good will all, who are of the same nature w us.—Hierocles.

Care of Trees in Paris.

There are 85,840 trees in Paris, each tree has lot number, age, hist and condition recorded in the books the Hotel de Ville. The appropriati for this department is 450,000 franc year. The work could not be d for any such sum had it not been thoroughly done in the beginning the reign of Napoleon III.—Techni World Magazine.

Dead Dog.

"What's become of your dog? haven't seen him for a long time."

"You notice what a cold I've got."

"Yes, but what's that—"

"Well, a lot of people told me thi to do for my cold, and I was w enough to try 'em on him first."

Dreadful Possibility.

One day small Elmer observed f funerals pass the house. After t last one had passed he said: "Mamm if we don't hurry up and die heav will be so crowded we can't get in."

END IN SIGHT

ial Session May Go On All Through Summer

IFF BILL RESPONSIBLE

e Senate is Aroused and the Tariff Will Get a Most Thorough Examination.

ashington, D. C., May 10.—As the bill situation stands at the end hree weeks of senate discussion, scarcely any progress made on dules, it is generally predicted it will be July 1 before the meas- becomes a law.

some well informed quarters it ven predicted that it will be the dle of July or August 1, before special session ends. Senator ton has predicted it would be ful- August 1 before the bill would be ed. Senator Lodge said he would satisfied to get away from Wash ton July 1. Senator Cummins umber and others talked in a sim- vein.

ithout question the speeches made Senators Dolliver, Cummins, Clapp stow, Beveridge and others have de trouble for Senator Aldrich and followers. They have stirred pub- sentiment and aroused the news- ers, including republican organs, h as the New York Tribune, Phil- lphia Press and others that might named, are attacking the bill and mending the attacks made on it the senators from Iowa and other stern states. Letters are begin- g to pour in, in protest to various mbers of the senate. Some sena- s who have taken little part in sideration of the bill thus far, are ng encouraged to demand thor- gh scrutiny of it by the attacks de on it this week.

Among western senators there is a position to give Aldrich credit for niscience. This has been pretty ectually disproved. He was led into end of pitfalls as to the woolen d cotton schedules, and this fact ll intensify the fight on those sched s when they are reached.

ND RELIEF TO ADANA

rkish Government States that It Will Punish Leaders of Massacre.

Constantinople, May 10.—The gov- nment is taking hold of relief work Adana province with vigor. It s been announced that $10,000 had en sent there. The grand vizier d Rerid Pasha, the minister of the terior, received a deputation of the rmenian clergy and laity Saturday. he delegation was headed by Aran- i Pasha, the representative of the triarchate, who was assured that e government would inquire thor- ghly into the Adana massacres and verely punish those guilty of incit- g them. The minister said the in- estigation would be conducted by a ilitary court. Ferid Pasha told the legation that eight persons had en sent to Adana and several thers had gone there from Constan- nople.

A number of Armenians met in con- rence here yesterday to consider hat steps might be taken for the re- ef of their fellow countrymen.

The Ayricultural bank has arrang- d to loan $75,000 without interest to he farmers of Adana to aid them in lanting new crops.

LYER WRECKED; 1 HURT

rain Going Fifty Miles An Hour When it Plunged Through Broken Rails.

Springfield, Mo., May 10.—One man as killed and five injured early Sun- ay when the southeastern limited, n the St. Louis & San Francisco oad left the tracks. The engine was verturned, and Engineer Charles Hains of Fort Scott was killed.

The injured:

M. A. Weider, mail clerk, Kansas City, Kans.

E. T. Coffman, fireman, Fort Scott.

Perry Posey, Kansas City, Kans.

H. C. Hoepper, Kansas City, Kans.

The train was going fifty miles an hour at the time of the accident, which was caused by a heavy rain washing the ballast from under 500 feet of track.

Earthquakes Continue.

Rome, May 10.—Since the great earthquake of December scarcely a day has passed without shocks, more or less strong, being felt at Messina, Reggio and surrounding territory, and all sections of the Calabrian earth quake zone. There have been shocks strong enough to destroy buildings. Tottering walls have been overthrown but there has practically been no loss of life

AFTER ABDUL'S GOLD.

IT IS RUMORED THAT MUCH TREASURE IS BURIED IN THE SULTAN'S PALACE.

WHITLA KIDNAPER CONVICTED

MRS. BOYLE'S TRIAL FOLLOWS THAT OF HUSBAND.

Verdict Quickly Rendered in Man's Case and Woman Now Faces Jury.

Mercer, Pa.—James Boyle, charged with kidnaping "Billy" Whitla, was convicted Thursday, after a trial lasting but a few hours. No defense was made and the jury was out but a few minutes. The penalty is from one year to life imprisonment. Mrs. Boyle was immediately placed on trial, charged with aiding and abetting the kidnaping.

The first witness called by the state in Mrs. Boyle's case was Miss Ella Boyle, a sister of James Boyle. Apparently from the line of questioning the prosecution wanted to prove by her that the kidnaping conspiracy was formed while Mrs. Boyle was visiting in Sharon with her husband and that she was implicated in it.

Mrs. Boyle took a prominent part in the selection of her jury, prompting her attorneys in numerous cases and evidencing a preference for young, unmarried jurors.

As she was being taken from the courthouse to the jail at the close of court yesterday, Mrs. Boyle was surrounded by a crowd of angry women, who threatened to attack her.

That Boyle's trial came to such an abrupt ending, immediately after the state had rested, was due to the fact that so strong a case had been made against him. From the night before the abduction when he was seen in Sharon, till the time of his arrest in Cleveland almost every movement he made was testified to by one or more witnesses. A man who hired him a horse and buggy, another who saw Boyle driving with "Billy" in the buggy, the barber who saw the two together and shaved Boyle's mustache off, train and electric railway conductors, who saw the couple on the way to Cleveland and identified them in court, all told stories which fitted in perfectly with that of "Billy" Whitla and left no doubt as to the part Boyle had taken in the case. The penalty is from one year to a life sentence in the penitentiary. Sentence has not been pronounced yet.

Plot to Steal Governor's Son.

Oakland, Cal.—A plot to kidnap the eight-year-old son of Gov. Gillette was unearthed at San Quentin prison when it was found that J. B. Clifton, one of the most notorious criminals in the state, who is serving time for attempting the life of Detective Hodkins in Oakland, had completed arrangements with a confederate on the outside to steal the boy and hold him for ransom.

The price of the lad's return to his father was to have been Clifton's pardon.

Celebrates Discovery of Gold.

Denver, Col.—Colorado celebrated Friday with fetes in Denver and other cities the fiftieth anniversary of the discovery of gold that started the great Pike's Peak stampede of fortune-seekers in 1859. The discovery was made by George W. Jackson near the present site of Idaho Springs, and the company he organized began the development of the first paying deposits 50 years ago. On May 6, 59 years ago the first recorded find of gold in the Rocky mountains was made in the district of Clear creek by Capt. John H. Gregory, a Georgia miner.

AWFUL HORROR AT TARSUS.

Soldiers Aid in Slaughter of Christians by Armenians—Adana Still Lawless.

Adana.—Adana is still lawless. More people have been killed in the city. There are 30,000 dead in the Adana provinces as a result of the massacres, and 35,000 homeless and penniless refugees are wandering in the vilayet.

The deaths in Adana city alone are estimated at 6,500.

Adana is terrorized by 4,000 soldiers, who are looting, shooting and burning. No respect is paid to foreign properties. Both the French schools have been destroyed, and it is feared that the American school, commercial and missionary interests in Adana are totally ruined.

Tarsus, Asiatic Turkey.—Authentic details of the atrocities committed by the fanantical Mohammedans in the villages and farms in this district are now coming in to Tarsus with sickening abundance.

At least 10,000 persons lost their lives in this province, and some estimates place the total casualties at 25,000. Villages like Osmanieh, Bazsche, Hamadieh, Kara, Kristian, Keoy and Kezolook were actually wiped out. Each of these places had populations of from 500 to 600 people.

Marash, Asiatic Turkey.—A letter received here by messenger from Harni says hat every man there has been killed. Only women, girls and boys under ten years of age have been left alive. The churches and houses were plundered and most of them were burned.

GET $7,000 BY FRAUD.

Illinois Couple Alleged to Have Wrongfully Obtained Part of Estate in New York.

New York.—How a man and woman from Hamburg, Ill., are alleged to have fooled the supreme court and the state attorney general into paying them $7,000 in the belief they were half brother and half-sister of John Edward Hughes, who died intestate in the Flatbush asylum, November, 1902, was revealed in motion papers submitted to Justice Seabury in the supreme court.

Hughes left $26,000, and it was not known that he had a living relative. The man and woman from Illinois turned up and demanded the estate. They were in a fair way to get all of it when, after an investigation, James T. Williamson declared they were not related to Hughes and that relatives of Hughes live in Newark, N. J., and in Ireland.

Federation of Musicians Meets.

Minneapolis, Minn.—Nearly three hundred delegates were present Monday when the fourteenth annual meeting of the American Federation of Musicians opened. Joseph Weber of Cincinnati, the president, was in the chair. The convention will last six days. The federation is composed of 510 locals in the United States and Canada, with a membership of about 52,000 professional musicians.

Mothers' Day Celebrated.

Chicago.—Sunday was set aside officially in many states as "Mothers' day," and in the cities and towns innumerable mass meetings were held at which collections were taken up for the relief of destitute mothers. In Chicago thousands of men and women wore white carnations.

AN INTERESTING PAINT TEST

There is a very simple and interesting chemical test by which to detect impurity in paint materials. Thousands and thousands of people, all over the country, are making this test. It is a sure way to safeguard against the many adulterated white leads which are on the market. Any one can make the test—all that is needed is a simple little instrument which may be had free by writing National Lead Company, 1902 Trinity Building, New York, and asking for House-owner's Painting Outfit No. 49. The outfit includes also a set of color schemes for exterior or interior painting, or both, if you wish, and a book of specifications. No houseowner should make any arrangements for painting till he gets this outfit.

One can't expect a satisfactory painting job without pure white lead. There is a way to make sure you're getting a pure white lead—without testing it. See that the keg bears National Lead Company's famous Dutch Boy Painter trademark, which is a positive guarantee of purity. Your dealer probably has this white lead. If not let National Lead Company know.

VARIETY.

Hewitt—I've been pinched for money lately.

Jewitt—Well, women have different ways of getting it. My wife kisses me when she wants any.

ECZEMA COVERED HIM.

Itching Torture Was Beyond Words—Slept Only from Sheer Exhaustion—Relieved in 24 Hours and Cured by Cuticura in a Month.

"I am seventy-seven years old, and some years ago I was taken with eczema from head to foot. I was sick for six months and what I suffered tongue could not tell. I could not sleep day or night because of that dreadful itching; when I did sleep it was from sheer exhaustion. I was one mass of irritation; it was even in my scalp. The doctor's medicine seemed to make me worse and I was almost out of my mind. I got a set of the Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent. I used them persistently for twenty-four hours. That night I slept like an infant, the first solid night's sleep I had had for six months. In a month I was cured. W. Harrison Smith, Mt. Kisco, N. Y., Feb. 3, 1908."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Not His Business.

"Pow'ful fertile country daoun theh in Texas," said the colonel. "Yes, seh! Why, seh, I know spots daoun theh where the trees grow so close togetheh that you-all couldn't shove youh hand between theh trunks. And game, seh! Why, seh, I've seen Fehginyuh deeah in those same forests with antlehs eight feet spread! Yes, seh!"

At this point some meddlesome idiot asked the colonel how such deer ever managed to get their antlers between such tree trunks.

"Thet, seh," said the colonel, drawing himself up with squelching dignity, "is theh business!"—Everybody's Magazine.

Use Allen's Foot-Ease.

It is the only relief for Swollen Smarting, Tired, Aching, Hot, Sweating Feet, Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. Cures while you walk. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Don't accept any substitute. Sample sent FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

A Double Lack.

"My story has no unnecessary words," said the budding author proudly.

"No, it hasn't," agreed the critic, "but it hasn't any necessary ones either!"

Choose between WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT and indigestion. Choose between WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT and indigestion!

Two of a Kind.

"Yes," said the farmer, "I get my living from the soil."

"Same here," rejoined the washlady.

SORE EYES, weak, inflamed, red, watery and swollen eyes, use PETTIT'S EYE SALVE, 25c. All druggists or Howard Bros., Buffalo, N. Y.

That it is necessary for a man to drink liquor is a theory that will not hold water.

Look for the spear or you won't like the flavor. Insist on WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT.

To make the most of the figure 6 turn it bottom upward.

The new RUSS BLUE is much the best. Insist that your grocer gives you this brand. Refuse imitations.

Some roses are known by the cheeks they decorate.

A CURE FOR FITS.

The Treatment is to Accomplish What Science Has Been Struggling to Attain for Centuries.

The intense interest that has been manifested throughout the country by the wonderful cures that are being accomplished daily by epilepticide still continues. It is really surprising the vast number of people who have already been cured of fits and nervousness. In order that everybody may have a chance to test the medicine, large trial bottles, valuable literature, History of Epilepsy and testimonials, will be sent by mail absolutely free to all who write to the Dr. May Laboratory, 548 Pearl Street, New York City.

The Great Necessity.

She laid down her Ruskin wearily.

"It says here," she mused, "that 'man should resemble a river.' I wonder what that means. Do you know, dear?"

Dear looked up from a batch of bills.

"Sure I do," he growled. "It means that you don't amount to shucks these days unless you own a couple of banks."

The way Hamlins Wizard Oil soothes and allays all aches, pains, soreness, swelling and inflammation is a surprise and delight to the afflicted. It is simply great to relieve all kinds of pain.

Nothing But the Truth.

Attorney (much baffled by the answers of an Irish witness)—Well, you're a nice sort of a fellow, you are!

The Witness—Shure, an' I'd say the same of you, sir, only I'm on me oath.

Send postcard request to-day for sample package of Garfield Tea, Nature's herb remedy for constipation, liver and kidney diseases. Garfield Tea Co., Brooklyn, N. Y

And if every mother's son of us made a strenuous effort to reach the top there wouldn't be such a crowd at the bottom.

How refreshing the air is! It's full of WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT—fragrance of fresh mint leaves.

A wise man never boasts of his wisdom. He leaves that to his press agent.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle

It's better to fight and run away than it is to stick it out and pay a fine.

Good morning, WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT! Goodbye, indigestion!

The harder it rains the more soft water we get.

ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Gardiner, Maine.—"I have been a great sufferer from organic troubles and a severe female weakness. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but I could not bear to think of it. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash—and was entirely cured after three months' use of them."—Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 39, Gardiner, Me.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial.

This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and renewer of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills, and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

This Trade-mark Eliminates All Uncertainty

in the purchase of paint materials. It is an absolute guarantee of purity and quality. For your own protection, see that it is on the side of every keg of white lead you buy.

NATIONAL LEAD COMPANY
1902 Trinity Building, New York

Just Dust it on the Sore.
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls while at work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bottom and Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid by Mail. Money Back if Not Satisfied.
The REDSTAR HEALING POWDER CO. (25c. and 50c. Cans). GARNER, IOWA.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.
Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C

HOLLISTER'S
Rocky Mountain Tea Nuggets
A Busy Medicine for Busy People.
Brings Golden Health and Renewed Vigor.
A specific for Constipation, Indigestion, Liver and Kidney troubles, Pimples, Eczema, Impure Blood, Bad Breath, Sluggish Bowels, Headache and Backache. Its Rocky Mountain Tea in tablet form, 35 cents a box. Genuine made by HOLLISTER DRUG COMPANY, Madison, Wis.
GOLDEN NUGGETS FOR SALLOW PEOPLE

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS
WITH Dr. King's New Discovery
FOR COUGHS COLDS
PRICE 50c & $1.00. Trial Bottle Free
AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES.
GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:40 p. m.
82 ..... 2:50 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:35 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

L. O. Turgasen, Agent

There are more McCall Patterns sold in the United States than of any other make of patterns. This is on account of their style, accuracy and simplicity.

McCall's Magazine (The Queen of Fashion) has more subscribers than any other Ladies' Magazine. One year's subscription (12 numbers) costs 50 cents. Latest number, 5 cents. Every subscriber gets a McCall Pattern Free. Subscribe today.

Lady Agents Wanted. Handsome premiums or liberal cash commission. Pattern Catalogue (of 600 designs) and Premium Catalogue (showing 400 premiums) sent free. Address THE McCALL CO., New York

H. C. LAU

DEALER IN

Klemme - - Iowa

THE CHILDREN LIKE IT
KENNEDY'S LAXATIVE COUGH SYRUP

CONDITIONS OF BOYS' AND GIRLS' CORN GROWING CONTEST

Under Direction of the Extension Department and Farm Crops Department of Iowa State College.

Eligibility—Open to any boy or girl in Iowa eighteen years of age or under.

Rules of Contest—

1. Secure ten ears of good corn, either (a) Through our Departments from the best breeders in the state. Price of ten ears, 95 cents, or (b) From your own corn or that of your neighbor.

2. Measure ears according to instructions and blanks which we will furnish.

3. Plant part of each ear in a separate row. (Instructions to follow.)

4. Count and record the stand in June. (Instructions and blanks to follow, June 1st.)

5. Count and record the stand, also the smutted stalks, barren stalks and suckers appearing in each row. (Instructions and blanks to follow in September.)

If you desire to take part in this movement and enter the contest according to the above rules; sign one of the blanks, and return same at once to B. W. Crossley, Ames, Iowa.

The value of this contest to the Iowa boy and girl.

1. An opportunity to obtain pure bred seed from the best corn breeders in your section of Iowa. A chance to start right.

2. A comparative test of each ear as to yield, quality and maturity.

3. A chance to grow samples which can be exhibited at County Contests and at the State Junior Corn Show at Ames in January, 1910.

4. An opportunity to study corn under the following subjects, on which we will send material at least monthly during the season.

(a) The individual ear test
(b) Preparation of seed bed and planting
(c) Cultivation
(d) Insects
(e) Weed
(f) Botanical study of corn plant
(g) Harvesting and storing
(h) Selecting a sample for show

ORDER BLANK

Send to my address 10 ears of (variety)..... .....corn which has been tested. Upon receipt of sample I will remit the amount of 95 cents for same to B. W. Crossley, Ames, Iowa. Further I agree to follow instructions, plant each ear in a separate row, keep a record of the results and make a report of same on blanks to be sent me for the purpose.

Signed.....Age.....
Town..... ..... R. F. D.....
County .....

I have 10 ears of corn which I believe are good enough to enter in this contest. I therefore pledge myself to follow instructions in planting these ears in individual rows, keeping records of the results and making a report of same on blanks to be sent me for the purpose.

Signed.....Age.....
Town.....R. F. D.....
County .....

(Fill out the blank and return entire sheet.)

An observant ex records his version of a few changes of the barn dance he witnessed at a recent sassiety event: "You take the girl by both hands across the small of the back and h'p-pity-hop three times. When you give a swift kick at the chanderlier but don't quite hit it. Then you whirl around, break away and dance a little by your lonesome then work up along side and at the proper moment clinch with a half Nelson hold and a hop like a small boy with a stone bruise on his heel.—Ex.

A tall girl in town has a short beau, and also a new spring hat. The other day they sat down in the depot waiting for a train and soon becoming confidential began to "snuggle up." He stretched his neck to get nearer, she drew her neck in for the same reason, spectators watched the scene with interest. The hat began to descend and incompass him., a couple of titters, another snuggle, and the thing was done. The hat completely enfolded them. One rim was against the wall in the corner, the other part rested on her lap. they were behind it. "lost to sight" but that they were alive was manifest by their breathing and the little snickers that came from the depths of the hat. Talk about an umbrella in a nook by the sea shore. A 1909 hat in the corner just a little "scouching," and pretty soon "pop goes the weasel." If those hats are not condusive to matrimony in the third degree without rebate or other impediment we lose our guess.—Britt Tribune.

TWIN LAKE

August Stille lost a valuable cow last week.

Some of our farmers are beginning to plant their corn.

H. J. Schlichting sold and delivered a few loads of hogs in Klemme last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Tanner visited with L. W. Wendel's at Belmond Sunday. R. J. Wendel and bride were also there.

Chas. Stiehl was making a few calls in Twin Lake on his way to Erin township where they know too. that his goods are what they want.

Miss Huldah Stiehl of Garner finished her school year in District No. 2 last Friday. They celebrated the day by having a school picnic and giving a program. All who were present enjoyed the day.

Arthur Waldow, living near Miller, suicided Tuesday evening by taking strychnine. Disappointment in love is supposed to be the cause for the rash act.

P. R. Gilligan. of Britt, shot his wife and hired girl at his home Monday. Report says that their injuries are not dangerous. Gilligan and his wife had been having trouble and had agreed to disagree. it seems, and the scrap was over the diversion of the property

---

REAL ORIGIN OF "MEAL TIME."

Has Come Down to Us from the Anglo-Saxon "Mael."

With regard to the difficulty of defining a "meal" it may be observed that, originally, a meal meant a repast taken at a fixed time. It is the Anglo-Saxon "mael," a mark, sign, measure, fixed time, and so food partaken of then, and has no connection with "meal" of the oatmeal kind, except by one of those verbal coincidences in which language abounds. All the other senses of "mael" but that of a repast have vanished except in the word "piecemeal," but German has still both "mal," a time (as in "einmal," once) and "mahl," a meal.

Of "mahl," however, tourists should beware. There is a story of a fatigued English pedestrian staggering into a German inn with a demand for "Abendmahl." What he wanted was supper ("Abendessen"); what he got was a clergyman ready to administer the holy sacrament (which "Abendmahl" in practice means), under the impression that he was dying.

"Meal time" has got into the German language of greeting. It was the old fashion after supper in the home to shake hands all round and say "Gesegnete Mahlzeit"— a blessing on the meal-time. And the German digestion is so vigorous that the students at the universities part from each other, not with good-by or adieu, or any such supraterrestrial allusion but—"Mahlzeit!"

Keeping Down the Belt Line.

"The trouble with you women," said a man recently, "is that you depend upon the straight-front corset instead of the proper exercise." This shows how little he knows about it. A number of women in Atchison get down on the floor every night and roll and roll like puppies at play. Then they stand on their toes and balance backward, forward and sideways, and take other exercises that would make a contortionist envy them, and every bit of it is done to keep the belt line down. Women wear the straight front, but they don't depend upon it.—Atchison (Kan.) Globe.

Hungry.

"I suppose you're glad now that your daughter is home from college."

"Can't say that I am. Since she got home we haven't a thing to eat but what she could cook in a chafing dish."—Detroit Free Press.

Rheumatism

Nine out of every cases of rheumatism simply rheumatism of muscles, due to cold or da or chronic rheumatism. such cases no internal tr ment is required. The application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all th needed and it is certain give quick relief. Giv a trial and see for your how quickly it relieves pain and soreness.

Lame Shoulder.

This is a common fo of muscular rheumati Apply Chamberlain's Li ment freely four times day and a quick cure is c tain.

Lumbago.

When muscular rheum tism attacks the muscles the small of the back it called lumbago. It is u ally quite severe and ev movement adds to the pa and especially when one tempts to straighten up. internal treatment is requ ed. Keep quiet, as every movement aggravates the disea and apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and you will s be well again.

Sprains and Bruises are cured by the free application Chamberlain's Liniment in about one-third the time quired by the usual treatment.

Attention

PEOPLE!

Don't forget that the Gruetzmacher Bros. handle all kinds of stoves such as heaters, cook stoves and steel ranges.

Also a full line of hardware, groceries, flour and feed.

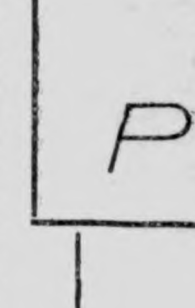
A complete line of implements also paints, oils and varnishes.

Rock and barrel salt. Barb wire and field fence.

Yours to please at the old stand,

Gruetzmacher Bros.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOW



OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE. LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STATE.
Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. Fifty d. ys t. atment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund mon. All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines used. detention from busines. Patients at a distance treated by mail and p ess. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage. Cha l w. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for terms. Co sultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call or wr to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without the use harmful instruments. Our book fully explains.

VARICOCELE—Enlarged veins in the scrotum causing nervous debility, weakness of the nervous system, etc., permanently cured.

BLOOD POISON—That terrible disease in its stages, cured for life. Skin Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, and all forms of private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few days without pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application, with description of above diseases, their effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrapper.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINES, IA

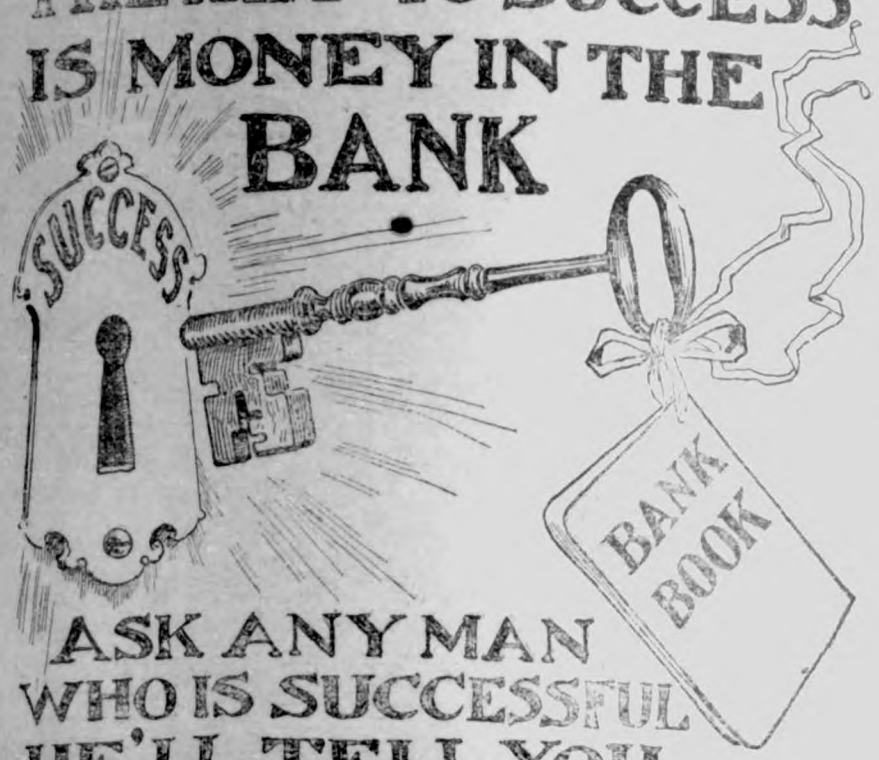
SUBSCRIBE FOR THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEA

The Klemme Times.

VOLUME XII. NUMBER 42 — KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, MAY 20, 1909. — $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

THE KEY TO SUCCESS IS MONEY IN THE BANK



ASK ANY MAN WHO IS SUCCESSFUL HE'LL TELL YOU.

29

OPPORTUNITIES

Come every day to men with Money. Has yours come?

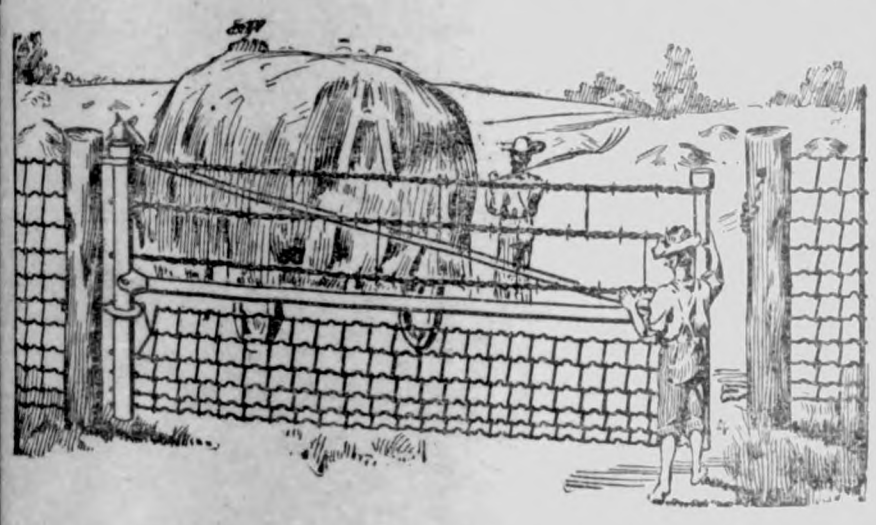
WERE YOU READY?

A Savings Account started a few years ago would come in handy now

Start it now; in a few years you will be the man ready with the money

State Savings Bank.

Klemme - - Iowa



Iowa Gates are more than a convenience if women or children ever use them for being so simple they are very light and can easily be swung either way. The IOWA gate is made to last—no castings to break—no wearing parts—even the wires have galvanized stretchers to tighten them. Will not blow down, burn or rot out. Get prices.

J. H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, Agent

KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J. W. WATERMAN

TWIN LAKE

Special Correspondence:

L. W. Wendel hauled hay from his farm last week.

Will Nuehring has begun this season's road work in his quarter.

The late rains have given a rest so the boys can enjoy fishing at the lake since May 15th.

The children of Chas. Schlichting have been sick the past week but are now doing nicely.

M. J. Thompson is getting the foundation laid for a new barn, to be built in the near future.

The foremost topic of conversation now days is "The Weather" but in spite of the heavy rains, most of our farmers are again at their planting.

J. Becker and force of Garner finished a good well for Adolph Schlichting Tuesday. When he gets his house and other improvements on his place he will have a fine farm. That's right Adolph "Keep a goin'."

ELL CENTER

Special Correspondence:

Miss Luella Yohn visited Clear Lake friends Saturday.

Tom Nelson and Mark Adwell were at the lake Monday.

A baby boy arrived at the home of Peter Josten Sunday.

Bert Auchampach and men are tiling for Hod Lawhorn.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Josten visited at Herman Barz' Sunday.

Ben Grove visited Clifford Swartz at the Josten place Sunday.

Hans Hanson and family were Sunday visitors at Hod Lawhorn's.

Hans Hanson and Hod Lawhorn were at Clear Lake a few days this week.

Tilers are at work on the George Ingham farm. They will put in several car loads of tile.

The dance at George Blank's was poorly attended Saturday evening on account of the muddy roads.

A dance will be given Saturday evening at the Luke Wessel home. Their dances drew large crowds last summer and probably will this summer as they have a large barn to dance in.

AVERY CENTER

Special Correspondence:

J. T. Griggs has had his house and barn painted.

The farmers are getting anxious to plant corn.

John Heginger purchased a 240 egg incubator of Ell Bros.

The hardest rain of the season struck here last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Gartin visited at the Jay Griggs home last Sunday.

J. W. Griggs and daughter Maude called on relatives in Meservey Monday.

Miss Nellie Griggs went to Iowa Falls to take a course in music at Elsworth College.

Walt Markle visited at W. M. Shaver's last Sunday. I wonder what the attraction is?

T. M. Hamilton and wife and Miss Laura Meyers visited at P. H. Behinger's Sunday evening.

CHAMBERLAIN'S LINIMENT

This is a new preparation and a good one. It is especially valuable as a cure for chronic and muscular rheumatism, and for the relief from pain which it affords in acute inflamatory rheumatism. Those who have used it have invariably spoken of it in the highest terms of praise. Lame back, lame shoulder and stiff neck are due to rheumatism of the muscles, usually brought on by exposure to cold or damp, and are quickly cured by applying this liniment freely and massaging the affected parts. Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is allayed by this liniment. For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

OUR BUSINESS IS BANKING
BANKING IS OUR BUSINESS

The sign "Bank" does not make a bank and is often misleading. It requires time, energy, close attention to business, a substantial capital and ripe experience in banking to make a bank. We claim, without blushing, all essentials necessary to make our business that of banking, and tender our patrons a service thoroughly seasoned by years of experience, backed by substantial capital.

The First National Bank

CAPITAL $25,000

YOU BUY Satisfaction

When you buy

Lowe Brothers' High Standard Paint

Spreads better, wont check or blister, colors are true. Beware of the "Just as good" as Lowe Brothers.

MARTIN SENOUR'S

School House Red for Barns

Put up in 1 gal. pails or 5 gal. kits. It covers most, spreads best, looks best, wears longest, gives best results

BRIGHTEN

Your Linoleum with Vernicol

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile, both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

Buy Your SCREENS NOW

The Flies Will Soon be Here

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, Agent

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

Base Ball, Friday, May 21

Dows High School vs. Klemme High School, at 2:30 o'clock p. m.

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher

KLENNOSE - - - IOWA

Now is the time to have your straw hat cleaned.

For the sake of peace give the women the ballot!

Why jeer at the spring poet when we all feel the same way?

Soon will be warm enough for the open-window cornet player.

The milliners have solved the problem: What shall we do with our ex-wastebaskets?

It must be much pleasanter to pilot a war balloon before hostilities begin than afterward.

Now the price of liberty is quoted at the market rate of a sufficient supply of Dreadnoughts.

London complains of a shortage of doctors. The diploma mills must be more exacting over there.

A wise man will enjoy every pleasant day to the fullest extent, for he never knows what is coming.

The taxicab is after all an automobile, and it does not hesitate to run over the innocent pedestrian.

An English peeress has written a cookery book. Perhaps the reaction from the suffragette craze is coming.

The treasury department, it is said, is about to have new designs prepared for the nickel five-cent pieces and the more or less coppery one-cent coins. If possible the designs should be drawn so as not to resemble in any degree the designs on the new five-dollar gold pieces.

Each succeeding generation is better than the last. That is why we do not burn witches nor own slaves. And we do many things which our children's children will think criminal and silly. Our youngsters have every indication of living in a better time than we have seen.

If the Chicago police have captured the leader of the Black Hand in that city, they have done an excellent work. It is said that this man has given information concerning his fellows. He was arrested in the act of taking money from an Italian physician, who had been threatened by the gang.

A looker-on in Venice—Illinois, not Italy—might well be surprised that the recent spanking of three boys in that peaceful village should be so elaborately treated by the metropolitan press. Time was when this was an almost daily observance in every home in the land that boasted young barbarians at play. "The old order changeth."

A railroad posts in its suburban cars warnings against "disembarking from the cars in the terminal yards." This, as the Frenchman observed, is most well; but might it not be worth while to join with it an admonition to the careless suburbanite to cease disembarking on the port side of the trains at stations where the platform lies to starboard?

The coast artillery companies at Fort Washington, Md., claim the world's record in mortar firing, having hit a target moving at the rate of five miles an hour six times in ten shots at a distance of from 4,000 to 6,000 yards, and the ten shots were fired in less than 6½ minutes. With marksmanship reduced to an exact science the leviathan battleships will have to be wary.

An American company is to be formed to capitalize an expedition to search in the ocean for the hidden treasures of Capt. Kidd. As a hider that piratical gentleman is still holding the record. He would be worth his weight in his own gold at this day, when other hidden treasures are being dragged to light by probes, investigations and other forms of "trust-busting."

How culpably ignorant of the early history of our country the children are being kept is freshly illustrated by some examination papers filed at a recent college examination, in which it was stated that Gen. Grant and Admiral Farragut commanded in the British army and navy during the revolution. Apparently good work will be found for every post in detailing comrades to inspect the duties of the children in the schools.

The New York taxicabs having become established the inevitable result follows that their proprietors are feeling around for the highest charges that the traffic will bear. This is so usual as to create little surprise; but the public would like for once to see how it seems to encounter a public service novelty that is conducted on the effete notion of discovering the lowest prices that will yield bigger profits by multiplying the traffic.

HER INFINITE VARIETY

By BRAND WHITLOCK

ILLUSTRATIONS BY RAY WALTERS

COPYRIGHT 1907 BY BOBBS-MERRILL CO.

SYNOPSIS.

Senator Morley Vernon's visit with his fiancee was interrupted by a call from his political boss at the state capital. Both regretted it, the girl more than he, because she had arranged to attend a dinner that evening with him. She said she yearned for a national office for him. On Vernon's desk in the senate he found a red rose, accompanied by a plea for suffrage for women. He met the authoress, pretty Miss Maria Greene of Chicago, who proposed to convert him into voting for house resolution No. 19.

CHAPTER III.—Continued.

Vernon scarcely knew what to reply; such objections as he might have found at other times—the old masculine objections to women's voting and meddling in politics—had all disappeared at sight of this remarkable young woman who wished to vote herself; he could not think of one of them, try as he would. His eyes were on the rose.

"Perhaps your objections are merely prejudices," she ventured boldly, in her eyes a latent twinkle that disturbed him.

"I confess, Miss Greene," he began, trying to get back something of his senatorial diguity, such as state senatorial dignity is, "that I have not devoted much thought to the subject; I am indeed rather ashamed to acknowledge that I did not even know the amendment was coming up to-day, until I was—ah—so delightfully reminded by your rose."

He raised the rose to inhale its fragrance. She made no reply, but she kept her eyes on him, and her gaze compelled him to go on. It was hard for him to go on, for it was now but a struggle against the formality of a surrender that had been inevitable from the beginning. But his man's pride forced him to delay it as long as possible.

"What assurances have you from other senators?" he asked. "Though, perhaps, I need not ask—they have unanimously mounted your colors." He looked at his colleagues, sporting their roses. Miss Greene gave a little exclamation of annoyance.

"Do you think I don't know," she said; "that I don't understand all that? I might have known that they would not take it seriously! And I thought—I thought—to put the matter so easily to them that I should be spared the necessity of buttonholing them!"

"It was a novel way of buttonholing them," he laughed.

"Oh!" she exclaimed, catching her breath, "they wear the roses—and laugh at me!"

Her eyes flashed through the mists of vexation that suggested tears.

"You are all alone then?"

Vernon said this in a low, solicitous tone, as if he were dealing with some deep grief.

"All alone."

"And you represent no one—that is, no society, no club?"

"I am not a paid lobbyist," she said, "though I believe it is not beyond the properties of our profession. I do what I do only from a love of principle. I represent only my sex." She said it impressively, and then with a quick little laugh that recognized the theatrical that had been in her attitude, she added: "And that, I suspect, without authorization."

"The ladies, generally, do not seem to be interested," Vernon acquiesced.

"No," she shook her head sadly, "no, on the contrary, I suppose most of them oppose the measure."

"I have generally found them of that feeling," Vernon observed.

"The slaves, before the war, often petitioned congress not to set them free, you will remember."

Miss Greene spoke with a bitterness. Then quickly she collected herself.

"But your objections, Senator Vernon?" she said. "Really, we must get down to business."

She raised the little chatelaine watch that hung at her bosom and looked down at it. And then suddenly, without waiting for his objections, as if she had quite forgotten them indeed, she impulsively stretched forth a hand and said:

"You will help me, won't you?"

Vernon looked into her eyes. His gaze, after an instant, fell. He tried to run the stem of the rose through his buttonhole. The thorns caught in the cloth.

"You'll have to do it," he said, helplessly.

From some mysterious fold of her habit she took a pin, and then, leaning over, she pinned the rose to his coat, pinned it with its long stem hanging, as a woman would pin a flower to a man's lapel.

"Thank you." He was looking into her eyes again.

"Rather let me thank you," she said. "It's so good of you to vote for my measure."

His eyes widened suddenly. He had quite forgotten the resolution. She must have perceived this, for she blushed, and he hastened to make amends.

"I'll not only vote for it," he rushed ahead impulsively, "but I'll make a speech for it." He straightened and leaned away from her to give a proper perspective in which she could admire him. He sat there smiling.

"How splendid of you!" she cried. "I feel encouraged now."

Then Vernon's face lengthened. He stammered: "But you'll have to give me some data; I—I don't know a thing about the subject."

"Oh," she laughed, "I brought some literature. It shall all be at your disposal. And now, I must be about my work. Can you make any suggestions? Can you tell me whom I should see, whom I should interest, who has the—ah—pull, I believe you call it?"

"I'll bring them to you," Vernon said. "You sit here and hold court."

He rose and his eyes swept the chamber. They lighted on Burns, and an idea suddenly came to him. He would revenge himself on Burns for all the slights of the session.

"Of course you'll have to see Sam Porter, but I'll begin by bringing Senator Burns—familiarly known as Bull Burns."

"I've read of him so often in the newspapers," she said, "it would be an experience."

Vernon went over to Burns' seat and touched him on the shoulder.

"Come on," he said in a tone of command, speaking for once from the altitude of his social superiority. And for once he was successful. The burly fellow from the First district stood up and looked inquiringly.

"Come with me," Vernon said; "there's a Chicago lawyer back here who wants to see you."

Burns followed and an instant later Vernon halted before Miss Greene. The other men, who had quickly returned to her side, made way, and Vernon said:

"Miss Greene, may I present Senator Burns, of the First district?"

Miss Greene smiled on the big saloonkeeper, who instantly flamed with embarrassment. She gave him her hand, and he took it in his fat palm, carefully, lest he crush it.

"I am delighted to meet Senator Burns; I've heard of you so often," she said, looking up at him. "And do you know I count it a privilege to meet one of your acknowledged influence in our state's affairs?"

Vernon stood back, delighted beyond measure with the confusion into which Burns for once had been betrayed. The senator from the First district was struggling for some word to say, and at last he broke out with:

"Aw now, lady, don't be t'rowin' de con into me."

The men in the little group on that side of the senate chamber burst out in a laugh, but Burns becoming suddenly grave, and dangerous and terrible in his gravity, they broke off in the very midst of their mirth. The group became silent.

"Really, Senator Burns," said Miss Greene, "this is no—ah—confidence game, I assure you." She rose with a graceful sweep of her skirts. Then she went on: "If you will permit me, I should like to explain my mission to you. I am down here to ask the senate to adopt a resolution that will submit an amendment to the constitution permitting the women of Illinois to vote at all elections, as they vote at school elections now. If you can give it, I should like your support; I should, at least, like to tell you my reasons."

Slowly she seated herself again, saying: "Will you sit down?"

But Burns only stood and looked at her. There was a trace of fear in her face.

"Do you want dis resolution put t'rough?" he asked, bluntly.

"I? Indeed I do!" she said.

"Is dere anyt'ing in it fer you?" he went on.

"Why," Miss Greene said, somewhat at a loss, "only that I am interested as a matter of principle in seeing it adopted. It would be a great day for me if I could go back to Chicago feeling that I had had just a little bit to do with such a result."

"Den I'm wit' you," said Burns, and wheeling, he went back to his desk.

Miss Greene watched him a moment, and then turned to the ... their numbers augmented now ... others who had come up to see ... in the presence of such a woman. ... glance she gave them was a que...

"Oh, he means it," said Mon... Whiteside. "He'll vote for the ... lution."

"Yes, he's given his word," ... Brownwell of Cook.

Vernon devoted half an ho... bringing senators to meet ... Greene. It was not difficult ... though it had its disadvantages ... did not allow Vernan to remain ... her long at a time. But at last ... done, and he found a moment ... with her. She had given him ... pamphlets on equal suffrage.

"Ah, if you could only address ... senate!" he exclaimed, in open ... ration. And then, as if an inspir... had come to him, he added:

"Perhaps I could arrange it; ... been done."

She gasped and stretched out ... hand to stay him.

"Oh, not for all the world!" ... protested.

"But you'll come and meet the ... tenant-governor?"

"Up there?" she said, incredulo... pointing to the dais under the fla...

"Why, yes," Vernon answered; ... not? It's where all the eminent ... yers who come down here to ... sit."

She looked up at the desk be... which the lieutenant-governor ... swinging gently in his swivel ... while the secretary read senate ... on third reading. There was a ... luctance in her eyes, but when ... caught Vernon's smile, she gath... her skirts and said:

"Well, if I must."

CHAPTER IV.

While Miss Greene sat chatting ... the lieutenant-governor, who ... neglected the duties of his high ... Vernon went out into the rot... lighted a cigarette, glanced over ... pamphlets, and tried to arrange ... heads of his speech in his mind.

At the thought of the speech, ... non grew cold and limp with ner... ness. His hands were clammy, ... knees trembled, his mouth became ... and parched, and the cigarette he ... lighted imparted all at once an ... taste. Yet he smoked on, and as ... wandered around the rotunda, ... from both houses, passing to and ... greeted him, but they seemed to ... to be strange new creatures flitting ... in a dream. If he was conscious ... them at all it was only as of en... beings, all on a common happy p... fortunate ones who did not have ... make a speech within the hour. ... went over to the state library, th... ing that its quiet would soothe ... when he stood among the tall sta... of books he suddenly remembered t... he must not smoke in those precin... and so he turned out into the rot... again, for he must smoke. He wal... round and round the rotunda, pau... at times to lean over the brass rail ... and look far down to the main fl... where the red light glowed at ... cigar stand; he sauntered back ... the dim and undisturbed corridors, ... mind racing over all the things ... might say.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

"Den I'm Wit' You."

Trim Your Nails.

There is a certain eminent physic... who, wiser than the children of ... plods his way along in an unbe... track and has no peer as a diagno... cian. He is always accompanied ... an expert manicurist, instead of ... white or colored valet. "The hu... nail, like the human hair," he s... to me, "is much affected by physi... conditions. Barbers will tell you t... in certain seasons the beard, for ... stance, grows nearly twice as fast ... at others. It is so with the nails. ... times, according to how we feel, ... free edge may be a month in growi... there is some retarding agent. ... other times it may grow in a w... Sometimes the nail has transve... furrows, indicating periods of illn... At other times it bears furrows r... ning lengthwise—a sure indicatio... gout. My manicurist can tell by th... indications when your last sickn... occurred, and I can tell what the ... ady was."

Fish Caught by Horsemen.

It is not often that hunting and ... ling are combined, or that fish ... caught by a horseman; yet this ... what, according to a correspond... happened at a recent meet of L... Fitzhardinge's foxhounds. While jum... ing a stream, Mr. Philip Norris of B... tol (England) was thrown from ... horse, and fell into the water. Sub... quently, while changing his clothes ... a village hostelry, he discovered t... a live trout had netted itself in one ... his pockets while he was in the wa... The fish has been preserved at ... hostelry.

Pride.

"Are you at the head of your cl... in school?"

"Not exactly," answered the stu... youngster, "but the boy that is at ... head of my class in school isn't in ... class in football."

Latin Proverb: Custom is ... plague of the wise men, and the ... of fools.

COWNIES PLACE

agists Want Representatives on Board

ATE REFUSED REQUEST

Executive Committee May ecommend Woman on Board to Governor Carroll Next Week.

s Moines, May 15.—Instead of mmending the appointment of a n as resident superintendent he girl's reformatory at Mitchell- the executive committee of the Equal Suffrage association h will meet in Des Moines Sat- y, may ask Gov. B. F. Carroll to int a woman on the state board ntrol.

e recommendation of a woman intendent originated with the Miss Gertrude von Petzhold of Unitarian church, but is not ed by the equal suffrage women are more familiar with condi- at the institution. To have a an on the state board has long the desire of the association, t has met rebuff from every gov- since the state board was ed by law.

e term of office of John Cownie he board contemplates in April, Because of the fact that two s suggested by Governor Carroll his vacancy were turned down by senate the suffrage women be- that they may gain their point he settlement of the contro- y.

SES ARE DECREASING

l Reports Show That Cases Are Decreasing and Attendants Discharged.

spite the efforts of the state d of control and the superintend- of the state insane hospitals to p out every vestige of abuse to nts, the reports for the month pril as submitted to the board of ol show that there were a few nces during the month.

each case the attendant suspect- was promptly discharged. The ber of cases is also less than before. Apparently the effort lean out all such practices is hav- its effect.

suppose there will always be iso- cases so long as human nature onstituted as it is," said J. T. ilton of the state board of con- yesterday. "Occasionally there be an attendant who is unable eep his temper who may do vio- e when provoked. These people being weeded out as rapidly as ible. The investigation of the nt legislative committee showed one thing that the cases of gen- cruelty are few and far between the reports for the month of l show only minor offenses that d hardly be called abuse, but h resulted in the patient getting benefit of the doubt."

To Check Colleges.

tates Superintendent Riggs has ed Prof. Albert Loughridge of r Falls to check up the colleges he state and report upon their lition for the benefit of the state d of educational examiners. Prof. ghridge proposes to examine into ses of study, faculty, textbooks, l and religious training—in fact, every phase of college careers. begins his inspection at Luther ge, Decorah.

of. Loughridge is well known in as an educator. Years ago he on the faculty of Central univer- at Pella. Later he was for years of the Latin department of the e Teachers' college at Cedar s, but of late years has been a ionary in India for the Baptist ch.

e Amount of Tax Receipts.

lk County broke all records when 12.58 was turned over to State surer William W. Murrow as the ty's share of the state taxes col- d in March. The next highest unt turned in was $43,000, from t county.

reme Court Decisions.

aggie Puls, by her next friend, Melvin Paulson et al, appellants; uth district. Action for dam- for personal injuries. Modified affirmed on condition; opinion by s.

ot Sell Liquor.

e first act of Clarence Larson, secretary of the pharmacy com- ion, was to decide that drug es serving lunches could not re- e a permit to sell liquor.

TO ENFORCE STOOKEY LAW

EDUCATIONAL EXAMINERS ADOPT STRICT MEASURES.

Applicants For First Grade Teachers' Certificates Must Show Past Experience.

Stricter enforcement of the clause in the Stookey law requiring credits for sixteen hours a week of professional training from college graduates who are applicants for first grade five-year teachers' certificates was decided upon by the state board of educational examiners in session at the state house.

When the Stookey law went into effect two years ago the board interpreted the statutes leniently and permitted graduates of recognized colleges to take out first grade certificates without insisting upon the credits for courses in pedagogy, psychology and similar subjects which comprise professional training.

The educators have decided that the period of grace should expire and there exists no further justification for failing to comply with the law, which requires that at least sixteen hours a week during the college course of an applicant for a certificate who does not wish to take the examination shall be devoted to courses in professional training.

About 200 teachers in the state were permitted to draw certificates since the law went into effect who had not taken the required courses, with the understanding that they should make up this work within two years. Many have done so, but others are worrying about the renewal of their certificates, which were to run two years and to be renewed for the five-year period only after the required work had been made up.

The board went over a long list of candidates for positions as readers of examination papers and submitted to State Superintendent Riggs a smaller list of eligible ones from which to choose. The next meeting of the board will be held June 18.

Des Moines in the Lead.

Des Moines, Iowa, May 13.—Substantial gains in the total amount of insurance in force for Des Moines life insurance companies are shown by the annual life insurance report of Auditor of State Bleakly for the year 1908. The increase varies from less than $100,000 to more than a $1,000,000, and none of the local companies show a loss.

The total amount of insurance for all companies whose home offices are in Iowa has increased nearly $5,000,000, or from $41,728,621.00 on December 31, 1907 to $46,314,866.50 on December 31, 1908. The total number of policies outstanding has increased from 39,946 to 44,649. During the year 1908 Iowa companies paid losses aggregating $237,858.89. Of this amount Des Moines companies paid all but $49,908.55, which was paid by companies at Davenport, Cedar Rapids, Waterloo and Council Bluffs.

Little change is shown in the relative amount of business done by any company. The Equitable is far in the lead, with the Des Moines Life next, the Royal Union Mutual third and the Central Life fourth. All these are Des Moines companies.

Valuable Papers Given.

Iowa City.—The State Historical society of Iowa has received the James Harlan autobiographical manuscript, consisting of 10,000 pages of historical material, the most extensive single collection relative to Iowa which has ever been gathered.

Harlan was a leader in educational and religious circles during the territory. He was United States senator from Iowa from 1855 to 1873. He was invited to a position in President Lincoln's cabinet and he served in President Johnson's cabinet later.

Carroll Instructs New Board.

Governor B. F. Carroll called the members of the state pharmacy commission before him, told them that they will be expected to keep correct and complete data as to their travels about the state and their per diem expenditures and discussed with them the new laws relative to drug stores, such as the Hammill liquor sale law, the law forbidding the sale of cocaine, etc. The board has practically decided that examinations will be held every other month as at present and not quarterly.

National Guardsmen to Shoot.

Rifle practice by the Iowa National guard will begin June 9, at the range, which has been constructed by the state near the Belgrade station on the Inteurban. This will be the first practice engaged in by the entire militia since the completion of the new grounds. About one hundred men from different companies will make up each detail, and each shoot will last about ten days.

SENATORS MAKE HIT

Iowans Play Conspicuous Role in Senate.

FOR DOWNWARD REVISION

Senator Aldrich's Failure to Carry Out the Chicago Platform Principles Is Making Many Enemies.

Washington, D. C., May 17.—The result of the last week's consideration of the tariff bill has been on the whole to make it clear that the country need not expect any real tariff revision downwards if Senator Aldrich and the finance committee can prevent it.

For the last week there has been a constant discussion and debate in the senate. Revisionists have fought hard to force some of the schedules lower, and in this fighting Senators Cummins and Dolliver have borne a consistent and able part. In consideration of the glass and steel schedules, Senator Cummins has been especially active and has done much hard work. Both Cummins and Dolliver have consistently voted for lower duties.

While it is true that on all of the roll calls Senator Aldrich and his supporters have been able to overcome the revisionists, this does not by any means tell the whole story. The persistent fighting of the revisionists has aroused the high tariff men to the realization of the intensity of the opposition in many parts of the country to the Aldrich bill and to their failure and refusal to carry out the pledges of the Chicago platform. Accordingly, they have made some concessions and will make others. For instance, they were forced to concede lower duties on common window glass. They yielded on barbed wire and cut duties in half on that article. Concessions on wire nails also are promised.

Indications are now that the bill will not be sent to the president before July 1. Much fighting is ahead. It will be the policy of the Iowa senators and other real revisionists to keep on fighting. They do not expect to accomplish anything like all they feel that ought to be accomplished, but they believe some needed reductions can be forced, either in the senate or later on in conference.

That those senators who are fighting for revision are meeting with the country's approval is evidenced by the flood of letters and telegrams of a congratulatory nature that continue to pour in on Senators Cummins and Dolliver.

SUNDAY SCORES SOCIETY

Takes Church People to Task for Attending Social Function at Hotel.

Marshalltown, Iowa, May 17.—Evangelist W. A. Sunday, from his pulpit, took to task church members of the city who were guests at a fashionable dancing and card party given at the Pilgrim hotel by Landlord and Mrs. Charles M. Coleman and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Divas, the former a wealthy banker and capitalist. Over 200 people participated in the festivities of the evening, and naturally there were among the guests some who are identified to a greater or lesser extent with the churches.

Sunday declared the party an open insult to the cause of God and said: "People get their estimate of religion from what they see in the lives of those who are called Christians. You church members who went to that card party went because you wanted to go. Some of you people may not like what I say, but I do not care."

This is the first open attack Mr. Sunday has made during three weeks' campaign here.

Sunday has fixed next Thursday as mother's day and has asked the merchants of the city to close their stores between the hours of 2 and 4 in honor of their mothers. He has also asked everybody to wear a bit of white ribbon, or a white flower, in honor of their mothers.

Earthquake in Montana.

Great Falls, Mont., May 17.—A distinct earthquake shock was felt here and it was also felt at Choteau, Havre, Wagner and other points, showing that it prevailed generally over northern Montana. At Helena an earthquake shock lasting several seconds was felt. The only damage reported is that at the residence of Herman Paul, where the front retaining wall of the house was thrown down. The wall was ten feet high and two feet thick.

Canada Has Earthquake.

Winnipeg, Man., May 17.—Reports from yesterday's earthquake in western Canada continue to come in.

All Who Would Enjoy

good health, with its blessings, must understand, quite clearly, that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to living aright. Then the use of medicines may be dispensed with to advantage, but under ordinary conditions in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time and the California Fig Syrup Co. holds that it is alike important to present the subject truthfully and to supply the one perfect laxative to those desiring it.

Consequently, the Company's Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna gives general satisfaction. To get its beneficial effects buy the genuine, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and for sale by all leading druggists.

ONE AGREEMENT.

Mr. Henpeck—It's no use. We can't agree on a single subject.

Mrs. Henpeck—You're wrong, dear. I always agree with you on the weather.

SKIN TROUBLES CURED.

Two Little Girls Had Eczema Very Badly—In One Case Child's Hair Came Out and Left Bare Patches.

Cuticura Met with Great Success.

"I have two little girls who have been troubled very badly with eczema. One of them had it on her lower limbs. I did everything that I could hear of for her, but it did not give in until warm weather, when it seemingly subsided. The next winter when it became cold the eczema started again and also in her head where it would take the hair out and leave bare patches. At the same time her arms were sore the whole length of them. I took her to a physician, but the child grew worse all the time. Her sister's arms were also affected. I began using Cuticura Remedies, and by the time the second lot was used their skin was soft and smooth. Mrs. Charles Baker, Albion, Me., Sept. 21, '08."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Cause for Relief.

An Alabama man tells of an unique funeral oration delivered in a town of that state not long ago by a darky preacher.

Now, it seems that the habits of the deceased brother had not been irreproachable, to the great scandal of the worthy pastor of the flock. So, in summing up the case at the funeral, the preacher delivered himself of the following:

"My brethren and sisters, we are here to pay our last sad respects to our departed brother. Some says he was a good man, and some says he was a bad man. Where he has gone to we can't tell, but in our grief we have one consolation, and that is—he's dead."

Standing Fad.

The wandering agent who was selling cigar-bands found Remus sitting on the porch mending his fishing lines.

"Do you have any fads down here in Dixie?" asked the agent.

"What am them, mister?" inquired Remus, curiously.

"Why, take the collecting fad. Do you make any collections of anything down here?"

Remus laughed.

"Oh, yeas, sah," he chuckled, "de same collections we've always made. De collection of pickaninnies en dogs, sah."

A Slight Misunderstanding.

The personally-conducted tourists were viewing the ruins of the Alhambra.

"How inspiring!" rapturously exclaimed Mrs. Windfall. "Who built that castle?"

"The Moors," explained the guide.

"The Moores?" repeated the near-cultured lady, "oh, yes (turning to her husband), some of their descendants are particular friends of ours, aren't they, George?"—Illustrated Sunday Magazine.

A Quandary.

"A necklace of diamonds has been stolen from me!" said Mrs. Cumrox. "Aren't you going to notify the police?" "I don't know what to do. It does seem rather classy to be robbed of jewelry; and yet I hate to have people think I'd ever miss a little thing like a necklace."

FEW CARESSES IN HER LIFE

Infinite Pathos In Remark Made by Little Philadelphia Child of the Slums.

Dr. Herman L. During, superintendent of the Philadelphia City mission, has for many years devoted his life to the poor. Dr. During is the inventor of the pretzel test for street beggars. When a street beggar pleads starvation, you buy him a big German pretzel at the nearest stand. If he eats the pretzel, he is honest; if he refuses it, he is a fraud.

Dr. During in his work among the poor has learned many odd, quaint things that he relates superbly, for he is a born story-teller. In an address at Bala, apropos of the hard, rough lives of the children of the poor, he related a dialogue between two little girls in Rum alley.

"Maggie, wuz ye ever kissed?' said the first tot.

"'On'y wunst in me life wot I kin remember.' said the second. 'When I wuz in de Honnyman hospital wid a broken arm one o' de lady nusses kissed me, an' I blushed like a child.'" with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, price 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Hear! Hear!

The city beautiful movement if properly pushed will help not only the individual, but the entire community, and especially the property owner and the householder. The public health is also more or less involved. Are you contributing to the movement? If not, where is your public spirit and civic pride?—Birmingham News.

Important to Mothers.

Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA a safe and sure remedy for infants and children, and see that it

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

In Use For Over 30 Years.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

The Scrubwoman's Lunch.

"I used to let my scrubwoman get herself a little lunch," said the city flat dweller. "It's the nice thing to do, I know, and I like to do it, but I had to quit in self-defense. She took an hour to get her lunch and eat it and charged me extra for the time she put in."

The Secret Out.

"What made my lovely complexion? I do not like to tell, for it was medicine, but the nicest a woman ever took. It was Lane's Family Medicine that did it." This is a pleasant herb tea which acts favorably on the stomach and bowels, purifying the blood and cleansing the skin like magic. It cures headache and backache. Druggists and dealers sell it, 25c.

Thoughtless.

Husband—"You must marry again, dearest, when I am gone, and that will be very soon." Wife—"No, Edward. No one will marry an old woman like me. You ought to have died ten years ago for that."—Penny Pictorial.

Ask Your Druggist for Allen's Foot-Ease.

"I tried ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE recently, and have just bought another supply. It has cured my corns, and the hot, burning and itching sensation in my feet which was almost unbearable, and I would not be without it now.—Mrs. W. J. Walker, Camden, N. J." Sold by all Druggists, 25c.

Suns, Stars, Comets & Co.

"Why do they so often name newspapers after the heavenly bodies?"

"That's easy—because they shed light upon the earth."

Try Murine Eye Remedy

For Red, Weak, Weary, Watery Eyes. Compounded by Experienced Physicians. Conforms to the Pure Food and Drugs Law. Murine Doesn't Smart. Soothes Eye Pain. Try Murine for Your Eyes.

A Diplomat.

Mother—Aren't you ever going to get over fighting, Willie?

Willie—Yes'm, when I'm licked.

Free! A 10c package of Garfield Tea to anyone mailing us this notice, with name and address, and names and addresses of 10 friends not now using the Ideal Laxative. Garfield Tea Co., Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Main Thing.

Poeticus—What age do you think most charming in a woman?

Cashit—A rich heritage.

Those who keep Hamlins Wizard Oil in the house do not have to buy any other remedy for sore throat. No other remedy will cure this trouble so quickly or so surely. Remember this.

Fly time and baseball are very properly contemporaneous.

DO YOUR CLOTHES LOOK YELLOW? If so, use the new RUSS BLUE. It will make them white as snow. All grocers.

When the calf kicks, 'tis time to thrash the cow.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Go to sleep without supper, but rise without debt.

Are You Going to PAINT ?

It pays to keep your buildings well painted, and when you paint it pays to use the best you can get. We handle the best in

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, etc. etc.

Call and see us and get our prices

Washing Machines

We handle some of the best made. Call and see the

"Quicker Yet"

The best place to buy

Hardware & Groceries

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA

HELLO THERE

Where are you going? I'm going to H. Lau & Son. They handle all kinds of farm implements, Port Huron threshers also the Aultman & Taylor machinery, the 20 Century and Appleton manure spreader, McKinnon and Clinton wagons, Anchor and Velie buggies, Ohio and Kingman cultivators, stirring and gang plows, the open mould board sulky plows the lightest draft, Towers cultivators, Imperial and Challenge wind mills, hog fencing, barb wire, smooth wire gates, pumps and piping of all kinds, feed mills and the international gas engines from 1 to 40 H. P., Milwaukee mowers, binders, Dane bay loaders and buckers, nails and fence staples, wind mills and pump repairing on short notice, the sharpless cream separator the best made today, the Crack a-jack line of samples for tailor made suits.

In the Household—As Hygeno is regularly used by thousands as a household remedy, disinfectant, germicide and insecticide the greatest cleanliness is exercised in its manufacture. For sale here.

H. Lau & Son.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 15 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

We note the fact that the name of A. M. Deyoe is being prominently mentioned for the office of state superintendent by a number of our exchanges. He is undoubtedly well fitted for the office as there are few men in the state today better posted on school matters than is Mr Deyoe It would be a pleasure for the writer to vote for A. M. Deyoe.

In the east a man lost his girl out of the buggy while he drove a mile or two before he noticed she was missing. You can bet your sweet life that such a thing would never happen in our breezy west. Here the horse may fall out of the shatts and never be missed. But the girl. —never.—Ex.

All that one has to do to maintain perfect health is to carry a buckeye and a potato in the pocket, wear a lung pad, a couple of porus plasters and a magnetic belt, go to bed at nine o'clock every night and get up at six in the morning, taking a cold bath and walking seven miles before breakfast. Abstain from the use of tobacco, tea, coffee, all manner of toxicants and rich foods of every description. By the above simple rules your life may be made one continual round of giddy health.

A Word to Scandal Mongers

Every time the closet of your neighbor is opened a little do you strain your neck to peek therein, then afterwards strain your tongue talking about it? Did you ever stop to think that some day a tragedy may take up its abode in your home? Can't you get it into your head that some day the tongue of slander may cut you like a sharp sword, and the whispers of your neighbors be as vinegar on your wounds? Misfortune and disgrace may have overtaken your neighbor but it ill becomes you to get out on the house tops and shout it to the world. You will not be called upon to pay for your neighbors' sins. You have all you can attend to, to pay your own indiscretions. Some day one near and dear to you may fail—the prison doors may open to a son or the scarlet letter of eternity blight a young and innocent daughter. When a home is in mourning over a tragedy the best thing you can do is to keep your mouth shut unless you can say something good that will come as a ray of sunshine through the dark clouds —Ren Bosley in Tama Herald.

The Law is Plain

States, counties, cities, corporations and individuals owning public buildings will have to make many changes to comply with the new state law as to doors opening outward. The law is drastic and the authorities of the state intend that it shall be complied with. It will mean changes in some public buildings in this city. The law is a good one and was enacted for the purpose of saving human life in case of fire.

"The entrance and exit doors of all hotels, churches, lodge halls, court houses, assembly halls, theaters, opera houses, colleges, and public school houses, and the entrance doors to all class and assembly rooms in all public school buildings in all cities and towns shall open outward.—Corwith Hustler.

BARGAINS

50 SMYRNA RUGS...

Size 30x71, at each

95c

MEN'S SHOES

100 pair worth from $2.50 to $4.00 all go at from..... ..... $1.25 to $2.00

I do this to clean up QUICK on some broken lines

SEWING MACHINES

We handle only the Best Makes. Have 23 on our floor now, ranging in price from $14.00 up

—— all of which go at——

A Discount of 10 per cent for 30 Days

Arthur Wellemeyer.

Where your Dollar does its duty.

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN, Proprietor.

LATEST STYLES AND BEST QUALITY

Are embodied in our fine line of

MILLINERY GOODS

To appreciate this fact, you must see our line of Pattern Hats and Trimmed Hats. Nice line of headwear for the Children. We have the best assortment ever shown in Klemme or the surrounding towns. Don't buy until you have seen our display.

A first class trimmer who will be sure to please you.

A fine line of Corsets. Also Hair Rolls, Ladies' Waists, Collars, etc.

MRS. J. JOSTEN.

MME MARKET.

.....	60 to 63c
.....	48 to 50c
.....	80 to 100
.....	55 to60 c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	6.50 to 6.85
.....	3.00 to 6.00

AL NEWS

new ad of State Sav-llock drove down from nday.

fruits, strawberries, uckhohn s.

ller has re painted etzmacher's barn.

the Wisconsin bee dled by N. L. Palmer

Gibbs left Monday on visit to Mason City.

plement men report a trade on corn plant- ring.

s, shipped a carload of icago Monday, where e placed in storage.

ol. Try our cool sum- s ice cream and Sun place is Kluckhohn's.

prices on Wheeler & d Singer Sewing Ma- Frank Gruetzmacher's.

owledge a very pleas- om our good subscrib- Arvidson, last Satur-es A. Young, of Gar- haking hands with nu- le me friends Thurs-

eo. Bartholomew and Mrs Sibyl Gross, of isited here last Thurs-all—Parties wanting ured, see me at once. easonable. Fred C. 42tf ues this week printed of stationery for the Hotel which will be xt Monday.

Frei returned home rom Ft. Dodge where en for a few days' visit me of his daughter.

l game advertised for day between the high ams of Klemme and to be postponed on ac- he wet weather.

S. Bailey and little came down from Britt y evening and visited nday at the home of ey's sister, Mrs. A. C.

rmers who are fortunate have hogs to sell this e wearing a broad smile on't blame them a bit A number of hogs were e Klemme market last and they brought the of $6.75 per hund ed. think of buying a rug y you to look over my ich consists of Wilton Axminsters, Saxony rs, Colonial Velvets sels made in sizes 6 x 9, x 6, 9 x 12 and larger. r rugs G. F. Schuler.

a spell of showe y last week wound up oaking rain on Friday rday. The rain fell in d large chunks and the running to their full for several days The tarded corn planting as just nicely started.

Ell Bros. buy wool. 42-2

Ice cream every day at Kluckhohn's.

Turn out to the ball game Friday afternoon.

W. R. Bloom shipped a car of hogs Wednesday.

The State Savings Bank has a new ad on 1st page.

For bee keepers supplies call on N. L. Palmer. 41-3

Joe Miller has a card in the Times this week. Read it.

Read W. Hemeyer's ad. He is offering some good bargains this week.

Wm. Smith, of Buffalo Center, visited over Sunday with his Klemme friends

FOR SALE—Choice Rhode Island eggs. Mrs J P. Larsen, Klemme, Iowa. 41-2

Wm. Sampson, one of our prosperous farmers, was a caller at the Times sanctum last Friday.

I have just added to my stock a nice line of Lace Curtains at 75c up to $6.00 a pair at G. F. Schuler's. tf

Mrs. Hosmer left Monday for her home at O'af, Iowa, after visiting here with relatives. She was accompanied by Mrs. Nissen, who will visit there a short time.

C. C Schaefer brought in one load of hogs last Friday which he sold to H. C. Lau, who paid him $127.30 for the same. We wouldn't mind selling a few loads ourselves at that rate. In fact if some one will furnish the hogs we'll keep hauling all summer.

Always be ready to say a good word for your home town. Don't be a knocker. We don't believe there is a better business town of its size in the state of Iowa than we have right here at Klemme, and you can make it a better town by just boosting a little whenever an opportunity presents itself.

Tom Elder informs the Times that the Klemme Hotel will be opened to the public next Monday, May 24th. Mr. Elder has invested a goodly sum in repairing and thoroughly renovating the building and has also newly furnished the whole house, so that he will now be able to conduct the business in a satisfactory manner to the traveling public. The Times wishes him unbounded success.

While Klemme today probably has as many miles of cement sidewalks as any town of its size in the state, preparations are being made to build many more walks this summer. Beginning at the Schroeder residence on main street, a new walk will be laid west at least as far as Kluckhohn's restaurant property, taking in the lots of the hotel and the drug store. The town will put in three cement crossings, one from the hotel to the drug store corner, one from the State Savings Bank corner across the street north, and one from the store of the Terhufen Bros east to Ell Bros. store. We understand Mrs. Shafer will put in cement walks in front of her store buildings and Frank Gruetzmacher will put a twelve foot walk in front of his harness shop building. We are also informed that a new walk will be laid on the east line of the lots east of the First National Bank There will probably be much more of this work done here this summer. Let the good work go on.

Read our correspondence this week.

Mrs. S. L. Sage was a Garner visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Chas Stiehl was a Garner visitor Monday.

Miss Norma Post was a Garner passenger Tuesday.

Get our price before you sell your wool. Ell Bros. 42-2

H. C. Lau shipped a car of hogs last Sunday morning.

Try those fine ice cream sodas and Sundaes at Kluckhohn's

It was a pretty fair brand of weather the first of the week.

F. A Arnold and Frank Gruetzmacher drove to Goodell Tuesday.

Mrs John Gruetzmacher and Grandma Gruetzmacher visited at Garner Tuesday.

Dr Missman and F. J. Wenck were business visitors at the county hub Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Josten are the parents of a new baby boy, born on Sunday, May 16th.

Special cut prices on Millinery on Friday and Saturday, May 21 and 22 and May 28 and 29. Mrs. John Joster. 42-2

C. C Suckow is painting Aug. Lau's house this week. August has a fine residence property and is fixing it up in the best approved style.

The railroad track towards the river seemed to be the popular walking place Sunday afternoon. The river was away up out of its banks.

A fine new gas-line lighting plant has been installed in the Klemme Hotel Mr. Elder is determined to have his house strictly up-to-date.

Mrs. J. W. Waterman and daughter Mabel and Mrs. G. W. Waterman and children left last Thursday for a visit with relatives and old friends at Lazerne, Benton county, Iowa.

Shoes for everybody. A perfect fit for any feet—large or small. My line comprises all the latest styles and colors in shoes and oxfords for men, women and children. Frank Gruetzmacher. 42-2

The Ladies Aid Society and the ladies of the English M. E. church will give a bazar and supper at the opera house Saturday, May 29th. Supper will be served from 4:30 p. m. until all are served. There will be many fancy and useful articles for sale. Come everybody.

The Davs high school ball team will be here tomorrow afternoon to try to show our boys how to play the national game. Turn out and help the boys win and also help them meet the expense necessary in getting the game. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

Iowa's Own Magazine

It is the success and sensation of the year. The Golden West Magazine, edited by the famous Sam W. Small, evangelist and lecturer, published at Waterloo, Iowa, has been received by press, public men and the people in all parts of the Union with the highest praise. It is first class beautifully illustrated and contains splendid, uplifting reading for the live men and clean families of the State. Iowans should be proud to sustain this magazine.

A sample copy costs only 10 cents and a 3 months trial subscription, a quarter-dollar.

Address, The Golden West Co., Waterloo, Iowa.

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures
See me when you want a
Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

Tell us the news.

W. R. Bloom was at Dows on business yesterday.

Rain again this morning, and it looks like it might be good for all day.

We are glad to be able to state that John Bachman is able to be up and around again.

For the benefit of any of our readers who might wish to travel on the west-bound morning passenger from Garner, we note that the time of this train has been changed from 7:02 a. m. to 6:32 a. m.

We have a nice bunch of news from Avery Center, Twin Lake and Ell Center this week We hope our correspondents will be able to write some news each week. Call and get stationery and stamped envelopes.

Farmers should have printed stationery the same as any other business man. Give the farm a name and have it printed on the letter heads and envelopes. It costs only a very little more than you pay for the blank paper Ask us about it.

German M. E. Church Items

Aug. Wenz made a trip to Britt last week.

Corn planting is the order of the day among the farmers.

Amanda Arnold was a Garner caller Monday between trains.

The quarterly meeting last Sunday was well attended at all three services

Rev Koerner of Reinbeck arrived Monday and is spending a few days with his children.

The English service in the Germantown church is necessarily postponed one week and will be held May 30th.

On account of the inclement weather last week the "Standard Bearers" postponed their meeting for Wednesday evening of this week.

The Germantown Epworth League will give an anniversary program Sunday evening, for which they have been preparing for some time.

Mrs. Hosmer was an over-Sunday visitor with her many relatives in town. She returned Monday evening accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Nissen.

Father and mother Suck w spent the forepart of the week in Klemme with their son Charley and family. They also called on a number of old time friends and neighbors.

The executive board of the campmeeting association met Monday and decided to hold the same June 17 to 21. A number of places have already reported a good delegation If the weather continues pleasant our farmers will be well along with their work so they can attend.

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to night calls.

F. C. GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats, Canned goods and oysters in season. Highest cash price paid for hides. Home rendered pure lard a specialty.
We solicit your patronage.

RESTAURANT
—We have a complete line of—
Home Made Bakery Goods, Candies, Cigars, Tobaccos, Soft Drinks, Fruits and Canned Goods.
Try our Van Camp's Sterilized Evaporated Milk.
Lunches and Meats at all Hours
A. Kirkwood & Son

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
☞ Eyes Tested Free.

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
☞ Call in

Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition
This year you can make the trip you have had in mind for so long—a trip to the Pacific Coast. Go now, while rates are low and routes arranged so you can see the most at lowest cost, including the great exposition at
SEATTLE, WASH.
June 1 to October 16, 1909
It covers an area of 250 acres, located on two beautiful lakes, overlooked by snow-capped mountains, and will interestingly exhibit the wonderful development and possibilities of Alaska and the countries of the Pacific. Very low fares daily during the summer. Let me tell you how comfortably and conveniently the trip is made
Thro' Scenic Colorado
AND
Yellowstone Park
VIA
Rock Island-Frisco Lines
Ask for descriptive folder.
L. O. TURGASEN, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

NEW LIFE AND STRENGTH

Obtained Through Proper Action of the Kidneys.

Mrs. Josiah Straw, 526 N. Broadway, Canton, So. Dak., says: "I suffered for some time with rheumatic pains in my limbs and was weak and languid. The irregularity of the kidney secretions also caused much annoyance. After using Doan's Kidney Pills I did not have these troubles. They seemed to put new life and strength into my system and helped me in every way. My husband had an experience almost the same, and it is with pleasure that we both recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

WHERE PAT DREW THE LINE.

Patient and Long Suffering, But No Man with a Face Like That Could Work with Him.

Pat had been at work for three days digging a well, and as the foreman wanted it finished within the week he had promised Pat another man to help him. It was getting on for 11 o'clock, and Towser, the foreman's bulldog, was looking over the edge of the pit, when Pat said to himself, "Smoke-o."

He had just filled his pipe, and was about to light it when he glanced up and beheld Towser's handsome features.

Slowly removing the pipe from his mouth, he said: "Be-e-egorra, Oi've wor-rked wid Germans and Hengar-rrians, and Oi've wor-rked wid Oitalians and naygers, but if a man wid a face like that comes down here to work besoide me, I gets up."

ANOTHER TERROR.

Frightened Pup—Gee! I always heard that women were going into everything; but I never knew there were lady dog catchers;

Counsel Sought from Christian Men.

An evidence of the part which our missionary colleges are to play in the reconstruction of Turkey is found in the appointment of two professors in Euphrates college on a committee to consider educational measures for one of the large interior provinces. One, Prof. N. Tenekijian, several years ago served a term of six months in prison, being falsely accused of disloyalty, and Prof. Nahigian studied for a time under President Angell at Ann Arbor. Both are scholarly and earnest Christian men. The same governor has also asked Dr. H. N. Barnum, the veteran missionary of the American board in eastern Turkey, to suggest what in his judgment will promote popular education and social reform.

LIGHT BOOZE

Do You Drink It?

A minister's wife had quite a tussle with coffee and her experience is interesting. She says:

"During the two years of my training as a nurse, while on night duty, I became addicted to coffee drinking. Between midnight and four in the morning, when the patients were asleep, there was little to do except make the rounds, and it was quite natural that I should want a good, hot cup of coffee about that time. It stimulated me and I could keep awake better.

"After three or four years of coffee drinking I became a nervous wreck and thought that I simply could not live without my coffee. All this time I was subject to frequent bilious attacks, sometimes so severe as to keep me in bed for several days.

"After being married, Husband begged me to leave off coffee for he feared that it had already hurt me almost beyond repair, so I resolved to make an effort to release myself from the hurtful habit.

"I began taking Postum, and for a few days felt the languid, tired feeling from the lack of the stimulant, but I liked the taste of Postum and that answered for the breakfast beverage all right.

"Finally I began to feel clearer headed and had steadier nerves. After a year's use of Postum I now feel like a new woman—have not had any bilious attacks since I left off coffee."

"There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

DAMAGE BY FLOOD

Farmers Suffer Heavy Losses to Stock.

BIG BRIDGE SWEPT AWAY

Downpour Assumes Proportions of a Cloudburst and Lowlands Are Suddenly Submerged.

Marshalltown, Iowa, May 17.—The most severe flood in the history of central Iowa since 1896 resulted Saturday when a downpour assumed the proportions of a cloudburst. Thousands of dollars damage will result to farmers who had oats and corn in, especially in the vicinity of Quarry, where the damage was the heaviest.

Much stock will be found drowned when the water subsides and in the fields now are horses and cattle struggling in the water trying to find a place to land.

The Chicago & Northwestern railroad was completely at a standstill all day, no trains coming in until yesterday. At Quarry the big stone arch bridge was washed out and 100 feet of track was suspended in midair. Immense stones of the bridge weighing a ton were carried down Davidson creek 300 feet.

Four hundred men are at work building a temporary bridge and a track around the washout. West of here near Lamoille the Northwestern has another washout with one track useless.

The Northwestern is detouring via Tama and Jewell Junction. The Great Western is tied up by two smaller washouts at Luray and Mingo.

In the south part of town, which is drained by Linn creek, the police last night had to rescue people from their homes by swimming horses. Dewey lake at the soldiers' home was completely destroyed.

Big Fund in Collection.

Marshalltown.—The beginning day of the third week of the Sunday revival campaign established a new record for giving in the fourteen years' experience of "Billy" Sunday in the evangelistic field. Sunday morning Sunday's audience gave over $3,000, which the evangelist says eclipses any record for a single audience in his experience. In twenty-four hours, ending Sunday night, the collections at the tabernacle amounted to $3,565.29. A total of 18,500 people attended the seven meetings on the Sabbath day, making a grand total attendance of 59,500 on the two weeks of the campaign. Practically every cent needed to pay the running expenses of the campaign is now subscribed, represented in the total of $4,820.78. Collections now will be taken only on Sundays.

Seven M. E. Conferences.

Des Moines.—Seven conferences of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held in Iowa next September. The names of the conferences, the places and dates of meetings and the bishops who will preside are given below:

Iowa—At Winfield, Ia., Sept 8, 1909, Bishop Spellmeyer.

Des Moines—At Ames, Ia., Sept. 15, 1909, Bishop Berry.

Northwest Iowa—At Estherville, Ia., Sept. 1909, Bishop Berry.

Upper Iowa—At Mason City, Ia., Sept. 29, 1909, Bishop Berry.

Northwest German—At Klemme, Ia., Sept. 2, 1909, Bishop Nuelsen.

Western Swedish—At Stratford, Ia., Sept. 8, 1909, Bishop Nuelsen.

St. Louis German—At Burlington, Ia., Sept. 15, 1909. Bishop Spellmeyer.

Slander Suit Filed.

Davenport.—The McClaire slander suit in which Mrs. Minnie McCraney asks $25,000 damages from Mrs. Lizzie Smith was filed in court by Attorney J. A. Hanley. In the petition the plaintiff claims that Mrs. Smith stated that Mrs. McCraney had done some shoplifting in Davenport and it is also alleged that Mrs. Smith stated that the plaintiff had confessed to being a kleptomaniac.

Building Boom at Murray.

Murray.—Murray is experiencing a building boom this spring. F. S. Smith the lumberman, has just completed a fine two story residence; Banker N. C. Hoffman is building a fine cottage. Frank Johnson and Frank Friday are both going to build $5,000 residences. A number of farmers near Murray are also contemplating fine residences this fall.

To Vote Bonds for Water Works.

Leon.—The city council has decided to call an election to occur on June 10 to give the people of this city the opportunity to vote on the question of issuing bonds in the sum of $35,000, for the purpose of installing a water works system in this city

MARSHALLTOWN IS GLAD

Iowa Central Company Will Spend Three and a Half Million Dollars on Improvements.

Marshalltown, Ia., May 14.—New machinery and tools, to the amount of $38,000, and an addition to the Iowa Central machine shops, where most of the machinery is to be installed, have just been announced by Master Mechanic Gossett. The machinery has been ordered for a hurried delivery, and some of it is to be installed within ten days, and the rest within thirty. The addition to the machine shops will be 22x160, extending the full length of the present shops.

Included in the machinery for the shops, are two new 150 horsepower boilers and a 150 horse power Corliss engine. Most of the machinery is for the machine shops, but some will be added to the car and blacksmith shops.

The Iowa Central is expending an enormous sum for improvements, aggregating $3,500,000. This sum includes new motive power and rolling stock, the new machinery for the shops, the Keithsburg, Ill., bridge, and roadway improvements. Twelve new Baldwin locomotives will be here June 20, and 250 gondolas of 80,000 capacity are expected by July 1. Fifteen days later the company will receive fifty new drop bottom coal cars of fifty tons capacity.

Two gravel trains will be placed on the road next week, together with two steam shovels. The gravel trains will operate between the Gifford pit and the eastern and Illinois divisions.

VALUABLE PAPERS GIVEN

Ten Thousand Pages of Material Prepared by Noted Iowan Given Historical Society.

Afton Boy May Lose Eyes.

Creston.—The 12-year-old son of Henry Taylor, living at Afton, met with an accident at school this week that came near costing him the loss of both eyes. With a playmate he found a cartridge, and after taking out the shot, they were going to have "some fun" with the powder. An explosion resulted that severely burned the boy's face and hands, and for a time threatened his sight, but physicians now think his eyes may be saved.

Miners Walk Out.

Des Moines.—Angered because the Gibson Coal company refused to discharge James McAuley, pit boss, ninety miners in the Gibson mine at Clive walked out. It was stated at the Gibson office at noon that the mines are running and that a full quota of men will be at work by the middle of the week. "It is purely a question of whether the Gibson company will run its mines or whether the miners will run it," said Mr. Gibson. "McAuley is a good man and we will keep him. If the miners have a grievance against him they have a committee to submit their troubles to. But they didn't do it. They asked to have McAuley fired and we refused." It is claimed by the miners that McAuley is abusive and that it is impossible to work for him.

On Trial For Fraud.

Kansas City, Mo., May 13.—When the trial of the Horn brothers, Raymond P. May and S. H. Snider, charged with using the mails to defraud in promoting the "Two Queens" group of mines in Arizona was resumed in the federal court here today, John J. McKelvey of Pawtucket, R. I., told of investing in the company's stock. Advertising matter which he said had been sent him by the promoters and which promised big returns, was read to the jury.

Gay Time for Funeral Men.

Fort Dodge.—Programs are printed for the annual convention of the Iowa State Funeral Directors' association, to be held here beginning May 25. The opening night will be different from the ordinary convention in that instead of the usual tedious banquet, a theater party will be formed to attend the performance at a vaudeville house, and a dance will be given at the armory, following this performance.

Fined for Running Sunday Show.

Iowa City.—Harry F. Pocock, manager of the Bijou theather, was arrested and fined $5 for operating on Sunday. His hearing was before Mayor Otto. Pocock pleaded guilty. It is expected that subsequent violations of the law will be punished more severely.

Society Wedding in Creston.

Creston.—The wedding of Miss Edith Holiday of this city and Harry M. Dinges of Atlantic, was held at the home of the bride's parents in this city.

Hypocrisy.

Dr. Cook—Briggs, what is a hypocrite?

Briggs, '12—A hypocrite is a stude who comes to freshman English class with a smile on his face.—Wisconsin Sphinx.

SICK HEADACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cured by these Little Pills.

They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature

Brent Good

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

Do You Love Your Child?

Then protect it from the dangers of croup to which every child is subject. Keep in your home all the time, then you're ready for the sudden attacks of croup and colds. Neglect may cost you the life of your child. It's safest to be on your guard.

DR. D. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT

Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant is the best remedy known for croup; it gives quickest relief.

Sold everywhere in three size bottles

$1.00, 50c, 25c

Insomnia

"I have been using Cascarets for Insomnia, with which I have been afflicted for twenty years, and I can say that Cascarets have given me more relief than any other remedy I have ever tried. I shall certainly recommend them to my friends as being all that they are represented."

Thos. Gillard, Elgin, Ill.

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good. Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken or Gripe. 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold in bulk. The genuine tablet stamped C C C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back. 924

DON'T Wear Other Overalls When You Can Buy

OAK BRAND OVERALLS

JUST AS CHEAP

SOLD BY LEADING DEALERS EVERYWHERE

Made with the Greatest Care

Made of Best Materials

Made in Omaha by

Byrne & Hammer Dry Goods Co.

It's a Good Thing. Everybody says so. A-B-C TEA Try It and Be Convinced.

Western Canada

MORE BIG CROPS IN 1908

Another 50,000 settlers from the United States. New districts opened for settlement. 320 acres of land to each settler,—160 free homestead and 160 at $3.00 per acre.

"A vast rich country and a contented prosperous people."—Extract from correspondence of a National Editor, whose visit to Western Canada, in August, 1908, was an inspiration.

Many have paid the entire cost of their farms and had a balance of from $10.00 to $20.00 per acre as a result of one crop.

Spring wheat, winter wheat, oats, barley, flax and peas are the principal crops, while the wild grasses bring to perfection the best cattle that have ever been sold on the Chicago market.

Splendid climate, schools and churches in all localities. Railways touch most of the settled districts, and prices for produce are always good. Lands may also be purchased from railway and land companies.

For pamphlets, maps and information regarding low railway rates, apply to Superintendent of Immigration, Ottawa, Canada, or the authorized Canadian Government Agents

E. T. HOLMES, 315 Jackson St., St. Paul, Minn.
W. V. BENNETT, 801 New York Life Bldg., Omaha, Neb.

THE BUSY WORLD WEARS

W. L. DOUGLAS $3.00 SHOES $3.50

$4.00 and $5.00 Shoes	The Reason I Make and Sell More Men's $3.00 and $3.50 Shoes Than Any Other Manufacturer is because I give the wearer the benefit of the most complete organization of trained experts and skilled shoemakers in the country.
$2.00 and $2.50 Shoes	The selection of the leathers for each part of the shoe, and every detail of the making in every department, is looked after by the best shoemakers in the shoe industry. If I could show you how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are made you would then understand why they hold their shape, fit better, and wear longer than any other make.
Boys' Shoes $1.00 to $3.00	My Method of Tanning the Soles makes them More Flexible and Longer Wearing than any other.

Shoes for Every Member of the Family, Men, Boys Women, Misses and Children. For sale by shoe dealers everywhere.

CAUTION! None genuine without W. L. Douglas name and price stamped on bottom. Fast Color Eyelets used exclusively. Catalogue Mailed Free. W. L. DOUGLAS, 167 SPARK STREET, BROCKTON, MASS.

Paxtine

TOILET ANTISEPTIC

—NOTHING LIKE IT FOR—

THE TEETH Paxtine excels any dentifrice in cleansing, whitening and removing tartar from the teeth, besides destroying all germs of decay and disease which ordinary tooth preparations cannot do.

THE MOUTH Paxtine used as a mouth-wash disinfects the mouth and throat, purifies the breath, and kills the germs which collect in the mouth, causing sore throat, bad teeth, bad breath, grippe, and much sickness.

THE EYES when inflamed, tired, aching and burn, may be instantly relieved and strengthened by Paxtine.

CATARRH Paxtine will destroy the germs that cause catarrh, heal the inflammation and stop the discharge. It is a sure remedy for uterine catarrh.

Paxtine is a harmless yet powerful germicide, disinfectant and deodorizer. Used in bathing it destroys odors and leaves the body antiseptically clean.

FOR SALE AT DRUG STORES, 50c. OR POSTPAID BY MAIL.

LARGE SAMPLE FREE!

THE PAXTON TOILET CO., BOSTON, MASS.

Readers of this paper desiring to buy anything advertised in its columns should insist upon having what they ask for, refusing all substitutes or imitations.

DEFIANCE STARCH—16 ounces to the package—other starches only 12 ounces—same price and "DEFIANCE" IS SUPERIOR QUALITY.

The Grip of Spring.

During the last twenty years many of our citizens have been attacked in the spring months by grip. Some have had serious or fight attacks every year or two. All know to be a dangerous disease. If Lane's Pleasant Tablets (which are sold at 25 cents a box by druggists and dealers) are taken when the first symptoms are felt, there is hardly a chance of the malady getting a foothold. If you cannot get them near home, send 25 cents to Orator F. Woodward, Le Roy, N. Y. Sample free.

He Knew.

"I want to get something suitable for a wedding gift."

"Yes, ma'am," replied the floorwalker. "Pickle dishes in the basement."—Detroit Free Press.

The new RUSS BLUE makes clothes whiter than snow. Delights the laundress. All grocers sell it.

Nearly all of the world's supply of asbestos comes from Canada.

Libby's Food Products

LIBBY'S EVAPORATED MILK

Contains double the Nutriment and None of the Injurious Bacteria so often found in So-called Fresh or Raw Milk.

The use of Libby's Insures Pure, Rich, Wholesome, Healthful Milk that is Superior in Flavor and Economical in Cost.

Libby's Evaporated Milk is the Purest, Freshest, High-grade Milk Obtained from Selected Carefully Fed Cows. It is pasteurized and then Evaporated, (the water taken out) filled into Bright, New Tins, Sterilized and Sealed Air Tight until You Need It.

Try LIBBY'S and tell your friends how good it is.

Libby, McNeill & Libby
CHICAGO

Des Moines Directory

TEXAS PANHANDLE LAND. Go with us to Dalhart, Texas. Private car leaves Des Moines 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of each month. Write us for text books. ROYAL LAND CO., 201 Commercial Bldg., Des Moines, Iowa.

THRESHERMAN'S SUPPLIES Oils, Belting, Packing, Hose, Steam and Water Fittings, Pipe, etc., for the Factory, Farm or Home. Write, Phone or Telegraph your orders to THE GLOBE MACHINERY & SUPPLY CO., 205-207 W. Court Ave., Des Moines, Iowa.

19c Sheet Music All the popular music at 10c, 15c and 19c per copy and 1c postage. Send 2 names of music friends for free Bulletin and Catalogues. EARLY MUSIC HOUSE, Des Moines, Ia.

KODAK ON THE FARM Free for the asking. Amateur finishing by experts our specialty. Des Moines Photo Materials Co.

Machinery Machine Shop and Foundry. Largest stock of used machinery in Iowa. Engines, Boilers, Steam Pumps, Belting, Shafting, Hangers, etc., bought and sold. American Iron Works, 213-223 E. First St., Des Moines, Iowa.

HAIL INSURANCE Now is the time to expect hailstorms. Protect yourself by insuring your crops. Secure the best protection by seeing our local agent, or write the Home Office for full particulars as to taking out a policy. Reliable Agents Wanted. The Mutual Hailstorm Insurance Ass'n of Iowa C. V. Stanley, Sec'y Des Moines, Iowa

The State Insurance Company of Des Moines, Iowa, has paid over FOUR MILLION DOLLARS for Fire, Lightning and Tornado Losses The season is on—get a Policy now. Prompt and fair treatment is our motto.

"CAPITAL CITY" "BLUE SHIELD" ROOFING Ask your dealer. If he hasn't it write us. CARR & ADAMS CO., Des Moines, Ia. Manufacturers and Jobbers of the Best of Everything in Millwork.

BARES TURKS' PLOT

AMERICAN MISSIONARY SAYS ABDUL'S GOVERNMENT PLANNED THE ADANA MASSACRE.

RAPS AMERICAN TARDINESS

Declares United States Subjects Had to Depend on British Consul for Aid—Forty-five Mutiny Leaders Arrested at Salonika.

Boston.—That the recent massacre at Adana, Asiatic Turkey, was deliberately planned by the Turkish government under Abdul Hamid, is the belief expressed in a letter to the American Board of Foreign Missions from Rev. Stephen Van R. Trowbridge, one of the missionaries in the district where many were killed.

The letter from Trowbridge, dated April 23 and sent by way of Constantinople, has just reached the American board, and it gives some particulars of the recent massacres not hitherto made known in this country.

Briefly describing the funeral of American Missionaries Maurer and Rogers, who were killed during the disorders, Mr. Trowbridge writes:

"The burial took place on Friday evening, the 16th of April. With the city in terrible disorder and scores of conflagrations raging, it was impossible to take the bodies out to the cemetery. The graves were dug side by side at the edge of the girl's school yard and services were conducted by Mr. Macallum and Mr. Trowbridge.

Mr. Trowbridge criticises the American government in the following paragraph of his letter:

"All regret the tardiness of the American government in meeting the crisis. A week and three days have passed and yet not a word from the embassy. Were it not for the untiring efforts of the British consul, Maj. Doughty-Wylie, whose right arm is broken from a bullet, we could neither send letters nor telegrams."

Erzeroum, Asiatic Turkey.—Forty-five leaders of the mutiny here have been arrested on orders issued by Field Harshal Ibraham Pasha, commander of the Fourth army corps.

There is great uneasiness among the population of this city on account of the threatening attitude of the garrison, which has refused to accept 52 officers belonging to the Young Turk party. Djelal Pasha has gone to Constantinople to report on the situation.

Alexandretta, Asiatic Turkey.—The United States revenue cutter Tahoma arrived at this port Thursday for the protection of American interests. The Tahoma is the first American ship to appear in Turkish waters since the beginning of the massacres and disorders in Asiatic Turkey.

Cologne.—The Koelnische Zeitung published a dispatch from Saloniki saying that the Young Turk officers at Erzeroun, Asiatic Turkey, have sent a telegram to the local officers of the committee of union and progress declaring that their soldiers are refusing obedience and demanding the restoration of the Sheriat, and at the same time threatening a general massacre.

The message begs Schefket Pasha to send representatives to quiet the troops and the people, and concludes with the statement that the Young Turk officers do not dare to show themselves abroad.

Marash, Asiatic Turkey.—Distressing accounts continue to be received here from the country side of Armenian villages assailed by bands of Mohammedans, who, acting on the supposition that the Armenians were rising against the government, were quick to strike the first blow. The men were killed whenever found within reach of knife or bullet. The girls were often maltreated, and some of them were carried off to become the wives or slaves of rich men.

Houses were sacked and then burned, farm animals were driven off, and small parties of horsemen rode through the country "cleaning up the Armenians." The entire population of Bechkeny, 2,000 souls, moved to the Zeitoon region for safety.

Children See Three Drown.

Pittsburg, Pa.—To save five cents bridge toll, five foreigners, who had been out of work for many months, attempted to cross the Monongahela river at McKeesport, a suburb, in a small boat, which sank as they got into midstream, drowning three of men. Five hundred school-children enjoying their first day's diversion in a new playground, saw them drown.

Ten bodies had been recovered when the search was abandoned at dark Wednesday night for the victims of Tuesday night's ferryboat accident.

New Minister from Spain.

Madrid. — It is announced that Marquis de Villalobar, first secretary of the Spanish embassy at London, will succeed Don Ramon Pina, the Spanish minister at Washington. Senor Pina goes to the foreign office as under secretary of state in place of the Marquis de Herrera, who has been appointed ambassador at Vienna.

FIVE DIE; 55 HURT IN STORMS

TORNADOES HIT KANSAS, MISSOURI AND OKLAHOMA.

Complete Reports May Increase Number of Dead—Train Plunges Into River.

Kansas City, Mo. — A series of tornadoes in Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma Friday evening killed at least five, injured 55, devastated one town, wrecked a train and did great damage to property.

Twenty-five were injured by a storm that swept over Mount Washington and Fairmount Park, suburbs of Kansas City. At least two of these are thought to be fatally injured and others seriously.

The town of Hollis, Kan., near Concordia, was swept away. Here three were killed and ten seriously injured.

The dead are Fred Jeardoe, John Cyre and George Eckert.

The Eckstrom family, consisting of five persons, is mising. Their house is laid in ruins and it is thought they are dead.

Near Great Bend a tornado killed two and injured 20. All wires are down in that vicinity and it is feared that the death list may be greater.

William Ackerly, a Santa Fe engineer, was killed while working with a bridge gang between Great Bend and Kinsley. Frank Nicholson, a conductor, was also killed. The tornado wrecked the work train of which Ackerly was engineer and blew it into a ditch.

The storm spread over a wide area, however, laid waste many farm houses and injured many whose names could not be obtained. On account of a great portion of the damage done on farms its full extent could not be learned. Many conflicting reports have been received. One had ten killed.

At Hoisington, Kan., a tornado injured and greatly damaged farm property. It was not so severe, however, as that passing over other portions of the state.

Wabash passenger train No. 9 ran through a bridge that had been weakened by a flood into Bull creek, near Randolph. The engine, baggage and mail cars fell into the water. A telephone message from Randolph said several trainmen were missing but that no bodies had been found.

TWENTY BLOWN TO ATOMS

Half Ton of Dynamite Explodes in New York State with Fatal Results.

Albany, N. Y.—The explosion of half a ton of dynamite in the stone quarry of the Callanan Road Improvement Company at South Bethlehem, near Albany, Wednesday, blew to atoms the bodies of 20 workmen.

One thousand pounds of dynamite exploded, and the bodies of the victims were hurled hundreds of feet by the concussion and so badly mutilated as to be almost beyond recognition. As darkness was falling a wagon drew up to the engine house loaded with bodies that had been picked up back on the quarry hill. A crowd of grief-stricken relatives gathered around eager to identify the dead, only to turn away at the sickening sight.

Italians with shovels found here and there portions of bodies and brought their gruesome loads in boxes to the engine house which served as a temporary morgue.

JURY FINDS HAINS GUILTY.

Army Officer Convicted of Slaying Annis—Verdict Is for First Degree Manslaughter.

Flushing, L. I.—Capt. Peter C. Hains, U. S. A., charged with the murder of William E. Annis at the Bayside Yacht club on the afternoon of August 15, 1908, was found guilty of manslaughter in the first degree by the jury in the case Tuesday.

The jury had been out two hours and 45 minutes, when the members filed back into the courtroom, crowded with spectators, and rendered the verdict, which was received by some in the nature of a surprise.

Immediately after the jury rendered its findings the captain was remanded to the custody of the sheriff until Monday, when he is to be sentenced by the court.

ARREST IOWA TEACHERS.

Des Moines School Ma'ams Held to Answer Charge of Cruelty to a Boy.

Des Moines, Ia.—Miss Maud Ewing and Miss Ida May Tilden, teachers in the Longfellow school here, were arrested Thursday, charged with having beaten nine-year-old David Kaplain until he was black and blue.

At a trial before Police Judge Stewart behind closed doors the teachers pleaded not guilty.

The teachers accused the little boy of stealing a five-dollar bill from Miss Tilden. When he denied the charge, he says they laid him over a chair and beat him with switches and pinched his cheeks and body.

Answer This Question

When thousands of women say that they have been cured of their ailments by a certain remedy, does this not prove the merit of that remedy?

Thousands of women have written the story of their suffering, and have told how they were freed from it by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—for thirty years these reports have been published all over America.

Without great merit this medicine could never have gained the largest sale of any remedy for woman's ills—never could have become known and prized in nearly every country in the world.

Can any woman let prejudice stand between her and that which will restore her health? If you believe those who have tried it you know this medicine does cure.

Read this letter from a grateful woman, then make up your mind to give Mrs. Pinkham's medicine a chance to cure you.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I am a firm believer in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was a great sufferer from organic female troubles for years, and almost despaired of ever being well again. I had bearing-down pains, backache, headache and pains in my abdomen, and tried Mrs. Pinkham's Compound as a last resort. The result was astonishing, and I have used it and advocated it ever since. It is a great boon to expectant mothers. I have often said that I should like to have its merits thrown on the sky with a search-light so that women would read and be convinced that there is a remedy for their sufferings.

"My husband joins me in its praise. He has used it for kidney trouble and been entirely cured."—Mrs. E. A. Bishop, 1915 Atlantic Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

ALL ROADS NOW LEAD—To Seattle

"Westward, Ho!"—Haven't YOU heard the cry?

All accounts show that all over the country, the people by thousands are getting ready to come to Seattle this summer.

YOU, too, would better make your plans to come to "the Fair that will be ready."—the ALASKA-YUKON-PACIFIC EXPOSITION, which opens on June 1st. You'll never have so good a chance again to see this wonderful country.

WE INVITE YOU TO MAKE OUR OFFICES YOUR HEADQUARTERS, where you can receive your mail, write your letters, meet your friends, and get all the information about the great Northwest, and about the one best investment of all, UNITS OF SEATTLE'S CENTRAL BUSINESS PROPERTY.

If I can be of any assistance beforehand, please write to me.

FRANK T. HUNTER, President,
THE TRUSTEE COMPANY, Central Bldg., Seattle, Wash.

Moving Pictures Here to Stay

Invest Your Money in Moving Picture Theatres. You Will Get Greater Returns from This Than from Any Other Investment

It pays big to amuse the public. It requires but a small investment to start and maintain a MOVING PICTURE THEATRE. It is a fact that most of these theatres pay 500% on their original investment in one year. FORTUNES are being made in this business on SMALL INVESTMENTS.

The STANDARD FILM EXCHANGE is one of the largest and most reliable companies who make a business of EQUIPPING THEATRES COMPLETELY. We handle everything that belongs to the business. We instruct you how to convert a store room or hall into a MOVING PICTURE THEATRE. We sell you CHAIRS, MACHINES, CURTAIN and SUPPLIES, and RENT YOU MOVING PICTURE FILMS and SONG SLIDES.

WRITE US FOR FULL DETAILS and ESTIMATES. We invite you to call at our offices, where every courtesy will be extended. Address us as follows:

Standard Film Exchange

Dept. 828, 79 Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois

Kindly mention this paper when writing.

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Booksfree. Highest references. Best results.

CANCER CURED WITHOUT KNIFE OR BURNING PLASTERS CURES GUARANTEED REFERENCE AND CONSULTATION FREE DR. H. NEVINS PEORIA ILL.

Just Dust it on the Sore.
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls while at work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bottom and Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid by Mail. Money Back if Not Satisfied.
The RED STAR HEALING POWDER CO. (25c. and 50c. Cans). GARNER, IOWA.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

HOLLISTER'S
Rocky Mountain Tea Nuggets
A Busy Medicine for Busy People.
Brings Golden Health and Renewed Vigor.

A specific for Constipation, Indigestion, Liver and Kidney troubles, Pimples, Eczema, Impure Blood, Bad Breath, Sluggish Bowels, Headache and Backache. Its Rocky Mountain Tea in tablet form, 35 cents a box. Genuine made by HOLLISTER DRUG COMPANY, Madison, Wis.
GOLDEN NUGGETS FOR SALLOW PEOPLE

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified.
FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE
it is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:40 p. m.
82 ..... 2:50 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:35 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

L. O. Turgasen, Agent

McCALL PATTERNS 10¢ AND 15¢ NONE HIGHER

McCALL'S MAGAZINE 50¢ A YEAR INCLUDING A FREE PATTERN

McCALL PATTERNS
Celebrated for style, perfect fit, simplicity and reliability nearly 40 years. Sold in nearly every city and town in the United States and Canada, or by mail direct. More sold than any other make. Send for free catalogue.

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
More subscribers than any other fashion magazine—million a month. Invaluable. Latest styles, patterns, dressmaking, millinery, plain sewing, fancy needlework, hairdressing, etiquette, good stories, etc. Only 50 cents a year (worth double), including a free pattern. Subscribe today, or send for sample copy.

WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS
to Agents. Postal brings premium catalogue and new cash prize offers. Address

THE McCALL CO., 238 to 248 W. 37th St., NEW YORK

H. C. LAU

DEALER IN

[illegible] - - Iowa

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

Mitchell Bros. have purchased the yard of the Atlas Lumber Co. at Corwith.

John Christopherson has resigned his position as manager of the Reliance Elevator Co. at Garner.

Miss Gertrude Parker, of Klemme, spent Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Thos. Cashman.—Goodell Globe.

M. C. Dunlap of Corwith has assumed engineering charge of a mutual drainage ditch near Kanawha, to cost in the neighborhood of $2300.

Prof. Neveln who has been superintendent of the Belmond schools for some time past, has been elected to a like position in the schools at Storm Lake at a substantial advance in salary.

Mrs. A. W. Lee, who has been at the Mayo hospital for the past two weeks, has had two operations on her face and expected to have another one today. She is doing nicely and has been relieved of much of her pain in the face. Mr. Lee went to Rochester the first of the week to remain a few days.—Britt News.

Married at the home of Geo. McKee in this city Thursday afternoon, May 6th, Rev. Keck officiating, Mr. Charles McKee and Mrs. Ada Haner an estimable lady of Lexington, McClain, Co., Ill., coming here to meet her husband. The happy couple retired at once to the Walsh farm in Ell township where Mr. McKee is engaged in farming. We extend our best wishes to the happy pair.—Democrat.

Arthur Waldow, son of August Waldow, living about a mile north of Miller committed suicide last Tuesday by taking strychnine. From all reports the young man was despondent over the fact that some young lady had jilted him, taking it so much to heart it turned his head temporarily, and in the moment of despondency he procured the deadly drug with which he committed the rash act. He was twenty three years of age and was highly respected in the community where he lived, was an honest industrious young man and his sudden death from his own hand has cast a deep gloom over the entire community.—Forest City Summit.

The sensation of the week was the shooting of Mrs. Gilligan and her hired girl, Miss Laura Stilson, by Patrick Gilligan. There has been family trouble and a division of property. On Monday Mrs. Gilligan and the girl were in the rooms occupied formerly by the family as a residence, over the old Mudgett market. The first thing known of the trouble was a series of shots and a few blood-curdling yells, and the next down the back stairs came a couple of females three steps at a jump. Dr. Cole extracted a 22 caliber bullet from Mrs. Gilligan's wrist and another from Miss Stilson's leg. An information was sworn out by Mrs. Gilligan and Pat appeared, waived examination and put up a $2,000 bond to appear at the District Court in September. Pat says it was his room, he ordered them out, and when they refused to go he started them. This is probably true as they were coming about that time, and everybody agrees that they came.—Britt Tribune.

Lived 152 Years

Wm. Parr—England's oldest man—married the third time at 120, worked in the fields until 132 and lived 20 years longer. People should be youthful at 80. James Wright, of Spurlock, Ky., shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16 year-old boy," he writes, "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. For thirty years Kidney trouble made life a burden, but the first bottle of this wonderful medicine convinced me I had found the greatest cure on earth." They're a godsend to weak, sickly, rundown or old people. Try them, 50c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

Just A Suggestion

We reprint the following from the Cedar Rapids Republican and hope that Bro. Brackett may find therein some ideas for his popular "Fashion Note" column:

"Another new gown is coming for women. It is a pantaloon dress, it parts at the knee and from that point down women who affect this new style will be dressed very much like men. But it is safe to say that it will remain the dress of the peculiar few. The average woman is not going to lay aside the conventional gown in which she really looks more becoming and makes a better impression than in all the new fangled things that are suggested from time to time."

Kills to Stop the Fiend

The worst foe for 12 years of John Deye, of Gladwin, Mich., was a running ulcer. He paid doctors over $500.00 without benefit. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve killed the ulcer and cured him. Cures Fever Sores, Boils, Felons, Eczema, Salt Rheum. Infallible for Piles, Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Corns. 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

The Best Family Newspaper

An ideal newspaper for the American home must be habitually clean and high minded, it must offer something of interest to every member of the family, and it must present daily the news of the whole world in authentic and readable form. A large contract you will say. Well, the newspaper that comes nearest to filling it in the west is The Chicago Record-Herald. Its moral tone is always high, its news service is unsurpassed, and probably no other paper in the United States has so brilliant an array of special features suited to the tastes and needs of every member of the family. Business and professional men have long regarded The Chicago Record Herald as the best paper for their own reading because of its unequaled faculty for getting all the news of the world and putting it into the briefest possible form for the busy man. They also esteem it for the reliability of its financial, agricultural and market reports. Young men perhaps find its greatest attraction in the excellent sporting department, which fills four entire pages on Sunday and a page or more on other days. Wives and mothers emphatically prefer The Record Herald on account of its well-conducted feminine departments—its daily recipes and menus, its daily fashion news and hints for home dressmaking. Mme. Qui Vive's pungent and sensible beauty talks, Marion Harland's famous page and the rest of the good things that make up the handsome Woman's Section in the Sunday paper. Children enjoy the Little Nemo and other comic Section pictures, with the bright stories for boys and girls every Sunday. And all the family together can enjoy the interesting travels and special articles of William E. Curtis, Mr. Kiser's humor and verse, the serial stories and many short features on the news columns.

The Chicago Record-Herald has every right to call itself the best all-around family newspaper in the west.

Simply Defies all Records

As an all-round laxative tonic and health builder no other pills can compare with Dr. King's New Life Pills. They tone and regulate stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood, strengthen the nerves; cure Constipation, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Jaundice, Headache, Chills and Malaria. Try them, 25 cents at G. A. Pabst & Co.

Ground the Wire Fences

It is not alone the best plan to depend too much on insurance to pay lightning losses where stock is killed by reason of the conducting characteristics of wire fences. This can be largely made safe by occasionally grounding the wires of the fence along the string. The wire extending into the ground should extend to permaneat moisture. Then a stroke of lightning will be carried off to the ground and will be harmless. Lightning chooses the path of least resistance, hence the safety in the grounding of the wires.—Register and Farmer.

Won't Slight a Good Friend

"If ever I need a cough medicine again I know what to get" declares Mrs. A. L. Alley of Beals, Me., for, after using ten bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, and seeing its excellent results in my own family and others, I am convinced it is the best medicine made for Coughs, Colds and Lung Trouble." Everyone who tries it feels just that way. Relief is felt at once and its quick cure surprises you. For Bronchitis, Asthma, Hemorrhage, Croup, LaGrippe, Sore Throat, pain in chest or lungs its supreme. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

The Garner Methodists are figuring on building a handsome new church this summer.

Rheumatism

Nine out of every cases of rheumatism simply rheumatism of muscles, due to cold or or chronic rheumatism such cases no internal ment is required. The application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all needed and it is certain give quick relief. Give a trial and see for you how quickly it relieves pain and soreness.

Lame Shoulder.

This is a common of muscular rheumatism. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely four times day and a quick cure is certain.

Lumbago.

When muscular rheumatism attacks the muscles the small of the back it is called lumbago. It is usually quite severe and every movement adds to the pain and especially when one attempts to straighten up. An internal treatment is required. Keep quiet, as every movement aggravates the disease and apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and you will soon be well again.

Sprains and Bruises are cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment.

Attention

PEOPLE!

Don't forget that the Gruetzmacher Bros. handle all kinds of stoves such as heaters, cook stoves and steel ranges.

Also a full line of hardware, groceries, flour and feed.

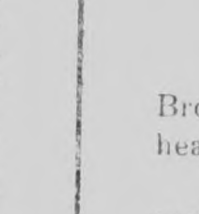
A complete line of implements also paints, oils and varnishes.

Rock and barrel salt. Barb wire and field fence.

Yours to please at the old stand,

Gruetzmacher Bros.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOW



OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE. LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STATE. Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. Investigation free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund money. All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines required. No detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by mail or express. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage. Charges low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for terms. Consultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call or write to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men the results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without the use of harmful instruments. Our method fully explains.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the scrotum causing nervous debility, weakness of the nervous system, etc., permanently cured.

BLOOD POISON —That terrible disease in all its stages, cured for life. Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, and all forms of private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few days without pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application, description of above diseases, effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrapper.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINES,

SUBSCRIBE FOR

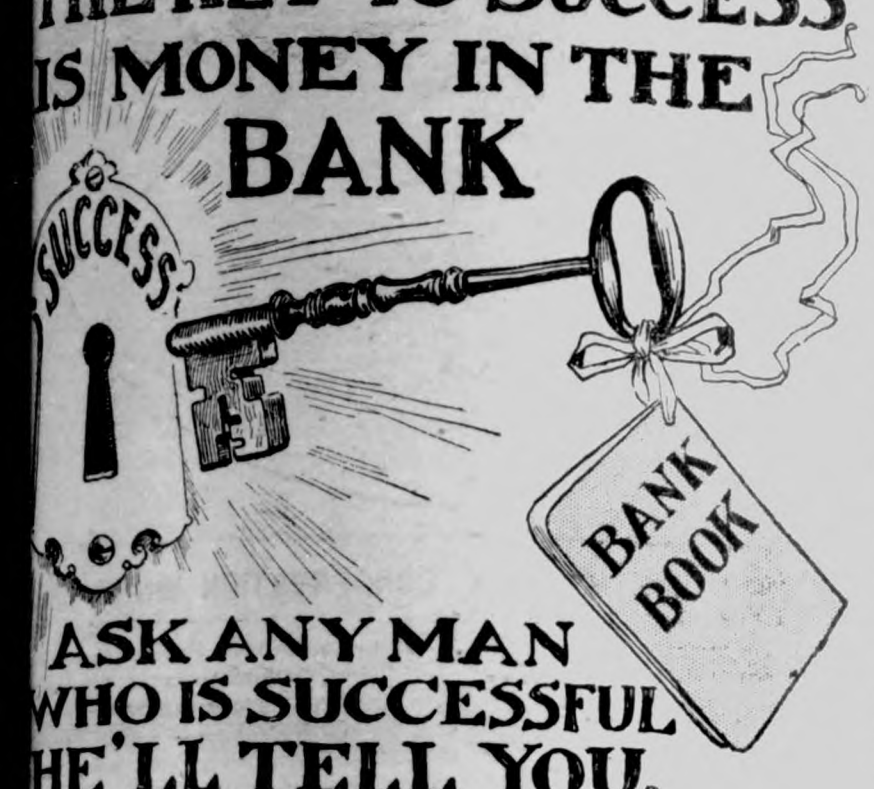
THE TIMES

$1.00 A YE

The Klemme Times.

VOLUME XII. NUMBER 43 — KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1909. — $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

THE KEY TO SUCCESS IS MONEY IN THE BANK



ASK ANY MAN WHO IS SUCCESSFUL HE'LL TELL YOU.

28

OPPORTUNITIES

Come every day to men with Money. Has yours come?

WERE YOU READY?

A Savings Account started a few years ago would come in handy now.

Start it now; in a few years you will be the man ready with the money.

State Savings Bank.

Klemme - - Iowa

STATEMENT

of the condition of the

State Savings Bank

organized under the laws of Iowa, located at Klemme, in the county of Hancock, at the close of business on the 18th day of May, A. D., 1909, made to the Auditor of State as required by law.

ASSETS

Amount of Bills, Bonds and other evidences of debt discounted or purchased actually owned by the Bank (carried out)		$107,914 77
Amount of cash on hand described as follows:
Gold coin,	485 00
Silver coin and bullion	293 19
Legal tender and national bank notes and subsidary coin	2691 00
Drafts and checks on other solvent banks and other cash items not dishonored on hand and belonging to the bank	953 44	3,644 44
		$4,422 63
Amount subject to be drawn at sight on deposit with solvent banks or bankers (specifying names and locations of the banks):
Continental Nat'l Bk. Chicago, Ill.	967 85
Merchants Nat'l Bk. Cedar Rapids, Iowa	1,973 54
Drovers Deposit National B Chicago, Ill	1,161 75
Farmers Nat'l Bk. Garner, Iowa	3,814 55
Century Savings Bk. Des Moines, Iowa	1,724 07	9,641 76
Overdrafts secured	2,125 08
Expense account		2 125 08
Value of real property (owned by the Bank)	9,949 34
Value of personal property [owned by the bank]	1,784 92	11,734 26
Total Assets		135,838 50

LIABILITIES

Amount of capial stock actually paid up in cash		15,000 00
Total amount due depositors, as follows:
Amount sight deposits	23,548.50
Amount deman deposits	7,215.00
Amount time deposits	76,905.24	107,668.74
Indebtedness of every kind, due banks, bankers, or persons other than regular depositors:
Bills payable	2,500 00	2,500 00
Surplus fund	10,500 00
Other profits on hand (after deducting taxes and expenses)	169 76	10,669 76
Total Liabilities		135,838.50
Amount of all liabilities to the Bank on par of its directors:
As borrowers	8,898 55
As endorsers	3,632 82	12,531.37

STATE OF IOWA } ss.
HANCOCK COUNTY. }

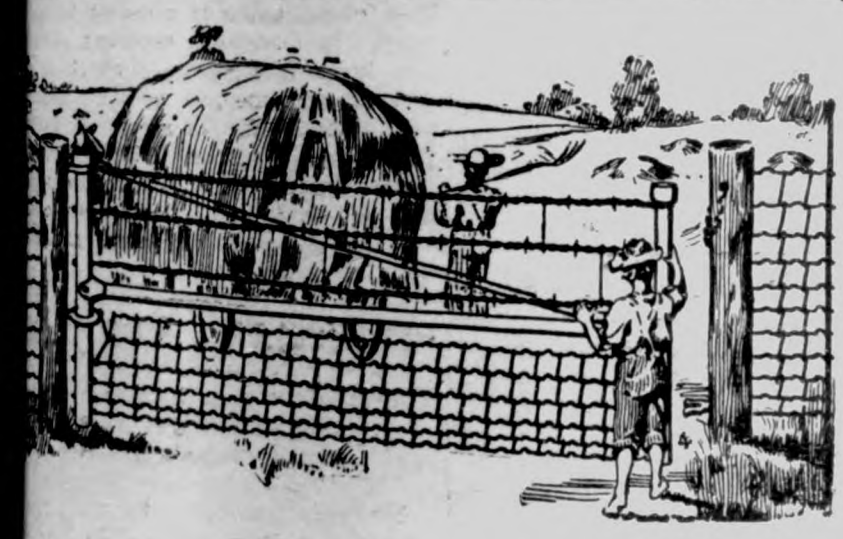
We, W. R. Bloom, President and P. M. Griesemer, Cashier, of the Bank above named, do solemnly swear that the foregoing statement is full, true and correct, to the best of our knowledge and belief, that the assets therein set forth are bona fide the propery of said Bank in its corporate capacity and that no part of the same has been loaned or advanced to said Bank for the purpose of being exhibited as a portion of its assets.

W. R. BLOOM, President.
P. M. GRIESEMER, Cashier.

SEAL — Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence by W. R. Bloom and P. M. Griesemer, this 25th day of May, A. D. 1909.

F. E. BLACKSTONE, Notary Public

Attested by:
H. J. Stille,
Aug. E. Kaster, } Directors.
D. D. Ross,



Iowa Gates are more than a convenience if women or children ever use them for being so simple they are very light and can easily be swung either way. The IOWA gate is made to last—no castings to break—no wearing parts—even the wires have galvanized stretchers fastened them. Will not blow down, burn or rot out. Get prices.

H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, AGENT
KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J. W. WATERMAN

OUR BUSINESS IS BANKING
BANKING IS OUR BUSINESS

The sign "Bank" does not make a bank and is often misleading. It requires time, energy, close attention to business, a substantial capital and ripe experience in banking to make a bank. We claim, without blushing, all essentials necessary to make our business that of banking, and tender our patrons a service thoroughly seasoned by years of experience, backed by substantial capital.

The First National Bank
CAPITAL $25,000

YOU BUY
.. Satisfaction ..

When you buy
Lowe Brothers' High Standard Paint

Spreads better, wont check or blister, colors are true. Beware of the "Just as good" as Lowe Brothers.

MARTIN SENOUR'S
School House Red for Barns

Put up in 1 gal. pails or 5 gal. kits. It covers most, spreads best, looks best, wears longest, gives best results

BRIGHTEN
Your Linoleum with Vernicol

G. A. PABST & CO.
DRUGGISTS

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile, both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

Buy Your SCREENS NOW
The Flies Will Soon be Here

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company
N. L. PALMER, AGENT
KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

Kills to Stop the Fiend

The worst foe for 12 years of John Deye, of Gladwin, Mich., was a running ulcer. He paid doctors over $100,00 without benefit. Then Bucklin's Arnica Salve killed the ulcer and cured him. Cures Fever-Sores, Boils, Felons, Eczema, Salt Rheum. Infallible for Piles, Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Corns. 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher

KLENNOSE - - - IOWA

Open season for fish tales.

Bloodless revolutions are in the same class with painless dentistry.

Some American boys would not care to be president if they could be champion pitchers.

Spells of nasty weather are now called by the weather bureau "energetic disturbances."

Between dining on boot heels and pony meat polar explorations are not attractive to the club man.

The reserve forest lands saved from the ax and, let us hope, from fire equal in area the state of Texas.

Colorado has some shrewd holdup men. In a recent robbery they did not overlook the Pullman car porter.

Other Washington papers are so bright that it is a wonder the Congressional Record doesn't speed up a little.

When it is all over but the shouting there are those in the audience who do not appreciate that form of noise.

Cheer up! The national deficit up to yet is only $89,429,501. And why worry when we can always borrow money?

In a few more generations the French will have convinced themselves that the Wright brothers were born in France.

When the authorities keep their hands off, gambling is no more a matter of chance than is running the Philadelphia mint.

It's all right to decoy flying machines, but one thing in their favor is that one doesn't have to lie on one's back to repair them.

Threatening letters may be jokes, but it is a sort of humor which should be discouraged effectually whenever the jokers are caught.

The census bureau reports "a shortage of about 25,000 children." Last summer's drought or the renascense of the kidnaping industry?

France will charge German aeronauts $100 each for landing on French soil. Some will save the money if they only land hard enough.

A Gotham magistrate has decided that it is no crime to tickle another, which illustrates what grave questions of law modern life is continually bringing up for adjudication.

The Russian Black sea fleet has sailed under sealed orders. Wouldn't it make the commander mad if he opened the envelope and found that he was bound for Japan!

University advisory boards are becoming the fashion nowadays, but as a rule the trustees and faculties of such institutions do not expect these boards to give too much advice.

A velocity of 100 miles an hour was attained by the wind in Cleveland the other day, but the people of Cleveland will go right on believing Chicago to be the windiest city in the world.

Make a memorandum in your note book that Boston will celebrate in 1920, with a world's fair, the three hundredth anniversary of the Pilgrim Fathers, and do not fail to attend it.

One of the scientists announces that overeating as well as excessive drinking will produce a red, bulbous nose. But that doesn't help much. It is about as foolish to overeat as to drink to excess.

New York is to have a 31-story hotel. The builders probably cling to the theory that it will not hurt any more, in case of fire, to jump from the thirty-first story than it would to leap from the seventeenth floor.

Children are so unpopular with landlords that an Illinois legislator has introduced a bill which provides that it shall be unlawful and to be against public policy for any landlord to discriminate against families where there are children under 14 years old. It is also declared to be equally reprehensible for any landlord to insert a clause forfeiting a lease in case a baby is born to the tenant family or a child is adopted. It is a safe bet that this man is a father and is not a landlord.

New Bedford is again restored to the map by the report of the master of a whaling ship that was fitted out in that port and has returned with a record. The ship has brought back to New Bedford more than 2,000 barrels of whale oil of a value of more than $40,000. This means probably that Capt. Hagerty's crew captured 40 or 50 "leviathans of the deep," which is pretty good business when one considers that the whale oil fishing has been regarded as largely a thing of the past.

SOON FACE TRIAL

Ottumwa's Slayer Will Be Tried This Week

RAPID PROGRESS IS EXPECTED

Prosecutor Connell Will Make a Determined Effort to Secure Infliction of the Death Penalty.

Ottumwa, Iowa, May 24.—In the court room of Appanoose county in Centerville Tuesday will begin the trial of John Junken for the murder of Miss Clara Rosen upon the night of Feb. 5 near the corner of Gara and Dare streets in Ottumwa, where, according to the negro's sworn confession, he struck the defenseless girl viciously with a huge rock and later carried her body to an excavation some eight feet above, where it was partially hid under some brush and branches of trees. The murderer robbed the body of a diamond ring, $11.75 in money, gold beads and other trinkets.

The attorneys in the case, one side bent upon presenting the evidence in such a manner that the jury will return a verdict of death by hanging—the other equally as determined to save their client from such a fate, will, with the aid of witnesses, go over the details of the brutal murder and ask the court to mete out justice.

Relatives of the dead girl, her aged father for one, will be placed upon the stand. The mother of the negro, Amy Junken, will also testify, and throughout the proceeding a war of law will be fought by County Attorney Seneca Cornell and his assistant, E. R. Mitchell, against Judge J. C. Mitchell and his two associates, F. M. Hunter and John R. Price.

Judge M. A. Roberts of Ottumwa, who is the presiding judge at the term now in progress in Appanoose county, will hear the case. The jury is expected to be secured during the morning of the second day, May 26, and the opening addresses to the twelve men will consume the balance of the court hours for Wednesday. The examination of the twenty state witnesses will consume the following two days, and the witnesses for the defendant will be heard during the afternoon of Friday. From present indications the trial will be completed Saturday, May 29, and by Sunday morning the accused negro will know whether he will have to suffer death by hanging as the penalty for the crime which shocked not only Ottumwa, but the entire state and middle west the first week in February.

Crops in Good Condition.

Logan.—Though the backward spring has delayed corn planting in Harrison county, yet acording to reports about 60 per cent of the corn has been planted, and the ground is said to be in prime condition; neither too wet nor too cold. Wheat and oats are pushing to the front, making up for lost time. The rains have been very beneficial to the pastures and meadows; though the rainfall has been sufficient, yet the grass lands could stand more without being harmed. With the exception of the peach, present conditions indicate that Harrison county well to the front in the production of all varieties of fruit grown in western Iowa.

Ruins Shade Trees.

Sibley.—Citizens are highly indignant over the conduct of some miscreant. Last week there was a wholesale poisoning of dogs and this week someone bored inch holes into twenty-four beautiful shade and fruit trees and filled the holes with muriatic acid, and it is thought that the entire lot of trees are destroyed. The trees were planted about thirty years ago and they were highly prized by the people of Sibley. There is now talk of offering $1,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of the perpetrator of this crime, the amount being raised by subscription.

Big Suit Started.

Iowa City.—Ruth Renny, the Cedar Rapids girl who sued the Rock Island Railway Co. for $25,000 damages, alleging that she was crippled for life in a wreck at Rock Island, has temporarily lost her case. Her attorneys have dismissed it in the district court here, but will probably start a somewhat similar suit later. They did not wait for Judge Howell to rule on the company's motion to take the case from the jury.

Gilman Votes School Bonds.

Marshalltown.—The town of Gilman has voted to bond the independent school district of that place for $13,200 to build a new school house. The old school burned last winter, and the new building will be in readiness for the beginning of school in the fall.

GREAT DAMAGE BY FLOOD

FARMERS SUFFER HEAVY LOSSES TO STOCK.

Downpour Assumes Proportions of a Cloudburst and Lowlands Are Submerged.

Marshalltown.—One of the most severe floods in the history of central Iowa since 1896 resulted Saturday when a downpour assumed the proportions of a cloudburst. Thousands of dollars damage will result to farmers who had oats and corn in, especially in the vicinity of Quarry, where the damage was the heaviest.

Much stock will be found drowned when the water subsides and in the fields now are horses and cattle struggling in the water trying to find a place to land.

The Chicago & Northwestern railroad was completely at a standstill all day, no trains coming in until yesterday. At Quarry the big stone arch bridge was washed out and 100 feet of track was suspended in midair. Immense stones of the bridge weighing a ton were carried down Davidson creek 300 feet.

Four hundred men are at work building a temporary bridge and a track around the washout. West of here near Lamoille the Northwestern has another washout with one track useless.

The Northwestern is detouring via Tama and Jewell Junction. The Great Western is tied up by two smaller washouts at Luray and Mingo.

In the south part of town, which is drained by Linn creek, the police last night had to rescue people from their homes by swimming horses. Dewey lake at the soldiers' home was completely destroyed.

DEATH FIGHT ON TRAIN

Another Crime Startles Ottumwa's "Smoky Row"—Couple Had Quarreled.

Ottumwa.—Because his white wife would not return to live with him and their two children at Rutledge, George Edwards, negro, killed her, using a small pocket knife, and then committed suicide with the same instrument. He cut the woman's throat and then slashed his own, dying five minutes after the murder.

Edwards was a miner and had had marital troubles for some time. He had come to Ottumwa in the afternoon to plead with his wife to return home. Being unsuccessful, he committed the murder. The crime occurred at the Allen King home in "Smoky Row." The woman was a daughter of David Havenor.

Two Good Experimental Farms.

Clear Lake.—Twelve acres of land was set apart at the county farm, near here, this spring as an experimental station for corn growing, and and J. D. Hill, of Ames, is here to take care of the crop. The field is laid off in sections. Different spots here and there are selected where a place is planted eight hills square, which is to test the character of the ground. At another place four rows are planted across the field with from one to five kernels in each hill. Another four rows are planted with three kernels in each hill. Another portion of the field is planted from seed selected by three different farmers, who offer ears each from which the seed is taken. In this way a variety of tests will be made which will be studied at the coming fall corn juding contest.

Funds for Consumptives' Home.

Sioux City.—The board of supervisors of Woodbury county have been asked to call a special election for the purpose of voting an appropriation for the erection of a consumptives' home on the outskirts of Sioux City. At the same time it is probable that the county will be asked to vote another appropriation for the purchase of a new site for a detention hospital. The present pest house is located in the heart of the business district and an effort to change its location has been made annually for many years.

Dr. Means Heads Lady Medics.

Dubuque.—Dr. Lena Means of Des Moines was elected president of the Iowa Medical Women at the twelfth annual meeting of the association held here. The other officers: First vice-president, Dr. Kate Horpel Boone; second vice-president, Dr. Pauline Myers-Townsend, Marshalltown; secretary, Dr. Lena Beach, Cherokee; treasurer, Dr. Clara Whitmore, Cedar Rapids.

Council Bluffs Enterprise.

Council Bluffs.—Another new enterprise is to locate in Council Bluffs. The Central Calendar company of Shenandoah will move its entire plant here and make this city its headquarters in the future. About $12,000 will be invested.

AN OUNCE OF EARLY PREVENTION.

KING FORCES AN APOLOGY

EARL OF RONALDSHAY "SORRY" FOR HIS INSULT.

Called Countess Granard a "Dumped American Heiress Fortunate Enough to Secure a Title."

London. — The earl of Ronaldshay's apology to the countess of Granard (who was Miss Beatrice Mills of New York) for publicly calling her "a dumped American heiress who has been fortunate enough to secure a title," has not even the merit of spontaneity. The apology was made in deference to the king's express wish.

Were it not for the American peeress and the American "millionairess" that luxurious circle of English society patronized by the king could not exist a month. So King Edward frowns on anything that might discourage English peers from marrying wealthy American women, or anything likely to render English society distasteful to American women.

Lord Ronaldshay, eldest son and heir of the marquis of Zetland, belongs to an influential family. Ronaldshay is the unionist member of the house of commons for the Hornsey division of Middlesex. Thither went the countess of Granard and opened a bazar organized by Lord Ronaldshay's Liberal opponent. The countess, who has been active on behalf of her husband's party, spent money lavishly at the bazar, and consequently made a deep impression on the voters. Lord Ronaldshay, much irritated, made his insulting remarks about the countess speaking in a North London suburb.

DECISION AGAINST NEGRO.

Black Does Not Suffer Same Humiliation for False Arrest as White, Says Court.

New York. — A negro and a white man do not suffer equal humiliation in the eyes of law for false arrest, according to the appellate division of the supreme court, which sustained an order of Justice Dugro of the supreme court, reducing the amount of damages awarded George Griffin, a Pullman porter, from $2,500 to $300. The negro was arrested in Montreal, charged with stealing a pocketbook, but the charge was not substantiated and he was released. He brought suit against Daniel H. Brady, a New York manufacturer, who caused his arrest.

In his order, Justice Dugro said: "While in some senses the negro under the law is just as good as a man as the president of the United States, it would be a bad argument to say that he is just as good in some respects. The damages in a case of this kind depend on a man's standing and circumstances. If he is colored, that fact should be considered."

KILLS SELF AND BABES.

East Hampton, Conn., Woman Cuts Throats of Children and Herself.

East Hampton, Conn. — Mrs. Louis Carsten cut the throats of her three children and then her own at the Carsten home, a farm about two miles from the center of this village.

Two of the children, Louis, aged ten years, John, seven years old, and a ten-months-old girl, are dead, and Mrs. Carsten is dying.

Mrs. Carsten lived long enough to reply to her husband when he asked the reason for her acts: "I wanted to die, and I wanted to take the children with me. I did not want to leave them."

CONSERVATION WORK URGE

Joint Committee Proposes a Plan the Commissions in the Various States.

Washington.—Inventories of the n ural resources of every state and t ritory are proposed in a plan just a nounced by the joint committee conservation in this city. The jo committee is national headquarte for the conservation movement, a has offices in the Wyatt building. of the 48 big national organizatio now working with the joint comm tee through their conservation co mittees are to be asked to help, ea in its own special field.

The plan contemplates the prac cal application by the states and tional organizations of the conser tion principles declared by the g ernors and presidents of the gre national organizations in their notab conference at the White House a ye ago. Letters explaining the plan ha been sent out to the chairmen the official conservation commissio which the governors of 38 states ha appointed, and letters to the natio organizations will follow.

The joint committee suggests ea meetings of the state conservati commissions to take up, first, the m pressing conservation problems in t respective states. For instance, Louisiana it is the terrific waste natural gas which the state conser tion commission is already trying stop. In Oregon a pressing questi has been water power, which is a a leading issue just now in Michig and Wisconsin. In many states it the forest question. The question the conservation of water power tak a front rank in a great many stat and it is becoming more and mo of a general issue.

ROOSEVELTS SLAY BISO

Ex-President Bags One Alone and and Kermit Kill Another Together.

Nairobi, British East Africa. Theodore Roosevelt and his s Kermit are continuing their hunti excursions from their camp on t Heatley ranch on the Nairobi riv Two bull buffaloes have fallen bef their guns. One, the bigger of t two, was brought down by Mr. Roo velt alone, while the other was bagg by Mr. Roosevelt and Kermit togeth Nairobi, British East Africa. Theodore Roosevelt has begun hunting expedition from the Ju ranch of George McMillan, wh guest he is. He went out and bag a female rhinoceros. The first sh wounded her in the shoulder and t animal fled to the bushes. Mr. Roo velt followed on horseback and more shots were required to bring h down. The head and skin weigh 532 pounds.

SHERMAN FOR GOOD ROAD

Vice-President in Address to Nation Congress Favors Improvement of Public Highways.

Baltimore, Md. — With a spee by Vice-President James S. Sh man, the National Good Roads C gress held its final session.

"I am interested in any meetin said Mr. Sherman, "which has for object the promotion of good roa good streets and good highways general. It is the ability to transp our goods which makes our count so prosperous.

"We should devote our time and e ergies to our commercial industri and our internal improvements. O highways have not been develope The roads of England, France a Switzerland put our roads to sham

HER INFINITE VARIETY

By BRAND WHITLOCK

ILLUSTRATIONS BY RAY WALTERS

COPYRIGHT 1907 BY BOBBS-MERRILL CO.

SYNOPSIS.

nator Morley Vernon's visit with his ee was interrupted by a call from political boss at the state capital. regretted it, the girl more than he. use she had arranged to attend a r that evening with him. She said earned for a national office for him. Vernon's desk in the senate he found d rose, accompanied by a plea for ge for women. He met the au- ss, pretty Miss Maria Greene of go, who proposed to convert him voting for house resolution No. 19. Greene secured Vernon's promise to for the suffrage resolution. He aiso her by convincing others. He took ing to the fair suffragette. Miss e consulted with the lieutenant-gov- . Vernon admitted to himself that uffragette had stirred a strange feel- within him. He forgot to read his ee's letter.

CHAPTER IV.—Continued.

nce or twice he glanced into the phlets Miss Greene had given him, he could not fix his mind on them; r types danced meaninglessly be- his eyes. He was angry with him- for this nervousness. Why must sail him now, just when he wished e at his best? He had spoken be- a hundred times; he knew his ence, and he had the proper con- pt for his colleagues. He had r, to be sure, made a set speech hat presence; seldom did any one that; the speeches were usually t and impromptu, and there was time for anticipation to generate ous dread. And yet his mind ned to be extraordinarily clear then; it seemed to be able to com- end all realms of thought at once. ut it was not so much the speech thought of, as the effect of the ch; already he could see the news- rs and the big headlines they ld display on their first pages the morning; he could see his mother ing them at breakfast, and then could see Amelia reading them. her dark eyes would widen, her ks flush pink! She would raise hand and put back her hair with pretty mannerism of hers; then lsively resting her arms on the e before her, she would eagerly the long columns through, while mother reminded her that her kfast was getting cold. How d she would be of him! She ld never chide him again; she ld see that at last he had found self.

he Eltons, too, would read, and his nce from their dinner would react them impressively. And Maria ne—but a confusion arose—Maria ne! He had not thought of lia all the morning until that very nt; Amelia's letter lay still un- ed on his deck back there in the te chamber. Maria Greene! She ld hear, she would color as she ed at him, and her eyes would ; he could feel the warm pressure he hand she would give him in gratulation.

nd it was this handsome young an's presence in the chamber that rise to all this nervousness. He sure that he would not have been ous if Amelia were to be there. had never heard him speak in ic, though he had often pressed to do so; somehow the places re he spoke were never those to h it would be proper for her to go. would wish she had heard this rh, for in 24 hours it would be one topic of conversation through- the state; his picture would be in newspapers—"The brilliant young ago lawyer who electrified the ois senate with his passionate ora- and passed the woman-suffrage sure." It would be an event to the beginning of a new era— t his imaginings were broken, his e was spoken; he turned and saw Greene.

come," she said. "It's up! Hurry!" e was excited and her cheeks ed. His teeth began to chatter. followed her quick steps in the ction of the chamber.

But," he stammered. "I—I didn't w—I haven't even arranged for gnition."

Oh, I'll fixed all that!" the woman "The lieutenant-governor prom- me." She was holding her rustling s and almost running.

CHAPTER V.

s they entered the senate cham- Vernon heard the lieutenant-gov- ernor say: "And the question is: Shall the resolution be adopted? Those in favor will vote 'aye;' those opposed will vote 'no,' when their names are called; and the secretary will call the—"

"Mr. President!" Vernon shouted. There was no time now to retreat; he had launched himself on the sea of glory. A dozen other senators were on their feet, likewise demanding recognition.

"The senator from Cook," said the lieutenant-governor.

Vernon stood by his desk, arranging complacently the documents Miss Greene had given him. Once or twice he cleared his throat and wiped his lips with his handkerchief. The other senators subsided into their seats, and, seeing that they themselves were not then to be permitted to speak, and like all speakers not caring to listen to the speeches of others, they turned philosophically to the little diversions with which they whiled away the hours of the session—writing letters, reading newspapers, smoking. Vernon glanced around. Maria Greene was sitting precariously on the edge of a divan. Her face was white and drawn. She gave a quick nod, and a smile just touched her fixed lips. And then Vernon began. He spoke slowly and with vast deliberation; his voice was very low. He outlined his subject with exquisite pains, detail by detail, making it clear just what propositions he would advance. His manner was that of the lawyer in an appellate court, making a masterly and purely legal argument; when it was done, the senate, if it had paid attention—though it seldom did pay attention—would know all about the question—would know all about the question of woman-suffrage.

"This Recognition of Her Equality Can not Be Overestimated in Importance!"

In his deliberation, Vernon glanced now and then at Maria Greene. Her eyes were sparkling with intelligent interest. As if to choose the lowest point possible from which to trace the rise and progress of legislation favorable to women, Vernon would call the attention of the senate first to the decision of the Illinois supreme court In re Bradwell, 55 Ill., 525. That was away back in 1869, when the age was virtually dark; and that was the case, gentlemen would remember, just as if they all kept each decision of the court at their tongues' ends, in which the court held that no woman could be admitted, under the laws of Illinois, to practice as an attorney at law. But—and Vernon implored his colleagues to mark—long years afterward, the court of its own motion entered a nunc pro tunc order, reversing its own decision in the Bradwell case. Vernon dilated upon the importance of this decision; he extolled the court; it had set a white milestone to mark the progressing emancipation of the race. Then, briefly, he proposed to outline for them the legislative steps by which woman's right to equality with man had been at least partly recognized.

He fumbled for a moment among the papers on his desk, until he found one of the pamphlets Miss Greene had given him, and then he said he wished to call the senate's attention to the employment act of 1872, the drainage act of 1885, and the sanitary district act of 1890. Vernon spoke quite familiarly of these acts. Furthermore, gentlemen would, he was sure, instantly recall the decisions of the courts in which those acts were under review, as, for instance, in Wilson vs. Board of Trustees, 133 Ill. 443; and in Davenport vs. Drainage Commissioners, 25 Ill. App. 92.

Those among the senators who were lawyers, as most of them were, looked up from their letter writing at this, and nodded profoundly, in order to show their familiarity with Vernon's citations, although, of course, they never had heard of the cases before.

"This recognition of woman's natural right," Vernon shouted, "this recognition of her equality with man, can not be overestimated in importance!" He shook his head fiercely and struck his desk with his fist. But then, having used up all the facts he had marked in Miss Greene's pamphlets, he was forced to become more general in his remarks, and so he began to celebrate woman, ecstatically. He conjured for the senators the presence of their mothers and sisters, their sweethearts and wives; and then, some quotations fortunately occurring to him, he reminded them that Castiglione had truly said that "God is seen only through women;" that "the woman's soul leadeth us upward and on." He recounted the services of women in time of war, their deeds in the days of peace, and in the end he became involved in an allegory about the exclusion of the roses from the garden.

The senators had begun to pay attention to him as soon as he talked about things they really understood and were interested in, and now they shouted to him to go on. It was spread abroad over the third floor of the statehouse that some one was making a big speech in the senate, and representatives came rushing over from the house. The correspondents of the Chicago newspapers came over also to see if the Associated Press man in the senate was getting the speech down fully. All the space on the floor was soon crowded, and the applause shook the desks and made the glass prisms on the chandeliers jingle. The lieutenant governor tapped from time to time with his gavel, but he did it perfunctorily, as though he enjoyed the applause himself, as vicariously expressing his own feelings; his eyes twinkled until it seemed that, were it not for certain traditions, he would join in the delighted laughter that made up most of the applause.

Once a page came to Vernon with a glass of water, and as he paused to wipe his brow and to sip from the glass, he glanced again at Maria Greene. Her face was solemn and a wonder was growing in her eyes. Beside her sat old "Doc" Ames, scowling fiercely and stroking his long white beard. There were sharp cries of "Go on! Go on!"

But Vernon, not accustomed to thinking on his feet, as talkers love to phrase it, and having stopped, could not instantly go on, and that awkward halt disconcerted him. He was conscious that the moments were slipping by, and there were other things—many other things—that he had intended to say; but these things evaded him—floated off, tantalizingly, out of reach. And so, for refuge, he rushed on to the conclusion he had half formed in his mind. The conclusion was made up mostly from a toast to which he had once responded while in college, entitled "The Ladies." The words came back to him readily enough; he had only to apply them a little differently and to change his figures. Thus it was easy to work up to a panegyric in which Illinois stood up as a beautiful woman leading her sister states up to new heights of peace, of virtue and of concord. He had a rapt vision of this woman, by her sweet and gentle influence settling all disputes and bringing heaven down to earth at last.

The senate was in raptures.

"This is the face," he cried, "'that launched a thousand ships and burned the topless towers of Ilium!' . . . 'she is wholly like in feature to the deathless goddesses!'" So he went on. "'Age cannot wither, nor custom stale, her infinite variety.'"

He was growing weary. He already showed the impressive exhaustion of the peroration. He had sacrificed a collar and drunk all the water from his glass. He fingered the empty tumbler for a moment, and then lifted it on high while he said:

I filled this cup to one made up
Of loveliness alone,
A woman, of her gentle sex
The seeming paragon—
Her health! and would on earth there stood
Some more of such a frame,
That life might be all poetry,
And weariness a name.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

She Got the Letter.

The post office official put on his severest manner.

"You say you mailed the letter about half an hour ago at a window in the east corridor?" he asked.

The beautiful woman dabbled a handkerchief at her soulful eyes and at the tip of her classic nose.

"Yes, yes," she said.

"To whom was it addressed?"

She told him.

"And now you want to stop that letter?" he went on, still more sternly. "You want to get it back? Why?"

"Because," said the woman with unpremeditated frankness. "I am afraid his wife will get it."

"Oh," said the stern official.

She got the letter.

A Great Pro-Consul.

Lord Cromer, the great pro consul of Egypt, in writing of missions in that land, says in his great work, "Modern Egypt": The missionary, the philanthropist, and social reformer and others of the same sort, should have a fair field. Their intentions are excellent, although at times their judgment may be defective. They will, if under some control, probably do much good on a small scale. They may even, being carried away by the enthusiasm which pays no heed to worldly prudence, effect reforms more important than those of the adminstrator and politician, who will follow cautiously in their track, and perhaps reap the result of their labors.

Making a Record.

"I remember one time I was drivin' a particular good lookin' hoss that appeared ter be somewhat of a trotter, and a bystander who'd ben a-watchin' his movements finally stepped up ter me, and seemin' ter know who I was, sez 'Jim, jest 'bout how fast kin that hoss trot?'

"'Oh, I dunno,' sez I. 'I take 'im out and drive 'im like hell fer 'bout three minutes and call it a mile.'"—"Old Jim Case of South Hollow."

Some authorities claim that a diet of goat's milk makes one immune from tuberculosis.

AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pains in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me." — MRS. EMMA IMSE, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

A Pertinent Inquiry.

Little Willie stumbled over a scrubbing brush and fell into a pail of soapy water.

"Father," he said, as he rose, "where do the angels go when the spring cleaning in heaven begins?"

Shake Into Your Shoes

Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for your feet. It cures painful, swollen, smarting, sweating feet. Makes new shoes easy. Sold by all Druggists and Shoe Stores. Don't accept any substitute. Sample FREE. Address A. S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Being Obliging.

Prohibition Crusader—Down with whisky and rum!

Old Bum—Well, ain't I a-tryin' to down 'em all I kin?

The sale of indigestion medicine is going down. The sale of WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT is going up.

While we have a great deal of respect for old age, we draw the line at hoarding-house spring chicken.

If You Have Common Sore Eyes, if lines blur or run together, you need PETTIT'S EYE SALVE, 25c. All druggists or Howard Bros., Buffalo, N. Y.

Sometimes a bachelor lives long enough to feel sorry for the man who won the girl he was in love with.

The more WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT she would chew, The better her digestion grew.

The more we sacrifice in behalf of any cause the dearer it becomes to us. —N. Meloy.

DON'T TAKE ANY CHANCES.

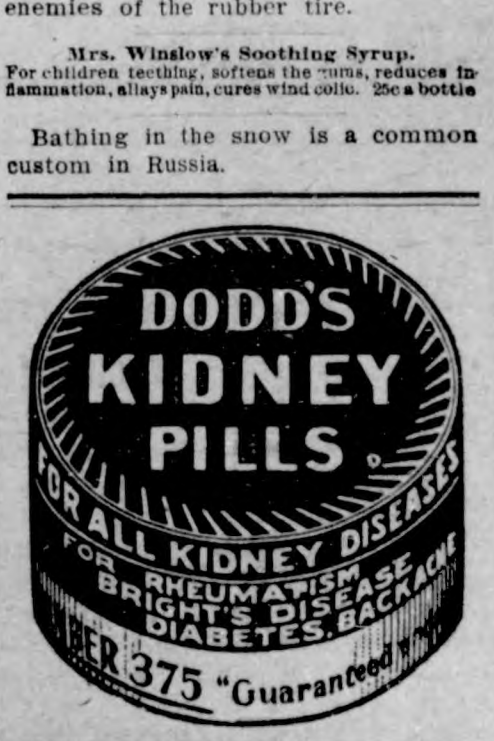
The new RUSS BLUE does the best work. 5cts. at leading grocers. Avoid imitations.

Light, heat and oil are the worst enemies of the rubber tire.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle

Bathing in the snow is a common custom in Russia.



Are You Going to PAINT ?

It pays to keep your buildings well painted, and when you paint it pays to use the best you can get. We handle the best in

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, etc. etc.

Call and see us and get our prices.

Washing Machines

We handle some of the best made. Call and see the

"Quicker Yet"

The best place to buy

Hardware & Groceries

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA

HELLO THERE

Where are you going? I'm going to H. Lau & Son. They handle all kinds of farm implements, Port Huron threshers also the Aultman & Taylor machinery, the 20 Century and Appleton manure spreader, McKinnon and Clinton wagons, Anchor and Velie buggies, Ohio and Kingman cultivators, stirring and gang plows, the open mould board sulky plows the lightest draft, Towers cultivators, Imperial and Challenge wind mills, hog fencing, barb wire, smooth wire gates, pumps and piping of all kinds, feed mills and the international gas engines from 1 to 40 H. P., Milwaukee mowers, binders, Dane hay loaders and buckers, nails and fence staples, wind mills and pump repairing on short notice, the sharpless cream separator the best made today, the Crack a-jack line of samples for tailor made suits.

In the Household—As Hygeno is regularly used by thousands as a household remedy, disinfectant, germicide and insecticide the greatest cleanliness is exercised in its manufacture. For sale here.

H. Lau & Son.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

Some smart reporter claims to have caught Gov. Carroll milking his own cow. And pray, whose cow did the wise Aleck expect he would be milking?

A Kansas man suggests that church entrances should be put just back of the pulpit so that the members of the congregation can see who the late comers are without twisting their necks every time the door opens.

Wouldn't it be nice to be president or a member of the president's family, so that everytime you washed your face, or combed your hair, or trimmed your nails, or even if you had a slight attack of stomachache, notice would be made of the fact in the big daily newspapers.

According to the dispatches in the newspapers from the jungles of Africa, Roosevelt is getting big game daily. The latest report we have noticed was the killing of a large female rhinoceros, which deed of bravery was enacted on the Sabbath Day. Somehow Roosevelt always manages to kill these ferocious beasts just as they are upon him. Great is advertising. It is claimed that the hide and head of this rhinoceros weighed 400 pounds.

Notice of Levy of Special Execution

STATE OF IOWA } ss
Hancock County }

THE Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company. Plaintiff.

AGAINST

Dennis Conlon Exr. Est. of Nicholas Conlon, Deceased; Dennis or D. M. Conlon et al. Defendants.

Notice to Defendants:

To Dennis Conlon, Exr. Estate of Nicholas Conlon, deceased, Dennis or D. M. Conlon, Theodore L. Ruka, Mrs. Annie Ruka, Thomas Monaghen, Maggie Monaghen, John Conlon, George E. Denton, Nellie Powers, G. H. Richardson, Irving, Mary, Leonard, Grace, Frances and Clara Ruka, Raymond, Frank, Mamie, Alice and Irene Monaghen.

SIR: You are hereby notified that, by virtue of a Special execution issued by the clerk of the District court of Hancock County, in the above entitled cause, to me directed, I have levied upon as your property, the following described Real Estate, to-wit: The Southeast Quarter (SE¼) of Section No. Thirty-five (35) in Township No. Ninety-four (94) North, Range, No. Twenty-four (24) west of the 5th P. M. in Hancock County, Iowa.

And I have advertised the same to be sold on the 5th day of June, A. D., 1909, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the front door of the court House in Garner, Hancock county, Iowa.

Witness my official signature this 28th day of April, A. D., 1909.

43-2 JOHN SUURBALLE,
Sheriff of Hancock County, Iowa.

Smashes all Records

As an all-round laxative tonic and health builder no other pills can compare with Dr. King's New Life Pills. They tone and regulate stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood, strengthen the nerves; cure Constipation, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Jaundice, Headache, Chills and Malaria. Try them, 25 cents at G. A. Pabst & Co.

BARGAINS

50 SMYRNA RUGS...

Size 30x71, at each

95c

MEN'S SHOES

100 pair worth from $2.50 to $4.00 all go at from..... ..... $1.25 to $2.00

I do this to clean up QUICK on some broken lines.

SEWING MACHINES

We handle only the Best Makes. Have 23 on our floor now, ranging in price from $14.00 up

—all of which go at—

A Discount of 10 per cent for 30 Days

Arthur Wellemeyer.

Where your Dollar does its duty.

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

LATEST STYLES AND BEST QUALITY

Are embodied in our fine line of

MILLINERY GOODS

To appreciate this fact, you must see our line of Pattern Hats and Trimmed Hats. Nice line of headwear for the Children. We have the best assortment ever shown in Klemme or the surrounding towns. Don't buy until you have seen our display. A first class trimmer who will be sure to please you.

A fine line of Corsets. Also Hair Rolls, Ladies' Waists, Collars, etc.

MRS. J. JOSTEN.

A young lady went into one of our stores the other day and blushingly asked the head clerk if he had "any of those elastic bands capable of being elongated and adjusted at pleasure, used by the feminine portion of mankind for putting around the lower extremities of their locomotive members to keep in the proper position and the requisite altitude the habiliments of the tibias." The clerk is now on a sheep ranch.

KLEMME MARKET.

.....	60 to 64c
.....	48 to 50c
.....	80 to 100
at.....	55 to60 c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	6.50 to 6.90
.....	3.00 to 6.00
e.....

LOCAL NEWS

esh fruits, strawberries, at Kluckhohn's.

ss Bertha Gruntz was here Garner Friday.

amine the Wisconsin bee , handled by N. L. Palmer.

er Becker and wife drove from Garner last Friday.

s. M. E. Peck, of Garner, visiting relatives in Klemver Sunday.

n. Ax, one of our good ers, added his name to our f readers the past week.

ep cool. Try our cool sumdrinks. ice cream and Sun The place is Kluckhohn's.

ss Carrie Hubbard, of Garvisited here Saturday and ay with Mrs. C. C. Suckow.

ecial prices on Wheeler & on and Singer Sewing Mahes at Frank Gruetzmacher's.

good delegation of rooters mpanied the Dows ball team eir trip to Klemme last Fri-n Schuler and wife, of er, spent Sunday in Klemat the John Gruetzmacher e.

st Call—Parties wanting pastured, see me at once. reasonable. Fred C. we, 42tf

s. Catherine Mann came from Garner last Friday ing for a visit at the home r son, Henry.

R. Bloom and wife and G. abst and wife drove down elmond Sunday and got t in the rain on the return

J. Stille shipped two cars ttle and one car of hogs of wn feeding to Chicago yesy morning. He went in to i'y with the shipment.

ed Ralston, brother-in-law J. Wilson came over from ne Saturday and assisted ring for Mr. Wilson, who is sick from typhoid.—Mey Messenger.

s. E. P. Dow and little hter arrived in Klemme Rake, Iowa, last Thursday ing for a visit with relatives friends. E. P. and son r and daughter Bonnie down after them Sunday d's auto.

you think of buying a rug ll pay you to look over my which consists of Wilton ets. Axminsters, Saxony insters, Colonial Velvets Brussels made in sizes 6 x 9, 10 x 6, 9 x 12 and larger. rs for rugs G. F. Schuler.

R. Bloom was down from me Wednesday, looking his interests in Vernon ship. Mr. Bloom has one he most desirable quarter ons of land in the county, has spared no pains in keept up in shape He has other rests in different parts of the and with this, here, keeps on the jump most of the but he is always the same Walt."—Dows Advocate.

Ell Bros. buy wool. 42-2

Ice cream every day at Kluckhohn's.

M. I. Parker was a Clear Lake visitor last Sunday.

For bee keepers supplies call on N. L. Palmer. 41-3

H. C. Lau shipped a carload of hogs Sunday morning.

F. A Arnold was a Garner business visitor yesterday.

A number of Klemme fishermen———went fishing.———

This office acdnowledges a pleasant call from Wm. Kraus last Friday.

I have just added to my stock a nice line of Lace Curtains at 75c up to $6.00 a pair at G. F. Schuler's. tf

Wm. F. Lau and family came dowr from Garner Saturday night to spend Sunday at the Tom Blank home

Our reporter heard a dandy news item on his rounds this week which we omit on account of lack of space to do it justice—or perhaps lack of nerve and fear of consequences would be nearer correct.

S. S. Sherman has leased the Thornton Enterprise to H. H Hallet of Clarion, formerly a conductor on the Great Western, and he has already taken possession. We wish the new proprietor success.

After a spell of hot weather last week, Monday and Tuesday of this week were cold and wet. However, small grain is looking fine and if the corn planting can be finished in good season the farmers will be feeling pretty well after all.

The school board has at last succeeded in hiring a full corps of teachers for our public schools the coming year. As has been stated before Prof. Bowker of Crystal Lake will have charge as principal. Miss Eleanor Koerner, of Charles City, has been secured to teach the intermediate room and Miss Amelia Lenz, who has given such good satisfaction as teacher of the primary room, will again have charge of that department. We understand that one more grade will be added to the work next year.

The Dows High School ball team arrived in Klemme last Friday as per schedule, accompanied by a valiant bunch of rooters, and proceeded to show the Klemme boys how not to play the national game. It was a good game of ball, however, the final score being 4 to 1 in favor of Klemme. The battery work of both teams was first class. Clarence Kluckhohn did the twirling stunt for Klemme with his brother Charley at the receiving end. and "Fat" certainly had the Dows boys guessing all the way through, allowing only three safe hits and striking out eleven Dows sluggers Outside of their battery, the Dows team did not show up very well. Klemme started out strong, annexing one score in the first inning and they were never headed after that. Dows was shut out until two were out in the ninth inning, when an overthrow to first allowed one of their runners to reach second, from which station he scored on one of the three safe hits. It was a nice clean game, only Dows was outclassed. Klemme certainly has a fast bunch of youngsters. Considering the busy season, a fairly good crowd turned out.

Get our price before you sell your wool. Ell Bros. 42-2

J W. Hamilton is a new subscriber to the Times.

Try those fine ice cream sodas and Sundaes at Kluckhohn's.

Special cut prices on Millinery on Friday and Saturday, May 28 and 29. Mrs. John Josten.

The Klemme Hotel opened for business Monday. A good thing for the town. Do it all the good you can.

Mrs John Josten was at Goodell Monday and Tuesday looking after her stock of millinery at that place.

Miss Bessie Ely, of Belmond, visited here last Friday at the C. C. Suckow home. She expects to organize a class in music here.

Miss Vera Duffey, teacher in the Newberger school east of town, spent Saturday at her home in Garner. Her school closes tomorrow for the summer vacation.

August Lau Jr. called on the printer this week and left the price of a year's subscription to this family journal. He reports the small grain looking fine out his way and says his corn is up in good shape.

Shoes for everybody. A perfect fit for any foot—large or small. My line comprises all the latest styles and colors in shoes and oxfords for men, women and children. Frank Gruetzmacher, 42 2

On our first page this week appears the statement of the State Savings Bank on May 18th. By glancing this over carefully you will notice that this institution is in a flourishing condition and that those in charge are building up a fine business. Look this statement over.

R. R. Lemke and Geo. Platt, two of Hancock county's hustling young farmers, marketed a carload of money-makers to W. R. Bloom this week. Mr. Lemke's 35 head of porkers brought him the neat sum of $592 83 and Mr. Platt drew a check for $503.20 for 32 head. W. R. says these hogs were "as fine as silk."

AVERY CENTER

Special Correspondence:

Geo. W. Griggs purchased a new automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Heginger visited relatives in Belmond Sunday.

Jno. Heginger is going to build an addition to his house.

Geo. W. Griggs transacted business in Meservey last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Christensen of Goodell visited at J. T. Griggs' Sunday.

Albert Lang and wife of German township visited at F. R Chase's home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hamilton of Garner visited with their son, T. M. Hamilton one day last week.

The Avery Center school will close Friday with a picnic dinner and a fine program to be held in the grove.

The thirty-fifth annual encampment, department of the Iowa G. A. R. is to be held in Fort Dodge. June 8, 9, and 10 Elaborate preparations are being made to entertain the boys in blue, and the executive committee is promising them "the time of their life."

The program is an attractive one and should interest every old soldier in the state. Governor Carroll is to deliver an address in behalf of the state and Commander J. C. Milliman will respond in behalf of the G. A. R. and kindred societies.

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures
See me when you want a
Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

German M. E. Church Items

T. Blank visited his father in Hayfield last Sunday.

F. C. Griewe and family were callers in Germantown Sunday.

The Lenz sisters took a drive out in the country last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Griewe called on Fred Gates and family Sunday.

W. F. Lau and family of Garner, were over Sunday callers in our burg.

Four new members were added to the Germantown League last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Wessel's Sudnay school class of young men will give a program Sunday evening.

Grandma Lau has gone to Chicago for a short visit. Mrs. Wm. Greiman accompanied her.

There will be services in the English language in the Germantown church Sunday evening.

Rev. W. V. Schlung preached a practical sermon in Klemme last Sunday night to an appreciative audience.

Viola Wellemeyer closes her spring term in No. 8, German towuship, with a picnic Friday—if it don't rain.

John Schuler and family of Garner, spent the first of the week in Klemme, the guests of John Gruetzmacher and family.

W. V. Schlung is putting in his fifth week repairing pianos, organs, sewing machines and clocks and still has lots of work promised.

The officers of both the Klemme and Germantown League will meet in the parsonage Friday evening for a joint cabinet meeting and social gathering.

The threatening clouds last Sunday evening kept some of the timid ones home which cut the program rather short in Germantown. The other part was very good, esyecia ly the dialogue by G. I. Schaper and E. G. Beier.

Those desiring to rent a tent for the campmeeting should order one now. We have secured an unusual low price this year. The rent for a 10x12 tent is only $1 25, for a 12x14 $1.65, for a 14x16 $2.50, and compartment tents at corresponding prices. We must have all orders in by June 7. lest someone want to pay the express on later orders.

At the annual election of the Germantown Epworth League the following persons were elected: E. G. Beier, President; Erick Josten, First Vice-president; Roy Schaefer, Second Vice-president; Geo, Schoenwetter, Third Vice-President, Lydia Beier, Fourth Vice-president; Matie Bredlow, Secretary; Edw. Schoenwetter, Treasurer; Elmer Schlei and Willie Riemer, Librarians; Lydia Beier, Organist.

"Butch" Schroeder, of Chicago, passed through Klemme yesterday enroute for Garner. He jumped off the train and spent a half minute shaking hands with Klemme friends.

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to night calls.

F. C. GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Highest cash price paid for hides. Home rendered pure lard a specialty.
We solicit your patronage.

RESTAURANT
—We have a complete line of—
Home Made Bakery Goods, Candies, Cigars, Tobaccos, Soft Drinks, Fruits and Canned Goods.
Try our Van Camp's Sterilized Evaporated Milk.
Lunches and Meals at all Hours
A. Kirkwood & Son

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
Eyes Tested Free.

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
Call in

Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition
This year you can make the trip you have had in mind for so long—a trip to the Pacific Coast. Go now, while rates are low and routes arranged so you can see the most at lowest cost, including the great exposition at
SEATTLE, WASH.
June 1 to October 16, 1909
It covers an area of 250 acres, located on two beautiful lakes, overlooked by snow-capped mountains, and will interestingly exhibit the wonderful development and possibilities of Alaska and the countries of the Pacific. Very low fares daily during the summer. Let me tell you how comfortably and conveniently the trip is made
Thro' Scenic Colorado
AND
Yellowstone Park
VIA
Rock Island-Frisco Lines
Ask for descriptive folder.
L. O. TURGASEN, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

CLEANER CLOTHES

Men Who Handle Ice Must Keep Clean.

ORDER WILL BE MADE

State Board of Health May Go A Step Farther in Crusade for Individual Cups.

Des Moines, Iowa, May 22.—The state board of health in its crusade against the common drinking cup on railroad trains may go a step farther and declare war on the clothes of the men who put the ice in the coach water coolers at "shop" towns. It has been represented to the board of health that in many instances the water tanks are filled by men who wear oily, dirty clothes, whose hands do not indicate that they have been washed for weeks and who carry in chunks of ice and dump them in the ice water tanks from which the people drink without taking the trouble to see that affairs are antiseptic. It is not improbable that when the order is issued in July against the common drinking cup it will include an order for the cleaning up of the clothes and hands of the ice man.

New Law Pleases.

College faculty members and alumni of the three state schools are said to be highly pleased with the intention of the new board of education to constitute the finance committee of three a purely a business committee, as the name implies, and leave all questions of policy, courses of study and other vital matters either to the presidents and faculty or to the board of nine.

It is understood by those who have talked to members of the board of nine that one of the finance committee shall have charge of buildings, land and equipment, the second shall handle all funds to the credit of the schools, and that the third shall be auditor and accountant.

Although members of the board are reported as saying that there was never any doubt or ambiguity as to the intended duties of the finance committee, there are some prominent educators who declare the result of this arrangement will be to give the president and faculties of each school almost unlimited authority, subject only to the instructions of the board of nine. This board is to meet not more than sixty days in each year. These critics further say that the very object of the central board was to harmonize the development of the three schools and prevent enthusiastic presidents and faculties from departing from the lines laid down for each school.

After its last meeting at Iowa City the board of nine reported that no policies had been worked out and some delicate and perplexing problems are still to be settled. One will be the determination of just how much executive authority members of the finance committe shall have and what shall be their exact relations to the faculties of the state schools.

Test is Made.

The Iowa supreme court is asked to say whether or not an election judge can sit on a grand or petit jury in the appeal case of Joseph and Solomon Hassan, Armenians sent up for twenty-five years for murder in Crawford county. Copies of the argument in the case reached Assistant Attorney General Charles W. Lyon yesterday. The Hassans were convicted of the murder of Fred Nawful by pounding him over the head with clubs and shooting several revolver bullets into his body.

Flowers For State Capital.

The State house grounds will shortly bloom and blossom as the rose. The executive council has commissioned State Horticulturist Wesley Greene and Treasurer W. W. Morrow, a scientific agriculturist, to take steps to beautify the capitol grounds at once. New shrubs will be planted, flower beds will be made and with any kind of luck the state house grounds will look almost as good as if the legislature had voted thousdans

Jefferson to Get Company.

The company of the Iowa National guard, which will be mustered out at Sac City upon the recommendation of Lieutenant Martin, inspector for the government, probably will be placed at Jefferson. That city and Cherokee are candidates for the place. General Logan is inclined to favor Jefferson.

Byers Asks More Time.

Attorney General H. W. Byers today instructed Charles S. Wilcox, one of his assistants, to ask a continuance in the test case of the anti-pass law to be submitted to the supreme court at its next session.

Cannot Smoke Cigarettes.

The state board of parole has decreed that the cigarette is a most harmful agency towards the living of a proper life by convicts whom it paroles, and any man on parole who is caught smoking one of the deadly little instruments of Satan goes back to the penitentiary forthwith.

"Cigarettes undoubtedly are demoralizing," said Parole Secretary B. W. Garrett. "Not long ago a young man came in here who complained of headaches and who shook like he had the ague. He said it was difficult for him to collect his thoughts, and I told him if he'd cut out cirgarettes he'd be all right. He seemed surprised that I guessed his habit, but I can tell them every time. Our experience has shown that if we permit paroled convicts to smoke cigarettes, they are apt to lapse into their former bad ways. When the board put it up to me to prepare blanks setting forth the conditions which all paroled convicts must observe, I inserted the use of cigarettes as prohibitive. The members of the board have accepted the blanks. Any paroled man who wants to keep his liberty wants to leave cigarettes strictly alone."

Judges Want Scholar.

Delay in the appointment of a successor to Prof B. F. Shambaugh as curator of the state historical department, is said to be due to the wish of the supreme court members to find an experienced scholar to fill the vacancy.

Judge Deemer and other members of the court are known to be ambitious to make the historical museum and library something more than a popular museum. They want the work carried on along scientific lines, with more or less original research work and a classification of material that cannot be made by an amateur.

This policy is understood to be at the bottom of considerable opposition to the appointment of Acting Curator Harlan, who otherwise would be the natural choice of Governor Carroll. The appointment was to have been made on May 8 but the board adjourned for a second meeting last Saturday, which also failed to disclose the governor's choice. Now the appointment will not be made until the June meeting.

Model Expense Accounts Shown.

Officials who travel at the expense of the state have received from the executive council printed sheets from the new expense books showing how a traveling account should be made out. The sheets contain a broad hint that the council expects officials to charge only for portions of each day actually spent in the state's business. The specimen accounts printed in the new forms are taken from the expense account of a food inspector. When bus hire is charged there is an explanatory note to show that it was raining and a bus was actually needed. Under the head of employment, "visiting with friends" is printed for the afternoon and only one-half day's per diem is charged.

Charles City Gets Company.

Charles City is to have a company of the Iowa National guard. Adjutant General Logan gave his approval after talking with business men at Charles City and making a personal investigation. The one condition is that the young men who expect to organize the company shall rent a certain building in Charles City which General Logan approved as a prospective armory. The company will be E of the Fifty-third, which was mustered out at Cresco recently upon recommendation of Major Martin, United States inspecting officer.

"Quaker" Beer Cannot Be Sold.

"Quaker" beer, which has been sold extensively in dry communities in eastern Iowa, will not be sold longer, as a result of a holding by State Pure Food Inspector H. R. Wright yesterday. Samples of the drink were found to contain one-half of one per cent alcohol. While the pure food law does not apply to the case, the prohibitory law does, and Commissioner Wright has notified dealers that they are violating the law in its sale.

Garrett Talks on Parole.

Secretary B. W. Garrett of the state board of parole has consented to read a paper on the parole and indeterminate sentence laws at the district meeting of the Christian Endeavor at Corydon, June 3. Secretary Garrett was pardon secretary before the new board of parole law took effect and is probably better posted on the merits and demerits of the system than any other man in Iowa.

Kepford Wins.

A. E. Kepford of the state anti tuberculosis department, who recently filed a complaint with the railroad commissioners stating that the depot accommodations at Malvern are unclean and unhealthy, has won his fight. The commissioners notified the Burlington, and today word was received that the premises were cleaned up and the agent who was responsible has been discharged.

WILSON IS TO STAY

President Taft Is Authority for Statement

IOWA MAN TO BE RETAINED

Tenure of Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson is Declared to Be Indefinitely Long.

Washington, D. C., May 24.—Every now and then reports crop out to the effect that Secretary Wilson will not remain much longer in the Taft cabinet. It has been given out repeatedly that Secretary Wilson is to be retained long enough to enable him to break all records of cabinet service and then he will be let out.

These reports are without foundation.

Within the last few days President Taft himself has let it be known that Secretary Wilson is to stay in the cabinet. He will keep him indefinitely without regard to length of service

Secretary Wilson is to remain and Iowa is to continue to have a place in the cabinet of the president.

ROBBERS GET BIG HAUL

Seven Registered Pouches with $500,000 Taken From Pacific Overland.

Omaha, Neb., May 24.—The Overland limited on the Union Pacific, east bound from San Francisco was held up about eight miles west of here, between Seymour and South Omaha, shortly after 11 o'clock Saturday night. Seven registered mail pouches, whose estimated value is $500,000, were taken by the robbers.

There were four bandits in the holdup, all dressed in long raincoats or ulsters. They made their escape in an automobile and are reported to have taken a westward course.

The several mail pouches secured by the robbers were from the far west, two of them from Reno, Nev., which are thought to have contained gold from the New York banks.

Not a shot was fired by the bandits and not a person was injured.

Three posses headed by the United States marshal, the sheriff and an Omaha sergeant of police are scouring the country for traces of the bandits.

A reward of $5,000 each has been offered by the Union Pacific railroad for the apprehension of the bendits.

Sunday Not Satisfied.

Marshalltown, Ia., May 24.—Evangelist "Billy" Sunday is not at all satisfied with the results of his revival campaign. The evangelist's complaint is with the church members themselves, whom he thinks have not "warmed up" to the work as they should. Sunday has announced that he may remain in Marshalltown another week, making a six weeks' campaign instead of ie, but that depends on the results of next week. If a more active interest is taken in the work on the part of the church people next week, and Sunday believes he can accomplish something by staying another week, he will remain; otherwise the meetings will close May 30.

Big Fire at Oskaloosa.

Oskaloosa, Iowa, May 24.—The Mendenhall Furniture factory at High avenue and D street, was destroyed by fire Saturday evening. The loss is estimated at $25,000. The fire originated in rags saturated with finishing oils. The fire gained great headway before the arrival of the department. The furniture warehouse and the entire retail establishment was destroyed. The building was constructed partly of brick and partly of wood. The furniture company was owned by Ezra Mendenhall and the building by H. H. Sheriffe, a local attorney. The loss to the building is covered by insurance.

Monster Tooth Found.

Chicago, Ill., May 24.—The tooth of aprehistoric animal which must have been, according to scientists, fifty or sixty feet long, and with a mouth big enough to bite o ffthe top of an ordinary tree, was brought to this city today from Sycamore, Ill., where it was found by Axel Stroberg, a farmer. The tooth weights more than ten pounds and measures almost a foot in diameter. It will be placed in the Field museum.

Ore Train Into River.

Helena, Mont., May 24.—An ore train on the Montana Centeral division of the Great Northern railroad was wrecked today at a point between Helena and Great Falls, and eighteen cars of ore were precipitated into the river. Brakeman Rogers was killed and Engineer Sieben seriously injured.

ELDERLY PEOPLE HELPED FREE

The last years of life are the sweetest, and yet the most difficult to prolong. It is then that the greatest care is exercised in maintaining bodily health. But the chief care should always be with regard to the food you eat and whether you are digesting it properly. You should not allow yourself to become constipated.

No doubt you have tried salts and cathartic pills, purgative tablets, etc., and have come to the conclusion that they are violent in action and do but temporary good. Listen, then, to the voice of experience with regard to a wonderful and mild laxative, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is not new, only we are trying to find new friends for it.

A. A. Felts, of Johnston City, Ill., suffered from stomach trouble for six years and found his cure in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. His wife uses it too with success. We could name hundreds of others. Some heard of it first through neighbors or friends; others through the doctor's offer to send any sufferer from a stomach, liver or bowel complaint a free sample bottle for trial, without charge. If you will send your name and address he will send you a trial bottle direct to your home. If it proves itself as he claims then continue the treatment by buying a 50-cent or $1 bottle of your druggist, as all of them sell it. Old people, like children, should look for purity, and it is well to mention that the purity of this remedy is vouched for with the U. S. government. Also, though a free bottle is sent to prove its merits, results are always guaranteed from the regular bottles bought of druggists, who will refund your money if it does not satisfy you. Send at least for the free test bottle to-day.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 201 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

RECRIMINATIONS.

She—You have now more than a dozen shirts, and when we were married you had only one solitary one!

He—Yes, but that one didn't need mending!

"All Bets Off!"

The wife of a retail merchant, whose name is withheld for obvious reasons, was irritated by the non-arrival of certain articles she had ordered from the butcher. She called up the butcher shop, and the flip youth who drives the delivery wagon answered the 'phone.

"Did you attend to that order for Mrs. X?" she asked, indignantly.

"You bet your silk sox I did," came the reply.

"What's that?" she gasped.

"You can go and bet all your lingerie (pronounced as spelled) I attended to everything."

"Do you know to whom you are talking?"

"Surest thing you know; I'm talking to Kitty." (The maid.)

"You are talking to Mrs. X," she declared, sternly.

"Oh, well then," in apologetic tones, "all bets are off."

THINK HARD

It Pays to Think About Food.

The unthinking life some people lead often causes trouble and sickness, illustrated in the experience of a lady in Fond Du Lac, Wis.

"About four years ago I suffered dreadfully from indigestion, always having eaten whatever I liked, not thinking of the digestible qualities. This indigestion caused palpitation of the heart so badly I could not walk up a flight of stairs without sitting down once or twice to regain breath and strength.

"I became alarmed and tried dieting, wore my clothes very loose, and many other remedies, but found no relief.

"Hearing of the virtues of Grape-Nuts and Postum, I commenced using them in place of my usual breakfast of coffee, cakes, or hot biscuit, and in one week's time I was relieved of sour stomach and other ills attending indigestion. In a month's time my heart was performing its functions naturally and I could climb stairs and hills and walk long distances.

"I gained ten pounds in this short time, and my skin became clear and I completely regained my health and strength. I continue to use Grape-Nuts and Postum for I feel that I owe my good health entirely to their use. "There's a Reason."

"I like the delicious flavour of Grape-Nuts and by making Postum according to directions, it tastes similar to mild high grade coffee."

Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Libby's Food Products

Liked By The Whole Family

You will never be disappointed if you use Libby's Pickles and Condiments on your table. Libby's have the right taste, which is always uniform, and you can depend upon Libby's as being absolutely pure. Try these:

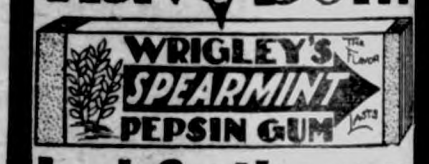
Mixed Pickles
Fancy Olives
Salad Dressing
Strawberry Preserves
Currant Jelly
Evaporated Milk

Libby's foods are the best because they are made from the best fruits and vegetables, by the best methods in Libby's Great Enameled White Kitchens.

Insist on Libby's, and you can depend upon it that you will get food products which are the most satisfactory from the standpoint of taste and purity.

Which will you have—indigestion or Wrigley's SPEARMINT

You can't Have both



Look for the spear

A Friend In Need

There is absolutely nothing that gives such speedy relief in Dysentery, Diarrhea, Cholera-Morbus, Cholera-Infantum, Colic and Cramps as

DR. D. JAYNE'S CARMINATIVE BALSAM

It is a friend in need, and you should always keep it in your house. Its valuable curative properties have made it a necessity for both adults and children.

Sold by all druggists at 25c per bottle

WRIGLEY WRIGLEY WRIGLEY

A Quick, Clean Shave
NO STROPPING NO HONING
Gillette
KNOWN THE WORLD OVER

Des Moines Directory

The State Insurance Company

of Des Moines, Iowa, has paid over FOUR MILLION DOLLARS for

Fire, Lightning and Tornado Losses

The season is on—get a Policy now. Prompt and fair treatment is our motto.

ROGERS IS DEAD

RICAN BUSINESS WORLD OSES ONE OF ITS GREAT-EST GENIUSES.

VES $75,000,000 FORTUNE

essor of John D. Rockefeller as tandard Oil's Chief, King of Cop-r Industry, Victim of Apoplexy—uneral Services Friday.

w York.—The American business lost one of its greatest geniuses Henry Huddleston Rogers, vice-dent of the Standard Oil Com-, leader in the Amalgamated Cop-Company, director in a score of oncerns, builder of railroads and nthropist, died Wednesday of lexy.

ath came a little more than an after Mr. Rogers had risen for day, mentioning to his wife that as feeling ill. At seven o'clock apsed into unconsciousness and e the family physician arrived as dead. Mr. Rogers was 69 s old.

hile Mr. Rogers' death was sud-and unexpected, he had been in ferent health since he suffered an lectic stroke in 1907, and was st constantly under a physician's His end was a great shock to usiness associates.

ws of the financier's death did become generally known till two hours after it occurred. stock exchange had not opened n the report reached Wall street, with the opening there was hard-n appreciable effect on the market. enry H. Rogers was a money er and one of the most successful of the so-called Standard Oil p. He began life as a poor boy Fairhaven, Mass., where he was , and retained his legal residence e until the day of his death. He ariously reported as having com-nced life as a newsboy and as a er of a grocery cart, but whatever humble start in business he ieved a success attained by only a men of a generation.

H. H. Rogers.

r. Rogers was a man of many nds and an enthusiatstic yachts-n. Until recently he had held the ns of the Standard Oil Company owing the retirement of John D. ckefeller, although J. B. Archbold ended to the routine management the great corporation. Just how ch money Mr. Rogers leaves is not own. His fortune is variously esti-ed at from $50,000,000 to $75,000,-, which will make his son, H. H. gers, Jr., one of the richest men the country. Whether the son or Broughton, son-in-law of Mr. Rog-, will carry on his affairs is a tter of speculation in the financial rict.

The widow he leaves is his second e, his first wife having died 14 rs ago, and he is survived in ad-ion by four children, the son men-ed, and the following daughters: s. W. E. Benjamin, Mrs. Urben H. oughton and Mrs. William R. Coe. New York.—The funeral services in s city of Henry H. Rogers, vice-esident of the Standard Oil Com-ny, president of the Amalgamated pper Company, took place in the urch of the Messiah Friday morn-. Rev. Dr. Robert Collyer deliv-ed a touching eulogy to the famous ancier.

The pall bearers were Messrs. El-rt H. Garry, George W. Perkins, mes A. Moffett, John D. Archbold, A. Peabody, A. S. Paine, William ckefeller, E. H. Harriman, Edward Bedford, James M. Beck, Melville Stone, James Jordan, John D. Ryan, muel L. Clemens, Dr. C. C. Rice d Raymond Dupuy.

Safe and Sure.

Among the medicines that are recommended and endorsed by physicians and nurses is Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. For many years it has been regarded by doctors as the medicine most likely to cure coughs, and it has a strong hold on the esteem of all well-informed people. When Kemp's Balsam cannot cure a cough we shall be at a loss to know what will. At druggists' and dealers', 25c.

President Interested in Movement.

President Taft and Dr. William Osler addressed a large public meeting held recently in Washington, under the auspices of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

A Domestic Eye Remedy

Compounded by Experienced Physicians Conforms to Pure Food and Drugs Laws Wins Friends Wherever Used. Ask Druggists for Murine Eye Remedy. Try Murine in Your Eyes. You Will Like Murine.

There is no pleasure beyond the rules of righteousness; there is no pleasure in what injures another.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT tastes like a mint julep. But it is much better for you.

Pigments of more than 400 different colors are secured from coal.

YELLOW CLOTHES ARE UNSIGHTLY. Keep them white with the new RUSS BLUE. Get the genuine. 5cts., at grocers.

If you have friends in adversity stand by them.—Dickens.

Modern Solomon.

Two women who appeared before a Paris magistrate both claimed possession of a flatiron. The magistrate solved the difficulty by giving the iron to one of them, a laundress, and presenting the other with a theater ticket.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

WALDING, KINNAN & MARVIN,
Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

It Is.

"Some say it's a mistake to marry." "Well," commented Mrs. Sixthhub, "to err is human."

Most everybody who likes fresh air likes fresh mint leaf flavored WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT.

If, as reported, G. Washington never wrote a love letter, his reputation for veracity is accounted for.

Fine for teeth! Fine for breath! Fine for digestion! WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT

The surgeon is ready to slash any old thing—except his bill.

THE FAIR IS READY—At Seattle

Put on your things and come.

Do not forget that YOU have a standing invitation to make our big, roomy, cool offices in the great Central Building, in the very center of Seattle's business district, YOUR HEADQUARTERS.

Remember, also, that the greatest of all Seattle's achievements cannot be exhibited at the ALASKA-YUKON-PACIFIC EXPOSITION, i. e.,

UNITS OF BUSINESS PROPERTY Unencumbered

an investment proposition that you will want to investigate thoroughly with us.

If I can be of any assistance to you beforehand, please write to me.

FRANK T. HUNTER, President,
THE TRUSTEE COMPANY, Central Bldg., Seattle, Wash.

Drake University Summer School

The Summer Quarter — June 14th to August 20th

Credit Courses in the College of Liberal Arts, in the College of Education, in the College of Law, in the College of Music, and in the High School. Courses in Shorthand, Typewriting, Business Practice, Phonography and Bookkeeping. All courses are complete, the class doing the work of a full year in every case. Experience has proved to us that this is the best plan for credit courses. Private tutoring at reasonable rates in any line of work for children of any age and for adults.

Teachers' Short Course — June 18th to July 30th

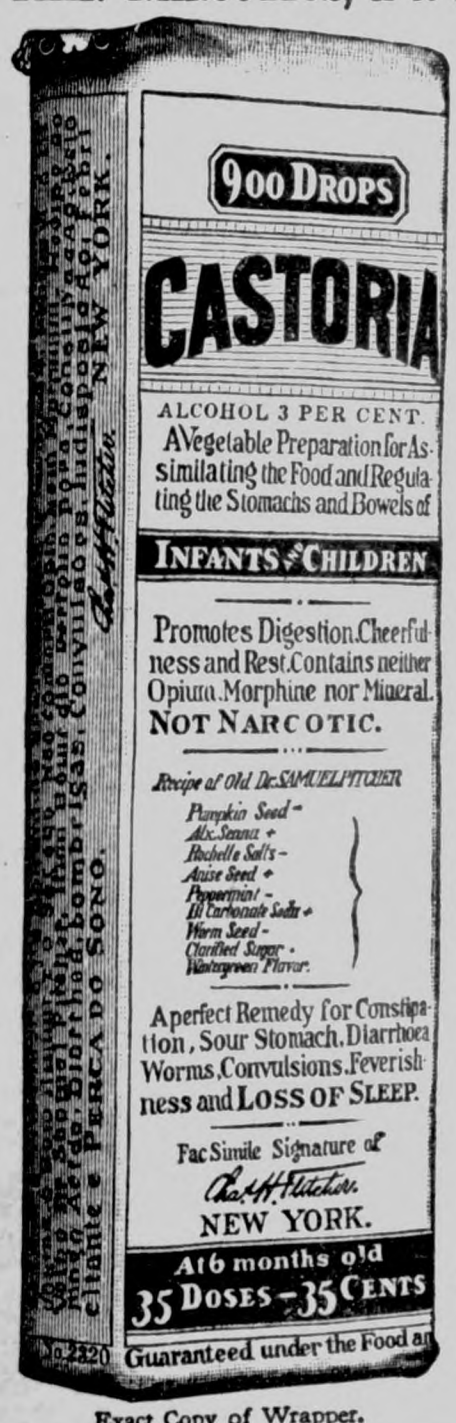
Courses in all subjects required for any grade of certificate. Courses in methods for all grades of teachers. Special courses in all special subjects. Text books rented at nominal fees. Total school expense for short course, $7.00. Uniform county examinations may be taken at the University in June and July. Send for announcement.

DRAKE UNIVERSITY, DES MOINES, IOWA

HAMLINS WIZARD OIL THE OIL THAT PENETRATES — GREAT FOR PAIN

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and A FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.



Exact Copy of Wrapper.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. J. W. Dinsdale, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I use your Castoria and advise its use in all families where there are children."

Dr. Alexander E. Mintie, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "I have frequently prescribed your Castoria and have found it a reliable and pleasant remedy for children."

Dr. J. S. Alexander, of Omaha, Neb., says: "A medicine so valuable and beneficial for children as your Castoria is, deserves the highest praise. I find it in use everywhere."

Dr. J. A. McClellan, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I have frequently prescribed your Castoria for children and always got good results. In fact I use Castoria for my own children."

Dr. J. W. Allen, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I heartily endorse your Castoria. I have frequently prescribed it in my medical practice, and have always found it to do all that is claimed for it."

Dr. C. H. Glidden, of St. Paul, Minn., says: "My experience as a practitioner with your Castoria has been highly satisfactory, and I consider it an excellent remedy for the young."

Dr. H. D. Benner, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have used your Castoria as a purgative in the cases of children for years past with the most happy effect, and fully endorse it as a safe remedy."

Dr. J. A. Boarman, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria is a splendid remedy for children, known the world over. I use it in my practice and have no hesitancy in recommending it for the complaints of infants and children."

Dr. J. J. Mackey, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I consider your Castoria an excellent preparation for children, being composed of reliable medicines and pleasant to the taste. A good remedy for all disturbances of the digestive organs."

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS
Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years.
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

MILLIONS

OF WOMEN

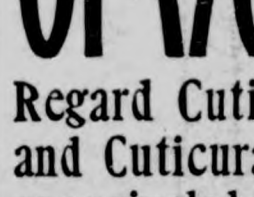
Regard Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment as unrivaled for Preserving, Purifying and Beautifying the Skin, Scalp, Hair and Hands, for Sanative, Antiseptic Cleansing and for the Nursery.

Sold throughout the world. Depots: London, 27, Charterhouse Sq.; Paris, 5, Rue de la Paix; Australia, R. Towns & Co., Sydney; India, B. K. Paul, Calcutta; China, Hong Kong Drug Co.; Japan, Maruya, Ltd., Tokio; Russia, Ferrein, Moscow; So. Africa, Lennon, Ltd., Cape Town, etc.; U.S.A., Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Post Free, Cuticura Booklet on the Skin

JUST DOUBLE

320 ACRES INSTEAD OF 160 ACRES



As further inducement to settlement of the wheat-raising lands of Western Canada, the Canadian Government has increased the area that may be taken by a homesteader to 320 acres—160 free and 160 to be purchased at $3.00 per acre. These lands are in the grain-raising area, where mixed farming is also carried on with unqualified success. A railway will shortly be built to Hudson Bay, bringing the world's markets a thousand miles nearer these wheat-fields, where schools and churches are convenient, climate excellent, railways close to all settlements, and local markets good.

"It would take time to assimilate the revelations that a visit to the great empire lying to the North of us unfolded at every turn."—Correspondence of a National Editor, who visited Western Canada in August, 1908.

Lands may also be purchased from railway and land companies at low prices and on easy terms.

For pamphlets, maps and information as to low railway rates, apply to Superintendent of Immigration, Ottawa, Canada, or the authorized Canadian Government Agent:

E. T. HOLMES, 315 Jackson St., St. Paul, Minn.; or W. V. BENNETT, 801 New York Life Bldg., Omaha, Neb.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Books free. Highest references. Best results.

SICK HEADACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cured by these Little Pills.

They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature

Brent Good

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

Suicide—

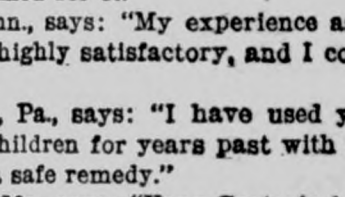
Slow death and awful suffering follows neglect of bowels. Constipation kills more people than consumption. It needs a cure and there is one medicine in all the world that cures it—CASCARETS. 895

Cascarets—10c. box — week's treatment. All druggists. Biggest seller in the world—million boxes a month.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE FLAVOR LASTS

WRIGLEY'S

DAISY FLY KILLER placed anywhere attracts and kills all flies. Neat, clean, ornamental, convenient, cheap. Lasts all season. Cannot spill or tip over, will not soil or injure anything. Guaranteed effective. Of all dealers, or sent prepaid for 20c. Harold Somers, 150 De Kalb Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.



CANCER CURED WITH OUT KNIFE OR BURNING PLASTERS
CURES GUARANTEED
REFERENCE AND CONSULTATION FREE
DR. H. NEVINS PEORIA ILL.

Try a bottle, the next time you need it. A-B-C LINIMENT
At All Druggists.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water

H. C. LAU

DEALER IN

Klemme - - - Iowa

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified.

FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE

it is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

Just Dust it on the Sore.
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls while at work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bottom and Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid by Mail. Money Back if Not Satisfied.
The RED STAR HEALING POWDER CO. (25c. and 50c. Cans). GARNER, IOWA.

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:40 p. m.
82 ..... 2:50 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:35 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

L. O. Turgasen, Agent

An Ideal Sunday Newspaper

Recent issues of the Sunday Record-Herald remind one that Chicago may fairly lay claim to producing the best newspapers in the world not excepting those of New York. The Sunday Record-Herald, in foreign news alone, has its own special cable service in addition to those of the New York Herald, World, Journal of Commerce and Associated Press. This is a fair example of the completeness of the paper in every department.

Aside from the regular news features, there is something in the Sunday Record-Herald for every member of the family. The special articles by William E. Curtis and Walter Wellman are always interesting. The sporting section offers four whole pages of fresh and authentic news in every line of sport. The woman's section is filled with illustrated articles on the latest wrinkles in fashion and domestic science, with Marion Harland and Mme. Qui Vive as regular contributors, and Dame Curtsey's "Novelties in Entertainment" as a valued feature. The dramatic page, written by James O'Donnell Bennett, is admittedly without an equal in the west. The array of splendid special articles by skilled writers, finely illustrated, also is typical of the high literary quality of the Record-Herald. In the way of humor there is the comic colored supplement for the children, besides Richard H. Little's laughable articles for adults and S. E. Kiser's delightful "Alternating Currents" for everybody.

But the thing that lifts The Sunday Record-Herald most emphatically above all its rivals is its magazine section. There is nothing else that can touch this in American journalism. The Sunday magazine of the Record-Herald is a real magazine, full of stories and articles by the most famous writers of our day, illustrated by celebrated artists. In quality and beauty it compares favorably with the best monthlies. No wonder the Record-Herald is regarded as the ideal Sunday newspaper!

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

T. H. Thompson has been appointed postmaster at Kanawha to succeed Editor Ellsworth.

John Prull of Britt and Miss Gertie Hanson of Erin township, were married at Algona on May 11th.

Chas. Conklin has gone from Goodell to Idaho to spend the summer and where he may take a homestead.

Barnum & Bailey's show will exhibit in Mason City the latter part of July, probably on the 24th or 26th.

Chas. Bracher is remodeling and making some fine improvements in the old Elder property he recently purchased at Garner.

Miss Verna Rathbun left Monday night for Chugwater, Wyoming where she has two brothers living. Miss Rathbun will take a claim and spend the summer there.—Goodell Globe.

It is reported that the adjourned April term of court for Hancock county will convene about the third week in June, at that time a decision will be rendered in the case of Fred Ax et al (Drainage District No. 9) vs the Interstate Drainage Co. et al.

Walter Clinch has returned to his home in Illinois. He is one of the Illinois land owners here who believes in improving the country. He has put thousands of dollars into tile in his Iowa farms and will put in thousands more. He says he is getting good returns for every dollar so spent. —Corwith Hustler.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Larson moved to Forest City, Tuesday where they will make their home. They have been residents of this vicinity for quite a number of years and are the kind of people that help to make a good community and we regret to see them move away.—Crystal Lake Reflector.

Directors of the Hancock county telephone company met at Britt last Friday. They expect to buy the Western Electric line from Britt to Crystal Lake and will rebuild it. An extension of the farmers line from the W. D. Schroeder schoolhouse eastward into Twin Lakes township will probably be made this summer. Manager Bandy has bought the stock held by E. C. Abbey and was also elected director to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Abbey's resignation.—Kanawha Record.

The Reformed church at Wellsburg have extended a call to Rev. G. J. Theilken to return there. Rev. Theilken held the pastorate there for about ten years prior to his accepting the Palsville call and this call comes as a compliment for the good service and good will shown during his long residence there. He has impressed the people of the Palsville and Meservey churches with his sermons and the hope is expressed that they may be able to hold him here tho' they know the ties of friendship with so many years at Wellsburg are a strong incentive.—Meservey Messenger.

Won't Slight a Good Friend

"If ever I need a cough medicine again I know what to get" declares Mrs. A. L. Alley of Beals, Me., for, after using ten bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, and seeing its excellent results in my own family and others, I am convinced it is the best medicine made for Coughs, Colds and Lung Trouble." Everyone who tries it feels just that way. Relief is felt at once and its quick cure surprises you. For Bronchitis, Asthma, Hemorrhage, Croup, LaGrippe, Sore Throat, pain in chest or lungs its supreme. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

A dispatch from Titonka says: "Another tragedy has befallen the family of W. Winter, whose son was recently sentenced to life imprisonment for the brutal murder of Linn Trimble at Union. Mrs. Winters, mother of the youth now in prison, went to the barn at her home some time Friday afternoon while the other members of the family were at work in the field, and hung herself. She had been dead for some time when the body was discovered by the husband when he returned from his work. William Winter, the son of the dead woman, killed Linn Trimble at Union on the night of January 16, of the present year, while in the act of robbing Trimble's restaurant. He was sentenced to life imprionment after a trial at Eldora and escaped hanging only because of the showing that the youth was a moral degenerate. The mother brooded over the crime of her son and it is supposed that she became mentally deranged.

CHAMBERLAIN'S LINIMENT

This is a new preparation and a good one. It is especially valuable as a cure for chronic and muscular rheumatism, and for the relief from pain which it affords in acute inflamatory rheumatism. Those who have used it have invariably spoken of it in the highest terms of praise. Lame back, lame shoulder and stiff neck are due to rheumatism of the muscles, usually brought on by exposure to cold or damp, and are quickly cured by applying this liniment freely and massaging the affected parts. Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is allayed by this liniment. For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Hancock County Normal

The annual session of the Hancock County Normal will be held at the high school building in Garner on June 14 to 22 with the following instructors.

Arthur Fleming Benson, Minneapolis Public Schools:—Lectures, Reading, Language, Geography.

Mrs. Louise Crawford, Primary Department, Public Schools, Cherokee, Iowa:—Methods and Vocal Music.

Frank U. Joseph, County Superintendent, Deleware County, Manchester, Iowa:—Hand book, Reports, Registers, Specimen Work.

Ellis J. Hook, Ex-County Superintendent, Winneshiek County, Decorah, Iowa:—Psychology. Economics, Civics.

Harry D. Kies, Superintendent Public Schools, Britt, Iowa:—Arithmetic, History.

John R. Bagge, Superintendent, Public Schools, Garner, Iowa:—Algebra, Physics, Physiology.

Mrs. Edna Fox Smith, Eighth Grade, Public Schools, Britt, Iowa:—Grammar. Orthography.

Bertha Comee, With Educational Publishing Company, Chicago:—Drawing.

Mrs. Harriet R. Deyoe, Garner, Iowa:—Physical Culture.

Eighth Year Rural School Commencement, Court House, Garner, Iowa, Saturday, June 19, 1909, 10 o'clock, a. m. Addresses:—Hon. A. C. Ripley and Hon. John Hammill.

Lived 152 Years

Wm. Parr—England's oldest man—married the third time at 120, worked in the fields until 132 and lived 20 years longer. People should be youthful at 80. James Wright, of Spurlock, Ky., shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16-year-old boy," he writes, "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. For thirty years Kidney trouble made life a burden, but the first bottle of this wonderful medicine convinced me I had found the greatest cure on earth." They're a godsend to weak, sickly, rundown or old people. Try them, 50c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

RUPTURE, PILES

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolutely reliable and permanent. Write to or call and see the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were afflicted with Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia.
Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines, Ia.
E. C. Miller, Des Moines, Ia.
John H. Looby, Des Moines, Ia.

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you free, postage paid. This book contains much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonial letters. Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the book. Write today—it will pay you.

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES, IOWA

Rheumatism

Nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness.

Lame Shoulder.

This is a common form of muscular rheumatism. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely four times a day and a quick cure is certain.

Lumbago.

When muscular rheumatism attacks the muscles in the small of the back it is called lumbago. It is usually quite severe and every movement adds to the pain, and especially when one attempts to straighten up. No internal treatment is required. Keep quiet, as every movement aggravates the disease, and apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and you will soon be well again.

Sprains and Bruises are cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment.

Attention

PEOPLE!

Don't forget that the Gruetzmacher Bros. handle all kinds of stoves such as heaters, cook stoves and steel ranges.

Also a full line of hardware, groceries, flour and feed.

A complete line of implements also paints, oils and varnishes.

Rock and barrel salt. Barb wire and field fence.

Yours to please at the old stand,

Gruetzmacher Bros.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE. LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STATE.

Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. Fifteen days treatment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund money. All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines used. No detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by mail and express. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage. Charges low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for terms. Consultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call or write to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without the use of harmful instruments. Our book fully explains.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the scrotum—causing nervous debility, weakness of the nervous system, etc., permanently cured.

BLOOD POISON —That terrible disease in all its stages, cured for life. Skin Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, and all forms of private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few days without pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application, with description of above diseases, the effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrapper.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINES, IA.

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

The Klemme Times.

VOLUME XII. NUMBER 44 — KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, JUNE 3, 1909. — $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

THIS NEVER HAPPENS TO THE MAN WHO HAS HIS MONEY SAFE IN THE BANK.

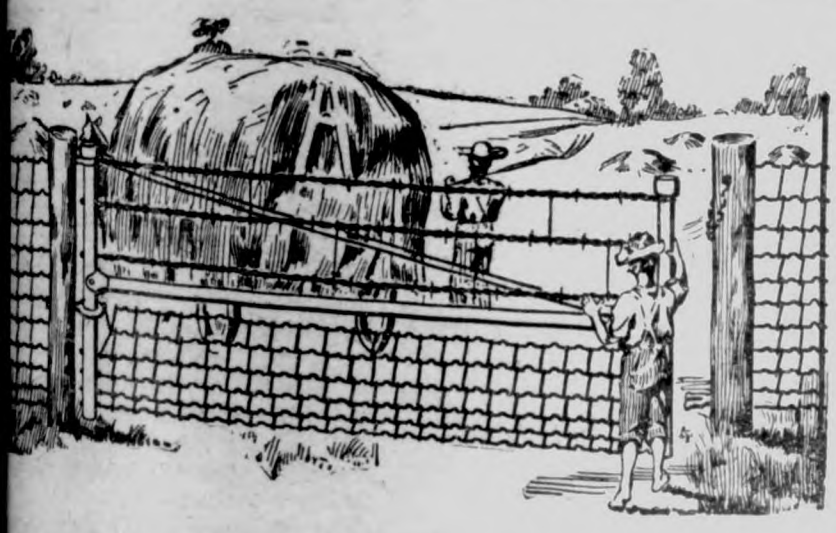
Did You Ever Lose Money out of your pocket and feel badly about it afterward? Did you ever spend money foolishly and "kick" yourself because you did? PUT IT IN THE BANK and you will do neither. Besides you'll find it more real enjoyment to save than to spend

¶We will pay you a liberal rate and will be pleased to have you bring your business to us—remember our bank is here for your convenience.

State Savings Bank.

Klemme - - Iowa



Iowa Gates are more than a convenience if women or children ever use them for being so simple they are very light and can easily be swung either way. The IOWA gate is made to last—no castings to break—no wearing parts—even the wires have galvanized stretchers to tighten them. Will not blow down, burn or rot out. Get prices.

J. H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, AGENT

KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries	Ladies and	Dry Goods
Boots	Gents	and
Shoes	Furnishings	Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J. W. WATERMAN

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

Mrs. James Dickirson died at her home in Britt on May 20th.

Prof. and Mrs. Bowker, of Crystal Lake, are the parents of a brand new baby boy, says the Reflector.

An elegant up-to-date depot will be built by the Rock Island at Estherville to replace the old frame depot recently destroyed by fire.

The Dows high school team went to Klemme Friday and played a mixture of all the professional ball players in that section of the country, and were defeated by a score of four to one.—Dows Advocate.

Miss Nora Treganza was recently elected principal of the high school at Lake Mills, Iowa. She has taught there the past year and the preferment came without solicitation on her part. Her many friends will be pleased to hear of her advancement. Miss Nora graduated from the Britt school under Prof. Hoadley.—Britt Tribune

Chas. Birkett was a Klemme visitor last Monday....LeRoy Clark, Wm. Lemke, and Leo Ahrenkiel took in the ball game at Klemme last Friday ....B. H. Luken was a business visitor at Klemme, Wednesday, where he went to look after a job of cement work....Geo. Ahsenmacher returned Tuesday from Ward, S. Dakota, and will work for B. H. Luken in the cement plant....Miss Elizabeth Elder enjoyed a visit from her brother of Conrad, Iowa, from Saturday until Monday.—Goodell Globe.

Nels Montagne and A. C. Peckham were drowned in the lake four miles northwest of Belmond last week Friday night. They were fishing from a steel boat which was capsized in some manner. Their cries for help were heard by some nearby parties but before assistance could get to them they were drowned. Mr. Montague was proprietor of the pool hall in Belmond and Mr. Peckham, whose home was in Des Moines, was an insurance agent. The bodies were recovered early the next morning after the sad accident.

A decree of divorce was granted yesterday by Judge Clark, presiding in the district court at Forest City, to Martha Louise Pinckney from Edsen A. Pinckney. The case was one of the sensations of the year. Mrs. Pinckney asked very heavy alimony and an equity case as well as the divorce proceedings further involved the contest. This divorce case has been awaiting trial for several terms and when its time for hearing came, interest was intense. A settlement regarding the equity case was made and the stipulations filed give the plaintiff an alimony of about $12,000. This settlement was reached on the basis that the plaintiff should be granted the decree of legal separation of petitioned. Court was adjourned sine die at the close of this case.

Trouble Makers Ousted

When a sufferer from stomach trouble takes Dr. King's New Life Pills he's mighty glad to see his dyspepsia and indigestion fly, but more he's tickled over his new, fine appetite, strong nerves healthy vigor, all because stomach, liver and kidneys now work right. 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

Decoration Day

The national holiday was not observed this year in Klemme by any special exercises, a number of our people going to Garner on Monday which day was set aside as the one on which to remember our soldier dead by strewing beautiful flowers on their last earthly resting place. The day was all that could be desired from the weather standpoint and a large crowd turned out.

The march to the cemetery was made in the forenoon, the procession being headed by the Miller Cornet Band, followed by the G. A. R., W. R. C. and floats carrying the school children. The usual ceremonies were gone through with at the cemetery. In the afternoon, appropriate exercises were held in the opera house and a very fine address was given by Rev. Keck.

In the ball game in late afternoon Garner came off victorious over the Ventura team.

We noticed only one hitch in the proceedings of the day. The band was ordered to play in front of the opera house at 2:30 p. m. and the boys were there a few minutes ahead of time. They started to play a piece when a large man came down from the opera house and after ordering them to stop playing, left them standing in the street without any further orders as to when they would be wanted again. The band boys however took it very good-naturedly and waited around until the exercises in the opera house were over and they then favored the people with a few well rendered selections. Miller has a nice little band and under the able leadership of Wm. Gavin, they are serving up a very fine article of music.

Notice of Levy of Special Execution

STATE OF IOWA } ss
Hancock County }

THE Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company. Plaintiff.

AGAINST

Dennis Conlon Exr. Est. of Nicholas Conlon, Deceased; Dennis or D. M. Conlon et al. Defendants.

Notice to Defendants:

To Dennis Conlon, Exr. Estate of Nicholas Conlon, deceased, Dennis or D. M. Conlon, Theodore L. Ruka, Mrs. Annie Ruka, Thomas Monaghen, Maggie Monaghen, John Conlon, George E. Denton, Nellie Powers, G. H. Richardson, Irving, Mary, Leonard, Grace, Frances and Clara Ruka, Raymond, Frank, Mamie, Alice and Irene Monaghen.

SIR: You are hereby notified that, by virtue of a Special execution issued by the clerk of the District court of Hancock County, in the above entitled cause, to me directed, I have levied upon as your property, the following described Real Estate, to-wit: The Southeast Quarter (SE¼) of Section No. Thirty-five (35) in Township No. Ninety-four (94) North, Range, No. Twenty-four (24) west of the 5th P. M. in Hancock County, Iowa.

And I have advertised the same to be sold on the 5th day of June, A. D., 1909, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the front door of the court House in Garner, Hancock county, Iowa.

Witness my official signature this 28th day of April, A. D., 1909.

43-2 JOHN SUURBALLE,
Sheriff of Hancock County, Iowa.

Women Who Are Envied

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

OUR BUSINESS IS BANKING
BANKING IS OUR BUSINESS

The sign "Bank" does not make a bank and is often misleading. It requires time, energy, close attention to business, a substantial capital and ripe experience in banking to make a bank. We claim, without blushing, all essentials necessary to make our business that of banking, and tender our patrons a service thoroughly seasoned by years of experience, backed by substantial capital.

The First National Bank

CAPITAL $25,000

A Master of the Art of News-Paper Letter Writing

William E Curtis, the famous correspondent of The Chicago Record-Herald, probably has a more enviable position and is read by more men and women daily than any other newspaper writer in the United States. He can go anywhere in the world and write on any live topic that he chooses, so long as he interests his hundreds of thousands of readers. He has traveled several times around the world and written entertainingly about almost every country under the sun.

Every day in the year, without vacation or intermission, Mr. Curtis has a two-column letter in the Record-Herald. The remarkable thing about these letters is their power to interest all classes of readers. Women read them with the same enjoyment as men. Whether the subject be politics, travels, a new kink in the Monroe doctrine, an interview with the newest money king or the personal history of an Egyptian mummy, the story is always told with a limpid simplicity and an unfailing sense of interest that keeps one reading to the end. No other correspondent now living can match the record of Mr. Curtis as a popular purveyor of timely and useful information. Whether he writes from his home in Washington or from the wilds of Mexico, from the gay streets of Paris or some remote temple in India, he always has something fresh and entertaining to tell.

Mr. Curtis began his newspaper career in Chicago as a reporter in 1882, speedily became a managing editor, resigned to serve as secretary of a government commission sent to South America, and fulfilled his duties so brilliantly there that Secretary James G. Blaine placed him at the head of the new bureau of American republics. He is almost as widely known in South America and Europe as in the United States. At the world's fair in Chicago he was the executive head of the Latin American department. He is a member of almost every learned society in Washington and many in Europe.

Nobody outside The Record-Herald office knows under what flag Mr. Curtis will next be hanging up his hat, but everybody knows that whether it be in Patagonia or Kamchatka, he will find something interesting to write about. Merely to read his daily news-letters is a liberal education. He does his full share toward making The Chicago Record-Herald the best home newspaper in the west.

Chronic Rheumatism

This is the variety of rheumatism that usually attacks the larger joints, knees, hips and shoulders. It is aggravated by cold and damp weather, and for this reason a man afflicted with it can often foretell changes in the weather. Chamberlain's Liniment applied freely and with vigorous rubbing relieves the pain and makes sleep and rest possible. It will also effect a cure, but will not prevent the recurrence of the disease. For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher

KLENNOSE - - - IOWA

JUNKIN IS SCARED

Fears That Mob Will Get and Hang Him.

PROTECTED BY MANY DEPUTIES

Junkin Terrified Hides Face With Hat as Armed Guards Push Him Toward the Court Room.

Centerville, Iowa, May 29.—As John Junkin, the negro on trial for the murder of Clara Rosen, the Ottumwa choir singer, was being conducted from the grand jury room to the criminal court in the Appanoose county court house five hundred men packed the passageway, many of whom made threats.

As he passed between two rows of armed guards, "Here he comes," said one of the men in a low tone of voice, but it was loud enough for Junkin to hear.

The negro stopped and refused to go any further until actually pushed through the crowd by Sheriff Clark. He covered his black face with his hat to shut out the sight of the army of determined men, who, it is believed, would lynch him if left unguarded for a single instant.

Feeling is growing against the negro every minute and in fact it has reached a stage that six deputies have been sleeping in the same room with Junkin never closing their eyes all night long.

The negro is shackled to a steam radiator surrounded by a circle of deputies. They not only fear a mob, but that the prisoner will attempt suicide, for he has declared to them time and again that the law will never hang him.

Junkin realizes that his life would be taken if the slightest opportunity presented itself to the irate citizens of Ottumwa, many of whom are in the city as witnesses and spectators. Residents of Centerville and Appanoose county are also aroused over the murder, especially since they have heard the horrifying details from the lips of witnesses. No one seemed to realize the brutality of it until a description had been given of the girl's body by nearly a dozen witnesses. It has caused such a feeling against Junkin that the jury will be compelled to return a verdict recommending the death penalty in order to prevent a lynching.

POLICE HAVE CAPTURED THREE Men Out at Midnight to Get Revolvers Which Had Been Hidden.

Omaha, Neb., May 29.—The police of South Omaha have arrested three men suspected of complicity in the Union Pacific train robbery near this city. One of the men had $125 another $98 and the third a smaller sum when arrested.

Children playing in the vicinity of Eighteenth and Q streets in South Omaha found three handkerchiefs cut for masks, three revolvers, flash lights and other paraphernalia, evidently the property of the hold-up men. Detectives were stationed in that vicinity in anticipation of the owners returning for their property. Late at night four men were seen to approach the spot were the stuff had been hidden and three of them were arrested, the fourth making his escape.

Sutherland Has $25,000 Fire.

Sutherland, Iowa, May 29.—Fire early Friday morning destroyed the mammoth grain elevators of the Farmers' Grain and Supply company the Thompson & Christopher structure and the coal house of the farmers' elevators, with a loss of $25,000. Thousands of bushels of grain were consumed. It was with the greatest difficulty the railroad buildings and the rest of the town were saved. The insurance is $12,000. The town is left without an elevator of any kind.

Faces Cell; Would Marry.

Lincoln, Neb., May 29.—Expected to plead guilty to the charge of embezzling $6,000 belonging to the Horn estate, J. H. Stores, alias McCarthy decided while in court, demanding that he be allowed to marry Effie Moline, who accompanied him on his flight from Lincoln. McCarthy fled two months ago. He was tracked to Chicago, Buffalo and Duluth.

TAFT HONORS DEAD

PRESIDENT DELIVERS ORATION ON GETTYSBURG FIELD.

MONUMENT IS DEDICATED

Daughter of the Chief Executive Unveils the Shaft Erected in Memory of Regulars—Lincoln Statue at Hodgenville.

Gettysburg, Pa.—Seldom has the historic Gettysburg battlefield witnessed more impressive Memorial day exercises than those of Monday. The chief feature of the ceremonies was the dedication of the fine monument erected by act of congress to commemorate the services of the regular army of the United States in the Gettysburg campaign of June and July, 1863, and President Taft was the central figure in the day's doings.

The president arrived early in the morning from Pittsburg, and was met by a committee of prominent citizens and an escort of United States regulars. After luncheon a great concourse of people gathered on the battlefield, and the exercises began. Secretary of War Dickinson delivered an address and formally transferred the monument to the Gettysburg National Park commission, the chairman of which, Lieut. Col. John P. Nicholson, made the speech of acceptance.

Unveiled by Miss Taft.

The shaft was then unveiled by Miss Helen Taft, daughter of the president. Laurel wreaths were placed at the base of the monument by the oldest regimental and battery commanders of the Gettysburg campaign, and the ceremonies ended with a review of the troops on the field by President Taft.

The monument is a beautiful shaft 85 feet high surrounded at the base by a broad granite terrace. It stands on Hancock avenue a short distance south of the high-water mark of the battle of Gettysburg. The monument represents all of the 42 cavalry, artillery, infantry and engineer organizations of the regular army that participated in the campaign. In addition there has been erected a small monument seven feet high for each of the commands at the location it occupied during the battle.

Lincoln Statue Dedicated.

Hodgenville, Ky.—For the second time within a few months this little town was Monday the scene of a notable ceremony. This was the unveiling of the Lincoln memorial statue erected at the birthplace of the martyred president.

Henry Watterson, the famous Louisville journalist, was the chief orator, and was followed by E. J. McDermott, also of Louisville. The statue was then unveiled by Mrs. Ben Hardin Helm. Next came addresses of acceptance by former Appellate Court Justice George Du Relle for the Lincoln monument commission, Gov. Augustus E. Willson for Kentucky, and David Highbaugh Smith for LaRue county.

STRIKE GROWS SERIOUS.

Mails Still Held Up and Food Is Getting Scarce Along the Georgia Railroad.

Atlanta, Ga. — The tension in Georgia railway firemen's strike is increasing with every hours' delay is settling the race question involved. United States mails held up since the beginning of the week, a dozen counties facing demoralization of business and the race issue brought continually into unwholesome prominence, were the factors which spurred the negotiations through hours of discussion.

Various towns in the strike district took inventory of the visible supply of food. Madison reported at least 15 days of plenty in prospect. Washington reported a shortage in yeast and prices rising. There are 11 cars of provisions at Lithonia and ice has been supplied to maintain the perishable portion of their contents.

NINE ARE BURNED TO DEATH

FOUR LOSE LIVES IN FLAMES AT ELDON, IOWA.

Children at School Exercises Ablaze on Stage in Sight of Parents and Friends.

Eldon, Ia. — Fire destroyed the home of Mrs. Lola Shaw and burned to death her father, John Carter, and three of her children.

Mrs. Shaw is employed during the night at a restaurant and left the children with their grandfather. The fire was caused by the overturning of a lighted lamp during a storm.

Central City, Ky. — Five children, who took part in the commencement exercises of Mrs. B. C. Boyd's school in this city were burned fatally; the audience was changed from an applauding group, into a fighting mob and several other children were slightly injured.

Panic was averted by the coolness of the men in the audience, who covered the flaming children with their coats.

Four of the children died later. They are: Selma Clay, aged five years; Dorothy Clay, aged seven years; Nell McGeary, five years; Louise Marshall, eight years. Rena May Miller, aged five years, may recover.

Little Dorothy Clay was the unwitting cause of the catastrophe. The little girls had formed in a circle and had drilled back and forth in their white muslin dresses, the audience gathering enthusiasm as the entertainment progressed.

Then the lights were extinguished and an electric candle in the hand of each child flashed out brilliantly. The aunts, mothers, fathers and playmates in the crowd cheered and applauded so enthusiastically that Dorothy grew frightened and dropped her candle. The flame leaped to the white muslin and in a twinkling five dresses were afire.

INDICT HASKELL AGAIN.

Oklahoma Governor and Five Others Accused of Town Lot Frauds by Grand Jury.

Tulsa, Okla.—New indictments charging fraud in the Muskogee town lot cases were returned Thursday by the United States grand jury against Gov. Charles N. Haskell, F. B. Severs, W. T. Hutchins, C. W. Turner, A. Z. English and W. R. Eaton.

The accused men are charged with obtaining titles from the government to town lots in Muskogee by illegal methods. Bond in each case was fixed at $5,000 and was promptly furnished.

"As a result of four government attorneys and an army of secret men surounding the grand jury and limiting the testimony to just what suited them, indictments have been secured against me," said Gov. Haskell.

Fisheries Commission Meets.

Washington. — The International Commission of Fisheries held a meeting at the state department Friday. It was appointed under the convention between the United States and Great Britain to develop uniform and effective measures for the protection and propagation of the food fishes in the waters contiguous to this country and Canada. President David Starr Jordan represents the United States. The commission has prepared regulations governing closed seasons, the apparatus used in fishing and other provisions to protect the fisheries.

ALASKA-YUKON FAIR OPENED

President Taft Presses Key and Starts Wheels—Seattle Is Wild with Joy.

Seattle, Wash.—At exactly 12:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Seattle time, President Taft in the White House in Washington, pressed a beautiful gold telegraph key, and at the signal that flashed all the way across the country the wheels in every part of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition began to turn and the great fair was opened.

When the auspicious moment arrived every whistle in Seattle was pulled wide open, every other noise-making contrivance was brought into use, every man, woman and child of the city's inhabitants and of the thousands of visitors already here cheered, and the opening of the exposition was accomplished in the midst of a deafening din and general rejoicings. For two minutes every street car stood still and all business was suspended.

Then came the formal and impressive ceremonies in connection with the opening. The parade and speech-making were participated in by all the officers of the exposition, the officials of Seattle, and Gov. W. B. Hoggatt of Alaska, Lieut. Gov. James Dunsmuir of British Columbia, Gov. M. E. Hay of Washington, Gov. J. M. Brady of Idaho, Gov. William Spry of Utah, Gov. F. W. Benson of Oregon and Gov. Gillett of California. In addition to the Pacific coast executives, Gov. Fort of New Jersey was represented by his son, Leslie R. Fort.

BAILEY AND SCRIBE FIGHT.

W. S. Manning of New York Times Hits Texan with Umbrella and Is Choked.

Washington.—Senator Bailey of Texas and W. S. Manning, representative of the New York Times in the senate press gallery, exchanged blows Thursday as a result of a conversation they had in reference to an article printed by the New York newspaper questioning the sincerity of the senator in his course on the income tax.

Neither of the participants was injured, as they were separated by Senator Clapp, Porto Rican Commissioner Larrinaga, several senate employes and newspaper correspondents. The versions of Mr. Bailey and Mr. Manning are in substantial agreement as to the cause of the trouble, and differ only as to the number of blows struck by each. When they were separated Bailey had Manning by the throat.

Arkansas Negro Lynched.

Pine Bluff, Ark. — Lovett Davis, a negro, charged with attempting to commit a criminal assault on a 16-year-old white girl here last Friday night, was taken from the jail in this city by an unmasked mob of 300 men, and hanged to a telegraph pole on one of the principal streets.

Just as the negro was being raised high above the street, the rope broke and the body fell to the ground, but he was immediately raised again and left hanging.

Supreme Court Adjourned.

Washington.—Chief Justice Fuller Monday declared the United States supreme court adjourned for the summer, and most of the justices lost little time in getting away for their vacations. The court suspended the docket a month ago and since then has held three sittings to announce decisons and hear motions.

MANY CITIES FEEL QU

TOWNS IN MIDDLE WEST STATES TREMBLE.

No Loss of Life Reported, but eral Slightly Injured—Som Property Damage.

Chicago.—Reports continued come in Thursday of the earth which shook the middle Wednesday. In this city the t lasted from two seconds to three utes and in cities in Illinois, In Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa and souri it was just as severe.

So far no loss of life has be ported, although there has been property damage and a great d fright. The most severe shocks felt in Chicago and Dubuque, Ia

Following is a list of towns the earthquake was felt: Jane Wis.; Cedar Rapids, Ia.; Sterling Rockford, Ill.; Moline, Ill.; Joliet Streator, Ill.; Dixon, Ill.; Dub Ia.; Burlington, Ia.; Galena, Bloomington, Ill.; Freeport, Ill Paso, Ill.; Fairbury, Ill.; Spring Ill.; Mount Carroll, Ill.; Spring Mich.; Peoria, Ill.; Milwaukee, Madison, Wis.; Kalamazoo, Benton Harbor, Mich.; Aurora, Kewanee, Ill.; Hanibal, Mo.; Wis.; Michigan City, Ind., and Rapids, Mich.

The last previous earthquake recorded in the Chicago weathe reau was on October 31, 1895.

One of the reports at the we bureau came from Dubuque, Ia., it was said that the Bank and ance building, a seven-story stru was nearly thrown to the grou the violence of the shock. C stenographers and hundreds who employed in the various offices panic from the building. Two se disturbances were reported the

In Chicago chimneys were t down on the West and North and several women were thrown their feet as a result of the s Large flat buildings were shake families ran out, fearing the would collapse. Many were rem of the disasters recently in Me and San Francisco, and were in for hours after the shock had pa

Two hundred Italians workin the track elevation in Evanston terror-stricken by the shock an on their knees in prayer.

At the weather bureau Prof. said there were no instruments t cording quake shocks, but that h noticed the swaying of chand and lamp cords.

LORIMER ELECTED SENA

Chicago Man Selected to Su Albert J. Hopkins by Illinoi Legislators.

Springfield, Ill. — Congressman liam Lorimer of the Sixth con sional district was elected U States senator on the ninety-fifth lot taken by the joint session o general assembly. He had 108 v

The election of a junior senat represent Illinois in the upper h at Washington came about throu coalition of Democratic assembl and the anti-Hopkins Republi breaking the deadlock which had ed since January 20.

William Lorimer was born at chester, England, April 27, 1861. he was five years of age he can America with his parents, and lo located in Chicago.

At the age of ten years his f died and he became a sign-pain apprentice and later worked fo Chicago packing houses and fo street railroad company, being a ductor when he quit that vocati work for himself.

He entered the real estate bus in 1886, and later became a me of the firm of Murphy & Lorime the building and brick manufact business.

In 1892 he ran for the offic clerk of the superior court, but defeated. Three years later he came a member of congress served the Sixth Illinois congress district and was again elected fo congressional seat last spring. a decade he has been a leader o Republican party in Illinois.

Islanders Ask Citizenship.

Washington. — A committee Porto Ricans has come to Was ton, representing the Republican of Porto Rico, to urge that the U States government grant citize to the islanders.

It is their intention to see Pre Taft and enlist his sympathies, if sible, as well as those of various tors and representatives, and t congress to take up the Porto R citizenship plank contained in last Republican national platform

Wisconsin Man Is Slain.

Spokane, Wash.—The body of rick Corrigan, a wealthy farmer Custer, Wis., was dragged from Spokane river Wednesday.

His pockets had been turned i out, his gold watch, gold pin and had vanished, as well as $4,00 drafts and $3,000 in mortgage carried when he disappeared Mar

HER INFINITE VARIETY

By BRAND WHITLOCK

ILLUSTRATIONS BY RAY WALTERS

COPYRIGHT 1907 BY BOBBS-MERRILL CO.

SYNOPSIS.

...r Morley Vernon's visit with his ... was interrupted by a call from ...itical boss at the state capital. ...egretted it, the girl more than he, ... she had arranged to attend a ... that evening with him. She said ...rned for a national office for him. ...non's desk in the senate he found ...rose, accompanied by a plea for ... for women. He met the au... pretty Miss Maria Greene of ..., who proposed to convert him ...ting for house resolution No. 19. ...reene secured Vernon's promise to ...r the suffrage resolution. He also ...f by convincing others. He took ...e to the fair suffragette. Miss ...consulted with the lieutenant-gov... Vernon admitted to himself that ...ragette had stirred a strange feel... ...thin him. He forgot to read his ...'s letter. Vernon made a great ... in favor of suffrage, aided by ... from Miss Greene.

CHAPTER V.—Continued.

...n he had done, there was a ...t's stillness; then came the long ... of applause that rang through ...amber, and while the lieutenant ...or rapped for order, men ...ed around Vernon and wrung his ...as he wiped his forehead with ...ndkerchief. And then the roll ...alled. It had not proceeded far ...there was that subtile change in ...mosphere which is so easily rec... ...d by those who have acquired ...nse of political aeroscepsy; the ...e that betokens some new, un... ...ted and dangerous maneuver. ...wood had come over from the ... His face, framed in its dark ... was stern and serious. He ...ered an instant to Porter, the ... leader. Porter rose.

... President," he said.

... lieutenant governor was looking ...n expectantly.

...e gentleman from Cook," the ...nant governor said.

... President," said Senator Por... ...I move you, sir, that the further ...sion of the resolution be post... ... until Wednesday morning, one ... from to-morrow, and that it be ... a special order immediately fol... ...g the reading of the journal."

... there are no objections it will ...o ordered," said the lieutenant ...nor.

...l Burns shouted a prompt and ...e "Object!"

... the lieutenant governor calmly ...

...d it is so ordered."

...e gavel fell.

CHAPTER VI.

...er the adjournment Vernon ...d out Maria Greene and walked ...her down Capitol avenue toward ...otel. He was prepared to enjoy ...ongratulations, but she was silent ... while, and before they spoke ... "Doc" Ames, striding rapidly, ...caught up with them. He was ...scowling.

... was sorry you didn't finish your ...h as you intended, sir," he said, ... something of the acerbity of a ...each.

...hy," began Vernon, looking at ..."I—"

...ou laid out very broad and com...ensive ground for yourself," the ...an continued, "but unfortunately ...did not cover it. You should have ...loped your subject logically, as I ... hopes, indeed, in the beginning, ... were going to do. An argument ...d on principle would have been ... to the point than an appeal to ...passions. I think Miss Greene will ...e with me. I am sorry you did not ...aint me with your intention of ...ssing the senate on this impor... ... measure; I would very much have ... to confer with you about what ...were going to say. It is not con...plated by those in the reform ...ement that the charms of woman ... be advanced as the reason for ...right to equal suffrage with man. ... purely a matter of cold, abstract ...ce. Now, for instance," the doctor ...his finger in his palm, and began ...speak didactically, "as I have ...ed out to the house, whatever the ...er or the principle that gives to ... his right to make the law what ...rns him, to woman it gives the ...e right. In 37 states the married ...er has no right to her children; ...the wife has no right to her own ...ings; in eight she has no separate ... to her property; in seven—"

Vernon looked at Miss Greene helplessly, but she was nodding her head in acquiescence to each point the doctor laid down in his harsh palm with that long forefinger. Vernon had no chance to speak until they reached the hotel. She was to take the midday train back to Chicago, and Vernon had insisted on going to the station with her. Just as she was about to leave him to go up to her room she said, on a sudden impulse:

"Do you know that the women of America, yes, the people of America, owe you a debt?"

Vernon assumed a most modest attitude.

"If we are successful," she went on, "the advocates of equal suffrage all over the United States will be greatly encouraged; the reform movement

"Did You Ever Live in the Country?"

everywhere will receive a genuine impetus."

"You will be down next Wednesday when the resolution comes up again, won't you?" asked Vernon.

"Indeed, I shall," she said. "Do you have any hopes now?"

"Hopes?" laughed Vernon. "Why, certainly; we'll adopt it. I'll give my whole time to it between now and legislation this session, appropriations and all. I guess that will bring them to time!"

"You're very good," she said. "But I fear Mr. Porter's influence."

"Oh, I'll take care of him. You trust it to me. The women will be voting in this state next year."

"And you shall be their candidate for governor!" she cried, clasping her hands.

Vernon colored; he felt a warm thrill course through him, but he waved the nomination aside with his hand. He was about to say something more, but he could not think of anything quickly enough. While he hesitated, Miss Greene looked at her watch.

"I've missed my train," she said, quietly.

Vernon grew red with confusion.

"I beg a thousand pardons!" he said. "It was all my fault and it was certainly very stupid of me."

"It's of no importance. Where must I go to reserve space on the night train?" said Miss Greene.

Vernon told her, and proffered his services. He was now delighted at the philosophical way in which she accepted the situation—it would have brought the average woman, he reflected, to tears—and then he went on to picture to himself the practical results in improving women's characters that his new measure, as he had already come to regard it, would bring about.

CHAPTER VII.

Maria Greene would not let Vernon attend to her tickets; she said it was a matter of principle with her; but late in the afternoon, when they had had luncheon, and she had got the tickets herself, she did accept his invitation to drive. The afternoon had justified all the morning's promise of a fine spring day, and as they left the edge of the town and turned into the road that stretched away over the low undulations of ground they call hills in Illinois, and lost itself mysteriously in the country far beyond, Miss Greene became enthusiastic.

"Isn't it glorious!" she cried. "And to think that when I left Chicago last night it was still winter!" She shuddered as if she would shake off the memory of the city's ugliness. Her face was flushed and she inhaled the sweet air eagerly.

"To be in the country once more!" she went on.

"Did you ever live in the country?" Vernon asked.

"Once," she said, and then after a grave pause, she added: "A long time ago."

The road they had turned into was as soft and as smooth as velvet now that the spring had released it from the thrall of winter's mud. It led beside a golf links, and the new greens were already dotted with golfers, who played with the zest they had accumulated in the forbidding winter months. They showed their enthusiasm by playing bare-armed, as if already it were the height of summer.

As the buggy rolled noiselessly along, Vernon and Miss Greene were silent; the spell of the spring was on them. To their right rolled the prairies, that never can become mere fields, however much they be tilled or fenced. The brown earth, with its tinge of young green here and there, or its newly plowed clods glistening and steaming in the sun, rolled away like the sea. Far off, standing out black and forbidding against the horizon, they could see the ugly buildings of a coal shaft; behind, above the trees that grew for the city's shade, the convent lifted its tower, and, above all, the gray dome of the State House reared itself dominating the whole scene. The air shimmered in the haze of spring. Birds were chirping in the hedges; now and then a meadow-lark sprang into the air and fled, crying out its strange staccato song as it skimmed the surface of the prairies. Vernon idly snapped the whip as he drove along; neither of them seemed to care to speak. Suddenly they heard a distant, heavy thud. The earth trembled slightly.

"What's that?" said Miss Greene, in some alarm. "It couldn't have been thunder."

"No," said Vernon, "it was the miners, blasting."

"Where?"

"Down in the ground underneath us."

She gave him a strange look which he did not comprehend. Then she turned and glanced quickly at the black breakers of the coal shaft, half a mile away; then at the golf-players.

"Do the mines run under this ground?" she asked, sweeping her hand about and including the links in her gesture.

"Yes, all over here, or rather under here," Vernon said. He was proud of his knowledge of the locality. He thought it argued well that a legislator should be informed on all questions. Maria thought a moment, then she said:

"The golfers above, the miners below."

Vernon looked at her in surprise. The pleasure of the spring had gone out of her eyes.

"Drive on, please," she said.

"There's no danger," said Vernon, reassuringly, clucking at his horse, and the beast flung up its head in a spasmodic burst of speed, as livery-stable horses will. The horse did not have to trot very far to bear them away from the crack of the golf balls and the dull subterranean echoes of the miners' blasts, but Vernon felt that a cloud had floated all at once over this first spring day. The woman sitting there beside him seemed to withdraw herself to an infinite distance.

"You love the country?" he asked, feeling the need of speech.

"Yes," she said, but she went no farther.

"And you once lived there?"

"Yes," she said again, but she vouchsafed no more. Vernon found a deep curiosity springing within him; he longed to know more about this young woman who in all outward ways seemed to be just like the women he knew, and yet was so essentially different from them. But though he tried, he could not move her to speak of her own life or its affairs. At the last he said boldly:

"Tell me, how did you come to be a lawyer?"

Miss Greene turned to meet his inquisitive gaze.

"How did you?" she asked.

Vernon cracked his whip at the road.

"Well—" he stammered. "I don't know. I had to do something."

"So did I," she replied.

Vernon cut the lazy horse with the whip, and the horse jerked the buggy as it made its professional feint at trotting.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

LIKED THE FIGHTING APOSTLE.

Name of St. Peter Appealed to Heart of Soldier.

It is well known that Elias Howe, the inventor of the sewing machine, not only enlisted as a common soldier in the ranks of the Seventeenth Connecticut regiment, carried a musket, and did full military duty during the war, but at a certain juncture, when national finances were at a low ebb, he paid soldiers out of his own pocket. Relative to this incident, P. T. Barnum used to tell this story:

"While Mr. Howe was counting out the money referred to, a stranger, who was a clergyman, entered the tent and said he had heard of Mr. Howe's liberality and had called to ask him to contribute toward building a church for his congregation.

"'Church, church,' said Mr. Howe without looking up from his bills he was counting; 'building churches in war times, when so much is needed to save our country! What church is it?'

"'St. Peter's church,' replied the clergyman.

"'Oh, St. Peter's,' said Mr. Howe, 'well, St. Peter was the only fighting apostle—he cut a man's ear off. I'll go $500 on St. Peter, but I am spending most of my money on saltpeter now.'"

Idea by No Means New.

The object of New York's newest club is to eat wisely but not too well. That is, to educate housewives in the domestic sciences. But this idea is as old as the hills and was tried by Boston years ago with more or less failure. Clubs of domestic science are all over the United States now and one can determine their value to society by harking back to the old days of the simple life when eating and the preparation of food was not the main object and the servant problem had not started on its wild career.

OPERATION HER ONLY CHANCE

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Adrian, Ga.—"I suffered untold misery from a female weakness and disease, and I could not stand more than a minute at a time. My doctor said an operation was the only chance I had, and I dreaded it almost as much as death. One day I was reading how other women had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it. Before I had taken one bottle I was better, and now I am completely cured."—LENA V. HENRY, Route No. 3, Adrian, Ga.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be absolutely confidential, and the advice free.

A Plea for Bachelors.

There are few people in the community more generous, according to their means, more unselfish, and more self-denying than the much-maligned bachelor class. Why, then, should it be taxed? If a tax is required, let it be levied on the pampered, petted, over-indulged, usually ungrateful married man.—London Daily Graphic.

WESTON, Ocean-to-Ocean Walker, Said recently: "When you feel down and out, feel there is no use living, just take your bad thoughts with you and walk them off. Before you have walked a mile things will look rosier. Just try it." Have you noticed the increase in walking of late in every community? Many attribute it to the comfort which Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes, gives to the millions now using it. As Weston has said, "It has real merit." It cures tired, aching feet while you walk. 30,000 testimonials. Order a 25c package to-day of any Druggist and be ready to forget you have feet. A trial package of ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

For a Round Sum.

"How did Smith get on with that new apartment house he built?"

"It is a flat failure."

BEAUTIFUL WHITE CLOTHES are a delight to the eye. Be sure to get them by using RUSS BLUE. 5c at grocers.

A girl never likes to admit she was kissed unless she wasn't.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

How to catch fish is a study. How to lie about it comes natural.

SICK HEADACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cured by these Little Pills.

They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature

Brent Good

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

Are You Going to PAINT ?

It pays to keep your buildings well painted, and when you paint it pays to use the best you can get. We handle the best in

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, etc. etc.

Call and see us and get our prices.

Washing Machines

We handle some of the best made. Call and see the

"Quicker Yet"

The best place to buy

Hardware & Groceries

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA

HELLO THERE

Where are you going? I'm going to H. Lau & Son. They handle all kinds of farm implements, Port Huron threshers also the Aultman & Taylor machinery, the 20 Century and Appleton manure spreader, McKinnon and Clinton wagons, Anchor and Velie buggies, Ohio and Kingman cultivators, stirring and gang plows, the open mould board sulky plows the lightest draft, Towers cultivators, Imperial and Challenge wind mills, hog fencing, barb wire, smooth wire gates, pumps and piping of all kinds, feed mills and the International gas engines from 1 to 40 H. P., Milwaukee mowers, binders, Dane hay loaders and buckers, nails and fence staples, wind mills and pump repairing on short notice, the sharpless cream separator the best made today, the Crack a-jack line of samples for tailor made suits.

In the Household—As Hygeno is regularly used by thousands as a household remedy, disinfectant, germicide and insecticide the greatest cleanliness is exercised in its manufacture. For sale here.

H. Lau & Son.

ARE YOU LOOKING

For something new in the Drug, Jewelery, Book, Stationery, Musical, China or Glassware line? If so, come to our store. We have what you are looking for.

Our Drug Department is complete in every particular. A full line of standard Patents. Special attention given to family recipes & Physicians' Prescriptions

Edison Phonographs with a large repertoire of records in the standard and popular class.

China and Glassware. Genuine hand painted. Fancy Lamps in all the styles.

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

As to Dolliver

There may be a contest for Senator Dolliver's seat as the Iowa City Republican and Nevada Representative are saying, but of one thing these esteemed champions of reaction may be assured the issue will not be on his course at the extra session of the senate that is making a tariff. On that issue Iowa would return the senator by a vote that would put the opposition at the tag end of the "scattering."

Senator Dolliver comes nearer to representing Iowa just at this moment than ever in his political career, and never in his career has he been enlisted in a better cause, The whole tariff making is a shameless exhibition of the greed of trusts and special interests, which have pooled to control enough votes to take care of themselves and let the people go hang. Senator Dolliver will not be in any danger from what he is doing in the senate.—Des Moines Tribune

The following is quoted from a recent prosperity speech of a southern congressman:

"Has it ever occurred to you, Mr. Chairman, that the cotton cloth made in South Carolina annually would make a sheet big enough to cover the entire face of America and Europe and lap over on the toes of Asia. Or, if all the cattle she raises each year were one cow, she could browse on the tropical vegetation along the equator while her tail switched icicles off the north pole, and that her milk could float a shipload of her butter and cheese from Charleston to New York. Or, if the mules we market each year, were one mule, it would consume the entire annual corn crop of North Carolina at one meal and kick the spots off the sun without swelling its sides or shaking its tail? Or, if the hogs we raise annually were one hog, that animal would dig the Panama canal in three roots, without grunting, and its squeal would be loud enough to jar the cocoanuts off the trees along the canal zone?"

"It shall be unlawful," says the Profoot act, "for any person under twenty-one years of age, to smoke or use a cigarette or cigarettes on the premises of another, or on any public road, street, alley or park, or other lands used for public purposes, or in any place of business or amusement, except when in the company of his parents or guardian,"

Under the new law, boys under 21 years of age, may be arrested for smoking cigarettes almost any place, except their own homes, unless accompanied by their parents or guardians. The bill was introduced by Senator Proudfoot by request, and the Iowa Anti-Saloon league announces it will see that it is enforced.

Here is an epitaph that is said to be carved on a tombstone in an Indiana cemetery: "Here lies our wife, Samantha Proctor, who ketched a cold and wouldn't doctor. She could not stay; she wished to go; praise God from whom all blessings flow."

PRESIDENT TAFT WEARS WHITE HOUSE SHOES

Made by THE BROWN SHOE CO. St. Louis Mo.

Ask for this or other styles

For Men, $3.50, $4, $5 & $6 — For Women, $3.50, $4 & $5

BROWN'S 5 STAR MARK MEANS QUALITY

Arthur Wellemeyer

LATEST STYLES AND BEST QUALITY

Are embodied in our fine line of

MILLINERY GOODS

To appreciate this fact, you must see our line of Pattern Hats and Trimmed Hats. Nice line of headwear for the Children. We have the best assortment ever shown in Klemme or the surrounding towns. Don't buy until you have seen our display. A first class trimmer who will be sure to please you.

A fine line of Corsets. Also Hair Rolls, Ladies' Waists, Collars, etc.

MRS. J. JOSTEN.

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile, both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

Buy Your SCREENS NOW

The Flies Will Soon be Here

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, Agent

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

KLEMME MARKET.

.....	60 to 65c
.....	48 to 50c
.....	80 to 100
.....	55 to60 c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	6.75 to 6.90
.....	3.00 to 6.00

OCAL NEWS

!!!!!!!!!!

State Savings Bank has a of ad.

Lau shipped a car of Chicago Sunday.

rain, more rest. Lots n Hancock county this i—One half mile west of , one sack ground oats. of C. C. Schaefer. 44-2 h E. Johnson and son Chicago last Sunday with two cars of fine e of Mr. Johnson's feed-

Lawhorn and Lew Lewis er to the lake yesterday ittle fishing stunt. We find out what kind of took.

upper given by the la- he English M. E. church opera house last Satur- rnoon and evening was ll attended.

J. W. Waterman and R. Waterman and chil turned last Thursday eir visit with Benton riends and relatives.

't seem to be much of an for the weather man to a rain most any old any old day. We had a Monday evening, one on evening and a continu- pour all day yesterday. think of buying a rug y you to look over my ich consists of Wilton Axminsters, Saxony ers, Colonial Velvets sels made in sizes 6 x 9, x 6, 9 x 12 and larger. r rugs G. F. Schuler.

Lilly closed his pastor- e English M. E. church Sunday. We under- at he intends to go on for some oil company. er of the Chicago Uni- will preach in Klemme nday.

ohn Gruetzmacher and s, Esther and Hulda, o Garner yesterday where they boarded bound Milwaukee train na, Iowa. to attend the acher-Schneider w e d- ntion of which is made erman M. E. church col- he groom, Geo. Gruetz- is one of our popular men, well known to all rs. The Times extends ations to Mr. and Mrs cher and wishes them

A Thrilling Rescue

t R. Lean, of Cheny, Wash. from a frightful death is a ural the world. "A hard rites, "brought on a des- trouble that baffled an ex- here. Then I paid $10 to to a lung specialist in to did not help me. Then California, but without last I used Dr. King's overy, which completely and now I am as well as lung trouble, bronchitis, colds, asthma, croup and ough its supreme, 50c and l bottle free. Guaranteed ast & Co.

Another nice shower Monday evening.

Read the new ad of State Savings Bank.

The city council met in regular session last evening.

Want to buy a few good tomato plants. A. C. Flint.

A pleasant social dance was held in the opera house Monday evening.

Attorney J. E. Wichman and W. L. Fitkin were here from Garner last Friday.

I have just added to my stock a nice line of Lace Curtains at 75c up to $6.00 a pair at G. F. Schuler's. tf

W. R. Bloom shipped a car of fat porkers to the Chicago market last Sunday and one car yesterday.

G. A. Pabst & Co., Arthur Wellemeyer and A. Kirkwood & Son have changes of ad this week. Don't fail to read them.

The Klemme school closed last Friday for the summer vacation. The last day was spent in feasting and recreation and the scholars all had the time of their lives.

Miss Avis Sage, who has been visiting here the past month at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. C. Flint, (and incidentally making the type fly in the Times office) leaves today for Britt, to take a position on the Tribune,

A representative of the Chicago Lyceum Bureau was in Klemme yesterday to contract for a lecture course for the coming season. Enough season tickets have already been sold to make it a sure go, but the more they can sell, the better talent they can secure. If you haven't already signed up for season tickets, better do it now. More about this next week.

There are going to be some names cut off of our single list very soon unless back subscriptions are settled up. We can't afford to buy paper and pay postage and wrap up these papers each week in the year without being paid for it. Those living outside of the county who are behind had better pay up if they wish to continue to get the paper.

The Rock Island Lines, in connection with their Colorado train service, will add telegraphic baseball score service to other special features on the Rocky Mountain Limited and their new one night train, "The Mountaineer." In thus taking the initiative among western lines in appealing to the lovers of the national game, the Rock Island deserves commendation. The plan contemplates showing final scores, as early as obtainable, of games in the National, American and Western leagues, together with such data coucerning the game as will be of interest. This feature will also be a part of the service on the Golden State Limited, and, on and after June 6th, when it becomes effective, Rock Island patrons en route to Colorado or California need not be out of constant touch with the baseball situation.

Could Not Be Better

No one has ever made a salve, ointment, lotion or balm to compare with Bucklin's Arnica Salve. Its the one perfect healer of cuts, corns, burns, bruises, sores, scalds, boils, ulcers, eczema, salt rheum. For sore eyes, cold sores, chapped hands its supreme. Infallible for piles. Only 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

For a chunk of good cold ice call at Bloom's elevator or on G. R. Waterman. 44tf Klemme is putting on lots of style these days in the way of brand new cement walks. Harv Allen and force are putting a walk along the front of the Terhufen Bros store and Dr. Missman's office, and Mr. Luken of Goodell is putting in the walks in front of the hotel. A large amount of this kind of work is contracted for and will be put in as soon as the workmen can get to it.

Noteworthy Improvements

Ernest Lenz has carpenters at work completing the porches on his fine new residence in South Klemme. When these porches are on, the house painted and the cement walks laid, Mr. Lenz will have one of the finest residence properties in town.

Wm. Fuller is making some substantial improvements on his fine farm joining the town on the south, in the way of a new barn, size 32x44 feet, the frame of which was ready to raise yesterday. There is a seven foot basement under the whole building, with a solid concrete wall running clear to the bottom of the basement. Steve Day and his husky force of carpenters have charge of the job.

Klemme Wins Again

One of the most hotly contested ball games that was ever played in Klemme (and that's saying something) was the one last Monday between Goodell and Klemme which was won by our boys by a score of 6 to 7, but it took ten innings to decide the contest. Frank Kluckhohn and Charley Ell officiated as battery for the winners, with Earl Clark and Leo Ahrenkiel in the points for Goodell. Klemme bunched hits off Clark in the first inning, scoring five runs, but after that he pitched a tight game. Kluckhohn's support was a little ragged at times, as some of the boys have had no practice this year. However, a good big crowd turned out and all report it a very exciting and highly satisfactory game.

TWIN LAKE

Special Correspondence:

A number of Twin Lake folks celebrated in Garner Monday.

Miss Anna Willert of Woden visited at the J. G. Tanner home last week.

Miss Daisy Schuldt helped with the sewing at John Tanner's last week.

The Union Sunday school of southern Twin Lake will give a Childrens' Day program Sunday, June 13.

Mr. Manuel of Britt has been through this part of the country talking "silos." Some of our farmers talk of purchasing.

Corn planting is about finished around here, and (considering the weeds) the late rains are doing the fields a "sight" of good.

German M. E. Church Items

Crops are growing fine and the farmers are wearing a broader smile than weeks ago.

As the pastor will be absent Sunday, Rev. Schlung will fill all of his appointments.

William Sampson was a Germantown visitor and attended services there last Sunday.

Mrs. Weiland and daughter, Gertrude, visited her brother, T. Blatk and family last week.

The Germantown W. F. M. S. and "Standard Bearers" met with Mrs. H. L. Suckow Tuesday afternoon.

Etna Suckow, who is working in Garner called on her parents Sunday and attended the evening service.

August Wenz attended the funeral of Edgar Henke in Charles City last Friday, returning Saturday morning.

The Klemme "Standard Bearer Society" will meet Friday evening with Amanda Arnold and Mary Griffen.

Adolf Ridder and family came down from Fenton last Thursday to spend a week or more at the parental home of Mrs. Ridder.

August and Adolf Ridder made a trip to Floyd county last week to look after the graves of their parents. They returned by the way of Waterloo.

Mrs. Kaste, Mrs. Chas. Gruetzmacher and daughter Geneve of Charles City were over Sunday visitors among their Klemme friends and relatives.

Childrens' Day will be observed in both Sunday schools June 13. Germantown will give a program in the forenoon and the Klemme school in the evening.

J. J. Stille lost a valuable horse last week in a runaway. Our farmers must be grooming their horses too well as there has been so many escapades this spring.

Walter Weisbrod of Fenton was a caller in our community the first of the week. There seems to be an unusual attraction here for the Weisbrods. We wonder?

The program given by the young men's class last Sunday evening was well received and highly commended. Tho' it cost some effort and a few drops of perspiration it was appreciated all the more.

Geo. Gruetzmacher and Matilda Schneider were joined in marriage at the bride's home near Monona, Iowa, Wednesday evening. Those who attended from here were Rev. Wesel, Mrs. J. Gruetzmacher and daughters, Hulda and Esther.

Several Klemmeites indulged in a fox hunt. They started out with ropes, chains, spades and shovels, a box and a corn crib. It meant sure capture to Mr. Fox. The party consisted of two preachers, a piano tuner, mayor, justice of the peace, farmer and a school boy. When the foxy family spied this dignified company they moved out to other quarters and the hunt had to be postponed.

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures
See me when you want a
Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to night calls.

F. C. GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Highest cash price paid for hides. Home rendered pure lard a specialty.
We solicit your patronage.

RESTAURANT
DELICIOUS COLDEN ORANGEADE
the latest and best cold drink, Try it.
Home made Ice Cream, Cones and Sundaes. Home made Bakery Goods.
Lunches and Meals at all hours.
A. Kirkwood & Son

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
☞ Eyes Tested Free.

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
☞ Call in

Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition
This year you can make the trip you have had in mind for so long—a trip to the Pacific Coast. Go now, while rates are low and routes arranged so you can see the most at lowest cost, including the great exposition at
SEATTLE, WASH.
June 1 to October 16, 1909
It covers an area of 250 acres, located on two beautiful lakes, overlooked by snow-capped mountains, and will interestingly exhibit the wonderful development and possibilities of Alaska and the countries of the Pacific. Very low fares daily during the summer. Let me tell you how comfortably and conveniently the trip is made
Thro' Scenic Colorado
AND
Yellowstone Park
VIA
Rock Island-Frisco Lines
Ask for descriptive folder.
L. O. TURGASEN, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

CRIPPLED WITH SCIATICA

Caused by Disordered Action of the Kidneys.

Samuel D. Ingraham, 2402 E. Main St., Lewiston, Idaho, says: "For two years I was crippled with sciatic rheumatism in my thighs and could not get about without crutches. The kidney secretions became irregular, painful, and showed a heavy sediment. Doctors were not helping me so I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. I improved soon, and after a while was entirely free from my suffering. I am in the best of health now and am in debt to Doan's Kidney Pills for saving my life."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Logical Reasoning.

A certain young man's friends thought he was dead, but he was only in a state of coma. When, in ample time to avoid being buried, he showed signs of life, he was asked how it seemed to be dead.

"Dead?" he exclaimed. "I wasn't dead. I knew all that was going on. And I knew I wasn't dead, too, because my feet were cold and I was hungry."

"But how did that fact make you think you were still alive?" asked one of the curious.

"Well, this way: I knew that if I were in heaven I wouldn't be hungry. And if I was in the other place my feet wouldn't be cold."

Mutual Surprise.

A mission worker in New Orleans was visiting a reformatory near that city not long ago when she observed among the inmates an old acquaintance, a negro lad long thought to be a model of integrity. "Jim!" exclaimed the mission worker. "Is it possible I find you here?" "Yassum," blithely responded the backslider. "I's charged with stealin' a barrel o' sweet pertaters." The visitor sighed. "You, Jim!" she repeated. "I am surprised!" "Yassum," said Jim. "So was I or I wouldn't be here!"

The Captain's Repartee.

The captain of a trans-Atlantic liner, having become irritable as a result of some minor troubles in the ship's management and the unusually large number of ridiculous inquiries made by tourists, was heading for the "bridge" when a dapper young man halted him to inquire the cause of the commotion off the starboard side of the ship. Being on the port side, the captain politely replied, with some sarcasm, he was not certain, but thought it possible that a cat fish had just had kittens.—What-to-Eat.

Home-Made Names.

"That little girl," remarked the druggist to the doctor, "was just in for ten cents worth of tincture of benzine. But I've had it before and gave her benzoin."

"That was easy," answered the doctor. "This morning on a diphtheria case the woman wanted to know if I administered antitoxin with an epidemic syringe."

OVER THE FENCE

Neighbor Says Something.

The front yard fence is a famous council place on pleasant days. Maybe to chat with some one along the street, or for friendly gossip with next door neighbor. Sometimes it is only small talk but other times neighbor has something really good to offer.

An old resident of Baird, Texas, got some mighty good advice this way once.

He says:

"Drinking coffee left me nearly dead with dyspepsia, kidney disease and bowel trouble, with constant pains in my stomach, back and side, and so weak I could scarcely walk.

"One day I was chatting with one of my neighbors about my trouble and told her I believed coffee hurt me. Neighbor said she knew lots of people to whom coffee was poison and she pleaded with me to quit it and give Postum a trial. I did not take her advice right away but tried a change of climate, which did not do me any good. Then I dropped coffee and took up Postum.

"My improvement began immediately and I got better every day I used Postum.

"My bowels became regular in two weeks, all my pains were gone. Now I am well and strong and can eat anything I want to without distress. All of this is due to my having quit coffee, and to the use of Postum regularly.

"My son who was troubled with indigestion thought that if Postum helped me so, it might help him. It did, too, and he is now well and strong again.

"We like Postum as well as we ever liked the coffee and use it altogether in my family in place of coffee and all keep well." "There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville," in Pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

IOWANS ARE NAMED

Delegates are Named to Attend Denver Congress

PRESIDENT TAFT WILL ATTEND

Governor Carroll Selects Sixteen Iowans to Boost Middle West at Meeting With Taft.

Des Moines, Iowa May 29.—Sixteen Iowans have been named by Governor B. F. Carroll to represent the state at the Trans-Mississippi congress at Denver, August 16-21. This is the big booster meeting which President W. H. Taft will attend. Three Des Moines men are named, Lafayette Young, Jerry B. Sullivan and Henry Wallace. The delegates as chosen are as follows:

James A. Dunn, Bloomfield; Austin Haines, Grinnell; LaMonte Cowles, Burlington; D. J. Lenehan, Dubuque; B. P. Birdsall, Clarion; E. C. Roach, Rock Rapids; J. M. Anderson, Indianola; Robert Healy, Fort Dodge; Lafe Young, Des Moines; Frank Simmons, Ottumwa; James A. Smith, Osage; Freeman Conaway, Ames; Jerry Sullivan, Des Moines; Dan Hamilton, Sigourney; Walter I. Smith, Council Bluffs; Henry Wallace, Des Moines.

The governor today named the following delegates to the third international conference on state and local taxation at Louisville, Sept. 21-24:

Delegates—Senator J. H. Jackson, Sioux City; Senator A. C. Savage, Adair; Hon. Charles McLean, Dubuque.

Alternates—F. G. Pierce, Marshalltown; F. T. True, Council Bluffs; Karl Johnson, Osage.

For Big Encampments.

Adjutant General Guy E. Logan is making preparations for the most complete series of Iowa National Guard encampments in the history of the organization. Three troops of United States cavalry have been asked and two companies of field artillery from Fort Leavenworth. In addition, General Logan has asked for four umpires and four instructors and it is expected to pull off a series of maneuvers that will give the guardsmen an insight into real army life.

The Fifty-third meets at Independence July 21-30. The Fifty-fourth at Iowa City, August 23 to September 1. The Fifty-fifth meets at Chariton August 5 to 14. The place of holding the Fifty-sixth has not been decided, but the date will be August 13 to 27.

Cottages for Sanitarium.

Plans have been completed by Architect Liebbe of the state board of control for thirteen new cottages, a kitchen cottage and a large brick veneer dormitory for employes at the state tuberculosis sanatorium at Oakdale, near Iowa City.

Each cottage will contain one large living room with writing tables, easy chairs and reading tables, lavatories and toilet facilities and a large veranda around three sides. The cots will be placed on this veranda. Each cottage will cost about $1,500. The kitchen cottage will be for the use of those who are unable to walk from one of the other cottages to the main dining hall. It will be connected by covered passage with two other cottages and the three buildings will cost about $5,000.

Plans for the employes' dormitory show a large and handsome brick building, fitted with every sanitary convenience and comfort for the nurses and doctors. The building will cost $20,000.

Sixty Per Cent Land Valuations.

That Iowa farms have been assessed at less than sixty per cent of the sale value is certain from the figures which are being returned to the secretary of the executive council by county auditors. In a number of cases, farms have been assessed at only a third of their sale value and practically none at their full value. Reports from practically all the counties thus far received, show that the average price of an acre of Iowa land is not far from $100.

No More Psychology Needed.

Psychology is one branch in which Iowa teachers will not be examined when the state board of educational examiners presides over their examination papers in May. State Superintendent Riggs has sent out a circular recalling the examination in psychology which had been announced. The recent legislature cut out psychology as one of the necessities of a teacher's education.

New Iowa Corporations.

People's Gas company, Anamosa; capital, $35,000. E. K. Ray and C. L. Niles, incorporators.

Currie Realty company, Mason City; capital, $30,000 C. Currie and F. R. Currie, incorporators.

State Inspectors After Them.

Inspectors Morey and Hiff of the state dairy commission are conducting a crusade against milk dealers who either adulterate milk by diluting it with water or by skimming it before it leaves the dairy. After two weeks' activities the inspectors declare that hundreds of families are being supplied with the adulterated fluid.

During the two weeks seven dairymen have pleaded guilty to charges of milk adulteration and have paid fines of $25. Three more cases are pending and another information has been filed.

Two ice cream manufacturers pleaded guilty to selling adulterated ice cream and were assessed the $25 fine. The inspection of milk and ice cream will continue during the summer months, the inspectors declare.

Would Get Rich Lands.

Attorney General H. W. Byers is in St. Paul where he is seeking to convince the United States circuit court that Iowa owns several hundred acres of valuable land in the heart of Omaha. When the Missouri river changed its channel in 1878 a neck of land was left high and dry and the state of Iowa claimed it as an abandoned river bed. The Omaha Land company platted it and it is choice business property. Long ago the state authorized the sale of the land. Now both the state and the purchasers have submitted appeals which will be decided Wednesday. Mr. Byers' contention will be that the Omaha Land company did not make the improvements in good faith, but sought to clinch the title.

Electricity for Capitol.

Members of the state executive council have asked for an estimate of the cost of wiring all gas chandeliers in the state house for electric lamps and substituting electricity for gas in all offices. When the state house lighting plant was built electric lamps and electroliers were placed in the halls, rotunda, legislative chambers and several basement offices but the large offices on the main floor still use gas for illuminating, artificial light being necessary much of the time in several offices. If the plan of Secretary of State Hayward and Treasurer Morrow is adopted the handsome gas chandeliers will be wired and converted into electroliers.

Red Book Completed Soon.

The official Red Book of Iowa, published under the direction of Secretary of State Hayward, will be completed about June 15, so Captain Guy Brewer, editor-in-chief, believes. The Red Book will excel in many ways any previous volume of this sort. Captain Brewer has the names of all the legislators together with pictures of the leading state officials, so that the book will be a handy reference work.

Iowa Corn Crop is Planted.

Seventy-five per cent of Iowa corn has been planted and most of that is up. Cultivation has already begun in a few localities and the fields are generally reported as being in good condition. The warm weather of the past week has made the farmer smile. This is the summary of the crop bulletin issued by the Iowa weather and crop service, under the direction of Dr. George M. Chappel.

Milk Seller Is Arrested.

Another arrest was made in the pure milk crusade which State Pure Food and Dairy Commissioner H. R. Wright is conducting. Information accusing Tyler Bros. of selling milk not up to standard was filed. The accused are dairymen and it is charged that they have been furnishing milk below standard to patrons and grocers.

Iowa to be Represented.

Stat Mine Inspector Rhys has been selected to represent Iowa at the National Mine Inspector meeting at Scranton, Pa., June 8, 9 and 10. The executive council will pay the expenses. This is the new organization which formed last year.

Want Pay Day Saturday.

The last day of the month is pay day, but this year it falls on Monday, which will be a holiday at the State house. Employes are considering asking the executive council for the issuance of their money on May 29, two days before it is strictly due.

Special Guns for Shoot.

Lieutenant Mohr has returned from Rock Island, where he has been making arrangements for the use of guns for the big Iowa National Guard shoot in this city this summer. Guns that are perfectly accurate will be provided.

Supreme Court Decisions.

Stewart Lumber company, appellant, vs. Fred Downs, Sophia Downs, Athleticism Extraordinary.

"Why," said the first athletic boaster, "every morning before breakfast I get a bucket and pull up 90 gallons from the well." "That's nothing," retorted the other. "I get a boat every morning and pull up the river."—Universalist Leader.

Red, Weak, Weary, Watery Eyes
Relieved by Murine Eye Remedy. Compounded by Experienced Physicians. Conforms to Pure Food and Drug Laws. Murine Doesn't Smart; Soothes Eye Pain. Try Murine in Your Eyes. At Druggists.

Nothing is so wholesome, nothing does so much for people's looks, as a little interchange of the small coin of benevolence.—Ruffini.

You Need a Tonic

if you feel languid and depressed all the time. The best thing to help nature build up the system is

DR. D. JAYNE'S TONIC VERMIFUGE

This great tonic is not a false stimulant as many of the so-called "spring tonics." It is a natural strength-giver. For all run-down conditions of the health it is an invaluable remedy; imparts new life and vigor and builds up the entire system.

Sold by All Leading Druggists in two size bottles, 50c and 35c

Des Moines Directory

THRESHERMAN'S SUPPLIES Oils, Belting, Packing, Hose, Steam and Water Fittings, Pipe, etc., for the Factory, Farm or Home. Write, Phone or Telegraph your orders to THE GLOBE MACHINERY & SUPPLY CO., 205-207 W. Court Ave., Des Moines, Iowa.

19c Sheet Music All the popular music at 10c, 15c and 19c per copy and 1c postage. Send 2 names of music friends for free Bulletin and Catalogues. EARLY MUSIC HOUSE, Des Moines, Ia.

CYCLONE CAMERA Size 3¼ x 4¼ with bulb and tube. List price $8.00, our price $5.00—other bargains. Amateur finishing our specialty. Des Moines Photo Materials Co.

Machinery Machine Shop and Foundry. Largest stock of used machinery in Iowa. Engines, Boilers, Steam Pumps, Belting, Shafting, Hangers, etc., bought and sold. American Iron Works, 213-223 E. First St., Des Moines, Iowa.

"CAPITAL CITY" "BLUE SHIELD" ROOFING Ask your dealer. If he hasn't it write us. CARR & ADAMS CO., Des Moines, Ia. Manufacturers and Jobbers of the Best of Everything in Millwork.

HAIL INSURANCE Now is the time to expect hailstorms. Protect yourself by insuring your crops. Secure the best protection by seeing our local agent, or write the Home Office for full particulars as to taking out a policy. Reliable Agents Wanted. The Mutual Hailstorm Insurance Ass'n of Iowa C. V. Stanley, Sec'y Des Moines, Iowa

EAT PURITY CHOCOLATES M'f'd by Windsor-Purity Candy Co., Des Moines. For sale by all first-class dealers.

DON'T Wear Other Overalls When You Can Buy OAK BRAND OVERALLS JUST AS CHEAP SOLD BY LEADING DEALERS EVERYWHERE Made with the Greatest Care Made of Best Materials Made in Omaha by Byrne & Hammer Dry Goods Co.

320 Acres of Wheat Land IN WESTERN CANADA WILL MAKE YOU RICH

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

Fifty bushels per acre have been grown. General average greater than in any other part of the continent. Under new regulations it is possible to secure a homestead of 160 acres free, and additional 160 acres at $3 per acre.

"The development of the country has made marvelous strides. It is a revelation, a record of conquest by settlement that is remarkable."—Extract from correspondence of a National Editor, who visited Canada in August last.

The grain crop of 1908 will net many farmers $20.00 to $25.00 per acre. Grain-raising, mixed farming and dairying are the principal industries. Climate is excellent; social conditions the best; railway advantages unequalled; schools, churches and markets close at hand. Land may also be purchased from railway and land companies.

For "Last Best West" pamphlets, maps and information as to how to secure lowest railway rates, apply to Superintendent of Immigration, Ottawa, Canada, or the authorized Canadian Government Agent:

E. T. HOLMES, 315 Jackson St., St. Paul, Minn.; or W. V. BENNETT, 801 New York Life Bldg., Omaha, Neb.

Headache "My father has been a sufferer from sick headache for the last twenty-five years and never found any relief until he began taking your Cascarets. Since he has begun taking Cascarets he has never had the headache. They have entirely cured him. Cascarets do what you recommend them to do. I will give you the privilege of using his name."—E. M. Dickson, 1120 Resiner St., W. Indianapolis, Ind.

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent. Taste Good. Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken or Gripe. 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold in bulk. The genuine tablet stamped C C C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back. 925

Buy a Wabash Wagon From your dealer or direct from our factory 40 styles and sizes for boys and girls of all ages from babyhood up, and larger Handy Wagons for men. Illustrated price list FREE. WRITE FOR IT! WABASH MANUFACTURING COMPANY 114 Mill St., Wabash, Indiana

CANCER CURED WITH OUT KNIFE OR BURNING PLASTERS CURES GUARANTEED REFERENCE AND CONSULTATION FREE DR. H. NEVINS PEORIA ILL.

LAND—IRRIGATED—LAND. Perpetual water right; fine water; productive soil; crop failures unknown; 50 bu. wheat per acre; 3 to 5 tons alfalfa; healthful climate; free timber; easy terms; write now. LINWOOD LAND CO., Rock Springs, Wyoming.

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Books free. Highest references. Best results.

You can Cure Constipation with A-B-C TEA Only 25 cts. a Package.

DEFIANCE STARCH never sticks to the iron.

Drake University Summer School

The Summer Quarter June 14th to August 20th

Credit Courses in the College of Liberal Arts, in the College of Education, in the College of Law, in the College of Music, and in the High School. Courses in Shorthand, Typewriting, Business Practice, Phonography and Bookkeeping. All courses are complete, the class doing the work of a full year in every case. Experience has proved to us that this is the best plan for credit courses. Private tutoring at reasonable rates in any line of work for children of any age and for adults.

Teachers' Short Course June 18th to July 30th

Courses in all subjects required for any grade of certificate. Courses in methods for all grades of teachers. Special courses in all special subjects. Text books rented at nominal fees. Total school expense for short course, $7.00. Uniform county examinations may be taken at the University in June and July. Send for announcement.

DRAKE UNIVERSITY, DES MOINES, IOWA

N INDIGESTION REMEDY FREE

Many people who are otherwise healthy suffer from indigestion, or dyspepsia. When you consider that the stomach and allied digestive organs are the most important organs of the body, it would seem that a disorder there is to be taken very seriously.

Dyspeptics cannot eat the things they like; food sours in the stomach, then chronic constipation begins, or, as is often the case, you have been constipated all along, and the stools are forced and irregular.

But there is no use letting indigestion run until it becomes chronic and undermines your health. It is good advice to suggest to you that you go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the wonderful cure for stomach, liver and bowel troubles. That is what C. Fowler, of Carson City, Mich., said and he is well to-day. Others who did the same and are cured are Ida A. Forbune, of Grand Junction, Tenn., B. F. Thompson, of Shenandoah, Ia., who actually considers that it saved his life. You can obtain a 50-cent or $1 bottle of the druggist, and, taken according to directions, it will probably be all you need. It is a liquid, acts gently, never gripes, and besides the laxative effect, contains exceptional tonic properties which tone the stomach, and that is what is especially needed in indigestion.

All sufferers from indigestion who have never used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can obtain a free test bottle by writing the doctor. It will be sent direct to your home without any charge. In this way thousands have proven to their own satisfaction Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the very remedy they needed to cure indigestion. When once you use this grand remedy you will throw violent cathartics, tablets, salts, etc., away.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 201 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

UNKIND FAKE.

The Shortsighted Lion—Well, I never dreamed I should finish my days behind the bars of a cage.

TORE HIS SKIN OFF

Shreds—Itching Was Intense—Sleep Was Often Impossible.

Cured by Cuticura in Three Weeks.

"At first an eruption of small pustules commenced on my hands. These spread later to other parts of my body, and the itching at times was intense, so much so that I literally tore the skin off in shreds in seeking relief. The awful itching interfered with my work considerably, and also kept me awake nights. I tried several doctors and used a number of different ointments and lotions but received practically no benefit. Finally I settled down to the use of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Pills, with the result that in a few days all itching had ceased and in about three weeks' time all traces of my eruption had disappeared. I have had no trouble of this kind since. H. A. Krutsinger, 5714 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill., November 18 and 28, 1907."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

The man who has faith in God is sure to have many other good things.

There is no need to suffer with soreness and stiffness of joints and muscles. A little Hamlins Wizard Oil rubbed in will limber them up immediately.

Love may be blind, but alimony is an eyeopener.

NASTY YELLOW CLOTHES will forever disappear if you use RUSS BLUE. All good grocers, 5c.

The way of the can't-guess-her is hard.

To Enjoy

the full confidence of the Well-Informed of the World and the Commendation of the most eminent physicians it was essential that the component parts of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna should be known to and approved by them; therefore, the California Fig Syrup Co. publishes a full statement with every package. The perfect purity and uniformity of product, which they demand in a laxative remedy of an ethical character, are assured by the Company's original method of manufacture known to the Company only.

The figs of California are used in the production of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna to promote the pleasant taste, but the medicinal principles are obtained from plants known to act most beneficially.

To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and for sale by all leading druggists.

MAY PLEAD GUILTY

Attorney's Hope To Get Junkin Lift Sentence.

TRIAL OF NEGRO IS NOW ON

Big Rock Used by Junkin to Beat Girl's Head to Pulp Viewed by Jury—Her Brother Tells of Murder.

Centerville, Iowa, May 28.—"We haven't got much evidence. We do not claim that Junkin is innocent of this murder, nor do we admit that he is guilty. We will not ask the jury to set him free, but will fight for a life sentence."

Thus declared Attorney Frank M. Hunter of Ottumwa, counsel for John Junkin, the negro on trial for the murder of Clara Rosen, in his opening statement to the jury.

Mr. Hunter has taken up the defense in place of Judge Mitchell, who is confined in his room at the Continental hotel with a severe attack of biliousness.

Continuing his statement he said: "It won't do any good to send this man to the gallows, because he would not suffer any more pain than one of the animals on your farms. He does not know how to suffer."

All during the opening address of Mr. Hunter he intimated that he was thoroughly in sympathy with the prosecution and that he was only defending Junkin because it was a professional duty.

Hunter pictured the bloody murder in graphic terms and lauded the dead girl and her family in the most eloquent language. He conducted no cross-examination of the state's witnesses, he did not ask for their exclusion from the room and agreed with County Attorney Cornell that all the bloody clothing of the murdered girl be taken to the jury room without identification. He severely scored Junkin as a negro who was born in crime, lived in crime and was educated in crime; who knew not the difference between right and wrong, and who would not suffer in the least even if the death penalty was inflicted. He wanted the negro sent to the penitentiary for life.

Daily drills and meetings are being held by Company E, Fifty-fourth regiment of the Iowa State militia in this city. It is said they are preparing for any demonstration that may be made against John Junkin, the negro on trial for the murder of Clara Rosen, as reports are received by the officials daily of the organizing of a lynching party. They are now ready to be called out at a moment's notice, but it is doubtful if they will be needed, because Junkin is confined in the Appanoose county court house, in the grand jury room under guard of six deputies, who sleep and eat with him. They are never out of his sight.

Wakes When Fire Blisters Feet.

Creston.—When the flames which were destroying his home burned the foot of his bed and blistered his feet, Clarence Gee, a barber, suddenly awakened, leaped through a closed window beside his bed and was badly cut by the broken glass. He ran to the home of a neighbor and all he could say was: "I am bleeding to death." After the friend had started to take him to a physician Gee told the friend that his house was on fire and an alarm was turned in. The house was entirely destroyed. Gee was alone in the house when the fire started, it is thought, from an explosion of the gas stove.

Shoots Self.

Northwood.—C. F. Jewett, a pioneer resident of Worth county, a wealthy farmer and former state senator, committed suicide by shooting himself. He went out into the yard in front of his house and fired the shot. He was breathing when those nearest reached him, but dead when the doctor arrived. No cause for the act can be assigned. Senator Jewett was one of the most prominent men in northern Iowa and although of advanced years had always been in apparently good health. He was representative from this district several terms and senator one term.

Episcopal Diocese Next Year.

Dubuque.—Des Moines was selected as the place of meeting next year by the convention of the Episcopal Diocese held here. George F. Henry of Des Moines was re-elected chancellor; A. E. Boss of Muscatine registrar and Rev. R. H. Bell of Des Moines dean.

Carrier Fatally Injured.

Charles City.—J. W. Adams, a rural free delivery carrier, was run over by a passenger train at Ionia and fatally injured. He rode about two blocks from the station and in some manner fell under the wheels.

SHOOTS WIFE, BABE AND SELF

Affectionately Kisses Wife and Child Then Empties Gun at Them.

Iowa City.—After affectionately hugging and kissing his wife and baby boy, Levi Hill asked them to take a little walk with him from the farm house near Tiffin Wednesday afternoon. Within sight of the home he turned and emptied his revolver into the wife and the babe in her arms. He walked to the railroad track, sat down and turned the revolver to his forehead. The three are in the University hospital here. The babe is fatally shot, but the father and mother may live.

Hill had been separated from his wife for a year. He left Iowa City for Tiffin, went to the former home, a mile north, and greeted his wife and boy, as though there had been no trouble. It is believed jealousy over the attentions paid his wife by a neighbor named Pleasant caused the insane act.

Delbert, the baby boy was in the arms of the woman when Hill fired his revolver. The first shot was aimed at the head of the child, but Mrs. Hill swung the infant around and the bullet entered her side.

Two Good Experimental Farms.

Clear Lake.—Twelve acres of land was set apart at the county farm, near here, this spring as an experimental station for corn growing, and and J. D. Hill, of Ames, is here to take care of the crop. The field is laid off in sections. Different spots here and there are selected where a place is planted eight hills square, which is to test the character of the ground. At another place four rows are planted across the field with from one to five kernels in each hill. Another four rows are planted with three kernels in each hill. Another portion of the field is planted from seed selected by three different farmers, who offer ears each from which the seed is taken. In this way a variety of tests will be made which will be studied at the coming fall corn juding contest.

Timber Wolf Downs Man.

Ralston.—John Nicholson of this place narrowly escaped death at the fangs of a big timber wolf during a wolf hunt south of Ralston Tuesday The brute had been shot, and turned on his pursuers, leaping upon Nicholson and bearing him to the earth, where he was about to rend him, when a companion of Nicholson, who had dropped his gun, threw his raincoat over the wolf's head and prevented the beast's fangs fastening on the throat of Nicholson. Later the Tramps Keep Police Busy.

Webster City.—Webster City is fairly infested with tramps. A large colony of them are encamped in the woods in the northern part of the city. Many depredations are being committed about the city and nightly the police answer a number of calls from homes whose occupants have been frightened by some man on the premises. Not a few arrests have been made, but thus far none of the fellows guilty of the more serious crimes have been apprehended.

Found Dead on Tracks.

Shenandoah.—Harry Wheeler, son of T. A. Wheeler, a liveryman at Mt. Ayr, was found dead on the tracks here Tuesday morning. It is supposed that he fell from a train that was running between Council Bluffs and St. Joseph. Mystery, however, surrounds the tragedy. He was about 20 years of age and no one knew what he was doing on the train or where he was going.

Charged With Murder.

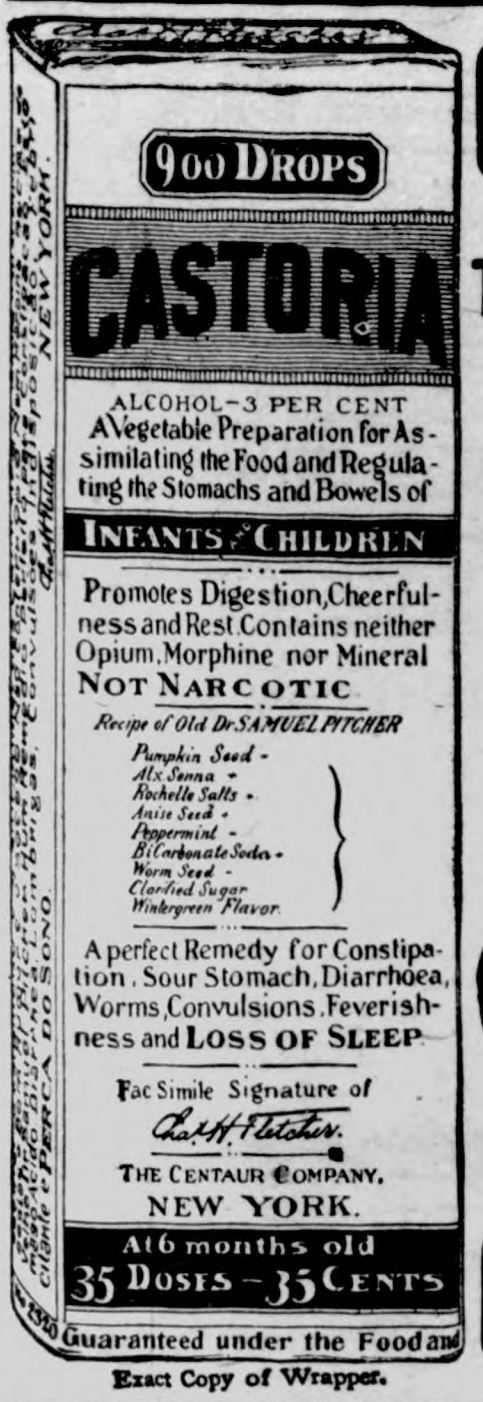
Council Bluffs.—T. F. McCaffery, sheriff, Tuesday filed an information in the court of J. K. Cooper, justice of the peace, against Ben Sloan and Jack Payett, charging murder in the first degree. Sloan and Payett are the two men who were with James Wallace, the man who was thrown from a Northwestern train Saturday night, and whose mangled body was found on the tracks.

Ensign to Woodbine.

Woodbine.—Prof. Forest C. Ensign of the State University of Iowa has been secured to deliver the address at the graduating exercises of the Woodbine Normal school, Friday evening, June 18. Rev. Mr. B. F. Hall will deliver the baccalaureate sermon, Sunday evening June 13, at the Christian church of Woodbine.

Run Over by Train.

Webster City.—Sam Zitteral an iron moulder of this city, brother of W. J. Zitteral, the largest contractor here, who is well known over the state, met death under the wheels of a Northwestern freight train between eleven and twelve o'clock Monday night.



Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

Is Tired of Praying.

A little girl in St. Louis the other evening was going through the usual form of prayer: "God bless mamma, and papa and make me a good girl," and so on, when all at once she semed to come to a decision. "Now that is the last time I am going to say that prayer," she said, very gravely, looking at her mother. "You are older than I am and it is your place to ask for all those things and I don't see any use in two people's asking the same thing." Since then she has firmly refused to pray, insisting that it is her mother's place to ask God for blessings.

Continual Doubt.

"How many children have you?" said the tourist, affably.

"I dunno exactly," answered the tired-looking woman.

"You don't know?"

"Not for certain. Willie's gone fishin', Tommy's breakin' in a colt, Georgie's borrowed his father's shotgun to go hunting' an' Esmeralda Ann is thinkin' of elopin'. I never know how many I've got till supper time comes, so's I can count 'em."

Household Hint.

"Do you know how to use a chafing dish?"

"Yes," answered Mr. Sirius Barker. "I have some novel ideas on the subject."

"What are they?"

"The best way I know of to use a chafing dish is to punch a hole in the bottom of it, paint it green and plant flowers in it."—Washington Star.

Women to Fight Tuberculosis.

One million women, representing cities, towns, villages and isolated rural settlements in every section of the country, are to-day enlisted in a campaign against tuberculosis, according to a statement issued by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. In legislatures, in congress at Washington, in society gatherings, in churches and clubs, through speaking and writing—in every possible way, the women of the country are persistently fighting consumption.

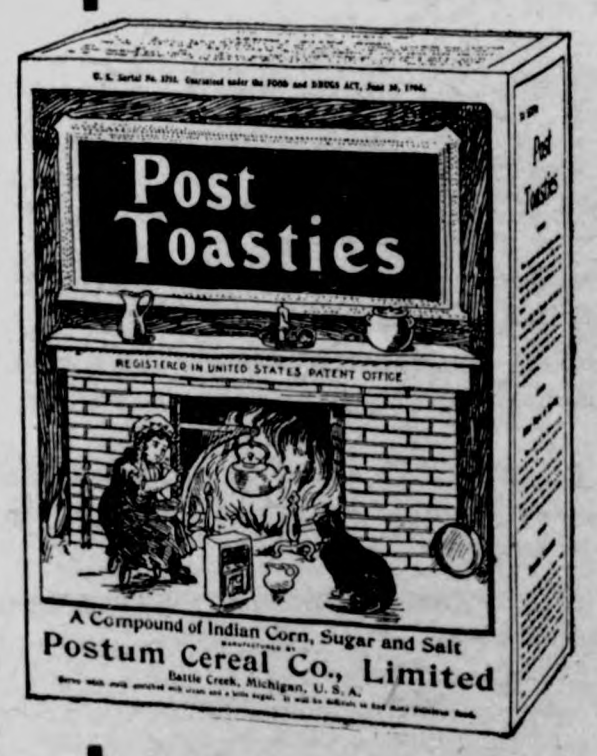
With an organization established in every state of the country, under the direction of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and with associated clubs in Alaska, the Hawaiian islands, Porto Rico and the canal zone, the women of the country have entered a systematic crusade to carry the message of the prevention and cure of tuberculosis into every American home.

A JUSTIFIABLE EXPRESSION.

Inexperienced Caddie (after Mr. Toozle's fifteenth miss)—Shall I make the 'ole a big bigger, sir?

Appetite Calls

For food which promotes a prompt flow of the digestive juices--in addition to supplying nourishment.



Post Toasties

is a most delicious answer to appetite.

It is, at the same time, full of the food-goodness of White Corn, and toasted to a crisp delicious brown.

"The Taste Lingers."

Popular pkg 10c; Large Family size 15c.

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

Rheumatism

Nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness.

Lame Shoulder.

This is a common form of muscular rheumatism. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely four times a day and a quick cure is certain.

Lumbago.

When muscular rheumatism attacks the muscles in the small of the back it is called lumbago. It is usually quite severe and every movement adds to the pain, and especially when one attempts to straighten up. No internal treatment is required. Keep quiet, as every movement aggravates the disease, and apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and you will soon be well again.

Sprains and Bruises are cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment.

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

WHAT WORRIED WIFE

MR. SPRIGGSWORTH WAS ALTOGETHER TOO HEALTHY.

His Affectionate Better Half Had Somewhat Peculiar Reasons for Wanting Doctor to Look Him Over at Once.

"Doctor," said Mrs. Spriggsworth, "I wish you would come and see my husband as soon as you can do so conveniently. I've been urging him to call on you at your office, but I just can't get him started. I'm awfully worried about him."

"I will try to stop and see him this afternoon. Is he in bed?"

"Oh, no. No, he's not in bed, and perhaps you better come in the evening or early in the morning, because you won't find him at home in the afternoon."

"Very well, I'll come to-night. What seems to be the trouble? Has he caught a bad cold?"

"No, he hasn't any more of a cold than it is common for most people to have at this time of the year. I really don't know what is the matter with him. I think you ought to give him a thorough examination."

"I'm sorry to hear that his health is not good. I thought when I saw him a few days ago that he was looking remarkably well. When did you begin to notice that he was not feeling right?"

"Why, he claims that there is nothing the matter with him, but, of course, there must be."

"Does he appear to be bothered by indigestion?"

"No, he has always been very free from anything of that kind. You see, he manages to get a good deal of outdoor exercise."

"That's good. A man who takes plenty of outdoor exercise really ought to have little use for a doctor. Perhaps the trouble is with his eyes. Does he complain of having headaches?"

"No, he never has them at all."

"Well, does he seem to be run down physically!"

"Not noticeably so."

"Is he unusually nervous or irritable?"

"Oh, no, not at all. Really, do you know, I sometimes believe he can't have a nerve in his body. He is always so placid. Nothing ever seems to disturb him in the least."

"A very curious case, indeed. What has caused you to think I ought to examine him?"

"Why, he hasn't been in bed a day or taken a drop of medicine for about fifteen years, and I can't get it out of my head that he ought to see a doctor before he gets down sick. It may be that an operation of some kind now would save him an awfully hard time later on."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Seeing Boston.

A rural gentleman engaged an amateur guide to conduct him around Boston on a sightseeing trip. On their way to the statehouse the pair passed through the Public garden. The farmer seemed greatly impressed with the statue "Commemorating the discovery that the inhaling of ether causes insensibility to pain."

A few minutes later they reached the statehouse grounds. Again the farmer's attention was attracted by a statue. It was a statue of Maj. Gen. Nathaniel P. Banks, and had been set up but not yet unveiled. The figure of the general had been heavily padded, and wrapped with muslin to protect it during shipment, and as yet the padding had not been removed.

Gazing at the beswathed figure, the farmer exclaimed: "Wall, I swan! What be that?"

"That," said the guide looking in vain for an inscription to enlighten him, "that is"—he scratched his head—"that is to commemorate the discovery of the benefit of the plaster-cast."

One on the Workman.

When Tommy was taking papa his dinner he stopped for a moment to watch a workman emptying a sewer.

"That," remarked Tommy interestedly, "is the grate my brother lost a shilling down."

The workman's eyes lit up.

"Well, young man," he said, with a show of carelessness, "you'd better get forward with that dinner before it's cold."

In about half an hour Tommy returned, to find the man still at the same grate.

"Are you quite sure it was this grate the shilling was lost in?" said the workman.

"I am certain," replied Tommy, "because I saw my father get it out."—Tit-Bits.

His Worst Battles.

"General, in your military career, which did you find the most trying one of your engagements?"

"The one I made to get married."—Baltimore American.

Attention PEOPLE!

Don't forget that the Gruetzmacher Bros. handle all kinds of stoves such as heaters, cook stoves and steel ranges.

Also a full line of hardware, groceries, flour and feed.

A complete line of implements also paints, oils and varnishes.

Rock and barrel salt. Barb wire and field fence.

Yours to please at the old stand,

Gruetzmacher Bros.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOW

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED, REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE, LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STATE. Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. F... days or consultation FREE. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund ... All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines ... detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by mail ... press. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage. ... low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for terms ... sultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call or ... to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without the harmful instruments. Our ... fully explains.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the scr... causing nervous debility, ... of the nervous system, etc., permanently cured.

BLOOD POISON —That terrible disease ... its stages, cured for life. Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, and all ... private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few days ... pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application ... description of above diseases, effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrapper.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINES

RUPTURE, PILES

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolutely reliable and permanent. Write to or call and see the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were afflicted with Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia.
Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines, Ia.
E. C. Miller, Des Moines, Ia.
John H. Looby, Des Moines, Ia.

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you free postage paid. This book contains much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonial letters. Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the book. Write today—it will pay you.

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES, IOWA

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:40 p. m.
82 ..... 2:50 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:35 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

L. O. Turgasen, Agent

H. C. LA...

DEALER IN

Klemme -

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else fa... In nervous prostration and fem... weaknesses they are the supre... remedy, as thousands have testifi...

FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AN... STOMACH TROUBLE...

it is the best medicine ever s... over a druggist's counter.

PATENTS

DESIGNS
TRADE-MARKS
AND COPYRIGHTS
OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"

Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,
E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Just Dust it on the ...
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls ... work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bottom ...
Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid by ...
Money Back if Not Satisfied.
The RED STAR HEALING POWDER ...
(25c. and 50c. Cans). GARNER, ...

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

The Klemme Times.

VOLUME XII. NUMBER 45 — KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 1909. — $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

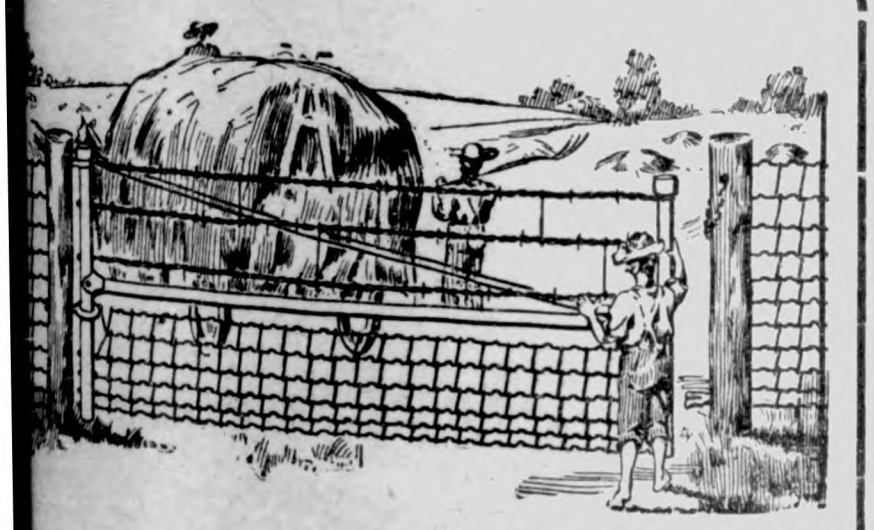
ANDREW CARNEGIE

was a poor Scotch boy when he came to America. He worked hard; he saved a part of the money he earned. Today it keeps him busy just giving away the interest of his fortune. Remember we will pay you a liberal rate of interest on your money. Start saving

TODAY

State Savings Bank.

Klemme - - Iowa



IOWA Gates are more than a convenience if women or children ever use them for being so simple they are very light and can easily be swung either way. The IOWA gate is made to last—no castings to break—no wearing parts—even the wires have galvanized stretchers to lighten them. Will not blow down, burn or rot out. Get prices.

H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, AGENT
KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J. W. WATERMAN

HAIL STORM DOES DAMAGE

Hits Belmond Vicinity Sunday Afternoon.---- Much Water Fell.

OTHER TWIN LAKE NEWS

Special to the Times:

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Christie and F. Tanner and wife visited at the James Thayer home, about three miles northwest of Belmond, Sunday, and all enjoyed (?) a veritable down-pour and hailstorm which lasted about two hours. About four o'clock the storm came with first a gentle rain, then the hail which lasted about twenty minutes. The ground was nearly white when it was over, although it is tho't that no great damage was done to the grain. Plenty of fields were under water and grades were washed out in some places south of the Wright County line.

Having FINE weather here. Do you believe it?

Miss Lizzie Martin, of Jefferson, Oklahoma, visited last week with friends here.

Walter Schaper is helping Albert Tanner with the farm work while J. G. is land-seeking in the south. We wonder if he has found a dry country?

Wouldn't this clipping from the Northwestern Agriculturist express our editor's sentiments pretty well?

SONG OF A PRINTER

This is the season for plantin' seed, anh 'tis also the printer's time of need. Sow radish seed and lettuce too, and pay the printer whatever is due. Go build yourself an onion bed and remember the printer must be fed. Sow several rows of early peas, and pay for your last year's paper, please. Dig up the earth 'round each strawberry vine and if you want our paper drop us a line. Plant some potatoes to put in hash and remember the printer is short of cash. Fix up a hill or so of beans, and with the editor divide your means. Of water-melons you'll need a patch—the editor's pants needs one to match. Pay up your subscription; plant your corn, and you'll raise a big crop as sure as you're born.—Byron Williams.

Women Who Are Envied

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

The Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition Opens

When President Taft pressed the golden telegraph key which threw open to the public the gates of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition in Seattle, he presented to the world a most unusual exhibit.

This Exposition of the Northwest is in many ways different from others which have preceded it. When the Exposition opened, everything was in readiness. There was the absence of buildings in various stages of completion; the grounds were not torn up in confusion; the exhibits were in place and the atmosphere was one of completeness and beauty. The marvelous development and untold resources of the Northwest, the interesting curios and products of the Orient and a thousand and one other dazzling surprises, combine with the remarkable surroundings to make the scene one never to be forgotten.

The Exposition will prove the Mecca of thousands of tourists from all sections of the country. Particularly is this true because of the vacation opportunity it presents in connection with a visit to Colorado and Yellowstone Park. Colorado, long known as the Nation's playground, is constantly increasing in popularity. Each year brings greater numbers to enjoy its myriad delights. With an opportunity to make a visit to the Exposition the climax of an inexpensive tour, enabling one to sojourn at Colorado's resorts, thousands will be impelled to go.

These opportunities are set forth in an unusually interesting way in a publication entitled "Through Scenic Colorado and Yellowstone Park to the Alaska-Yukon Pacific Exposition," issued for free distribution by the Rock Island-Frisco Lines. It is generously illustrated, contains maps of the Exposition, Seattle and the Puget Sound country and Yellowstone Park, in colors, and we commend it very highly to those seeking an ideal vacation trip. Copies may be obtained at any of the railway ticket offices.

OUR BUSINESS IS BANKING
BANKING IS OUR BUSINESS

The sign "Bank" does not make a bank and is often misleading. It requires time, energy, close attention to business, a substantial capital and ripe experience in banking to make a bank. We claim, without blushing, all essentials necessary to make our business that of banking, and tender our patrons a service thoroughly seasoned by years of experience, backed by substantial capital.

The First National Bank

CAPITAL $25,000

ELL CENTER

Special Correspondence:

Mrs. Baack is entertaining a niece from Woden.

Miss Florence Grove spent Sunday at Hod Lawhorn's.

Herman Barz and wife visited with Fred Barz and wife Sunday.

A large crowd attended the dance at Wessels' Saturday evening.

Charley Kuskie came from Nebraska Sunday for a visit with his parents.

Lew Lewis of Klemme, and Hod Lawhorn were at the lake fishing several days last week.

Something to Laugh At

Next to a kiss a laugh is the most popular thing in the world. The supply of kisses is limited, being largely controlled by a fair but capricious trust. The supply of laughs, however, is practically unlimited so long as you don't get too grumpy to look for them. One reason for the remarkable success of the Chicago Record-Herald is its daily recognition of the value of wholesome fun. The "Alternating Currents" column of S. E. Kiser, the humorist and poet, is one of the brightest things in American journalism. There is always a smile or a good laugh in Ralph Wilder's cartoons, bringing a cheery greeting as you pick up the paper each morning.

But it is in the Sunday Record-Herald that one finds the most chuckles. The colored comic section is full of laughter for young and old, and these amusing illustrations are free from the vulgarity and mischevious suggestions that have barred so many comic sections from refined homes. Then there is always a lot of high class humor in the Sunday Magazine of the Record-Herald, led by Sewell Ford's inimitable Shorty McCabe stories. The delectable Shorty, we understand, is to appear every other Sunday throughout the present year. No other character in fiction, unless it be Mr. Dooley, can match him as a funmaker. As long as Shorty and his devoted Sadie are on deck there will be something worth living for. The Record Herald has the right idea. Clean humor doubles the welcome of a good newspaper.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

Chung Jung will open a laundry at Belmond.

The county board of supervisors is in session this week.

The citizens of Thornton are trying to land an electric railroad.

The sweet girl graduate has had her inning all over the county.

Garner's base ball tournament this year will be held on July 13, 14 and 15.

Margaret E. Sheridan, aged 49 years, died at her home in Erin township on May 29th

Lewis Larson of Britt and F. L. DeGraff of Garner are owners of new buzz-cars.

The Corwith graduating class numbered three this year—two boys and one girl.

Prof. Scarbro, of Dysart, has been elected principal of the Belmond schools.

Arvid Anderson of Britt has gone to Chicago to work in a jewelry establishment.

A big day for the M. W. A. will be June 17th, when they will hold a picnic at Belmond.

Cut worms are reported as doing much damage to the sod corn in the vicinity of Corwith.

Britt and Humboldt will play ball at Britt June 21st, and Britt and LuVerne on June 22nd.

Fred Luick & Son of Belmond have a piece of land that is producing its 55th crop, says the Herald.

The Britt Tribune says there is some talk of building a dam at the outlet of Eagle Lake to conserve the water.

Last week's Corwith Hustler reports the birth of three boy babies in that town, with not a girl to break the monotony.

Brother Ellsworth of the Kanawha Record, is soon to have a new home for his excellent newspaper. The building is now in course of construction.

The Farmers' Industrial Union of Hancock county hold their summer meet in Britt June 19th. All are farmers or interested in farming and so a great gathering and enjoyable time is anticipated. Britt News.

Miss Lizzie Martin, who is holding down a claim in New Mexico, visited with friends in Goodell for a short time Friday on her way to Garner where she will visit with her uncle's family. . .. The Misses Rhodes, of Klemme, Laila Reed, of Garner, and Grace Miner, of Ventura, attended the commencement exercises here last Thursday evening.—Goode R Globe.

Mrs. E. Lynch has been unable to obtain any relief for her terrible malady, cancer of the throat, although several eminent specialists have been consulted, and she is now confined to her bed. The sympathy of the entire community is for her in her great affliction. She was among the early settlers of this community and her many acts of kindness will always be remembered.—Belmond Herald.

BILL'S AFFLICTION.

"Why, uncle, how are all the folks?"
"They're all well, thanks, 'cept Bill. He's got the baseball fever!"

SKIN ROUGH AS BARK.

Baby Boy Had Intense Itching Humor —Scratched Till Blood Ran.

Found a Cure in Cuticura.

"Our son, two years old, was afflicted with a rash. After he suffered with the trouble several weeks I took him to the doctor but it got worse. The rash ran together and made large blisters. The little fellow didn't want to do anything but scratch and we had to wrap his hands up to keep him from tearing the flesh open till the blood would run. The itching was intense. The skin on his back became hard and rough like the bark of a tree. He suffered intensely for about three months. But I found a remedy in Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. The result was almost magical. That was more than two years ago and there has not been the slightest symptom of it since he was cured. J. W. Lauck, Yukon, Okla., Aug. 28 and Sept. 17, 1908."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Couldn't Stand It.

A Raleigh, N. C., woman not long ago received into her house for "training" a "cracker" girl from the mountains.

Endeavor was made to inculcate in the girl a love for order and cleanliness, but suddenly this discipline ceased, for the "poor white" fled to her home in the fastnesses. Thither the Raleigh woman traced her after come difficulty.

"Why did you leave me, Mary Jane?" she asked.

"Mis' Morgan, I jes' couldn't stay!" exclaimed the girl. "I was jes' cloyed with neatness!"

Predatory Instincts.

The inherited predatory tendency of men to seize upon the fruits of other people's labor is still very strong, and while we have nothing more to fear from kings, we may yet have trouble enough from commercial monopolies and favored industries, marching to the polls their hordes of bribed retainers. Well, indeed, has it been said eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. God never meant that in this fair but treacherous world in which he has placed us we should earn salvation without steadfast labor.—John Fiske.

To Check Spread of Trachoma.

It has been reported that the disease known as trachoma, or granular eyelids, has been spreading rapidly among the Indians. To check this trouble congress appropriated $12,000, placing it in the hands of the commissioner of Indian affairs, for the immediate investigation and treatment of the disease and to check its spread.

MAKING SUNSHINE
It Is Often Found in Pure Food.

The improper selection of food drives many a healthy person into the depths of despairing illness. Indeed, much sickness comes from wrong food and just so surely as that is the case right food will make the sun shine once more.

An old veteran of Newburyport, Mass., says: "In October, I was taken sick and went to bed, losing 47 pounds in about 60 days. I had doctor after doctor, food hurt me and I had to live almost entirely on magnesia and soda. All solid food distressed me so that water would run out of my mouth in little streams.

"I had terrible night sweats, and my doctor finally said I had consumption and must die. My good wife gave up all hope. We were at Old Orchard, Me., at that time and my wife saw Grape-Nuts in a grocery there. She bought some and persuaded me to try it.

"I had no faith in it, but took it to please her. To my surprise it did not distress me as all other food had done and before I had taken the fifth package I was well on the mend. The pains left my head, my mind became clearer and I gained weight rapidly.

"I went back to my work again and now after six weeks' use of the food I am better and stronger than ever before in my life. Grape-Nuts surely saved my life and made me a strong hearty man, 15 pounds heavier than before I was taken ill.

"Both my good wife and I are willing to make affidavit to the truth of this."

Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

ASKS FOR PAROLE

Eli Hardin Urges Claim Before Board.

CASE RUN THREE YEARS

Former Chief of Detectives Now on Police Force at San Diego Says Wife Is Very Ill.

Des Moines, June 7.—Eli Hardin, ex-chief of the Des Moines detective department, at present member of the police force of Santiago, Cal. has asked for a parole from the Iowa penitentiary before beginning his term of service.

The request has been filed with Governor Carroll, and will be referred by him to the board of parole, who will investigate his crime and the attending circumstances, and his present work and surroundings.

Hardin was convicted of conspiring to spirit witnesses out of the state, was tried before the Polk county district court and sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary.

He appealed to the supreme court and a month ago they confirmed the decision of the lower court.

In the meantime, Hardin had left Des Moines. Immediately after the supreme court decision, Hardin through his attorney filed an appeal bond to the United States supreme court. The case has been in the courts for three years during which Hardin has had his liberty. The appeal to the United States courts will give him at least another year of liberty.

Prominent men have been working for his release through the three years he has been under conviction, and great pressure will be brought to bear on the parole board to insure the granting of his request.

Hardin has taken his wife and children to Santiago, Cal. One of the special pleas to be entered before the board of parole, is that the wife and boys will be left destitute if he is compelled to serve his term, while if allowed his liberty, he will take care of them. It was reported during the time following his trial, that his mother was supporting the entire family.

Dies Next Day.

Des Moines.—After having received fatal injuries in the Coaldale mine Tuesday afternoon, James Spevack, 30, mule driver, walked to his home, several hundred rods distant. The terrific strain of this effort may have been the cause of his death thirty hours later. Spevack died at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening. He had been caught between the end of his car and a prop in the mine when his mule ran away. Peritonitis, caused by a rupture of the intestine, caused his death.

Rain is Delaying the Farmers.

Rock Rapids.—The rainy weather continues to annoy the farmers who are anxious to get into the corn fields with the harrow and cultivator. Farmers are coming to realize in the past few years that it is the early attention that the corn gets that makes the crop and they say that there has been rain enough now and they want to go to work. The season is late, but the corn is coming along in fine shape and there is a general good stand.

Ralph Cruzen May be Suicide.

Oskaloosa.—Ralph Cruzen, aged 35 years, a prominent farmer of Madison township, is missing and it is believed that he drowned in the South Skunk river. Cruzen is demented and was confined in a private sanitarium at Des Moines. He escaped and walked to his home here. He has been tracked to a bridge over the river, where it is thought he committed suicide by drowning.

With Dislocated Jaw.

Sioux City.—After having wandered the streets of Sioux City for three days, during which time he was unable to eat a bite of food because of a dislocated jaw, caused from falling down a hay chute four or five days ago, Ira Reber, whose exact residence is not yet known, lies in a critical condition at the Samaritan hospital.

Violated Injunction.

Davenport.—Otto Seidliz and James Dedmidy of Muscatine are serving the first days of a three months' sentence in the Muscatine county jail for violating injunctions of the court against them, commanding them not to engage in the sale of intoxicating liquors.

Elks New Home.

Mason City.—The contract for the erection of the Elks' building was let to B. L. Stratton, a local contractor, for $15,765. The building will be of brick faced with Oskaloosa material, three stories high and 44x132 in size.

MASONS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

William Hutchinson, Deputy Grand Master, and H. H. Green Made Grand Chaplin.

Davenport.—The Iowa Masonic grand lodge has just adjourned after installing the new officers. Crom Bowen of Des Moines was appointed trustee for six years and the other appointive officers were filled as follows:

Deputy grand master, Wm. Hutchinson, Alton; grand chaplain, H. H. Green, Decorah; senior grand deacon, H. H. Ames, Garden City; junior grand deacon, E. F. Luette, Davenport; senior grand steward, H. H. Hill, Milton; junior grand steward William Kane, Iowa Falls; grand marshall, L. A. Matthews, Manchester; grand tyler, A. N. Alberson, Washington.

An interest feature of the day were the addresses by Nathan Scofield, of Strawberry Point and R. D. Meinreid, of St. Charles, veteran Masons who attended the conclave of the grand lodge held in Davenport in 1859, of which this meeting was the golden anniversary.

In Water Until Death Comes.

Mason City.—The death of Fred Nagle, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nagle is a lesson to parents. He went to the creek to go in swimming. Instead of staying in a reasonable time he remained in until nearly noon when he went home to dinner. Shortly after dinner he went to the creek again and continued his bathing. Soon not feeling well he got out of the water and sat on the bank, but soon he was noticed to fall forward and plunge into the water. Help was by his side in a few moments and he was pulled out. He was then alive, but in a few minutes more he was dead. It is thought that death was caused by him staying so long in the cold water causing heart failure.

Brick Plant to Iowa Falls.

Iowa Falls.—Attracted by the splendid railroad facilities of this city and the abundance of raw material at hand, another new industry is to be added to this city this summer to augment and assist in furthering the industrial revival in Iowa Falls. Conniff Bros. have purchased a tract of land in East Iowa Falls and will commence the erection of a cement brick and tile plant at once. The members of the new firm are experienced men in this line of work and selected this city after canvassing many Iowa points with a view to locating, but found the facilities the best in this city of all the cities and towns visited.

Nurses Conclude Meet.

Dubuque.—The convention of the registered nurses of Iowa elected as president, Miss Anna Goodale of Cedar Rapids; vice-president Miss Abbie Tabor, Sioux City; second vice-president, Miss Letitia McNally, Independence; recording secretary, Miss Ida C. Nefa, Waterloo; corresponding secretary, Miss Floy Strayer, Waterloo; auditor, Miss Louisa Raffauf, Dyersville; delegate to the national convention, Miss Jane Garrard, Davenport. Des Moines was selected as the next meeting place.

Iowa Baptist Preachers Meet.

Des Moines.—The Baptist ministers of Iowa will hold a pastors' conference Tuesday afternoon at Des Moines college. The general topic of discussion will be "The Ministry Adapted to the Age." Among the ministers from out of the city to take part will be: Rev. J. W. Conley of Omaha, Rev. H. O. Rowlands of Davenport, Rev. E. B. Jones of Cedar Falls, Rev. Johnston Myers of Chicago, Rev. A. M. Levack of Cedar Rapids and Rev. J. W. Clevenger of Red Oak.

Ready for the Veterans.

Fort Dodge.—Everything is in readiness for the opening of the thirty-fifth annual state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, department of Iowa, which begins here Tuesday. Special illumination is being placed in the business district and the work of placing the street decorations began at sundown Sunday and the work was completed by noon Monday, when the first conventionists arrived.

Found Dead on Tracks.

Shenandoah.—Harry Wheeler, son of T. A. Wheeler, a liveryman at Mt. Ayr, was found dead on the tracks here Tuesday morning. It is supposed that he fell from a train that was running between Council Bluffs and St. Joseph. Mystery, however, surrounds the tragedy. He was about 20 years of age and no one knew what he was doing on the train or where he was going.

Catholic Clergy to Meet.

Davenport.—The Catholic clergy of the diocese of Davenport will meet in this city June 21 for a week's retreat and a quasi-synod for the election of officers of the diocese.

People Talk About Good Things.

Fourteen years ago few people knew of such a preparation as a Powder for the Feet. To-day after the genuine merits of Allen's Foot-Ease have been told year after year by grateful persons, it is indispensable to millions. It is cleanly, wholesome, healing and antiseptic and gives rest and comfort to tired aching feet.

It cures while you walk. Over 30,000 testimonials. Imitations pay the dealer a larger profit otherwise you would never be offered a substitute for Allen's Foot-Ease, the original foot powder. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, and see that you get it.

Ruling Passion.

"He's half crazy about music."

"Sure is. Even calls his price list a scale of prices."

Important to Mothers.

Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA a safe and sure remedy for infants and children, and see that it

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

In Use For Over 30 Years.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

Deeds Form Character.

Christian deeds make good Christians of us all.—Florida Times-Union.

Red, Weak, Weary, Watery Eyes

Relieved by Murine Eye Remedy. Compounded by Experienced Physicians. Murine Doesn't Smart; Soothes Eye Pain. Write Murine Eye Remedy Co., Chicago, for illustrated Eye Book. At Druggists.

It takes a hustler to distinguish the difference between an obstacle and a hindrance in his path.

Over fifty years of public confidence and popularity. That is the record of Hamlins Wizard Oil, the world's standard remedy for aches and pains. There's a reason and only one—MERIT.

Sometimes the man who looks before he leaps gives the other fellow a chance to beat him to it.

Learn the spear by heart. Then no one can sell you imitations of WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT.

Marriage is not a lottery; it's a raffle. One man gets the prize while the other gets the shake.

THAT BIG SPRINGS COUNTRY.

We offer for a short time 8,320 acres, the very thing for a small colony, shallow water, on railroad. See it before buying.
NEWBERRY & LUSK, Big Springs, Texas.

If you would criticise your boss get fully a mile away from everybody, then whisper to yourself.

Why is WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT so popular? Because it tastes good and does good.

With a man money means more to eat; with a woman more to wear.

EVERY GOOD HOUSEKEEPER wants white clothes. It's easy if she uses RUSS BLUE. 5c at grocers.

The proper repast to be served after a card party—a game supper.

Say nothing. Chew WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT. Silence is golden. The flavor is delicious.

The dollar that does the most for us is the dollar with which we do good.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Occasionally a dressmaker gives her husband fits.

As refreshing as a brisk drive. WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT.

A glittering success—the solitaire engagement ring.

SICK HEADACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. TRADE MARK

Positively cured by these Little Pills.

They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature

Brent Good

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

LAND—IRRIGATED—LAND. Perpetual water right; fine water; productive soil; crop failures unknown; 50 bu. wheat per acre; 3½ to 5 tons alfalfa; healthful climate; free timber; easy terms; write now. LINWOOD LAND CO., Rock Springs, Wyoming.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water

Libby's Food Products

Never Vary in Quality or Taste

because the utmost care is taken by Libby's Chefs to select only the choicest materials, and put these up in the same careful manner every time. You are thus assured of uniform goodness, and this is the reason that the use of Libby's gives such general satisfaction to every housewife.

Try these Libby Foods:

Dried Beef
Mexican Tamale
Ham Loaf
Chili Con Carne
Vienna Sausage
Evaporated Milk

For luncheon, spreads or every day meals, they are just the thing.

Keep a supply in the house. You never can tell when they will come in handy. Ask for Libby's and be sure you get Libby's.

Libby, McNeill & Libby

45 to 50 Bu. of Wheat Per A have been grown on farm lands in

WESTERN CANAD

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

Much less wou satisfactory. The eral average is twenty bushels. "All are loud in th praises of the g crops and that w derful country."—tract from correspondence Nationa Editor Association of August, 1908.

It is now possible to secure a homestead o acres free and another 160 acres at $3.00 per Hundreds have paid the cost of their far purchased) and then had a balance of from $ to $12.00 per acre from one crop. Wheat, b oats, flax—all do well. Mixed farming is a success and dairying is highly profitable. E lent climate, splendid schools and churche ways bring most every district within easy of market. Railway and land companies lands for sale at low prices and on easy ter

"Last Best West" pamphlets and maps free. For these and information as to to secure lowest railway rates, appl Superintendent of Immigration, Otta Canada, or the authorized Canadian Gov ment Agent:

E. T. HOLMES, 315 Jackson St., St. Paul, Mi W. V. BENNETT, 801 New York Life Bldg., Omaha

WRIGLEY WRIGLEY WRIGL

Paxtin

TOILET ANTISEPT

—NOTHING LIKE IT FOR—

THE TEETH Paxtine excels any d in cleansing, whiten removing tartar from the teeth, besides de all germs of decay and disease which tooth preparations cannot do.

THE MOUTH Paxtine used as a wash disinfects th and throat, purifies the breath, and kills th which collect in the mouth, causing sore bad teeth, bad breath, grippe, and much

THE EYES when inflamed, tire and burn, may be relieved and strengthened by Paxtine.

CATARRH Paxtine will destroy th that cause catarrh, hea flammation and stop the discharge. It remedy for uterine catarrh.

Paxtine is a harmless yet powerful germicide, disinfectant and deodorizer. Used in bathing it destroys odors and leaves the body antiseptically clean.

FOR SALE AT DRUG STORES, 50c. OR POSTPAID BY MAIL.

LARGE SAMPLE FREE!

THE PAXTON TOILET CO., BOSTON.

Buy a Wabash Wagon

From your dealer or direct from our factory.

40 styles and sizes for boys and girls of all ages from babyhood up, and larger Handy Wagons for men.

Illustrated price list FREE. WRITE FO

WABASH MANUFACTURING COMPA
114 Mill St., Wabash, Indiana

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT PEPSIN GUM

TOCK IS DISEASED

ny Head of Live Stock Are Infected.

IPMENTS MUST CEASE

e Veterinarian Has Reports of Infected Stock Said to Have Come From Other States.

es Moines, Iowa, June 5.—Dr. Paul , state veterinarian, has discov- that infected cattle and in a few nces, infected hogs, are being ped into Iowa from other states sold to Iowa stock growers. This dition has added not a little to difficulty with which the depart- t is confronted in stamping out diseases which seem to have d upon Iowa stock. While more rcular cattle are being discovered disease in any other animals, rts have come in from various ions of the state of sudden deaths ogs. It is expected to combat deaths successfully when the law for the establishment of a cholera serum factory takes ef-the first of July.

eme Court Decisions.

illiam Rutherford and Edward npson, administrators of the es- of John Rutherford, appellants, owa Central Railway company; eshiek county court; W. G. Clem- judge. Action to recover dam- Affirmed; opinion by Deemer.

wn of Grand River, appellant, vs. Swisher, Decatur county court, Evans, judge. Action in equity escind an executed contract for ange of real estate. Affirmed; on by Deemer.

lla Orr vs. B. H. Kenworthy, sher- nd Frank B. Wilson, appellants; county court, Edmund Nichols, e. Action of replevin brought by tiff claiming to be owner of a of horses, set of harness and a to recover possession thereof defendant as sheriff, claiming to the same under a levy of execu- as property of one Tim Sullivan. ned; opinion by McClain.

Rutenbeck, assignee, vs. W. C. et al, appellants; Clinton county , A. P. Barker, judge. Affirmed; on by Weaver.

gates to Buffalo.

enty delegates from Iowa to the nal Conference of Charities and ections to be held at Buffalo, 9 to 15, have been named by rnor Carroll. The list, which in- s leaders of charitable and soc- ork in Iowa cities, is as follows: ge G. S. Robinson, state board ntrol; Samuel H. Crosby of Grin- Dr. Jennie McCowen of Daven- Mrs. Emma C. Youngquist of Moines; Horace S. Hollingsworth s Moines; Mrs. E. G. Rhodes of t Pleasant; Miss Charlotta Goff s Moines; William L. Kuser of a; J. T. Harnett of Eldora; I. Herriott of Des Moines; Prof. Loos of Iowa City, Miss Flora p of Des Moines; Mrs. Alice G. ner of Marshalltown; Mrs. John ay of Dubuque; Mrs. James G. hill of Des Moines; Mrs. W. H. of Des Moines; Prof. C. W. em of Iowa City; James Watt of Moines; Miss Jessie Binford of alltown; Rabbi Rauch of Sioux

New Practitioners.

y-one medical students and sixty law students appeared at tate house and took the state examinations that must be before the applicants for cer- es are full fledged practitioners. dical students did their work in orning in the house chamber, the direction of Secretary L. A. s of the state board of medical ners. In the afternoon their were filled by law students e "medics" went across the hall senate chamber, where the ex- tions will continue today and row.

rney General H. W. Byers, who fficio chairman of the state law ners, was in active charge of w examination.

ecord breaking class of sixty- members took the pharmacy sion's biennial examination for acists' certificates.

G. Inspector.

tain Charles Lincoln, son of l James Rush Lincoln of Ames, en delegated by the war de- nt to represent the regular as inspector of the Iowa Nation- rd companies at their four en- ents this summer. There will en other regular army inspect- t Capt. Lincoln's appointment only one thus far communicat- General Logan. Out of four army men who were asked for eral Logan, Captain Lincoln is y one who was favored by the ent.

New Highway Law.

Following is the text of the new highway law passed by the general assembly which goes into immediate effect by publication. The measure was introduced by Senator Nichols:

"The township trustees shall have all the main traveled roads, including mail routes, in their townships, dragged at such time as in their judgment is most beneficial, and they shall contract at their April meeting to have a given piece of road dragged at a rate not to exceed fifty cents per mile for each mile traveled in dragging. In choice of persons to do the work or in making contracts to do such work, preference shall be given, other things being equal, to the occupants of the land abutting the road or adjacent thereto at the point where the work is to be done, but if more than one occupant, the trustees may decide to which preference shall be given. So far as possible such dragging shall be done following rainstorm when the earth on the road surface is in the consistency of mortar or in condition to accomplish the best results. Nothing herein contained shall prohibit township trustees from causing other than main traveled roads in their township to be dragged. No compensation shall be paid to any persons for dragging roads unless the same be authorized by the township trustees and in the manner directed by them and other work than dragging may be done when it can accomplish better results. Not less than forty per cent of the road tax, collected under the road levy made by the township trustees, on land abutting the road or adjacent thereto, shall be worked on said road, if needed on the same.

"It shall be the duty of the city council of cities and incorporated towns to cause the main traveled roads within the corporate limits leading into the city or town to be dragged and so far as practicable and possible, the provisions of this act shall be applicable.

"The trustees may at any time when their contract with the parties for dragging the road has not been properly complied with, or when the work is not done in a satisfactory manner, cancel said contract with the party or parties.

"It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to leave after grading, loose earth, weeds or sod in the highways in such a manner as to interfere with safe travel.

"It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to drive, ride, or cause to be driven a vehicle of any description in or upon the south half of an east and west highway, or east half of a north and south highway after the same has been dragged and before such portion of the highway shall have dried sufficiently to pack under a horse's feet, or frozen hard enough to carry, provided that nothing in this section shall apply in those instances where it is impossible to drive with safety on the west or north side of the road.

"Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall on conviction thereof be fined not less than one dollar for the first offense and for each offense thereafter shall be fined a sum not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars and all fines collected by prosecutions under this act shall be paid into the road fund of the township where the offense was committed or damage done to the road."

State Inspectors After Them.

Inspectors Morey and Hiff of the state dairy commission are conducting a crusade against milk dealers who either adulterate milk by diluting it with water or by skimming it before it leaves the dairy. After two weeks' activities the inspectors declare that hundreds of families are being supplied with the adulterated fluid.

During the two weeks seven dairymen have pleaded guilty to charges of milk adulteration and have paid fines of $25. Three more cases are pending, and another information has been filed.

Two ice cream manufacturers pleaded guilty to selling adulterated ice cream and were assessed the $25 fine. The inspection of milk and ice cream will continue during the summer months, the inspectors declare.

Electricity for Capitol.

Members of the state executive council have asked for an estimate of the cost of wiring all gas chandeliers in the state house for electric lamps and substituting electricity for gas in all offices. When the state house lighting plant was built electric lamps and electroliers were placed in the halls, rotunda, legislative chambers and several basement offices, but the large offices on the main floor still use gas for illuminating, artificial light being necessary much of the time in several offices. If the plan of Secretary of State Hayward and Treasurer Morrow is adopted the handsome gas chandeliers will be wired and converted into electroliers.

WOMAN DYES HAIR; LOSES IT

NOW WANTS $20,000 DAMAGES FOR HER MISSING TRESSES.

Milwaukee Judge Considers Loss of Locks Sufficient Ground for Suit and Overrules Demurrer.

Milwaukee.—Hear ye women of America! You have a right to go into court and sue for damages if you buy a cosmetic or hair dye and it spoils your beauty. Judge Quarles of this city has said so in refusing to throw out a $20,000 suit filed by a woman who lost her tresses.

A woman has a perfectly good cause for complaint in an action for damages if she loses her hair by reason of the application of chemicals, particularly so if the solution is advertised as being a hair restorer.

Judge Quarles on Friday overruled the demurrer of a company of Fond du Lac to the complaint of Mrs. M. L. Bowman to the effect that her complaint does not state a sufficient cause of action. He gave the defendants time to file their answer.

Mrs. Bowman, a traveling woman, sued the drug company and a St. Louis manufacturer of hair dye for $20,000 damages for the loss of her hair. She alleges its loss was caused by the application of hair stain purchased of the drug company and manufactured by the St. Louis company. The defendants demurred on the ground that the complaint failed to state a sufficient cause of action.

"Her hair is woman's chief beauty," said the attorney for Mrs. Bowman, while arguing the case. "To paraphrase a well-known quotation, 'He who steals her pocketbook steals trash—usually—but he who filches her hair takes that which cannot enrich him and leaves her poor indeed.' A woman's hair is one of her chief assets. That has come to be so well acknowledged that women nowadays are not content with nature's gifts, but purchase large quantities of bogus capillary vegetation in order to increase their assets."

BREWERS AGAINST DIVES.

National Association Members Speak for War on the Low Class Saloons.

Atlantic City, N. J.—Proper regulations of the liquor traffic and a strict enforcement of the laws governing saloons were strongly recommended by speakers at the final session of the annual convention of the United States Brewers' association Thursday.

Percy Andreas of the Ohio State Brewers' association, said the low dives were largely responsible for the agitation against the liquor business and he urged the members of the association to pledge themselves to assist the authorities in wiping them out. William C. Manchester of the Michigan State Brewers' association took the same stand.

The new president of the association, Carl J. Hoster of Columbus, O., pledged himself to devote his efforts as the head of the organization to obtaining the proper regulation of saloons the enforcement of the laws and a separation of the liquor business from vices which have crept into it.

TRAIN BANDITS ARE HELD.

Omaha Prisoners Are Bound Over to Grand Jury Under Bonds of $25,000.

Omaha, Neb.—G. W. Woods, Fred Torgensen and James Gordon were bound over to the next grand jury and held under $25,000 bond each to answer the charge of holding up and robbing the Overland limited mail car on the Union Pacific railroad on the night of May 22, by Judge W. H. Monger in the United States district court.

Twenty-two witnesses were called to identify the prisoners and all were more or less sure that the men in the prisoners' dock were identical with those who committed the robbery. Six small boys, running from eight to eleven years were interesting witnesses and each told of seeing one or more of the men in the vicinity of Brown park before and after the robbery occurred. They found the revolvers and other paraphernalia which led to the arrests of three men charged with the robbery.

Party Leaders to Testify.

Indianapolis, Ind.—At the request of the United State's Attorneys Stuart McNamara of the department of justice at Washington, and Charles W. Miller of this district, Judge Anderson continued the Indianapolis News libel case until October 11.

This action was taken to permit the prosecution to introduce as witnesses Frank H. Hitchcock, former chairman of the Republican national committee; Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic national committee; George B. Cortelyou, certain members of the office staff of J. Pierpont Morgan & Co., and certain officials of various departments of the government at Washington.

MOTHERS WHO HAVE DAUGHTERS

Find Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Winchester, Ind.—"Four doctors told me that they could never make me regular, and that I would eventually have dropsy. I would bloat, and suffer from bearing-down pains, cramps and chills, and I could not sleep nights. My mother wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for advice, and I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking one and one-half bottles of the Compound, I am all right again, and I recommend it to every suffering woman."—MRS. MAY DEAL, Winchester, Ind.

Hundreds of such letters from girls and mothers expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them have been received by The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences and be restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands have been restored to health by its use.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE FLAVOR LASTS

Constipation—
Nearly Every One Gets It

The bowels show first sign of things going wrong. A Cascaret taken every night as needed keeps the bowels working naturally without grip, gripe and that upset sick feeling. 900

Ten cent box, week's treatment. All drug stores. Biggest seller in the world—million boxes a month.

DAISY FLY KILLER

placed anywhere attracts and kills all flies. Neat, clean, ornamental, convenient, cheap. Lasts all season. Cannot spill or tip over, will not soil or injure anything. Guaranteed effective. Of all dealers, or sent prepaid for 20c. Harold Somers, 150 De Kalb Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

Always Ready NO STROPPING Always Sharp NO HONING
TRADE Gillette MARK
KNOWN THE WORLD OVER

WRIGLEY'S

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c, and $1.00 at Druggists

CANCER CURED WITH OUT KNIFE OR BURNING PLASTERS
CURES GUARANTEED
REFERENCE AND CONSULTATION FREE
DR. H. NEVINS PEORIA ILL.

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Books free. Highest references. Best results.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT

Ask your Druggist for the famous A-B-C LINIMENT
Take no substitute.

W. N. U., DES MOINES, NO 24–1909.

Drake University Summer School

The Summer Quarter — June 14th to August 20th

Credit Courses in the College of Liberal Arts, in the College of Education, in the College of Law, in the College of Music, and in the High School. Courses in Shorthand, Typewriting, Business Practice, Phonography and Bookkeeping. All courses are complete, the class doing the work of a full year in every case. Experience has proved to us that this is the best plan for credit courses. Private tutoring at reasonable rates in any line of work for children of any age and for adults.

Teachers' Short Course — June 18th to July 30th

Courses in all subjects required for any grade of certificate. Courses in methods for all grades of teachers. Special courses in all special subjects. Text books rented at nominal fees. Total school expense for short course, $7.00. Uniform county examinations may be taken at the University in June and July. Send for announcement.

DRAKE UNIVERSITY, DES MOINES, IOWA

"In a pinch, use Allen's Foot-Ease."

ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE

Shake Into Your Shoes

Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It relieves painful, swollen, smarting, nervous feet, and instantly takes the sting out of corns and bunions. It's the greatest comfort discovery of the age. Allen's Foot-Ease makes tight-fitting or new shoes feel easy. It is a certain relief for ingrowing nails, perspiring, callous and hot, tired, aching feet. It is always in demand for use in Patent Leather Shoes and for Breaking in New Shoes. We have over 30,000 testimonials. TRY IT TODAY. Sold by all Druggists, 25c. Do not accept any Substitute. Sent by mail for 25c. in stamps.

FREE TRIAL PACKAGE sent by mail. Address
ALLEN S. OLMSTED, LE ROY, N. Y.

Get these free folders and Plan Your Summer Trip

They tell about the ride through the Rockies in Montana, and over the Cascade Mountains in Washington; they tell you about Spokane, Seattle, Tacoma, Portland and the Puget Sound Cities. They give you a comprehensive idea of the

ALASKA-YUKON-PACIFIC EXPOSITION

They are well illustrated, contain colored maps of the route, the City of Seattle and of the Exposition Grounds. They tell about the "Oriental Limited," the new through electric lighted train Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis to Seattle and Tacoma, and about the Fast Mail, another good train. Cut out coupon and send to

W. M. ROMINE, Dist. Pass. Agt.
406 Sixth Ave., DES MOINES, IA.

GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY

W. M. ROMINE, D. P. A.
406 Sixth Ave., Des Moines, Ia.
Please send me your A.-Y.-P. books.

Are You Going to PAINT ?

It pays to keep your buildings well painted, and when you paint it pays to use the best you can get. We handle the best in

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, etc. etc.

Call and see us and get our prices.

Washing Machines

We handle some of the best made. Call and see the

"Quicker Yet"

The best place to buy

Hardware & Groceries

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA

HELLO THERE

Where are you going? I'm going to H. Lau & Son. They handle all kinds of farm implements, Port Huron threshers also the Aultman & Taylor machinery, the 20 Century and Appleton manure spreader, McKinnon and Clinton wagons, Anchor and Velie buggies, Ohio and Kingman cultivators, stirring and gang plows, the open mould board sulky plows the lightest draft, Towers cultivators, Imperial and Challenge wind mills, hog fencing, barb wire, smooth wire gates, pumps and piping of all kinds, feed mills and the international gas engines from 1 to 40 H. P., Milwaukee mowers, binders, Dane bay loaders and buckers, nails and fence staples, wind mills and pump repairing on short notice, the sharpless cream separator the best made today, the Crack a-jack line of samples for tailor made suits.

In the Household—As Hygeno is regularly used by thousands as a household remedy, disinfectant, germicide and insecticide the greatest cleanliness is exercised in its manufacture. For sale here.

H. Lau & Son.

ARE YOU LOOKING

For something new in the Drug, Jewelery, Book, Stationery, Musical, China or Glassware line? If so, come to our store. We have what you are looking for.

Our Drug Department is complete in every particular. A full line of standard Patents. Special attention given to family recipes & Physicians' Prescriptions

Edison Phonographs with a large repertoire of records in the standard and popular class.

China and Glassware. Genuine hand painted. Fancy Lamps in all the styles.

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

Tariff Revision and the Republican Party

In the matter of tariff revision Congress seems no nearer to a definite conclusion than it was at the opening of the extra session—in fact, matters pertaining to revision are more "up in the air" than ever. The bill now under consideration does not meet with the approval of any of the progressive republican members and they are fighting it tooth and toenail. On the other side is lined up all the old heads, under the able and disgraceful leadership, or command, of Senator Aldrich, the boss. As to revision downward, Aldrich and his crowd are determined to have none of it, while some of the live ones, such as Dolliver, Cummins, LaFollette and others, are making the fight of their lives to try and compel the republican party to live up to its campaign promises.

Some of the leaders are claiming that the 1908 platform, while it pledged revision of the tariff, did not pledge a downward revision. They know better and it is only one of their grandstand plays to further pull the wool over the eyes of the common people, if it be true that they care for the people at all. The voters throughout the country know what was promised them and if they don't get what rightfully belongs to them, they may change the political complexion of things around Washington, D. C., in the decidedly near future.

While the fight goes on in the Senate, President Taft sits very quietly back and gives no encouragement to either side, while he knows that he was elected to carry out Roosevelt's policies, one of which was surely a downward revision of the tariff and another the curbing of the trusts.

The republican party is on trial before the people. A party pledge should be just as sacred as a personal one.

The father who gave utterance to the following beautiful sentiment is one whose heart is in the right place and who has the right spirit. It was Rob Taylor of Tennessee who said: "I would rather fill my purse with money and keep its gates ajar to my happy girls while they yet linger under my roof than to clutch it with a miser's hand until all the harp strings of youth are broken and its music forever fled. I would rather spend my last nickle for a bag of marbles to gladden the hearts of my barefoot boys than to deny them childish pleasures and leave them a bag of gold to quarrel over when I am dead. I abhor the pitiless hawk that circles in the air only to swoop down and strangle the song of the linnet or bury its talons in the heart of the dove. I despise the soulless man whose greed for gold impels him to strangle the laughter and song of his own family."

New Clothing

Come in and pick out that New Suit for

JULY 4th...

You can pick from all the latest styles with Cuffs and Pocket Flaps, in all the new shades:

Elephant Shade
Olive Brown
Fancy Tan
Fancy Blue
Oxford Grey
Many Blacks

The style is right—The price is right. It's time to buy, so

Get Busy.

Arthur Wellemeyer

Where your Dollar does its duty.

GREATEST REDUCTION on TRIMMED HATS

Some at Cost and Some Below Cost

see our line of Pattern Hats and Trimmed Hats. Nice line of headwear for the Children. We have the best assortment ever shown in Klemme or the surrounding towns. Don't buy until you have seen our display.

Children's Hats, Caps and Hoods regardless of Cost.

A fine line of Corsets. Also Hair Rolls, Ladies' Waists, Collars, etc.

MRS. J. JOSTEN.

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile. both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

Buy Your SCREENS NOW

The Flies Will Soon be Here

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, AGENT

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

Trouble Makers Ousted

When a sufferer from stomach tro ble takes Dr. King's New Life Pills m mighty glad to see his dyspepsia a indigestion fly, but more he's tickl over his new, fine appetite, stro nerves healthy vigor, all becau stomach, liver and kidneys now wo right, 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

LEMME MARKET.

.....	60 to 65c
.....	48 to 50c
.....	80 to 100
.....	55 to60 c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	6.50 to 7.00
.....	3.00 to 6.00

CAL NEWS

fruits at Kluckhohn's.

Phil Ell has been quite

Fitkin of Garner was ursday.

inest line of candies in Kluckhohn's. 45tf

Mann and son were visitors at Garner last wis left last week for Dam, Wis., where he is relatives.

Amelia Lenz and Mrs. Ridder have been visit- harles City.

—One half mile west of , one sack ground oats. of C. C. Schaefer. 44-2

Bloom and family and abst and wife spent Sun he farm home of W. S le.

John Josten has a change is week. She is selling a great reduction this Read her ad.

. Elder was a Garner Monday. He reports d slush in large quanti- he county seat.

y Griewe and daughter left Saturday for Charles visit Ella Griewe, who is ng school there.

N. L. Palmer left yester- Algona for a few days' nd from there she will Redfield, South Dakota, relatives.

still we get more rain. a nice warm spell of r Friday, Saturday and , it turned cool and gave ghty wet rain on Monday esday.

Alberts, of near Bel- was here Tuesday on bus and visiting his parents is brothers, Lubbe and . While here he called printer and advanced his iption one year.

u think of buying a rug pay you to look over my which consists of Wilton s, Axminsters, Saxony sters, Colonial Velvets ussels made in sizes 6 x 9, 0 x 6, 9 x 12 and larger. for rugs G. F. Schuler.

Geo. Zinn is soon to take himself a—partner in his ss. Dr. Edgar N. Zinn, phew, from Walkerton, o. is expected to arrive in e in a week or two to go rtnership with him. The rm will undoubtedly do a hing business

A Thrilling Rescue

Bert R. Lean, of Cheny, Wash. ed from a frightful death is a o thrill the world. "A hard e writes, "brought on a des- lung trouble that baffled an ex- ctor here. Then I paid $10 to visit to a lung specialist in e, who did not help me. Then t to California, but without . At last I used Dr. King's Discovery, which completely me and now I am as well as For lung trouble, bronchitis, and colds, asthma, croup and ng cough its supreme, 50c and Trial bottle free. Guaranteed A. Pabst & Co.

News—It didn't rain last Friday.

Read the new ad of the State Savings Bank.

Mrs. S. L. Sage was a Garner visitor Saturday.

Mrs. John Gruetzmacher was a Garner visitor Saturday.

Miss Bessie Ely, of Belmond, was a Klemme visitor last Friday.

The Wesleyan Club met with Fern Suckow last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. F, A. Arnold and little son and Miss Blank were at Garner Saturday.

Born, Tuesday morning, June 8, to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Webner, Jr., a fine baby girl.

Miss Lalia Reed, of Garner, visited friends near here the latter part of last week.

Ernest Schuldt and two daughters left last Friday for a visit with relatives at Giard, Iowa.

Try Kluckhohn's ice cream soda with crushed fruit and you will become a regular customer.

Not as a matter of news, but just to be saying something, we mention the fact that it rained yesterday.

Miss Florence Sampson went to Beulah, Iowa, last Friday to visit with her sister, Mrs. Levi Klotzbach.

I have just added to my stock a nice line of Lace Curtains at 75c up to $6.00 a pair at G. F. Schuler's. tf

Our subscription list is steadily growing. R. W. Elder added his name to our family of readers this week.

Mrs. Nesbit came down from Garner last Saturday evening and visited until Monday noon at the Fred Gates home.

George Alberts was a pleasant caller on the Times Tuesday renewing his subscription and swapping a few stories with the printer.

Sheriff John Suurballe has left Garner for a trip to Denmark to visit old scenes. During his absence, the business of his office will be in the hands of his capable deputy, W. L. Fitkin.

Last week we mentioned Lew Lewis and Hod Lawhorn going over to Clear Lake on a fishing expedition. Well, they brought home a dandy lot of fish, so we guess they took the right kind of bait.

Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Wessel left last Saturday for Charles City to attend the commencement exercises of Charles City College, where their daughter has been a student. Rev. Schlung occupied the pulpit in the German M. E. church last Sunday.

The work on the cement walks and crossings in Klemme is being pushed as rapidly as weather conditions will permit. The walk in front of the hotel and the two crossings at the east end of main street are completed, also the two crossings on the four corners near the State Savings Bank, and the walk in front of Mrs. Shafer's property. It is a grand improvement.

Could Not Be Better

No one has ever made a salve, ointment, lotion or balm to compare with Bucklin's Arnica Salve. Its the one perfect healer of cuts, corns, burns, bruises, sores, scalds, boils, ulcers, eczema, salt rheum. For sore eyes, cold sores, chapped hands its supreme. Infallible for piles. Only 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

Quite a number of Klemme people were at the county seat Saturday.

H. C. Lau shipped two cars of hogs to Chicago Sunday morning.

For a chunk of good cold ice call at Bloom's elevator or on G. R. Waterman. 44tf

C. H. Lenz and wife were passengers to Mason City Monday, returning home Tuesday.

Ice cream sodas, sundaes, and all kinds of cool refreshing drinks at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

Arthur Wellemeyer has some interesting reading on Clothing in his ad this week. Read it.

Ralph Stanbery, of Mason City, and Miss Jessie Klemme, of Belmond, were married yesterday at the home of the bride

Make easy money at home corresponding for newspapers; experience unnecessary. Send stamp for particulars. Empire Press Syndicate, Middleport, N. Y. 45-3

M. Palmby sold a reord breaking hog to W. R. Bloom this week. The animal tipped the beam at 520 pounds and brought Mr. Palmby the neat sum of $36.40. A nice bunch of money for one small (?) porker.

We notice that Fred C. Griewe is joining the crowd and has torn out his wooden walk preparatory to putting in cement. That's the right spirit. If this kind of action keeps on growing more and more contagious, the old wooden walks will soon be a thing of the past in Klemme.

Wm. F. Lau and family came down from Garner Saturday evening. Will spent a few days this week superintending some improvements to his property in the south part of town. He will build a twenty-foot porch on both the east and west sides of the house.

In a letter to the publisher, enclosing a renewal on his subscription to the Times, G. F. Gast, of Beltrami, Minn., says: "Crops are all looking good. Had a grand spring, although April was cold, but dry. Everybody that moved up here from around Klemme is getting along nicely. Your paper is like hearing from home every week." Our readers will be glad to learn that Mr. Gast and their other old Klemme friends are prospering.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gruetzmacher arrived in Klemme last Thursday evening and are now at home to their many Klemme friends. They were given a rousing reception by a large charivari party late that evening, and that gang surely was the limit when it comes to making an unearthly noise. Every conceivable instrument of torture was brought into play and nearly the whole town was implicated. It was an orderly crowd but a duecedly noisy one. Everyone smoked a good cigar in honor of the event.

This afternoon at four o'clock at the home of the bride's mother will occur the marriage of Miss Della E. Schlei to Mr. Edward Weisbrod, Rev. Wessel officiating. The bride is the talented daughter of Mrs. Fred Schlei and is held in very high esteem by her large circle of friends and acquaintances The groom is a young man who is very highly spoken of. His home is at Fenton where he is engaged in farming and where the young couple will make their future home. The Times joins with their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Weisbrod a future of unalloyed happiness.

The Lecture Course

Klemme will have a good course for the season of 1909-10. The talent is all first class and has been contracted for with the Chicago Lyceum Bureau. At this writing 104 season tickets have been sold, but it is the desire of the committee to raise this number to 150 if possible, and they should be able to do it. They have secured talent this year as good as is generally obtained for towns ten times the size of Klemme, hoping and feeling sure that our people will appreciate it and give the course this year their liberal patronage

The first number will be a lecture by L, B. Wickersham, one of the finest lecturers on the platform today. This number will be given early in October. His subject is "Chickens Come Home to Roost."

The second number, The Toronto Male Quartette, comes very highly recommended.

The third is the famous lecturer, H. V. Adams, who was on the course here last year, and his subject this season will be "The House of Changing Dimensions."

The fourth and last number will be a lecture by E. W. Lanhan on "The World's Battle Ground," being a talk on what to do with the boy or "The Boy Problem." This lecture is said to be very fine.

All in all, it is an array of talent seldom seen in a small town, and no one can afford to miss any number. Sign up for season tickets right away and do all you can to make the course this year a success.

Albert Bock has returned home for his summer vacation from Plymouth, Wis., where he has been attending school.

CELEBRATE

the Fourth of July in Britt.

The Big Celebration of Hancock County this year will be held at

BRITT

on Sat. July 3

Good Speaking, Good Music and Other Patriotic Exercises

Two Good Bands
Grand Street Parade

Two Free Base Ball Games
and other free amusements all day.

$50 in Gold in Four Prizes to those who register.

Something Doing Every Minute from Sun-up until Midnight.

Come to BRITT

and have the best time of your life.

W. R. BLOOM

Buyer and Shipper of

Grain and Live Stock

Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.

Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures

See me when you want a

Photograph

All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 15 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.

JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon,
Klemme, Iowa.

Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to night calls.

F. C. GRIEWE

City Meat Market

Dealer in

All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Highest cash price paid for hides. Home rendered pure lard a specialty.

We solicit your patronage.

RESTAURANT

DELICIOUS COLDEN ORANGEADE
the latest and best cold drink, Try it.

Home made Ice Cream, Cones and Sundaes. Home made Bakery Goods.

Lunches and Meals at all hours.

A. Kirkwood & Son

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.

Graduate Optician,

Garner - - Iowa

☞ Eyes Tested Free.

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.

The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited

CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER

The Tonsorial Artist

Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.

2nd door west of State Savings Bank

☞ Call in

Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition

This year you can make the trip you have had in mind for so long—a trip to the Pacific Coast. Go now, while rates are low and routes arranged so you can see the most at lowest cost, including the great exposition at

SEATTLE, WASH.
June 1 to October 16, 1909

It covers an area of 250 acres, located on two beautiful lakes, overlooked by snow-capped mountains, and will interestingly exhibit the wonderful development and possibilities of Alaska and the countries of the Pacific. Very low fares daily during the summer. Let me tell you how comfortably and conveniently the trip is made

Thro' Scenic Colorado
AND
Yellowstone Park
VIA
Rock Island-Frisco Lines

Ask for descriptive folder.

L. O. TURGASEN, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher

KLEMME - - - IOWA

A Parisian scientist declares that the secret of life is simply a plain matter of chemistry. Thus is triumphantly vindicated on natural principles the much-maligned chemical blonde.

This scare about peroxide blondes being germ-infested to such an extent that deadly danger lurks in their kisses, is supposed to have been started by their jealous brunette sisters.

The conviction of those 13 barrels of whisky at Cincinanti for not being what they pretended to be establishes a dangerous precedent. Suppose they should begin trying men on the same charge?

Another American heiress is to marry a foreign nobleman. Now that they are framing up a new tariff, why not protect our own marriageable young men by putting in a stiff prohibitive duty on coronets?

A New York milliner declares that she has never seen a suffragette wear a fashionable hat. Taking the fashionable hat of this spring as a basis from which to reason, this is a splendid compliment to the suffragette.

Persian nationalists are appealing to the civilized world to force the deposition of the shah. The ideas of representative government and of the abolition of absolutism are catching, even in the conservative east.

Of course navies are built for fighting, but let us not forget the great service they perform in impressing our size and importance upon the other nations of the earth. "We don't want to fight, but by Jingo if we do," etc.

It may be true, as the London Times says, that England has an inventor who can fly much better than the Wrights, "if he wants to," but this sort of aeronauting wouldn't win a prize at any county fair that we ever heard of.

It is expected by French scientists that a photographic map of the skies will show between thirty and forty million stars. The stage, according to the stellar outburst annually announced, is running the firmament rather hard.

Pittsburg churches have taken up the matter of abolishing pew rent and have made considerable progress along that line. Those that have tried the experiment claim their receipts are larger and their opportunity for doing good correspondingly expanded.

The rage to be an officeholder springs eternal in the human breast. Thsi abnormal craving of American human ambition was shown lately in the case of a Connecticut postmaster who offered to trade his job for a yellow dog and who is being deluged with offers.

People who believe that English is likely to become the language of the world will find confirmation for their opinion in the fact that President Manuel Estrada Cabrera of Guatemala has signed a decree making the study of English compulsory in the primary schools of that republic.

Indians and cowboys, going to exhibitions, delighted London crowds by war-whoops and cries as they passed through the streets. This performance will leave an abiding impression upon many London minds that the average street life in the United States is of the same vociferous kind.

Down in Maine the long-vexed question whether eels breed like other fish or lay large eggs like snakes has been settled by the discovery of spawn in one. For a fish that has been so largely used as food the eel has strangely escaped both scientific investigation and legal protection.

Whatever else may happen, there is a significance in recent occurrences in the east which cannot be misrepresented. An enlightened world has decreed the downfall of autocracy, and every despot, great or small, will act the part of wisdom in recognizing the fact and governing himself accordingly.

Of course there will be many opinions as to the militant preacher in Texas that thumped a bully who had made a practice of cursing the dominie on sight. But even the turn-the-other-cheek non-combatives have a sneaking satisfaction that the abusive sinner did not have to wait until reaching the next world before getting what was coming to him.

A hypothetical question of 31,000 words has been ruled out by the Massachusetts court which was trying a murder case on the ground that it is too long. It is not surprising that it was ruled out, but it is surprising that counsel ever proposed to put such a question. No layman would ever devise a question that would fill three or four pages of a newspaper.

GIRL IS ATTACKED

Neighborhood Aroused By Her Screams.

SEARCHING FOR ASSAILANT

Mildred Kelsey Furnishes a Good Description of Man Who Attacked Her on Way to School.

Des Moines, Ia., June 4.—Every patrolman and detective available on the Des Moines police deparment is being pressed into service by Superintendent of Public Safety J. L. Hamery in an effort to apprehend the man who attempted a criminal assault upon 14- year-old Mildred Kelsey while she was on her way to school yesterday morning.

While going from her home, which is about a half mile from the end of the Grandview car line at Des Moines to school, Mildred Kelsey, the 14-year-old daughter of William H. Kelsey, was attacked by an unknown man when about midway between the house and the park. Her desperate efforts to ward off his attack and her screams attracted the attention of her mother at the house and the man fled into the woods.

MILDRED KELSEY.

A squad of twelve policemen, aided by the entire detective force, at once started on a search through the woods immediately after the news reached police headquarters. They were assisted by neighbors and friends of the Kelsey family and many threats were made which might result in the lynching of the man in case he is captured.

Bit Blood From Fingers.

No trace of the man has been found as yet, although the police have been vigilant in their search. All they have to work on is the description furnished by the little girl, who is none the worse from the attack, except from the excitement. Her clothes were badly torn and soiled. She described the man as being about 35 years old, short and stocky in stature, dark complexioned and with having about two days' growth of beard. He wore a black crush hat, a dark suit of clothes and a short stubby mustache.

The girl left the house shortly after 10 o'clock to go to school. When she was about mid-way between her home and the park the man ran up behind and seized her. He pulled her from the car track into the brush, but her screams were so loud that they frightened him, and he fled. She fought him, and blood on the ground leads the police to believe she severely bit his fingers. By the time the police reached the scene of the attack he had had sufficient time to make good his escape.

Four Fail to Pass.

Des Moines, June 4—Four of sixty-three applicants failed to pass the bar examinations held in the chamber of the house of representative at the state house by the state board of law examiners. The examinations were oral and conducted by Attorney General H. W. Byers.

Accountants Meet in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., June 4.—More than fifty city comptrollers and accountants from all over the United States have gathered here for the fourth annual convention of the National Association of Comptrollers and Accountants.

Missioner Dead in India.

Boston, Mass., June 4.—News of the death of Rev. Henry J. Bruce, at Panchgani, India, May 4, has reached here. For forty-seven years Mr. Bruce had been one o the American board's missionaries in India. He was 74 years old

SETTING A NEW PACE.

ROCKEFELLER A GOLFER NOW

GAME MORE INTERESTING THAN FINANCE HE SAYS.

Declares He's Out of Stock Market—Glad There Is More Work for Unemployed.

New York.—John D. Rockefeller, looking unusually fit and wearing a deep coat of tan and a flossy looking golf cap, returned Friday to New York from Hot Springs, Va., where he took Mrs. Rockefeller some time ago for her health. The oil king was accompanied by his wife, his sister-in-law and granddaughter.

"I have had a splendid time," said Mr. Rockefeller, "and we are greatly improved in health and spirits. I have golfed and golfed and golfed."

"What do you think of the financial situation and bull markets?" he was asked.

"Do you know," replied the 70-year-old billionaire, "that they have one of the best golf courses in the world down there where we've been? It's a lot more interesting than finance and the stock market. You know I'm out of that sort of thing. I'm a golfer now. Ask me something about golf. I'm way up in the game. See what a tan I've got?

"But I am really glad to get back. I've been away five months, and it seems good to see New York again."

Mr. Rockefeller said the death of H. H. Rogers had been a great blow to him. "It was sad, very sad," he said.

He was curious to know if there was more work for the unemployed than there had been. When told that there was apparently more work than formerly, he said:

"That's fine. I'm awfully glad to hear it."

STREAM POLLUTION PERILS

Epidemic Caused and Waters Made Unfit for Use, Declares Report of Committee.

Washington.—The committee on the "Pollution of Streams," appointed last year, of which Alec H. Seymour, secretary of the New York state department of health is chairman, Friday presented its report to the meeting of the state and provincial boards of health of North America. The other members of the committee are Dr. Charles O. Probst, secretary of the Ohio state board of health, and Dr. H. D. Holton, secretary of the Vermont state board of health.

Studies of conditions all over the United States and reports of state health departments show that there have been many epidemics of typhoid fever directly due to this practice; that in many case public nuisances have been caused, and that many of the waters of the various states are rendered unfit for domestic and manufacturing purposes. Fish life has been destroyed and the waters ruined for boating, bathing and fishing and rendered objectionable and obnoxious in other ways.

The report shows that during the past few years many laws have been passed dealing with this subject, but that the legislative activity has not kept pace with the needs.

San Francisco Gets French Medal.

San Francisco.—The marvelous reconstruction of this city since the earthquake and fire of 1906 was gracefully recognized by France Saturday, when Ambassador Jusserand, on behalf of his government, presented to San Francisco a handsome gold medal in commemoration of its achievement.

CRIME FIGHTERS IN SESSION.

National Conference on Criminal Law and Criminology Draws Many Experts to Chicago.

Chicago.—Leaders in the war on crime from all parts of the country have been attracted to this city by the national conference on criminal law and criminology which opened Friday in the Northwestern University School of Law. The meeting is in a way a celebration of the school's fiftieth anniversary, and scores of lawyers, penologists, prosecuting officers, physicians, wardens, and others were invited to take part in the discussions. There will be no set speeches.

The wide range of the conference is shown by the topics that are being discussed. Some of them are:

The unnecessary multiplication of criminal laws as a cause of disrespect of, and disregard for, the law.

Needed reforms in the use of medical expert testimony, and the feasibility of establishing state commissions of specialists for expert testimony.

The problem of the jury system.

The problem of the simplification of judicial procedure by eliminating certain of the cumbersome and antiquated forms of the common law.

Limitations and restrictions on the right of appeal. To what extent should reversals for errors be permitted?

Measures for the supervision of suspects, especially in such matters as the "Black Hand" crimes.

Is irresponsibility co-extensive with insanity?

The mixed high school as a factor in adolescent criminality.

Whether all technicalities in pleading and practice which do not affect the substantial rights of the accused should be disregarded.

GIRL'S SLAYER TO HANG.

Jury Convicts Negro Who Killed Ottumwa Choir Singer and Barely Escaped Lynching.

Centerville, Ia.—Quickly following the jury's verdict of guilty in the case of John Junkin, a negro who murdered Miss Clara Rosen, a choir singer of Ottumwa, Judge M. A. Roberts sentenced the prisoner to be hanged.

The jury returned its verdict after a deliberation of less than four hours. There was an immense crowd awaiting the result of the trial and as the last words were read by the clerk a shout went up which was taken up by the crowd in the courthouse square.

Attorneys for the defense waived their customary right of three days before sentence of death is passed and agreed that Judge Roberts pass sentence immediately, which the court did. Junkin will hang the last Friday in July, 1910. He was taken to Fort Madison for safe keeping till the day of his execution.

Adj. Gen. Guy Logan of Des Moines was in the court room when the sentence was pronounced. He stated that there would be no need of militia to guard the prisoner as the verdict met with popular favor.

Junkin's crime was one of the most atrocious in Iowa. He confessed killing Clara Rosen with a stone while she was returning from the home of her sister. Later he dragged the girl into an excavation and assaulted her. Her dead body was found by a searching party the next morning.

Russian Prince Is Murdered.

Tiflis. — Prince Eristoff, a prominent member of the Union of Unions, has been murdered by unknown persons on his estate at Klonieff.

THAW LOSES APPE

MUST REMAIN IN MATTEAW ASYLUM, DECLARES COURT.

PATRICK LIKEWISE FAI

Slayers of Stanford White and William Marsh Rice Legally in Custody, Says Supreme Tribunal of New York.

New York.—Harry K. Thaw, fi ing incarceration at Matteawan A lum for the Criminal Insane, and bert T. Patrick, serving a life prisonment at Sing Sing, both l their appeals by adverse decisions the appellate division of the supre court Friday.

The appellate division held t Thaw accepted the alternative of c finement as insane when he plead insanity as a defense to the crime slaying Stanford White.

Patrick, the court held, was lega in custody, as there was no doubt the power of the governor to commu his sentence of death. Both defe ants sued out writs of habeas corp and the proceedings were upon a peals against decisions dismissing t writs.

Opinion in Patrick Case.

The Patrick opinion, which was wr ten by Justice Jenks, and concurred by the other members of the cou was in part:

"The judgment, as commuted, w attacked. I have no doubt that t governor has the power of commut ion in this case. I find no force t the contention that there cannot be commutation of the punishment o death to that of life imprisonment be cause commutation implies a less pun ishment, and life imprisonment is greater punishment than death. Th degree of punishment is not deter nined by the individual preference o the convict.

Harry Kendall Thaw.

"The relator argued that he had never accepted the commutation, bu he states in his printed points that commutation does not require his ac ceptance. Such, I think, is the law. In this the commutation differs from pardon, either absolute or conditional.

Case to Be Carried Up.

"The whole proposition in effect is that the governor's act, ineffective to change the punishment, nevertheless remitted it. It is hard to see why the exercise of that power that cannot change a punishment in effect remits or abolishes it."

After the decision was rendered William L. McDonald, Patrick's counsel, said:

"We shall promptly take all the legal steps to bring Patrick's case into the higher courts. We have not an appeal by right from the appellate division, but that court can grant us an appeal if so disposed. If this is not done we shall get a writ of error and carry the case to the United States supreme court."

BANK LOOT IS $137,000.

Lewiston, Idaho, Insitution Is Systematically Robbed for Five Years—Defalcation Made Good.

Lewiston, Idaho.—That the Lewiston National bank has been robbed of $137,000 is the startling statement made by National Bank Examiner Claude Gatch, who has just completed an investigation.

Beyond the fact that the stockholders have made the alleged shortage good, Mr. Gatch declines to discuss the situation. The embezzlement has, it is stated, extended over a period of the last five years, and it was made possible, it is understood, by manipulation of the adding machine used in computing the daily balances.

Immediately after the condition became known to the bank officials, a meeting of the stockholders was called and the entire defalcation made good by them.

HER INFINITE VARIETY

By BRAND WHITLOCK

ILLUSTRATIONS BY RAY WALTERS

COPYRIGHT 1907 BY BOBBS-MERRILL CO.

SYNOPSIS.

Senator Morley Vernon's visit with his niece was interrupted by a call from the political boss at the state capital. Much regretted it, the girl more than he, because she had arranged to attend a play that evening with him. She said she yearned for a national office for him. On Vernon's desk in the senate he found a red rose, accompanied by a plea for suffrage for women. He met the author, pretty Miss Maria Greene of Chicago, who proposed to convert him to voting for house resolution No. 19. Miss Greene secured Vernon's promise to vote for the suffrage resolution. He also aided her by convincing others. He took a liking to the fair suffragette. Miss Greene consulted with the lieutenant-governor. Vernon admitted to himself that the suffragette had stirred a strange feeling within him. He forgot to read his niece's letter. Vernon made a great speech in favor of suffrage, aided by notes from Miss Greene. The resolution was made a special order. Vernon was enthusiastic on the prospects for the resolution. He was much in Miss Greene's company. Vernon neglected thoughts of Amelia. He took Miss Greene driving and talked out plans for the success of the resolution.

CHAPTER VII.—Continued.

"I did not care to lead a useless life," he said "I wanted to do something—to have some part in the world's work. The law seemed to be a respectable profession and I felt that maybe I could do some good in politics. I don't think the men of my class take as much interest in politics as they should. And then, I'd like to make my own living."

"I have to make mine," said Maria Greene.

"But you never thought of teaching, or nursing, or—well—painting or music, or that sort of thing, did you?"

"No," she replied; "did you?"

Vernon laughed at an absurdity that needed no answering comment, and then he hastened on:

"Of course, you know I think it fine that you should have done as you have. You must have met with discouragements."

She laughed, and Vernon did not note the bitterness there was concealed in the laugh; to him it seemed intended to express only that polite deprecation demanded in the treatment of a personal situation.

"I can sympathize with you there," said Vernon, though Miss Greene had not admitted the need of sympathy. Perhaps it was Vernon's own need of sympathy, or his feeling of the need of it, that made him confess that his own family and friends had never sympathized with him, especially with what he called his work in politics; he felt, at any rate, that he had struck the right note at last, and he went on to assure her how unusual it was to meet a woman who understood public questions as well as she understood them. And it may have been his curiosity that led him to inquire:

"How did your people feel about your taking up the law?"

Miss Greene said that she did not know how her people felt, and Vernon again had that baffled sense of her evading him.

"I've felt pretty much alone in my work," he said. "The women I know won't talk with me about it; they won't even read the newspapers. And I've tried so hard to interest them in it!"

Vernon sighed, and he waited for Miss Greene to sigh with him. He did not look at her, but he could feel her presence there close beside him. Her gloved hands lay quietly in her lap; she was gazing out over the prairies. The light winds were faintly stirring her hair, and the beauty of it, its warm red tones brought out by the burnishing sun, suddenly overwhelmed him. He stirred and his breath came hard.

"Do you know," he said, in a new confidence, "that this has been a great day for me? To meet you, and to know you as I think I do know you now! This morning, when I was speaking, I felt that with you to help me, I could do great things."

Miss Greene drew in her lips, as if to compress their fullness; she moved away on the seat, and raised her hand uneasily and thrust it under her veil to put back a tress of hair that had strayed from its fastening. Vernon saw the flush of her white cheeks come and go. Her eyebrows were drawn together wistfully, and in her blue eyes, that looked far away through the meshes of her dotted veil, there was a little cloud of trouble. She caught her lip delicately between the edges of her teeth. Vernon leaned slightly forward as if he would peer into her face. For him the day had grown suddenly hot, the spring had developed on the instant the oppressive heat of summer. He felt its fire; he could see its intensity vibrating in the air all about him, and he had a sense as of all the summer's voices droning in unison. The reins dropped from his listless fingers; the horse moped along as it pleased.

"I have always felt it, vaguely," Vernon went on, his voice dropping to a low tone, "and this morning it was suddenly revealed to me—"

Miss Greene raised her hand as if to draw it across her brow; her veil stopped her.

"Let's not talk about that now," she pleaded. "Let's enjoy the air and the country. I don't have them often."

Vernon Had Left Her at the Hotel.

Her hand fell to her lap. The color had gone out of her cheeks. And Vernon suddenly felt that the summer had gone out of the air; a cold wind was blowing as over soiled patches of snow left in shaded depressions of the fields; the earth was brown and bare; the birds were silent. He jerked the horse smartly, and it gave an angry toss of its head, as it broke into its tentative trot.

"I do wish you could know the women I know," said Vernon, obviously breaking a silence. He spoke in an entirely different voice. "I meant to put it the other way. I meant that I wish they could know you, and I mean that they shall. You would be a revelation to them."

Miss Greene smiled, though her face was now careworn, almost old.

"Right along the line of our constitutional amendment, now," he said, with a briskness, "do you think the women will become interested?"

"The women of your acquaintance, or of mine?" asked Miss Greene.

"You're guying," said Vernon, and when Miss Greene seriously protested, Vernon said he meant all the women, as politicians pretend to mean all the people, when they mean only the party.

"I'm afraid not," she said. "They could have the ballot to-morrow if they'd only ask for it. The trouble is they don't want it."

"Well, we must educate them," said Vernon. "I have great hopes that the women whom I know will be aroused by what we are doing."

"I have no doubt they will," said Miss Greene. There was something enigmatical in her words, and Vernon glanced uneasily at her again.

"How do you mean?" he asked.

"You'll learn when you see the newspapers to-morrow," said Miss Greene.

"Do you think they'll have it in full?" asked Vernon. He was all alert, and his eyes sparkled in a new interest.

"On the first page," she replied, with conviction. "Have they your picture?"

"I don't know," Vernon replied. "They can get it, though," he added, thoughtfully.

"They keep the portraits of all distinguished public men on hand," Miss Greene said, with a certain reassurance in her tone.

"Oh, well, I hope they'll not print it," said Vernon, as if just then recalling what was expected of a distinguished public man under such circumstances.

"That's one of the penalties of being in public life," she answered with a curious smile.

"A penalty the ladies will be glad to pay when our reform is accomplished; isn't that so?" said Vernon, seeking relief in a light bantering tone.

"I thought we were not going to talk politics," she said, turning and looking at him. She adjusted her hat and held herself resolutely erect.

The sun was going down behind the prairies, the afternoon was almost gone; as they watched the sunset, Miss Greene broke the silence.

"It's a familiar sight," she said, and Vernon thought that he had a clue at last. She must know the prairies.

"It is just like a sunset at sea," she added.

When they had driven back to the town and Vernon had left her at the hotel, he turned to drive to the livery stable.

"By George!" he said, suddenly, speaking to himself. "I haven't read Amelia's letter!"

He fumbled in his coat pocket.

CHAPTER VIII.

Miss Greene's predictions were all realized in the sensation Vernon's speech created. The newspapers gave whole columns to it and illustrated their accounts with portraits of Vernon and of Maria Greene. Vernon thought of the pleasure Amelia must find in his new fame, and when he wrote to her he referred briefly but with the proper modesty to his remarkable personal triumph, and then waited for her congratulations.

The legislative session was drawing to a close; the customary Friday adjournment was not taken, but sessions were held that day and on Saturday, for the work was piling up, the procrastinating legislators having left it all for the last minute.

The week following would see house and senate sweltering in shirt sleeves and night sessions, and now, if a bill were to become law it was necessary that its sponsor stay, as it were, close beside it, lest in the mighty rush of the last few days it be lost.

Vernon, by virtue of his speech, had assumed the championship of the woman-suffrage resolution, and he felt it necessary to forego his customary visit to Chicago that week and remain over Sunday in Springfield. He devoted the day to composing a long letter to Miss Greene, in which he described the situation in detail, and suggested that it would be well for her, if possible, to come down to Springfield on Monday and stay until the resolution had been adopted. He gave her, in closing, such pledges of his devotion to the cause of womankind that she could hardly resist any appeal he might make for her presence and assistance.

On Monday he wired, urging the necessity of her presence. Tuesday morning brought him a reply, thanking him, in behalf of women, for his disinterested devotion to their cause, assuring him of her own appreciation of his services, and saying that she would reach Springfield—Wednesday morning.

Meanwhile he had had no letter from Amelia, and he began to wonder at her silence. He was not only disappointed, but piqued. He felt that his achievement deserved the promptest recognition from her, but he found a consolation, that grew in spite of him, in the thought that Maria Greene would soon be in Springfield, and to his heart he permitted Amelia's silence to justify him in a freer indulgence of attention to this fascinating woman lawyer.

Tuesday evening the crowd, that grows larger as the session nears its close, filled the lobby of the Leland. The night was warm, and to the heat of politics was suddenly added the heat of summer. Doors and windows were flung wide to the night, and the tall Egyptians, used as they were to the sultry atmosphere of southern Illinois, strode lazily about under their wide slouch hats with waistcoats open and cravats loosened, delighting in a new cause for chaffing the Chicago men, who had resumed their customary complaints of the Springfield weather.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Sets Law of Kitchen.

A "law of the kitchen" has been set forth in England in an opinion by a county judge. He holds that where the mistress of a house goes to the kitchen to aid the maid of all work the two are brought on terms of equality such as would not be tolerated in larger establishments. The case was that of a cook and general maid who sought to recover a month's wages from her former mistress in lieu of notice. The mistress asserted that the servant always "answered her back," but the judge held that under the circumstances this was not sufficient to justify dismissal.

What He Knew.

A graduate of a New England university applied not long ago to a Portland (Me.) importer for a position in the latter's establishment.

"Let me see," said the prospective employer, when he had scanned the numerous letters of recommendation offered by the applicant, "do you know anything of the shipping business?"

"Well, of course, sir," was the frank response, "I know a good deal about the expeditions of Ulysses and Aeneas."—Harper's Weekly.

Live and Let Live.

A neatly attired but somewhat wan-faced middle-aged Italian woman, dressed in black, leading a little boy with each hand, called at a lawyer's office in the Land Title building recently and arranged with him to apply for a divorce. After going over the history of her case the lawyer said: "Well, I suppose you want to get alimony?" In slightly accented, though nearly perfect English, the client replied: "I would just like to get part of his money, that's all."—Philadelphia Record.

Chinamen at Communion.

An infrequent visitor to St. Paul's chapel was amazed to see three Chinamen go up to the communion rail one recent Sunday, come back to their seats, and sit very quietly and intently throughout the partaking of the communion by the others.

"It is not at all strange," said the clergyman in charge. "There are very few nationalities that are not represented here in St. Paul's chapel."—New York Press.

BURDENS LIFTED

From Bent Backs.

A bad back is a heavy handicap to those of us who have to work every day. Nine times out of ten, backache tells of kidney weakness. The only way to find relief is to cure the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills have given sound strong backs to thousands of men and women. Mrs. Wesley Clemens, 311 Marion St., Manchester, Ia., says: "Constant work at a sewing machine seemed to bring on kidney trouble. The kidney action was irregular and the pains in my back and loins so severe I could hardly endure it. Doan's Kidney Pills made me feel better in a short time, and I took them until entirely free from my trouble."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

A Lucky Mischance.

"At the last moment Fakem lost his nerve."

"Then pray kind fate that nobody else will ever find it."

For Any Disease or Injury to the eye, use PETTIT'S EYE SALVE, absolutely harmless, acts quickly, 25c. All druggists or Howard Bros., Buffalo, N. Y.

Uncle Josh Says:

'Tain't all cigarette smoke in Turkish circles, b' jinks, is it?

Remember, the real flavor of crushed mint leaves costs no more than rank imitations. Insist on WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT.

She is a wise young wife who tries her first cake on a tramp.

RUSS BLUE IS GOOD BLUE
Preserves clothes and makes and keeps them white as snow. All grocers 5c.

Some marriages mean war and some mean an armed truce.

There's Danger Ahead

if you've been neglecting a cold. Don't experiment with your health. Get a remedy that you know will cure—that remedy is

DR. D. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT

It's safe. In the severest cases of coughs, colds, bronchitis, croup, inflammation of chest and lungs it is the most effective remedy known. It does its work quickly, removes the cause of the disease

Sold everywhere in three size bottles, $1.00, 50c, 25c.

Des Moines Directory

The State Insurance Company

of Des Moines, Iowa, has paid over FOUR MILLION DOLLARS for

Fire, Lightning and Tornado Losses

The season is on—get a Policy now. Prompt and fair treatment is our motto.

Talking Machine Free

trial to responsible people. Special outfit complete: Our Victor, Evans Special Model C, with 19-inch black horn; 1 extra 21-inch flowered horn; 1 self-cleaning record brush; 1 oil can; 1 bottle oil; 1 modulator; 1000 needles; 1 tube graphite; 1 record case (holds 50 records); 6 ten-inch records; 1 needle holder.

Our price $37.50—Worth $52.00. Sold for cash or monthly payments. Send for special outfit bargain list.

F. O. EVANS PIANO CO., Des Moines, Iowa

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

Rheumatism

Nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness.

Lame Shoulder.

This is a common form of muscular rheumatism. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely four times a day and a quick cure is certain.

Lumbago.

When muscular rheumatism attacks the muscles in the small of the back it is called lumbago. It is usually quite severe and every movement adds to the pain, and especially when one attempts to straighten up. No internal treatment is required. Keep quiet, as every movement aggravates the disease, and apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and you will soon be well again.

Sprains and Bruises are cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment.

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

WHEN SNOW WAS 40 FEET DEEP.

Took 600 Soldiers to Clear the Way in the English Blizzard of 1836.

The mogul engines which were stalled in the recent blizzard out west do not appear to be worthy successors of a certain Hercules engine which cut a noble figure in the English blizzard of 1836.

To appreciate the role played by the Hercules some idea must be given of the effect of the storm on other methods of travel. Fourteen mail coaches were abandoned on as many roads. Another was dug out of drifts five times between Exeter and London.

Another was buried so deep that it took 300 men, principally sappers and miners, several hours to make a passage to the coach and rescue the mails and passengers, while near Chatham the snow lay to a depth of 30 or 40 feet, the military being turned out to the unmber of 600 to clear the way.

In London the drifts were ten feet deep and hundreds of men and carts were employed hauling snow out to the fields in the suburbs. The markets were in a bad way. One day only four stall holders were able to reach a main market. Greens which a few days before the storm were being sold for three pence a bunch at market, now fetched from ten pence to one shilling, turnips, carrots and celery becoming equally dear; while one penny handfuls of parsley realized two shillings sixpence, and the happy possessor of a bunch which he had previously purchased for ninepence realized for his prize no less a sum than £1 2s 3d.

Amid all this confusion the pioneer railways covered themselves with glory by running trains almost without interruption. There was a deep cutting on one line where the snow had drifted badly and, according to the Queen, great numbers of people turned out to see how the Hercules engine would get along. They imagined, of course, that she would be stopped, but to their astonishment the engine dashed right into the drift, "clearing her way through apparently without the slightest difficulty, the snow at the same time flying over the top of the engine chimney like foam from the broken waves of a violent sea, and notwithstanding obstructions the train came down from Greenhead (20 miles) in one hour and a quarter."

When a Tooth Is Not a Tooth.

In Seattle last year a man was charged with and tried for practicing dentistry without a license. Each particular piece of evidence necessary to make out the case on the part of the state was proved, except that the prosecutor, having procured the prosecuting witness to exhibit his botched tooth to the jury, either forgot or didn't think it was necessary to ask the witness if it was a natural or an artificial tooth, and so lost his case. It seems the statute made it a misdemeanor to mend a "human tooth" for a fee without a license. Now the sensible presumption—the presumption that men or judges would naturally indulge in if they had not become imbued with the passion of peering for loopholes—would be that the tooth was natural and not artificial. But if we presumed that, the law would cease to be an "exact" science, and many gaping spectators on the back benches would be deprived of the joy of watching to see which lawyer came out winner in the match of wits.—Collier's Weekly.

Secret of Successful Oratory.

"The most effective orator I have ever heard," says a writer in the Windsor, "was an Italian ex-friar, an old Garibaldian, Sig. Gavazzi by name, who lectured in England when I was in my teens. He was addressing some 5,000 men and women of the hard-headed north country type. He was speaking in English, which was to him an acquired and foreign language. He played on his hearers as if they were an old fiddle in the grasp of Paganini. He made them literally laugh and cry at will. He would one moment hush them in spellbound silence, and the next, by a word or gesture, he would explode the charged mine of their enthusiasm into deafening cheers. As I listened to him I first understood why Demosthenes insisted so strenuously on action—action or delivery as the first, second and third secret of successful oratory."

Two of a Kind.

A distinguished specialist in Washington was called upon a week or two ago by an eminent government official, for treatment for a nervous ailment.

"The first thing you must do," said the physician, after an examination. "Is to give up both smoking and drinking."

Whereupon the eminent official became real peevish. "Look here, doctor," he burst out, "now you're talking just like my wife!"—Lippincott's.

Attention PEOPLE!

Don't forget that the Gruetzmacher Bros. handle all kinds of stoves such as heaters, cook stoves and steel ranges.

Also a full line of hardware, groceries, flour and feed.

A complete line of implements also paints, oils and varnishes.

Rock and barrel salt. Barb wire and field fence.

Yours to please at the old stand,

Gruetzmacher Bros.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOW

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE. LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STATE. Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. Fits d..ys tr..ment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund m.. All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines used. detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by mail and p..ess. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage. Ch.. low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for terms. ..sultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call or w.. to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men. The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without the ... harmful instruments. Our ... fully explains.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the scrot... causing nervous debility, weak... of the nervous system, etc., permanently cured.

BLOOD POISON —That terrible disease in... its stages, cured for life. ... Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, and all form... private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few days wit... pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application, ... description of above diseases, effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrapper.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINES, ...

RUPTURE, PILES

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolutely reliable and permanent. Write to or call and see the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were afflicted with Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia.
Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines, Ia.
E. C. Miller, Des Moines, Ia.
John H. Looby, Des Moines, Ia.

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you free, postage paid. This book contains much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonial letters. Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the book. Write today—it will pay you.

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES, IOWA

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:40 p. m.
82 ..... 2:50 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:35 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

L. O. Turgasen, Agent

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

PATENTS DESIGNS TRADE-MARKS AND COPYRIGHTS OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"
Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,
E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

H. C. LA...

DEALER IN

Klemme - - Io...

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified.

FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE

it is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

Just Dust it on the Sore.
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls while ... work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bottom an...
Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid by Mail
Money Back if Not Satisfied.
The RED STAR HEALING POWDER C...
(25c. and 50c. Cans), GARNER, IOWA

The Klemme Times.

VOLUME XIII. NUMBER 46 — KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, JUNE 17, 1909. — $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

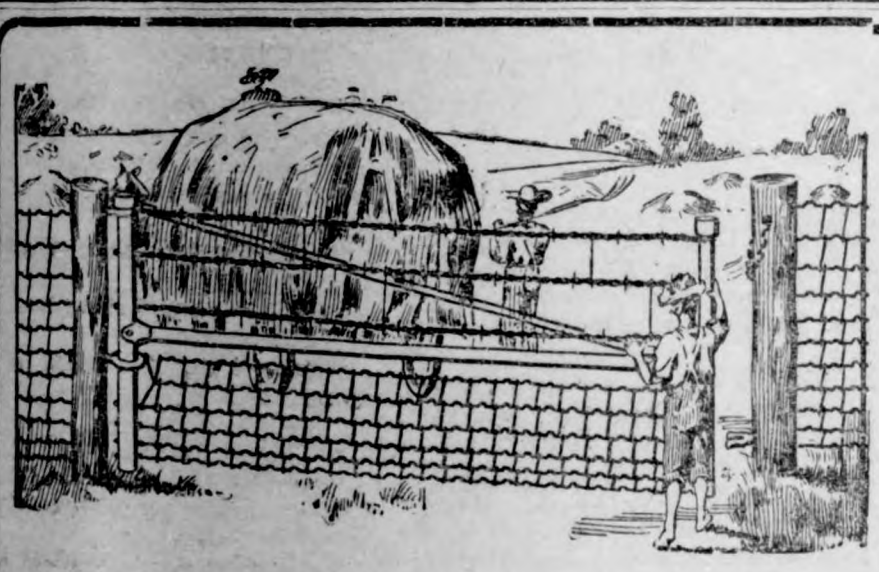
ANDREW CARNEGIE

was a poor Scotch boy when he came to America. He worked hard; he saved a part of the money he earned. Today it keeps him busy just giving away the interest of his fortune. Remember we will pay you a liberal rate of interest on your money. Start saving

TODAY

State Savings Bank.

Klemme - - Iowa



Iowa Gates are more than a convenience if women or children ever use them for being so simple they are very light and can easily be swung either way. The IOWA gate is made to last—no castings to break—no wearing parts—even the wires have galvanized stretchers to tighten them. Will not blow down, burn or rot out. Get prices.

J. H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, AGENT
KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J.W.WATERMAN

IT IS NOW "OREGON BILL"

Wm. Schaper Writes Interesting Letter to The Times from Portland, and Is Nearly "Daffy" Over Oregon Timber.

READS LIKE AN AD

Portland. Ore., June 8, 1909

Dear Editor—I wish that I could sit down with you all right now and have a six-hour talk with you, right from the shoulder, and tell you all about this wonderful country, where the possibilities are really unlimited. * * * I expect to get back to Garner in about ten days or so and will then go into detail with you. In this letter I only want to tell you in a few lines what I have been doing since I last saw you.

We left Garner on the morning of the 28th of May, and went as far as Dubuque, Iowa, where we stayed until Saturday night at 9:30 p. m. We got round trip tickets for $57.50 and our tickets are good until October 31, and fellows, I wish I could just stay until the limit of the tickets, as I'll confess that I am completely stuck on this country and the climate, and so far I must say the people too; everyone has been just the finest kind to me. They say, you know, that the Lord reserved this coast country for the best people on earth, and I am certainly beginning to think that I am one of the favored ones.

Well, I must get to my trip. We got to Omaha on the Illinois Central and laid over there until about 3:30 p. m. when we took the Union Pacific for Denver. Had a beautiful trip, and got to Denver half an hour late to make connection, so we took the train at 9 a. m. for the sight-seeing trip of my life, and I really believe that the piece of road between Denver and Salt Lake is the most wonderful piece of scenery in the world.

We traveled for hours on a train that is a palace, equipped in all the best, traveling at a high rate of speed with all the comforts of the home, and then some.

To appreciate this trip one must take the ride as it is absolutely grand and words cannot tell of the grandeur. The Grand Canyon of the Colorado is beautiful; the Hell Gate Canyon is also beyond description and as I say, you must see it all to believe it.

We crossed the Rocky Mountains over Tennessee Pass which is 10,224 feet over the level of the sea, and the air is delightful. At 9:30 that night we came to the summit and then the fun commenced. We got off the train while the trainmen were looking over the brakes and wheels for any possible defects, which took 20 minutes, and all of us got out and snowballed each other. The snow was two or three inches deep and it reminded me of the time when I was a kid washing the other fellow's face with snow. * *

Salt Lake City is a beautiful place, and while our time there was very short, I enjoyed seeing the Mormon Temple and the beautiful wide streets and tall buildings, and I want to say right here that when any of you take a trip west, you want to be sure and stop over at Denver, Salt Lake and Portland without fail.

We arrived at Portland at 8 p. m., and then was shown a city such as I never dreamed existed on this coast.

Portland has a population of 250,000 people and it looks twice that size to me, but for real up-to-dateness, it has all the large cities in the east skinned a mile. Got over to my friend, Mr. J Bracher's home where I am stopping now, about 11:30 p. m. and say, I can't begin to tell you how I slept that night.

At 8 a. m. Thursday we were on our way down town again, and then I was shown all around town and after a dinner at the Portland Commercial Club rooms, we left for the timber, via the Southern Pacific train at 4:15 p. m. We arrived at Cottage Grove, Ore., at 9:30 p. m. where Mr. Bracher's agent met us, and introduced us to our guide and cruiser, with whom we were to go into the real timbered country bright and early on Friday morning.

We left Cottage Grove at 7 a. m. with a team and two-seated rig, that were a pride and pleasure to be riding behind, and arrived at our destination at 8 a. m. Think of it; just an hour after we left town we were in the timber, and in an hour after that we were in a forest so dark and densely timbered that it is practically impossible to get a good photo of it. Here we found TIMBER, so straight, tall and clear that it took, as I said, two boys and a man to see the tops of some of the trees.

Some of these trees are from 250 to 300 feet tall, and from 2 to 8 feet in diameter at base, and some have not a limb or branch on them for 150 feet up. The best timber however is from 18 to 36 inches on the stump as those extremely large trees are almost too large to move and weigh tons and tons. * * Three of us tried to girdle one of the large trees and we didn't come within three feet of making it around the base. We never stopped looking at trees till 1:30 p. m. when we got back to our team, and then we ate and ate till our lunch was all gone and I began to wonder if we would get back to our hotel before I was starved to death. Honest, fellows, I could have eaten hay I was so hungry when I got to town that night. * *

I want to meet you all, fellows, when I get home, and tell you about this wonderful country and its immense opportunities and I know you won't be long taking a hint.

Get on the cars, see the fair at Seattle, and once you take a trip down in the timber you will be as crazy as I am.

I shall stop of at the Seattle Exposition on my way home, and also take a trip out on the ocean to Victoria, B. C. and then back to Tacoma and Seattle. Then I want to stop off at Ritzville for a day and then at Spokane to visit some of my old friends, and then take the Northern Pacific train for home.

Got some deer horns and could have brought home some elk horns too, but my suit case is full now and I can't carry any more things this trip.

Weather is grand, roads are splendid, and such alfalfa and clover as I saw would make your mouth water. Wheat fields till you can't rest, and Trees—it is beyond description.

I know you will say I am crazy, but wait till I get back and I'll show you fellows how much I mean of this. Timber and timber land investments for me for a few years and then we will retire, and take it easy for the rest of my days.

Regards to all the folks, and believe me,

Your old friend,

OREGON BILL.

Could Not Be Better

No one has ever made a salve, ointment, lotion or balm to compare with Bucklin's Arnica Salve. Its the one perfect healer of cuts, corns, burns, bruises, sores, scalds, boils, ulcers, eczema, salt rheum. For sore eyes, cold sores, chapped hands its supreme. Infallible for piles. Only 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

OUR BUSINESS IS BANKING
BANKING IS OUR BUSINESS

The sign "Bank" does not make a bank and is often misleading. It requires time, energy, close attention to business, a substantial capital and ripe experience in banking to make a bank. We claim, without blushing, all essentials necessary to make our business that of banking, and tender our patrons a service thoroughly seasoned by years of experience, backed by substantial capital.

The First National Bank

CAPITAL $25,000

Elkhart Buggies

are the best made, best grade and easiest riding buggies on earth for the money.

FOR THIRTY-SIX YEARS

we have been selling direct and are The Largest Manufacturers in the World selling to the consumer exclusively.

We ship for examination and approval, guaranteeing safe delivery, and also to save you money. If you are not satisfied as to style, quality and price you are nothing out.

May We Send You Our Large Catalogue?

Elkhart Carriage & Harness Mfg. Co.
Elkhart, - - - - Indiana

Price $56.00 With Twin Auto Seat

U.S. U.S. U.S. U.S.

The Proof of the Pudding is in the eating.

The proof of the separator is in the trying.

You perhaps do not care to try, to know; well, then take your neighbor's word for it. Ask any user (you can find them most everywhere), and we assure you that if they have given the 1909 Model

U. S. Cream Separator

a thorough trial, they will advise you to "Buy the United States Cream Separator" as the bowls have been greatly reduced in diameter and still retain their great milk capacity.

Thousands testify yearly to the clean skimming, easy running and complete satisfaction obtained by the use of the reliable U. S. which holds the World's Record.

We have more to tell you, but space will not permit, so call and see the 1909 Model U. S. before purchasing.

SOLD BY

ELL BROTHERS

U.S. U.S. U.S. U.S.

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher

KLEMME - - - IOWA

IMPORTANT NEWS NOTES OF A WEEK

LATEST HAPPENINGS THE WORLD OVER TOLD IN ITEMIZED FORM.

EVENTS HERE AND THERE

Condensed Into a Few Lines for the Perusal of the Busy Man—Latest Personal Information.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Senator La Follette accused Senator Aldrich of legislative trickery and declared he is unfit to be the leader of the Republicans in a senate speech.

Government engineers in a report to congress declare a 14-foot waterway from St. Louis to the gulf, at a cost of $128,000,000, undesirable.

J. F. Harm, in a letter to Secretary Wilson resigning as a government meat inspector scored the service at East St. Louis and told of filthy conditions in the packing plants.

Efforts of Senator Dolliver to get through amendments to the wool schedule of the tariff bill met with defeat.

Supporters of the income tax plan have refused to accept a substitute proposed by President Taft which provides for a two per cent. assessment on corporations.

The battleship Michigan made 20.01 knots in her trial trip, the government's requirements being 18.5 knots.

It was reported from Washington that President Taft has not decided to veto the tariff bill, as reported.

The senate voted to reduce the duty on cotton stockings about twenty cents a dozen pairs.

President Taft presented to Wilbur and Orville Wright, the aeroplanists, a gold medal awarded them by the Aero Club of America.

PERSONAL.

Dr. Paul Ritter, the new minister from Switzerland, was presented to President Taft.

George Ade, the playwright, has been chosen a trustee of his alma mater, Purdue university.

Andrew Carnegie's gifts for libraries amount to $51,596,963 while Mrs. Russell Sage has donated $25,000,000 for public purposes and mankind.

Lieutenant Commander H. M. Caldwell, who was an aid to Admiral George Dewey and stood by his side on the bridge of the flagship Olympia during the battle of Manila, has resigned from the navy.

Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, founder of Christian Science, gave out a signed statement denying allegations of Mrs. Delia Gilbert, one of her followers, that she "either was dead or a helpless, mindless puppet."

E. H. Harriman arrived in London from New York on his way to Paris. He had been seasick.

Dr. Richard Cockburn MacLaurin was formally inducted into the office of president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at Boston in the presence of notable guests.

Daniel A. Sortwell, 25 years old, a broker's clerk, has been elected president of the Barre railroad at Boston, being the youngest head of a railway in the world.

Rear Admiral Uriel Sebree, commander of the Pacific fleet, on his arrival in Portland, Ore., made a plea for a large navy.

GENERAL NEWS.

Through the scent of a dog the New York police discovered the dismembered body of Samuel Bersin who was mysteriously slain.

Justice Dowling, who is hearing her divorce suit, rebuked Mrs. Howard Gould for her hazy memory which, he said, gave her husband's counsel unnecessary trouble.

A train was blown from the track and one person killed and several persons lost their lives in tornadoes which swept Texas.

J. F. Harms' charges of filthy conditions in East St. Louis packing houses are to be probed by government inspectors.

Fifty persons were rescued by a special train from Hiliman, Mo., when forest fires destroyed the town.

Herbert Todd, a merchant of Des Moines, Ia., was shot and seriously wounded by Moses Rice, a fruit vendor, who committed suicide.

Two earthquake shocks were felt in France and it was reported that several persons had been killed.

R. M. Smith & Co., lumber dealers, with large holdings in Indiana, Louisiana and West Virginia, were declared bankrupt by Judge Dayton at Parkersburg, W. Va.

John Hunt, a millionaire of California, says he was deserted in Europe by his wife, formerly Miss Henrietta Babcock of Detroit.

Otis D. Smith was hanged at Jacksonville, Fla., for slaying his sister.

Rear Admiral John J. Hunker, retired, is seriously ill at his home in Pasadena, Cal. He was for many years in command of the naval college at Newport, R. I.

A. H. Todd, a wholesale fruit dealer of Des Moines, Ia., was shot and severely wounded by a peddler in a quarrel over an account. Moses Rascnio, who shot him, killed himself by taking poison.

Nine mallard ducks have been hatched in New York city and in a few days the birds will be ready to swim. The eggs were brought from England in an attempt to prove that wild ducks may be propagated by farmers.

Jaquin Sorollay Bastiday, Spanish artist, sailed for France with $500,000 of American money. Just five months ago he arrived in New York with 346 of his own paintings and a European reputation.

The Carnegie Foundation has awarded an annual pension of $865 to Prof. Charles Edwin Loss of Transylvania university, who retires at the age of 85.

Announcement was made that William J. Bryan will be a candidate for United States senator from Nebraska.

Mrs. Howard Gould began her testimony at the trial of her suit for separation from her husband.

The Chicago police found that the revolver with which Dr. John T. Binkley was killed was purchased in New York and have dropped the theory of suicide.

William E. Corey, president of the steel trust, and Mrs. Corey were bruised and a companion fatally injured when they were thrown from an automobile in France.

The Iowa State Manufacturers' association adopted resolutions indorsing the course of Senators Dolliver and Cummins in the tariff fight.

William Benker killed himself by jumping from a hospital window at Mason City, Ia., after he had cut his throat.

Chicago trade expansionists who visited Tacoma, Wash., learned in that city that Mount Ranier has another name. In that city it is Mount Tacoma.

Youngstown, O., with 80,000 inhabitants, and the rest of Mahoning county, voted to retain saloons. The vote was "wet," 11,232; "dry," 9,263.

The Chinese foreign office has forbidden missionaries to proceed among the people in frontier provinces, because of their crude civilization and the fear of trouble.

A bag containing registered mail was stolen from an Illinois Central train at Champaign, Ill.

L. Gaban, a Cuban banker, has reached New York on his way to Europe and is traveling in a style suggestive of an Indian prince. The party includes his wife, three daughters, one son, four friends and two domestics. They took 20 rooms at a New York hotel.

The Burley Society of Tobacco Growers, meeting in Winchester, Ky., granted $24,000 back salary and a $15,000 bonus to President Clarence Lebus.

The federal court at Denver ruled that it is a fraudulent use of the mails for a person, in the interest of strikers, to communicate by letter with strike-breakers, offering them positions in other towns when such positions do not exist.

A report of a $1,300,000,000 railroad merger, credited to James J. Hill, was denied in St. Paul by Louis W. Hill, president of the Great Northern.

The twelfth annual convention of the Federation of American Zionists met in New York, chiefly to discuss the movement for the restoration of Palestine to the Jews.

The Minnesota Bankers' association opened its yearly meeting at Lake Minnetonka, President Joseph Chapman, Jr., of Minneapolis being in the chair.

William F. McDermott of Chicago has started action in court at Mercer, Pa., to have Mrs. Helen Boyle, his sister, who is serving a sentence of 25 years for kidnaping Willie Whitla, set free.

Charles Brown, aged six, and Edward Poe, a farmer, were killed by lightning near Anderson, Mo.

Floods are beginning in the Gunnison and Grand rivers in Colorado. The pumping plant at Grand Junction is menaced and hundreds of men are guarding railroad tracks and other property.

Damage to railroad property near Rapid City, S. D., as the result of a cloudburst, is estimated at $50,000. A Northwestern passenger train was piloted into Rapid City by a handcar after many hours' delay.

The auxiliary yacht Carnegie, built for the Carnegie institution for ocean surveys to correct compass data and in whose construction no magnetic metal is used, was launched at Brooklyn, N. Y.

Charles Miller, who worked as a waiter in the old Astor house in New York at $34 a month, has resigned and is going for a trip to Europe. He has accumulated a fortune of $200,000

ABOUT IOWA HOGS

Swine Breeders Hold Their Annual Convention.

A HUMAN INTEREST STORY

The Hog Is Quite the Biggest Creature in the State, With a Population of $8,000,000.

Des Moines.—The Iowa swine breeders' annual convention in Des Moines Tuesday is an important one. Moines Tuesday was an important one.

Few people realize the importance of this meeting. Every year Iowa produces 8,000,000 head of swine. This number is one-seventh the entire swine product of the United States. And it's a population of four hogs to every one of Iowa's 2,000,000 people.

These 8,000,000 hogs are worth $63,250,000, nearly one-fifth the valuation of all the hogs produced in the United States. The valuation is also greater than the combined product of any two states.

Iowa hogs surpass in numbers all the horses, mules, milk cows, beef cattle and sheep of the state.

Many of the men who are making and have made the Iowa hog what he is attended the convention. One of the most eminent authorities in the country on the subject of animal tuberculosis, Dr. John R. Moehler, chief of the pathological division of the bureau of animal industry was secured for this convention through Secretary James Wilson.

Many of the delegates to the Swine Breeders' convention remained over for the convention of the National association of expert swine judges, on the day following the breeders' meeting. The judging is to be done at the state fair grounds. This scoring work will be the big feature of the day's meeting.

Rain is Delaying the Farmers.

Rock Rapids.—The rainy weather continues to annoy the farmers who are anxious to get into the corn fields with the harrow and cultivator. Farmers are coming to realize in the past few years that it is the early attention that the corn gets that makes the crop and they say that there has been rain enough now and they want to go to work. The season is late, but the corn is coming along in fine shape and there is a general good stand.

Ralph Cruzen May be Suicide.

Oskaloosa.—Ralph Cruzen, aged 35 years, a prominent farmer of Madison township, is missing and it is believed that he drowned in the South Skunk river. Cruzen is demented and was confined in a private sanitarium at Des Moines. He escaped and walked to his home here. He has been tracked to a bridge over the river, where it is thought he committed suicide by drowning.

New Device Installed.

Waterloo—A deice that probably is destined to eliminate the possibility of a catastrophe should the trolley of an electric car fly off the trolly wire will in all probability be installed on the W. C. F. & N. eectric railway within the near future. This will be in the nature of a system of a new work guard about one foot in width and probably fifty feet in length.

With Dislocated Jaw.

Sioux City.—After having wandered the streets of Sioux City for three days, during which time he was unable to eat a bite of food because of a dislocated jaw, caused from falling down a hay chute four or five days ago , Ira Reber, whose exact residence is not yet known, lies in a critical condition at the Samaritan hospital.

Ensign to Woodbine.

Woodbine.—Prof. Forest C. Ensign of the State University of Iowa has been secured to deliver the address at the graduating exercises of the Woodbine Normal school, Friday evening, June 18. Rev. Mr. B. F. Hall will deliver the baccalaureate sermon, Sunday evening June 13, at the Christian church of Woodbine.

Sunday Converted 2,026.

Marshalltown.—A careful count of the converts' cards turned in to the local evangelistic committee as the result of the recent Sunday revival, shows a total of 2,026 conversions. All but 302 of this number have expressed some church preference.

Arersted for Embezzlement.

Onawa.—C. C. Smith, formerly auditor of the Neola Grain company at Rodney, Iowa, was arrested at Minneapolis by Sheriff Rawlings on a charge of embezzlement. The company claims a shortage of $1,100.

Iowa River Survey Made.

Keokuk.—Major Montgomery Meigs, George Hartel and Theodore Meyling left here in the launch Hornet bound for New Boston, where the Cedar and Iowa rivers empty into the Mississippi. The Hornet will go up the river as far as the junction of the two rivers. Columbus Junction, from where the trip down the river as far as Iowa City will be started. After finishing an examination of the Iowa river, the Cedar river will be examined as far as Cedar Rapids. The purpose of the examination is the same as that made of the Des Moines river to determine whether the river is worthy of a survey to discover if they are navigable. Major Meigs expects to be gone ten days.

Phone Improvements at Iowa Falls.

Iowa Falls.—The Iowa Telephone company has just sent to this city the advance guard of a big force of men who will re-equip the company's exchange in this city. A central energy plant will be installed and when completed, the old back number telephones will be removed and the new aquipment which calls the central office when the receiver is removed, will be offered the patrons of the company here. This work is being taken up gradually by the Iowa company all over the state and already the plants at Iowa City, Ames, Boone and other Iowa cities are thus equipped.

Bankers After This Man.

Eldora.—The Iowa Bankers' association is after a man giving the name of John Harris, who it is alleged has victimized any number of bankers. He recently operated at Weldon, Iowa, at Le Roy and Garden Grove, and several other places in southern Iowa, posing as a horse buyer and among other methods he uses forged telegrams to win his points. He is said to be about five feet ten inches in height, light complexion, blue eyes, smoothly shaved and is a rather smooth talker. He usually hangs around livery barns and is a good judge of horses.

Sons of Hermann Adjourn.

Fort Dodge.—At the closing session of the state convention of the Sons of Hermann, A. A. Lutze of Sioux City, was elected to the position of grand president. Other officers are past grand president, W. Wiese, Mapleton; first vice grand president, A. Kramer, Council Bluffs; second vice grand president, T. J. Thorson, Davenport; grand secretary and organizer, Carl Myers, Sioux City; grand treasurer, Frank Haaren, Sioux City; trustees, George E. Eisenberger of Alvard, Theodore Stickel of Davenport and John Groth of Remsen.

Nurses Conclude Meet.

Dubuque.—The convention of the registered nurses of Iowa elected as president, Miss Anna Goodale of Cedar Rapids; vice-president, Miss Abbie Tabor, Sioux City; second vice-president, Miss Letitia McNally, Independence; recording secretary, Miss Ida C. Nefa, Waterloo; corresponding secretary, Miss Floy Strayer, Waterloo; auditor, Miss Louisa Raffauf, Dyersville; delegate to the national convention, Miss Jane Garrard, Davenport. Des Moines was selected as the next meeting place.

Dies Next Day.

Des Moines.—After having received fatal injuries in the Coaldale mine Tuesday afternoon, James Spevack, 30, mule driver, walked to his home, several hundred rods distant. The terrific strain of this effort may have been the cause of his death thirty hours later. Spevack died at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening. He had been caught between the end of his car and a prop in the mine when his mule ran away. Peritonitis, caused by a rupture of the intestine, caused his death.

Straighten the Nishnabotna.

Council Bluffs.—By a majority of one vote, the board of supervisors acting as a drainage board, voted to establish the Nishnabotna drainage district. The project contemplates the straightening of the winding Nishnabotna river by means of a drainage ditch, which will cross the current of the turbulent stream eighty-one times.

College Trustees Elected.

Marshalltown.—At the thirty-fifth annual session of the Iowa State Christian conference, at LeGrand, trustees of Palmer college, the state denominational school, were elected in the persons of Rev. A. C. Grafton, Orient; Mrs. A. E. Trine and M. A. Gettis, LeGrand; Rev. L. E. Follansbee, Des Moines, and A. N. Benge, Winterset.

Needle Taken From Arm.

Forest City.—A needle an inch and a half in length was removed from the arm of L. J. Nelson, county auditor of this county, which he thinks has been in his body for some years.

GOT TO THE CAUSE

And Then All Symptoms of Kidney Trouble Vanished.

C. J. Hammonds, 517 S. Hill St., Pa Scott, Kansas, says: "I was operated on for stone in the kidney but not cured and some time after was feeling so badly that I knew that must be another stone that would have to be cut out. I decided to use Doan's Kidney Pills and the kidney action improved right away. Large quantities of sediment and stony particles passed from me and finally the stone itself, part dissolved, but still as big as a pea. When it disappeared all symptoms of dizziness, rheumatism and headaches have gained about 50 pounds since and feel well and hearty."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

ASK FATHER.

Clergyman—What would your father say if he saw you digging for worms on Sunday?

Willie—I don't know; but I know what he'd say if I did not dig for them. That's him fishing over there."

Ate a Chick with Big Eyes.

A trainman is telling an incident that occurred on a Mohawk & Malone train up in the woods the other day. The train was standing on a siding waiting the arrival and passing of another train when an Italian walked through the coach, his hands crossed on his stomach and his head waggling from side to side in a doleful manner.

"What's the matter, John?" some one inquired.

"Oh, me sick—me sick as dev," replied the man, rolling his head still more distressingly and continuing the rubbing of his stomach.

"Sick? Well, what you been eating?" asked the sympathetic passenger.

"Eata de chick with the big eyes," responded John, as his groans increased.

John had killed an owl the night before and it didn't agree with him.—Utica Observer.

A Man of Means.

Stern Parent—Ethel, young Fledley gave me to understand he was a man of means when he asked for your hand.

Ethel—He is a man of means, father.

Stern Parent—But he only makes $1,000 a year.

Ethel—Well, he means to make more.

Viewpoints.

Poet—Isn't it a shame the way those vandals are blasting away the beautiful Palisades?

Business Friend—I should say not. Why, that was the finest place in the world to paint patent medicine ads.—Puck.

"Good"

at Breakfast, Lunch or Supper

Delicious

Post Toasties

A new dainty of pearly white corn, by the makers of Postum and Grape-Nuts.

Toasties are fully cooked, rolled into thin wafers and toasted a crisp, golden-brown.

Ready to eat direct from the box with cream or good milk. The exquisite flavour and crisp tenderness delights the most fastidious epicure or invalid.

"The Taste Lingers"

Popular pkg. 10c.

Large Family size 15c

Sold by Grocers

HER INFINITE VARIETY

by BRAND WHITLOCK.

ILLUSTRATIONS BY RAY WALTERS

COPYRIGHT 1907 BY BOBBS-MERRILL CO.

SYNOPSIS.

nator Morley Vernon's visit with his ree was interrupted by a call from political boss at the state capital. h regretted it, the girl more than he, use she had arranged to attend a er that evening with him. She said yearned for a national office for him. Vernon's desk in the senate he found ed rose, accompanied by a plea for rage for women. He met the au- ress, pretty Miss Maria Greene of cago, who proposed to convert him voting for house resolution No. 19. Greene secured Vernon's promise to for the suffrage resolution. He also d her by convincing others. He took king to the fair suffragette. Miss one consulted with the lieutenant-gov- . Vernon admitted to himself that suffragette had stirred a strange feel- within him. He forgot to read his ree's letter. Vernon made a great ech in favor of suffrage, aided by ices from Miss Greene. The resolution made a special order. Vernon was husiastic on the prospects for the res- tion. He was much in Miss Greene's pany. Vernon neglected thoughts of elia. He took Miss Greene driving and out plans for the success of the reso- ion. Vernon's speech caused a great spaper sensation. He was being neg- ted by Amelia, who had not answered letter.

CHAPTER VIII.—Continued.

Vernon was of this crowd, moving m one group to another, smoking, ghing, talking. His heart may have en a little sore at the thought of melia's strange neglect of him, but e soreness had subsided until now it s but a slight numbness which he uld forget at times, and when he did ink of it, it but gave him resolution play the game more fiercely.

He found it pleasant as he threaded s way through the crowd to halt sen- ors as he met them and say:

"Well, the woman suffrage resolu- n comes up to-morrow. You'll be r it, of course?"

It gave him such a legislative and tesmanlike importance to do this. be was going leisurely about this est, testing some of the sensations a parliamentary leader, Cowley, e correspondent of the Courier, ac- sted him, and, showing his teeth in at odd smile of his, asked if he red to say anything about the reso- ion.

"Only that it comes up as a special der in the morning, and that I have doubt whatever of its adoption by e senate."

"Have you assurances from—"

"From everybody, and every assur- nce," said Vernon. "They're all for Come and have a cigar."

They went over to the cigar stand, d when they had lighted their cigars owley said:

"Let's go out for a little walk; I ay be able to tell you something that ill interest you."

CHAPTER IX.

Vernon was glad enough of a breath the evening air, and they went own the steps to the sidewalk. Along e curbstone many men had placed hairs and in these cool and quiet ed- es of the brawling stream of politics ey joked and laughed peacefully. ixth street stretched away dark and viling. Vernon and Cowley turned outhward and strolled along com- nionably. The air was delicious aft- the blaze of the hotel; the black ade of a moonless night was restful; eir cigars were fragrant.

"I've just got hold of a story," be- an Cowley, after they had enjoyed e night for a moment in silence. 'I've just got hold of a story—" he oke, of course, as always, from the lached standpoint of a newspaper an, "which you ought to know."

"What is it?" asked Vernon.

"Porter and Braidwood are against our resolution." Cowley spoke these mes in a tone that told how futile y opposition would be. "And right and his fellows are against it, o," he added.

"Nonsense," said Vernon.

"Well, you'll see," replied Cowley.

"But they told me—"

"Oh, well, that's all right. They've hanged in the last day or two."

"Why?"

"Well, they say it's risky from a arty standpoint. They think they already have all the load they want to arry in the fall campaign. Besides, hey—"

"What?"

"They say there's no demand for such a radical step, and so see no reason for taking it."

Vernon laughed.

"All right," said Cowley in the careless tone of one who has discharged a duty. "Wait till you see Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop land in here to-morrow."

"Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop!" Vernon stopped still in the middle of the sidewalk and turned in surprise and fear to Cowley. Cowley enjoyed the little sensation he had produced.

"But they were all for it," Vernon muttered.

"Oh, well, you know they never took the thing very seriously. Of course they passed it in the house just to line up old man Ames for the appropriation bill. They didn't think it would amount to anything."

"Yes, I know—but Maria Burley Greene—"

"Well, she's a pretty woman; that's all."

"You bet she is," said Vernon, "and she'll be down here again to-morrow, too."

"Will she?" said Cowley, eagerly, with his strange smile.

"Yes—but, look here, Charlie!" Vernon exclaimed, "don't you go mixing me up with her, now, understand?"

"Oh, I understand," said Cowley and he laughed significantly.

When Vernon reached the hotel he set to work in earnest. He tramped about half the night, until he had seen every senator who could be found. He noted a change in them; if he did not find them hostile he found many of them shy and reluctant. But when he went to his room he had enough promises to allay his fears and to restore, in a measure, his confidence, and he fell asleep thinking of Maria Greene, happy in the thought that she would be there with her charms to offset the social influence of Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop.

CHAPTER X.

Vernon went down to breakfast the next morning wearing the new summer clothes his tailor had sent to him from Chicago the day before. He had a flower in his buttonhole; a red rose, indeed, showing his colors for the final triumphant day.

The rotunda of the hotel, swept of the litter of the night before, was clean and cool, and the morning air of a perfect day came in refreshingly at the open doors. The farmer members, confirmed in the habit of early rising, were already sauntering aimlessly about, but otherwise statesmen still slumbered, tired out by their labors of the night before.

Vernon, in the nervous excitement which arouses one at the dawn of any day that is to be big with events, had risen earlier than was his wont. He hastened into the dining room, and there, at the first table his eye alighted on, sat Maria Burley Greene. She saw him at once, for she faced the door, and she greeted him with a brilliant smile. With springing step he rushed toward her, both hands extended in his cagerness. She half rose to take them; their greeting silenced the early breakfasters for an instant. Then he sat down opposite her and leaned over with a radiant face as near to her as might be, considering the width of the tablecloth and the breakfast things between.

"And so you're here at last!" he exclaimed.

His eyes quickly took in her toilet; remarkably fresh it was, though it had been made on the Springfield sleeper. It gave none of those evidences of being but the late flowering of a toilet that had been made the night before, as do the toilets of some ladies under similar circumstances. She wore this morning a suit of brown, tailored faultlessly to every flat seam and a little turban to match it. Beside her plate lay her veil, her gloves, and a brass tagged key. And her face, clear and rosy in its rich beauty, was good to look upon. The waiter had just brought her strawberries.

"Send John to me," said Vernon to the waiter. "I'll take my breakfast here. May I?" He lifted his eyes to Miss Greene's.

"She'll Be Down Here Again To-Morrow, Too."

"Surely," said she, "we'll have much to discuss."

"And so you're here again at last," repeated Vernon, as if he had not already made the same observation. He laid, this time, perhaps a little more stress on the "at last." She must have noted that fact, for she blushed, red as the strawberries she began to turn over with a critically poised fork.

"And did you come down alone?" Vernon went on.

"No, not exactly," said Miss Greene. "Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop, and, I believe, several—"

"Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop!"

"I think," said Miss Greene, "that she sits somewhere behind." There was a twinkle in the eyes she lifted for an instant from her berries.

Vernon scanned the dining room. There was Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop, in all her—and yes, beside her, sheltered snugly under her all-protecting wing, was Amelia Ansley! They were at a long table, Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop at the head, and with them half a dozen women, severe, and most aggressively respectable. They sat—all of them—erect, pecking at their food with a distrust that was not so much a material caution as a spiritual evidence of their superiority to most of the things with which they were thrust in contact every day. Their hats scarcely trembled, such was the immense propriety of their attitudes; they did not bend at all, even to the cream.

Vernon, who was taking all this in at a glance, saw that Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop was severer than he had ever imagined it possible for women to be—even such a woman as she. He would not have been surprised had he suddenly been told that her name had acquired another hyphen; certainly her dignity had been rehyphenated. There she sat, with her broad shoulders and ample bust, her arms jeopardizing the sleeves of her jacket.

It was the most impressive breakfast table he had ever seen. It might have given him a vision of the future, when he should have secured for women all their civil and political rights, and the nation had progressed to female lieutenant generals, who would be forced at times to dine in public with their staffs. But he had no such vision, of course; the very spiritual aversion of those women to such a thought would have prevented it, occultly.

In point of fact, his regard in an instant had ceased to be general and had become specific, having Amelia for its objective. She sat on the right of her commander, a rather timid aide; and she seemed spiritually to snuggle more closely under her protecting shadow with each passing moment. She seemed to be half frightened, and had the look of a little girl who is about to cry. Her gray figure, with its hat of violets above her dark hair, was, on the instant, half pathetic to Vernon. She sat facing him, her face downcast.

There was no conversation at that table; it was to be seen at a glance indeed that among those ladies there would be need for none, all things having been prearranged for them. Vernon noted that Amelia seemed to him more dainty, more fragile than she had ever been before, and his heart surged out toward her. Then she raised her eyes slowly, and held him, until from their depths she stabbed with one swift glance, a glance full of all accusation, indictment and reproach. The stab went to his heart with a pain that made him exclaim. Then perceiving that the complicating moments were flying, he rose hastily, and with half an apology to Miss Greene, he rushed across the dining room.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

A Handy Library.

Many of the new books come out in serial form in the magazines and papers. Cut out the installments as they appear and glue them together—book fashion, if from a magazine, or in one long strip if taken from a newspaper. Take a long, stout envelope, paste the name of the story on the back, fold the sheets or strips of clippings and place in the envelope. This is a book which takes only a small space on the shelves, and the name is easily seen from the outside. These envelope books are invaluable for sick people, as frail hands are not tired by holding a light slip of paper when it would be impossible to hold a heavy book. As a bit of cheer for all invalids they might be aptly termed the sunbeam library.—Housekeeper.

ARTIFICIAL LIGHT FOR BIRDS

Lengthens Their Day, Giving Them More Time for Feeding.

Winter has always proved a trying time for rare and delicate birds in the zoological gardens. One interesting theory has been advanced, that owing to the long nights in these latitudes in winter the poor birds do not feed long enough during the day to "keep body and soul together." In the old insect house some good was effected by inducing the birds to feed before dawn with the aid of a powerful motor lamp which was placed there an hour in the winter.

In the new small birdhouse, says the London Daily Mail, an elaborate incandescent gaslight installation has just been completed. It is controlled from outside and at six o'clock in the morning a watchman switches on the lights.

Immediately a chorus of songs breaks out from the aroused birds which start breakfast immediately. This extra feeding time has already produced good results in the shape of improved condition of the birds of paradise, mynahs and other rare tropical birds in the house.

Oil Lamps Brighter Than Electric Light.

Probably one of the most wonderful as well as useful of modern inventions is that of a New York scientist who has just secured from the Government protection on a lamp burner, which by converting the oil into hydro-carbon gas, burning on a mantle, gives an eighty candle power light with less oil consumption and without carbonizing the mantle or overheating the lamp. It can be fitted to any lamp and the wick lasts a lifetime. There is absolutely no danger, no odor and no smoke. The Union Light Co., of New York City, have acquired the selling rights of this burner, which is called the "Herzog," after the inventor, and, we understand, are making a special discount to introduce it into each township with a view of securing a local representative.

SEEMED APPROPRIATE TO HER

Wife of Sick Man Thought She Had Reason for Appealing to Locomotive Works.

One day last winter a feeble Irish woman called upon us for aid. The case sounded urgent, so I went with her at once. Everything was just as she had stated. Her husband was very ill, she was too old and feeble to work, their children were dead, there was no fire and their only food was bread which their neighbors, almost as poor as they, had given them. I asked her why she had not come to us before and she replied that she had appealed to the church and to several individuals without success.

"Thin," she went on, "oi wint to th' big place 'round the strate." The only "big place" near was a plant for the manufacture of steam engines, and I wondered.

"But what made you go to the locomotive works?" I asked.

"Well, ma'am, shure an' ain't me old man got locomotive taxes?"—New York Telegram.

Dodging Responsibility.

"Why should a man pay rent when he can own his own home?" said the thrifty citizen.

"I don't know," answered Mr. Meekton, "unless it's because you'd rather have your wife speak her mind to the landloard than to you when the place gets run down."

Certainly Not.

Hewitt—It isn't fair on the face of it.

Jewitt—What isn't?

Hewitt—A brunette.

DON'T USE IMITATION BLUE.
Use genuine RUSS BLUE. It preserves clothes and makes them white as snow. 5c.

Pride sometimes has to go before people fall in love.

Do You Feel Run Down?

If so, you are an easy victim of disease. You can avoid danger if you build up your system with the natural strength-giver—which helps your body do its own building up. It puts the whole digestive system in a perfect condition. Regulates the stomach, imparts new vigor and health to the tissues.

DR. D. JAYNE'S TONIC VERMIFUGE

Your Druggist has it.

Two sizes, 50c and 35c

Des Moines Directory

THRESHERMAN'S SUPPLIES Oils, Belting, Packing, Hose, Steam and Water Fittings, Pipe, etc., for the Factory, Farm or Home. Write, Phone or Telegraph your orders to THE GLOBE MACHINERY & SUPPLY CO., 205-207 W. Court Ave., Des Moines, Iowa.

FREE MUSIC For the names of five musical friends, who buy music, we will send you one piece of music free and our catalogue.
EARLY MUSIC HOUSE, Des Moines, Iowa.

KODAKS The only complete line in the state. Amateur finishing done by experts. Bromide enlarging. Send for free booklet—Kodak on the Farm.
Des Moines Photo Materials Co.

"CAPITAL CITY" "BLUE SHIELD"
ROOFING
Ask your dealer. If he hasn't it write us.
CARR & ADAMS CO., Des Moines, Ia.
Manufacturers and Jobbers of the Best of Everything in Millwork.

Machinery Machine Shop and Foundry. Largest stock of used machinery in Iowa. Engines, Boilers, Steam Pumps, Belting, Shafting, Hangers, etc., bought and sold.
American Iron Works, 213-222 E. First St., Des Moines, Iowa.

HAIL INSURANCE
Now is the time to expect hailstorms. Protect yourself by insuring your crops. Secure the best protection by seeing our local agent, or write the Home Office for full particulars as to taking out a policy. Reliable Agents Wanted.
The Mutual Hailstorm Insurance Ass'n of Iowa
C. V. Stanley, Sec'y Des Moines Iowa

Are You Going to PAINT ?

It pays to keep your buildings well painted, and when you paint it pays to use the best you can get. We handle the best in

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, etc. etc.

Call and see us and get our prices.

Washing Machines

We handle some of the best made. Call and see the

"Quicker Yet"

The best place to buy

Hardware & Groceries

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA

HELLO THERE

Where are you going? I'm going to H. Lau & Son. They handle all kinds of farm implements, Port Huron threshers also the Aultman & Taylor machinery, the 20 Century and Appleton manure spreader, McKinnon and Clinton wagons, Anchor and Velie buggies, Ohio and Kingman cultivators, stirring and gang plows, the open mould board sulky plows the lightest draft, Towers cultivators, Imperial and Challenge wind mills, hog fencing, barb wire, smooth wire gates, pumps and piping of all kinds, feed mills and the international gas engines from 1 to 40 H. P., Milwaukee mowers, binders, Dane bay loaders and buckers, nails and fence staples, wind mills and pump repairing on short notice, the sharpless cream separator the best made today, the Crack a-jack line of samples for tailor made suits.

In the Household—As Hygeno is regularly used by thousands as a household remedy, disinfectant, germicide and insecticide the greatest cleanliness is exercised in its manufacture. For sale here.

H. Lau & Son.

ARE YOU LOOKING

For something new in the Drug, Jewelery, Book, Stationery, Musical, China or Glassware line? If so, come to our store. We have what you are looking for.

Our Drug Department is complete in every particular. A full line of standard Patents. Special attention given to family recipes & Physicians' Prescriptions

Edison Phonographs with a large repertoire of records in the standard and popular class.

China and Glassware. Genuine hand painted. Fancy Lamps in all the styles.

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

FIFTH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Twenty-eight Finish Course in the Rural Schools of Hancock County

PROGRAM SATURDAY

The Fifth Annual Commencement exercises of the public schools of Hancock County will be held at the court house in Garner on Saturday morning, June 19th, at ten o'clock. The following is the program:

Music.
Invocation— Rev. S. M. McConnell.
Music.
Recitation—Eva A. Wagner.
Recitation—Harry L. Hickok.
Music.
Address—Hon. A. C. Ripley,
Music.
Address—Hon. John Hammill.
Presentation of Diplomas.
Music—"America."

The following are the names of those who comprise the class of 1909:

Harry L. Hickok
Eva A. Wagner
Vera Fern Hickok
Martha Laura Hawley
Alice Ernestine Perrigo
Nora Jane Eliason
Ina Yeakel
Beate Henrietta Ahrens
Nettie M. Flint
Clara E. Durant
Jesse Frank Keraus
Ethel Johnson
Milton John Mertz
Daisy Lewis
Olga A Jacobson
Carrie V. Zeigler
Floy Lucile Daniels
Eleanora C. Fredrickson
Rose Dallman
Sarah Murray
Mabel Bushman
Henry Orthel
Joseph Henry Lloyd
Clarissa Rosabelle Peterson
Walter William Dirksen
Anna Orthel
Lena Dallman
Rose Evelyn Gifford

ELL CENTER

Special Correspondence:

Miss Mae Yohn visited several days last week with Forest City friends

Hod Lawhorn and wife and Miss Hazel were at the Lake Sunday.

Roy Kimball, of Clear Lake, spent Sunday with friends here.

Fred Haupt has erected a windmill on his Ell Center farm.

Jim Young, the veterinery of Garner, was in this neighborhood last Friday

Ira French and family were fishing at the lake Sunday.

Chronic Rheumatism

This is the variety of rheumatism that usually attacks the larger joints, knees, hips and shoulders. It is aggravated by cold and damp weather, and for this reason a man afflicted with it can often foretell changes in the weather. Chamberlain's Liniment applied freely and with vigorous rubbing relieves the pain and makes sleep and rest possible. It will also effect a cure, but will not prevent the recurrence of the disease. For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Trouble Makers Ousted

When a sufferer from stomach trouble takes Dr. King's New Life Pills he's mighty glad to see his dyspepsia and indigestion fly, but more he's tickled over his new, fine appetite, strong nerves healthy vigor, all because stomach, liver and kidneys now work right, 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

New Clothing

Come in and pick out that New Suit for

JULY 4th...

You can pick from all the latest styles with Cuffs and Pocket Flaps, in all the new shades:

Elephant Shade
Olive Brown
Fancy Tan
Fancy Blue
Oxford Grey
Many Blacks

The style is right—The price is right. It's time to buy, so Get Busy.

Arthur Wellemeyer

Where your Dollar does its duty.

GREATEST REDUCTION on TRIMMED HATS

Some at Cost and Some Below Cost

see our line of Pattern Hats and Trimmed Hats. Nice line of headwear for the Children. We have the best assortment ever shown in Klemme or the surrounding towns. Don't buy until you have seen our display.

Children's Hats, Caps and Hoods regardless of Cost.

A fine line of Corsets. Also Hair Rolls, Ladies' Waists, Collars, etc.

MRS. J. JOSTEN.

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile. both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

Buy Your SCREENS NOW

The Flies Will Soon be Here

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, Agent

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

EMME MARKET.

.....	60 to 65c
.....	48 to 50c
.....	80 to 100
.....	55 to60 c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	6.50 to 7.00
.....	3.00 to 6.00

CAL NEWS

uits at Kluckhohn's.

enry Beier is on the farm for rent. Apply

n. 46tf

and Zetta Hyde were Garner Sunday.

est line of candies in luckhohn's. 45tf

aumgartner went to onday and got—back.

erton was a pleasant
his den last Thursday.

Bloom and H. C. Lau
ed a car of hogs Sun-

Kluckhohn was a vis-odell one evening last ses Schuldt and Lau tors at Garner last

Mr. and Mrs. Char-
rs. Friday, June 11, a issen returned home

y from an extended
af, Iowa.

Mann was perambulat-
the streets of the ies" Friday.

Allen is busy this week
the cement walk in e drug store.

ank is re-painting and improving his resi-ross the street from lives.

Lemon and little son
Mrs. A. B. Shafer
Rake, Iowa, Thurs-visit with relatives.

L. Sage left last Frirner where she again ge of the Garner
ich was opened to the nday morning.

Bloom was at Dows eturning Monday. He trip by team and ale covered the ground
ime, he says it is a

Mrs. Edward Weisast Monday for their Fenton, Iowa. The visit them each week
hem in touch with afd around Klemme.

hink of buying a rug you to look over my ch consists of Wilton
Axminsters, Saxony
rs, Colonial Velvets
els made in sizes 6 x 9,
6, 9 x 12 and larger.
rugs G. F. Schuler.

" Nissen, the hard
the force of the Forummit, visited here at of his mother over
He called at this prin-ay morning. "Spider" to a full fledged print
asty little ink dauber
ast saw him

nt on our first page
a lengthy communica-
"Oregon Bill." Lack
d space does not per-nting the whole let as we would like to do we tried to pick out the most interesting
here the stars (*) ap-omitted some "Bill"
writes a dandy letter.

Read Ell Bros. ad on the first page.

Found—A pair of spectacles. Call at State Savins Bank.

Ell Bros. shipped another car of eggs to Chicago last Saturday.

For a chunk of good cold ice call at Bloom's elevator or on G. R. Waterman. 44tf

Miss Ely, of Belmond, was here yesterday giving instruction to her class in music.

Try Kluckhohn's ice cream soda with crushed fruit and you will become a regular customer.

I have just added to my stock a nice line of Lace Curtains at 75c up to $6.00 a pair at G. F. Schuler's. tf

F. J. Wenck and M. L. Parker were at Waterloo, Iowa, last Thursday and Friday, attending the bankers convention.

Morris Day returned to Klemme Saturday, after spending a few days at Fort Dodge attending the G. A. R. encampment.

New cement walk will also be built in front of Kirkwood's restaurant. The old walk has been torn up and the gravel foundation is being put in.

Make easy money at home corresponding for newspapers; experience unnecessary. Send stamp for particulars. Empire Press Syndicate, Middleport, N. Y. 45-3

Mr. and Mrs. John Bachman, who have both been sick with typhoid fever, have again been seen on our streets, which is a source of satisfaction to their many friends.

We printed bills yesterday announcing a dance to be held at the Klemme opera house on Friday evening, June 18. Good music and a good time. The bills say everybody is invited.

As you will notice by an ad in this paper, Britt is going to make the eagle scream this year on July 3rd. Plan to celebrate in Britt, where they always show their visitors a good time.

News is an awfully scarce article this week. The weather is fine and the farmers are all busy plowing corn. It is very quiet in town, but every day of sunshine is worth hundreds of dollars to good old Iowa.

If you want to buy anything or if you have anything to sell, you can't reach the buyer or seller any easier or cheaper than by inserting a small ad in the Times. The cost is small and results are sure.

Today is the day that a total eclipse of the sun is scheduled to appear, visible in all portions of the United States except in the extreme southern. The eclipse will begin in this section at 6:10 in the evening and will continue until after sunset. At the time of the disappearance of Old Sol, the moon will obscure about one-half of his area. Today is also the big Woodmen picnic day at Belmond.

A Thrilling Rescue

How Bert R. Lean, of Cheny, Wash. was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not help me. Then I went to California, but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me and now I am as well as ever." For lung trouble, bronchitis, coughs and colds, asthma, croup and whooping cough its supreme, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Ice cream sodas, sundaes, and all kinds of cool refreshing drinks at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

Obituary

Carolina Berg, nee Schwichtenberg, was born December 24, 1862, near Elkport, Iowa, and died June 12, 1909, in West Grove, Iowa, as the result of apoplexy of the brain.

On June 19, 1884, she was joined in marriage to Rev. Wm. Berg, and for nearly twenty-five years she shared with him the joys and hardships of the ministry. She was reared in a Christian home and from early childhood attended the Sunday School and church services, thus becoming acquainted with Christian teachings. she was converted and joined the church in her youth.

Her gentle, quiet, patient disposition was a marked characteristic. With her cheerful manner she made friends everywhere. Prayer and the reading of the word of God were her anchorage. She delighted in German hymns and Christian literature. Though her death came suddenly and unexpectedly, we have all reason to believe that she was ready for the final summons.

After a service in the church in West Grove, of which her husband is pastor, the remains were brought to Klemme for burial. Services were held in the German M. E. church Monday afternoon and interment was made in the Klemme cemetery. The deceased leaves her husband, one son, her aged mother, one brother, and one sister, and a large circle of friends and relatives.

German M. E. Church Items

Camp meeting begins this evening and continues until Monday noon.

Emelia Lenz and Anna Griewe are attending the teachers' institute at Garner this week.

Mrs. Peck of Garner was a visitor in Germantown with Mrs. Tanner the first of the week.

Lydia and Edna Schuidt returned Monday evening from their trip to Clayton county.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Weisbrod departed Monday for their future home near Fenton, Iowa.

The Children's Day programs last Sunday were short, yet were listened to with interest.

Mrs. Levi Klotzbach, of Beulah, Iowa, is visiting her parents and will attend the camp-meeting.

Benj. Schlei came down from northern Minnesota to be present at the marriage of his sister Della.

H. Brockmeyer and wife, of Colesburg, arrived here Sunday morning to attend the funeral of Mrs. Berg.

Carl Albright starts on a long tour this week through the western and southern states. He will be gone several months.

Wm. Kulper and wife, of Waterloo, attended the Weisbrod-Schlei wedding last week and spent a few days with their relatives.

Ella Griewe and Lurena Wessel returned from college last week and have been exercising these days in the kitchen and garden.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tanner had their little boy christened last Sunday, naming him Luther Irving. Mr. and Mrs. George Schaper at the same time and place had their little boy baptized, Homer Stanley

James Schneider and wife, of Froelich, Iowa, arrived last week to visit friends and look after their land interests. Mr. Schneider returned Saturday, while Mrs. S. is spending a few days with her people.

As to Publishing Council Proceedings

The following law was passed by the last legislature and goes into effect July 4th:

Sec. 1. Immediately following a regular or special meeting of the city or town council, the clerk shall, when so ordered by said council, prepare a condensed statement of the proceedings of said council, including a list of claims allowed, and from what funds appropriated, and cause the same to be published in one or more newspapers of general circulation published in said city or town, or by posting in one or more public places, as directed by said council.

Sec. 2. That the compensation allowed each newspaper for such publication shall not exceed one-third of the legal fee provided by statute for the publication of legal notices.—Ex.

Sold Bad Eggs---Pays Fine

A dispatch from Marshalltown to the Register and Leader says:

Because Dr. M. M. Evans, a leading physician of LeGrand and a prominent Iowa poultry fancier, sold twelve dozen eggs to C. M. Wheeler, a grocer of this city, and the eggs proved bad, a state pure food inspector, accompanied by Constable A Morse of this city, swooped down on Evans and arrested him on a charge of selling adulterated eggs.

Dr. Evans paid a fine of $25

(Continued on last page.)

CELEBRATE
the Fourth of July in Britt.

The Big Celebration of Hancock County this year will be held at

BRITT
on Sat. July 3

Good Speaking, Good Music and Other Patriotic Exercises

Two Good Bands
Grand Street Parade

Two Free Base Ball Games
and other free amusements all day.

$50 in Gold in Four Prizes to those who register.

Something Doing Every Minute from Sun-up until Midnight.

Come to BRITT
and have the best time of your life.

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures
See me when you want a
Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to night calls.

F. C. GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats, Canned goods and oysters in season. Highest cash price paid for hides. Home rendered pure lard a specialty.
We solicit your patronage.

RESTAURANT
DELICIOUS GOLDEN ORANGEADE
the latest and best cold drink, Try it.
Home made Ice Cream, Cones and Sundaes. Home made Bakery Goods.
Lunches and Meals at all hours.
A. Kirkwood & Son

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
Eyes Tested Free.

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
Call in

Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition
This year you can make the trip you have had in mind for so long—a trip to the Pacific Coast. Go now, while rates are low and routes arranged so you can see the most at lowest cost, including the great exposition at
SEATTLE, WASH.
June 1 to October 16, 1909
It covers an area of 250 acres, located on two beautiful lakes, overlooked by snow-capped mountains, and will interestingly exhibit the wonderful development and possibilities of Alaska and the countries of the Pacific. Very low fares daily during the summer. Let me tell you how comfortably and conveniently the trip is made
Thro' Scenic Colorado
AND
Yellowstone Park
VIA
Rock Island-Frisco Lines
Ask for descriptive folder.
L. O. TURGASEN, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

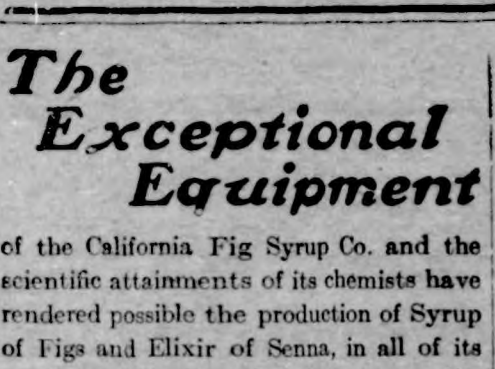
The Exceptional Equipment

of the California Fig Syrup Co. and the scientific attainments of its chemists have rendered possible the production of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, in all of its excellence, by obtaining the pure medicinal principles of plants known to act most beneficially and combining them most skillfully, in the right proportions, with its wholesome and refreshing Syrup of California Figs.

As there is only one genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna and as the genuine is manufactured by an original method known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only, it is always necessary to buy the genuine to get its beneficial effects.

A knowledge of the above facts enables one to decline imitations or to return them if, upon viewing the package, the full name of the California Fig Syrup Co. is not found printed on the front thereof.

WOMAN'S WORTH.



Wifey—I see by this paper that a man in America sold his wife for a shilling.

Hubby—Well, if she was a good one she was worth it.

Rabbinical Wit.

An English rabbi was asked if there was any weighty reason against having a clock in the synagogue. "By no means," was the reply. "Have your clock, but put it outside the building, and then you can tell how late you come to the service." Two rabbis were passing the beautiful synagogue in which one of them officiated. "How I envy you!" said the first. "You must be in a paradise." "Hold, friend!" the second explained. "In the original paradise there was only one serpent, but in this congregation are many of them."

Lack Means to Fight Tuberculosis.

Homer Folks of New York city recently stated before the National association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis that there are in the United States at the present time 75,000 cases of tuberculosis in advanced stages of the disease, every one of whom should be isolated in hospitals, but there are at the present time not anything like enough hospital beds for these cases in the country.

Stuck.

Gunner—Why in the world do the fellows around this club allude to old Foggman as "Mr. Automobile?" He's not swift, is he?

Guyer—Just the opposite. It's a polite way of calling him old "Stick in the Mud.'"

PRESSED HARD
Coffee's Weight on Old Age.

When prominent men realize the injurious effects of coffee and the change in health that Postum can bring, they are glad to lend their testimony for the benefit of others.

A superintendent of public schools in one of the southern states says:

"My mother, since her early childhood, was on inveterate coffee drinker, had been troubled with her heart for a number of years and complained of that 'weak all over' feeling and sick stomach.

"Some time ago I was making an official visit to a distant part of the country and took dinner with one of the merchants of the place. I noticed a somewhat peculiar flavour of the coffee, and asked him concerning it. He replied that it was Postum.

"I was so pleased with it, that after the meal was over, I bought a package to carry home with me, and had wife prepare some for the next meal. The whole family were so well pleased with it, that we discontinued coffee and used Postum entirely.

"I had really been at times very anxious concerning my mother's condition, but we noticed that after using Postum for a short time, she felt so much better than she did prior to its use, and had little trouble with her heart and no sick stomach; that the headaches were not so frequent, and her general condition much improved. This continued until she was as well and hearty as the rest of us.

"I know Postum has benefited myself and the other members of the family, but not in so marked a degree as in the case of my mother, as she was a victim of long standing." Read, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

TO MAKE TEST CASE

Limit of $200 on City Jobs Causes Trouble.

COURT WILL SETTLE MATTER

Mayor Wants Courts to Take Responsibility, and Thinks Decision Can be Had in Couple of Weeks.

Des Moines, Iowa, June 12.—Realizing that the city will be bound hand and foot in doing municipal work if it cannot perform jobs amounting to more than $200 except by contract, Mayor Mathis has offered a compromise measure in the way of a test case of the law, to Councilman MacVicar, whose department is the most affected.

The mayor has suggested that some piece of work, amounting to more than the statute limitation, be ordered by the city and that a case be started in good faith. He claims an opinion can be received from the district court in ten days or two weeks. If the district court holds the council is not restricted in the amount of work that can be done by day labor, as was the old board of public works, then he will continue to vote for the performance by the city of work amounting to more than $200, pending a supreme court decision. That will place the responsibility of possible illegal procedure on the court, and not on the city officials. But if it is found that the $200 limitation is applicable under the Des Moines plan, the mayor says he will refuse to vote for a continuation of the present method. Councilmen Hamery and Ash take the same stand.

Board on Water Ways Named.

Governor B. F. Carroll named the first state drainage and conservation commission that Iowa ever had, in accordance with the law passed by the recent legislature setting aside $5,000 for preliminary steps towards making Iowa rivers navigable. The commission is as follows:

Al. C. Miller of Des Moines, Dr. T. M. McBride of Iowa City, E. A. Burgess of Sioux City, Senator A. F. Frudden of Dubuque, Prof. W. H. Stevenson of Ames, J. W. Keerl of Mason City, L. W. Anderson of Cedar Rapids.

By people who are interested in improvement of Iowa waterways and the conservation of the state's natural resources, the creation of this board is regarded as the most important act of the legislature. The appropriation is too small however, to admit of the carrying out of the provisions of the act, which calls for river surveys, geological tests, forest preservation, use of water power, etc. A secretary, at $1,500 per year, is provided for. He will be elected probably when the board holds its first meeting in July.

Prosecutors Will Meet.

County Attorney Lawrence DeGraff of Polk county will be one of the principal speakers at the annual convention of the State Association of County Attorneys to be held in Marshalltown June 23 and 24. He will read a paper on "New Laws and Decisions Affecting County Attorneys and Their Duties."

The sessions of the county attorneys will end just at the opening of the state convention of the Iowa Bar association and a majority of the prosecutors will stay over and attend the meetings of the barristers.

River Threatens Damages to City.

With heavy rains in northern Iowa and with the Des Moines and Raccoon rivers rising rapidly, indications were that the lowlands of Des Moines will be entirely floodel and railroad traffic partially crippled.

The Des Moines river rose two inches an hour Thursday and at 10:30 o'clock the Locust street bridge gauge showed a stage of twelve feet and eight inches, a rise of eleven inches since 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Carroll Cancels a Date.

Owing to a slight attack of indigestion, Governor Carroll was unable to attend the meeting of Iowa bankers at Waterloo. He was dated to address the meeting and arrangements were made with J. D. Whisenand of Des Moines to read the governor's paper before the convention.

Des Moines Woman Wins.

Des Moines members of the Women's Relief corps are rejoicing over the election of Mrs. Marie L. Basham to the office of chief of the W. R. C. of Iowa at Fort Dodge. Mrs. Basham resides in Highland Park and is one of the most popular members of the order in Iowa.

General Byers has forwarded to Commissioner Wright a complete explanation of the new law passed by the recent legislature, forbidding discriminations in the purchase of milk, cream, butter, eggs or other produce. Commissioner Wright had asked the opinion because of the numerous requests for information as to the meaning of the law, which have been sent to him.

Mr. Byers' communication is as follows:

"The purpose of the act was to prohibit any person, firm, company, association or corporation doing business in this state and engaged in the business of buying milk, cream or butter fat for the purpose of manufacture, or of buying poultry, eggs or grain for the purpose of sale or storage, from destroying the business of a competitor or creating a monopoly by paying different prices in different parts of the state for the same grade and quality of the article purchased after making due allowance for the difference in transportation from the point of purchase to the point of manufacture, sale or storage. The thing prohibited by the act is the discrimination in price for an illegal purpose, viz., for the destroying of competition or the creating of a monopoly. The act itself, however, permits the paying of a different price in one place than is paid generally by the same person at different points throughout the state, provided the change in price is made in good faith to meet competition in a particular locality.

"The payment of a different price than that generally paid throughout the state for the same article, considering the difference in cost of transportation, by the indirect method of fraudulently reading the butter fat test is as clearly illegal and a violation of the act as though a different price were paid in the regular way, provided that this is done for the purpose of destroying the business of a competitor or creating a monopoly.

"The enforcement of this act is by section 5028-e of the supplement to the code, 1907, especially enjoined upon the county attorney and the attorney general.

"I conclude, therefore, that the only duty encumbent upon you in reference to this act is that which necessarily results from the nature of the act and its relation to your department.

"Considering that complaints for violation of this act will constantly be presented to your department, I suggest that you refer all such complaints to the county attorney of the county where the law is violated, and also to the department of justice."

Woman for Reformatory Head.

"If we could find a woman with executive ability for the head of the Mitchellville school we would prefer her to a man," declared Chairman John Cownie of the state board of control.

This was the first positive announcement that the board of control favors a woman as successor to Superintendent E. P. Fitzgerald, who has resigned. According to Mr. Cownie only a few women have applied for the position and the greatest difficulty confronting the board is to find a woman capable of managing the school and carrying on the good work done by Mr. Fitzgerald.

Mrs. Geo. Newman Falls Dead.

Mrs. George A. Newman, 60, wife of the adjutant general of the Iowa department of G. A. R., died in Fort Dodge of apoplexy.

Mrs. Newman went to Fort Dodge with her husband to attend the annual encampment of the Iowa department of G. A. R. For years she has taken an active part in the work of the Women's Relief Corps, and it was during the opening session of that organization that she was stricken. Mrs. Newman is survived by her husband and two sons. Funeral services were reld at Cedar Rapids.

Postal Receipts are Climbing.

Postal receipts for the month of May, as given out by John Ryan, the assistant postmaster, show another big increase as compared with former years.

Following are the figures:

May, 1909	$50,905.01
May, 1908	48,020.75
Gain (6 per cent)	$ 2,844.26

This is also one of the biggest increases for this season in many years.

Two More Ask Pardons.

Two new names have been added to the list of lifers, which the board of parole will consider for pardons at the July meeting. They are L. W. Watson, convicted of murder from Mills county in 1884, who has served twenty-five years of his sentence, and Byron Guinn, Lucas county, sent to the penitentiary eighteen years ago for one of the many murders in Iowa coal fields. Both men have good prison records.

SHOT BY CORPORAL

Corporal Lisle Crabtree Wounds Three Officers.

TRIES TO END OWN LIFE

Raymond Near Death, but Sergeant Washburn and Corporal Such Not Seriously Injured—Last Bullet in Own Body.

Des Moines, Ia., June 14.—Capt John C. Raymond, commanding officer of Troop B, Second United States cavalry, was shot and probably fatally injured in his office at Fort Des Moines by Corporal Lisle Crabtree of his own troop at noon Sunday. First Sergeant James H. Washburn and Corporal Elijah Such, who were in the room with Captain Raymond at the time, were also wounded, and Crabtree also shot himself just below the heart. He will probably survive.

Crabtree's attempt at wholesale murder was the result of an official reprimand by Captain Raymond for having over-stayed his leave from the post. He had been in Des Moines Saturday night and had arrived at the fort during the morning, too late to report before his leave of absence expired. Crabtree reported to his captain in response to a summons, declared that he understood his leave extended until 7:30 p. m. yesterday instead of 7:30 a. m., and his excuse was accepted.

Victims of Shooting.

Capt. John C. Raymond; shot in left side of neck, bullet ranging downward and striking spinal column, causing paralysis; condition critical.

First Sergt. James H. Washburn; shot through right hand and jaw; jaw bone broken; will recover.

Corporal Elijah Such; flesh wound in left arm; slight.

Corporal Lisle Crabtree; self-inflicted wound, in left breast, just below the heart; will probably recover.

Captain Raymond's Condition.

Early Monday morning it was stated by the surgeons at Mercy hospital that Captain Raymond's condition was not encouraging, but no immediate danger was anticipated. He experienced great pain last night. Surgeons will probably probe for the bullet which struck his spinal column.

Three Drown in Lake.

St. Louis, Mo., June 14.—Three men were drowned by the overturning of a rowboat on Creve Coeur lake, a resort 25 miles west of St. Louis. The corpses have not been identified.

OIL INSPECTORS ARE NAMED

Flags Fly at Half Mast and All Boston Pays Tribute to Beloved Leader.

Boston, Mass., June 14.—Under the gold dome of the auditorium of the South Congregational church, where for many years Edward Everett Hale broke the bread of life to his people, gathered the great Unitarian family of Boston to pay a last tribute to the leader of Unitarianism. At the same hour a host of friends and admirers of Dr. Hale gathered at the Park street Trinitarian church to listen to eulogies by clergymen of many creeds. Flags were floated at half mast by order of the city's chief executive.

The body was taken to the Forest Hill cemetery, where the burial services were strictly private.

Stop Collection of Tax.

Oklahoma City, Okla., June 14.—In the United States court of the Eastern district of Oklahoma at McAlester, Judge Ralph E. Campbell granted temporary injunctions restraining the county treasurers from collecting the last half of the 1908 taxes assessed against the Missouri, Kansas & Texas; Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe; Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, Fort Smith & Western, and the Midland Valley Railway companies.

Iowa Man Made a Trustee.

Rockford, Ill., June 14.—The Swedish Free church conference elected J. A. Hanson and J. C. Olson of Holdredge, Neb., W. C. Hundell of Omaha, Neb., Ernest Carlson of Boone, Ia., P. J. Princell and K. Newquist of Chicago, I. Nyholm of Minneapolis, A. A. Anderson of Eton, Colo., and Irving Haleen of Holcomb, Neb., trustees of the Swedish Biblical institute, which is to be removed from Chicago to Omaha.

Subway Planned.

Albia.—A $40,000 viaduct-subday is planned here.

LOOKED A LITTLE UNSTABLE

Body Servant of Gen. Mahone Doubtful of the Qualities of His Master's "Props."

Gen. Adalbert R. Buffington, at dinner in Madison, N. J., told a number of civil war stories.

"Gen. Mahone," he said, "was very thin. One cold and windy December morning in '64 he was taking a nap in his tent when his old colored servant, 'Uncle Davy,' tiptoed in, and, stumbling in the darkness, knocked down the general's folding cot and spilled him out on the frozen ground.

"Gen. Mahone jumped up furious, seized a scabbard and made for Davy ran. The general gave chase.

"Uncle Davy tore up hill and dale till he was pretty well out of breath; then he looked back over his shoulder at his master, who bounded after him on slender limbs, blue and thin, his long, while night shirt flattering in the chill morning.

"'Fo' de lan's sake, Mars' William!' the exhausted Davy yelled, desperately, 'yo' hain't trustin' yo'se'f in de wind on dem legs, is you?'"

AGONIZING ITCHING.

Eczema for a Year—Got No Relief Even at Skin Hospital—In Despair.

Until Cuticura Cured Him.

"I was troubled with a severe itching and dry, scrufy skin on my ankles, feet, arms and scalp. Scratching made it worse. Thousands of small red pimples formed and these caused intense itching. I was advised to go to the hospital for diseases of the skin. I did so, the chief surgeon saying: "I never saw such a bad case of eczema." But got little or no relief. Then I tried many so-called remedies, but I became so bad that I almost gave up in despair. After suffering agonies for twelve months, I was relieved of the almost unbearable itching after two or three applications of Cuticura Ointment. I continued its use, combined with Cuticura Soap and Pills, and I was completely cured. Henry Searle, Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 8 and 10, 1907."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Hard to Handle.

"How are you going to keep complaints from arising among consumers?"

"I don't know," answered Mr. Dustan Stax. "Consumers are mighty troublesome. Sometimes I think they take advantage of the fact that we can't get along without 'em in our business."

THAT BIG SPRINGS COUNTRY.
We offer for a short time 8,320 acres, the thing for a small colony, shallow water, on road. See it before buying.
NEWBERRY & LUSK, Big Springs, Tex.

Gladness is appreciated only by those who know what sadness is.

ASK YOUR OWN GROCER to give you RUSS BLUE. It will whiten your clothes and preserve your temper.

When a woman doesn't have her say it is because she is dumb.

YOUR BACKACHE WILL YIELD

To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Rockland, Maine.—"I was troubled for a long time with pains in my back and side, and was miserable in every way. I doctored until I was discouraged, and thought I should never get well. I read a testimonial about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and thought I would try it. After using three bottles I was cured, and never felt so well in all my life. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to my friends."—Mrs. WILL YOUNG, Columbia Avenue, Rockland, Me.

Backache is a symptom of female weakness or derangement. If you have backache, don't neglect it. To get permanent relief you must remove the root of the trouble. Nothing we know of will do this so safely and surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Cure the cause of these distressing aches and pains and you will become well and strong.

The great volume of unsolicited testimony constantly pouring in proves conclusively that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has restored health to thousands of women.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge.

WOMAN'S REALM

CONOMY IN DRESS

NTS OF ESPECIAL INTEREST TO BUSINESS WOMAN.

ments That Seem Expensive Really Are the Cheapest in the End—Important Essentials for Workaday Neatness.

would be absurd to make the ement that there are fashions de- ed especially for business women. woman who goes forth to wrest bread from the hands of strangers ot a species apart from the rest of ankind, but one with her sisters entitled to every little vanity for ch she can pay. But it is neces- to put the curb on this privilege actual business garments, for om has made a certain plainness rable for these.

is plainness is accomplished most by a coat and skirt suit of some hat and well-fitting gloves and boots. This model is by far the best to choose when only one business frock can be afforded, but it should be of excellent material and good make.

The shirtwaist bought for the office or store cannot be too good as far as its make and quality are concerned, for cheap waists wash badly, and no other garment gives so completely the look of inadequacy when it is the wrong thing.

Quite six wash bodices are necessary for workaday neatness, and the peter pan model, whose sleeves are somewhat though not greatly smaller than last year, is a good one to consider, especially when it is in stout linen, duck or pongee. A stock in golf design, of the shirt material, is a very smart and inexpensive neck finish for the business shirtwaist, and this comfortable and orderly neck fixing is becoming to most wearers.

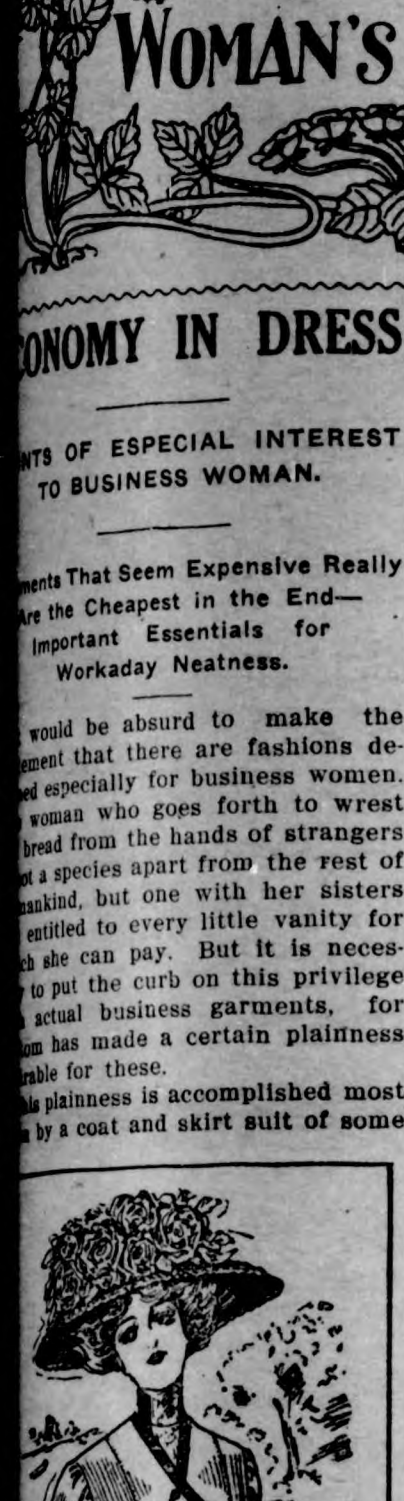
A hat which seems to be getting more notice this season than any other is the mushroom shape, which, when not of exaggerated size, with its compact trimmings provides a stylish headpiece for business wear. Some of the rough straw shapes in this model are very simply decked with flat bands of black velvet and close bunches of some fruit. The fruit trimmings will doubtless be run in the ground after a while, but meantime the gay cherries, and dusky plums, and dear, foolish little apples and gooseberries seem very charming.

Other neat hats may be of Cuban straw, with fringed scarfs of striped ruffia, belts and handbags of the same material going smartly with these. With the black dresses so much worn for business the raffia gives a fresh and new note when used in this way, and it will be really delightful with the pongee dresses later on.

As to the business woman's best bib and tucker, and the material for her workaday frock, with the stylish designs here shown, are good examples.

The cut shows a stunning model for a wool or wash business dress. The line of the diagonally fastened coat is repeated in the trimming of the skirt, and though a braid is here employed a stitched band of the gown stuff could readily effect the smart outlining. Black or dark blue serge, panama cloth, or brilliantine, with hercules braid, would be the best choices for this dress, which could be worn with the mushroom hat, a wide sailor or a flower trimmed shape. A black dress would be immensely smartened by a flower hat, but do not forget that the natural colored roses would be out of place for business wear. Then they have been almost entirely replaced by the faded flowers, whose unearthly tints, when properly combined, create an effect actually restrained.

A woman fond of elegance, and who suffers from summer heat, might have this dress of black, blue or brown pongee, in which case the parasol would be of the same material.



nning Model for Business Dress.

, which is always kept in good con- on with pressing and cleaning, and orn with a neat shirtwaist, trim

ST ADAPTED FOR NEGLIGEE.

te Swiss, Lace and Ribbon Used the Most Fashionable Makers of Costumes.

ven the most fashionable dress- ers lend their talents to the mak- of most attractive negligees of e swiss, lace and ribbon. This fabric has come into more favor the kind of garment one wears in s own room or for breakfast and heon with the family alone. The is fine and has a small dot, and negligee is usually made in two es, put together on one belt, ch is covered by a broad sash of red satin.

is is often high-waisted at back is finished at the left with a large tte and two long ends.

e neck is open, in V-shape, and hed with deep lace ruffles and a of satin at the back.

e tight elbow sleeves are finished deep lace ruffles and a bow of at the back.

ch negligees are cooler and er than those of silk or other ma- ls that do not wash.

High Canvas Shoes.

or those who like to wear high s during summer there are some rt canvas ones in white and tan. y are undoubtedly much cooler leather and in better taste for et wear than suede.

e brown ones are extremely good ing and will be worn a good deal tailored linens.

Buckles on Slippers.

e old-fashioned toe slipper with square gold or silver or bronze kle is most modish.

HAS MANY USEFUL PURPOSES.

Easily Made Work Case Valuable for a Variety of Constantly Used Household Implements.

One of those useful little work cases which always make such acceptable gifts may be seen in our sketch, and with a little care and ingenuity can easily be made by any one blessed with clever fingers. The outer case should be of strong silk or brocade, lined with wash-leather, and bound at the edges with narrow ribbon. Little wash-leather pockets are provided for the scissors, and will help to keep them bright and in good condition when not in use, and there are straps of ribbon arranged to hold bodkins, a button-hook, a stilletto and a thimble in the center, while other straps for holding packets of needles are provided on the flaps of either side. There is a larger flap at the top, which folds down over the other two, and is finally tied across with ribbon ends. This flap is furnished with several pieces of flannel, which serve the purpose of a needle-book

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

in Use For Over 30 Years

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

SHERLOCK HOLMES.

Tired Tom (sadly)—Ah, that patch tells me that my old pal, Plodding Pete has been this way. Poor old Pete!

Good Stroke of Business.

The £1 note is not the smallest issued by the bank of England. By mistake a note of the value of one penny was made and issued in 1828. It was in circulation for many years, a source of annoyance to the cashiers in making up their accounts. At length the holder of it brought it to the bank and after considerable argument persuaded the authorities to give him £5 for it.

A Rare Good Thing.

"Am using ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE, and can truly say I would not have been without it so long, had I known the relief it would give my aching feet. I think it a rare good thing for anyone having sore or tired feet.—Mrs. Matilda Holtwert, Providence, R. I." Sold by all Druggists, 25c. Ask to-day.

Among the Fighters.

"Has your pugilistic rival a longer reach than yours?"

"I don't know about the reach, but my vocabulary contains the longest words."

Try Murine Eye Remedy

For Red, Weak, Weary, Watery Eyes. Compounded by Experienced Physicians. Conforms to the Pure Food and Drugs Law. Murine Doesn't Smart. Soothes Eye Pain. Try Murine for Your Eyes.

Half Done.

"Your husband has merely fainted."

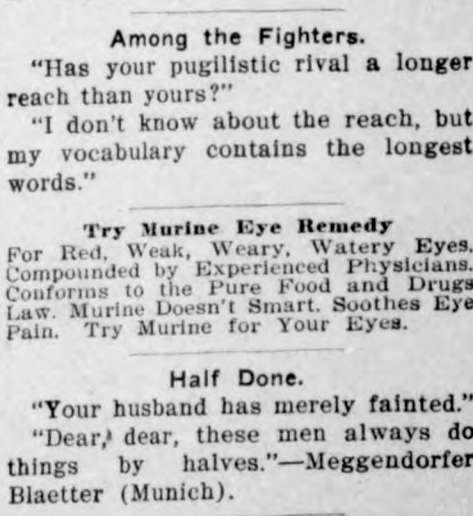
"Dear, dear, these men always do things by halves."—Meggendorfer Blaetter (Munich).

A cold on the lungs doesn't usually amount to much, but it invariably precedes pneumonia and consumption. Hamlins Wizard Oil applied to the chest at once will break up a cold in a night.

From the flower language: "If you wish for heartsease never look to Mary-gold."

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

The man who lives only for himself couldn't be in any smaller business.



SPEARMINT SPEARMINT SPEARMINT SPEARMINT SPEARMINT SPEARMINT SPEARMINT SPEARMINT SPEARMINT

DON'T FORGET THIS SPEAR

Then you'll be sure to get delicious real SPEARMINT that really helps digestion.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT PEPSIN GUM

THE FLAVOR LASTS

DON'T Wear Other Overalls When You Can Buy

OAK BRAND OVERALLS

JUST AS CHEAP

SOLD BY LEADING DEALERS EVERYWHERE

Made with the Greatest Care

Made of Best Materials

Made in Omaha by

Byrne & Hammer Dry Goods Co.

SICK HEADACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cured by these Little Pills.

They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature

Brent Good

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

Buy a Wabash Wagon

From your dealer or direct from our factory

40 styles and sizes for boys and girls of all ages from babyhood up, and larger Handy Wagons for men.

Illustrated price list FREE. WRITE FOR IT!

WABASH MANUFACTURING COMPANY

14 Mill St., Wabash, Indiana

CANCER CURED WITH OUT KNIFE OR BURNING PLASTERS

CURES GUARANTEED

REFERENCE AND CONSULTATION FREE

DR. H. NEVINS PEORIA ILL.

LIVE STOCK AND MISCELLANEOUS ELECTROTYPES

In great variety for sale at the lowest prices by WESTERN NEWSPAPER UNION, 73 W. Adams St., Chicago

This Scale on Approval

I want every man who runs a business principles to let me tell he needs a scale and why my 44 perience in selling to the con- a free trial freight paid plan originated makes me the man to buy from.

I have recently invented Pitless the BEST Steel Frame Wagon Scale which I sell at a low- er price than any other reliable pitless scale. I send it on approval. No money asked before satisfaction is shown. New compound beam and beam box free. Introductory discount on first scale. Let me send Scale on approval and free price list.

"JONES He Pays the Freight," 52 E St., Binghamton, N.Y.

SOUR STOMACH

"I used Cascarets and feel like a new man. I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia and sour stomach for the last two years. I have been taking medicine and other drugs, but could find no relief only for a short time. I will recommend Cascarets to my friends as the only thing for indigestion and sour stomach and to keep the bowels in good condition. They are very nice to eat."

Harry Stuckley, Mauch Chunk, Pa.

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken or Gripe. 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold in bulk. The genuine tablet stamped C C C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back. 926

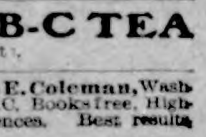
Saskatchewan Farm Lands

I have open prairie lands suitable for grain growing; none better in America. Also tracts in bluffy country for grazing or mixed farming. The richest soil on earth. These lands are on a new branch line and very low in price. Write for particulars.

JAMES ROBINSON, Wawota, Saskatchewan, Canada

Dr. McINTOSH celebrated Natural Uterine Supporter gives immediate relief. Sold by all surgical instrument dealers and leading druggists in United States and Canada. Catalog, price list and particulars mailed on application.

THE HASTINGS & McINTOSH TRUSS CO., 912 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., manufacturers of trusses and sole makers of the Genuine stamped "McIntosh" Supporter.



A Perfect Blood Purifier you get by buying A-B-C TEA At all Druggists.

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Books free. Highest references. Best results.

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

Rheumatism

Nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness.

Lame Shoulder.

This is a common form of muscular rheumatism. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely four times a day and a quick cure is certain.

Lumbago.

When muscular rheumatism attacks the muscles in the small of the back it is called lumbago. It is usually quite severe and every movement adds to the pain, and especially when one attempts to straighten up. No internal treatment is required. Keep quiet, as every movement aggravates the disease, and apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and you will soon be well again.

Sprains and Bruises are cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment.

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

(Continued from 5th page.)

and costs upon his plea of guilty. He denied, however, that he had any intention of selling eggs that were not fit for human consumption, and explained that the eggs became incubated by reason of their becoming damp in the cellar. Mold accumulated and this, with the sawdust in which they were packed, caused them to heat and spoil. The grocer and Dr. Evans both noticed that the eggs were heating when they were sold, and Evans instructed the grocer to let him know how many were bad. When they all showed up as unfit for food the state food commissioner at Des Moines was notified.

S. O. Van DeBogart, the inspector who investigated the case and caused Dr. Evans' arrest, says that other prosecutions may be expected, not only here but in other parts of the state, as the state commission has tired of trying to prevent the sale of bad eggs without causing arrests.

Women Who Are Envied

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

Had to Have Her Cigarettes.

Because the management of the hotel after a frantic but fruitless searching of the city, was unable to provide any of the peculiar brand of London cigarettes which she is accustomed to smoke and which she says are absolutely essential to her happiness, Mrs. George Wyndham, a wealthy and pretty young English woman, from exclusive Hyde Park, London, gave up her handsome apartments in the Hotel Plaza in New York. With her pretty and demure English maid she went to visit friends in Tuxedo park, where, she said, she would have no trouble in getting all of the cigarettes of the brand she so much desired, but of which she has been deprived.

At a Marathon Gait.

"Why did you give up your missionary labors so soon?"

"I found the chief's wife's cook book, and the first recipe started, 'To one fat missionary—' and then I started for

The Opera in History.

In one sense the opera is one of the oldest forms of entertainment, for its origin is to be found in the old Greek drama. In its modern sense, however, it dates from the year 1600, when Peri produced the first true Italian opera to grace the festivities of the marriage of Henry IV. of France and Maria de Medici. The work attracted great attention, and many Italian nobles figured in the cast. In France the opera was the outcome of the ballet and in England of the masque. Purcell is entitled to the honor of producing the first real English opera, although one of Ben Jonson's masques was set to music as early as 1617.

McCALL PATTERNS
Celebrated for style, perfect fit, simplicity and reliability nearly 40 years. Sold in nearly every city and town in the United States and Canada, or by mail direct. More sold than any other make. Send for free catalogue.

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
More subscribers than any other fashion magazine—million a month. Invaluable. Latest styles, patterns, dressmaking, millinery, plain sewing, fancy needlework, hairdressing, etiquette, good stories, etc. Only 50 cents a year (worth double), including a free pattern. Subscribe today, or send for sample copy.

WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS
to Agents. Postal brings premium catalogue and new cash prize offers. Address

THE McCALL CO., 238 to 248 W. 37th St., NEW YORK

Attention

PEOPLE!

Don't forget that the Gruetzmacher Bros. handle all kinds of stoves such as heaters, cook stoves and steel ranges.

Also a full line of hardware, groceries, flour and feed.

A complete line of implements also paints, oils and varnishes.

Rock and barrel salt. Barb wire and field fence.

Yours to please at the old stand,

Gruetzmacher Bros.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELL

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MED... LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE... Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEA... dy stem ar ment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to re... All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicine... detention from busines. Patients at a distance treated by... pe es. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or brea... ly. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for... sultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. ... to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men
The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES
Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without harmful instruments. ... full explain.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in ... causing nervous debility ... of the nervous system, etc., permanently ...

BLOOD POISON —That terrible ... its stages, cured to ...

Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, and ... private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few ... pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application. ... description of above ... effects and cure, sent sealed in plain ...

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MO...

RUPTURE, PILE

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEE...

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolute... and permanent. Write to or call... the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were af... Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia.
Silas C. Sweet, Des Moi...
E. C. Miller, Des Moine...
John H. Looby, Des Mo...

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to ... postage paid. This book ... much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimoni... Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to ... Write today—it will pay you.

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:40 p. m.
82 ..... 2:50 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:35 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

L. O. Turgasen, Agent

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

PATENTS

DESIGNS
TRADE-MARKS
AND COPYRIGHTS
OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"

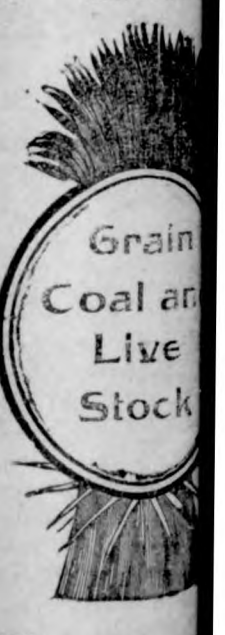
Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,

E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

H. C. L...

DEALER IN...



Klemme -

Elect... Bitte...

Succeed when everything... In nervous prostration ... weaknesses they are t... remedy, as thousands ha... FOR KIDNEY, LIV... STOMACH TRO... it is the best medicine ... over a druggist's co...

Just Dust it ...
HEALS Wire C...
HEALS Collar ... work.
HEALS Old Sor...
HEALS From ... Leaves No S...
At Druggists' or ... Money Back if N...
The RED STAR HEA... (25c. and 50c. Cans)

The Klemme Times.

VOLUME XIII. NUMBER 47 KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, JUNE 24, 1909. $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

ICE IS NICE AND COLD BUT IT MELTS AWAY. NICE COLD CASH IN THE BANK WILL GROW

PUT IT IN THE BANK FOR THEN IT WILL BE SAFE.

Create or Crumble?

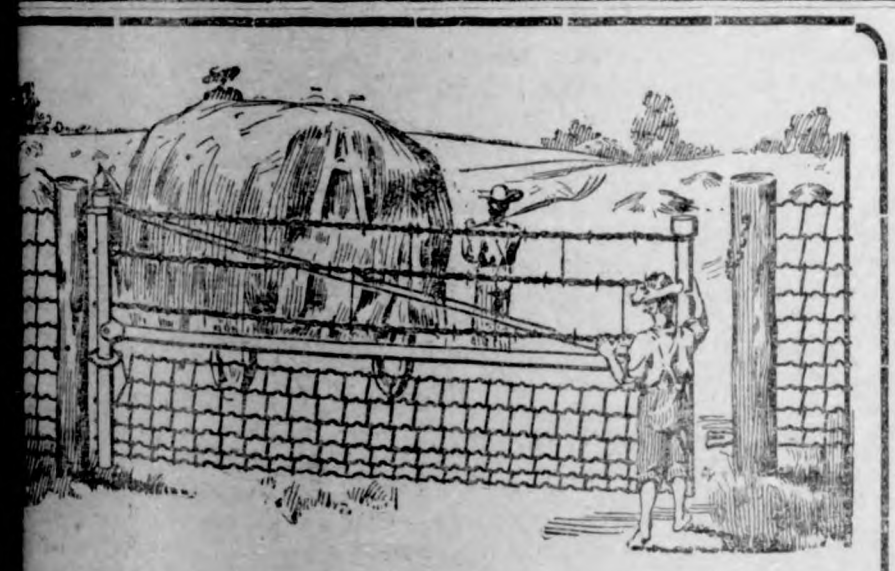
¶Every man should create a foundation for success before old age crumbles his earning powers.

¶A small savings account started today, NOW, will start you on the road to independence. The farther you travel on this road the less you will wish to turn aside.

¶Remember we are here to help you create during your Spring of life to lay aside a nest egg ere the Fall of life begins to crumble your earning power.

State Savings Bank.

Klemme - - Iowa



Iowa Gates are more than a convenience if women or children ever use them for being so simple they are very light and can easily be swung either way. The IOWA gate is made to last—no castings to break—no wearing parts—even the wires have galvanized stretchers to tighten them. Will not blow down, burn or rot out. Get prices.

J. H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, AGENT

KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J. W. WATERMAN

ELL CENTER

Special Correspondence:

The Kuskie sale Tuesday was well attended.

Agustus Baack has been working for Herman Barz.

Charley Kuskie visited with friends at Dows last week.

Miss Cora Lawhorn visited with Garner relatives last week.

Miss Norma Post visited with Mrs. Hod Lawhorn one day last week.

Miss Lela Haskin of Klemme spent the first of the week at Hod Lawhorn's.

Luke Wessels and sister Dirgie attended the dance at Klemme Friday evening.

Fred Schwartz, of Madison township, bought a valuable horse at the Kuskie sale.

The tilers on the Ingham farm drove to Kanawha Saturday and returned Monday.

Mrs. Myron Haskin of Klemme is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Tom Nelson, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Webner entertained their daughters, Mesdames Nelson and Haskins, last Sunday.

Fred Haupt and family, of German township, were looking over their farm in Ell township where he has cattle on pasture, Tuesday.

Herman Stroemer, the road boss, done a great stunt with the grader in the Ax district Tuesday. That means better roads for the mail man.

Trouble Makers Ousted

When a sufferer from stomach trouble takes Dr. King's New Life Pills nes mighty glad to see his dyspepsia and indigestion fly, but more he's tickled over his new, fine appetite, strong nerves healthy vigor, all because stomach, liver and kidneys now work right, 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

BRITT

From the News:

Henry Sprod has traded for the Prull restaurant. In the deal Mr. Prull gets a farm near Jamestown, N. D.

Frank O'Rourke has leased the Stephensen building, which he is overhauling and will open up a short order restaurant.

Will Fillenwarth went to Kanawha Tuesday to assist T. H. Thompson the new postmaster at that place who took possession this week.

A game of ball was played at the park on last Friday morning between Britt and Algona. The score was 4 to 1 in favor of the visitors.

E. R. Dana left Monday for Terrill, Iowa, where he has secured a position as manager of the Jas. A. Smith lumber yard. His wife will join him some time this week.

Miss Edna B. Welty and Mr. L. E. Ericson were married at the home of the bride's parents in Britt, on Wednesday evening, June 16, 1909, Rev. H. E. Hutchinson of the M. E. church officiating.

A needle an inch and a half in length was removed last week from the arm of L. J. Nelson, county auditor of Winnebago, which he thinks has been in his body for some years. For years he has been the victim of acute pains, so sharp at times that they caused a nervous collapse which seemingly occurred at intervals in all parts of the body. For a couple of days the pain has centered in his arm and a physician was called, who opened the flesh and removed the needle. Mr. Nelson was of the opinion he was the victim of rheumatism and has been receiving medical treatment for the past ten years for that trouble. How the needle got into his body is a mystery to him.

Could Not Be Better

No one has ever made a salve, ointment, lotion or balm to compare with Bucklin's Arnica Salve. Its the one perfect healer of cuts, corns, burns, bruises, sores, scalds, boils, ulcers, eczema, salt rheum. For sore eyes, cold sores, chapped hands its supreme. Infallible for piles. Only 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

OUR BUSINESS IS BANKING
BANKING IS OUR BUSINESS

The sign "Bank" does not make a bank and is often misleading. It requires time, energy, close attention to business, a substantial capital and ripe experience in banking to make a bank. We claim, without blushing, all essentials necessary to make our business that of banking, and tender our patrons a service thoroughly seasoned by years of experience, backed by substantial capital.

The First National Bank

CAPITAL $25,000

PETROLEUM COKE

A carload of COKE just received and another car to arrive soon. The supply is limited, so order at once as it has heretofore been impossible to get it later in the season. Also Best Grades in all Soft Coals at Prices that are RIGHT.

Highest Market Price Paid for Grain and Live Stock Six Days in the Week

H. C. LAU

MESERVEY

From the Messenger:

Mr. Larson of Klemme was in this locality the first of the week looking after the wool trade.

Mrs. Clifford Brogan, who had been at the home of her parents for the past seven weeks, where she was caring for her children, Master Merril and little Marvel, returned home with the children Friday. Little Marvel is well and happy but Merril, though gaining is still very weak.

Chas. P. Ell, founder of the Messenger but at present in the commission business at Klemme, was in town last Friday. He purchased N. A. Myer's crop of wool and shipped it from this point. Chas. thinks that some time in the future he will again enter the printing business though he says he never was better satisfied than now.

Oliver McGee, who has been spending some time attending to business matters at Greene, arrived Tuesday and will superintend the job of putting in tile and other work about his farm northwest of town. Mr McGee has done much the past few years in the way of improvement on his farm and is still busy getting it up to a high state of cultivation.

A Thrilling Rescue

How Bert R. Lean, of Cheny, Wash. was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not help me. Then I went to California, but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me and now I am as well as ever." For lung trouble, bronchitis, coughs and colds, asthma, croup and whooping cough its supreme, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

GOODELL

From the Globe:

W R. Bloom of Klemme, was a Goodell caller Monday.

Mrs. Ad Elder and children went to Waverly, Iowa, Monday, to visit relatives.

Mary Ahrenkiel, of near Klemme, was the guest of relatives here last Saturday.

Layman Plummer, of Forest City, came Monday evening and will visit at the A. D. White home for a few days.

Miss Louise Hahn, of Des Moines, Iowa, visited with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Bremmer, the latter part of last week.

Wm. Lemke is at the home of his parents in Garner this week, laid up with a sprained ankle and looking after other interests there during ins itute.

A Study In Locations

At 8 p. m. while pa and ma
Helped entertain with sis,
Both John and May in distant seats
Were far apart like this.

At 9 p. m. as pa withdrew
And sought his room up-stairs,
The lovers found some photographs
And nearer brought their chairs.

At 10 p. m. as ma decamped—
And then, ye Gods! What bliss!
Those lovers sat till nearly one Aboutascloseasthis.

The Limit

It is said that General Sherman was a witness of this scene.

A private named Pat was mounted upon a mule which was kicking with great vigor. Finally the mule got its foot caught in the stirrup.

"Begorra," said Pat, "if you're going to get on, I'll get off."

CELEBRATE

the Fourth of July in Britt.

The Big Celebration of Hancock County this year will be held at

BRITT

on Sat. July 3

Good Speaking, Good Music and Other Patriotic Exercises

Two Good Bands
Grand Street Parade

Two Free Base Ball Games
and other free amusements all day.

$50 in Gold in Four Prizes for those who register.

Something Doing Every Minute from Sun-up until Midnight.

Come to BRITT

and have the best time of your life.

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher

KLEMME - - - IOWA

SUMMARY OF A WEEK'S EVENTS

Latest News of Interest Boiled Down for the Busy Man.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

The senate voted to raise the house rate on print paper from two to four dollars a ton.

William Lorimer, the new senator from Illinois, was sworn into office and cast his first vote on the tariff schedule on paper.

More than two hours and a half was taken up by the Taft cabinet discussing economy of administration in the government departments.

President Taft sent a message to congress urging a tax on the undistributed earnings of corporations.

Senator Borah announced in the senate that he will vote, when the opportunity comes, to give self government to the Philippines.

Plans have been made by President Taft and Senator Aldrich to defeat, if possible, the supporters of an income tax provision.

PERSONAL.

Rev. U. G. Pierce, D. D., pastor of All Soul's Unitarian church of Washington, was designated by a senate resolution to act as chaplain until otherwise ordered.

Former President Roosevelt in an article in the Outlook compared the rule of the corporations with that of a bloodthirsty mob.

Justice Mills in the New York supreme court postponed the hearing on Harry K. Thaw's application for release from the insane asylum at Matteawan until July 6.

Charles W. Morse, the convicted New York banker and former "ice king," was freed from jail on a $125,000 bond.

Ralph Shull, a wealthy lumberman of Minneapolis, is going to the workhouse for five days for exceeding the automobile speed limit.

Charles W. Fairbanks, former vice-president of the United States, was entertained in elaborate fashion by the governor of Kyoto, Japan. He was driven to his hotel in the governor's carriage.

Former Judge Abner Smith of Chicago is now librarian at the Joliet penitentiary, where he was sent for bank wrecking.

Francis E. Leupp resigned as Indian commissioner and President Taft appointed Robert G. Valentine to fill the place.

GENERAL NEWS.

The sixty-fifth annual meeting of the American Institute of Homeopathy opened in Detroit with a large attendance.

The Michigan State Association of Letter Carriers met in yearly convention at Benton Harbor.

Joe Matson, driving the Chalmers-Detroit machine in the small car race at Crown Proint, Ind., won the contest in which 16 autos competed.

Medals awarded by the nation, the state of Ohio and the city of Dayton were presented to the Wright brothers for their aerial achievements.

Testimony showing that Mrs. Howard Gould often was visited by Dustin Farnum, an actor, was given by witnesses.

The trial of Patrick Calhoun, the San Francisco millionaire charged with bribery, came to a close after six months.

Albert Munro and his bride of a week were found dead at Williamsport, Pa., and are believed to have been the victims of poisoned candy.

James D. Hallen was placed on trial in New York charged with defrauding the Nicaraguan government by shipping sawdust in boxes supposed to contain ammunition.

Council for Broughton Brandenburg admitted that the signature attached to the article purported to have been written by Grover Cleveland was not genuine.

Mrs. Emma Kaufmann, wife of a wealthy brewer of Flandreau, S. D., who was charged with killing her maid, was found guilty of battery and fined $100, which was paid.

The Swedish consul in New York in a dispatch to the government emphasizes the unwisdom of Swedes emigrating to America, where, he declares, times are bad at present.

Bishop Bonacum and two priests were driven from Ulysses, Neb., by an angry mob when they went there to take charge of a church over which there has been a feud for several years.

Great Britain has asked America not to press her claim for participation in the Hankow-Szechuen railroad loan of $27,500,000, which British, German and French bankers stand ready to take up.

The French budget for 1910 was introduced in the chamber of deputies by Finance Minister Caillaux and shows a deficit of $21,000,000. Nine million dollars of this is charged to the budget of 1911.

While guarding the royal yacht on which the czar and the German emperor were holding a conference, a Russian torpedo boat fired upon a British steamer and wounded the engineer.

Charles F. Leininger was killed and two other men shot by an actor who had been attacked by several persons at Fairfield, Ill., because of his attentions to one of the young women of the town.

Hearing of testimony in the case of Private Klein, of a Chicago militia company, who killed Earl Nelson, a Kankakee boy with a bayonet, began at Paxton, Ill.

Thomas J. McCoy, former banker and politician of Laporte, Ind., was released from the state penitentiary where he served three years for embezzlement.

Levi Yoder, of Massilon, O., killed himself rather than comply with the provisions of his mother's will, which required him to wear hooks and eyes instead of buttons on his clothes.

Earl Moran, a legless man, married Mrs. Julia Davis, of Plaquemine, La., at Waukegan, Ill.

Gov. Harmon and staff reviewed the parade of the Ohio G. A. R. veterans on the closing day of their encampment at Newark.

Ralph de Palma broke the automobile speed record for 25 miles, making the distance in 23 minutes and 35 seconds at Readville, Mass.

George C. White, William Kilgannon, and the latter's wife, Elizabeth Kilgannon, pleaded guilty in the United States circuit court in New York to indictments charging them with smuggling.

In a fire in a five-story tenement house in Cincinnati, the 100 panic-stricken occupants were saved by daring rescues by firemen.

Fourteen hat manufacturing firms of Connecticut were sued for $364,000 damages by the Amalgamated Hat Manufacturers of New York, as a result of the recent strike.

A cigar or cigarette carelessly tossed away is supposed to have caused a fire that destroyed the auditorium of the Monumental building in which the Ohio Grand Army veterans held their encampment in Newark.

The towns of Purdy and Monett in Missouri were wrecked, and the surrounding country devastated by a tornado. At least two were killed.

The high federal court of Venezuela has given a decision declaring unconstitutional Castro's decrees of January, 1907, which annulled the salt and match monopoly concessions. The decision restores to the Ethelburga syndicate, limited, of London, all its rights.

John G. A. Leishman, the retiring American ambassador to Turkey, has left Constantinople for Rome.

Servants and former employes of Mrs. Howard Gould told of seeing her frequently intoxicated.

The Illinois supreme court declared the state's primary election law unconstitutional.

"Mother" Jones, who seeks a pardon for a man who violated the neutrality laws, made an appeal to President Taft in the prisoner's behalf.

A report by department of agriculture experts says tuberculosis among hogs in the United States is increasing.

Senator Elkins declared his daughter, Miss Katherine, is going to Europe because of an affection of the heart and not to meet the duke of the Abruzzi as has been reported.

Damage estimated at $400,000 in the piano factory of Hardman, Peck & Co., in New York, was caused by fire.

The Augustana Synod of America, meeting at Red Wing, Minn., decided to hold its next conference in Rock Island, Ill.

The submarine boats, Grayling, Ronito and Snapper were launched at Quincy, Mass.

Celebration of the twentieth anniversary of statehood was held in Aberdeen, S. D.

Farmers near Taitsville, Mo., after two of their daughters had been shot from ambush, carried rifles while they worked in their fields.

An Erie passenger train was wrecked at Waverly N. Y., and several passengers painfully injured.

Edward Arnold, two years old, was playing in front of the house from which deputy sheriffs were evicting his parents in Far Rockaway, N. Y., when he was killed by an ice wagon.

The German emperor and the czar of Russia met on a royal yacht and discussed a world policy.

Wilbur and Orville Wright were honored at a big fete in their home city, Dayton, O.

Iowa News

NEWSY ITEMS GATHERED FROM ALL PARTS OF THE STATE.

The Nishna Botna river at Red Oak is bang full and still rising due to the heavy and continuous rains to the north. Reports from Griswold and other points north and east are to the effect that much corn has been washed out and considerable damage to crops has resulted from the excessive wet weather.

The senior class of the university, after class breakfast at Burkley, effected a permanent organization. William L. Carberry of Panora was elected permanent president, and Hale H. Smith, Lamoni, permanent secretary.

The program has been arranged for the eighth annual meeting of the Iowa Central Luther league, the young people's association of the Norwegian Lutheran church. The convention will be held at Bethesda Lutheran church at Jewell July 7 to 9.

The Rev. F. H. Gamel of Pocahontas, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church of Lake City.

The greatest church consolidation which has taken place in recent years may be consummated in Des Moines when the three divided bodies of the Norwegian Lutheran church are united under the head of the United Norwegian Lutheran church.

Charles S. Doerman of Dubuque was re-elected department commander, United Spanish War Veterans; Geo. A Evans of Cedar Rapids, senior vice commander; James N. Hedge of Des Moines, department inspector; Irving Gates of Fort Dodge, gunner vice commander; G. H. Smith of Clinton, sargent; J. E. O'Brien of Waukon, judge advocate; S. J. Parker of Hampton, chaplain.

Liebbe, Nourse & Rasmussen, architects, were awarded the contract for drawing the plans and specifications for a new hotel which is to be built at Fort Dodge. It will be modern in every respect and will cost $175,000.

Th oil portrait of the late Dean Frederick Howard of Drake university conservatory of music, was unveiled in Howard Hall. Tributes to the memory of the musician were paid by George F. Ogden, representing the music students. The Rev. Charles S. Medbury, pastor of the University Place Church of Christ, unveiled the portrait and President Hill M. Bell made a brief address.

The Ida County Normal Institute had over one hundred teachers in attendance.

Fred H. Thomas was run over at Spencer and his leg cut off. He was taken to Mason City.

A Milwaukee freight train at Ottumwa killed Mrs. Adaline Longcor, injured her granddaughter, Pearl Longcor, and failed to hit Mrs. Mary Dyer by her jumping into the Des Moines river in safety.

"Jack" Parker a C. & N. W. engineer at Marshalltown trimmed a corn too closely, blood poisoning set in and his leg had to be amputated.

Smith's general store at Pleasanton was destroyed by fire. The stock was not insured.

By unanimous vote Des Moines was chosen as the next place to hold the convention of the State Bankers' association. Mason City, the only place in the race for the next gathering, seconded Des Moines' nomination.

Branch No. 1 of the Greater Iowa club, with forty-five charter members, was organized at Afton, Iowa.

The Iowa State Auctioneers' association held its ninth annual meeting at Des Moines.

The city council of Knoxville has passed a resolution to pave the square and a block in each direction, making in all twelve blocks.

Impelled by the desire for more money to continue his carousals, Duke Nesbit, a young man of Le Claire, Iowa, robbed the post office at Le Claire, securing $60 in cash. He was captured at Princeton, Iowa. He belongs to one of the best families.

The East Dubuque postoffice was dynamited, and $500 in money and $50 in stamps taken. The robbers got away.

Mrs. H. P. Shepherd, one of the oldest and best-known residents of Indianola is dead.

Rev. Thomas E. Sherman, formerly of Minnesota, was installed as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Williamsburg.

Edward Hoffman, 76, of Fort Madison hung himself in a woodhouse. He was despondent.

The Rev. Ed Kiser of San Francisco has purchased Oskaloosa college, the pioneer educational institution of the Christian church of Iowa.

Guy Dotson and Harry Briggs lost their lives in the Seaman mine near Ottumwa by being overcome with gas.

Rev. D. M. Helfenstein, D. D., of Des Moines, was elected president of the Iowa State Christian conference at the thirty-fourth annual session at Le Grand. Rev. A. B. Kendall of Le Grand was chosen vice president; Rev. E. C. Kerr of Le Grand, treasurer, and Rev. A. M. Hanon of Le Grand, secretary. Department secretaries were elected as follows: Christian Endeavor, Rev. P. H. Howard Birchdale, Minn.; Sunday school, Rev. A. C. Grafton, Orient; education, Mrs. Ida Menaugh, Des Moines; George Hutton of Madrid was chosen as a trustee of the conference.

Chester Burrel of Epworth, Iowa, was elected captain of the University of Iowa base ball team for next year. George Engstrom of Marion, Iowa, was elected captain of next year's track team.

Dr. Kramer Gilbert and Miss Bessie Sanders, Dr. Carl Kail and Miss Beulah A. Sanders were the principals in a double wedding at Carlisle, Iowa.

Frank Wesner, of Council Bluffs, a traveling salesman, shot himself to death because of family troubles. He leaves a wife and five children.

Thomas Flynn, 71, pioneer resident of Polk county, died at his home seven miles west of Des Moines, after an illness of a week. Mr. Flynn was for forty years a resident of Polk.

About 200 Iowa and Nebraska coal dealers held a two-day session at the Savery house in Des Moines.

Dr. C. Thomas, aged 72 years, one of the pioneer dentists of Des Moines, died at his home, 1230 Tenth street, after a prolonged illness.

One hundred negro Methodists attended the annual Iowa conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church at Des Moines.

Iowa postmasters commissioned are: Kanawha, Thomas T. Thompson; Mallard, Arvin C. Sands; Palmer, Martin A. Hanse; Cou Falls, William P. Zeithammal.

Plans for the removal of the headquarters of the J. I. Case Threshing Machine company from Waterloo to Mason City is announced by the management at Mason City. The company will not move till after the present season.

Delbert W. Duncan has been recommended postmaster at Sioux Center for appointment by the president.

Green caps for the freshmen and old gold caps for the sophomores will be adopted at the University of Iowa next fall, according to the plans of the spirit committee of the students and the members of Owl and Keys, a secret sophomore society in the college of liberal arts.

Six cars of meat and two cars of merchandise in train No. 62 of the Milwaukee were ditched at a point two miles west of Deadham, on the Council Bluffs division. The engine and the five lead cars passed over the place of derailment.

Frank Scott living near Pender, Neb., has been indicted at Council Bluffs, for swindling John Hemerlbracht out of $5,000. It is said he was once a member of the Mabray gang.

Sarah Irwin, aged 18 years, the daughter of Eugene Irwin, a motorman, was crushed to death under the wheels while attempting to board a moving street car at Burlington. Her mother witnessed the tragedy.

Albert Penland, of Oskaloosa, while returning from a fishing trip was run over by an Iowa Central train. His head was cut off and the body badly mutilated. He was 33 and leaves a wife and child.

William Dennis of Shenandoah was taken to Creston by Deputy United States Marshal Wesley Bryant to answer to a charge of bootlegging before the federal court.

"Chick" Kirk, the star University of Iowa athlete, will coach the Simpson college athletic teams this coming year.

The Des Moines city council refunded Mrs. Mose Rice, wife of the attempted murderer and suicide, $28.19 on an unexpired license belonging to her husband. Rice had on May 25 paid the city $35 for a first class peddler's license.

Hereafter the superannuated clergymen and professors in the United Norwegian Lutheran church are to receive $500 each a year as benefits from a ministerial pension fund of $100,000.

The annual Des Moines Epworth league convention which closed its sessions in Colfax, will meet at the Highland Park Methodist church next year.

Thomas Holmes, an old time engineer of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, is dead at his home in Stuart. He was a member of Stuart division of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Harry Matthews, aged 25, has mysteriously disappeared from Iowa City, and his friends and only immediate relatives, a sister, fear he may have met foul play.

The sixty-second commencement of Iowa college at Grinnell came to a close after graduating the largest class in its history, ninety-six in number.

LONG TRIAL END

Case of San Francisco Millionaire Goes to Jury

AN UNUSUAL COURT RECORD

Prosecutor Heney Makes Closing Plea in Calhoun Case and Judge Lawler Delivers Instructions to Jury.

San Francisco, Cal., June 21.—Concluding the greatest issue in the history of San Francisco's graft scandal the case of Patrick Calhoun, millionaire president of the United railroads charged with bribery, was given to the jury after a trial that dates back to Jan. 12, 1909.

When the morning session opened Heney, who had spoken fifteen hours at the end of Friday night's session resumed the final stage of his argument. His voice was hoarse and he spoke rapidly, apparently in an effort to make the most of his allowance of ninety minutes.

Mr. Heney made direct charges of witness fixing and perjury against several officers or employes of the United railroads.

The speaker charged that James L. Gallagher's home in Oakland had been dynamited by agents of the defense and at the end of his subject said

"Now that A. A. Moore of the defense has assured me that the defendant and his associates wish me long life I shall take added precautions for my own protection and make certain as I can that I shall not be shot in the back or dynamited in my bed. The evidence here shows that it is often possible to prepare a defense in advance, and I do not overlook warnings of this sort."

Mr. Heney brought his argument to a close three minutes ahead of the allotted time. A moment before he was engaged in a review of the supervisor's testimony. Judge Lawler reminded him that the remaining moments were few and Mr. Heney throwing aside a quantity of notes yet unreferred to, said:

"Gentlemen, I thank you for your attention. I leave this case in your hands confident and expectant that San Francisco will have no cause to question the good faith of your verdict, whatever it may be and that the state of California will learn from your conduct that you do not have to bring before a jury the men who seek a briber pass the money to secure a conviction; and that any amount of circumstantial evidence will not be treated as insufficient when a wealthy man is on trial, although a supervisor—Coffey, for instance—can be convicted in a few minutes."

In order to prevent the possibility of a demonstration in the vicinity of the room where the jurors were deliberating, the streets were cleared of spectators as soon as Mr. Heney concluded his address.

Jury Disagrees.

San Francisco, Cal., June 21.—Terminating in a disagreement of the jury, with ten men determined on acquittal and two steadfastly resolved upon conviction, the trial of President Patrick Calhoun of the United railroads ended at noon yesterday.

Negro Shoots Two Brakemen.

Vail, Ia., June 21.—A negro shot and killed Brakeman Lee C. Ward and fatally wounded Brakeman A. C. Brechtel on an oil car one mile east of here. The train was in charge of Conductor McCartney, who picked up stock here and missing the brakemen at West Side, searched the train, finding both brakeman on the oil car. Brechtel, who was badly wounded, said that a negro did the shooting. Bechtel died of his injuries.

"It's My Daughter," Cries Siegel

New York, June 21.—Leon L. with hs string of Chinese aliases and his American clothes, may never be found, but the mutilated body of a New York girl left behnd in a trunk in his room will not be buried in potter's field. Paul Siegel, the father claimed and positively identified the body at the morgue, admitting for the first time that the victim was his daughter Elsie.

Magoon Stops in Paris.

Paris, June 21.—Charles E. Magoon, formor govenor of Cuba, left here for Bad Nauheim. Before his departure he was presented to President Fallieres by Ambassador White.

Grain Men at Wichita.

Wichita, Kan., June 21.—Grain dealers of Kansas, Oklahoma, Missouri and Texas were entertained here by the board of trade at the second annual union of the grain dealers. Over 200 visitors registered at headquarters.

HER INFINITE VARIETY

BY BRAND WHITLOCK.

ILLUSTRATIONS BY RAY WALTERS

COPYRIGHT 1907 BY BOBBS-MERRILL CO.

SYNOPSIS.

ator Morley Vernon's visit with his ee was interrupted by a call from political boss at the state capital. regretted it, the girl more than he, use she had arranged to attend a er that evening with him. She said earned for a national office for him. Vernon's desk in the senate he found d rose, accompanied by a plea for age for women. He met the au- ss, pretty Miss Maria Greene of ago, who proposed to convert him voting for house resolution No. 19. Greene secured Vernon's promise to for the suffrage resolution. He also her by convincing others. He took king to the fair suffragette. Miss e consulted with the lieutenant-gov- . Vernon admitted to himself that uffragette had stirred a strange feel- within him. He forgot to read his ee's letter. Vernon made a great ch in favor of suffrage, aided by es from Miss Greene. The resolution made a special order. Vernon was usiastic on the prospects for the res- on. He was much in Miss Greene's pany. Vernon neglected thoughts of elia. He took Miss Greene driving and out plans for the success of the reso- n. Vernon's speech caused a great spaper sensation. He was being neg- d by Amelia, who had not answered letter. Vernon is "tipped off" that his age resolution may not pass. As Greene was due the following morn- he had no fears. Miss Greene ar- and breakfasted with Vernon. ss the dining room, entrenched be- women opponents of the suffrage lution, he spied Amelia. He started rd her.

CHAPTER XI.

one of the ladies relaxed at Ver- 's approach, Mrs. Overman Hodge- rop least of all. On the contrary seemed to swell into proportions were colossal and terrifying, and n Vernon came within her sphere influence his manner at once sub- d itself into an apology.

Why, Amelia — Mrs. Hodge-La- op!" he cried, "and Mrs. Standish, . Barbourton, Mrs. Trales, Mrs. gdon—how do you do?"

e went, of course, straight to Mrs. erman Hodge-Lathrop's side, the that sheltered Amelia, and he d to take the hands of both women once. Amelia gave him hers coldly, thout a word and without a look. He w weak, inane, and laughed un- ily.

Delightful morning," he said, "this ntry air down here is—"

Morley," said Mrs. Overman- dge-Lathrop, severely, "take that t at the foot of the table."

e obeyed, meekly. The ladies, he ught, from the rustle of their skirts, hdrew themselves subtly.

Vernon shrank.

Morley Vernon," Mrs. Overman dge-Lathrop continued, "do you w what I have a notion to do?"

No, Mrs. Hodge-Lathrop," he said a very little voice.

Well, sir, I've a notion to give you good spanking."

Vernon shot a glance at her.

Oh, you needn't look, sir," she con- ued, "you needn't look! It wouldn't the first time, as you well know— d it isn't so many years ago—and I ve your mother's full permission, ."

The chain of ladylike sympathy that sed about the table at this declara- n was broken only when its ends verged on Vernon. Even then they emed to pinch him.

Your poor, dear mother," Mrs. erman Hodge-Lathrop went on, "in- ed, indeed, on coming down her- f, but I knew she could never stand h a trip. I told her," and here Mrs. erman Hodge-Lathrop paused for an tant, "I told her that I thought I ld manage."

There was a vast significance in this eech.

The waiter had brought the substan- ls to the ladies, and Mrs. Overman dge-Lathrop began eating deter- nedly.

It was, of course, just what I had ways predicted," she went on, in a cato that was timed by the rise of r fork to her lips, "I knew that pol- cs would inevitably corrupt you, on or late. And now it has brought u to this."

To what?" asked Vernon, suddenly owing bold and reckless. Amelia d not given him one glance; she s picking at her chop.

Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop, rais- g her gold glasses and setting them istocratically on the bridge of her se, fixed her eyes on Vernon.

Morley," she said, "we know. We ve heard and we have read. The hicago press is an institution that, fortunately, still survives in these conoclastic days. You know very well, of course, what I mean. Please do not compel me to go into the re volting particulars." She took her glasses down from her nose, as if that officially terminated the matter.

"But really, Mrs. Hodge-Lathrop," said Vernon. He was growing angry, and then, too, he was conscious some how that Miss Greene was looking at him. His waiter, John, timidly approached with a glance at the awful presence of Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop, and said:

"Yo' breakfus, senato', is gettin' col'."

"That may wait," said Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop, and John sprang back out of range.

"Please Do Not Compel Me to Go Into Revolting Particulars."

Vernon was determined, then, to have it out.

"Really, Mrs. Hodge-Lathrop, jesting aside—"

"Jesting!" cried Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop, "jesting! Indeed, my boy, this is quite a serious business!" She tapped with her forefinger.

"Well, then, all right," said Vernon, "I don't know what I've done. All I have done has been to champion a measure—and I may add, without boasting, I hope, with some success—all I have done has been to champion a measure which was to benefit your sex, to secure your rights, to—"

"Morley!" Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop said, cutting him short. "Morley, have you indeed fallen so low? It is incomprehensible to me, that a young man who had the mother you have, who had the advantages you have had, who was born and bred as you were, should so easily have lost his respect for women!"

"Lost my respect for women!" cried Vernon, and then he laughed. "Now, Mrs. Hodge-Lathrop," he went on with a shade of irritation in his tone, "this is too much!"

Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop was calm.

"Have you shown her any respect?" she went on. "Have you not, on the contrary, said and done everything you could, to drag her down from her exalted station, to pull her to the earth, to bring her to a level with men, to make her soil herself with politics, by scheming and voting and caucusing and button-holing and wire-pulling? You would have her degrade and unsex herself by going to the polls, to caucuses and conventions; you would have her, no doubt, in time, lobbying for and against measures in the council chamber and the legislature."

Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop paused and lifted her gold eye-glasses once more to the bridge of her high, aristocratic nose.

"It is that kind of women you have been brought up with, Morley? Do we look like that sort? Glance around this table—do we look like that sort of women?"

The ladies stiffened haughtily, disdainfully, under the impending inspection, knowing full well how easily they would pass muster.

"And, if that were not enough," Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop went on, inexorably, "we come here to plead with you and find you hobnobbing with that mannish thing, that female lawyer!"

She spoke the word female as if it conveyed some distinct idea of reproach. She was probing another chop with her fork. She had sent the pot of coffee back to the kitchen, ordering the waiter to tell the cook that she was accustomed to drink her coffee hot.

"And now, Morley Vernon, listen to me," she said, as if he were about to hear the conclusion of the whole matter. "If you have any spark of honor left in you, you will undo what you have already done. This resolution must be defeated in the senate to-day; I am down here to see that it is done We go to the State House after breakfast, and these ladies will assist me in laying before each member of the senate this matter in its true and exact light. As for our rights," she paused and looked at him fixedly, "as for our rights. I think we are perfectly capable of preserving them."

Her look put that question beyond all dispute.

"And now," she resumed, "you would better take a little breakfast yourself; you look as if you needed strength."

Vernon rose. He stood for an instant looking at Amelia, but she glanced at him only casually.

"I suppose, Amelia, I shall see you later in the morning?"

"I suppose so, Mr. Vernon," she said. "But pray do not let me keep you from rejoining your companion." She was quite airy, and lifted her coffee cup with one little finger quirked up higher than he had ever seen it before.

He went back to where Miss Greene sat, and where his breakfast lay.

"My goodness!" he said, seating himself. "I've had a time!"

"I should imagine so," said Miss Greene.

She was just touching her napkin to her lips with a final air. She carefully pushed back her chair, and rose from the table.

"I beg your pardon," he stammered, getting up himself, "I'll see you after breakfast."

Miss Greene bowed. Then she left the dining room.

CHAPTER XII.

Morley Vernon came out of the dining room in a temper far different from that he had worn when he went in. His breakfast, after so many vicissitudes, was sure to be a failure, though John, striving against fate, had tried to restore the repast to its original excellence by replacing each dish with a fresh one. He affected a heroic cheerfulness, too, but the cheer was hollow, for his experience of men and of breakfasts must have taught him that such disasters can never be repaired.

Vernon, however, had heavier things on his mind. In his new position as knight-errant of Illinois womankind, he had looked forward to this day as the one of triumph; now, at its beginning, he found himself with two offended women on his hands, and two hopelessly irreconcilable mistresses to serve. He began to see that the lot of a constructive statesman is trying; he would never criticise leaders again.

The lobby of the hotel was filling rapidly, and men with their hair still damp from the morning combing were passing into the breakfast room with newspapers in their hands. In the center of the lobby, however, he saw a group of senators, and out of the middle of the group rose a dark bonnet; the flowers on the bonnet bobbed now and then decisively. Around it were clustered other bonnets, but they were motionless, and, as it were, subordinate.

"Can you tell me who that is?" asked Brooks of Alexander, jerking his thumb at the group.

"Yes," said Vernon, "that's Gen. Hodge-Lathrop. She's on her way to the front to assume command."

"Oh!" said Brocks. "I saw something in the papers—" And he went away, reading as he walked.

Vernon looked everywhere for Miss Greene, but he could not find her. The porter at the Capitol avenue entrance told him that she had driven over to the State House a few minutes before. Vernon was seized by an impulse to follow, but he remembered Amelia. He could not let matters go on thus between them. If only Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop were not in command; if he could get Amelia away from her for a while, if he could see her alone, he felt that explanations would be possible.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Brilliant Project Brought to Naught.

In the year 1694 William Patterson, founder of the Bank of Scotland, conceived the grand project of planting on the Isthmus of Darien a British colony which, in his own words, "should secure for Great Britain the keys of the universe, enabling their possessors to give laws to both oceans and to become the arbiters of the commercial world." This colony was actually founded at a place still known as Puerto Escoces, but its people were subsequently forced by the Spaniards to evacuate and return to Scotland.

MR. GOSLINGTON IS SENSITIVE

Can Stand a Man's Snubs, But Hates to Be Ignored by a Woman.

"I don't suppose I ought to be so sensitive," said Mr. Goslington, "but it seems to be the way I'm built. I can stand being snubbed by a man, but it hurts my feelings to be ignored by a woman.

"This morning coming in at a door through which from within I was about to go out was a woman. When I saw her coming I of course opened the door for her as politely as I could and stood back to let her pass.

"Did she as she passed through thank me or graciously incline her head to me or by any token acknowledge my deference to her? By not so much as the bat of an eye or the quiver of an eyelash; she simply ignored me; she passed me by as if I had been the knob on the door instead of the man holding the door open for her.

"Do you know that jarred on me. Hurt my feelings sorter. I don't suppose I ought to be so sensitive, but I seem to be built that way."

Libby's Food Products

Are Best For Your Table

Because they are made of the choicest materials and guaranteed to be absolutely pure.

Libby's Veal Loaf makes a delightful dish for Luncheon and you will find, Libby's

Vienna Sausage
Corned Beef
Pork and Beans
Evaporated Milk

equally tempting for any meal.

Have a supply of Libby's in the house and you will always be prepared for an extra guest.

You can buy Libby's at all grocers.

Libby, McNeill & Libby
Chicago

WRIGLEY'S
SPEARMINT
is the
ONLY REAL
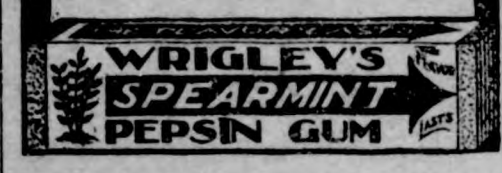
SPEARMINT
Remember that!
Remember this!



IOWANS ARE MAKING FORTUNES ON FRUIT and Alfalfa Ranches, and Vineyards IN SUNNY CENTRAL CALIFORNIA. Write for FREE Illustrated Booklets.
CALIFORNIA CITY LAND CO.
435 S. Spring St. LOS ANGELES, CAL.

TO INVESTORS—A little money invested in Texas-Bermuda Onion Co. stock, will bring you rich and certain profits. A homely industry, but a sure one, and mighty profitable. Demand for product way beyond supply. Write for our descriptive booklet. Texas-Bermuda Onion Co., 137 Clayton Block, Denver.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water

Des Moines Directory

The State Insurance Company
of Des Moines, Iowa, has paid over FOUR MILLION DOLLARS for Fire, Lightning and Tornado Losses
The season is on—get a Policy now.
Prompt and fair treatment is our motto.

THE NEW MODELS 10 and 11
REMINGTON
are the latest and best product of the largest typewriter factory in the world. Send for catalogue and descriptive matter. ∴ ∵ ∴
REMINGTON TYPEWRITER CO.
208 Fifth Street, Des Moines, Iowa

Are You Going to PAINT ?

It pays to keep your buildings well painted, and when you paint it pays to use the best you can get. We handle the best in

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, etc. etc.

Call and see us and get our prices.

Washing Machines

We handle some of the best made. Call and see the

"Quicker Yet"

The best place to buy

Hardware & Groceries

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA

ARE YOU LOOKING

For something new in the Drug, Jewelery, Book, Stationery, Musical, China or Glassware line? If so, come to our store. We have what you are looking for.

Our Drug Department is complete in every particular. A full line of standard Patents. Special attention given to family recipes & Physicians' Prescriptions

Edison Phonographs with a large repertoire of records in the standard and popular class.

China and Glassware. Genuine hand painted. Fancy Lamps in all the styles.

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

Elkhart Buggies

are the best made, best grade and easiest riding buggies on earth for the money.

FOR THIRTY-SIX YEARS

we have been selling direct and are The Largest Manufacturers in the World selling to the consumer exclusively.

We ship for examination and approval, guaranteeing safe delivery, and also to save you money. If you are not satisfied as to style, quality and price you are nothing out.

May We Send You Our Large Catalogue?

Elkhart Carriage & Harness Mfg. Co.
Elkhart, - - - - Indiana

Price $56.00 With Twin Auto Seat

U.S. U.S. U.S. U.S.

The Proof of the Pudding is in the eating.

The proof of the separator is in the trying.

You perhaps do not care to try, to know; well, then take your neighbor's word for it. Ask any user (you can find them most everywhere), and we assure you that if they have given the 1909 Model

U. S. Cream Separator

a thorough trial, they will advise you to "Buy the United States Cream Separator" as the bowls have been greatly reduced in diameter and still retain their great milk capacity.

Thousands testify yearly to the clean skimming, easy running and complete satisfaction obtained by the use of the reliable U.S. which holds the World's Record.

We have more to tell you, but space will not permit, so call and see the 1909 Model U. S. before purchasing.

U.S. SOLD BY

ELL BROTHERS

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

To Our Delinquent Readers

To everyone of our subscribers who are one year or more in arrears, we have mailed a statement of account showing how their names stand on our subscription book. No doubt you know that our good Uncle Samuel says for us to make our delinquents pay up or quit sending them the paper without we place a one-cent stamp on each paper, and we are surely going to mind what Uncle says. So if you have received one of our statements, kindly make settlement at once, either by cash or note, as we positively cannot and will not send the paper to anyone who does not want it bad enough to pay one dollar a year for it. If settlement is not made within a reasonable length of time, we will place the accounts for collection as there are too many of them for us to see you personally. We would like to keep everyone on the list but we are too small to try to buck up against an order by our Uncle S., so we'll have to make the best of it. Call and see us.

It looks like Roosevelt's policies are to be "carried out"—on a stretcher.

No. Anxious Inquirer, these hard winds are not caused by the lions roaring in Darkest Africa; they are just the result of the large amount of wind jamming now going on at Washington, D. C.

Let's see. Congress has been in session now for lo, these many weeks, and while the members have drawn their breath and their salaries, they so far have failed to draw up a tariff revision downward bill—and they will probably continue to fail to do anything for the benefit of the common people as long as such sticks as Aldrich, et al, have anything to say about matters.

Chronic Rheumatism

This is the variety of rheumatism that usually attacks the larger joints, knees, hips and shoulders. It is aggravated by cold and damp weather, and for this reason a man afflicted with it can often foretell changes in the weather. Chamberlain's Liniment applied freely and with vigorous rubbing relieves the pain and makes sleep and rest possible. It will also effect a cure, but will not prevent the recurrence of the disease. For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

RESTAURANT

DELICIOUS GOLDEN ORANGEADE the latest and best cold drink. Try it.

Home made Ice Cream, Cones and Sundaes. Home made Bakery Goods.

Lunches and Meals at all hours.

A. Kirkwood & Son

One Dollar

Mr. Farmer---It costs but a trifle more to buy printed letter heads and envelopes than it does to use any old thing, and certainly it looks more business-like to use printed stationery For a limited time we offer you 100 sheets good writing paper and 100 good envelopes, printed with your name and address, both for $1.00. Give us your order now.

The Times Printery

GREATEST REDUCTION on TRIMMED HATS

Some at Cost and Some Below Cost

see our line of Pattern Hats and Trimmed Hats. Nice line of headwear for the Children. We have the best assortment ever shown in Klemme or the surrounding towns. Don't buy until you have seen our display.

Children's Hats, Caps and Hoods regardless of Cost.

A fine line of Corsets. Also Hair Rolls, Ladies' Waists, Collars, etc.

MRS. J. JOSTEN.

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile, both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

Buy Your SCREENS NOW

The Flies Will Soon be Here

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, AGENT

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

KLEMME MARKET.

.....	60 to 65c
.....	48 to 50c
.....	80 to 100
t.....	55 to60 c
y.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	6.50 to 7.25
.....	3.00 to 6.00
e.....

OCAL NEWS

sh fruits at Kluckhohn's.

No. 1 farm for rent. Apply . Zinn. 46tf rve Allen made a business o Garner Monday.

C. Lau has a new ad on rst page this week.

ry Mann was at Garner rday between trains.

e finest line of candies in at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

reate or Crumble?" Read State Savings Bank.

sses fitted. Eyes tested Dr. Missman. 47-4

y 4th is coming. Get your uit now at Wellemeyer's.

right baby girl was born r. and Mrs. Henry Griffen ay. June 20th.

s. Stiehl, the smiling, fat for Watkins remedies. left day for a two weeks' jaunt, d the new ad of Ell Bros. is page. They want to our poultry and produce.

g. Barz shipped a car of attle to Chicago Sunday ing, going in with the ship-good crowd attended the e in the opera house last g evening. A good time orted.

C. Lau shipped a car of Sunday morning, also one yesterday morning. Joe r went to the city with the hipment to see the sights.

you think of buying a rug ll pay you to look over my which consists of Wilton ets. Axminsters, Saxony insters, Colonial Velvets Brussels made in sizes 6 x 9, 10 x 6, 9 x 12 and larger. s for rugs G. F. Schuler.

n Henschen is busy this putting in the cement s in front of the meat mar- nd Kluckhohn's restaurant.

s Klemme will put on some when our new cement s are all completed.

e eclipse of the sun which advertised so extensively positively to appear last rsday, was rather a fizzle as s this section of the country concerned. It was a par- eclipse all right, coming on little after six o'clock in evening, but as a total se it was a total failure.

newspaper can never very tably represent a town se business men do not ad- ise. He may howl himself se bragging about the vim, gy and enterprise of his , but if his declarations are backed up by a liberal unt of advertising by the ness men of the town, the d will be slow to take his ement as true. It takes e than the unsupported tes ony of the local newspaper to prove to the world that own is the financial center, business center, the best ket, and the best place on h to buy goods; his evidence ds corroboration. — Clark- e (Mo.) Times.

Ralph Blank was at Garner Monday evening.

See them at Wellemeyer's. Shoes for women at $1.65.

For a chunk of good cold ice call at Bloom's elevator or on G. R. Waterman. 44tf

Rev. Kaste, of Charles City, was here the first of the week visiting with friends.

Try Kluckhohn's ice cream soda with crushed fruit and you will become a regular customer.

I have just added to my stock a nice line of Lace Curtains at 75c up to $6.00 a pair at G. F. Schuler's. tf

Mrs. J. W. Scott and son Eddie left last week for different points in Indiana, where they are visiting relatives.

"Create or Crumble" is the title of the State Savings Bank ad this week, to which your attention is cordially invited.

Steve Day and his crew of carpenters have commenced the erection of a large new barn for Wm. Bachman on his Avery township farm.

Make easy money at home corresponding for newspapers; experience unnecessary. Send stamp for particulars. Empire Press Syndicate, Middleport, N. Y. 45-3

Mrs. Shafer and daughter, Mrs. O. Lemon, returned last week from a visit at the E. P. Dow home at Rake. They report that the Dows are enjoying a fine business and are prosperous and happy.

If you want to buy anything or if you have anything to sell, you can't reach the buyer or seller any easier or cheaper than by inserting a small ad in the Times. The cost is small and results are sure.

Wm. Lau, Chas. Velau, Lew Lewis and Herman Thrun were at Clear Lake the latter part of last week making a raid on the finny tribe. We understand they had good success.

Rev. H. Achtermann, of Buffalo, New York, is the new pastor for the Klemme German Reformed church, and he and his family are expected here in the near future. Rev. Achtermann will preach his first sermon in Klemme on July 18th.

Dr. Edgar N. Zinn arrived in Klemme from Walkerton, Canada, last Friday and is now busy getting acquainted with the good people of Klemme and vicinity. He has formed a partnership with his uncle, Dr. Geo. Zinn, who has been enjoying a good practice here for about seven years. We welcome the new Dr. Zinn and hope he may find Klemme to his liking.

The Miller band passed thru Klemme last Friday on the north bound freight on their way home from attending the Woodmen picnic at Belmond, where they entered the band contest. There were six bands in on the deal, Algona getting first prize, Corwith second, Miller third, Kanawha fourth, Belmond fifth, and a show band took the cellar honors The Miller boys are to be congratulated on landing third money in such a good bunch of musicians and they have a right to feel proud of their showing. They favored Klemme with a couple of selections while the freight was switching in the yards here, which were highly appreciated by those who heard them. Miller people should and do feel proud of their band.

Frank Terhufen was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

B. Swalve marketed some nice hogs in Klemme Monday.

W. R. Bloom shipped a car of fine hogs to Chicago yesterday morning.

Every lady should ask to see the $1.65 shoe at Wellemeyer's. It's a bargain.

Ice cream sodas, sundaes, and all kinds of cool refreshing drinks at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

G. R. Waterman sold the gray horse he has been driving on his dray to horse buyers last week.

Scott Bowen, of Garner, is building a new house and barn on the Aug. Barz farm one mile east of Klemme.

W. R. Bloom and children spent last Friday and Saturday taking an outing at Clear Lake and Mason City. They returned home Sunday.

Mrs. C. C. Suckow and daughter, Fern, attended the commencement exercises of the Hancock county schools at Garner last Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank Wellemeyer, of Charles City, came down from the camp-meeting at Garner Monday evening to visit at the home of their son, Arthur.

Quite a number of Klemmeites took in the Woodmen picnic at Belmond last Friday. The day was an ideal one and an enormous crowd was in attendance. All report a very fine time. Belmond won the ball game from Algona by a score of 6 to 5.

Rev. Muehlmeier, pastor of the Klemme German Reformed church, had his household goods loaded on the car Tuesday, preparatory to moving to his new pastorate at Monticello, Wisconsin. This good family has resided in Klemme for about seven years and they will be sadly missed by the members of the church and also by a large number of other friends and acquaintances. While very sorry to see them leave, all will join us in wishing them unbounded success and happiness in their new field of labor.

German M. E. Church Items

English preaching in Germantown church July 4th.

Our Sunday Schools are planning to hold a picnic on July 5th.

Mrs. Arthur Bettin and Sadie Boevers, of Fenton, Iowa, are visiting with Emil and Bertha Bettin.

Jacob Fluhrer of Floyd county, called on his brothers in law, Wm. and Louis Sampson and other relatives.

Wesley and Alma Bettin arrived from Charles City Saturday and will spend their vacation on the farm.

Amanda Arnold and Mary Griffen departed last week on a trip through Minnesota and parts of South Dakota

John Griewe cut the wrong piece of meat Tuesday morning. It happened to be his finger which was nearly severed.

Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Wellemeyer spent Tuesday with their son Arthur, and family. They also took a drive out to their farm in Germantown

John Schwichtenberg accompanied his brother-in-law, Rev. Wm. Berg, to Colesburg, Iowa, on Tuesday, where they will visit relatives and friends.

Wm. Gast Sr., came up from Steamboat Rock last week and attended the campmeeting. His sister, with whom he is making

(Continued on last page.)

Attention!

The Poultry Season FOR 1909

Will open with two Delivery Days in Klemme on July 2nd and 3rd

On those dates we will take in Old Hens, Spring Chickens, Ducks, Geese and Pigeons, and any other produce that you may wish to dispose of, such as Butter, Eggs, Cream, etc.

Don't fail to get our prices and watch for card announcing same. Look over your flock and dispose of the non-paying fowls.

ELL BROS.

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Phone No. 11. Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to calls, day or night.
Eyes tested. Glasses fitted.

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
☞ Eyes Tested Free.

F. C. GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Highest cash price paid for hides. Home rendered pure lard a specialty.
We solicit your patronage.

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
☞ Call in

Vacation Time in Colorado

A vacation at any time is good, but a vacation in Colorado in summer is ideal.

The ozonated mountain air, the outdoor life, the wonderful scenery, the cool nights and the restfulness that prevails, combine to make a Colorado vacation one never to be forgotten.

Colorado is easily and comfortably reached in the de luxe trains of the

Rock Island-Frisco Lines

Every comfort and convenience of modern railway travel provided by these trains.

Go to Colorado!

Full information on request.

L. O. TURGASEN, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures
See me when you want a Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

WERE BOTH OF MIXED BLOOD

Points of Resemblance Between Englishman and Cowboy, as the Latter Understood It.

"The countess de Pourtales was a New York Lorillard," said a New York tobacconist. "So on both sides, of course, she has blue blood. Yet she is without false pride.

"At a recent tobacco men's convention a director told me of a remark the countess made in Biarritz to an arrogant Englishman.

"This fellow boasted of his ancestry. The countess said that sort of talk wouldn't be understood in the wild west. She said an Englishman said to a Texas cowboy once:

"'I have Tudor blood in my veins on the maternal side and through my father's family I am a Plantaganet.'

"'Is that so?' said the cowboy, brightening with keen interest. 'My blood's a leetle mixed, too. My grandfather was a Jersey tenderfoot and my grandmother a Digger Indian squaw. We're both half-breeds, stranger. Come and liquor up!'"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

SORE EYES CURED.

Eye-Balls and Lids Became Terribly Inflamed—Was Unable to Go About—All Other Treatments Failed, But Cuticura Proved Successful.

"About two years ago my eyes got in such a condition that I was unable to go about. They were terribly inflamed, both the balls and lids. I tried home remedies without relief. Then I decided to go to our family physician, but he didn't help them. Then I tried two more of our most prominent physicians, but my eyes grew continually worse. At this time a friend of mine advised me to try Cuticura Ointment, and after using it about one week my eyes were considerably improved, and in two weeks they were almost well. They have never given me any trouble since and I am now sixty-five years old. I shall always praise Cuticura. G. B. Halsey, Mouth of Wilson, Va., Apr. 4, 1908."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Evidence.

Farmer Hayrick—The city is mighty wicked.

Farmer Corncrib—Yes, even the trees are behind bars.

The imitations cost you just as much as real Wrigley's Spearmint with a spear on it!

A youngster describes heathens as "folks who don't fight over religion."

Nothing so good as the new RUSS BLUE. Delights the laundress. Refuse Imitations.

A homely truth is better than a handsome lie.

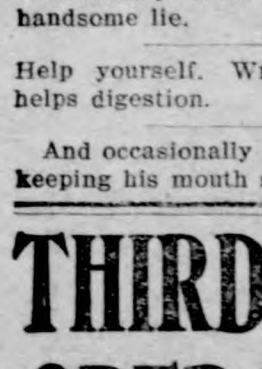
Help yourself. Wrigley's Spearmint helps digestion.

And occasionally a man tells lies by keeping his mouth shut.

THIRD OPERATION PREVENTED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill. — "I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I was so sick that two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation. I had already had two operations, and they wanted me to go through a third one. I suffered day and night from inflammation and a small tumor, and never thought of seeing a well day again. A friend told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her, and I tried it, and after the third bottle was cured."—Mrs. ALVENA SPERLING, 11 Langdon Street, Chicago, Ill.



If you are ill do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until an operation is necessary, but build up the feminine system, and remove the cause of those distressing aches and pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

A Fourth of July Obstacle Race

AND HOW INDEPENDENCE WAS DECLARED

"IN MY young days," said Grandaunt Mary, "girls didn't want to go in with the boys to play games."

Grandaunt Mary shook her head and rocked peacefully, looking over her spectacles at Grandniece Mary, who was doubled up in a discontented heap in a corner of the rose-scented veranda.

"It isn't the games," wailed Mary, disconsolately, "it's a race—a Fourth of July race that I want to go in."

"Dear, dear child, you'll get yourself all heated up if you flounce about like that, and so you would in a race. We'll go and see the boys, and you can wear your pretty new white dress," commented Grandaunt Mary, calmly, with no idea of further rebellion which she was arousing in her greatniece's breast.

"I don't want to be dressed up," Mary was beginning in a still greater outburst of revolt, when she was interrupted by a new arrival—a thin girl with bright blue eyes and bright red hair, who dashed around the corner of the veranda as if it weren't a very hot third of July indeed, and the hottest part of the afternoon.

"Oh, Mary!" cried the red-haired girl.

"Oh, Bunny!" cried Mary, "have you heard about it? These hateful boys aren't going to let us be in the races. They say they don't want girls on the program at all. And with our records, too!"

"Who told you?" demanded Bunny.

"Tom," said Mary. That settled it. The news was evidently authentic, for Tom was Mary's brother, and both girls knew his word was not to be doubted. Besides, he was chairman of the committee on Fourth of July sports, which the boys of Douglaston were going to hold at the village school grounds. An admission of 25 cents for grown-ups and ten cents for children was to be charged, and with the proceeds new suits were to be bought for the junior ball team. Of course, in some places the girls wouldn't have thought of having a part in so important an event, but the girls of Douglaston and their summer visitors were very fond of all sorts of sports, and Bunny and Mary were members of a small group of girls who had come from big schools where athletics and gymnastic work were a most important part of the course. Consequently they felt deeply aggrieved at being debarred from participating in the Fourth sports.

"And it would be much more interesting if they had at least one girls' race," wailed Mary, bursting forth again with her complaint. "Everybody is always more interested in girls' events than in boys. I'm sure more people would go."

Bunny suddenly sprang into the air and began clapping her hands in the wildest fashion. "Mary, you're a dear, a dear," she cried. "I've thought of something and we'll do it, too. Bring your gym bloomers and come over to my house right after tea and tell Susie and Evelyn. I'll tell the rest of the girls."

"There, now," said Aunt Mary, "what is that child going to do?"

"I don't know, but Bunny does. Bunny's found a way," carolled Mary joyously, and she ran gayly off to look up her gymnasium suit.

On Fourth of July morning the boys of Douglaston had a surprise. Tom Mason, Mary's brother, saw it first. It was a banner—a large white banner, which was swung across the main street from the post office to the principal grocer's opposite. Tom approached it curiously. On it he read this legend:

GIRLS' FOURTH OF JULY SPORTS.
This afternoon, between the hours of two and five o'clock the girls of Douglaston will compete in racing, jumping and basketball on Judge Evans' meadow. Admission 25 cents for adults, 10 cents for children.
LEMONADE FREE.

Tom stood spellbound a second. Then he turned and ran straight for the house of his chum, Johnny Driscoll. He stopped only a moment, and that was to gaze over into the Evans meadow. Preparations for the afternoon's event were already in progress. A group of girls were pacing off distances for the obstacle race, and his own sister was twining a hurdle with red, white and blue garlands.

"And they're going to do it up fancy like girls do," groaned Tom to Johnny a few moments later, in reference to the paper garlands.

"They'll get all the crowd," said Johnny dolefully.

"Sure thing," acquiesced Tom. "Judge Evans' man had a dozen banners to put up, and everybody'll see them."

"There's only one thing in our favor," he declared, "and that is the openness of the meadow. Anybody can see the races there without paying admission, and, of course, some people will be mean enough to do it. So if they want to make money they'll have a hard time, while, of course, there's a fence around our place. Not that that will do us any good if the folks can find something else to see that's just as lively and that they don't have to pay for if they don't want to."

"The only thing for us to do," said Johnny, firmly, "is to get all the fellows together."

It was rather a sheepish lot of boys who later marched two by two up to the Evans place. The Evans meadow was by this time assuming a decidedly gala appearance, with its abundance of flags and garlands flying from fence posts and trees.

Tom as leader of the opposition called a parley. His overtures were responded to with suitable reluctance by Bunny as queen of the Amazons. "You know," said Tom, "you only asked for one obstacle race, and we're willing to let you girls have half the events if you'll only combine with us. You can't make much money here, anyway. You can only keep us from making any at all, and we'll give you half the proceeds."

Now there was one very good thing about Bunny, which was that she knew when to make concessions. So she hesitated only long enough to tell the other girls that they ought really to forgive the boys, and then she straightway sent the judge's man to tack the following addendum to the white banners:

"The girls' sports will be held in combination with the boys' at the school field."

And the girls didn't take advantage of Tom's offer, either, for they didn't really want half the events. All that they wanted was a fair representation on the straightaway races and an opportunity of enjoying that fascinating sport, the obstacle race. They didn't make quite as good time as the boys, for, after all, boys are pretty good at some things, but when Grandniece Mary came in in the lead of all the girls after having undergone the perilous adventures of the high fence, the fence to be crawled under, the low fence, the hurdle and the barrel with both ends out, even Grandaunt Mary dropped her knitting bag in her excitement and said she wished they had done such things when she was a girl.

ANSWERED.

The Professor—Let me see! What day of the month is this?

"The Fourth of July!"

WOMEN SUFFER NEEDLESSLY

Many Mysterious Aches and Pains Are Easily Cured.

Backache, pain through the hips, dizzy spells, headaches, nervousness, bloating, etc., are troubles that commonly come from sick kidneys. Don't mistake the cause—Doan's Kidney Pills have cured thousands of women afflicted in this way—by curing the kidneys. Mrs. C. R. Foresman, 113 S. Eighth St., Canon City, Colo., says: "Three years I suffered with rheumatism, dropsy and kidney complaint, and became utterly helpless. I found relief after using two or three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and kept on until cured. Doan's Kidney Pills have been a blessing to me."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

A PROUD PAIR.

"What makes that peasant so proud to-day?"

"Oh, he has the biggest rooster in town—and his wife the biggest hat."—Fliegende Blaetter.

Not Lacking in Dignity.

There was once upon a time a country lawyer who was noted for his sedate manners and his judicial bearing. In the course of time he was elevated to the bench, where he conducted himself and the court with becoming demeanor, and where he won a reputation for sagacity based nearly altogether upon his solemn accents and his corrugated brow.

One who knew him well was asked by a stranger who saw the judge pass upon the street whether he was really an efficient arbiter.

"Well," said the acquaintance slowly, "I think I may say that John presides with more dignity and less ability than anyone else I ever knew."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Sees Extinction of Tuberculosis.

Dr. William Osler says: "Whether tuberculosis will be finally eradicated is even an open question. It is a foe that is very deeply intrenched in the human race. Very hard it will be to eradicate completely, but when we think of what has been done in one generation, how the mortality in many places has been reduced more than 50 per cent.—indeed, in some places 100 per cent.—it is a battle of hope, and so long as we are fighting with hope, the victory is in sight."

Evidence.

"His wife married him to reform him."

"And she succeeded, didn't she?"

"I don't know; I didn't know him before he was married."

"Neither did I; but you can see that he don't amount to anything now."

WON'T MIX

Bad Food and Good Health Won't Mix.

The human stomach stands much abuse but it won't return good health if you give it bad food.

If you feed right you will feel right, for proper food and a good mind is the sure road to health.

"A year ago I became much alarmed about my health for I began to suffer after each meal no matter how little I ate," says a Denver woman.

"I lost my appetite and the very thought of food grew distasteful, with the result that I was not nourished and got weak and thin.

"My home cares were very heavy, for besides a large family of my own I have also to look out for my aged mother. There was no one to shoulder my household burdens, and come what might, I must bear them, and this thought nearly drove me frantic when I realized that my health was breaking down.

"I read an article in the paper about some one with trouble just like mine being cured on Grape-Nuts food and acting on this suggestion I gave Grape-Nuts a trial. The first dish of this delicious food proved that I had struck the right thing.

"My uncomfortable feelings in stomach and brain disappeared as if by magic and in an incredibly short space of time I was myself again. Since then I have gained 12 pounds in weight through a summer of hard work and realize I am a very different woman, all due to the splendid food, Grape-Nuts."

"There's a Reason." Trial will prove. Read the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

IOB WOULD KEEP HIM BUS

Greenhorn Sailor Realized the Capt Had Given Him a Big Contract.

In the height of the recent wheat mult Broker Patten, discussing government's wheat estimates with reporter, said calmly:

"But some of the men the gove ment takes its figures from are gre horns. Perfect greenhorns. As as the Dutch sailor, you know.

"The captain said to the sail when the ship came to port:

"'Take a boat, run ashore and two dollars' worth of vegetables.'

"The sailor didn't know what ve tables were, so as soon as he stru land he said to a 'longshoreman:

"'What is vegetables, mate?'

"'Oh, dried peas, for instance,' 'longshoreman answered.

"So the Dutch sailor spent his dollars on a huge sack of dried pe

"When he drew near the ship ag with his load the captain called h from the bridge:

"'Well, have you got those ve tables?'

"'Aye, aye, sir,' said the sailor.

"'Then,' said the captain, 'ha them up to cookie one at a time.'

"'Shiver my timbers!' said t sailor, 'I've got a job before me no and no mistake!'"

NEVER DONE.

Slimkins—I—I hope you did mind my putting that little matter $5 in the hands of the bill collect yesterday?

Podger—Not at all; I borrowed dollar from him.

Use Allen's Foot-Ease.

It is the only relief for Swollen Sma ing, Tired, Aching, Hot, Sweating Fe Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foo Ease, a powder to be shaken into t shoes. Cures while you walk. At all Dru gists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Don't acce any substitute. Sample sent FREE. A dress, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

In the Black Forest.

"That man's passport is all rig Why does the policeman carry hi off?"

"Oh, the policeman is afraid to home through the dark woods alon —Meggendorfer Blaetter (Munich).

He Learned Better

"I never spoke a cross word to m wife but once."

"Honest?"

"Honest. Once was enough f mine, thank you."—Cleveland Leade

Be promoted! Real Wrigley's Spea mint with a spear on it promotes gestion and sweetens breath.

Economy.

Some women's idea of economy doing without the things that h husband likes best to eat.

Don't delay! Wrigley's Spearmint waiting for you with a spear on t wrapper. It's fine for digestion.

Or, They Should.

Shakespeare: Welcome ever smile and farewell goes out sighing.

If you wish beautiful, clear whi clothes, use the new RUSS BLUE. A grocers sell it.

Without Saying Anything.

They always talk who never think —Pope.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces flammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bot

It's a great comfort to a woman believe that her husband is lonesom when she is away.

Dishonest but industrious! Cheat de ers find it terribly hard work to s imitations of Wrigley's Spearmint.

After breaking a $5 bill the piec are soon lost.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
FOR ALL KIDNEY DISEASES
FOR RHEUMATISM BRIGHT'S DISEASE BACKACHE DIABETES
375 "Guaranteed"

WRIGLEY WRIGLEY WRIGLEY

If you want the best Liniment ask for A-B-C LINIMENT From your Druggist

NFERENCE ENDS

egian Lutherans Accomplished Much Business.

T THE CONFERENCE DID

ion Into Districts and Establishent of Pension Funds Regarded as Ranking First In Importance.

s Moines, June 19.—The big nal convention of the Norwegian eran church has adjourned. r eight days the delegates to this rtant ecclesiastical body met in Moines. During those days busi- of the utmost importance was acted.

re in a nutshell is what the nce did:

elected following officers: Rev. Ellestad, vice president; Rev. J. oseland, secretary, and Erik Wald, treasurer. The president, the Rev. T. H. Dahl, D. D., was elected ear for a term of three years.

tablished a pastors' and profes- pension fund of $100,000.

cided to commence the erection of 0,000 Deaconess' home and hospiin Chicago.

cided to commence excavations $60,000 ladies' dormitory at St. college, Northfield, Minn., this cided to divide national body inistricts of about 150, each with an- meetings and meetings of nal body every third year instead nnually.

ected its first English board of e missions. This action denotes it intends to work aggressively nglish as well as Norwegian.

rdained twenty men to ministry accepted four pastors from other wegian Lutheran bodies.

reated one board of charities to charge of all orphans' homes, es for the aged, the Deaconess' e and hospitals.

ded another chair to the regular lty of the theological faculty.

ecided to buy site for new acadin Canada.

ade appropriations amounting to 000, not including mission contriions, which are over twice this unt.

pproved more extensive use of heran evangelists.

was announced that all the apriations made last year had been and the convention was without . The check for $500 which was eived from the Des Moines Comcial club was given to needy pas- widows. Appropriations amount- o $38,000 were made for the comyear. This does not include the ropriations for home and foreign sions, which will amount to about 00 additional. The greatest apriation this year was given to St. f college.

esolutions of thanks were voted the Des Moines Commercial club, railroads and the representatives the press.

committee to arrange for a celetion of the twenty-fifth anniversof the united church—The Rt. . Dr. Dahl and Reverends O. Lokgaard, B. G. Reinersten, S. O. aten and N. G. Peterson.

nands Big Damage.

William Wirk, who was seriously ined in the West Riverside Coal comy's mine several weeks ago by ing slate, filed suit in the district rt demanding $25,000 damages. The intiff says he sustained internal inies that will make him a cripple life and that he is therefore end to that much money from the pany.

rgeon to Visit Austria.

Dr. William Jepson, professor of gery at the state university, has plied to Adjutant General Logan of Iowa National Guard for leave of ence during August, in order that may attend the international conss of medicine at Budapest, Aus-. Dr. Jepson is surgeon of the y-sixth Infantry with the rank of or.

e Gets Biggest Tax.

tate Treasurer Morrow received a ck for $40,000 in payment of the teral inheritance tax on the es- of the late George Wells of ddy Center. This is the largest ever paid by a single estate and paid only after a long controsy.

ers Says the Lid Is On.

Attorney General Byers told the wegian Lutheran conference that lid is on Iowa and is on to stick. conference decided that hereafter ed evangelists will not be tabooed, may be employed if they are therans.

River Navigation Important.

to place products of this state on velopment and utilization of the natural waterways of Iowa to produce a cheaper mode of transportation so as to place the products of this state on the markets of the world were given a great boost by S. A. Thompson, field secretary of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, who was here on invitation of the Iowa State Manufacturers' association, and at a noonday meeting at the Savery addressed the business men representing all the local booster organizations.

"The development of the rivers of Iowa is of the greatest importance to Des Moines," he said. "Nothing would give this city greater advantage than the use of a navigable stream, and I believe the improvement of the Des Moines river and the tributaries would benefit Des Moines far more than a half dozen cross-continent railroad lines. The lowering of freight rates multiplies the area from which trade is drawn and with water competition it is wonderful how low freight rates become.

"With a dependable Mississippi on the east, a navigable Missouri on the west and complete development of the interior streams, such as the Cedar, Des Moines and Iowa, this state would have a future of which few could even dream. It wuold place Des Moines and Iowa in touch with every nation of the world, and Iowa products could be put in the ports of the old world cheaper than they can now be placed on the markets of New York. Some day the time is coming when these rivers will be under control, when they will be navigable, and when that time comes the growth and advancement of the interior states will be marvelous."

Mr. Thompson declares that transportation nullifies the tariff and that the railroads benefit by the protective tariff. One illustration he offered was that the freight rates on a ton of oranges from Italy to New York was $3 and the duty $20, making a total of $23 a ton. When the tariff was imposed the railroad rate on a ton of oranges from California to New York was increased and now it is $23, making it as cheap to import a car of Italian oranges and pay the duty as it is to buy in this country.

Des Moines Near the Top.

Des Moines ranks fourth in the list of fifty-seven of the largest cities in the United States in the percentage of increase in building and construction work for the last month over the corresponding month last year. The increase in construction work in this city las month was 218 per cent greater than in May last year. Newark is first with 499 per cent, Toledo second with 274 per cent and Omaha third with 246 per cent.

Octogenarians Hold Picnic.

Two hundred residents of Iowa, between the ages of 70 and 100 years attended the tenth annual picnic of the Octogenarian society of Iowa at Union park. The principal speakers were Col. W. S. Dungan of Chariton and T. B. Perry of Albia. Election of officers was held and reports for the past year made.

Will Make Big Contracts.

During the ensuing three weeks contracts for a quarter million dollars worth of coal will be let by the state board of control. It will require 90,900 tons to supply the fourteen state institutions during the ensuing year. The price including transportation will range from $1.75 to $3 per ton.

Garrett to Speak Again.

Secretary B. W. Garrett of the state board of parole has accepted an invitation to deliver his lecture, "A Glimpse of Prison Life," before the convention of the Iowa Christian Endeavor union. The meeting will be held in Iowa Falls September 6 to 8.

Attends National Convention.

State Labor Commissioner E. W. Van Duyn has gone to Rochester, N. Y., to attend the national convention of labor commissioners. He will read a paper outlining the work of the Iowa commissioner.

Des Moines Gets Convention.

The mid-winter annual meeting of the Iowa State Manufacturers' association will be held regularly in Des Moines. The summer convention will be held over the state as usual.

Wright Spots Impure Oils.

State Food and Dairy Commissioner H. R. Wright has notified retail dealers that large quantities of adulterated linseed oil are being sold to retailers by jobbers and manufacturers in Omaha and Chicago.

Agar Is Denied a New Trial.

Judge Howe overruled the motion of the Agar Packing plant for a new trial of its $350,000 damage case against the Rock Island.

SOME TASTY CAKES

RECIPES THAT ARE WORTH REMEMBERING.

The Always Popular Sally Lunn—For Popovers—Robert Lee Jelly Cake—Steam Pone In Southern Style.

Sally Lunn.—One teaspoonful of salt, one quart of flour, one pint of sweet milk, one-half cup of sugar and one small cup of yeast. Make a batter and put in a warm place to rise, and in three hours, when it is light enough, add five eggs which have been beaten separately and one-half cupful of melted butter. Add one-half pint of flour to make a stiff batter. Spread in pans one inch thick, and let rise, then bake. Serve two at a time with melted butter between.

Popovers.—Beat two eggs very stiff and add one cup of milk, one cup of flour, and a pinch of salt. Have small tins very hot and well buttered. Fill half full with the mixture, bake in a quick oven for 20 minutes and serve at once.

Robert Lee Jelly Cake.—Use any recipe for sponge layer cake and fill with the following: Yolks of three eggs, juice and grated rind of one lemon, one-quarter pound of butter and one-half pound of sugar. Put in a saucepan on the stove and stir until cooked, then put in the well-beaten whites of the three eggs. As soon as it comes to a boil take off and stir until cold. Put between layers of cake.

Steam Pone.—One teacupful of New Orleans molasses, five teacupfuls of corn meal, two teacupfuls of brown flour, one teaspoonful of salt, one quart of buttermilk, and two teaspoonfuls of soda. Mix thoroughly, and put in airtight tin. Set in kettle of boiling water and boil for six hours. Then take from tin, put in pan, and bake slowly for two hours till it is a rich brown.

Velvet Sponge Cake.—Six eggs, two cups sugar, one cup boiling water, three cups flour, and one teaspoonful of baking powder. Separate the eggs and beat the yolks, and add to them the sugar and beat very light. Add the whites, then the hot water, and last beat the flour in very lightly. Bake in a moderate oven. Put together with icing flavored with the juice and grated rind of one lemon. This same cake may be baked in a big mold in layers, or in muffin tins.

Spice Cakes.—Four teacups of flour, one good teacup of butter, three teacups of sugar, four eggs, one teaspoonful of soda in one cup of sour milk or cream, and one-half teaspoonful each of nutmeg, allspice, mace, cinnamon and cloves. Cream together butter and sugar, break the four eggs over it, and heat. Add milk and soda, and put in gradually flour and the spices. Drop with a spoon on greased tins and bake. Ice with white icing flavored with lemon or brandy.

Filet of Beef.

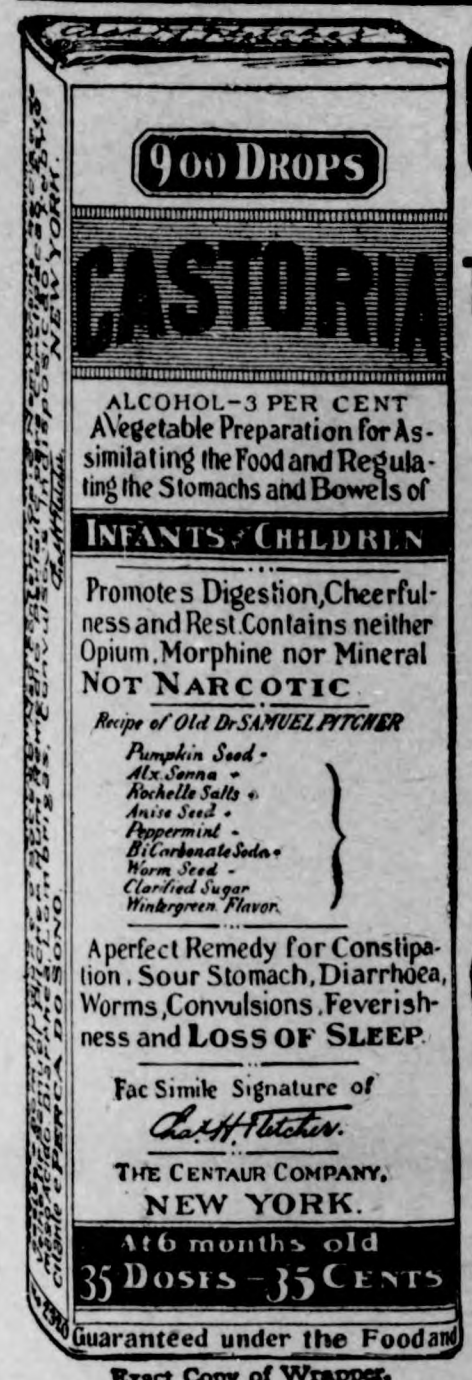
Have some filet cut into slices about an inch thick; melt a piece of butter the size of an egg in a saucepan and put in flat the meat sprinkled with salt and pepper. Let it stand in the butter one hour, then put the saucepan over a quick fire and burn the meat on each side. Take the meat out and keep it warm, meanwhile add to the butter a tablespoonful of flour; stir it smooth; put in half a pint of bouillon, half a pound of mushrooms already peeled, washed, and cut up if too large, and lastly the meat. Cook until the mushrooms are done. Add the juice of half a lemon and serve with the meat in the center of the dish, the mushrooms around it, and the gravy poured over.

Minced Lamb.

Remove all the good meat from what remains of roast lamb and mince fine. Put the bones and bits of skin in a saucepan and cover with a pint of water. Add one onion, one-half carrot cut small, a few sprays of parsley, and two mint leaves and simmer for one-half hour; add any gravy left from roast and strain. Thicken with one tablespoonful of flour rubbed in one tablespoonful of butter, add a teaspoonful of salt, a dash of cayenne, and the minced lamb. Let it come to a boil and serve.

Delicious Breakfast Dish for Two.

Cut four hard boiled eggs in slices and place them in an earthen baking dish. Into a pan on the fire put a little chunk of butter, a tablespoon of flour, and about half a pint of cream. A few bits of sage or thyme added are nice, but not obligatory. When this mixture boils put on three or four tablespoons of Parmesan cheese, which is sold grated in the shops. Then pour all this over the eggs, sprinkle bread crumbs over the top and bake brown in a hot oven.



Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

HAMLINS WIZARD OIL GREAT FOR PAIN
THE OIL THAT PENETRATES

Interesting Facts

The only effective and reliable remedy known for Gout, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Kidney and Bladder troubles, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness and all disorder of the bowels is

DR. D. JAYNE'S SANATIVE PILLS

For several generations they have been a household necessity for relieving and curing complaints of this kind. They are safe and sure in every instance. As a laxative, purgative and cathartic they are unexcelled.

Sold by druggists everywhere in 25c and 10c boxes

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT

SICK HEADACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cured by these Little Pills.

They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

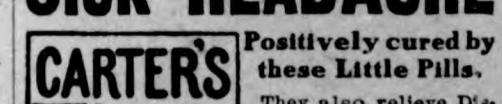
CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature

Brent Good

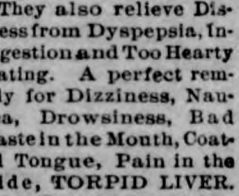
REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

DAISY FLY KILLER placed anywhere attracts and kills all flies. Neat, clean, ornamental, convenient, cheap. Lasts all season. Cannot spill or tip over, will not soil or injure anything. Guaranteed effective. Of all dealers, or sent prepaid for 20c. Harold Somers, 150 De Kalb Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

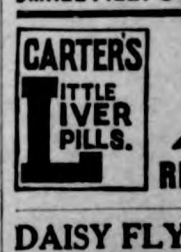


Buy a Wabash Wagon

From your dealer or direct from our factory. 40 styles and sizes for boys and girls of all ages from babyhood up, and larger Handy Wagons for men. Illustrated price list FREE. WRITE FOR IT!



WABASH MANUFACTURING COMPANY
14 Mill St., Wabash, Indiana



PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c, and $1.00 at Druggists

LAND—IRRIGATED—LAND. Perpetual water right; fine water; productive soil; crop failures unknown; 50 bu. wheat per acre; 3½ to 5 tons alfalfa; healthful climate; free timber; easy terms; write now. LINWOOD LAND CO., Rock Springs, Wyoming.

Paxtine

TOILET ANTISEPTIC

NOTHING LIKE IT FOR

THE TEETH Paxtine excels any dentifrice in cleansing, whitening and removing tartar from the teeth, besides destroying all germs of decay and disease which ordinary tooth preparations cannot do.

THE MOUTH Paxtine used as a mouth-wash disinfects the mouth and throat, purifies the breath, and kills the germs which collect in the mouth, causing sore throat, bad teeth, bad breath, grippe, and much sickness.

THE EYES when inflamed, tired, ache and burn, may be instantly relieved and strengthened by Paxtine.

CATARRH Paxtine will destroy the germs that cause catarrh, heal the inflammation and stop the discharge. It is a sure remedy for uterine catarrh.

Paxtine is a harmless yet powerful germicide, disinfectant and deodorizer. Used in bathing it destroys odors and leaves the body antiseptically clean.

FOR SALE AT DRUG STORES, 50c. OR POSTPAID BY MAIL.

LARGE SAMPLE FREE!

THE PAXTON TOILET CO., BOSTON, MASS.

WRIGLEY'S

Your Liver's Your Life

A dead liver means awful sickness—don't let it come—when it can be prevented. Cascarets keep the liver lively and bowels regular and ward off serious, fatal illness. 901

CASCARETS—10c box—week's treatment. All druggists. Biggest seller in the world. Million boxes a month.

THE MARVELOUS NEW HERZOG LIGHT

This is the new process you have read of in the press which burns

KEROSENE or COAL OIL

as a gas, without heat, smoke, smell or danger, producing a beautiful soft white light of over 80 candle power. Easy to read by. Fits any lamp. Thousands being sold. Will soon be in every home. Perfect satisfaction absolutely guaranteed. Beware of imitations. Get the Herzog. Price, with burner, wick, mantle and chimney complete, only $2.25, postpaid. Liberal discounts to agents. If you want to make the easiest, quickest and most satisfactory money you ever made, write today.

UNION LIGHT CO.
27 Greenwich Ave., New York City.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE FLAVOR LASTS

The Only Perfect Razor
NO STROPPING NO HONING
TRADE Gillette MARK
KNOWN THE WORLD OVER

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Books free. Highest references. Best results.

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

Rheumatism

Nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness.

Lame Shoulder.

This is a common form of muscular rheumatism. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely four times a day and a quick cure is certain.

Lumbago.

When muscular rheumatism attacks the muscles in the small of the back it is called lumbago. It is usually quite severe and every movement adds to the pain, and especially when one attempts to straighten up. No internal treatment is required. Keep quiet, as every movement aggravates the disease, and apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and you will soon be well again.

Sprains and Bruises are cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment.

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

(Continued from 5th page.)

his home, came with him. They returned Tuesday evening.

Rosa Wessel, of Colesburg, took in the campmeeting and spent a few days with her brother and family. She departed for Burt, Iowa, on Wednesday.

Clarence Arnold started on an extended tour last week. He will visit most of the western states, take in the exposition, the national park and many other places of interest.

Many of the readers of the Times will be pleased to know that William Brandt is improving nicely in the Osteopath Infirmary at Kirksville, Mo. We received the following lines on Monday: "Our patient, Mr. Brandt, is getting along fine. He is now able to take a few steps with the aid of the nurse. He uses his hands fairly well. He got out of bed by himself today."

The campmeeting which closed Monday afternoon was one of the best in years. Tho' the attendance from other places was not so large, the interest of those present was all the more manifest. The beautiful weather added materially to the success and put to shame the old saying that a campmeeting brings rain. To defray the running expenses, $140 was raised in a few minutes. The annual business meeting was so enthusiastic that committees were appointed to plan for the erection of a large pavilion in the near future.

Women Who Are Envied

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

More Rain, More Rest

Are you getting plenty of rest these days? We certainly are getting plenty of rain. A heavy rain fell Tuesday night and another yesterday afternoon.

Successful Sunday Journalism

For several years the newspaper readers of the West have watched with interest the unique experiment embodied in Sunday Magazine of the Chicago Record-Herald. The time has now come when it is no longer an experiment, but a sound and prospering success. Nothing else of the kind in newspaperdom can compare for a moment with this remarkable supplement.

The Sunday Magazine of the Record-Herald is a real magazine, full of stories and articles by the best living writers, illustrated by eminent artists and carrying on its cover each week a masterpiece of color work. Its prestige is now such that it can compete with the big monthlies for the most costly fiction in the market, sometimes paying as high as $25,000 for a single serial, as it did for Conan Doyle's "Sir Nigel." It captured Anthony Hope's "Spy of Kravonia" when every other magazine in the country wanted the story. The most popular tales of humor now appearing in the United States—those of the inimitable Shorty McCabe—have been published exclusively in the Sunday Magazine of the Record-Herald from the start.

Its high literary quality has been steadily maintained and has "won out." You will find one of the best novels of the day running serially in its columns at the present moment. It is not strange that hundreds of thousands of readers prefer the Sunday Record-Herald to all other newspers

Attention

PEOPLE!

Don't forget that the Gruetzmacher Bros. handle all kinds of stoves such as heaters, cook stoves and steel ranges.

Also a full line of hardware, groceries, flour and feed.

A complete line of implements also paints, oils and varnishes.

Rock and barrel salt. Barb wire and field fence.

Yours to please at the old stand,

Gruetzmacher Bros.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOW

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE. LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STATE. Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. Fi... d yat ... atment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund m... All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines used... detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by mail or ex... press. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage. Ch... low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for terms. ... sultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call or ... to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men—The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without the ... harmful instruments. Our ... fully explain.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the scro... causing nervous debility, we... of the nervous system, etc., permanently cured.

BLOOD POISON —That terrible disease ... its stages, cured for life. Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, and all for... private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few days w... pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application ... description of above diseases, effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrapper.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINES,

RUPTURE, PILES

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolutely reliable and permanent. Write to or call and see the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were afflicted with Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia.
Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines, Ia.
E. C. Miller, Des Moines, Ia.
John H. Looby, Des Moines, Ia.

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you free, postage paid. This book contains much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonial letters. Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the book. Write today—it will pay you.

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES, IOWA

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:40 p. m.
82 ..... 2:50 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:35 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

L. O. Turgasen, Agent

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

PATENTS

DESIGNS
TRADE-MARKS
AND COPYRIGHTS
OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"

Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,
E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

McCALL PATTERNS 10 AND 15 NONE HIGHER

McCALL'S MA... 50 A YEAR INCLUDING A FREE...

McCALL PATTERNS
Celebrated for style, perfect fit, simplic... reliability nearly 40 years. Sold in ... every city and town in the United St... Canada, or by mail direct. More st... any other make. Send for free ca...

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
More subscribers than any other ... magazine—million a month. Invaluab... est styles, patterns, dressmaking, ... plain sewing, fancy needlework, hairdr... etiquette, good stories, etc. Only 50 ... year (worth double), including a free ... Subscribe today, or send for sample...

WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS to Agents. Postal brings premium ca... and new cash prize offers. Address

THE McCALL CO., 238 to 248 W. 37th St., NEW...

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else fa... In nervous prostration and fem... weaknesses they are the supre... remedy, as thousands have testifi...

FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AN... STOMACH TROUBLE...

it is the best medicine ever s... over a druggist's counter.

Just Dust It on the Sor...
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls whi... work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bottom...
Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid by ...
Money Back if Not Satisfied.
The RED STAR HEALING POWDE...
(25c. and 50c. Cans). GARNER, I...

The Klemme Times.

VOLUME XIII. NUMBER 48 KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, JULY 1, 1909. $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

ICE IS NICE AND COLD
BUT IT MELTS AWAY.
NICE COLD CASH
IN THE BANK
WILL GROW

PUT IT IN THE BANK
FOR THEN IT WILL BE SAFE.

Create or Crumble?

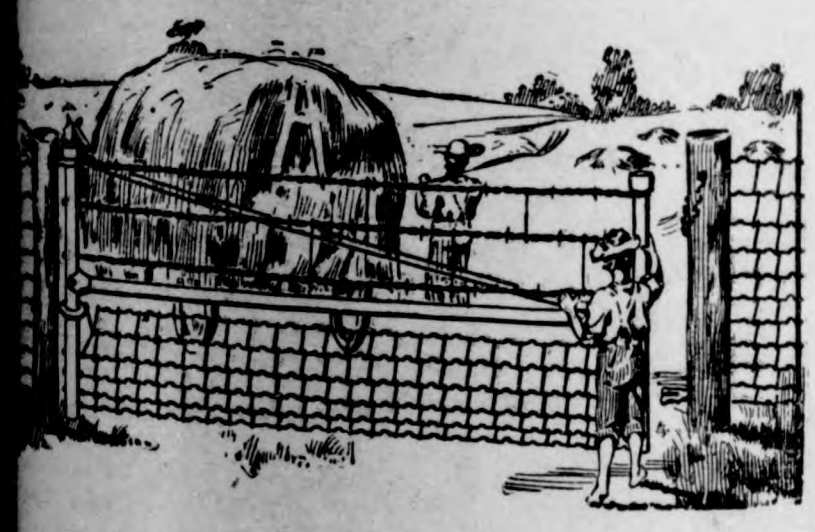
¶Every man should create a foundation for success before old age crumbles his earning powers.

¶A small savings account started today, NOW, will start you on the road to independence. The farther you travel on this road the less you will wish to turn aside.

¶Remember we are here to help you create during your Spring of life to lay aside a nest egg ere the Fall of life begins to crumble your earning power.

State Savings Bank.

emme - - Iowa



Iowa Gates are more than a convenience if women or children ever use them for being so simple they are very light and can easily be ng either way. The IOWA gate is made to last—no castings to ak—no wearing parts—even the wires have galvanized stretchers ighten them. Will not blow down, burn or rot out. Get prices.

H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, AGENT
KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J.W.WATERMAN

No. 6659 Report of the Condition of

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

At Klemme, in the State of Iowa, at the close of business June 23, 1909.

RESOURCES

Loans and discounts		$ 97,449 87
Overdrafts secured and unsecured		1,622 66
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation		25,000 00
Premiums on U. S. bonds		1,032 75
Banking house furniture and fixtures		2,050 87
Due from National banks		11,920 88
Due from approved reserve agents		29,716 57
Checks and other cash items		96 77
Notes of other National banks		1,590 00
Fractional paper currency nickels and cents		91 09
Lawful money reserve in bank:
Specie	$ 7,090 45
Legal tender notes	120 00	7,210 45
Redemption fund with U. S. treasurer		1,250 00
Total		179,031 91

LIABILITIES

Capital stock paid in	25,000 00
Surplus fund	901 15
Undivided profits less expenses and taxes paid	760 91
National bank notes outstanding	25,000 00
Individual deposits subject to check	27,760 34
Demand certificates of deposit	99,609 51
Total	179,031 91

STATE OF IOWA, } ss
Hancock County, }

I, F. A. Arnold, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemny swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

F. A. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 29th day of June, 1909.

FRANK M. HANSON,
[SEAL] Notary Public.

Correct—Attest:

AUG. LAU
R. M. DAY } Directors
AUG. BARZ

ELL CENTER

Special Correspondence:

Walter Stoker is working for Joe Lawhorn.

Norma Post was at Belmond last Thursday.

Wm. Yohn and family were at the Lake Sunday.

Peter Josten is having some tile put on his farm.

Mr. Babcock spent Sunday with his family at Kanawha.

Mrs. Wm. Yohn was a caller at Hod Lawhorn's Friday.

Clifford Schwartz visited his parents near Garner Sunday.

Erma Born, of Twin Lake, is staying with Mrs. Henry Josten.

Mrs. Hod Lawhorn called on Mrs. Mark Adwell last Thursday.

Tom Nelson Sr. of Klemme, is helping his son Tom over a rush of work.

Mrs. Herman Barz visited with Mrs. Hod Lawhorn last Thursday evening.

Mr. Josten and son John were in this neighborhood last week looking after their farms and visiting relatives.

Joe Lawhorn and family, Tom Nelson and family and Mrs. Haskin and children took an outing at the lake one day last week.

Mrs. Kuskie and children drove to Belmond last Thursday. From there they go to the western part of Nebraske for a visit with relatives.

Sees Mother Grow Young

"It would be hard to overstate the wonderful change in my mother since she began to use Electric Bitters," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick of Danforth, Me. "Although past 70 she seems really to be growing young again. She suffered untold misery from dyspepsia for 20 years. At last she could neither eat, drink nor sleep. Doctors gave her up and all remedies failed till Electric Bitters worked such wonders for her health." They invigorate all vital organs, cure liver and Kidney troubles, induce sleep, impart strength and appetite. Only 50c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

OUR BUSINESS IS BANKING
BANKING IS OUR BUSINESS

The sign "Bank" does not make a bank and is often misleading. It requires time, energy, close attention to business, a substantial capital and ripe experience in banking to make a bank. We claim, without blushing, all essentials necessary to make our business that of banking, and tender our patrons a service thoroughly seasoned by years of experience, backed by substantial capital.

The First National Bank
CAPITAL $25,000

PETROLEUM COKE

¶A carload of COKE just received and another car to arrive soon. The supply is limited, so order at once as it has heretofore been impossible to get it later in the season. Also Best Grades in all Soft Coals at Prices that are RIGHT.

Highest Market Price Paid for Grain and Live Stock Six Days in the Week

H. C. LAU

GOODELL

From the Globe:

Goodell will celebrate on Monday, July 5th.

A number around here are enjoying the German measles.

J. D. Bachman transacted business at Klemme Monday afternoon.

Arthur Savogue spent Sunday at the home of his aunt, Mrs. E. Kinney at Belmond.

R. M. Clark, of Staples, Minn. came Saturday and will visit at the home of his brother, G. W. Clark, and with other relatives here for a time.

H. F. Freeman returned Saturday from the south part of the state where he has been on business.

Frank McNutt and carpenter force recently completed a fine large barn for Mc. J. Thompson west of town.

Seven families enjoyed a picnic supper last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. E Porter, the event being Mr. and Mrs. Porter's sixth wedding anniversary. A very pleasant evening was passed by those present.

Tortured on a Horse

"For ten years I couldn't ride a horse without being in torture from piles," writes L. S. Napier, of Ruggless, Ky., "when all doctors and other remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me." Infallible for piles, burns, scalds, cuts, boils, fever-sores, eczema, salt rheum, corns 25c. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

MESERVEY

From the Messenger:

Louis Hulsebus assisted Swaledale in a game of ball against Rockwell at Rockwell Tuesday.

Lawrence Jensen who has been staying on a farm near Belmond, returned home last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Lemke, accompanied by their daughter Miss Amelia and son Ferdinand, attended the campmeeting at Garner last Sunday.

Fred Paul, who is at Dows with the Paul Bros. string of steppers, was visiting relatives and friends here on the 12th inst. He is greatly pleased with the results from his horse training.

Geo. J. Fischer went to Hampton, Minn., on last Saturday to visit his father who is sick at the home of his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Becker. Geo. reports the old gentleman as improving, being much better than he was when they were called there a few weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lauster, of Bigstone, S. D., are spending the week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lauster. Geo. reports that he and his brother Wm. are enjoying a good trade in their mercantile business at Bigstone.

BRITT

From the News:

A new cement sidewalk has been put in in front of the Cole block.

John Love is having a lot of tile laid on his farm southwest of Britt.

W. D. Arnett, who is now located in South Dakota, spent Sunday in Britt.

Harold Smith has gone to Clinton, this state, where he has a good position with the Iowa Telephone Co.

Jos. Weis left last Saturday for Holyoke, Mass., where he will spend the summer with one of his sons. Chas. Miller accompanied him as far as Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Castle will leave soon for Hettinger, N. Dak., where Mr. Castle has purchased a residence lot and will erect a house thereon. He will operate an auto livery as he has done here the past year.

Mrs. James Johnson Sr. died at her home in Britt at about 3:00 o'clock on Saturday morning, June 19, 1909, heart trouble being the cause of death. While she had not been in good health for some time, her illness was not considered serious and her death was sudden and somewhat unexpected.

The Farmers' Picnic held in Britt last Saturday was quite well attended but people from the country were slow in coming in on account of the busy time of the year and but few came until afternoon. A good program was given and all seemed to enjoy it very much.

A Night Rider's Raid

The worst night riders are calomel, croton oil or aloes pills. They raid your bed to rob you of rest. Not so with Dr. King's New Life Pills. They never distress or inconvenience, but always cleanse the system, curing colds, headache, constipation, malaria 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

Barnum and Bailey's circus is billed to appear at Mason City on July 19th.

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher

KLEMME - - - IOWA

SUMMARY OF A WEEK'S EVENTS

Latest News of Interest Boiled Down for the Busy Man.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Senator La Follette in an editorial in his weekly magazine covertly accused President Taft of helping to throttle the move for an income tax.

Vice-president Sherman appeared in the senate wearing a suit of blue jeans made in Georgia.

President Taft's corporation tax plan was presented to the senate by Senator Aldrich.

The senate voted to increase the duty on shoes from 15 to 20 per cent. ad valorem.

President Taft summoned members of his cabinet and several leading senators to the White House for a conference to devise a plan for levying a tax on corporations.

PERSONAL.

Miss Edith Dodds, daughter of the secretary of the Illinois board of pharmacy, was married in London to Robert L. S. McClure, son of S. S. McClure, the magazine publisher.

Maj. Charles J. T. Clarke, Twenty-sixth infantry, has been dismissed from the army for misconduct in financial affairs.

William J. Bryan, Jr., and Miss Helen Berger were married at the bride's summer home at Grand Lake, Col.

Newton D. Alling of New York was elected president of the American Institute of Banking, and Chattanooga, Tenn., was selected as the next meeting place.

The home of W. H. Whalen, former superintendent of the Iowa division of the Northwestern railway, was destroyed by a bomb at Tucson, Ariz.

John J. Ryan, former race track plunger, was indicted in Cincinnati on a charge of operating a bucket shop.

Charles M. Schwab, president of the Bethlehem Steel Company, returned from a trip to Europe.

GENERAL NEWS.

Robert Eastman, slayer of Mrs. Edith Woodill at St. Michaels, Md., killed himself when surrounded by pursuers.

Justice Dowling in the New York supreme court granted a separation and $36,000 a year alimony to Mrs. Howard Gould.

William Kage, employed by the United States Express Company at Green Bay Wis., confessed that he, and not a robber, as he first reported, stole $4,600 from the company.

Thirty-four deaths from cholera and 99 new cases were reported within 24 hours in St. Petersburg.

Striking car men attacked the barns of the La Crosse, Wis., street railway company and a demand was made for militia to protect the property.

England will send three warships to San Francisco in October to assist in celebrating the rebuilding of the city

Albert Reese, a negro murderer, was taken from jail and hanged by a mob of 15 masked men at Cuthbert, Georgia.

The American Institute of Homeopathy changed the code of ethics applying to its members by releasing physicians from professional secrecy when silence is injurious to innocent persons.

It has been found that Abdul Hamid, deposed sultan of Turkey, had $21,500,000 in the Imperial Bank of Germany.

Charles F. Hansen a blind organist of the Second Presbyterian church in Indianapolis, saved the sanctuary from fire after it had been struck by lightning.

A number of Navajo Indians, who have been held at Fort Huachuca at hard labor for two years, will be liberated and returned to the reservation at once, following an order of the supreme court of Arizona.

Rumors were heard in Milwaukee that the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company would remove its headquarters from Milwaukee to Chicago. Officials of the company refused to confirm the report.

When a bottle of hair restorer turned Mrs. Kate J. Moeser's hair into a bright green, she sued the manufacturer of the preparation and won a verdict of $500 in a New York court.

Doctors of Bellevue hospital, New York, are puzzled by the strange case of James M. Faul, a car driver. His skin all over, except that on one side of his face, has turned black.

Only the uncertainty concerning the time to be devoted to the western trip of President Taft is said to stand in the way of completing arrangements for a meeting between him and President Diaz of Mexico in the autumn. The meeting place would be El Paso, it is believed.

Seismic disturbances continue daily in Messina, Sicily, the shocks reaching a record in the last 24 hours, when they numbered 23

Mrs. Edith May Thompson Woodill, protege of Lyman J. Gage, former secretary of the treasury, was slain at St. Michaels, Md., by a newspaper writer named Roberts and her body weighted down in a creek.

Mrs. Howard Gould again took the witness stand and denied charges made by her husband's witnesses. Dustin Farnum, in a deposition, denied improper relations with Mrs. Gould.

Reports from several cities of the capture of Leon Ling, slayer of Elsie Sigel, proved to be untrue.

Twelve men fell 315 feet to the bottom of a coal mine near Clinton, Ind., when the clutch of the elevator failed to work, and several may die.

Gov. Hoke Smith of Georgia suspended D. G. McLendon, chairman of the state railroad commission, who had refused to order a reduction in rates.

As the result of a race feud growing out of the election of Gov. Hughes, negroes set fire to several buildings in Goshen, N. Y., and the blaze caused $100,000 loss.

After Fred M. Kell of Des Moines, Ia., had been killed by lightning, his faithful horse trotted into Perry with the body in the buggy.

The body of Oscar Carlson was washed ashore and it is believed his companions, Andrew Smith and Edward Holn of Gladstone, Mich., were also drowned while on a fishing trip.

Six persons died in Pittsburg and eight in New York from the terrific heat which has been causing prostrations in the east.

The Suburban handicap, one of the greatest races on the American turf, was won by Fitzherbert, owned by Sam Hildreth.

Naval architects and marine engineers numbering 125, representing many firms of the country, are in Detroit for the annual convention of the body.

There was a deluge of small perch in Harlem street, New York, when firemen cleaned out the hydrants. Many children carried home the live perch in pails of water.

If President Taft's plan to tax corporations wins, 39 leading business concerns of the country will pay the government approximately $5,000,000 a year. The Standard Oil Company will contribute about $1,200,000 a year, it is estimated.

By the arrest of Cho Wong Dock at Portland, Ore., Immigration Inspector Barbour believes he has unearthed an organized band that has smuggled Chinese into this country.

Seventeen men were killed and 16 injured by an explosion in mine No. 4 of the Lackawanna Coal & Coke Company at Wehrum, Pa.

Lydia Moffett, 17 years old, who had been held prisoner for six days in a Chinese opium den near the scene of the Elsie Sigel murder, was rescued by her mother.

Sergt. Acadenia, leader of the mutinous constabulary in the Philippines, was killed by Sergt. Hewson, one of his pursuers.

Mark Woodruff, former register of lands of Colorado, was arrested on a charge of embezzling $15,000 of school land funds.

Nine tourists, including five Americans, were drowned when a boat capsized in Lake Killarney, Ireland.

Speaker Cannon told a group of girl graduates from Oswego, N. Y., men would have no chance at all if women were allowed to vote.

Fred Stevens, a young farmer, was shot from ambush while driving with his brother near the village of Hubuck, Ill.

Severe earthquake shocks were felt in several California cities and in Reno, N. M.

The New York to Seattle automobile race was won by the Ford car No. 2, its time being 22 days and 55 minutes.

Dr. Hills Cole of New York, in an address before the Homeopathic conference at Detroit, declared the people needed scaring to bring about a successful war on tuberculosis.

A. Teon, a Mexican banker, and his wife and seven children, arrived in New York from Europe, after spending $100,000 on a year's vacation. They will visit Chicago on their way home.

Edward H. Harriman is quoted at Vienna as saying that "many men in New York would be glad to learn I was dead." He added that he "intended to live longer than most of them."

Filipino constabulary have killed the chief of the Savao mutineers and five have been captured. The remnant of the rebels is being pursued.

Hailstones as big as walnuts fell in Iowa and caused much damage to corn and other crops.

TO HEAD Y. M. C. A.

Believed that J. H. Goodell Is Slated for State Secretary.

IN TOUCH WITH DUTIES

Present State Financial Secretary Likely to Be Made Secretary of the State Association.

Marshalltown, Ia., June 28.—It is believed in Y. M. C. A. circles that John A. Goodell, formerly of Duluth, but for two years past, prior to a year ago, secretary of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. of this city, is slated for the position of state secretary for Iowa, to succeed the late W. A. Magee. Mr. Goodell is at present state financial secretary, to which position he was appointed less than a year ago.

Mr. Goodell is believed by his friends on the state committee to be especially qualified for the work of state secretary. Since he became state financial secretary he has come in close touch with the state secretary's duties, and during Mr. Magee's last illness he had the work of the state secretary in charge.

The state committee, with which rests the selection of a successor to Mr. Magee, is composed of J. G. Olmsted of Des Moines, chairman; F. A. McCornack of Sioux City, vice chairman, and C. E. Hunn of Des Moines, secretary. Mr. Goodell is now acting as state secretary.

Schroeder Declines Des Moines Offer.

Marshalltown, Iowa, June 25.—E. G. Schroeder, physical director of the state university, who was offered the directorship of the Des Moines Y. M. C. A., declined the Des Moines offer by mail, he having decided to remain with the university another year. Schroeder does not expect to do physical work more than a few years, as he is studying law. Were he expecting to continue physical work he would accept the Des Moines offer, which he considers the finest field in the state.

Banknotes Paper Walls and Floor.

Burlington.—The mystery of the disappearance of the wealth of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Farrier of Sperry, Ia., a short distance above Burlington, has been cleared away by the administrators of the estate, who, in tearing up the carpet, discovered that the floor under it was fairly papered with bank notes of large and small denominations, $600 thus being found. Under the organ $200 was found stuffed away, and similar bunches of money are being found in various parts of the house in unexpected places. So far $2,000 have thus been recovered, and the search is still going on. Mrs. Farrier died April 12, and it being known that she was well to do, her administrators could not imagine where all her money had gone. It appears that the woman was afraid of banks and chose to secret her money about the house where she could watch it.

Mail Clerk's Fast Work.

Mason City.—The fastest man among the mail clerks in Iowa is said to be Edward Flemming of this city, who has a run between this city and Dubuque on the Milwaukee, who in a test taken at Sioux City distributed 1,004 cards in 72 different separations in just 21 minutes. Assistant Chief Clerk Henderson, in charge of the test, said it was the best record yet made and that Flemming's work was absolutely errorless.

Many Co-operative Elevators.

Hampton.—Five farmers' co-operative elevators have been organized during the past two months by Commercial Agent McMillan of the Short Line. He has just completed the organization of the fifth concern at Racine, the first station south of Iowa Falls. The elevators are located at Hurley, Sheffield, Hampton, Chapin and Racine. The average investment of each is $5,000.

Badly Hurt in Runaway.

Columbus Junction.—Miss Florence Bonnichsen, age 15, narrowly escaped death when thrown many feet from a road wagon drawn by horses running away through Main street. The father was also thrown from the wagon, which was destroyed before breaking loose from the running team. He fell on his back, but no serious injuries were incurred.

Iowa Actor Run Down by Train.

Creston.—With his head crushed and with bruises covering his left arm and leg, the lifeless and terribly mutilated body of Elmer Corey, son of Nate Corey, of this city, was discovered on the Burlington right-of-way, three miles east of Prescott.

New Trolley Line Planned.

Centerville.—A proposition that was unanimously acceptable to the public interurban committee of fourteen was made by the Centerville Light and Traction company and the solicitation for bond subscriptions began at once. The line will be built to Mystic, seven miles northwest on the Milwaukee road, with rich coal lands intervening. The traction company proposes to furnish the remainder of the capital if the local people will subscribe for $75,000 in bonds at 6 per cent, secured by first mortgage on the property of the entire plant, lighting, heating and street railway.

Centerville has 8,000 people, Mystic and environs 3,000, with several small coal camps on the line.

The intention is to get the matter under way so the construction work can be done before cold weather.

Country Girls Stranded.

Des Moines.—Two pretty country girls from near Fort Dodge were picked up by the police practically starving upon the streets of Des Moines. They had been put out of a rooming house for lack of funds and had nothing to eat for nearly two days. Their names are Zelphia Frost and Mable Knapp. They had come to the city to find work and failed.

Chief of Police Miller at once notified the mother of Miss Frost who came to Des Moines and took her daughter back home. A friend appeared at the last moment who supplied Miss Knapp with sufficient funds to pay her fare to Fort Dodge, where she will live with her sister.

Body of Murdered Child in Lake.

Spirit Lake.—Some children made a find of the body of an infant along the shore of West Okoboji. They were old enough to realize the importance of the discovery and at once gave the alarm. The coroner made an examination and found that its skull had been beaten in. There was no clothing on the body. It was a boy baby and had probably been thrown into the lake about eight days previous.

No New School for Shenandoah.

Shenandoah.—The proposition to vote bonds to the amount of $14,000 of which $13,000 was to be used to build a new ward school building in the west part of town, and $1,000 to make repairs on the present high school building, was defeated at the special election by a majority of 186 out of a total vote of 742.

Sunday Converts Join Church.

Marshalltown.—A total of 416 new members to seven churches of this city were received. Most of them were converts at the "Billy" Sunday meetings that closed recently. The First Methodist church heads the list, taking in 125 members. The Central Church of Christ is second, with 105.

Iowa Woman Gasoline Victim.

Sioux City.—Her clothing ablaze from the waist up, the result of a gasoline stove explosion in her home, Mrs. Louise Borowsky rushed into the street screaming for help and was seriously, perhaps fatally, burned before neighbors succeeded in extinguishing the flames.

Butler County Soldiers Meet.

New Hartford.—The thirty-first annual reunion of the Butler County Veterans' association occurred at New Hartford. Only 62 of the boys who wore the blue registered at headquarters, but an interesting program was carried out.

Packing Plant for Fort Dodge.

Fort Dodge.—A packing plant is the next thing for Fort Dodge in the way of new manufacturies. The sum of $150,000 has already been subscribed in stock and $150,000 more, the remainder necessary, is already in sight.

Safe Blowers Get $3.90 at Diagonal

Diagonal.—The safe in the postoffice at this place was blown to pieces by robbers. Only $3.90 was taken, as the funds are deposited every night in the bank.

Baby Weighed Only 1½ Pounds.

Odebolt.—A baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brogan, weighing one and a half pounds, has been placed in an incubator in hopes of saving its life.

Iowa Wesleyan Prizes.

Mount Pleasant.—Harry Wishard of Bloomfield, a member of the sophomore class of Iowa Wesleyan university, won the Harlan oratorical prize of $50.

Attacked and Bitten by Dogs.

Mason City.—Attacked by two dogs, who lacerated his legs, Guy Weed, a local traveling man, is suffering from the wounds and in fear of infection.

Todd Will Leave Hospital.

Des Moines.—A. H. Todd is rapidly recovering at Mercy hospital from the bullets fired into him by Mose Rice.

TRUNK TO NEWA

Police Believe Ling's Trunk tained Body of Girl.

HE DROVE BACK TO NEW Y

Tried to Lose the Trunk in New sey Town—New Evidence in Siegel Murder Case Discovered.

New York, June 28.—New ents developed in Newark, N. the mystery surrounding the m of Elsie Sigel, which threaten stroy many of the main theorie on whih the police have been ing since the discovery of the body in the room of Leon Ling a week ago.

The trunk in which the girl's was found was carted from a re ant in New York to the room of in Eighth avenue on the afterno June 10th, the day after the gir appeared. James Halstead, the man who carried the trunk, iden a photograph of Leon as his f that day.

The Newark restaurant is co ed by Li Sing, who admits th knew Leon and who claims th June 10 Leon came to his resta with his trunk and asked perm to leave it there.

Leon returned at 10:30 o'cloc afternoon with Halstead and hi Li says the trunk was so heavy he asked Leon what it contained the Chinaman told him "Clo With these facts established are inclined to think that the gi killed elsewhere than in Leon's and that the body was then sh to Newark and thence to New

CLOUDBURST DELUGES

Several Men and a Baby Nar Escape Death in the Mad dened Waters.

Vail, Ia., June 28.—A g cloudburst occurred here and water was in every business from three inches to two and feet deep and many residences flooded. Some were swept their foundations. One res was moved 150 feet and anoth feet and partly turned around. men and a baby nearly drowne were rescued with dufficulty. rain fell in torrents for two The Chicago & Northwestern r tracks were washed out in places west of here and all were delayed.

Great destruction was don stocks of goods of business hous carpets and rugs of the homes were flooded. The water left a of mud from two to eight thick and sidewalks and crossin all swept far from their places. damage will reach into tho and it will be a month befo town will resume its usual be

According to the oldest inhab the water was two feet higher any previous flood.

GREEKS ATTACK CONDU

His Train Had Run Over a G Barricaded Depot Saved Him.

Fairfield, Iowa, June 28.—A because one of their number w over by a Burlington freight, ty-five Greeks employed in th struction gang at Lockridge, miles east of Fairfield, attacke Hayes of Burlington, conductor freight, and chased him to th senger station, where, with th of the agent he barricaded th and remained there until help

Lockridge people organized drove all the Greeks out of Hayes was not seriously injur

The Greek who was caught the train was badly injured a taken to Burlington.

Forty Years in a School Ro

Omaha, Neb., June 28.—Afte years of school teaching, of w quarter of a century was d Omaha, Miss Villa B. Shipp structor of history in the grades at Long school, has r and gone with her elder siste Kate Shippey, to live at th home, Gowanda, N. Y.

Schlater Jailed on Fraud Cha

Des Moines, June 28.—"Sch physician, minister of the gosp self styled faith healer, was a in his apartments at the Sabi by Detective Brunnemer on gram from the sheriff at Clint charging him with obtaining by false pretenses.

HER INFINITE VARIETY

By BRAND WHITLOCK

ILLUSTRATIONS BY RAY WALTERS

COPYRIGHT 1907 BY BOBBS-MERRILL CO.

SYNOPSIS.

ator Morley Vernon's visit with his ee was interrupted by a call from political boss at the state capital. regretted it, the girl more than he, use she had arranged to attend a er that evening with him. She said earned for a national office for him. Vernon's desk in the senate he found d rose, accompanied by a plea for age for women. He met the au- es, pretty Miss Maria Greene of go, who proposed to convert him voting for house resolution No. 19. Greene secured Vernon's promise to for the suffrage resolution. He also her by convincing others. He took ing to the fair suffragette. Miss e consulted with the lieutenant-gov- . Vernon admitted to himself that uffragette had stirred a strange feel- within him. He forgot to read his e's letter. Vernon made a great h in favor of suffrage, aided by es from Miss Greene. The resolution made a special order. Vernon was usiastic on the prospects for the res- on. He was much in Miss Greene's pany. Vernon neglected thoughts of lia. He took Miss Greene driving and out plans for the success of the reso- n. Vernon's speech caused a great spaper sensation. He was being neg- d by Amelia, who had not answered letter. Vernon is "tipped off" that his age resolution may not pass. As Greene was due the following morn- he had no fears. Miss Greene ar- and breakfasted with Vernon. s the dining room entrenched be- women opponents of the suffrage lution, he spied Amelia. He started rd her. She treated him coldly and women opponents of suffrage re- ed him for his part. Mrs. Hodge- rop told Senator Vernon that his uct with Miss Greene had been hard Amelia.

CHAPTER XII.—Continued.

e looked at his watch; it was half- t nine; the senate would convene ten; the resolution would not be ched before half-past ten at any ; and so he determined to brave . Overman Hodge-Lathrop again. turned back into the lobby; there was, hobnobbing with men; she not pass from group to group, aft- the manner of any other lobbyist, by some coercion he wished he ht be master of, she drew them un- ngly to her side. Now she had ldwood, the leader of the house, chairman of the steering commit- and Porter, the leader of the sen- She appeared to be giving them tructions.

he had set her committee on less portant game; the ladies were scat- d over the rotunda, each talking to ttle set of men. When Mrs. Over- n Hodge-Lathrop saw Vernon com- she turned from Braidwood and ter and stood awaiting him. angely enough Braidwood and Por- stayed where they were, as if she put them there. And Vernon re- ted that he had never known them, doubtless no one else had ever wn them, to do such a thing as t before.

"Where's Amelia?" he asked before could speak.

"I have sent her upstairs," said . Overman Hodge-Lathrop, "poor ld!"

Vernon wondered why "poor child." "It's really too bad," Mrs. Overman dge-Lathrop continued.

"What is too bad?" demanded Ver- . He had grown sulky.

Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop looked him pityingly.

"Morley," she said in a vast solemn that came slowly up from her t stays, "I can make allowances, course. I know something of the re of man; I will admit that that ene woman is remarkably hand- e, and of her cleverness there can no doubt. I don't altogether blame ."

She paused that Vernon might com- bend to the fullest her marvelous gnanimity.

"But at the same time it has been d on poor little Amelia. I saw no er way than to bring her down. u must go to her at once."

She turned toward Braidwood and ter, still standing where she had them.

"When you have done, I'll see you h reference to this miserable reso- ion; but that can wait till we are at capitol. This other matter comes t, of course."

She smiled with a fat sweetness.

"And, Morley," she said, "order two rriages for us at ten o'clock. You y drive to the capitol with us."

And she went away.

Vernon ordered the carriages, and in ning the whole matter over in his d he came to the conclusion that must deal with these complications one at a time; Miss Greene, as events now had shaped themselves, would have to wait until he got over to the State House.

CHAPTER XIII.

Vernon found Amelia in one of the hotel parlors, seated on a sofa by a window. She was resting her chin in her hand and looking down into Capitol avenue.

"Amelia," he said, bending over her. 'What is it? Tell me.'

He sat down beside her, and sought to engage one of her hands in his own, but she withdrew it, and pressed it with the other and the handkerchief in both, to her lips and chin. Vernon glanced about the respectable parlors, maintained in instant readiness for anybody that might happen along with his little comedy or his little tragedy.

Flung Himself Back on the Sofa Helplessly.

She continued to look obdurately out of the window.

"Amelia," he said, "aren't you going to speak to me? Tell me what I have done."

Still there came no answer. He flung himself back on the sofa helplessly.

"Well," he said, "I don't know what it all means. I've tried to fathom it in the last hour, but it's too deep for me; I give it up.' He flung out his hands to illustrate his abandonment.

"God knows," he suddenly exclaimed, "I was only trying to do something worthy—for your sake!"

"Please don't swear, Morley," Amelia said.

He looked up swiftly.

"Well—" he began, explosively, but he didn't continue. He relapsed into a moody silence. He stretched his legs out before him in an ungainly attitude, with his hands plunged deep in his trousers' pockets. Then he knitted his brows and tried to think.

"I suppose" he said, as if he were thinking aloud, "that you expect some explanation, some apology."

"Oh, not at all," she said, lightly, in the most musical tone she could command.

"Very well," he said, "I wouldn't know where to begin if you did. I'm sure I'm not aware of having—"

She began to hum softly, to herself, as it were, some tuneless air. He remembered that it was a way she had when she was angry. It was intended to show the last and utmost personal unconcern. In such circumstances the tune was apt to be an improvisation and was never melodious. Sometimes it made her easier to deal with, sometimes harder; he could never tell.

"I don't exactly see what we are here for," he ventured, stealing a look at her. She had no reply. He fidgeted a moment and then began drumming with his fingers on the arm of the sofa.

"Please don't do that," she said.

He stopped suddenly.

"If you would be good enough, kind enough," he said it sarcastically, "to indicate, to suggest, even, what I am to do—to say."

"I'm sure I can't," she said. "You came. I presumed you had something to say to me."

"Well, I have something to say to you," Vernon went on impetuously. "Why didn't you answer my letters? Why have you treated me this way? That's what I want to know."

He leaned toward her. He was conscious of two emotions, two passions, struggling within him, one of anger, almost hate, the other of love, and strangely enough they had a striking similarity in their effect upon him. He felt like reproaching, yet he knew that was not the way, and he made a desperate struggle to conquer himself.

He tried to look into her face, but she only turned farther away from him.

"I've spent the most miserable week I ever knew, doomed to stay here, unable to get away to go to you, and with this fight on my hands!"

"You seemed to be having a fairly good time," the girl said.

"Now, Amelia, look here," said Vernon, "let's not act like children any longer; let's not have anything so foolish and little between us."

His tone made his words a plea, but it plainly had no effect upon her, for she did not answer. They sat there, then, in silence.

"Why didn't you write?" Vernon demanded after a little while. He looked at her, and she straightened up and her eyes flashed.

"Why didn't I write!" she exclaimed. "What was I to write, pray? Were not your letters full of this odious Maria Burlaps Greene? And as if that were not enough, weren't the papers full of you two? And that speech—oh, that speech—that Portia and Helen, and 'I fill this cup to one made up,' ah, it was sickening!" She flirted away again.

"But, darling," Vernon cried, "listen—you misunderstood—I meant all that for you, didn't you understand?"

She stirred.

"Didn't you see? Why, dearest, I thought that when you read the papers you'd be the proudest girl alive!"

Her lip curled.

"I read the papers," she said, and then added, significantly, "this once, anyway."

"Well, you certainly don't intend to hold me responsible for what the papers say, do you?"

She resumed her old attitude, her elbow on the arm of the sofa, her chin in her hand, and looked out the window. And she began to hum again.

"And then," he pressed on, "to come down here and not even let me know; why you even called me Mister Vernon when I came into the dining room."

"Yes," she exclaimed, suddenly wheeling about, "I saw you come into the dining room this morning!" Her eyes grew dark and flashed.

He regretted, on the instant.

"I saw you!" she went on. "I saw you rush up to that Maria Burlaps Greene woman, and—oh, it was horrid!"

"Her name isn't Burlaps, dear," said Vernon.

"How do you know her name, I'd like to know!" She put her hands to her face. He saw her tears.

"Amelia," he said, masterfully, "if you don't stop that! Listen—we've got to get down to business."

She hastily brushed the tears from her eyes. She was humming once more, and tapping the toe of her boot on the carpet, though she was not tapping it in time to her tune.

"Why did you come down without letting me know?" Vernon went on; but still she was silent.

"You might at least have given me—"

"Warning?" she said, with a keen inflection.

"Amelia!" he said, and his tone carried a rebuke.

"Well, I don't care!" she cried. "It's all true! You couldn't stay for my dinner, but you could come down here and—"

She covered her face with her hands and burst suddenly into tears. Vernon gazed at her in astonishment.

"Why, dearest!" he said, leaning over, and trying to take her in his arms. She drew away from him and sobbed. Vernon glanced about the room helplessly He pleaded with her, but she would not listen; neither would she be comforted, but continued to sob. Vernon, in a man's anguish with a weeping woman, stood up.

"Amelia! Amelia!" He bent over her and spoke firmly. "You must not! Listen to me! We must go over to—"

Suddenly he stood erect, and jerked out his watch.

"Heavens!" he cried. "It's half-past ten!"

She tried to control herself then, and sitting up, began to wipe her eyes.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

IN THE TOILS OF INFLUENZA.

Unlucky Pittsburg Citizens Compare Notes in Strange Language.

When two East enders met on a car bound downtown on a recent muggy morning and engaged in conversation, the other passengers were under the impression for a time that they were listening to a discussion in Esperanto or Volapuk. It ran something like this:

"Bordi'g, Johd."

"Bordi'g, Jib."

"Dice bordi'g."

"Yes, dice bordi'g—dot."

"What's dew?"

"Dot a thi'g. Adythi'g dew id your lide?"

"Dot a blabed thi'g."

"How you feeli'g this bordi'g?"

"Od de bub."

"So ab I. Dearly sdeezed by head off last dight."

"Sabe here."

"Goi'g to the beeti'g to-dight?"

"Dot on your tidtype. Goi'g to stay hobe a'd dri'k rub and hodey."

"Good gabe. Hot rub pudtch for bide."

"Well, here we are dowdtowd. So lo'g."

And they wended their dismal ways. —Pittsburg Times.

Discovered Silver.

It was a rabbit and a boy that first discovered silver in the Cobalt region of Ontario. The boy saw the rabbit run into a hole, and started to poke him out with a stick. While at this he found a piece of silver ore that the rabbit had scratched out in digging his retreat. Millions of dollars have already been taken out of the ground, and there are millions to come. All the Canadian silver dollars coined after this should have the head of a boy on one side and that of a rabbit on the other. When a boy gets after a rabbit, something is sure to happen.

Use of Ozone in Curing Colds.

A Pittsburg firm has just completed for a homoeopathic hospital the firse ozone plant ever erected in this country. Colds have been completely cured in 20 minutes by ozone, and it is of great value for fumigating purposes. Ozone forced into water makes it absolutely pure, killing every germ it contains.

EXPERIENCED ADVICE.

The Customer—You don't appear to have a hat in the place to suit me.

The Hatter—Try a soft green one, sir.

WHEN YOUR BACK ACHES

It Is a Warning That the Kidneys Are Sick and Need Help.

A bad back makes every day a dull round of pain and misery. It's a sign the kidneys are sick and cannot keep up their never-ending task of filtering the blood. Lame back, backache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders are warnings that must not be overlooked. A. G. Smith, 405 E. Mills St., Liberty, Mo., says: "I was racked with pain, stiff and lame, had dizzy spells and a terrible condition of the kidney secretions. I got so miserable I went to bed, but the doctor did not do anything for me and no one expected me to recover. Doan's Kidney Pills first relieved, then cured me, and I have had no kidney trouble for seven years since."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

REVENGE.

The Professor—I've been a vegetarian all my life; from now on I'll eat nothing but beef!

INTOLERABLE ITCHING.

Fearful Eczema All Over Baby's Face —Professional Treatment Failed.

A Perfect Cure by Cuticura.

"When my little girl was six months old I noticed small red spots on her right cheek. They grew so large that I sent for the doctor but, instead of helping the eruption, his ointment seemed to make it worse. Then I went to a second doctor who said it was eczema. He also gave me an ointment which did not help either. The disease spread all over the face and the eyes began to swell. The itching grew intolerable and it was a terrible sight to see. I consulted doctors for months, but they were unable to cure the baby. I paid out from $20 to $30 without relief. One evening I began to use the Cuticura Remedies. The next morning the baby's face was all white instead of red. I continued until the eczema entirely disappeared. Mrs. P. E. Gumbin, Sheldon, Ia., July 13,'08."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Just as Well She Didn't Know.

Palmist (to man and his wife passing)—Have your future told, sir.

The Man (Whispering)—I'll be around later. I don't want my wife to know it.—Life.

The new RUSS BLUE is much the best. Insist that your grocer gives you this brand. Refuse imitations.

Married life does not amount to much until it reaches pa.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Don't offer odds to the elevator boy or he'll take you up.

A Friend In Need

There is absolutely nothing that gives such speedy relief in Dysentery, Diarrhea, Cholera-Morbus, Cholera-Infantum, Colic and Cramps as

DR. D. JAYNE'S CARMINATIVE BALSAM

It is a friend in need, and you should always keep it in your house. Its valuable curative properties have made it a necessity for both adults and children.

Sold by all druggists at 25c per bottle

Are You Going to PAINT ?

It pays to keep your buildings well painted, and when you paint it pays to use the best you can get. We handle the best in

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, etc. etc.

Call and see us and get our prices.

Washing Machines

We handle some of the best made. Call and see the

"Quicker Yet"

The best place to buy

Hardware & Groceries

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA

ARE YOU LOOKING

For something new in the Drug, Jewelery, Book, Stationery, Musical, China or Glassware line? If so, come to our store. We have what you are looking for.

Our Drug Department is complete in every particular. A full line of standard Patents. Special attention given to family recipes & Physicians' Prescriptions

Edison Phonographs with a large repertoire of records in the standard and popular class.

China and Glassware. Genuine hand painted. Fancy Lamps in all the styles.

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

Elkhart Buggies

are the best made, best grade and easiest riding buggies on earth for the money.

FOR THIRTY-SIX YEARS

we have been selling direct and are The Largest Manufacturers in the World selling to the consumer exclusively.

We ship for examination and approval, guaranteeing safe delivery, and also to save you money. If you are not satisfied as to style, quality and price you are nothing out.

May We Send You Our Large Catalogue?

Elkhart Carriage & Harness Mfg. Co.
Elkhart, - - - - Indiana

Price $56.00 With Twin Auto Seat

Another Way

A stranger would think after spending several days in Burt that there were a lot of people leaving town judging from the number of people carrying grips and suit cases. But this is not the case. That is the way they carry their beer here. No one is going away, just going to some hidden spot to have a drink of beer.—Burt Monitor.

Life 100,000 Years Ago

Scientists have found in a cave in Switzerland bones of men, who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was in constant danger from wild beasts. Today the danger, as shown by A. W. Brown, of Alexander, Me., is largely from deadly disease. "If it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me, I could not have lived," he writes, "suffering as I did from a severe lung trouble and stubborn cough." To cure sore lungs, colds, obstinate coughs, and prevent pneumonia, it's the best medicine on earth. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co. Trial bottle free.

One on South Dakota

At the station the other day we met a man who had just returned from a trip to South Dakota, says an exchange. He said he went out there expecting to buy some land but as his teeth were bad he gave it up. We couldn't see how that made any difference and he explained. He said that a few days previous while he was there one of the common every-day winds was blowing and the people were straining the dust through their teeth when a man came down the street who had lost one of his front teeth. He got a cobble stone stuck in his throat and choked to death.

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

Very Sad, Indeed

Following the announcement that Hancock county's general fund was overdrawn, comes the Britt Tribune with the following sad but pertinent tale:

"A certain county overdrew its general fund and when county warrants were presented to the county treasurer for payment they were stamped with a rubber stamp 'Not paid, for lack of funds." The editor of the local paper, when he went to draw his pay for printing the board proceedings and schedule received one of these warrants. Pretty soon the butcher and the baker sent in bills to the printshop and as the editor was in the same condition that the county was, he also had a stamp made and began stamping the bills and returning them. How long do you suppose the public stood for this? About six months and then the poor man starved to death. The epitaph on his tombstone reads, 'Not alive, for lack of grub.' "

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the Best and Surest

"It affords me pleasure to state that I consider the preparation known as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the best and surest of good results of any I have ever used in my family," says P. E. Herrington, of Mount Aerial, Ky. This is the universal verdict of all who use this remedy. Its cures are so prompt and effectual that people take pleasure in recommending it. For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

More Local

Good corn weather.

Otto Sie, of Chicago, arrived in Klemme last week and is now working for Herman Stroemer.

Mrs. Josten is cutting prices on goods this week. No lady can afford not to read her ad and take advantage of her special bargains.

Following are a few excerpts from a letter received by the Times from G. A. Radke, a former resident of this vicinity, but now located at Tracy, Minnesota: "The crops out here are looking very good. Rye will be harvested in about three weeks; it looks better than it has for some years. Oats and barley look like a bumper crop. Corn as a general thing is a little backward. Early sown flax was somewhat slow coming up, as it was too dry at the time, but is making good showing now. We have had just about enough rain so far."

One Dollar

Mr. Farmer---It costs but a trifle more to buy printed letter heads and envelopes than it does to use any old thing, and certainly it looks more business-like to use printed stationery For a limited time we offer you 100 sheets good writing paper and 100 good envelopes, printed with your name and address, both for $1.00. Give us your order now.

The Times Printery

GREAT CLEARANCE SALE On all MILLINERY

Our Pretty Trimmed Hats at Slaughter Prices,
Children's Hats and Tams at almost ½ price.
Some below cost.
I am also making a reduction on the Best Corsets.
A fine assortment of laces, ribbons, collars, hair goods a

SHIRT WAISTS

Please call. I can save you MONEY. Yours to please,

MRS. JOHN JOSTEN

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile, both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

Buy Your SCREENS NOW

The Flies Will Soon be Here

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, Agent

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

KLEMME MARKET.

.....	60 to 65c
.....	42 to 43c
.....	80 to 100
.....	55 to60 c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	6.50 to 7.00
.....	3.00 to 6.00

LOCAL NEWS

s it hot enough?

Fresh fruits at Kluckhohn's.

Did you have your fortune d?

Niels Palmer was at Britt on iness Tuesday.

Ralph Blank made another p to Garner Tuesday.

Joe Miller returned Monday m his trip to Chicago.

The finest line of candies in n at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

Glasses fitted. Eyes tested e. Dr. Missman. 47-4

Rev. E. A. Baker left yester- for Britt, where he will vis- or a few days.

The office of the Koerner Tel- hone Co. will be closed all day nday, July 5th. 1w

NOTICE. — Those owing us requested to pay up at once d save costs. Henry Lau & . tf

Dr. Zinn has been successfully ting eyes and fitting glasses Klemme for five years and is l continuing to do so. tf

When in Garner, stop at the rner House. Everything roughly cleaned and satis- ctory service guaranteed. tf

M. I. Parker, assistant cash- of the First National Bank, spending his vacation visiting s folks at Waterville, Kansas.

A letter from John Braund forms us that he has moved om Dubuque to De Soto, Wis., d requests us to send his pa- r there.

Wm. Schaper, or "Oregon ll" as we'll have to call him w, was down from Garner esday calling on his many lemme friends.

If you think of buying a rug will pay you to look over my ock which consists of Wilton lvets, Axminsters, Saxony minsters, Colonial Velvets d Brussels made in sizes 6 x 9, x 3, 10 x 6, 9 x 12 and larger. ours for rugs G. F. Schuler.

We publish this week a state- ent of the condition of the irst National Bank of Klemme. which your attention is re- pectfully invited. This report hows this popular banking in- itution to be in a most healthy ondition and enjoying a flour- hing business.

Mrs. N. L. Palmer returned uesday evening from a three eeks' visit with relatives at edfield, So. Dak., and Algona. owa Did you notice that road smile on Nels' face? Mrs. almer was accompanied home y her niece, Miss Vera Kim- all of Redfield.

The services at the English : E. church Sunday, July 4th, ill be as follows: Preaching, 0:30 a. m., subject: "The Ideal atriot." Sunday School 11:30 . m. In the evening at eight 'clock, Rev. O. K. Maynard, District Superintendent, will be present to preach and adminis- er the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Everyone is cordially nvited to all these services. E. A. Baker, Pastor.

Read Kirkwood's ad.

Louie Henschen was down from Garner Sunday.

Wm. F. Lau and family were down from Garner last Sunday visiting relatives.

For a chunk of good cold ice call at Bloom's elevator or on G. R. Waterman. 44tf

Try Kluckhohn's ice cream soda with crushed fruit and you will become a regular customer.

I have just added to my stock a nice line of Lace Curtains at 75c up to $6.00 a pair at G. F. Schuler's. tf

While Klemme and vicinity is somewhat unfortunate in having an overabundance of rain, we may still be very thankful that we have no Chinamen.

Mrs. Ruiter returned last Saturday from a visit at Belmond. She was accompanied home by her grand-daughter. Grace Meinders, who will visit here.

Samuel Kirkwood returned last week from a visit at Ringsted, Iowa. His sister-in-law, Mrs. Wm. Kirkwood, returned with him for a visit here with relatives.

If you want to buy anything or if you have anything to sell, you can't reach the buyer or seller any easier or cheaper than by inserting a small ad in the Times. The cost is small and results are sure.

The Times is in receipt of a copy of the Ringsted Dispatch, published by Mike Magner, at one time employed on this paper and well known and liked in Klemme. The Dispatch looks prosperous and we hope it is as prosperous as it looks.

G A. Radke, of Tracy, Minn., arrived in Klemme Monday afternoon to load and ship the large traction engine he and his brother recently purchased of Herman Stille, which they will use this fall to operate their threshing outfit. The Times acknowledges a pleasant call from Mr. Radke.

W. R. Bloom was at Dows last Thursday evening and Friday on business connected with his farm in Vernon township. Concerning this piece of land, last week's Dows Advocate says: "P. A. Thompson and a force of men from Dows have just completed one of the largest jobs of tiling in this township, on the W. R. Bloom farm. It is now well drained, and one can farm every foot of it."

One of the worst electrical storms for years occurred here last Saturday afternoon and the rain fell in torrents. The Wm. F. Lau house occupied by the Times family was the victim of a prank of lightning. The bolt struck a wire clothesline which was attached to the house. It entered the house on a wire nail driven into the siding and tore off a small patch of plastering and split the corner off a sink sitting in the corner. The damage done was very slight and no one was injured although the family, who were in the house at the time, were badly frightened. A horse belonging to Clarence Arnold was killed by a bolt of lightning which struck a telephone post and ran along a wire which was hanging rather low and under which the horse was standing. A number of telephones were put out of commission all over the lines of the Koerner Telephone Co. The wonder is that there was not more damage done

Read Ell Bros. ad in this issue.

Dr. Edgar Zinn went to Garner Monday on business.

Hazel Hartfelder entertained the Wesleyan Club at her home last Saturday.

Rev. Wessel is out of town this week so we have no German M. E. church news.

Ice cream sodas, sundaes, and all kinds of cool refreshing drinks at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

One of our subscribers—we wont give his name—said the corn grew a foot Tuesday night.

The weather this week has been broiling hot and was good for corn, which certainly needs the good old brand of Iowa weather.

Ben Lau arrived in Klemme from Chicago Monday for a visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Lau, and to spend a vacation from his duties in a bank in that city.

Some will celebrate on Saturday this year, some on Monday, and some will begin celebrating early Saturday morning and keep it up until late Monday night. Hurrah!

Aug. Dieterich and wife from Thompson arrived here Saturday for a visit at the home of her brother, Henry Wille. Mr. Dieterich returned to his home Monday, his wife remaining for a more extended visit.

A new porch has been built onto the front of the Klemme Hotel building this week which adds much to the comfort of the guests and the appearance of the building. Mr. Elder is certainly putting this building in fine condition.

Rev. Muehlmeier preached his farewell sermon in the German Reformed church last Sunday to a very large audience. He left with his family on Monday for their new home at Monticello, Wisconsin. The best wishes of a host of friends go with them.

E. H. Thomas, one of our good farmers who moved to this locality this year, was a caller at this office Friday and placed his name on our subscription list. Mr. Thomas is working the Clark farm northwest of town.

All the Germantown people and Klemme people should arrange to attend the Methodist picnic, Monday, July 5th, at the Wes Haefner grove near the Germantown church. Good program, games and sport. Fireworks in the evening. Bring your dinner and enjoy a live picnic in a cool grove. By order of Picnic Committee.

We notice that Dr. Geo. Zinn has taken down his old worn out sign and has placed a nice gold leafed sign in his window. There is an opinion among the people that he is going to leave and turn the business over to Dr. Edgar Zinn but this is a mistake. He will stay and the two doctors will work together and form a partnership. 1w

Prof. L. E. Bowker, who has been elected principal of the Klemme schools, was down from Crystal Lake last week Wednesday evening conferring with the school board in regard to the text books to be used next year. This office acknowledges a very pleasant call from Mr. Bowker. He had been attending institute at Garner and from here went to Ruthven, Iowa, to assist in teaching a summer school for a few weeks.

To the Poultry Raisers

Do not forget the two POULTRY Days this week:

JULY 2ND & 3RD

Hens 9c — Old Roosters 4c
Geese 5c — Ducks - - 7c
Pigeons - 60c per dozen
BIRDS MUST BE GOOD FLYERS

ELL BROS.

Dr. Edgar Zinn drove to Kanawha Tuesday to meet Dr. Judd. Ben Lau accompanied him.

W. R. Bloom shipped a car of hogs to Chicago yesterday. His best man, Herman Miller, accompanied the shipment.

Chas. Yahnke has purchased a new high wheel International touring car for use in his livery, and hereafter he can make two or three ordinary drives while a good man is hitching up a team to make one drive. Klemme is putting on airs.

Ernest and Fletcher Wellemeyer visited here from Saturday till Tuesday with their brother, Arthur. Ernest is teacher of mathematics in the Charles City College and Fletcher is principal of the schools at Gladbrook, Iowa

Lawrence Larsen was at Minneapolis the latter part of last week. On his way home he stopped at Mason City, where he purchased a Cadillac touring car and he made the trip home from Mason City in the car Sunday. He said it was a good test for the machine as the roads were a fright.

We, the undersigned are going to attend the picnics and will close our places of business at 9 o'clock a. m. Monday, July 5th.

Terhufen Bros.
Gruetzmacher Bros.
J. W. Waterman.
Arthur Wellemeyer.
Ell Bros.
First National Bank.
State Savings Bank.

F. C. GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Highest cash price paid for hides. Home rendered pure lard a specialty.
We solicit your patronage.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
☞ Call in

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures
See me when you want a
Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Phone No. 11. Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to calls, day or night.
Eyes tested. Glasses fitted.

RESTAURANT
Fresh New Candies. Nicest Line in Town
Van Camp's Pork and Beans. Try them for lunch. Try our Golden Orangeade, Pop and Cider. Home-made Ice cream, Cones and Sodas.
—Home-made Bakery Goods,—
Lunches and Meals at all hours.
A. Kirkwood & Son

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
☞ Eyes Tested Free.

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

Vacation Time in Colorado

A vacation at any time is good, but a vacation in Colorado in summer is ideal.

The ozonated mountain air, the outdoor life, the wonderful scenery, the cool nights and the restfulness that prevails, combine to make a Colorado vacation one never to be forgotten.

Colorado is easily and comfortably reached in the de luxe trains of the Rock Island-Firco Lines

Every comfort and convenience of modern railway travel provided by these trains.

Go to Colorado!

Full information on request.

L. O. TURGASEN, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

MILLER AT HEAD

Elected Chairman of Conservation Commission.

MEETING AT STATE HOUSE

Des Moines Banker Leads in Work—Many Candidates for Office of Secretary—Meet Again in September.

Des Moines, June 26.—Homer A. Miller, president of the Home Savings bank of East Des Moines, was elected permanent chairman of the state waterways, drainage and conservation commission at the initial meeting held at the state house. But four members, Mr. Miller, I. W. Kreel of Mason City, L. W. Anderson of Cedar Rapids and Senator A. F. Frudden of Dubuque were present.

Clay manufacturers and cement men are said to be lined up on opposite sides and endeavoring to bring their influence to bear in the election of a secretary, who is to receive $1,200 or $1,500 a year in the discretion of the commission. I. G. Wheat of Emmettsburg, is an active candidate and said to be opposed by cement men, who are reported to have complained to the commissioners that Wheat has gone about the state disparaging the use of cement for drainage purposes.

Other candidates for the secretaryship, which will be filled by a committee of two named by Chairman Miller, are Capt. Amos W. Brandt of Des Moines, ex-deputy auditor of state; Daniel A. Hites, also a former deputy auditor and now an employe of the archives department; Robert Bailey of Des Moines, a civil engineer, and L. W. McHenry of Des Moines.

The commission adjourned at the call of the chair and probably will not meet again until September. Then the committee on a secretary will recommend an applicant. The members of this committee are known only to the commission.

Opinions of the four commissioners present differed as to what line of work should be undertaken first by the commission. Committees will be appointed by Mr. Miller to report as to the feasibility of each of several lines of activity, such as the collection of information of value to drainage interests, a survey of Iowa rivers, and a campaign of education as to the need of a more intelligent conservation and development of the state's natural resources.

Can't Make Farmers Shut Gates.

Railroad commissioners have found a limit to their powers. The Chicago Anamosa and Northern railroad filed a complaint against the farmers along its line, complaining that they allowed gates to stand open at night, which caused some inconvenience from stock trespassing upon the right of way. The commission finds that it has no power to make the farmers shut their gates. It has no power to compel the railroads to keep fences in shape and to give farmers the gates, but cannot compel them to close them either at night or in the daytime.

Orders City Hall Bonds Sold.

With a proposition from George M. Bechtel & Co., of Davenport to purchase the $350,000 city hall bond issue at 4 per cent tucked away, the council listened to a committee of east side business men advocating the placing of it at 4 1-2 per cent, and then sprung the offer, which will save the city more than $50,000 in interest. The Bechtel proposition was accepted by the council authorizing City Treasurer Lucas to make the sale.

Ideal Weather for Farming.

The United States crop report for last week shows that Iowa farmers enjoyed almost ideal weather conditions for crop raising. The temperature for most of the days in the week was seasonably warm while with the abundance of sunshine and only a few light showers the cultivation of corn progressed rapidly.

Gets Back Pay.

William Halloran, formerly janitor at the federal building has just received from the government a check for $1,813.50. During the nine years that he worked for the government Mr. Halloran worked eleven hours a day, while the other employes worked eight and the check is to cover pay for the overtime.

Officers Take Their Tests.

An examining board of the Iowa National Guard, headed by Col. James Rush Lincoln, examined a class of twenty-two officers in the guard in the office of the adjutant general.

Million Dollar Railway Formed.

Articles of incorporation of the Iowa and Omaha Short line railway were filed in the office of the secretary of state.

The company incorporates for $1,000,000, the filing fee being more than $1,000, the largest the state has been offered in a long time.

The railroad is a contemplated electric line between Des Moines, Council Bluffs and Omaha. Its line will run through Pottawattamie, Shelby, Audubon, Guthrie, Dallas and Polk counties in Iowa and Douglas county in Nebraska, a total of 140 miles.

Headquarters of the company will be at Pierre, S. D., in the office of John A. Holmes, but a business office will be operated at Walnut, Iowa. The incorporators of the company, with the exception of Holmes, are residents of Treynor, Adair and Walnut.

The company divides its million of capital into one hundred shares of $10,000 each and this is then divided into shares of stock of $500 and $1,000.

Charged with Selling Poor Vinegar.

Informations charging H. S. Chase & Co. and J. M. Caldwell, both Des Moines grocers, with selling vinegar below the standard in acid were filed with Justice Z. G. Roe by State Food and Dairy Commissioner H. R. Wright. The vinegar tested less than the required 4 per cent of acid. Cases have been started against W. A. Hood of Sheldon for selling ice cream cones containing saccharine; against Hornbaker Bros., of Mount Sterling and E. C. Horsch of Fort Dodge for selling adulterated ice cream, and against Nelson & Nelson of Tingley, J. K. Hartman of Clearfield, and P. H. Baxter of Benton for selling paints not properly labeled as to ingredients and net measure.

Insurance Year Book Issued.

Iowa fire insurance companies paid $318,547.71 to the state in taxes and $56,595.60 in fees to the state during the year 1908, according to the figures in the annual year book of the companies, issued by the state auditor. The book contains the annual reports to the state auditor of 150 companies. In his letter transmitting the report to the governor, Auditor Bleakley notes that two companies have increased their capital, that six new companies have entered the Iowa field and that seven had quitted the Iowa territory during the period named. The gain for the year in business was a little more than $38,000,000.

Hart Asks For Parole.

In order that he may give to the world a new invention for producing energy by means of weights, Charles Hart of Des Moines wants a parole from the Fort Madison penitentiary, where he is serving a five-year term for forgery. Hart has spent his leisure time in prison figuring out a perpetual motion machine which he believes will startle the world, according to statements in his application for a parole received by Governor Carroll.

Wilson Turns Down a Job.

Because he likes Des Moines better than any other city, Lucius Wilson, secretary of the Greater Des Moines committee, probably will remain here as secretary of the booster organization. Although he declined to make a flat statement that he would decline the offer of the secretaryship of the chamber of commerce of a southern city he admitted that it was likely he would remain in Des Moines.

Council Goes to Court.

A friendly action in the district court for the determination of the rights of the city council with respect to the performance of labor in excess of the sum of $200, without contract to the lowest bidder, has been agreed upon by the members of the council as the logical solution of that problem. The test case will be taken up on a resolution providing for an appropriation in excess of the $200 limitation.

Offers Prize to Best Essayist.

Samuel Saucerman, promoter and organizer of the Trimmer club movement among boys in the state, has offered a prize of $1.00 to the boys in the clubs of Oelwein, Waverly and Des Moines who write the best essays giving the best reasons why tobacco should not be used in any form

Garrett to Speak Again.

Secretary B. W. Garrett of the state board of parole has accepted an invitation to deliver his lecture, "A Glimpse of Prison Life," before the convention of the Iowa Christian Endeavor union. The meeting will be held in Iowa Falls September 6 to 8

State Bank Chartered.

A charter was issued by the state banking department to the Moville State bank of Moville, Woodbury county. The bank begins business in two weeks with a capitalization of $35,000.

TRIFLES OF THE WARDROBE

VALUE OF REMNANTS

PRETTY BITS THAT COMPLETE THE WARDROBE.

Black Satin, Silk and Taffeta for Belts and Sashes—Guimpes Made of Net and Fancy Lace Scraps.

No matter how carefully a season's wardrobe has been prepared, there is always something which is lacking at the last moment. This may be a single trifling thing which a rush to the shops will at once supply, but quite as often it is some supplementary article found absolutely necessary to make a garment becoming.

For the lack of this dressy girdle, or more becoming guimpe, or dainty lace edge collar, the effect of the dress is nil. The oversight must be remedied nine times out of ten, with home sewing, and then, if the sewer has been wise in her generation and bought the pretty remnants which are needed some time or other in every sewing household for just such touches, the labor is diminished by half. For it is far easier to shape a pretty thing from generous lengths of material on hand than it is to make it from a skimpy guessed-at quantity.

As black is so generally becoming I would advise all gatherers of fixing remnants to consider lengths of rich black satin, silk or taffeta. Unnumbered and most begaying belts, sashes and scarfs on colored dresses are in black, and the sharp contrast is far richer than when the costume is all in one color. But the black note is scant—just the belt and sash alone, or the bias cravat which ties at the throat and is finished with gold or black tassels.

For the indispensable guimpe which so many summer dresses need, the pretty scraps of net and fancy lace which are sold so cheaply everywhere are found most useful when on hand, as well as any thin white material out of which collars, cuffs and jabots may be turned. In fact, if one keeps her wits—for the remnant fever is a species of disease when carried too far—the daintiest flummeries can be turned out at home for less than half the cost of the same thing in the shop. Besides there will be a great deal more individuality if the sewer has taste of her own, and paints her work, as you might say, with the roses of her own heart.

A charming bodice decoration is displayed in our illustration. The upper fixing is made of cashmere with soutache braid as trimming, and is laced with black velvet ribbons, while the lower garniture is of satin, richly embroidered, and its sash portions of soft messaline silk. Less than three-eighths of a yard of cashmere in the usual width would be needed for the first fixing and the bordering shoulder straps and lacing demand only 6½ yards of ribbon.

Little Dutch collars are now popular and pretty for young girls. Any scrap of linen would make each design, and if the sewer is gifted in needlework the trifle may become a thing of exquisite daintiness.

A little imported pongee frock seen showed one of these neat neck fixings in the gown material, with needle work of bright scarlet. Another dress—a charming little conceit in soft gray silk—had the collar and jabot of deep yellow batiste, finished with narrow quillings of pure white footing. Both gowns showed what wit and taste could do with a little variation of the conventional thing.

Fashion is a word to obey when it concerns the important features of a get-up, such as the lines of a costume or the shape of a hat, for here marked departures from prevailing styles effect a look of eccentricity. But when it comes to the little thing, home sewers who have taste and ample time may do wonders with a garment and employ all the pretty odds and ends accumulated this long while.

These sensible women, and those who direct the greatest makers themselves, are really the best-dressed in the world of women. They make a point of not following the moods of fashion, which turn every street corner, and set the pace for a number of their own ideas.

So if you are quite certain of your taste—this is essential—go ahead with the summer fixings, and turn out something nobody has ever seen.

UNDERWEAR MUST BE SNUG.

Each Piece Should Be Hipless and Without Gathers to Give Slim Effect.

Unless a woman is of extraordinary slimness every garment she dons must go towards simulating this look. Each piece underlying the willowy picture—corsets and petticoats—must be as nearly as possible hipless, without gathers and void of fullness. In fact, for extremists there are some delightful absurdities in secret garments, these so closely hugging the figure that they are scarcely more than a second skin.

Freakish names are frequently given to some narrow freaks which are really drawers in substance and divided skirts in effect. These are redeemed from utter hideousness with leg falls of deep ribbon-trimmed kiltings; and since they cover tights of silk or fine gauze, they may with decency be the only excuse for a petticoat. Chemises are made mostly in princess form, fitting the figure most carefully, and being low enough also to do away with the need of an extra skirt.

In fact, fashion's one cry in regard to underwear is, "Wear as little as possible." It may not be entirely modest in the opinion of many women, nevertheless the visible movement of the limbs is necessary to give cachet to the beautiful clinging skirts of the hour. Folds seem carven on the marble beneath. The empire dress is the drapery for more "Winged Victories" and other Greek statues of surpassing loveliness.

The Care of Shoes.

When shoes are removed take a moment to put them on the trees and they will keep their shape twice as long. Watch the heels that they do not run over. Nothing looks more careless than boots run over at the heels. It also fatigues one to walk in them.

HAT OF PERIWINKLE STRAW.

With soft-pleated frills of muslin in the same shade. Black satin lining.

Bronze Kid in New Forms.

Bronze kid, hitherto familiar only as a material for slippers or low shoes, is now being made up into all kinds of feminine belongings for which leather is used. Some smart and unusual handbags are shown in this form of kid, also belts, purses and card cases of various shapes and sizes.

To Make Waist Fit.

If a shirt waist has to be raised at shoulder take pattern and lay a small tuck across back and front at center armhole. This will leave original shoulder and neck and will not pucker as if you take up shoulder after it has been cut. My waists always puckered until I discovered this.

Pearl buttons, triangular, oblong and irregular in shape will be worn as trimming on many wash dresses.

TUMOR OF FOUR YEARS' GROWTH

Removed by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lindley, Ind. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound removed a cyst tumor which three of the best physicians declared I had. They said that only an operation could help me. I am very glad that I followed a friend's advice and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it has made me a strong and well woman, and I shall recommend it as long as I live." — Mrs. MAY FISHER, Lindley, Ind.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy — tumor. If you have mysterious pains, inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation, but try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and such unquestionable testimony as the above proves the value of this famous remedy, and should give confidence and hope to every sick woman.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

Seek Prevention of Consumption.

The municipal authorities of Berlin have decided to introduce another feature in their administration of tuberculosis. Heretofore, municipal effort has been confined to the maintenance of one or two homes for curable consumptives, but it is recognized that, useful as this is, it alone cannot cope with this disease. They have resolved, therefore, to devote more attention to preventive measures.

Important to Mothers.

Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA a safe and sure remedy for infants and children, and see that

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

In Use For Over 30 Years.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

What Did He Mean?

Mr. Brown and his family were standing in front of the lion's cage.

"John," said Mrs. Brown, "if these animals were to escape, whom would you save first, me or the children?"

"Me," answered John, without hesitation.—Everybody's Magazine.

That Wheezy Sound.

"Say," inquired the boy next door of the little girl whose father suffers from asthma, "what makes your father wheeze so?"

"I guess it's one of his insides organs playing!"—Puck.

Ask Your Druggist for Allen's Foot-Ease.

"I tried ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE recently, and have just bought another supply. It has cured my corns, and the hot, burning and itching sensation in my feet which was almost unbearable, and I would not be without it now.—Mrs. W. J. Walker, Camden, N. J." Sold by all Druggists, 25c

Another Query.

Little Willie—Say, pa!

Pa—What is it, my son?

Little Willie—Do they raise chicory in a hennery?

Little children are suffering every day in the year with sprains, bruises, cuts, bumps and burns. Hamlins Wizard Oil is banishing these aches and pains every day in the year, the world over.

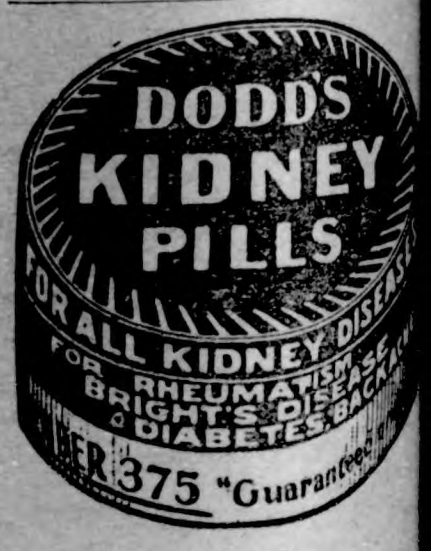
Not Missed If Taken.

"Did you take a bath?"

"No, is there one missing?"—Columbia Jester.

Ladies who take pride in clear, white clothes should use the new RUSS BLUE. Sold by grocers.

You cannot build a frame house unless you have the rocks.



FINEST STADIUM IN THE UNITED STATES IS AT DES MOINES, IA.

Stadium Given to Drake University by Norman Haskins.

Haskins Stadium, in Des Moines, is e finest stadium in the country. is of enormous size and there never any danger of the seats breaking own, for they are built upon the solid ground. The stadium is a natural depression in the earth, so that solid cement seats could be built up with little expense. The entire stadium was the gift of Norman Haskins to Drake university. The recent state college field meet and the Missouri valley intercollegiate field meet were both held there, and the thousands present were loud in its praise.

LIFE GIVEN TO EDUCATION.

J. B. Young.

Complaint is made by teachers in the public schools that there is too much uncertainty about positions and too little assurance that they may continue in the work. The experience of Supt. J. B. Young of Toledo, Ia., is contrary to the popular notion; for he has recently been elected superintendent of schools for the twenty-second consecutive term in one place. Supt. Young has been in school work for about 35 years. He taught school in the country for two terms; then was principal at Mount Sterling, Ia.; Winchester, Ia.; Athens, Mo.; Carlisle and Lovilia, Ia. He was superintendent at Knoxville and then at Traer. While at the latter place, in 1888, he was elected to the superintendency of the Toledo schools, and has been re-elected every year since. He will enter upon his twenty-second year at Toledo next September. Including this year's class, there have been 410 graduates of the Toledo high school in the 21 years.

Supt. Young has been an instructor in the Tama county normal for 20 consecutive years, and in the Marion county normal for a number of years. He has been a member of the state teachers' association for 25 years, and was a member of the educational council for a number of years.

Mr. Young was born at Jeromeville, O., August 16, 1846. He was educated at the St. Francisville seminary and Birmingham college. He holds a life diploma from the Iowa state board. He also studied for the practice of law, and was admitted to the bar. He was a soldier in the civil war, enlisting in the spring of 1864.

MONUMENT TO IOWA TROOPS

A soldiers' monument, erected in Oakwoods cemetery at Monticello and dedicated Memorial week with appropriate ceremonies, is the gift of Maj. S. S. Farwell, who recruited Company H of the Thirty-first Iowa infantry volunteers at Monticello during the months of August and September, 1862. He was elected captain of the company by the popular vote of its members, and continued to command the company until he was promoted to the position of major of the regiment, near the close of the war. The monument is 13 feet high.

MONEY IN MANUFACTORIES.

Secretary of the Greater Des Moines Committee Gives Interesting Statistics of Iowa.

"Wealth," the Greater Des Moines committee's publication, is filled with interesting stories of the successes achieved in Iowa, and the possibilities awaiting those who enter the manufacturing field in the state.

One article, especially, entitled "Des Moines Factories Coin Money," shows the fallacy of the belief that investment in manufacturing enterprises is a hazardous risk. In his story, Lucius Wilson, secretary of the Greater Des Moines committee, says:

"Two hundred and ninety-one factories in Des Moines made a certified statement to the United States bureau of labor for 1905. The total capital invested was $9,593,926. The value of the output was $15,084,958. The aggregate expenses, salaries, materials, wages, and miscellaneous, were $13,425,446. The net profit was $1,659,512, or 17.29 per cent.

"These figures include railway repair shops, which were not operated for profit, and therefore the actual profit of the manufacturing concerns was approximately 20 per cent.

"In other words, Des Moines factories, good and poor together, are paying an average of 20 per cent. profit.

"In the same year, 1905, 4,785 factories in Iowa made a similar certified report. The net profits of these factories amounted to $16,909,045. This was 15½ per cent. on the capital actually in the different businesses. These returns also included the reports of several car shops, not operated for profit, which served to swell the capital account without increasing the aggregate profits, and thus reduced the percentage of profits.

"The average profit for all the factories in the ten largest cities of Iowa for 1905 was 16.05 per cent. The average of the 291 factories in Des Moines was, therefore, substantially greater than the average for the state. And the average for the state showed a profit far in excess of the current interest rate earned by money during that same period.

"It is an error to suppose that money cannot be made to earn more than the three or four per cent. paid by the savings banks and still be invested safely. Banks themselves pay this rate and still yield a dividend to the stockholders.

"The actual hazard in manufacturing is comparatively small if undertaken with a legitimate purpose in view, while the profits are large. The annual commercial death rate, according to Bradstreet's, usually hovers around one per cent., and has never gone above one and one-half per cent. This discredits the oft-repeated statement that the larger number of persons entering business ultimately fail."

KOSSUTH COUNTY DRAINAGE.

Enormous drainage projects are under way in Kossuth county, where some 40 miles of drain pipe is to be laid and other work is under way. Land that was selling for $50 and $60 per acre recently is going higher rapidly, and it is predicted that the price will be doubled when the improvements are completed.

SHONTS STILL LOVES IOWA

Theodore P. Shonts.

Theodore P. Shonts holds Iowa very dear to him, though he is busy with the larger affairs of the business world. Mr. Shonts is to be the central figure at a great home coming week at Centerville, when the former residents of Appanoose county are to come from every corner of the earth and rejoice in the plenty of southern Iowa. Mr. Shonts was also the commencement day orator at Drake university, which was founded by Gen. Drake, the father-in-law of Mr. Shonts.

Since Mr. Shonts' retirement from the position of chief engineer of the Panama canal he has devoted himself to build up the railroad properties in which he is interested—the Clover Leaf, Alton, and allied lines. He is not wholly absorbed in the work of making money, for he takes an active interest in the affairs of Drake university and he loves to mingle with the Iowa people.

CHANCELLOR OF THE DIOCESE

George F. Henry.

George F. Henry of Des Moines has been re-elected chancellor of the Iowa diocese of the Episcopal church. Mr. Henry has devoted a great deal of his life to the upbuilding of the church, though he is a practicing lawyer and always busy with his practice. But he believes that it is good for one to take part in public affairs.

SICK HEADACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cured by these Little Pills.

They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature

Brent Good

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

Bad BLOOD

"Before I began using Cascarets I had a bad complexion, pimples on my face, and my food was not digested as it should have been. Now I am entirely well, and the pimples have all disappeared from my face. I can truthfully say that Cascarets are just as advertised; I have taken only two boxes of them."

Clarence R. Griffin, Sheridan, Ind.

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good. Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken or Gripe. 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold in bulk. The genuine tablet stamped C C C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back. 927

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Books free. Highest references. Best results.

DEFIANCE STARCH easiest to work with and starches clothes nicest.

Des Moines Directory

THRESHERMAN'S SUPPLIES Oils, Belting, Packing, Hose, Steam and Water Fittings, Pipe, etc., for the Factory, Farm or Home. Write, Phone or Telegraph your orders to THE GLOBE MACHINERY & SUPPLY CO., 205-207 W. Court Ave., Des Moines, Iowa.

KODAK ON THE FARM

Free for the asking. Amateur finishing by experts our specialty.

Des Moines Photo Materials Co.

Machinery Machine Shop and Foundry. Largest stock of used machinery in Iowa. Engines, Boilers, Steam Pumps, Belting, Shafting, Hangers, etc., bought and sold. American Iron Works, 213-223 E. First St., Des Moines, Iowa.

Free Trip to Mexico

Buy lands. We guarantee to secure for you (free of cost) a reliable renter who will pay you $5.00 per acre a year on a ten year lease, and pay it yearly in advance, and at the end of this lease we agree ourselves to re-lease it from you at $10.00 per acre a year for five or ten years more, and pay that yearly in advance in cash, to every person purchasing a ten acre tract of our very rich land in Southern Mexico on the great Coatzacoalcos River, and but three miles from station on the National Tehuantepec R. R. At the end of this lease we will deliver the land to you improved, taxes paid and in fruits which pay yearly more than the cost of the land. Perfect title, and an abstract to every purchaser. Write for particulars.

E. T. ALLEN, 1604 Arapahoe St., Denver, Col.

This Scale on Approval

I want every man who runs a farm on business principles to let me tell him why he needs a scale and why my 44 years' experience in selling to the consumer on a free trial freight paid plan which I originated makes me the man to buy from.

I have recently invented the BEST Steel Frame Pitless Wagon Scale which I sell at a lower price than any other reliable pitless scale. I send it on approval. No money asked before satisfaction is shown. New compound beam and beam box free. Introductory discount on first scale. Let me send Scale on approval and free price list.

"JONES He Pays the Freight," 69 E St., Binghamton, N.Y.

Buy a Wabash Wagon

From your dealer or direct from our factory

40 styles and sizes for boys and girls of all ages from babyhood up, and larger Handy Wagons for men.

Illustrated price list FREE. WRITE FOR IT!

WABASH MANUFACTURING COMPANY
14 Mill St., Wabash, Indiana

DRY FARMS

Fruit belt. Old-time Land Grabber, knows corners. Write. Send stamp.

H. C. CROFFORD Newcastle, Wyoming

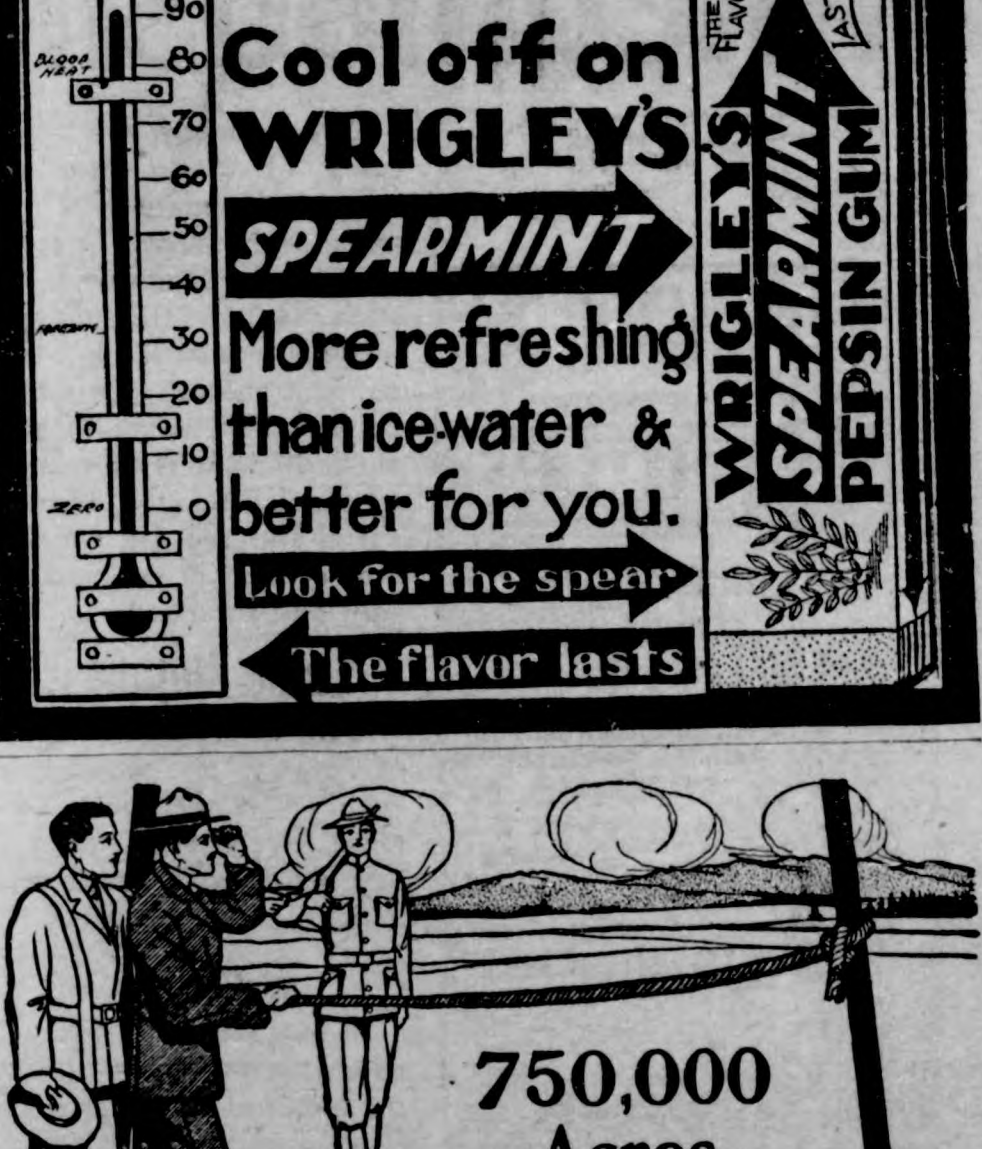
TO INVESTORS—A little money invested in Texas-Bermuda Onion Co. stock, will bring you rich and certain profits. A homely industry, but a sure one, and mighty profitable. Demand for product way beyond supply. Write for our descriptive booklet. Texas-Bermuda Onion Co., 157 Clayton Block, Denver.

IOWANS ARE MAKING FORTUNES ON FRUIT and Alfalfa Ranches, and Vineyards IN SUNNY CENTRAL CALIFORNIA Write for FREE Illustrated Booklets.

CALIFORNIA CITY LAND CO.
435 S. Spring St. LOS ANGELES, CAL.

Throw Physic to the dogs, get Nature's Remedy for constipation A-B-C TEA
All Druggists.

Hot? Cool off on WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT



More refreshing than ice-water & better for you.

Look for the spear

The flavor lasts

750,000 Acres Indian Land Open to Settlers

Under homestead laws. Land lies in the Flathead Reservation, Montana; Coeur d' Alene Reservation, Idaho, and Spokane Reservation, Washington. Some of the choicest land in the Northwest is contained in these tracts. Some is agricultural land, some grazing land, and there is some very valuable fruit and timber land. Prices will range from $1.25 to $7.00 per acre.

Register July 15 to August 5 at Kalispell, Montana; Coeur d' Alene, Idaho, and Spokane, Wash., all reached by fast trains of the Great Northern Railway. Low round trip fares every day this summer. Stop over and register en route to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition.

Send for illustrated book describing the country, and giving details about When, Where, and How to register. Enclose four cents for postage

W. M. ROMINE
Dist. Pass. Agt.

406 Sixth Avenue
DES MOINES, IA.

GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

Rheumatism

Nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness.

Lame Shoulder.

This is a common form of muscular rheumatism. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely four times a day and a quick cure is certain.

Lumbago.

When muscular rheumatism attacks the muscles in the small of the back it is called lumbago. It is usually quite severe and every movement adds to the pain, and especially when one attempts to straighten up. No internal treatment is required. Keep quiet, as every movement aggravates the disease, and apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and you will soon be well again.

Sprains and Bruises are cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment.

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

The Youthful Orator.

One of our leading railroad men was relating some of his youthful experiences. "I wanted to be an orator," he said. "I was named for Alexander H. Stephens of Georgia, one of America's foremost statesmen and orators, vice-president of the confederacy and friend of the mother of President Roosevelt. On the occasion of a big debate at college I undertook to deliver a speech he had written for me. I knew that speech by heart and often recited it at home in perfect style. When I got on the platform and opened my mouth to declaim, somebody threw from the gallery right in my face a carrot, an onion and a turnip, tied in a bunch. Instantly I forgot my speech. Not a word could I recollect. In great confusion I proceeded to back off the stage, bowing as the house applauded. Just at the wings there was a large tub of lemonade. I backed up against it and sat down in it. Then the whole speech came back to me—but I was in no condition to deliver it. That was my last oratorical flight."

Watchman Properly Incensed.

When the bell rang in hook and ladder No. 22 at Ninety-eighth street and Amsterdam avenue, New York, early the other morning, the man on the desk yelled, "Hurry up, boys; it's the big hotel just around on Broadway, I think!" The firemen hustled into place, and the big triple team of blacks dashed to the scene of the blaze. It was dark and the flames were visible a block off. Driver Veith lashed the horses, and they were on the spot in a jiffy.

"Gee!" howled Fireman Muir, "it's only the watchman's shanty; but I'll bet he's asleep."

Sure enough, the fat old man who is looking nights fo see that the water pipes, each of which weighs half a ton, are not stolen, was dragged out in the open air.

"I'll have the law on you," he cried, "wakin' me up. I'm the watchman on the job."

Rip's Little Joke.

Rip Van Winkle awoke and found himself surrounded by a crowd of reporters.

"Did you really sleep 20 years in these mountains?" queried the men of the press.

"Sure thing!" yawned Rip as he lit his pipe.

"Well, how on earth did you keep warm during the bitter winters. There are no steam radiators up here?"

Rip laughed.

"Ah, no, my friends," he chuckled, "but there are plenty of mountain ranges."

And picking up his stick the old man started out to hunt up a vaudeville manager.

No Longer a Friend.

"Who is that scrawny woman over there?"

"That is my wife."

"Oh; I beg your pardon, old fellow. I didn't dream—"

"Don't distress yourself. She's suing me for divorce now."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Successful Sunday Journalism

For several years the newspaper readers of the West have watched with interest the unique experiment embodied in Sunday Magazine of the Chicago Record-Herald. The time has now come when it is no longer an experiment, but a sound and prospering success. Nothing else of the kind in newspaperdom can compare for a moment with this remarkable supplement.

The Sunday Magazine of the Record-Herald is a real magazine, full of stories and articles by the best living writers, illustrated by eminent artists and carrying on its cover each week a masterpiece of color work. Its prestige is now such that it can compete with the big monthlies for the most costly fiction in the market, sometimes paying as high as $25,000 for a single serial, as it did for Conan Doyle's "Sir Nigel." It captured Anthony Hope's "Spy of Kravonia" when every other magazine in the country wanted the story. The most popular tales of humor now appearing in the United States—those of the inimitable Shorty McCabe—have been published exclusively in the Sunday Magazine of the Record Herald from the start.

Its high literary quality has been steadily maintained and has "won out." You will find one of the best novels of the day running serially in its columns at the present moment. It is not strange that hundreds of thousands of readers prefer the Sunday Record-Herald to all other papers.

Attention PEOPLE!

Don't forget that the Gruetzmacher Bros. handle all kinds of stoves such as heaters, cook stoves and steel ranges.

Also a full line of hardware, groceries, flour and feed.

A complete line of implements also paints, oils and varnishes.

Rock and barrel salt. Barb wire and field fence.

Yours to please at the old stand,

Gruetzmacher Bros.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE. LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STATE. Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. Fifteen days' treatment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund money. All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines used. No detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by mail and express. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage. Charges low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for terms. Consultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call or write to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of men. The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without the use of harmful instruments. Our book fully explains.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the scrotum causing nervous debility, weakness of the nervous system, etc., permanently cured.

BLOOD POISON —That terrible disease in all its stages, cured for life. Skin Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet and all forms of private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few days without pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application, with description of above diseases, their effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrapper.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINES, IA.

RUPTURE, PILES

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolutely reliable and permanent. Write to or call and see the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement; they were afflicted with Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia.
Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines, Ia.
E. C. Miller, Des Moines, Ia.
John H. Looby, Des Moines, Ia.

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you free, postage paid. This book contains much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonial letters. Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the book. Write today—it will pay you.

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES, IOWA

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:40 p. m.
82 ..... 2:50 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:35 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

L. O. Turgasen, Agent

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

PATENTS

DESIGNS
TRADE-MARKS
AND COPYRIGHTS
OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"

Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,
E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

McCALL PATTERNS 10¢ AND 15¢ NONE HIGHER

McCALL'S MAGAZINE 50¢ A YEAR INCLUDING A FREE PATTERN

McCALL PATTERNS
Celebrated for style, perfect fit, simplicity and reliability nearly 40 years. Sold in nearly every city and town in the United States and Canada, or by mail direct. More sold than any other make. Send for free catalog.

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
More subscribers than any other fashion magazine—million a month. Invaluable. Latest styles, patterns, dressmaking, millinery, plain sewing, fancy needlework, hairdressing, etiquette, good stories, etc. Only 50 cents a year (worth double), including a free pattern. Subscribe today, or send for sample copy.

WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS
to Agents. Postal brings premium catalog and new cash prize offers. Address

THE McCALL CO., 238 to 248 W. 37th St., NEW YORK

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified. FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE it is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

Just Dust it on the Sore.
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls while at work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bottom and Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid by Mail.
Money Back If Not Satisfied.
The RED STAR HEALING POWDER Co.
(25c. and 50c. Cans). GARNER, IOWA

The Klemme Times.

VOLUME XIII. NUMBER 49 KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, JULY 8, 1909. $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

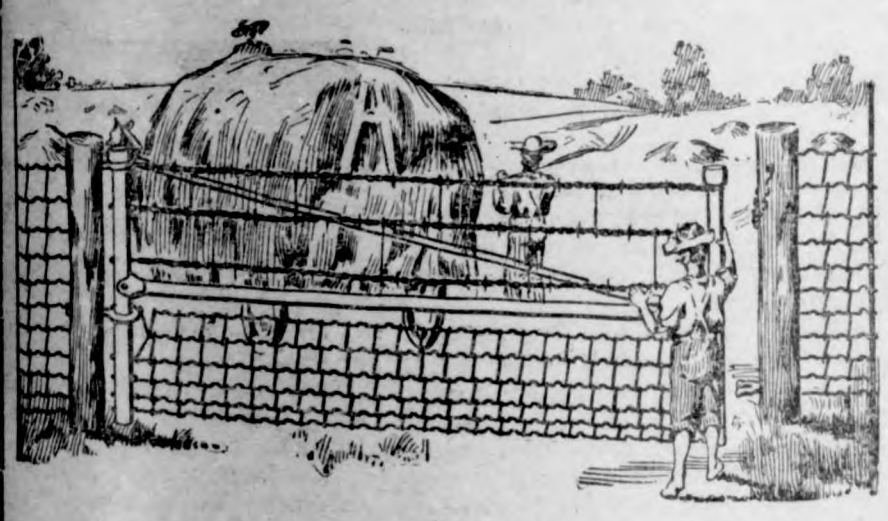
BE READY FOR LIFE'S VOYAGE

HAVE MONEY in THE BANK its safe then

SAVING MONEY Is the test of Reliability and Good Common Sense. Be wise today. Start with the sum you have in your pocket. Remember we are here for your convenience and want your business.

State Savings Bank.

Klemme - - Iowa



Iowa Gates are more than a convenience if women or children ever use them for being so simple they are very light and can easily be swung either way. The IOWA gate is made to last—no castings to break—no wearing parts—even the wires have galvanized stretchers to tighten them. Will not blow down, burn or rot out. Get prices.

J. H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, Agent

KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J.W.WATERMAN

CALLED HOME TO HIS REWARD

Rev. Frank H. Wellemeyer Dies Suddenly last Friday During the Night.— Was One of God's Noblemen.

This community was shocked last Saturday morning when word was passed that Rev. F. H. Wellemeyer had died sudden ly at Rudd, Iowa, the cause of his death being heart trouble. It seemed almost unbelievable, as he was in Klemme only a couple of weeks before in ap parent good health.

The writer enjoyed an acquaintance with the deceased for some years and it was with sadness we heard of his passing. He was a good man in every sense of the word, always cheerful and his only aim seemed to be to accomplish good to others and for his Master.

Funeral services were held at Charles City at ten o'clock Tuesday forenoon, conducted by District Superintendent Rolfing, and the remains were taken to Garner where interment was ma'e Tuesday afternoon A touching incident in connection with the love which his flock had for him came when permission was asked by six of his church members at Rudd that they might have charge of the remains until placed in the last resting place, which request was granted. The services at Garner cemetery were attended by many of the loving friends from Garner, Germantown and Klemme.

The particulars attending his sudden demise are given in the following obituary:

Frank Henry Wellemeyer was born in a log house in Warren county, Mo., on the 11th day of December, 1849. His parents were Henry F. and Catherube E. Wellemeyer, nee Fiegenbaum, both of whom were natives of Germany. He was the oldest but one of a family of nine children. When about two years old he removed with his parents to Wapello, Louisa county, Iowa. Here for about twenty-two years he lived the life of a farm boy, and helped his parents to win out in the struggle against the wilderness and against poverty.

Soon after he came of age he began farming on his own account in Louisa county. Then, like the pioneer he was, he settled on a farm in the original prairie sod of Hancock county, Iowa, which he still owned at the time of his death. In 1875 he was married to Mary Klaus, of Colesburg, Iowa.

After two years spent on the farm, the call to the ministry became imperative. He served at the following places: Sleepy Eye and Henderson, Minn., Le Mars, Iowa, Freeport, Ill., Girard, Iowa, Dubuque, Iowa, again at LeMars, and at Garner and Decorah. On account of failing health he retired from active work in 1906 and moved to Garner, moving to Charles City about a year later.

He could not be idle, so when the conference needed men in 1907 he took his place in the ranks once more and was assigned to the church at Rudd whose pastor he was at the time of his death.

The last weeks were busy ones. The last week in May found him at the basket meeting at Flood Creek. Then came the College Commencement, the annual meeting of the trustee board and the Garner campmeeting. In the meantime a revival of religion had begun in the English M. E. church at Rudd. His family advised rest, but the "King's Business" required his presence and he went. On Friday, July 2d, he preached at the afternoon meeting and was present at the evening meeting and was active in personal work. Even at ten o'clock he had the pleasure of influencing one of the audience to accept Christ.

After the evening service he and Evangelist Decker went to the Witzel home for the night. Rev. Wellemeyer led in the evening devotions. In his prayer he said: "We thank thee God. that as far as we know, we're saved up to date." At 11 o'clock he bade the assembled company good-night and retired. The next morning he was called several times but did not answer. At length Rev. Decker entered the room and found him lying as asleep. A closer examination disclosed the fact that he had departed this life. It is the testimony of all witnesses that there was no evidence of a struggle and death from heart failure undoubtedly ensued shortly after he fell asleep.

He leaves an aged mother, five brothers and three sisters, his wife, four sons and three daughters. His grand children numbered three. A nephew, aged seven, has also been a member of the household since infancy.

OUR BUSINESS IS BANKING
BANKING IS OUR BUSINESS

The sign "Bank" does not make a bank and is often misleading. It requires time, energy, close attention to business, a substantial capital and ripe experience in banking to make a bank. We claim, without blushing, all essentials necessary to make our business that of banking, and tender our patrons a service thoroughly seasoned by years of experience, backed by substantial capital.

The First National Bank
CAPITAL $25,000

PETROLEUM COKE

A carload of COKE just received and another car to arrive soon. The supply is limited, so order at once as it has heretofore been impossible to get it later in the season. Also Best Grades in all Soft Coals at Prices that are RIGHT.

Highest Market Price Paid for Grain and Live Stock Six Days in the Week

H. C. LAU

Elkhart Buggies

are the best made, best grade and easiest riding buggies on earth for the money.

FOR THIRTY-SIX YEARS

we have been selling direct and are The Largest Manufacturers in the World selling to the consumer exclusively.

We ship for examination and approval, guaranteeing safe delivery, and also to save you money. If you are not satisfied as to style, quality and price you are nothing out.

May We Send You Our Large Catalogue?

Elkhart Carriage & Harness Mfg. Co.
Elkhart, - - - - Indiana

Price $56.00 With Twin Auto Seat

FOURTH BASE BALL TOURNAMENT

At Garner on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, July 13, 14 and 15.

Garner will hold her fourth annual baseball tournament this year on the above dates and they have secured some good fast teams to play for the purses. The following is the baseball program:

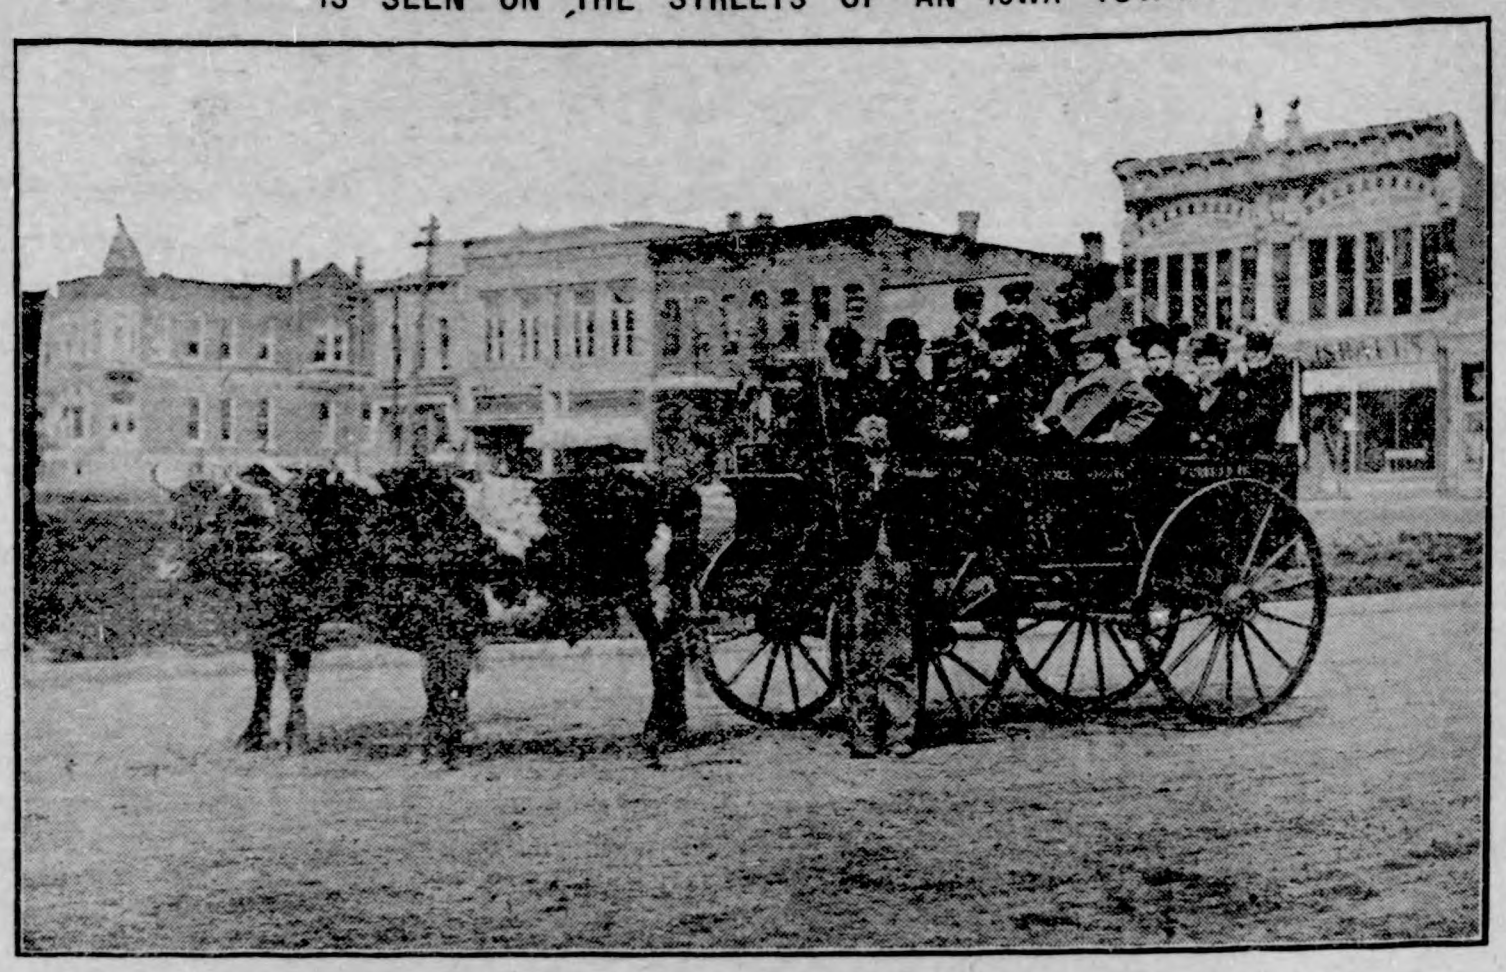
Tuesday, July 13— Belmond vs. Humboldt at 2:30 p m, and Algona vs. Charles City at 4:00 p. m.

Wednesday, July 14—Losers in first day's games play for a purse of $150 at 10:00 a. m. Winners in first day's games play for a purse of $150 at 3:00 p. m.

Thursday, July 15—The winner of the Wednesday afternoon game plays Eldora for a purse of $150 at 3.00 p m.

A large number of street attractions have been secured and there will be something doing all the time. Plan to attend.

IS SEEN ON THE STREETS OF AN IOWA TOWN.



William H. Coop and His Team of Oxen.

William H. Coop, the first white child born in Jefferson county, Ia., is quite familiar with the ways of the pioneers. He drives a well trained ox team and on one occasion had as guests in his wagon "Billy" Sunday and wife, who enjoyed a ride behind the oxen. Mr. Coop hauled the logs for the famous Bonnifield cabin in Old Settlers' park at Fairfield and directed the building of the house just as cabins were built 60 years or more ago in Iowa. He is now training a team of buffalo to send to the state fair for exhibition.

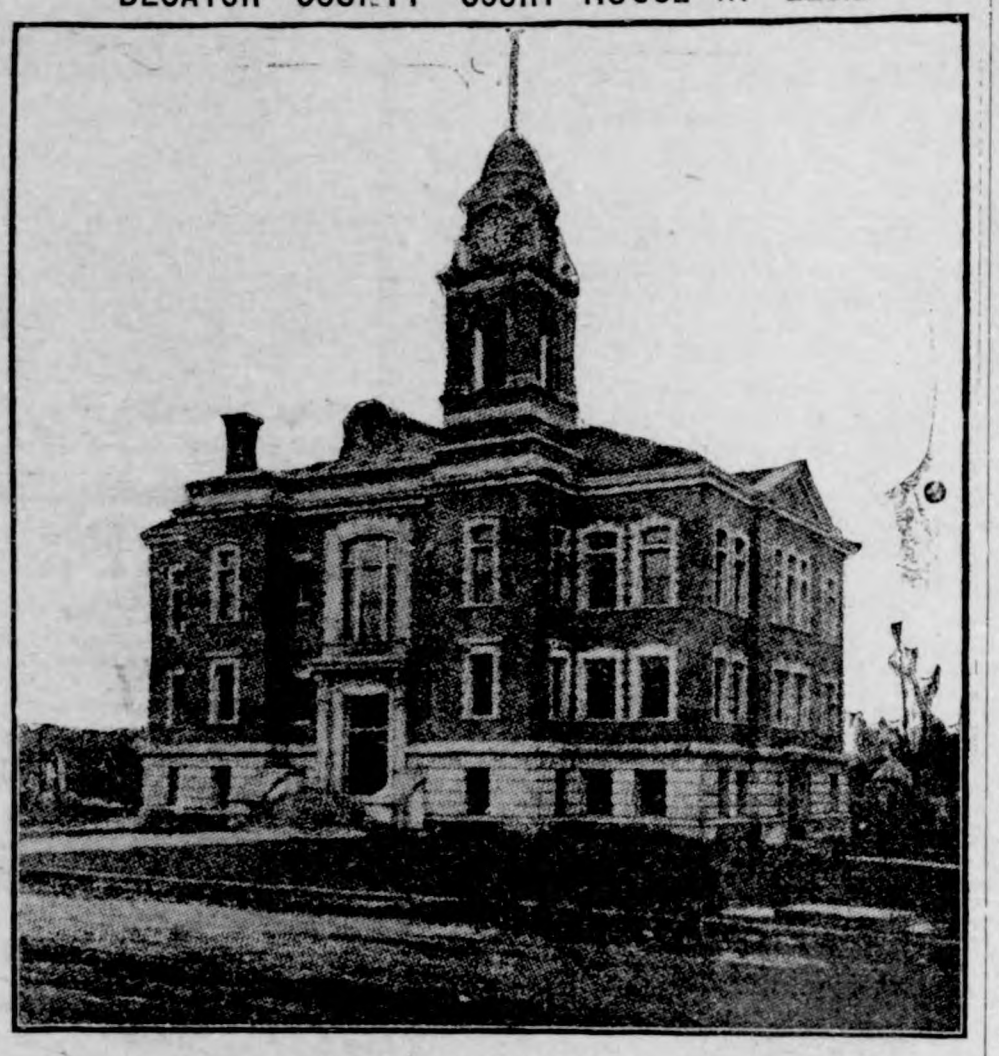
IMPROVING RIVER FRONT.

The Scott county board of supervisors passed a resolution to the effect that all prisoners sentenced to the county jail at hard labor be put to work on the river front to help improve the levee in the vicinity of the boat club at Davenport. The prisoners are to be in charge of the sheriff or his deputy, but the boat club is to secure a man to watch them while at work, and the police are to escort them to and from the county jail. By this means much of the river front can be improved, and at the same time the prisoners can be made useful while they are serving out their sentence. A dam is to be built where the clubhouse is to be erected, and it is to prepare the levee along here that the prisoners will be used.

CIRCUS TICKETS TABOOED.

Circus press agents may as well "jump" Iowa hereafter, if the rank and file of newspaper publishers stand by the resolutions adopted by the Iowa Associated Dailies at their convention in Des Moines. These resolutions recite that, inasmuch as circus money flows but little into the coffers of the newspapers, while circus "dope" finds its way into the news columns through the blandishment of the press agent and his proffer of tickets galore, there shall be a cessation of this custom. Hereafter in Iowa, as in Illinois, newspapers will, if the resolutions are adhered to strictly, accept nothing but money in return for advertising space and they will not consider press agents' stories news.

DECATUR COUNTY COURT HOUSE AT LEON.



Decatur County Court House.

The court house for Decatur county at Leon is one of the new ones of southern Iowa. It was completed and dedicated in 1908, and cost when complete, about $100,000. It is neat and attractive in appearance.

CHAUTAUQUA SEASON AT HAND FOR IOWANS.

Camp of Washington Chautauqua.

Twenty-five or 30 Chautauquas will be operated in Iowa during the Chautauqua season. It is a favorite educational influence in the state. Iowa people attend Chautauqua assemblies and listen to music and hear lectures that are instrumental in forming character, and the Chautauqua movement is steadily growing in importance and value.

NEW G. A. R. COMMANDER.

Michael McDonald, the new department commander of the G. A. R. in Iowa, was formerly a member of the legislature, and he has a brother who is now a member of the legislature representing Carroll county, Representative McDonald is a Democrat, but Michael is and always has been a Republican. The new department commander is also a member of the directory board of the state department of agriculture in which he is regarded as one of the best of the men.

Son of the Soil.

"Say," queried the next-door neighbor, "what were you thrashing your son for last night?"

"Wild oats," answered the old man, with a twinkle in his off eye.

CAMPAICN TO SAVE THE HOGS.

Dr. P. O. Koto, state veterinarian, who has waged such a splendid war against tuberculosis among cattle, is planning a campaign among hogs which will be even more thorough than its predecessor. Many swine throughout the state have died very suddenly and without apparent cause and Dr. Koto intends to probe the matter to its limit. The campaign will be active all over Iowa and it is the intention of the investigator to eliminate all diseased hogs as well as cattle. The instructions have gone out to all deputies to be on the lookout.

LINCOLN TO INSPECT GUARD.

Capt. Charles Lincoln, son of Gen. James Rush Lincoln, of Ames, has been delegated by the war department to represent the regular army as inspector of the Iowa National Guard companies at their four encampments this summer. There will be seven other regular army inspectors, but Capt. Lincoln's appointment is the only one thus far communicated to Gen. Logan. Out of four army men who were asked for by Gen. Logan, Capt. Lincoln is the only one who was favored by the department.

LONG TRIP IN TOURING CAR.

E. O. Kiser nas left Davenport with his wife and daughter and a chauffeur in a touring car on a trip that will consume 20,000 miles. The eastern extremity of the trip will be Portland, Me., and on the return trip they will go clear through to the Pacific coast, down from Portland, Ore., and then back east by way of the southern route through Texas, where Mr. Kiser is heavily interested in land.

A HOPEFUL PROSPECT.

He—Darling, I don't know what to say to your father.

She—Just say: "Mr. Munn, I wish to marry your daughter"—then dodge.

HANDS RAW AND SCALY.

Itched and Burned Terribly—Could Not Move Thumbs Without Flesh Cracking—Sleep Impossible.

Cuticura Soon Cured His Eczema.

"An itching humor covered both my hands and got up over my wrists and even up to the elbows. The itching and burning were terrible. My hands got all scaly and when I scratched, the surface would be covered with blisters and then get raw. The eczema got so bad that I could not move my thumbs without deep cracks appearing. I went to my doctor, but his medicine could only stop the itching. At night I suffered so fearfully that I could not sleep. I could not bear to touch my hands with water. This went on for three months and I was fairly worn out. At last I got the Cuticura Remedies and in a month I was cured. Walter H. Cox, 16 Somerset St., Boston, Mass., Sept. 25, 1908."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Alcohol and Tuberculosis.

The most prominent tuberculosis specialists in the country agree that alcohol will not cure consumption. Dr. S. A. Knopf says: "Alcohol has never cured and never will cure tuberculosis. It will either prevent or retard recovery." Dr. Frank Billings of Chicago and Dr. Vincent Y. Bowditch, ex-presidents of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis; Dr. Lawrence F. Flick of Philadelphia and Dr. Edward L. Trudeau of Saranac Lake, the founder of the anti-tuberculosis movement in this country, are all of the same opinion.

Objection to Women Golfers.

"Farmers don't mind renting their fields to golfers, but they are strongly opposed to women."

"Why?"

"Because woman golfers are always losing hairpins and hatpins and stickpins in the grass. Follow the trail of a woman's foursome with a pincushion and I'll guarantee you a cushionful of pins at the end of the ninth hole."

"But why does the farmer mind that?"

"Because afterward when his sheep and cattle graze in those fields they swallow pins. Pins, I needn't tell you, are injurious to the health."

No Romance About It.

The stricken man constantly moaned the name of the young woman who had jilted him.

"Tell her," he said to the medical man, "that her cruelty killed me. Tell her I am dying from a broken heart."

The medical man shook his head.

"Aw, go on," he said. "That would be shamelessly unprofessional. Your heart's all right. It's your liver that's the trouble."

The real martyr never has t enjoy the honor.

DO YOUR CLOTHES LOOK YE If so, use the new RUSS BLU will make them white as snow. All

The umbrella dealer has a l by for a rainy day.

Not strange but true. Wrigley's mint keeps off teeth trouble by ing teeth clean.

To act with common sense, ing to the moment, is the be dom I know.—Horace Walpole.

School teachers take notice! Wr Spearmint is good for little sto better for little teeth.

Men owe their resolution, an of their success, to the oppositio meet with.—Renan.

Twenty million people a day ar ing their digestions with rea leaf flavored Wrigley's Spearm

He who speaks honestly care needs not care, if his words b served to the remotest time. lyle.

Shake Into Your Shoes

Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for yo It cures painful, swollen, smarting, ing feet. Makes new shoes easy. S all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. accept any substitute. Sample FRE dress Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N.

Should Take His Medicine

"A feller shouldn't stand in th dle of the street to talk pessi declared the Plunkville philoso

"Why not?"

"Fust he says life ain't worth and then jumps when he hears tomobile honk."

A Youthful Idea.

"See, my son," said an enthu parent, anxious to impress the ties and resources of nature, beautiful green dresses of leav trees have now, when in winte are quite bare."

"I guess," said the you thoughtfully, "that when winter they pack these pretty green d in their trunks, don't they?"

The Earth and the Moon.

That the earth must shine o moon even as the moon shines earth is obvious. To detect thi from the earth on the lunar s and scientifically prove its exi is another matter. It is interest find that a recent number of a F astronomical paper contains tw tographs of parts of the moon inated by earth light. They taken by M. Quenisset at the J observatory.

NATURE STUDIES.

The Phunnibeak Bird—Hello, are you?

The Other Bird—Don't you me? Why, I'm "The harp that through Tara's Halls."

The Phunnibeak Bird (shortly)— tut; tut! You're a lyre! That's you are.

Charms Children

Delights Old Folks

Post Toasties

The crisp delicious golden-brown food made of Indian Corn.

A tempting, teasing taste distinctly differ ent—all its own.

"The Taste Lingers"

Sold by Grocers.

Popular pkg., 10c.

Large Family size 15c.

Postum Cereal Co., Ltd. Battle Creek, Mich.

OF RATE CASE

ds Are Expected to Make Voluntary Drops.

IS WELL SATISFIED

Commissioner Hopes That a t Deal of Good Will Come Des Moines as a Result of Hearing.

Moines, July 3.—Peace and har- reigned at the closing session Greater Des Moines commit- te case against the Chicago, land & Pacific, the Chicago & estern, the Chicago, Milwau- St. Paul and the Minneapolis Louis railroads, before Examin- n of the interstate commerce sion.

the exception of the testi- ffered by W. S. Howell, assist- ight agent of the Milwaukee, Lutz of the Minneapolis & St. was the sole witness. In all oss-examination, Mr. Guernsey ot make Mr. Lutz admit that Moines rates when compared her cities are discriminatory. mitted that the Des Moines re higher than those of other farther from the Dakota and ota points in question, but that the volume of traffic and t of maintenance in the state t the advanced rates.

he hearing it was brought out e Milwaukee's rates are more inating against Des Moines hose of any other road. It was hown that the rates of the apolis & St. Louis and the Chi- Northwestern are the most ble to this city.

cipating the result of the hear- e Rock Island has already low- many of the rates affecting Des , and officials of the Milwau- ate that that company will re- s rates as soon as possible.

railroads claim that the high are not part of a scheme to Des Moines. They admit that have not been changed since was such a scheme, and state e rates have been in effect so hat they have ceased to be con- d discriminatory.

le he does not hope to accom- all he asked, Freight Commis- Wylie hopes that a great deal od will result for Des Moines he recent hearing. That many railroads will voluntarily re- their rates he is confident, and o feels sure that the decision d down by the interstate com- commission will compel a re- of many of the freight rates in at the present time.

Orders New Brigade.

plete reorganization of the Iowa al Guard is provided in an or- rom the office of the adjutant- al putting the army of the state brigade standing. The four Iowa ents are named as component of the brigade.

cers for the new organization amed as follows:

adjutant general, major, adju- general's department.

judge advocate, major, judge ate general's department.

quartermaster, major, quarter- r's department.

commissary, major, subsis- department.

surgeon, major, medical de- ent.

engineer officer, major, corps gineers.

ordnance officer, major, ord- department, who is also de- as inspector of small arms ce.

signal officer, major, signal .

o aids, lieutenants, from the line.

Pearson Is New Dean.

David S. Fairchild has resigned osition as dean and professor of ry in the school of medicine at university, and has gone to on. Dr. W. W. Pearson of Des es, professor of opthalmology, succeed Dr. Fairchild as dean. Fairchild was dean of the school edicine at Drake for several . Dr. Pearson is one of the best n opthalmologists in the middle .

Gets New Factory.

rough A. B. Shriver the F. M. re Cow Milking Machine com- of Council Bluffs, in which he is ested, has been induced to come es Moines. The plant has been nized only a short time, but its uct is meeting with success on market. Mr. Shriver is looking a suitable location for the plant stated that it will locate here in t thirty days.

New Laws July 4.

Dozens of the enactments of the recent Iowa legislature become effective July 4, among them being:

Law enforcement act providing for removal of county attorneys.

Prohibition of minors smoking cigarettes.

Prevention of secret fraternities and soceties in high schools.

Giving of pensions to disabled or retired policemen and firemen.

Establishment of board of education for three state institutions.

Providing for a laboratory to manufacture hog cholera serum.

State hotel inspection.

Making resorts nuisances and assessment of tax against owners.

Rigid anti-trust act.

Prohibiting drinking on trains.

Corporations Are Called In.

Railway, telephone and express companies and other corporations have been notified by Secretary Davison of the state executive council that hearing on the subject of assessments for taxation and equalization of values will be held at the state house beginning Monday, July 12. On the first two days the railway, express companies and like properties will be heard. On Wednesday, July 14, will be held the telephone, telegraph and other general hearings. The subject of equalization of values between counties will be taken up following the hearing on July 14 and continued until completed.

Ten are Given Treatment.

As the result of the city canvas made last spring by visiting nurses, ten tubercular afflicted children are being given medical and outdoor treatment by the Des Moines Tuberculosis association. Four of these children have been taken to Beulah home at the Ledges, near Boone, the outing home under the direction of the American Sunday School association. The others are placed in the care of one nurse in Highland Park. Each child drinks two quarts of milk each day with the same relative proportion of eggs and meat.

Kaltz Files His Claims.

Per diem and expense claims for the months of March and April have been filed with the state executive council by former Pharmacy Commissioner B. F. Keltz of Webster City. Keltz claims that the state still owes him $324.34 for March and April, during which he continued to serve as commissioner although the governor had requested his resignation.

To Hold Joint Exposition.

Des Moines, Iowa.—If the plans are matured as outlined at a joint meeting of officers of the Iowa Corn Growers', Iowa Dairy and Iowa Horticultural associations held in the offices of the Commercial club, one of the greatest of Iowa meetings having for its object the improvement of farm conditions and farm products will be held in Des Moines next November.

Must Face Accuser.

Extradition papers were granted by Governor Carroll for the return to Chicago of Thomas W. Williams, under arrest at Council Bluffs and wanted in Chicago charged with cashing a French letter of credit for Mrs Mary A. Port and then disappearing with the cash.

Receives Check Long Overdue.

John W. Cox of Valley Junction, chief of police at the state house, has learned that the government never forgets. He received a check from the war department for $5.09 clothing allowance and back pay which the government has owed him ever since the civil war.

Leaves $40,000 for Lutheran Home.

Joy was brought to the hearts of the Lutherans in attendance at the general conference when it was announced that a gift of $40,000 had been received to be used in founding a church home for the aged. The gift is from a woman who does not wish to have her identity made known Guard Officers Are Able.

Of forty-one officers of the Iowa National guard examined at the state house for their commissions, not one failed to pass the rigid physical examination made by Dr. Wilbur S. Conkling of Des Moines, surgeon of the Fifty-fifth infantry.

Seventy-four Conventions.

The Des Moines Commercial club has booked a total of seventy- four conventions for 1910. This is almost as many as will be held here this year, and fifteen or twenty more will be secured before the close of the year.

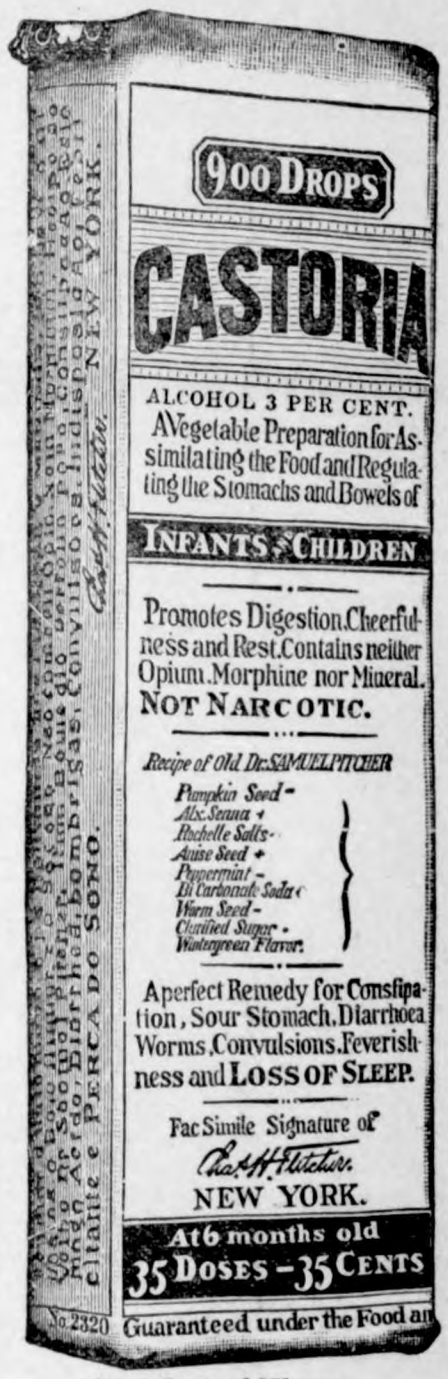
Capt. Lyman Is Laid to Rest.

The funeral of Capt. Frank E. Lyman was held at the late residence Rev. Frisbee officiating. The companions of the Loyal Legion attended in a body. Interment was at Glendale cemetery.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twentytwo per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirtyseven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse, but you must see that it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Castoria causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.



Exact Copy of Wrapper.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. A. F. Peeler, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria in many cases and have always found it an efficient and speedy remedy."

Dr. E. Down, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria in my practice for many years with great satisfaction to myself and benefit to my patients."

Dr. Edward Parrish, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I have used your Castoria in my own household with good results, and have advised several patients to use it for its mild laxative effect and freedom from harm."

Dr. J. B. Elliott, of New York City, says: "Having during the past six years prescribed your Castoria for infantile stomach disorders, I most heartily commend its use. The formula contains nothing deleterious to the most delicate of children."

Dr. C. G. Sprague, of Omaha, Neb., says: "Your Castoria is an ideal medicine for children, and I frequently prescribe it. While I do not advocate the indiscriminate use of proprietary medicines, yet Castoria is an exception for conditions which arise in the care of children."

Dr. J. A. Parker, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria holds the esteem of the medical profession in a manner held by no other proprietary preparation. It is a sure and reliable medicine for infants and children. In fact, it is the universal household remedy for infantile ailments."

Dr. H. F. Merrill, of Augusta, Me., says: "Castoria is one of the very finest and most remarkable remedies for infants and children. In my opinion your Castoria has saved thousands from an early grave. I can furnish hundreds of testimonials from this locality as to its efficiency and merits."

Dr. Norman M. Geer, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "During the last twelve years I have frequently recommended your Castoria as one of the best preparations of the kind, being safe in the hands of parents and very effective in relieving children's disorders, while the ease with which such a pleasant preparation can be administered is a great advantage."

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS
Bears the Signature of
Chas. H. Fletcher.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
In Use For Over 30 Years.
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

Skill to do comes of doing, knowledge comes by eyes always open and working hands, and there is no knowledge that is not power.—Emerson.

A household once supplied with Hamlins Wizard Oil is seldom allowed to be without it. In case of sudden mishap or accident Wizard Oil takes the place of the family doctor. Are you supplied?

A man likes to think that a woman thinks he is better than he knows he is.

Digestion drops! That's real mint leaf juice in Wrigley's Spearmint. Every stick digests a meal.

It is always the open season for killing time with some people.

The new RUSS BLUE makes clothes whiter than snow. Delights the laundress. All grocers sell it.

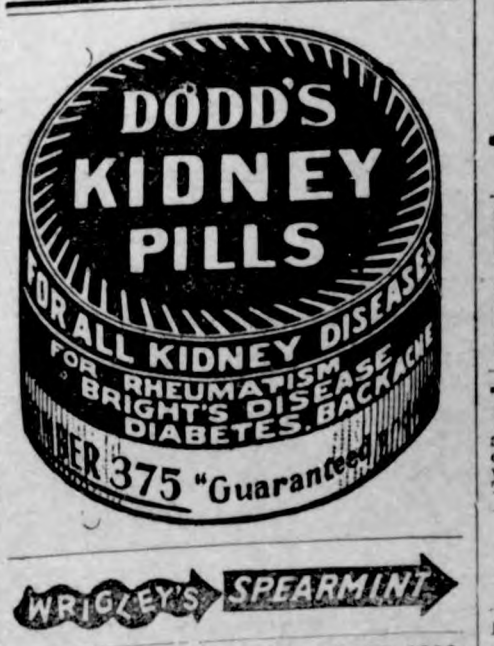
There is more or less moonshine in the astrology business.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Even a miser may not be able to keep the secrets of others.

A soft word turns away wrath. Wrigley's spearmint turns away indigestion.

A doctor of divinity should believe in the faith cure.



WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT

SICK HEADACHE
CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.
Positively cured by these Little Pills.
They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.
SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.
CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.
Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature
Brent Good
REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

Buy a Wabash Wagon
From your dealer or direct from our factory
40 styles and sizes for boys and girls of all ages from babyhood up, and larger Handy Wagons for men.
Illustrated price list FREE. WRITE FOR IT!
WABASH MANUFACTURING COMPANY
14 Mill St., Wabash, Indiana

WRIGLEY'S

DAISY FLY KILLER

placed anywhere attracts and kills all flies. Neat, clean, ornamental, convenient, cheap. Lasts all season. Cannot spill or tip over, will not soil or injure anything. Guaranteed effective. Of all dealers, or sent prepaid for 20c. Harold Somers, 150 De Kalb Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c, and $1.00 at Druggists

TO INVESTORS—A little money invested in Texas-Bermuda Onion Co. stock, will bring you rich and certain profits. A homely industry, but a sure one, and mighty profitable. Demand for product way beyond supply. Write for our descriptive booklet. Texas-Bermuda Onion Co., 137 Clayton Block, Denver.

WRIGLEY WRIGLEY WRIGLEY

Don't monkey with cheap Liniments, get the best A-B-C LINIMENT
Cures your pains from head to feet.

Paxtine
TOILET ANTISEPTIC
—NOTHING LIKE IT FOR—
THE TEETH Paxtine excels any dentifrice in cleansing, whitening and removing tartar from the teeth, besides destroying all germs of decay and disease which ordinary tooth preparations cannot do.
THE MOUTH Paxtine used as a mouth-wash disinfects the mouth and throat, purifies the breath, and kills the germs which collect in the mouth, causing sore throat, bad teeth, bad breath, grippe, and much sickness.
THE EYES when inflamed, tired, ache and burn, may be instantly relieved and strengthened by Paxtine.
CATARRH Paxtine will destroy the germs that cause catarrh, heal the inflammation and stop the discharge. It is a sure remedy for uterine catarrh.
Paxtine is a harmless yet powerful germicide, disinfectant and deodorizer. Used in bathing it destroys odors and leaves the body antiseptically clean.

FOR SALE AT DRUG STORES, 50c. OR POSTPAID BY MAIL.
LARGE SAMPLE FREE!
THE PAXTON TOILET CO., BOSTON, MASS.

Down
in the dumps
—from over-eating, drinking—bad liver and constipation get many a one, but there's a way out—Cascarets relieve and cure quickly. Take one to-night and feel ever so much better in the morning. 902
Cascarets—10c box—week's treatment. All druggists. Biggest seller in the world—million boxes a month.

For Any Face or Any Beard
NO STROPPING NO HONING
TRADE Gillette MARK
KNOWN THE WORLD OVER

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water

Are You Going to PAINT ?

It pays to keep your buildings well painted, and when you paint it pays to use the best you can get. We handle the best in

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, etc. etc.

Call and see us and get our prices.

Washing Machines

We handle some of the best made. Call and see the

"Quicker Yet"

The best place to buy

Hardware & Groceries

TERHUFEN BROS.

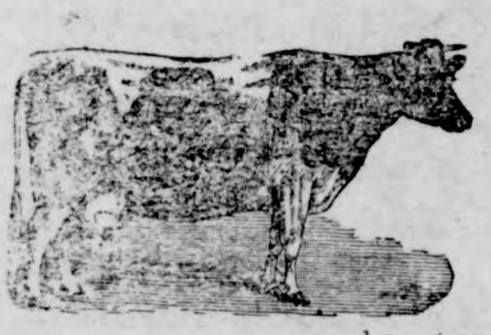
—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA

STOCK FOODS

We carry a full line of Dr. Hess' Scientific Veterinary Stock Preparations. These preparations have been thoroughly tried and proven to give absolute satisfaction. Dr. Hess & Clark guarantee back of every preparation.



Stock Food for horses and cattle.

Worm Powder for hogs and cattle.

Panacea for Gaps, Cholera and Roup. Makes the hens lay.

Instant Lice Killer kills Lice, Ticks, Fleas. A reliable disinfectant powder put up in cans with perforated top.

Heave Powder Always gives relief.

Distemper, Fever and Cough Remedy.

Healing Powder Heals from bottom and leaves no scar

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile. both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

Buy Your SCREENS NOW

The Flies Will Soon be Here

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, AGENT

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

ELL CENTER

Special Correspondence:

Ben Grove has returned from a visit at Webster City.

Miss Norma Post is at Webster City visiting relatives.

Hod Lawhorn and family drove to Goodell Monday.

Wm. Yohn and family took in the celebration at Clear Lake Monday.

Tom Nelson and wife visited relatives at Klemme Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Krouse was a caller in his neighborhood Tuesday.

Miss Cora Lawhorn spent the first of the week with Goodell friends.

Mr. Ingham, of Chicago, was looking after his farms here last week.

Cloyd Lawhorn went to Decorah to spend the Fourth with his uncle and family.

Mrs. Priebe was taken sick Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Josten. She is better at this time.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the Best and Surest

"It affords me pleasure to state that I consider the preparation known as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the best and surest of good results of any I have ever used in my family," says P. E. Herrington, of Mount Aerial, Ky. This is the universal verdict of all who use this remedy. Its cures are so prompt and effectual that people take pleasure in recommending it. For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

BRITT

From the News:

Rodney Hill Sr. transacted business in South Dakota last week.

Prof. Kies has gone to Denison where he will teach for a few weeks in the summer school at that place.

Mrs. Brandon Greenaway and son Joseph left last Friday evening for Hamilton, Ontario, where they will spend a part of the summer months.

County Auditor Duff was in Britt Monday. He has just returned from a visit to Alberta, Canada.

The Western Electric Telephone Company have a crew of 15 men making their headquarters in Britt, building a new line from here to Hampton.

Oscar Thomas is now the proprietor of the Thomas dray line, having purchased the entire outfit from his brother Frank.

Quite a number from Britt went to Algona Monday to hear W. J. Bryan. They report having heard a fine non-political address. While all do not agree with Bryan's political ideas, it must be admitted that as a man and speaker he is at the head of the list.

Information comes from Rochester that John Schrader had his operation in the hospital at that place on Saturday and is recovering nicely.

P. L. Smith, who owns a good farm in Boone township, is showing his confidence in the future of Hancock county by building a large barn on his place.

Ben Garthwaite finished up his 7th year yesterday as a rural carrier on route No 2 out of Britt. He has never missed a day on account or sickness or being any way disabled. A pretty good record for a man 63 years old.

A Night Rider's Raid

The worst night riders are calomel, croton oil or aloes pills. They raid your bed to rob you of rest. Not so with Dr. King's New Life Pills. They never distress or inconvenience, but always cleanse the system, curing colds, headache, constipation, malaria 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

GO WITH THE CROWD

ON NEXT EXCURSION TO

Tramping Lake District

SASKATCHEWAN, CANADA.

3rd Tuesday in July, the 20th

Only $23 from Hancock County points for round trip, which is refunded to you if you buy land. Any excess fare you pay over $23 will be refunded whether or not you buy land. Other necessary expenses only $1.50 a day for meals and berth in our private cars. Lands shown free.

We are Owners, not Agents

MR. BIRT AMICK,
Dist. Mgr. Luse Land & Dev. Co.
Des Moines, Iowa, Please send to me the free Canada pamphlets checked (X) below:

( ) "Guide to the Last West"
( ) "The Last West."
( ) "Tramping Lake District."
( ) "Canada Lands."
( ) "Views of Canada."

Without obligating myself in any way I will say that I would like to go on the Excursion on the .....Tuesday in..... and wish to have and additional information you will have regarding this trip.

(First or Third) (Month)

Name.....

Town ....., Iowa

One Dollar

Mr. Farmer---It costs but a trifle more to buy printed letter heads and envelopes than it does to use any old thing, and certainly it looks more business-like to use printed stationery For a limited time we offer you 100 sheets good writing paper and 100 good envelopes, printed with your name and address, both for $1.00. Give us your order now.

The Times Printery

LEMME MARKET.

.....	55 to 60c
.....	40 to 42c
.....	80 to 100
.....	50 to 55c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	6.50 to 7.10
.....	3.00 to 6.00

CAL NEWS

ruits at Kluckhohn's.

e large Canada land ad ue.

est line of candies in Kluckhohn's. 45tf fitted. Eyes tested Missman. 47-4 hter was born to Mr. Byron Sweeley, July 6.

il to read the new ad te Savings Bank this lint and family spent t Garner visiting with . Sage.

idder and family left y for Fenton Iowa, to Fourth visiting with E.—Those owing us sted to pay up at once costs. Henry Lau & edham and family, of ge, visited here last he home of Henry Bun Garner, stop at the House. Everything y cleaned and satis- rvice guaranteed. tf nic which was to have on Monday at German- indefinitely postponed t of the damp weather.

n last Sunday caused a ment of the Klemme- ball game which was ake place at Ventura.

on stock food The A. Pabst & Co. in this es you some valuable See their display essels left yesterday n where he has secur- sition of section fore- expects to move his ere in the near future. him success.

a Gruetzmacher has sick for the past week. she has rallied at is still very low at ing. Mr. and Mrs. uetzmacher of Charles called to her bedside tstanding the fact that did not celebrate this ere was the usual f noise and fireworks y and the dealers in sy goods had a pretty . You can't keep the boy from making a he 4th of July.

ar that some of our sports had about made minds to charter a spec- take them from Ven- ora Junction last Sun- finally decided that e was the town they visit, so they walke ead.

bliged to take it for l sell it out cheap;

ss Stock Food.

ss Poultry Panacea.

ss Instant Louse Kill-ss Hog Worm Powder.

d at G. F. Schuler's Iowa.

For a chunk of good cold ice call at Bloom's elevator or on G. R. Waterman. 44tf

Try Kluckhohn's ice cream soda with crushed fruit and you will become a regular customer.

Aug. Lau has recently repaired and painted his elevator and is now in good shape for the fall trade.

Miss Margaret Jackson of Belmond and Mrs. Chas. Bowen of St. Paul visited at the Aug. Lau home Thursday.

Wm. Kirkwood arrived in Klemme last Saturday, from Ringsted, Iowa, for a visit at the home of his parents.

While at the Garner base ball tournament, stop at the Garner House. Courteous treatment and good service guaranteed.

Aug. Lau left Tuesday for a trip to South Dakota and Minnesota points to look after his land interests.

Friday and Saturday July 16 and 17 will be special delivery days for poultry. Don't forget the dates. Prices to follow. Ell Bros.

Ben Lau went to Belmond Friday evening, returning Saturday accompanied by Miss Ella Jackson who spent the 4th and 5th at Klemme and Forest City.

Herman Miller returned home from his Chicago trip last Saturday. He had a good visit with "Butch" Schroeder, who showed him all the sights worth seeing.

If you want to buy anything or if you have anything to sell, you can't reach the buyer or seller any easier or cheaper than by inserting a small ad in the Times. The cost is small and results are sure.

Geo. Irmscher, of Dubuque, Iowa visited here yesterday with his nephew Arthur Wellemeyer. Mr. Irmscher recently suffered a fire loss in his home in Dubuque and while here he purchased a complete new outfit of household furniture from Mr. Wellemeyer.

Chas. Suckow and wife and Miss Fern left last Friday for Rake, Iowa, where they attended the Fourth of July celebration and visited with the E. P. Dow family. Mr. and Mrs. Suckow returned home Monday evening and Fern went to Lu Verne, Iowa, to visit at the Dr. Spooner home.

After a good hot week of regular old fashioned Hancock county corn weather the mercury took a drop Saturday and on Sunday. Monday and Tuesday we had a great bunch of cold, wet atmosphere. The towns which celebrated Independence Day on the 3rd were in luck, while those who made the eagle scream on the 5th were up against a tough weather proposition.

Ice cream sodas, sundaes, and all kinds of cool refreshing drinks at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

Henry Mann packed his household goods last week and on Thursday morning hauled them to Garner where he loaded them onto a car and he and his family and his father and mother left Friday for their new home at Alpena, Michigan, where his mother has some land. We understand that Henry will take a whirl at leading the simple life next to Nature for a while, working some land, milking some cows, fishing, etc. We wish them all success in their new home.

Judge Clark has handed down a decision in the famous Hancock County ditch case—Fred Ax et al vs. Interstate Drainage & Investment Co.—and the farmers won out. No more money is to be paid the Company for work already done and the Company pays the costs of the case.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH

Again Passes Into History With Many and Varied Celebrations

WET WEATHER ON 5th

Again the ever glorious fourth has "came and went," and the hearts of the American people have again swelled with patriotism, while the small boy—and perhaps some of the larger ones—has made the welkin ring with the various explosive contraptions made especially for the occasion, and perhaps a few have lost a thumb, a finger, an eye or some other valuable piece of machinery in giving vent to their pent-up enthusiasm. But it is great to be an American, just the same.

Britt was the fortunate Hancock county town this year, she holding her celebration on Saturday, the 3rd, which was an ideal day, and a very large crowd turned out. Britt beat Woden in the forenoon ball game, 1 to 0, which is said to be one of the best games ever played in Britt. Corwith played the winner in the afternoon and was snowed under by Britt, 14 to 1. Joe Bailey pitched both games for the British. The Corwith and Britt bands furnished soul-inspiring music all day.

No fireworks were advertised on the program, but some were pulled off impromptu, and they proved to be rather expensive, too. About twelve o'clock a patriotic citizen who wanted to end the day with a grand display, set fire to fifteen large sky rockets on the main street, with the result that the plate glass front in Miller & Bosworth's drug store was a total wreck. Earlier in the evening a stand on main street was burned by Roman candles being shot into it. These were about all the fireworks. Britt had a fine celebration and everybody seemed well pleased.

Our good neighbor on the south, Goodell, had planned for a large demonstration on Monday, the 5th, but the weather was very much against a successful celebration. However, a number of our people went down. Goodell defeated a Belmond team in the ball game by a score of 10 to 4. Some coons sang some songs and the Goodell band played. Quite a crowd turned out considering the bad weather.

German M. E. Church Items

Aneta Schuldt of Garner is a guest at the Henry Griewe home.

Matilda Rest, of Gladbrook, Iowa, is visiting in Klemme and Germantown since last week Monday.

The Sunday School picnic on Monday did not materialize as the weather was too disagreeable. It has been suggested that we plan for a day after harvest and make it a "Harvest home" picnic, which has become very popular in many localities.

In spite of the rain and inclement weather, a fair sized audience met last Sunday night to listen to the program given by Emma Sampson's Sunday School class. They had a fine patriotic program prepared consisting of solos, duets, trios, and quartets declamations, readings, a dialogue, a class prophecy, and closing with a pantomime. Though it was generally considered good, the girls were very much dissatisfied with it, as many things worked against them, even the magnesia light. We suggest that they repeat it later with a slight revision.

GREAT CLEARANCE SALE
On all MILLINERY

Our Pretty Trimmed Hats at Slaughter Prices,
Children's Hats and Tams at almost ½ price.
Some below cost.
I am also making a reduction on the Best Corsets.
A fine assortment of laces, ribbons, collars, hair goods and

SHIRT WAISTS

Please call. I can save you MONEY. Yours to please,

MRS. JOHN JOSTEN

Ye scribe and daughter drove to that town last week where the thirsty people carry their drinks in suit cases. We did not stop in town, only on business, but passed through the town six times during the week, but must confess Burt is the cleanest and neatest little town we know. We further know that if the youngsters of that town would carouse like they do in some other towns we happen to know, their cooler would be too small.

Life 100,000 Years Ago

Scientists have found in a cave in Switzerland bones of men, who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was in constant danger from wild beasts. Today the danger, as shown by A. W. Brown, of Alexander, Me., is largely from deadly disease. "If it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me, I could not have lived," he writes, "suffering as I did from a severe lung trouble and stubborn cough." To cure sore lungs, colds, obstinate coughs, and prevent pneumonia, it's the best medicine on earth. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co. Trial bottle free.

H. C. Lau and W. R. Bloom each shipped a car of hogs last Sunday morning.

Tortured on a Horse

"For ten years I couldn't ride a horse without being in torture from piles," writes L. S. Napier, of Rugless, Ky., "when all doctors and other remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me." Infallible for piles, burns, scalds, cuts, boils, fever-sores, eczema, salt rheum, corns 25c. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

F. C. GRIEWE
City Meat Market

Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Headquarters for part of Heinz' Fifty-Seven Varieties, and Pickling Vinegar.
Try these goods; they are fine.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist

Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
☞ Call in

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock

Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures

See me when you want a
Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Phone No. 11. Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to calls, day or night.
Eyes tested. Glasses fitted.

RESTAURANT
Fresh New Candies. Nicest Line in Town
Van Camp's Pork and Beans. Try them for lunch. Try our Golden Orangeade, Pop and Cider. Home-made Ice cream, Cones and Sodas.
—Home-made Bakery Goods,—
Lunches and Meals at all hours.
A. Kirkwood & Son

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
☞ Eyes Tested Free.

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

Vacation Time in Colorado

A vacation at any time is good, but a vacation in Colorado in summer is ideal.

The ozonated mountain air, the outdoor life, the wonderful scenery, the cool nights and the restfulness that prevails, combine to make a Colorado vacation one never to be forgotten.

Colorado is easily and comfortably reached in the de luxe trains of the

Rock Island-Frisco Lines

Every comfort and convenience of modern railway travel provided by these trains.

Go to Colorado!

Full information on request.

L. O. TURGASEN, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher

KLEMME - - - IOWA

IMPORTANT NEWS NOTES OF A WEEK

LATEST HAPPENINGS THE WORLD OVER TOLD IN ITEMIZED FORM.

EVENTS HERE AND THERE

Condensed Into a Few Lines for the Perusal of the Busy Man—Latest Personal Information.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Roosevelt still worries the senate, the library committee of that organization being unable to agree which of two busts, one in repose or the other in strenuous attitude, to accept.

Senator Borah of Idaho, speaking in favor of an income tax, said the trusts favor the corporation tax because they can make the people foot the bill.

Members of the senate are receiving scores of telegrams from business men protesting against the passage of the corporation tax amendment.

Senator Root will lead the fight for the corporation tax amendment and Senators Cummins and Bailey will head the opposition.

PERSONAL.

Miss Marion Lawson, daughter of Thomas W. Lawson, and James Fuller Lord of Chicago were married under the largest American flag ever made and in the center of 11 acres of roses at Scituate, Mass.

Miss Marry Harriman, daughter of the railroad magnate, is a director of the National Association for the Promotion of Kindergarten Education, organized in New York.

Judge Ray S. Reid of La Crosse, waterways commissioner for Wisconsin, has been commissioned by Senator Burton to go to Europe to lay out the route for the congressional party which will study European waterways.

President Taft attended the commencement exercises at Yale college and participated in the closing festivities of his alma mater.

Prince von Buelow, chancellor of Germany, announced that he will resign when the finance reform measure has been passed by the reichstag.

James Hamilton Lewis of Chicago reached New York after a tour of the world. As a result of his study of oriental conditions for this government, Mr. Lewis declares an American-Chinese commercial alliance is necessary.

Sherburne M. Becker, known as the "boy mayor of Milwaukee," arrived in San Francisco on his return from a visit to the canal zone, where he went on the invitation of President Taft.

GENERAL NEWS.

Several thousand Danish-American citizens celebrated the Fourth of July at the ancient city of Aarhus, Denmark, where a national exposition was in progress.

The celebration of the tercentenary of the discovery of Lake Champlain opened at Crown Point, N. Y., with literary exercises, water pageants and a presentation of the Indian drama "Hiawatha."

The forty-seventh annual convention of the National Education association began in Denver, Col., with a large attendance.

The Descendants of the Signers held their yearly meeting in the old state house in Philadelphia where their ancestors signed the Declaration of Independence.

Camp Taft at Toledo, O., was formally opened and the great military tournament began with 3,000 officers and men representing every branch of the regular army service.

After one day of failure and another of only partial success, Orville Wright finally got his new aeroplane to working satisfactorily and circled the Fort Myer grounds many times, attaining a speed of 38 miles an hour.

Washington B. Thomas president, and Arthur Donner, Charles H. Senff, John E. Parsons, John Mayer and George H. Frazier directors of the American Sugar Refining Company were indicted on charges of conspiracy in restraint of trade.

Earthquake shocks as severe as those which caused 200,000 deaths in southern Italy and Sicily in December were felt in Messina and Reggio and further loss of life was reported.

The Harvard varsity crew proved its superiority over that of Yale in a boat race on the Thames, winning by six lengths.

Fear of Fourth of July is believed to have caused the death of Gustave Thiese at Akron, O.

An Indian student shot and killed Lieut. Col. Sir William Hutt Curzon Wyllie and Dr. Calas Lalcaca of Shanghai in an assassination of political character in London.

The marines who were ordered off of United States warships by President Roosevelt are again on the vessels.

Mayor McClellan of New York has caused one of the greatest political stirs that turbulent city has known in years by ousting Theodore Bingham, commissioner of police, and several other heads of the department from office.

The attendance for the first month of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition was 667,971. President J. E. Chilberg said the net profits for the month were $86,000.

Capt. John C. Raymond of the Second cavalry at Fort Des Moines, Ia., who was shot by Corporal Lisle Crabtree three weeks ago, died of his wound.

The Alabama supreme court decided that liquor when kept in lockers by individuals and is not for sale is personal property and that any municipal ordinance prohibiting such possession is void.

Gov. Johnson of Minnesota, speaking at Jackson, Mich., said he hoped to see the time when woman would join her husband in political affairs, because "politics would be better with her refining influences."

The Republican party must keep its pledges to the people or be relegated to the minority, said President Taft in an address to Yale graduates.

Fully 15,000 employes of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company went on a strike against the "open-shop" order in the trust's mills.

Prof. James H. Hyslop told a remarkable story of how the ghost of R. Swain Gifford, a great artist, has taught Frederick L. Thompson, a goldsmith, to paint masterpieces.

Tennessee's "dry" law went into effect at midnight June 30 and all but two saloons were closed.

Calvin Littlepage, who killed his wife's parents at Valley Junction, Ia., committed suicide when near capture by a posse.

Russia is preparing to send troops to Teheran, capital of Persia, which is threatened with invasion by bandits.

Three boys were hurt, several firemen overcome by smoke and heat and $250,000 damaged caused at a fire in the Kiechhefer Box Company's plant in Milwaukee.

The 116 suffragettes who were arrested for rioting in London were released from jail without bond and must appear in court on July 9.

A verdict for $3,145 was awarded at Laporte, Ind., against the estate of Mrs. Belle Gunness in favor of the administrator for the estate of Andrew Helgelein, one of her several alleged victims.

Five persons died and more than a score were prostrated by the heat in Minneapolis and St. Paul.

An operation for appendicitis was performed on Mayor Fred A. Busse of Chicago and for more than 24 hours his condition was critical.

Joseph Jurette, a farmer near Alton, Ill., has trained ducks to eat bugs off potatoes and plans to hire them out at one dollar a day for each duck to clean potato fields of the pest.

Bruno Buizingslowen, a New York engineer, has invented an airship which will either fly or run on the ground.

It has been discovered that Arkansas has a new law prohibiting the sale of cannon crackers or toy pistols and dealers are disposing of Fourth of July stocks.

While driving his harvester through his fields near Ural, Okla., John Nichols ran over and killed his little daughter, who was asleep.

Orville Wright, after three unsuccessful attempts, ascended in the new aeroplane and circled the aerodrome at Fort Myer.

Broughton Brandenburg was acquitted in New York on the charge of larceny in connection with the Grover Cleveland letter and rearrested, accused of kidnaping his step-son in St. Louis.

Federal officials declared the headquarters of the old Honduras lottery has been established at Albany, Ind., and caused the arrest of four men in that city.

Bloodhounds trailed two of the bandits who held up a Canadian Pacific train at Red Gulch, to an abandoned coal mine.

The old-time gold-brick game was worked successfully on Joseph Satlow, a New York jeweler. He gave up $5,100 for 34 pounds of brass fillings sold him by a peddler.

Alderman Donohue, sitting as a trial judge at Wilkesbarre, Pa., told Mrs Michael Promick to give her husband who had mistreated her, a thrashing and she promised to do it.

Samuel S. Howland, brother-in-law of August Belmont, secretly married Leslie .Mosby Wallace in San Francisco and then, with his bride booked as his sister, sailed for Hongkong.

Leon Naimais, a bell boy in a New Orleans hotel, has been left $4,500 in the will of Starr H. Nichols, a New Yorker, who a short time before his death visited the hotel and took a fancy to the lad.

GIRL SAVES MOTHER

Jumped Between Her and Murderous Stepfather

HAD BULLET IN HER FACE

Surgeons Extracted Bullet and Cannot Explain How it Lodged Against Cheek Bone Without Doing More Damage.

Clinton, Ia., July 5.—Because she jumped between her mother and her stepfather when the latter pointed a loaded revolver at the woman, Pearl McKee, aged 16 years, was taken to a Clinton hospital with a bullet in her face. The wound is not dangerous. Surgeons extracted the bullet, which is of 32-calibre, and were mystified to explain how it lodged against the cheek bone without doing more damage than it did.

The girl's step-father, Wray Gleason, resides near Thomsen, in Carroll county, Ill. The shooting occurred following a quarrel between the man and his wife. The girl entering the room as Gleason was in the act of pointing the revolver at her mother, jumped between them and received the bullet. Gleason was arrested and is held under $5,000 bonds.

Railroad Pleas Fall on Deaf Ears.

Des Moines.—Despite the arguments of railroad officials against the existing freight rates on certain commodities in a rehearing before the railroad commission that body flatly refused to consider the advance of rates on the commodities in question with but a single exception. This was on sulphur and sulphur candles and only in the instance of the shipment of these products "in pails with tight wooden covers." The other rates under discussion became effective on May 1 and included grave vaults, iron and steel, sulphate of magnesia in barrels, bed springs, mattresses and cots, lumber (hard and soft), lath and shingles, sash doors and blinds.

"Schlatter" Pays Claim.

Clinton.—"Schlatter," the faith healer, reached Clinton in custody of Deputy Sheriff Dougherty. Following a conference in the office of Justice of the Peace Russell, the announcement was made that a settlement had been reached, "Schlatter" paying all costs and satisfying the claim of Irl Lambertson, the complainant, who alleged the divine healer had obtained his money under false pretenses.

Rain Discourages Farmers.

Estherville.—If the incessant rain does not cease very soon Emmet county will have another year of poor crops. By actual count rain fell twenty days during the month of June and the farmers are beginning to look and talk a little discouraged. Corn is doing fine under the prevailing conditions, but it isn't getting the cultivation it requires on account of rain. Small grain is doing very nicely.

Good Price for Wright County Land.

Eagle Grove.—John Conkling, a prominent farmer living a few miles out from this city, recently sold his farm for the price of $125 per acre. His farm consists of 200 acres on which is a newly built and modern eight room house, some fine barns and pig sheds. Mr. Conkling is to have this year's crops and will give possession on March 1, 1910.

Hardin Crops Not Damaged

Eldora.—Farmers here declare that the excessive rainfall is not having as serious effect upon the crops as is generally supposed. The acreage in corn will be less than usual and the oats acreage will also be diminished, but farmers say they will have an excellent stand which will make up for the decreased acreage.

Fleet Is a Grand Sight.

Burlington, Ia., July 2.—The big fleet of motor boats and launches from St. Louis, accompanied by fleets from Peoria, Grafton, Quincy, Keokuk and Fort Madison have arrived here in anticipation of the big two days' regatta of the Upper Mississippi River Power Boat association Monday and Tuesday next.

Bank Cashier Indicted.

Fort Worth, Tex., July 2.—Walter King, cashier of the branch bank of the Waggoner Bank & Trust company, which was robbed of $8,100 by a lone robber several weeks ago, according to the statement of King, was indicted for embezzlement. King's present whereabouts are not known.

Veterans Meet at Gilman.

Gilman.—The nineteenth annual reunion of the Marshall County Veterans' association, proved one of the biggest gatherings in the history of the association.

MAD, KILLS WIFE'S PARENTS

Calvin Littlepage Believed to Have Been Insane, Shoots Down Mr. and Mrs. E. Jamison.

Des Moines.—Despairing of escape from the posse of officers and citizens who were pursuing him, Calvin Littlepage, the farm hand who shot and killed his divorced wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jameson, eight miles west of Valley Junction, ended his own life when he fired a bullet from his 32-caliber Colt's automatic revolver into his brain.

His body was found lying in the middle of a country road three miles west of Valley Junction by John Ritchie, a farmer who lives in that vicinity. It is believed the man was insane.

The one bullet was sufficient to accomplish his self-destruction. It entered his right temple and after ploughing its way through skull and brain, made its exit through the bony wall of the temple almost exactly opposite.

He fired five shots at his former wife. His aim was wild and none of the bullets took effect. Following the shooting Littlepage forced his wife to take their child and get into a buggy with him. After driving with them a distance of nearly fifteen miles, making constant threats against the lives of the woman and the child, he left the buggy and attempted to make his escape cross-country. Finding escape impossible, he shot himself.

Littlepage shot and killed his former wife's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jameson, at the Jameson home following the refusal of Mr. Jameson to allow him to see Mrs. Littlepage and their child. He is said to have made repeated threats against their lives since Mrs. Littlepage obtained a divorce in the Polk county district court two months ago.

An Unusual Butter-Making Record.

Des Moines.—J. G. Gudknecht of Lowts Creek, Ia., won first in the dairy commissioners' educational butter-making contest for June, with the record-breaking mark of 98 per cent. This is almost as high a mark as has ever been reached in this state and is the highest percentage recorded in these contests. This record was made in the whole milk class.

The other winners were P. N. Peterson of Rake, Ia., second; and W. D. Wenthe of Sumner, Ia., and Frank Brummer of Charles City tied for third.

In the gathered cream class, F. J. Schoeder of Wadena won first, Robert Bliss of Garner, Ia., second, and in a three-cornered tie for third there were the following: J. T. Hanna of Lone Rock, M. J. Bobo of Algona, and N. O. Dahlen of Northwood. The winner had 94 per cent butter and the tie for third place was at 93 per cent.

This is the third number of the educational scoring contests conducted by the state food and dairy commission. The next one will be known as the "State Fair contest."

Bolt Hits Bluffs Husband and Wife.

Council Bluffs.—Mr. and Mrs. F. Spitzka were knocked unconscious when lightning struck their home. Mrs. Spitzka suffered the worst shock. The bolt struck the chair she was sitting in, ran down her leg, tore off the shoe and scorched her right foot. Both were sitting in the kitchen at the time and the force of the shock knocked them to the floor. Mr. Spitzka recovered consciousness first and hurried to his wife's aid. She soon recovered, but became hysterical and a doctor was summoned. Upon examination he found that the woman was not badly injured and he expects no serious results. Aside from being severely shocked Mr. Spitzka was not hurt. A peculiar thing is that the bolt seems to have divided upon reaching Mrs. Spitzka's foot, for her shoe was tore down each side. The lining was ripped out of it and the shoe itself hurled from her foot.

To Survey Drainage Projects.

Logan.—The board of supervisors of Harrison county has appointed Engineer J. S. Wattles of Missouri Valley to make additional surveys of the Soldier river drainage project. The board has appointed Mr. Seabury and Mr. Wilson of Logan as appraisers on the Boyer river drainage project of Jefferson, Calhoun and St. John as petitioned by Mr. Latta and others.

Margaret Earle Resigns.

Iowa City.—Miss Margaret M. Earle superintendent of the university homeopathic hospital for the past year, has tendered her resignation, to take effect August 1. No successor has been appointed.

Race Horse Breaks a Leg.

Mason City.—While working out Bonnie Grace for the afternoon 2:27 trot, the promising mare broke her leg and was killed. She was owned by Charlie Hardie.

HER FRIENDS WONDER

How Mrs. Kessler Was Rescued from Almost Certain Death.

Few have lived through such trials and suffering from kidney disease as were endured by Mrs. Caroline Kessler of W. Main St., Paw Paw, Mich. Well and strong again, her case is thought a miracle by her friends. What Mrs. Kessler went through makes a long story—backache, rheumatism, dizzy and fainting spells, urinary disorders, dreadful bloating of dropsy and finally a complete prostration that defied medical skill and caused her to be given up. Through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills Mrs. Kessler is a well woman and is willing to tell about her case to anyone who cares to inquire.

Sold by all dealers. 50 cts. a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

THE PRIVILEGED CLASS.

"But, Minna, you shouldn't flirt with all the men as your are doing! Remember—you're not married!"

Here's a Good One.

A friend of mine told me of a curious experience. He was carefully stalking a big bull elephant in a large herd, when they got his wind, and a big cow elephant charged him. He jumped behind a large tree as the elephant reached him, and, being unable to stop herself in time, the elephant drove her tusks with such force into the tree that they snapped off close to her head. The elephant was stunned for a moment, but luckily turned and galloped after the fast retreating herd, leaving him the possessor of some 80 pounds of ivory, valued at about $250.—Circle Magazine.

An Irish Bull.

After Boyle Roche's famous bird comes the County Cork veterinary surgeon. At the last meeting of the Dunmanway rural council a member of that body complained of the inattention of the official veterinary surgeon. "There was," the rural councillor explained, "a case of swine fever in this place recently, and, though 'the doctor' got the order to go there, he never turned up until the following Tuesday, and even then it was another man who came to represent him."

A Simple Problem.

Teacher—Don't know the sixth commandment? Now listen: If a man came up to me with a revolver and shot and killed me, what would it be?

Johnnie (brightly) — A holiday ma'am."

AN OLD TIMER Has Had Experiences.

A woman who has used Postum since it came upon the market knows from experience the wisdom of using Postum in place of coffee if one values health and a clear brain. She says:

"At the time Postum was first put on the market I was suffering from nervous dyspepsia, and my physician had repeatedly told me not to use tea or coffee. Finally I decided to take his advice and try Postum. I got a package and had it carefully prepared, finding it delicious to the taste. So I continued its use and very soon its beneficial effects convinced me of its value, for I got well of my nervousness and dyspepsia.

"My husband had been drinking coffee all his life until it had affected his nerves terribly, and I persuaded him to shift to Postum. It was easy to get him to make the change for the Postum is so delicious. It certainly worked wonders for him.

"We soon learned that Postum does not exhilarate nor depress and does not stimulate, but steadily and honestly strengthens the nerves and the stomach.

"To make a long story short, our entire family continued to use Postum with satisfying results, as shown in our fine condition of health and we have noticed a rather unexpected improvement in brain and nerve power.

Increased brain and nerve power always follow the use of Postum in place of coffee, sometimes in a very marked manner. "There's a Reason."

Look in pkgs. for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

HER INFINITE VARIETY

by BRAND WHITLOCK

ILLUSTRATIONS BY RAY WALTERS

COPYRIGHT 1907 BY BOBBS-MERRILL CO.

SYNOPSIS.

Senator Morley Vernon's visit with his fiancee was interrupted by a call from his political boss at the state capital. Both regretted it, the girl more than he, because she had arranged to attend a dinner that evening with him. She said she yearned for a national office for him. On Vernon's desk in the senate he found a red rose, accompanied by a plea for suffrage for women. He met the authoress, pretty Miss Maria Greene of Chicago, who proposed to convert him into voting for house resolution No. 19. Miss Greene secured Vernon's promise to vote for the suffrage resolution. He also aided her by convincing others. He took a liking to the fair suffragette. Miss Greene consulted with the lieutenant-governor. Vernon admitted to himself that the suffragette had stirred a strange feeling within him. He forgot to read his fiancee's letter. Vernon made a great speech in favor of suffrage, aided by glances from Miss Greene. The resolution was made a special order. Vernon was enthusiastic on the prospects for the resolution. He was much in Miss Greene's company. Vernon neglected thoughts of Amelia. He took Miss Greene driving and laid out plans for the success of the resolution. Vernon's speech caused a great newspaper sensation. He was being neglected by Amelia, who had not answered his letter. Vernon is "tipped off" that his suffrage resolution may not pass. As Miss Greene was due the following morning he had no fears. Miss Greene arrived and breakfasted with Vernon. Across the dining room entrenched behind women opponents of the suffrage resolution, he spied Amelia. He started toward her. She treated him coldly and the women opponents of suffrage reproved him for his part. Mrs. Hodge-Lathrop told Senator Vernon that his conduct with Miss Greene had been hard upon Amelia. He was told to comfort her. Vernon had a tearful interview with Amelia, and he tried to undo the ills which his suffrage move had caused. He partially "made up" with Amelia, who had turned lobbyist against the resolution.

CHAPTER XIII.—Continued.

"Sweetheart," he said, "I must go now. I should have been in the senate at ten o'clock; I hate to leave you, but I'll explain everything when I get back."

He waited an instant, then he went on:

"Aren't you going to say: 'Good-by?'"

Amelia got up.

"I'll go, too," she said. She was still catching little sobs in her throat, now and then. Vernon looked at her in some surprise.

"Why—" he began, incredulously.

She must have divined his surprise.

"I have to help Mrs. Hodge-Lathrop," she said, as if in explanation. "But, of course, I hate to bother you."

"Oh, nonsense, dearest," he said, impatiently. "Come on. Let's start."

"But I can't go looking this way," she said. She walked across the room, and standing before a mirror, wiped her eyes carefully, then arranged her hat and her veil.

"Would anybody know?" she asked, facing about for his inspection.

"Never—come on."

They went out, and down the elevator. When they reached the entrance, Vernon looked up and down the street, but there was no carriage in sight. The street was quiet and the hotel wore an air of desertion, telling that all the political activity of Illinois had been transferred to the state house. Vernon looked around the corner, but the old hack that always stood there was not at its post.

"We'll have to walk," he said. "It'll take too long for them to get a carriage around for us. It's only a few blocks, anyway. The air will do you good."

As they set forth in the bright morning sun they were calmer, and, having come out into public view, for the time being they dropped their differences and their misunderstandings, and began to talk in their common, ordinary fashion.

"Did Mrs. Hodge-Lathrop ask you to change me on the Ames amendment?" Vernon asked her.

"The what?"

"The Ames amendment; that's the woman-suffrage measure."

"No, do her justice; she didn't."

"What then?"

"She said she wanted me to work against it, that's all."

"Didn't she say anything about asking me not to vote for it?"

"Well, yes; but I told her—"

"What?"

"That I wouldn't try to influence you in the least."

Vernon made no reply.

"No," she went on, "I'm to work against it, of course."

They were silent then, till suddenly she appealed to him:

"Oh, Morley, I've got to ask strange men, men I never met, to vote against it! How am I ever!"

She shuddered.

"It's all very strange," Vernon said.

CHAPTER XIV.

They walked briskly down the sloping street under the railroad bridge and then up the little hill whereon sits the capitol of Illinois. They could see the big flag high upon the dome standing out in the prairie wind, and the little flags on the house wing and the senate wing whipping joyously, sprightly symbols of the sitting of both houses.

Now and then they heard cheers from the house wing, where the legislative riot that ends a session was already beginning. They passed into the dark and cool corridors of the state house, then up to the third floor, where members and messenger boys, correspondents and page boys, rushed always across from one house to the other, swinging hurriedly around the brass railing of the rotunda. It seemed that the tide of legislative life was just then setting in toward the senate.

"Never—Come On."

"Oh, Morley," whispered Amelia, forgetting his offense, and clinging close to him, "I can't go in there, really I can't."

"Nonsense," said Vernon, "come on. I'll deliver you to Mrs. Hodge-Lathrop in a minute; then you'll be perfectly safe. Besides, you have your lobbying to do."

They reached the senate entrance, and the doorkeeper, seeing a senator, opened a way through the crowd for their passage. There was confusion everywhere, the nervous and excited hum of voices from the floor, from the vestibule, from the galleries, from all around. And just as they stepped up to the raised floor whereon the desks of senators are placed, the gavel fell, and stillness with it. They saw the lieutenant governor leaning over his desk, studying a slip of paper he held in his hand.

"On this question," he said, "the yeas are 30 and the nays are 17; and two-thirds of the members-elect having failed to vote in the affirmative, the resolution is lost."

Vernon stood transfixed. The whole thing was borne in upon him; he saw Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop, and the expression of calm and lofty satisfaction that had settled on her face told him that it was the Ames amendment that had been lost. But some new thought seemed to strike her, for when Senator Porter looked around with something like a smile of congratulation, she beckoned him, and he hastened to her side.

"Move to reconsider and to lay on the table," she said, and with a look of admiration he turned and made the motion. It was put, it was carried of course, and the amendment was lost irrevocably.

"Well, that's attended to," said Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop. "Ah, Morley," she said calmly, "you here? And Amelia?"

"She's here," he said, "and I—I did not get here on time!" The shame and mortification on his face were pitiable, though they could not have touched Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop's heart.

"And I didn't get here on time," he repeated, ruefully.

"Why, my dear boy," said Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop, "I didn't intend that you should."

He looked at her fiercely, angrily, a second.

"So that was the game, was it?" he said. He whirled, with another fierce look, on Amelia.

"That was the game, yes, Morley," said Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop, "but you needn't look at Amelia so—she was utterly innocent, the dear little thing."

Amelia came up. She had seen Vernon's expression.

"What is it—what has happened?" she inquired.

"Well, I got here too late, that's all," said Vernon. "I was detained, and Mrs. Hodge-Lathrop has just now kindly told me that she had arranged that I should be. I'm ruined, that's all; I'm lost."

"No, Morley," said Mrs. Hodge-Lathrop, "you're saved. You're saved from yourself." She still smiled at him sweetly. "You might have made, don't you know, another one of your speeches."

Vernon bit his lip and walked away. He encountered Martin, but could only look at him helplessly. Martin returned his look with one of surprise.

"You here?" he said.

"Well, yes," replied Vernon. "At last—too late, it seems."

The surprise had not left Martin's face; to it was now added a perplexity.

"If we'd known," said Martin; "but we thought, that is, we heard, that you had ducked."

Vernon shook his head as with a pain that would not let him speak. He was looking disconsolately across the chamber to where Miss Greene stood talking with Bull Burns. As in a dream, he heard Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop exclaim:

"Ah, there is that Greene woman!"

Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop was lifting her gold glasses again. Vernon was wondering how he was to face the Greene woman. But at Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop's words an idea came to him.

"I'll go bring her and introduce her," he said. He bolted away and went toward her. She was cold and distant. Fortunately, Burns fled at his approach.

"Can you forgive me?" he said. "I'll explain it all in an instant."

"And how?" she asked with a chill rise in her tone.

"Have you ever met Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop?" he asked significantly.

"No," she answered.

"Then permit me," he said. She went with him. Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop had withdrawn her delegation to the rear of the chamber, and there awaited Vernon's return.

"Mrs. Overman Hodge Lathrop, permit me to present Miss Greene; Miss Ansley, Miss Greene." And so on, in the order of relative rank, he introduced her to the other ladies.

Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop extended her hand officially. Miss Greene took it with a smile.

"I am very glad," she said, "to meet Mrs.—Mrs.—ah, pardon me, but what was the name?"

"Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop," Vernon said.

"Ah, Mrs. Lathrop."

Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop seemed, to the eye, to swell.

"You have a charming little city here, Mrs. Lathrop. We poor Chicagoans love to get down into the country once in a while, you know."

Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop reared back a little.

"No doubt," she stammered. "I have always found it so."

Miss Greene feigned surprise, and affected a look of perplexity. Vernon withdrew a step, and with his chin in his hand looked on out of eyes that gloated. The other women in the party exchanged glances of horror and wrath. Mrs. Barbourton, for her part, seemed unable to endure it.

"Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop lives in Chicago," she interjected.

"Oh!" cried Miss Greene. "Is it possible? How very strange that one could live in the city all one's life and not have heard!"

"Not so very strange, I fancy," said Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop. "One's circle is apt to be so far removed."

"Yes?" said Miss Greene, with that rising inflection. "Then you can not have lived in Chicago long?"

"All my life," snapped Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop.

"So long as that!" said Miss Greene, with eyes that stared incredibility. Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop actually colored.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

WILLIAM WANTED NO LAWYER.

Reason Assigned Was Something of a Slur on the Profession.

When Justice Buffum opened court in a small town in southern Georgia one morning last week, he called loudly: "Jones against Johnson!"

A dignified gentleman came to the bar, and said: "I am Dr. Jones, your honor, the complaining witness. My chickens were stolen and found in the possession of—"

"One moment, doctor," the judge interrupted. "We must have the defendant at the bar. Jones against Johnson! Jones against Johnson! Is the defendant present? Is William Johnson in court?"

A tall and shambling negro shuffled to the bar, ducked his head, pulled his woolly forelock in token of respect, and grinned a propitiatory grin.

"Ah's Willyum Johns'n, please sur, jedge," he said. "Ah doan' know nuffin 'bout no 'fendant, suh. Ah'm jes' de man wot took de chick'ns."

"Don't talk like that," the court warned William. "You ought to have a lawyer to speak for you. Where's your lawyer?"

"Ah ain't got no lawyer, jedge—"

"Very well, then," said his honor, "I'll assign a lawyer to defend you."

"Oh, no, suh; no, suh! Ple-e-ease don' do dat!" William begged.

"Why not?" asked the judge. "It won't cost you anything. Why don't you want a lawyer?"

"Well, ah'll tell yo', sah," said William, waving his tattered old hat confidentially. "Hit's jes' dis-a-way—ah wan' tuh enjoy dem chick'ns mase-f."—Harper's Weekly.

A Tragedy.

"How did your furnace come to be choked?"

"I suppose father did it in a moment of desperation. He has been threatening that furnace all winter."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Libby's Food Products

Libby's Vienna Sausage

Is distinctly different from any other sausage you ever tasted. Just try one can and it is sure to become a meal-time necessity, to be served at frequent intervals.

Libby's Vienna Sausage just suits for breakfast, is fine for luncheon and satisfies at dinner or supper. Like all of Libby's Food Products it is carefully cooked and prepared, ready to-serve, in Libby's Great White Kitchen- the cleanest, most scientific kitchen in the world.

Other popular, ready-to-serve Libby Pure Foods are:—

Cooked Corned Beef
Peerless Dried Beef
Veal Loaf
Evaporated Milk
Baked Beans
Chow Chow
Mixed Pickles

Write for free booklet,—"How to make Good Things to Eat". Insist on Libby's at your grocers.

Libby, McNeill & Libby
Chicago

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE FLAVOR LASTS

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Books free. Highest references. Best results.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT PEPSIN GUM 5 cts

DEFIANCE STARCH easiest to work with and starches clothes nicest.

Des Moines Directory

The State Insurance Company

of Des Moines, Iowa, has paid over FOUR MILLION DOLLARS for

Fire, Lightning and Tornado Losses

The season is on—get a Policy now. Prompt and fair treatment is our motto.

EAT PURITY CHOCOLATES

M'f'd by Windsor-Purity Candy Co., Des Moines. For sale by all first-class dealers.

Talking Machine Free

trial to responsible people. Special outfit complete: Our Victor, Evans Special Model C, with 19-inch black horn; 1 extra 21-inch flowered horn; 1 self-cleaning record brush; 1 oil can; 1 bottle oil; 1 modulator; 1000 needles; 1 tube graphite; 1 record case (holds 50 records); 6 ten-inch records; 1 needle holder.

Our price $37.50—Worth $52.00. Sold for cash or monthly payments. Send for special outfit bargain list.

F. O. EVANS PIANO CO., Des Moines, Iowa

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

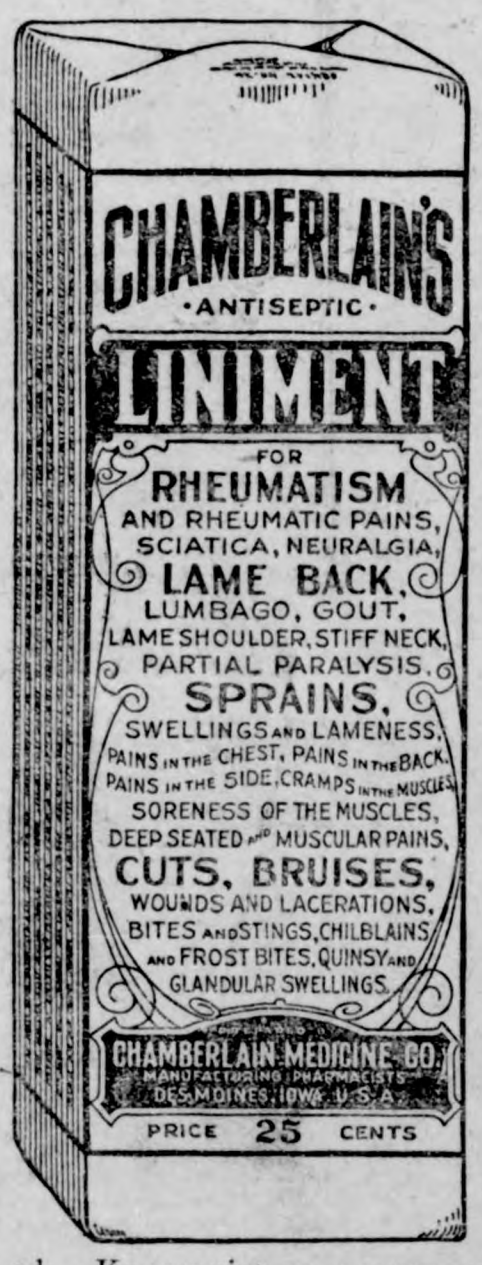
ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

Rheumatism



Nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness.

Lame Shoulder.

This is a common form of muscular rheumatism. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely four times a day and a quick cure is certain.

Lumbago.

When muscular rheumatism attacks the muscles in the small of the back it is called lumbago. It is usually quite severe and every movement adds to the pain, and especially when one attempts to straighten up. No internal treatment is required. Keep quiet, as every movement aggravates the disease, and apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and you will soon be well again.

Sprains and Bruises are cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment.

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

MESERVEY

From the Messenger:

John Peters lost a horse last Monday afternoon from heat.

Chas. Bielefeld had a horse die from the effects of heat Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith, east of town, mourn the death of their baby, since last Friday.

The young people enjoyed a dance at the E. F. Courtney home on Friday night of last week.

A Minneapolis traction engine arrived on this morning's freight consigned to A. C. Brogan.

"Dick" Kenefick has the Jas. F. Courtney house enclosed and about ready for the plasterers. This will make a very pretty house when completed and one of the best in town.

The addition to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fischer is progressing under the direction of C. H. Halfpop.

C. J. Quandt, northwest of town, lost a cow last Saturday by lightning.

Word was received by the relatives here Monday morning of the death of Mrs. Wm. Wilson at their home near Steele, N. D. Her sister, Mrs. A. R Ulrick of Thornton departed on the night train for Steele to be in attendance at the funeral.

F. L. Lemke brought into our office the first of last week some alfalfa from a field which he was just making into hay. The stalks brought were 30 inches long and a field would represent lots of feed. He is well satisfied with the way this field has been producing and expects to seed more of his land to this crop.

Oliver McGee had his force of men hauling out large tile several days last week.

A Big Fish

Ben Lau claims the distinction of catching one of the largest fish ever pulled from the Iowa river. Weight, 5 lbs. 1 oz. Length 20 inches.

A Veteran Correspondent

Few among the thousands who enjoy the youthful vim and enthusiasm of Walter Wellman's special dispatches in The Chicago Record Herald are aware that with the present year Mr. Wellman will round out a quarter of a century as a Washington correspondent. The Record Herald always has been noted for the brilliance of its special correspondents, but Mr. Wellman's career reaches far back of the consolidation which gave the paper its present name.

Walter Wellman was born in Mentor, Ohio, in 1858. At the age of 14 he began his newspaper experience by founding a weekly paper in Sutton Neb. In the next dozen years he was laying the foundations for the success of later years. In 1884, when he was still a young man of 26, he was intrusted with the responsible post of Washington correspondent of the Chicago Herald, a position which, through all his polar quests and various changes in the paper itself, he has held with undiminished honor to the present day. In that quarter of a century he has won a national reputation as a magnetic and forceful writer, a shrewd political prophet, a genius at news-getting and a daring explorer.

In 1892 Mr. Wellman visited the West Indies for his paper and located the spot where Columbus landed, marking it with a stone monument. In 1894 he made his first dash for the pole, reaching the latitude of 81 degrees northeast of Spitzbergen. In 1898 he tried it again, penetrating as far as Franz Josef Land and mapping many island that had never before been explored. Two years ago he made a daring attempt to cross the arctic ice fields in an airship. Mr. Wellman has not yet reached the pole and perhaps he never will, but he has given abundant proof of his courage and perserverence. His chief laurels however, have been won by his years of splendid work as a Washington correspondent.

Sees Mother Grow Young

"It would be hard to overstate the wonderful change in my mother since she began to use Electric Bitters," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick of Danforth, Me. "Although past 70 she seems really to be growing young again. She suffered untold misery from dyspepsia for 20 years. At last she could neither eat, drink nor sleep. Doctors gave her up and all remedies failed till Electric Bitters worked such wonders for her health." They invigorate all vital organs, cure liver and Kidney troubles, induce sleep, impart strength and appetite. Only 50c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

Attention

PEOPLE!

Don't forget that the Gruetzmacher Bros. handle all kinds of stoves such as heaters, cook stoves and steel ranges.

Also a full line of hardware, groceries, flour and feed.

A complete line of implements also paints, oils and varnishes.

Rock and barrel salt. Barb wire and field fence.

Yours to please at the old stand,

Gruetzmacher Bros.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLO

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICI... LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE ST... Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES... days treatment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refu... All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines... detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by m... press. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage... low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for fr... sultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Ca... to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men. The results of youthful follies and excesses—Causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without harmful instruments. ... full explains.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the ... causing nervous debility ... of the nervous system, etc., permanently ...

BLOOD POISON —That terrible dis... its stages, cured for ... Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet and a... private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few d...

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon appli... description of above di... effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wra...

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOI...

RUPTURE, PILE

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolutely re... and permanent. Write to or call a... the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were afflicte... Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia. — Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia. — E. C. Miller, Des Moines, I...
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia. — John H. Looby, Des Moine...

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you ... postage paid. This book co... much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonials... Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the ... Write today—it will pay you.

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES, ...

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:40 p. m.
82 ..... 2:50 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:35 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

L. O. Turgasen, Agent

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

PATENTS

DESIGNS
TRADE-MARKS
AND COPYRIGHTS
OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"

Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,
E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

McCALL PATTERNS 10 AND 15 NONE HIGHER

McCALL PATTERNS
Celebrated for style, perfect fit, reliability nearly 40 years. ... every city and town in the Uni... Canada, or by mail direct. M... any other make. Send for f...

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
More subscribers than any ... magazine—million a month. In... est styles, patterns, dressmaki... plain sewing, fancy needlework, etiquette, good stories, etc. O... year (worth double), including ... Subscribe today, or send for ...

WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS to Agents. Postal brings prem... and new cash prize offers. Ad...

THE McCALL CO., 238 to 248 W. 37th S...

Electr... Bitte...

Succeed when everything ... In nervous prostration an... weaknesses they are the ... remedy, as thousands have ...

FOR KIDNEY, LIVE... STOMACH TROU...

it is the best medicine ... over a druggist's coun...

Just Dust it on

HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Ga... work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the ... Leaves No Scar...

At Druggists' or Fre... Money Back if Not Sa...

The RED STAR HEALIN... (25c. and 50c. Cans). G...

The Klemme Times.

VOLUME XIII. NUMBER 50 KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, JULY 15, 1909. $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

BE READY FOR LIFE'S VOYAGE

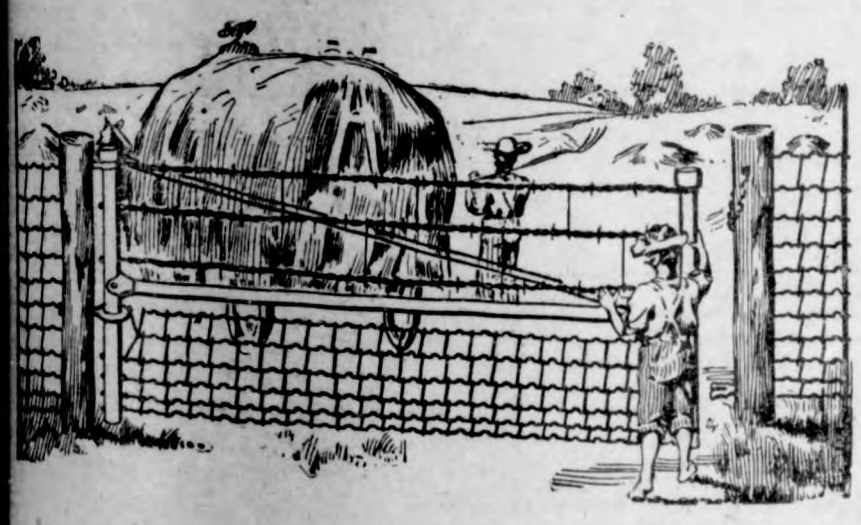
32

HAVE MONEY in THE BANK its safe then

SAVING MONEY Is the test of Reliability and Good Common Sense. Be wise today. Start with the sum you have in your pocket. Remember we are here for your convenience and want your business.

State Savings Bank.

Klemme - - Iowa



Iowa Gates are more than a convenience if women or children ever use them for being so simple they are very light and can easily be swung either way. The IOWA gate is made to last—no castings to break—no wearing parts—even the wires have galvanized stretchers to tighten them. Will not blow down, burn or rot out. Get prices.

J. H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, AGENT
KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J.W.WATERMAN

A NARROW ESCAPE

Meservey Resident Injured at Hampton Celebration.

Charles Nannenga, of Meservey had a very narrow escape from death while at Hampton Saturday. While watching a train he was struck in the head by a freight car and knocked across the track. While the rest of the crowd were horror struck, expecting the man to be instantly cut in two, John Anderson of this place, grabbed him by the leg and pulled him clear of the wheels. The man was taken to the hospital and the wound in his head, which was a bad one, was dressed. Mr. Anderson heard yesterday that he was getting along all right.—Belmond Herald.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the Best and Surest

"It affords me pleasure to state that I consider the preparation known as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the best and surest of good results of any I have ever used in my family," says P. E. Herrington, of Mount Aerial, Ky. This is the universal verdict of all who use this remedy. Its cures are so prompt and effectual that people take pleasure in recommending it. For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

BRITT

From the News:

Born on June 30, 1909, to Mr. and Mrs. John Dimond, of Erin township, a son.

Florence Knee, of Colesburg, this state, is visiting at the home of her cousin, Mrs. A. W. Lee.

The school board has re-elected Chas. Minor janitor and Geo. Hammill Sr., fireman for the Britt public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Inman and daughter Blanche left this week for Laurens, this state, where they will make their home hereafter.

Word has been received from Christy Johansen that he has been assigned territory in Kansas and is now on the road for the Atlantic Refining Co.

The columns of the News are open for any one to explain why the county is out of funds at this time. We confess that we are unable to give the explanation.

The board of supervisors appropriated $150 to examine the affairs of the Corwith bank. Just why the county should pay such bills is hard for the tax payers to understand.

There were but very few Garner people in Britt on the 4th, but we noticed that the business men of the town agreed to close their places on Monday and go to Clear Lake. This was all right and they had a perfect right to do just as they pleased about the matter, only it seemed kind of funny, that's all.

A twenty-two and one-half pound pickerel was brought up from Clear Lake Tuesday to be mounted by J. A. Treganza, Britt's taxidermist. It will be the property of the Club house at Dodge's Point, Clear Lake. The fish measured forty-four inches from head to tail, and was nine inches across its head.

A Night Rider's Raid

The worst night riders are calomel, croton oil or aloes pills. They raid your bed to rob you of rest. Not so with Dr. King's New Life Pills. They never distress or inconvenience, but always cleanse the system, curing colds, headache, constipation, malaria 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

Triumph of a New Idea

About the quantity of reading matter furnished in the average Sunday newspaper there is no reason to complain—unless it be on the score of toomuchness— but the quality often leaves much to be desired. The only shining and unqualified exception to this rule is found in the unique Sunday Magazine of the Chicago Record-Herald. There is nothing else like it in the whole range of American journalism. It is a real magazine that is regularly issued as a part of the Sunday paper. It is filled with first class fiction, able articles, choice pictures and a wide range of good miscellany, all by popular or really famous authors and artists. When writers such as Conan Doyle, Anthony Hope, Jack London, Sewell Ford and Cyrus Townsend Brady are counted among the contributors to a Sunday paper its triumph can no longer be doubted.

The Sunday Magazine of the Record-Herald is far and away the best literary treat offered to newspaper readers in the United States today. The largest monthlies and independent weeklies cannot surpass it in quality or sustained interest. You will always find one of the finest serials of the year in its pages, often captured from the big monthlies at record prices. Its short stories, including those of the delectable Shorty McCabe, can't be surpassed.

Sees Mother Grow Young

"It would be hard to overstate the wonderful change in my mother since she began to use Electric Bitters," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick of Danforth, Me. "Although past 70 she seems really to be growing young again. She suffered untold misery from dyspepsia for 20 years. At last she could neither eat, drink nor sleep. Doctors gave her up and all remedies failed till Electric Bitters worked such wonders for her health." They invigorate all vital organs, cure liver and Kidney troubles, induce sleep, impart strength and appetite. Only 50c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

GOODELL

From the Globe:

Ed Cashman is having his store building painted.

Ad Elder was a business visitor at Klemme Tuesday.

Mildred Zook, of Belmond was visiting at the Ad Elder home Tuesday.

Mrs. Deiger is entertaining friends from Chicago since last Thursday.

Caryl Church played with the Belmond band at the Clarion celebration last Saturday.

H. A. Sweigard, who is visiting at Garner, was calling on Goodell friends Tuesday.

Miss Cora Lawhorn, who has been visiting with friends here since Saturday, returned to Klemme Wednesday.

Eliza Cashman was called to Sheldon, Iowa, Thursday by the sickness of her niece, Miss Maude Cashman.

Earl Clark and W. H. Ahrenkiel were at Renwick Saturday, where they played with the Kanawha band.

Ad Elder and family left Thursday for Minnesota where they will spend a month visiting at the J. F. Elder home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cloon were called to Sabin, Minn., Thursday, by telegram announcing the sudden death of Mrs Cloon's mother.

OUR BUSINESS IS BANKING
BANKING IS OUR BUSINESS

The sign "Bank" does not make a bank and is often misleading. It requires time, energy, close attention to business, a substantial capital and ripe experience in banking to make a bank. We claim, without blushing, all essentials necessary to make our business that of banking, and tender our patrons a service thoroughly seasoned by years of experience, backed by substantial capital.

The First National Bank

CAPITAL $25,000

PETROLEUM COKE

A carload of COKE just received and another car to arrive soon. The supply is limited, so order at once as it has heretofore been impossible to get it later in the season. Also Best Grades in all Soft Coals at Prices that are RIGHT.

Highest Market Price Paid for Grain and Live Stock Six Days in the Week

H. C. LAU

BIG CIRCUS AT MASON CITY

Barnum and Bailey to Exhibit There on Monday, July 19

The Barnum & Bailey greatest show on earth is to visit Mason City on Monday, July 19. Never since the beginning of time has an amusement enterprise so tremendous in size been organized as this one. Its magnitude is almost beyond belief. All America, together with every foreign country, has been scoured from end to end by agents of this big show in search of novelties and the result is a performance brim full of sensational acts new to the circus world. In the big Barnum & Bailey show are nearly 400 arenic stars, most of whom are seen now for the first time. A new sensation will be seen at every performance in "JUPITER, the balloon horse." This remarkable animal with its fearless rider ascends to the dome of the circus tent in a balloon and descends to the ground in a shower of fireworks. Nearly 1000 animal wonders are to be found in the big 108 cage menagerie. 8 herds of elephants, including one herd that actually plays upon musical instruments in time and tune. A group of giant giraffes, monster trained hippopotamus, only living bi-horned rhinoceros and hundreds of other strange beasts. Barnum & Bailey's new, big, free street parade is the most gorgeous processional display ever attempted in the history of circus business. Its tremendous size and wonderful length can only be believed in the actual seeing. It is natural to expect this big circus to lead all others in quality and quantity of its street spectacle as well as in other departments of the big show, yet never in its splendid history of nearly half a century has it displayed such extravagance as is shown this year.

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher

KLEMME - - - IOWA

SUMMARY OF A WEEK'S EVENTS

Latest News of Interest Boiled Down for the Busy Man.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

One of the Republican senators who voted against the tariff bill said President Taft asked him to do it so as to strengthen his hand in the fight for revision downward.

The tariff bill reached the house from the senate and then was sent to conference where it may be completed in ten days.

President Taft in an address at Norwich, Conn., said he favored letting every man worship God as he chooses.

The senate passed the tariff bill by a vote of 45 to 34, ten Republicans voting against it and one Democrat for it.

Representative Rodenberg of Illinois introduced a bill in the house providing the death penalty for kidnaping in the District of Columbia.

PERSONAL.

John D. Rockefeller has given another $10,000,000 to the General Education board, making $42,000,000 in all he has contributed.

King Edward, Queen Alexandra and Princess Victoria were guests at a dinner given by Ambassador and Mrs. Reid at Dorchester house.

James Yadkin Joyner of North Carolina, was elected president of the National Educational assosiation at the Denver convention.

Gov. John Burke of North Dakota was elected president of the Missouri River Navigation congress.

John D. Rockefeller celebrated his seventieth birthday anniversary by playing golf.

Chairman Goethals of the canal commission has issued an economy edict for the isthmus. Use of carriages for officials is restricted.

Charles Richardson, secretary of the American legation at Copenhagen, has resigned and will return to the United States.

GENERAL NEWS.

Thomas L. Lewis and other mine workers' officials met in St. Louis in an attempt to prevent a strike of 32,000 men in Kansas.

John R. Early, who after being held in Washington for months suspected of being a leper, gave a reception in a New York hospital where, it is said, he is not suffering from the disease.

After several months of effort to see Premier Asquith the English suffragettes waylaid him near his home and he accepted a petition from them.

In the arrest of a man who claims to be Christian G. Johnson, the San Francisco police believe they have captured John Madson who has married and deserted ten women and robbed many others in all parts of the United States.

President Taft, who will start on his western trip September 15, has telegraphed President Diaz of Mexico asking for a meeting at El Paso, Tex.

New letters of a spicy nature written by women to Col. Snell whose will is being attacked in court at Clinton, Ill., have been found, but, under the supreme court's ruling, cannot be introduced in evidence.

Glass bottle blowers in convention at Milwaukee went on record as being against prohibition.

Edward N. Detzer, teller, arrested for stealing $8,000 from the First National bank at Fort Wayne, Ind., said he took the money to maintain his wife in a high social position.

Following the murder of her husband who had killed another man and the slaying of a third man in her own home, Mrs. Fred Mohrle of St. Louis attempted suicide by shooting herself.

After nearly 200 years the first statue of Bienville, founder of New Orleans, is to be placed in one of the public squares of that city.

The Blackwell Lumber Company of Spokane has bought 30,000 acres of timber land in northern Idaho from the Menasha Woodenware Company for $2,250,000.

International regulation of aerial navigation and wireless telegraphy will be discussed at the fourth Pan-American conference in Buenos Ayres, July 9, 1910, according to present plans.

Thomas Taggart, former chairman of the Democratic national committee, denied on the witness stand that he knew Ella Gingles or was in any way connected with a plot to take her to French Lick, Ind., where he owns a hotel.

Miss May Golde was drowned near Granite City, Ill., by the upsetting of a launch. The other occupants, T. C. Miller and Miss Cecelia Golde, a sister of the drowned girl, were rescued.

Cablegrams from Vienna say a citizen of Washington has offered to tell the Turkish government where Abdul Hamid, the deposed sultan of Turkey, has large sums of money on deposit in the United States.

President Taft, who for three days participated in the tercentenary celebration of the discovery of Lake Champlain, returned to Washington.

John Smith, a burglar, who with Carlo Giro broke into the home of George Staber at Flatbush, L. I., and killed Mrs. Staber, was captured and confessed to the New York police.

Violent earthquake shocks, which are believed to have had their vortex in Central Asia, were recorded by seismographs in all parts of the world.

Home Secretary Gladstone of England received a delegation of suffragettes and expressed sympathy for their cause.

Terry McGovern, former featherweight champion of the world, was sent to a hospital where he will be examined for his sanity.

M. Caillaux, minister of finance of France, was slapped by Charles Bos, a former deputy and one of those bloodless duels for which France is famous may be the result.

Mrs. Lida Griswold, librarian, was slain in the public library of Eaton, O., by Henry Rife, who attempted suicide.

In a local option election at Bristol, Va., the "wets" were victorious by 38 votes.

The United Society of Christian Endeavor voted to hold its convention next year in Atlantic City.

A $5,000 stallion owned by Clarence H. Mackay was trying to shake a fly off his neck at the Mackay estate on Long island, when he fell and broke his neck.

Sergt. Robert Johnson of the artillery, who was wounded in the fight on Jolo island in the Philippines, in which the bandit, Jikiri, and his band were exterminated, died.

Deportations of 150 aliens were ordered by the immigration authorities at New York, breaking all records.

Philip Lemmel, weighing 270 pounds, ate ten pounds of beefsteak in a contest at a New York outing with Max Meyers, who ate 8¾ pounds.

Eminent churchmen from most of the larger cities of the country gathered in Boston to attend the sixth annual meeting of the Catholic Educational association over which Rev. D. J. O'Donnell, D. D., presided and in which Archbishop O'Connell of Boston participated.

Attorney General Wickersham, speaking before the Kentucky Bar association at Paducah, said congress should pass a law providing for nationally created corporations.

President Taft in a speech at Plattsburg, N. Y., declared tolerance in religion is fast increasing in this country.

Richard Hyland, a motorman on the Louisville & Indianapolis traction line, forgot his orders and five persons were injured in the colision that followed at Holman, Ind.

Anna Spangler, four years old, daughter of a wealthy farmer at Sun Prairie, Wis., who was believed to have been kidnaped, was found four miles from home, having wandered away.

At least six persons were drowned, one train was wrecked and several others were held up by floods in Missouri and Kansas.

Hundreds of shareholders of the Minnesota Grain Indemnity Company stormed its offices in Minneapolis when S. R. Norris, the manager, was reported missing.

King Peter of Servia, having fainted from excessive smoking, fell from a horse and was painfully injured.

The Wabash Railroad Company, under a decision of the United States court of appeals, must pay to the widow of James Compton $900,000 for bonds bought by her husband in 1870. The case had been in the courts 33 years.

Theodore Roosevelt killed a lion as the beast was charging at him. He also has added two other lions and four rhinoceroses to his list.

Harry Bands, a Pittsburg policeman, is in a serious condition as a result of being stabbed with a hatpin by a negress.

Thirteen teachers in the New York public school obtained marriage licenses on the first official day of the summer vacation.

Progress in the fight against tuberculosis in America was reported to the International Tuberculosis conference in Stockholm in a paper by Nathan Straus of New York.

A duel was fought between Col. Orestes Ferrera, president of the Cuban house of representatives and Senor Monleon, a representative. Rapiers were used and both received slight injuries.

THOUSANDS OF ELKS

Fully 75,000 Visitors Invade Los Angeles

GREAT HERD MAKES MERRY

Grand Exalted Ruler Holland and Grand Secretary Robinson Reach California on Delayed Trains.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 12.—To the music of a score of bands and arrayed in the uniforms of the various drill corps of the many Elks lodges gathered here, thousands of the antlered guests of the city paraded the downtown streets of the city and made merry.

Special trains from various sections of the country arrived early, among the first being the train bearing Grand Exalted Ruler Rush L. Holland and Grand Secretary Fred C. Robinson, which had been delayed by heavy rains in the middle west. Others included the "Cotton States" special and trains from Michigan, Illinois, New Jersey, Arkansas and Texas.

At the registration headquarters there were upwards of 15,000 registrations recorded during the day.

Twelve special trains are scheduled to arrive which will swell the list to fully 30,000, and with these will be added trains from Pacific coast cities who will come by boat. It is expected that fully 75,000 visitors will be in the city.

One thousand automobiles are to be provided for the guests and a sightseeing tour of the city and the nearby places of attraction will be made.

TWO ARE KILLED IN WRECK

Coupling on Passing Freight Car Causes Car to Jam Into Special Horse Car.

Chicago, July 12—Two men were killed, one man was seriously injured and thirteen blooded trotting and pacing horses owned by W. B. Taylor, and on their way to the Illinois valley circuit meet at Aurora, Ill., were bruised and "fouled" in a freight wreck on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad near Plano, Ill.

Alice Early, a famous trotter, is one of the horses injured.

The men killed were:

Daniel Stevens of Sedalia, horse owner and trainer.

Ray Ensign of Nevada, Mo., trainer.

Frank English of Nevada, Mo., was crushed, and is in a serious condition at an Aurora hospital.

The freight train carrying the horses and their keepers was coming east from Peoria. As it was passing a westbound freight train near Plano a coupling pin on the westbound train gave way and one of the cars jumped the track and crashed into the horse car. None of the horses will be fit to race for nearly a month.

INDIAN RESERVATIONS OPEN.

Registration, July 15 to August 5 —Drawing, August 9, 1909.

Registration for 160-acre farms in the Flathead Reservation ((450,000 acres), at Missoula, Mont.; Coeur d'Alene Reservation (200,000 acres), at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; Spokane Reservation (50,000 acres), at Spokane, Wash.

Any qualified applicant can register for a 160-acre farm on all three of these reservations. You therefore have three chances to win a farm. It costs nothing to register. The cost of taking up the prize 160-acre tracts is from $1.25 to $7 an acre.

Low fares by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway—$39 from Chicago to Missoula and return. $39 to Kalispell and return. $55.10 to Coeur d'Alene and return. $57.50 to Spokane and return, July 20. Low fares from other points and on other dates.—F. A. Miller, General Passenger Agent, Chicago.

Big Floods Tie Up Traveling Public.

Kansas City, Mo., July 12.—With hundreds of travelers detained in Kansas awaiting the movement of their trains which have been delayed because of washouts due to the heavy floods prevalent in Missouri and Kansas, the railroad situation has become serious. All trains west were from one to ten hours late, while it was merely conjecture as to the arrival time of Chicago trains detoured by way of St. Louis.

Two Are Killed Outright.

Bayliss, Colo., July 12.—Nineteen persons riding a handcar and an attached pushcar collided on a curve in Platte canon on the Colorado & Southern railroad with a freight train. Two persons were killed, two perhaps fatally injured and eleven seriously hurt.

STOPPED HER SONG OF JOY.

Slight Forgetfulness That Marred the Full Appreciation of the Welcome Rain.

"Isn't that a lovely shower?" exclaimed Mrs. Randall to her friend in the parlor as they gazed out on the sudden downpour.

"Yes, we need it so badly."

"Need it? I should say we did. It's a God-send! Why, our goldenglows, hyacinths and roses out in the back yard are shrinking for the want of rain. The sprinkler can't take the place of rain, you know."

"Indeed not."

"Oh, I tell you this is just lovely! See how it pours! And to think that just when everything threatens to dry up and every one is praying for rain nature answers these appeals and sends us beautiful— Good heavens!"

"What's the matter?"

"I've left the baby out in the yard!" —The Circle.

TRUE RESIGNATION.

Old Maid—Is it really true that marriages are made in heaven?

Doctor—Yes, I believe so.

Old Maid (resignedly)—O, then, doctor, you needn't call again.

DREADFUL DANDRUFF.

Girl's Head Encrusted—Feared Loss of All Her Hair—Baby Had Milk-Crust — Missionary's Wife Made Two Perfect Cures by Cuticura.

"For several years my husband was a missionary in the Southwest. Every one in that high and dry atmosphere has more or less trouble with dandruff and my daughter's scalp became so encrusted with it that I was alarmed for fear she would lose all her hair. After trying various remedies, in desperation I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. They left the scalp beautifully clean and free from dandruff, and I am happy to say that the Cuticura Remedies were a complete success. I have also used successfully the Cuticura Remedies for so-called 'milk-crust' on baby's head. Cuticura is a blessing. Mrs. J. A. Darling, 310 Fifth St., Carthage, Ohio, Jan. 20, 1908."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Plainly Stated.

Mr. Summerboard (politely)—Shall I help myself to the beans?

Hired Man—You will if you git enny!—Judge.

Non-resident must sell improved corn and clover farm, $25 per a., crops and climate good; town close. Illustrated farm bulletin. E. T. Thomson, Sedalia, Mo.

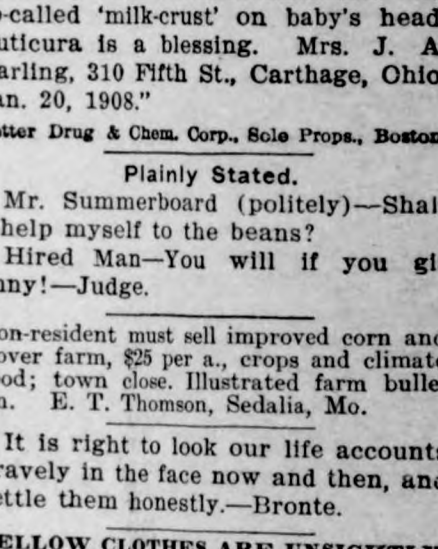
It is right to look our life accounts bravely in the face now and then, and settle them honestly.—Bronte.

YELLOW CLOTHES ARE UNSIGHTLY. Keep them white with the new RUSS BLUE. Get the genuine. 5cts., at grocers.

It wouldn't be a bad idea to acquire the habit of dodging pessimists.

Anneke Jans-Bogardus Heirs, having positive proof as such, address with stamp, 365 Lennox Bldg., Cleveland, O.

The good times we long for will not come in the guise of 48-cent watches.



W. N. U., DES MOINES, NO. 29-1909.

Des Moines Directory

Machinery Machine Shop and Foundry. Largest stock of used machinery in Iowa. Engines, Boilers, Steam Pumps, Belting, Shafting, Hangers, etc., bought and sold. American Iron Works, 213-223 E. First St., Des Moines, Iowa.

THRESHERMAN'S SUPPLIES Oils, Belting, Packing, Hose, Steam and Water Fittings, Pipe, etc., for the Factory, Farm or Home. Write, Phone or Telegraph your orders to THE GLOBE MACHINERY & SUPPLY CO., 205-207 W. Court Ave., Des Moines, Iowa.

CYCLONE CAMERA Size 3¼ x 4¼ with bulb and tube. List price $8.00, our price $5.00—other bargains. Amateur finishing our specialty. Des Moines Photo Materials Co.

MORE PINKHAM CURE

Added to the Long List to This Famous Remedy

Camden, N.J.— "It is with pleasure that I add my testimonial to your already long list—hoping that it may induce others to avail themselves of this valuable medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered from terrible headaches, pains in my back and right side, was tired and nervous, and so weak I could hardly stand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to health and made me feel like a new person and it shall always have my praise." —Mrs. W. P. VALENTINE, 902 Linden Avenue, Camden, N. J.

Gardiner, Me.— "I was a great sufferer from a female disease. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me in three months." MRS. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 1, Box 39, Gardiner Me.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result is worth millions to many suffering women.

SICK HEADACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. Positively cures these Little Pills

They also relieve distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature

Brent Good

REFUSE SUBSTITUTE

This Scale on Approval

I want every man who runs a business on business principles to let me tell him why he needs a scale and why my 44 years experience in selling to the consumer entitles me to make him a free trial freight paid plan which originated with me makes me the only man to make.

I have recently invented the BEST Steel Frame Wagon Scale which I sell at a lower price than any other reliable pitless scale. I will send it on approval. No money required in advance. Satisfaction is shown. New compound beam box free. Introductory discount on first order. Let me send Scale on approval and free price list. "JONES He Pays the Freight," 52 E St., Binghamton, N. Y.

LAZY LIVER

"I find Cascarets so good that I would not be without them. I was troubled a great deal with torpid liver and headache. Now since taking Cascarets Candy Cathartic I feel very much better. I shall certainly recommend them to my friends as the best medicine I have ever seen."

Anna Bazinet,

Osborn Mill No. 2, Fall River, Mass.

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken or Gripe. 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold in bulk. The genuine tablet stamped C C C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back.

Dr. McINTOSH celebrated Natural Uterine Supporter gives immediate relief. Sold by surgical instrument dealers and druggists in United States and Canada. Catalog, price list and particulars on application.

THE HASTINGS & McINTOSH TRUSS CO. 912 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., manufacturers of trusses and sole makers of the Genuine stamped "McIntosh" Supporter.

Buy a Wabash Wagon From your dealer or direct from our factory. 40 styles and sizes for boys and girls of all ages from babyhood up, and larger Handy Wagons for men. Illustrated price list FREE. WRITE FOR IT. WABASH MANUFACTURING COMPANY 14 Mill St., Wabash, Indiana

TO INVESTORS— A little money invested in Texas-Bermuda Onion Co. stock, will bring you large and certain profits. A homely industry, but a big one, and mighty profitable. Demand for product way beyond supply. Write for our descriptive booklet. Texas-Bermuda Onion Co., 157 Clayton Block, Dallas, Tex.

I WANT TO ESTABLISH AGENCIES Two splendid articles netting 100 per cent profit. Write for particulars. M. B. Chase, 605 Central Ave., Wilmette, Ill.

For a Laxative and Blood Purifier A-B-C TEA At all Dealers.

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Books free. Highest references. Best results.

WA'S NEW LAWS

Hundred and Sixty-Six Additional Statutes.

NY OF GENERAL IMPORT

opsis of Fish and Game and Other New Laws—Cosson Removal Acts and Saloon Laws of Great Importance.

es Moines—Iowans are now ged about by 166 new laws. Last ter the legislature enacted 236 eral laws, six special and 43 lizing acts, making a total of 304 measures to be added to the ute books. Of the 236 general laws, went into effect as soon as lished, and the remaining 166 me effective July 4.

Fish and Game Laws.

ection 2539, of Chapter 15, of the e, provides that there is hereby ted the office of State fish and e warden. The warden shall be ointed by the Governor, and holds office for three years from the day of April of the year of his ointment. He shall receive a sal- of twelve hundred dollars annual- together with his necessary travel- contingent and office expenses, to aid out of the State treasury. He ll have charge and management of State fish hatcheries, which shall used in stocking the waters of the te with fish native to the country to the extent and means provided the State. He shall impartially equitably distribute all fry raised or furnished to the State, or for it ough other sources, in the streams lakes of the State; shall faithfully impartially enforce obedience of provisions of this chapter, and ll make a biennial report to the ernor of his doings together with information upon the subject of culture of fish and the protection game in the country as he may k proper, accompanied with an ized statement monthly to the cutive council under oath of all eys expended and for what pur- e, and of the number and varieties sh distributed, and in what waters. hall be the duty of the fish and e warden, sheriffs, constables and ce officers of this State to seize take possession of any fish, birds, animals which have been caught, n or killed at a time, in a man- , or for a purpose, or had in pos- ion or under control, or have been pped contrary to the provisions of chapter. Such seizure may be e without a warrant. Any court ing jurisdiction of the offense, n receiving proof of probable e for believing in the concealment ny fish, birds or animals, caught, n, killed, had in possession, under trol, or shipped contrary to any of provisions of this chapter, shall e a search warrant and cause a rch to be made in any place there- Any fish, birds, or animals so d shall be sold for the purpose of ing the costs in the case, and the unt, if any, in excess of the costs ll be turned into the school fund the county in which the seizure is e. Any net, seine, trap, contriv- e, material and substance what- r, while in use or had and main- ed for the purpose of catching, ng, killing, trapping or deceiving fish, birds, or animals contrary ny of the provisions of this pter is hereby declared to be, and a public nuisance, and it shall be duty of the fish and game warden, riffs, constables and police officers the State, without warrant or pro- , to take or seize any and all the e, and abate and destroy any and of the same, without warrant or cess, and no liability shall be in- ed to the owner or any other per- for such seizure and destruction. said warden or his regularly con- ted deputies or other peace of- rs as hereinbefore named shall be ased from all liability to any per- or persons whomsoever for any done or committed or property ed or destroyed under or by virtue this section.

ec. 2540, provides that between the day of October and April 15, no shall take from the waters of the e any salmon or trout, nor be- en the fifteenth day of November the fifteenth day of May any , pike, croppies, pickeral (pick-), catfish or other game fish, nor ll any one person take of said fish m the waters of the State in any day more than forty (40) of any ll of said kinds of fish, of which l number not more than twenty ll be bass, pike or pickeral. It t be unlawful for any person, firm corporation to offer for transporta- or to transport to any place hin or without this state for pur- es of sale, any game fish taken from the inland waters of the state. Any person, firm or corporation desiring the shipment or transportation of any game fish, shall deliver to the common carrier, express or transportation company a statement under oath in duplicate, setting forth the name of the shipper, the person to whom the package is shipped, the residence of both, the kind and number of fish contained in such package, and that the fish contained in such package are not being shipped for the purpose of sale or market, and one copy thereof shall be retained by the common carrier, express or transportation company receiving such shipment for the period of twelve months thereafter and the other copy thereof shall be attached in a secure manner to such package. Any agent of any common carrier, express or transportation company receiving such shipment is hereby authorized to administer to such shipper the oath contemplated in the last preceding paragraph. Any shipment made in violation of the provisions of this act may be seized, confiscated and sold by any game warden in this state at private or public sale; the proceeds thereof to be turned into the fish and game protection fund, or such shipment may be by such warden destroyed. Nor shall anyone fish for or by any means catch any fish in any stream, which has been stocked with breeding trout, one or two years old, within one year from the date of the stocking thereof, if notice of such fact is by the authority of the warden posted where a public road crosses such stream; nor shall any one at any time take from the waters of the State any fish, except minnows for bait, unless by hook and line; but any person may between the 15th day of May and the 15th day of November, use not more than one trot line in streams only, and extending not more than half way across; nor shall anyone place, erect or cause to be placed or erected, any trot line, seine, net, trap, dam or other device or contrivance in the water in such manner as to hinder or obstruct the free passage of fish, up, down, or through the same for the purpose of catching them, except as provided in the next section; nor have, erect or use, while fishing on or through the ice, any house, shed or other protection against the weather, or have or use any stove or other means for creating artificial heat. The possession of a spear, trap, net, or seine in or upon any of the public waters of the State or upon the ice of the same, or on the shore within a limit of ten rods, or the taking or killing or attempting to take or kill any fish by any means other than by rod, line, hook and bait within three hundred (300) feet of a fish way shall be unlawful. No person shall at any time kill, destroy, have in possession or under control for any purpose whatever any bass, catfish, wall-eyed pike, crappies, or trout less than six (6) inches in length except for the purpose of returning the same to the water from which they were taken, as soon as they are taken therefrom with as little injury to the fish as possible.

Sec. 2540-A declares that placing explosives in the public waters in the state is unlawful, and provides a fine of from $50 to $100, or imprisonment of not less than 15 nor more than 30 days.

Sec. 2541 provides that a three-eighth inch mesh seine, not over five yards in length, may be used in taking minnows for bait.

Sec. 2542 provides that no person shall use more than two lines, with one hook upon each line, in still fishing, or otherwise, except that a trot line as above provided, or in trolling a spoon composed of three hooks fastened together may be used.

Sec. 2543 provides that no person shall knowingly buy or sell or have in possession for sale or transportation, or other purpose, any fish unlawfully taken.

Sec. 2544 provides that any person convicted of violating sections 2540, 2541, 2542 or 2543, may be fined not less than $5 nor more than $50, and cost of prosecution for each offense, or be imprisoned not less than one nor more than 30 days.

Sec. 2545 provides that owners of private waters may take fish therefrom as they see fit.

Sec. 2546 provides that the warden may take from the public waters of the state for propagation or other purposes, and that he may issue permits to take from certain lakes certain fish.

Sec. 2547 provides that fishing with hook and line does not require a license; requires license for use of seines or nets; defines nets and seines that will be licensed; requires a $200 bond; provides that licenses expire on 1st of March following issuance, and that metal tag must be fastened on each seine and net; that license funds are to be used for maintenance of fish and game department and for preservation of food fishes; fish and size of fish that can be taken under license; that food fishes must not be taken and destroyed, and that any person found guilty may be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than 30 days or fined not more than $100.

Sec. 2548 provides that all dams must have fish ways.

Sec. 2549 defines rights of citizens to condemn property for fish dams in lakes situated in any city or town.

Sec. 2550 provides a penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $500, or imprisonment for destroying any dam erected in any city or town.

Sec. 2551 provides that no person shall trap, shoot or kill any pinnated grouse or prairie chicken between December 1st and September 1st, next following; any woodcock between January 1st and July 10th; any ruffed grouse or pheasant, wild turkey or quail between December 15th and November 1st; any wild duck, goose or brant, rail, plover, sand piper and marsh or beach bird, between April 15th and September 1st; and any gray or fox squrrel, or timber squirrel between January 1st and September 1st. Provides that killing quail on public highways, or killing game birds or animals with unlawful devices, or shooting between sunset and sunrise is unlawful, and provides a penalty of $25 to $100, or imprisonment.

Sec. 2551 makes it unlawful for any person, except the owner, to kill, maim or trap deer, elk or goat.

Sec. 2552 makes it unlawful to kill for traffic birds, animals or game; limits 25 game birds or animals in any one day; makes it unlawful to have in possession more than 25 of said named birds or animals, except ducks; and declares it unlawful to destroy eggs or nests.

Sec. 2553 declares trapping of beaver, mink, otter or muskrat unlawful between April 1st and November 1st.

Sec. 2554 makes it unlawful to sell, dead or alive, game or animals, and declares possession unlawful five days after closed season.

Sec. 2555 provides that no person, company or corporation shall at any time, ship, take or carry out of the state any of the birds or animals named in this chapter; and that no person shall at any time ship to any person within the state any birds or animals named, except that not to exceed one dozen in any one day, during the open season, may be made by making an affidavit, and fixes penalty for violation.

Sec. 2556 provides a penalty of $10 for using any device to kill, trap, ensnare, buy, sell, ship or have in his possession or ship any birds or animals, or destroy any eggs or nests, unlawfully.

Sec. 2557 prohibits transportation companies from receiving fish, birds or animals for shipment, during the period limited, under penalty of from $100 to $300, and imprisonment.

Sec. 2558 defines what guns may be used.

Sec. 2559 tells how prosecutions may be made, and that the attorney general shall give opinions.

Sec. 2560 declares that hunting on cultivated or enclosed land is trespass.

Sec. 2561 provides for the protection of non-game birds; prohibits destroying of eggs and nests of wild birds, and prohibits shipment, except under certain conditions; tells how permits may be issued for scientific purposes only; names the English, or European house sparrow, great horned owl, sharp skinned hawk, Cooper's hawk and blackbirds and crows as birds that are not protected. A fine of $5 and imprisonment is fixed for violating any of the provisions of this section.

Sec. 2562 provides that the fish and game warden may appoint deputies and fixes their compensation at $2.50 per diem and actual expenses; that they shall have power to serve and execute warrants, and can call on the sheriff and other officers, and requires deputies to give bond.

Hunters' License Law.

The resident and non-resident license law provides that no person shall hunt, pursue, kill or take, any wild animal, bird or game in Iowa with a gun, without first procuring a license, and that minors must have consent of parents or guardians.

Wardens shall furnish applications and licenses to county auditors, who shall issue licenses after applications have been sworn to, on payment of $1 by residents and $10 by non-residents. A non-resident can take only 25 game birds or animals from the state.

The license funds shall be used to pay expenses of the warden and his deputies and for gathering and distributing fish in the public waters, and for the care and preservation of the lakes of the state.

County auditors are required to keep a record of licenses issued; hunters must have license in possession while hunting and provides for revocation of license; states that owners and tenants of farm lands shall have the right, without securing a license, to hunt and kill wild animals, birds or game, upon lands owned or occupied by them. A penalty of $25 to $50 is fixed for violation.

Under Sec. 2563-I it is declared unlawful to use any live bird for the purpose of a target, under penalty of from $10 to $100, or imprisonment for not more than 30 days.

Sec. 2563-U protects pheasants until October 1, 1915, and fixes penalty for violation of fine not exceeding $100 or imprisonment.

Lacey Federal Bird Law.

The Lacey bird law provides that the duties and powers of the department of agriculture are thereby enlarged so as to include the preservation, distribution, introduction and restoration of game birds and other wild birds.

The secretary of agriculture is authorized to adopt such measures as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of the act and to purchase such game birds, and other wild birds as may be required therefor, subject, however, to the laws of the various states and territories.

The object and purpose of the act is to aid in the restoration of such bird in parts of the United States adapted thereto, where the same have became scarce or extinct, and to regulate the introduction of American or foreign birds or animals in localities where they have not heretofore existed.

OTHER NEW LAWS.

Chapter 10 changes the time of holding district courts; provisions are made for providing tabular statements by the secretary of state.

Chapter 11 provides the assignment of judges in certain districts by the chief justice.

Chapter 12 changes the compensation and raises the pay of shorthand reporters from $6 to $8.

Chapter 13 gives superior court concurrent jurisdiction with the district court and the probation officer of the district court shall act as the probation officer of the superior court.

Chapter 14 defines contributory dependency, provides for habitual drunkards and the penalty of enticing away children.

Chapter 16 limits the compensation of deputy clerks to $8,000 in counties having a population exceeding 65,000.

Chapter 17 definitely states duties of the county attorney and repeals previous code section on same subject.

Chapter 20 has jury lists made biennially.

Chapter 23 gives juries summoned on special venire $2.50 and for each mile traveled from his residence to the place of trial, 10 cents.

Chapter 24 states that attorneys are not acceptable as sureties.

Chapter 26 changes the name poor house to county home.

Chapter 34 states specifically the duties of the sheriff and his deputy, outlining and requiring close investigation of crime.

Chapter 51 makes it necessary after October 1, 1909, for all motor cars to be provided with a transparent shield to afford protection to motormen and passengers on platform.

Chapter 52 states that all street cars of over 37 feet or weighing over 35,000 pounds shall have power brakes other than hand brakes capable of bringing the car to a stop.

Chapter 55 abolishes township park districts.

Chapter 61 authorizes the giving of pensions to disabled and retired firemen and the widows and children and the dependant fathers and mothers of deceased firemen in corporate towns and special charter cities having organized fire departments.

Chapter 62 authorizes the giving of pensions to disabled and retired policemen.

Chapter 67 grants additional powers to cities organized under the commission plan of government.

Chapter 69 makes provisions for primary elections, including the compensation of judges and clerks, time of opening polls, certification of nomination to the county auditor, form of ballot, publishing of proceedings, filling of vacancies, of holding county conventions, district conventions and state conventions.

Chapter 95 promotes the building of permanent roads in the state.

Chapter 96 provides for the destruction of weeds.

Chapter 136 allows a bounty of 25 cents for each ground hog killed within the county.

Chapter 137 gives a bounty of 50 cents for each rattlesnake killed.

Chapter 139 changes the form of request blanks for the sale of intoxicating liquors.

Chapter 141 prohibits the drinking of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and the use of profane language on any passenger railway car or street car, making the offense a misdemeanor.

Chapter 142 limits the number of persons to whom city or town councils may grant consent to sell intoxicating liquors.

Chapter 143 prohibits any person except a qualified elector from engaging in the sale of intoxicating liquors at retail.

Chapter 145 makes it necessary that employers furnish an authenticated birth record of any children employed in their establishment.

Chapter 149 makes it the duty of all persons and companies operating any vessel propelled by machinery or through the medium of sails to carry a light during certain hours.

Chapter 151 provides for the establishment of a laboratory for the manufacture of hog cholera serum at or near Des Moines under the supervision of the state veterinary surgeon.

Chapter 163 provides for a register in which shall be recorded the date of cocaine sales.

Chapter 167 defines and regulates the practice of optometry and for creation of a board of examiners in optometry.

Chapter 168 relates to hotels, inns and public lodging houses and prescribes rules so as to insure the safety and health of employes and patrons of the same, and provides for inspection thereof.

Chapter 169 is an act to prevent disease among bees and provides for inspection thereof.

Chapter 171 changes the name of the Iowa State Normal school to State Teachers' college.

Chapter 173 provides for feeble minded men at Glenwood.

Chapter 175 provides for the education of deaf and blind children at the school for the deaf and the college for the blind.

Chapter 185 prohibits secret fraternities and societies in the public schools.

Chapter 213 is an act to enjoin and abate houses of prostitution, to declare the same to be a nuisance and to assess a tax against the person maintaining such nuisance and against the building and owner thereof.

Chapter 220 provides that all doors shall open outward in buildings of public nature.

Chapter 223 authorizes the seizure of cigaretts and cigarette papers, the apprehension of the occupant of the place or building in or upon which the same were sold or kept and provides for the levy of a tax.

Chapter 252 makes an appropriation for the removal of the remains of ex-Governor Ansel Briggs from Omaha, Neb., to Andrew, Jackson, county, Ia., and for the location of a monument in the cemetery at that place.

Chapter 260 makes an appropriation for the Freemen's Institute of Pocahontas, county, Iowa

Chapter 267 is an act to grant and relinquish to the city of Dubuque, the title of the State of Iowa in or to the abandoned river bed of the Mississippi river.

HENDERSON TRIAL AUG. 4TH

Marengo Mayor Has Recovered Enough to Justify Attorneys in Setting Day for Hearing.

August 4 is the date set for the hearing of Mayor A. M. Henderson of Marengo, the mayor against whom charges of drunkenness, etc., were filed under the new law to depose him from office.

Mayor Henderson was severely injured by the falling of a pulley, which hit him on the head, fracturing the skull. This delayed the setting of the time of the trial.

Henderson is reported to be much improved, and this makes possible the holding of the trial before District Judge Byron W. Preston at Oskaloosa within a month.

Recently the Marengo mayor filed an answer to the charges filed in May. He alleged that the law was unconstitutional in that it did not give a trial by jury; that he drank, but was not an habitual drunkard; that he was elected to office by people that knew he drank, etc. County Attorney W. J. Kirby of Williamsburg, Iowa county will prosecute the case.

Voted to Make Iowa a State.

The last of the few old settlers of Polk county who voted for the constitutional amendment of 1846 for the admission of Iowa into the union, passed away in the death of Montgomery McCall at Ames. Mr. McCall lived to the ripe old age of 91 and has seen Iowa and Polk county transformed from a wilderness to its present magnitude. During the greater part of his life he was engaged in the practice of law in Camp township. For some time he has lived with his son, John McCall at Ames. The body was buried in Stuart cemetery, near the old home.

Cushman was Native Iowan.

Representative Cushman of Washington, deceased, was formerly of Iowa. He was born in Brighton, in Washington county, was educated at the high school at Brighton and at Pleasant Plain academy of Jefferson county. He assisted himself in securing an education by working as waterboy on a railroad near his home and later as section hand. He left Iowa at the age of sixteen and went west. Had he lived he would have been senator from Washington to succeed Piles.

Are You Going to PAINT ?

It pays to keep your buildings well painted, and when you paint it pays to use the best you can get. We handle the best in

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, etc. etc.

Call and see us and get our prices.

Washing Machines

We handle some of the best made. Call and see the

"Quicker Yet"

The best place to buy

Hardware & Groceries

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA

STOCK FOODS

We carry a full line of Dr. Hess' Scientific Veterinary Stock Preparations. These preparations have been thoroughly tried and proven to give absolute satisfaction. Dr. Hess & Clark guarantee back of every preparation.

Stock Food for horses and cattle.

Worm Powder for hogs and cattle.

Panacea for Gaps, Cholera and Roup. Makes the hens lay.

Instant Lice Killer kills Lice. Ticks, Fleas. A reliable disinfectant powder put up in cans with perforated top.

Heave Powder Always gives relief.

Distemper, Fever and Cough Remedy.

Healing Powder Heals from bottom and leaves no scar

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile. both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

Buy Your SCREENS NOW

The Flies Will Soon be Here

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, AGENT

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

A True Man

In speaking thus we have reference to Hon. Thomas P. Gore, democratic senator from Oklahoma, who, though he is blind, is able to see a great deal better as to the needs of the people than many of his brother senators whose vision may not be impaired in the least. We here print a few remarks made by Senator Gore in the Senate on June 18th in regard to the tariff on pulp and print paper. We only wish time and space might permit us to print the whole speech, but the following are only a few of his opening remarks:

"The senator from New Hampshire this morning registered his protest against the reduction of the duty on print paper from $6 per ton, as it now stands in the Dingley Act, to $4 a ton, as proposed by the pending amendment brought in by the finance committee. I desire now to register my protest against the increase of the duty on print paper from $2 per ton, as proposed in the House bill, to $4 per ton, as proposed in the pending amendment.

"It seems to me, Mr. President, that this is one question which ought to rise above the ordinary considerations that determine either partisan or political issues. It seems to me that this is one question upon which Democrats and Republicans could alike agree and unite for the purpose of promoting so vast and so beneficent an industry as the publication of newspapers, magazines, and other periodicals in this country.

"It has already been suggested that the Democratic platform adopted at Denver declared in favor of placing wood pulp and print paper upon the free list. I may be pardoned for saying that platform promises have a strong and binding force with me. I might almost say that they impose a sacred obligation upon me. I shall not now discuss the academic question as to whether or not circumstances might in certain cases remit that obligation; but, Mr. President, I do desire to say that I favor free wood pulp and free print paper, not because the Denver platform declared in favor of those propositions, but I favor placing these articles on the free list because, sir, that action is right. and because it is founded on just principles and sustained by sound and wise policy

"The late President of the United States, Mr. Roosevelt, in his annual message in 1907, recommended to Congress that wood pulp and print paper be placed upon the free list. The imputation cast at certain senators that this proposal commits them to free trade assuredly cannot be hurled at the recent republican President

"The senator from New Hampshire this morning, with tears in his voice, expatiated upon the distressful condition which this proposition would bring upon the laboring men in the state of New Hampshire. He painted in vivid and lurid colors the poverty and distress which would overcome them. It can not be said that President Roose was in favor of remanding th laborers to a condition of po ty, to a condition of squalor, a condition of misery I le that issue to be settled betw the Senator from New Ha shire and the ex-President; I will allow their friends and newspapers to determine wh is the better Republican,

(Continued on 8th page.)

OLD HENS 9 Cents July 16 and 17

We will take in all kinds of Poultry this week Friday and Saturday, July 16 and 17, and will pay 9c for Hens, 4c for old Roosters, 7c for Ducks, 5c for Geese, 8c for Turkeys and 75c per dozen for live old Pigeons. . . ..

These are strong prices and give you a chance to unload your fat poultry. Respectfully,

Ell Brothers

One Dollar

Mr. Farmer---It costs but a trifle more to buy printed letter heads and envelopes than it does to use any old thing, and certainly it looks more business-like to use printed stationery For a limited time we offer you 100 sheets good writing paper and 100 good envelopes, printed with your name and address, both for $1.00. Give us your order now.

The Times Printery

KLEMME MARKET.

.....	55 to 63c
.....	40 to 42c
.....	80 to 100
.....	50 to 60c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	7.00 to 7.20
.....	3.00 to 6.00

OCAL NEWS

sh fruits at Kluckhohn's.

finest line of candies in at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

sses fitted. Eyes tested Dr. Missman. 47-4

llace Pavey visited a few ast week at Forest City.

z. Wenz left Tuesday for tended visit with his sister ives at Britt.

you have poultry to sell. the prices Ell Bros are ng in their ad this week.

Dain Hay Loaders are g like hot cakes. They ndies. See H. Lau & Son.

W. Kluckhohn has been ating around near Corwith Kanawha the past few s.

brand new bouncing baby ook up its residence at the of Mr. and Mrs. L. Wes- n Monday, July 12th.

en in Garner, stop at the r House. Everything ughly cleaned and satis- y service guaranteed. tf

s. John Braund and child- f DeSoto, Wis., have been g here at the home of her ts, Mr. and Mrs. H. Freie.

item we missed last week he visit at Buffalo Center hn Baumgartner and fam- ho spent the 5th and 6th with relatives.

e Klemme Hotel and the wood restaurant have each p neat new signs this week the artistic brush of C. C. ow, and they sure are ies.

s. A. L. Spooner, of Lu e, Iowa, visited here a few last week with relatives ld-time friends. She says like their new home and oing well.

o. Schaefer was a visitor at nd, Grundy county, last at the home of his broth- law. He also visited with enken at Stout, Iowa. He rts the corn in Grundy ty as, on the average, about same as in this locality, e the oats crop farther south much better than here.

very heavy wind and rain n struck this locality last y night. The rain fell in ular deluge for an hour or od the wind laid the corn other growing vegetation almost flat on the ground aces. A similar storm, but furious and of shorter dura gave us another touch of her Sunday evening. Guess have to stoop over to pick roasting ears. The hot her has made the corn grow the potato bug crop is fine. gs are plentiful and they say ng is good. Come to Iowa.

---

ing obliged to take it for I will sell it out cheap;
. Hess Stock Food.
. Hess Poultry Panacea.
. Hess Instant Louse Kill-

. Hess Hog Worm Powder. e had at G. F. Schuler's ner, Iowa.

W. R. Bloom shipped a car of hogs yesterday.

Charles City beat Belmond at Garner yesterday forenoon, 5 to 2.

Klemme sent a large delegation to the Garner ball tournament yesterday.

For a chunk of good cold ice call at Bloom's elevator or on G. R. Waterman. 44tf

Try Kluckhohn's ice cream soda with crushed fruit and you will become a regular customer.

J. F. Howell, of Rowan and H. A. Priebe, of Edgerly, N. D., registered at the Klemme Hotel last Thursday.

A. F. Church and wife, A. R. White and wife and Miss Lizzie Elder visited at the Thos. Elder home Sunday.

Chas. Behrens and family drove down from Garner Sunday and visited with Klemme friends and relatives.

E. J. Arnold took out a new McCormick binder yesterday and in the afternoon started cutting his barley crop.

August Wenz, the popular clerk in Arthur Wellemeyer's store, has been quite sick the past week, but is now on the mend.

Mrs. Nissen left Saturday for Garner where she is assisting in the Garner House this week during the base ball tournament.

At the Garner base ball tournament Tuesday, Humboldt won from Belmond by a score of 1 to 0, and Algona beat Charles City 4 to 2.

M. I. Parker returned to Klemme last week after spending his vacation at the home of his parents in Kansas, and he now takes to his work as assistant cashier of the First National Bank like a duck takes to water.

J. N. Day was calling on his Klemme friends last Friday evening, He was on his way to his home at Buffalo Center from Pocahontas, where he has had charge of the Northern Lumber Co. yards for about four weeks. John is agent for this Company at Buffalo Center and likes the place.

L. A. Turgason, who has been agent for the Rock Island in Klemme for several years, left last week for Swea City, where we understand he will assume charge as agent for the same company. Louie has made a host of friends here who regret his departure. but wish him success in his new location. Mr. J. H. Maher now has charge of this station.

A little daughter of George Griggs had a narrow escape from being run down by a train in the Klemme yards yesterday forenoon, and the presence of mind of S. K. Langsdale, Division Agent for the Rock Island, probably saved her from a serious injury. The little girl ran ahead of her mother to the depot and did not see a special freight which was going north at a good rate of speed. She was on the track and the train was nearly onto her when Mr. Langsdale reached out and pulled her off the track. He had gone out onto the platform while the train passed and just happened to be in the right place at the right time. It was an act of no little risk for Mr. Langsdale and his prompt and efficient action is to be most highly commended.

Lawrence Larson, M. I. Parker, John Baumgartner, Nick Ell and Fred Henschen "autoed" to Garner Tuesday.

H. C. Lau shipped three cars of hogs this week.

Ice cream sodas. sundaes, and all kinds of cool refreshing drinks at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

Ernest Wellemeyer arrived here from Charles City Tuesday evening and is helping his brother Arthur, in the re-arrangement of shelves and counters in his store.

We understand that Miss Vera Duffey. of Garner is to be married this week at the home of her aunt in Des Moines, to Mr. Joseph Kincaid, of Tacoma, Washington. Miss Vera's many friends in and around Klemme may be surprised at this news, but all will wish her much joy. They will make their home at Tacoma.

German M. E. Church Items

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Griewe were Germantown callers on Tuesday.

Mrs. John Dittman of Davenport is visiting with her cousin Mrs. Chas. Stiehl.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Germantown met last Thursday with Mrs. Aug. Stille.

Mrs. Chas. Busche and children Edna Schuldt and Mr. and Mrs. Aug Lau were Garner visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Carl Schuldt, of Garner, spent the first of the week in Klemme the guest of the Henry Griewe family.

Sarah, Mary and Ida Ludeke attended services in Germantown last Sunday and visited with their sisters.

Grace Josten came down from Garner last week to spend a few days with her cousins, Lydia and Edna Schuldt.

Amanda Arnold and Mary Griffen returned Saturday evening from their extended trip, covering nearly a month.

Geo. Schaefer made a trip to Holland, Iowa, last week and called on his brother in-law. L G. Benken and family.

A number of young people, remembering that last Saturday was the birthday of Luvina Ulrich, gave her a surprise in the evening.

Mrs. Wm. Miller, of Colesburg, Iowa, spent a few days with her brothers, William and Louis Sampson and their families, returning Monday morning.

Aug. Wenz has been quite sick since the middle of last week. He has not been himself for some time, nevertheless he stuck to business until he was compelled to give up. He is able to be up and around a little at this writing.

Mrs. Wessel and Clara Griewe each gave a dinner last Sunday to which they had invited the members of their Sunday School class. The former has a class of young men and those present were Elmer Arnold, Emil Bettien. John Griewe, Henry Ludeke, Elmer Ludeke, Hugo Neff, Leonard Sampson, Emil Sampson, Fred Sampson, August Schuldt and Dr. Edgar Zinn. Clara Griewe teaches a class of little boys and girls and those present were Viola Sampson, Deloras Koerner, Erwin Lau, Walter Ridder, Alberta Yahnke, Freddie Arnold, Elmer Larsen, Earl Josten, Opal Griewe, Mable Larsen and Andrew Wellemeyer. We truly believe that all enjoyed and appreciated these gatherings, especially the little folks. To cap the climax of delight, Lawrence Larson came along with his new auto and gave the latter class a ride—the former not being quite so fortunate.

Carl Wellemeyer, wife and baby, stopped over long enough after the funeral of Rev. Wellemeyer to make a number of short calls in Germantown and Klemme. All were glad to see them. They have a large circle of friends in this community where they may always expect a hearty welcome.

We are sorry to report that Grandma Gruetzmacher has not made any improvement since last week. Gangrene has developed in her lower limbs and she is suffering intense pain. Humanly speaking, her case is hopeless and it is only a question of time. All that loving hands can do for her is being done and she bears her suffering patiently and resigned to the Divine will.

ELL CENTER

Special Correspondence:

Miss Ruth Bonar of Forest City is visiting in this vicinity.

John Grove left last week for a visit with his brother in Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Young of Garner were calllers here last Friday.

Mrs. Braund and Mrs. Freie visited at Joe Lawhorn's one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Josten entertained a party of young people Friday evening.

Tortured on a Horse

"For ten years I couldn't ride a horse without being in torture from piles," writes L. S. Napier, of Rugless, Ky., "when all doctors and other remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me." Infallible for piles, burns, scalds, cuts, boils, fever-sores, eczema, salt rheum, corns 25c. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Chris Hanson and Son have rented Dr. Zinn's 400 acre farm.

John Hall, a carpenter working for Scott Bowen who is putting up the new buildings on the Aug. Barz farm, was taken suddenly ill yesterday. It is presumed that he became overheated.

Life 100,000 Years Ago

Scientists have found in a cave in Switzerland bones of men, who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was in constant danger from wild beasts. Today the danger, as shown by A. W. Brown, of Alexander, Me., is largely from deadly disease. "If it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me, I could not have lived," he writes, "suffering as I did from a severe lung trouble and stubborn cough." To cure sore lungs, colds, obstinate coughs, and prevent pneumonia, it's the best medicine on earth. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co. Trial bottle free.

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Phone No. 11. Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to calls day or night.
Eyes tested. Glasses fitted.

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
Eyes Tested Free.

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures
See me when you want a
Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

F. C. GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Headquarters for part of Heinz' Fifty-Seven Varieties. and Pickling Vinegar.
Try these goods; they are fine.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
Call in

RESTAURANT
Fresh New Candies. Nicest Line in Town
Van Camp's Pork and Beans. Try them for lunch. Try our Golden Orangeade, Pop and Cider. Home-made Ice cream, Cones and Sodas.
—Home-made Bakery Goods,—
Lunches and Meals at all hours.
A. Kirkwood & Son

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

Vacation Time in Colorado
A vacation at any time is good, but a vacation in Colorado in summer is ideal.
The ozonated mountain air, the outdoor life, the wonderful scenery, the cool nights and the restfulness that prevails, combine to make a Colorado vacation one never to be forgotten.
Colorado is easily and comfortably reached in the de luxe trains of the
Rock Island-Frisco Lines
Every comfort and convenience of modern railway travel provided by these trains.
Go to Colorado!
Full information on request.
J. H. MAHER, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

HER INFINITE VARIETY

by BRAND WHITLOCK

ILLUSTRATIONS BY RAY WALTERS

COPYRIGHT 1907 BY BOBBS-MERRILL CO.

SYNOPSIS.

Senator Morley Vernon's visit with his fiancee was interrupted by a call from his political boss at the state capital. Both regretted it, the girl more than he, because she had arranged to attend a dinner that evening with him. She said she yearned for a national office for him. On Vernon's desk in the senate he found a red rose, accompanied by a plea for suffrage for women. He met the authoress, pretty Miss Maria Greene of Chicago, who proposed to convert him into voting for house resolution No. 19. Miss Greene secured Vernon's promise to vote for the suffrage resolution. He also aided her by convincing others. He took a liking to the fair suffragette. Miss Greene consulted with the lieutenant-governor. Vernon admitted to himself that the suffragette had stirred a strange feeling within him. He forgot to read his fiancee's letter. Vernon made a great speech in favor of suffrage, aided by glances from Miss Greene. The resolution was made a special order. Vernon was enthusiastic on the prospects for the resolution. He was much in Miss Greene's company. Vernon neglected thoughts of Amelia. He took Miss Greene driving and laid out plans for the success of the resolution. Vernon's speech caused a great newspaper sensation. He was being neglected by Amelia, who had not answered his letter. Vernon is "tipped off" that his suffrage resolution may not pass. As Miss Greene was due the following morning he had no fears. Miss Greene arrived and breakfasted with Vernon. Across the dining room, entrenched behind women opponents of the suffrage resolution, he spied Amelia. He started toward her. She treated him coldly and the women opponents of suffrage reproved him for his part. Mrs. Hodge-Lathrop told Senator Vernon that his conduct with Miss Greene had been hard upon Amelia. He was told to comfort her. Vernon had a tearful interview with Amelia, and he tried to undo the ills which his suffrage move had caused. He partially "made up" with Amelia, who had turned lobbyist against the resolution. Through the work of the anti-suffrage women the resolution fell flat. Mrs. Lathrop's trick in sending Vernon to Amelia keeping him away while the killing went on. Miss Green was introduced to the members of the Lathrop party.

CHAPTER XIV.—Continued.

"You are enjoying your visit in Springfield, I trust? You have seen the Lincoln monument and the homestead? How very interesting they must be! And the legislature offers novelty; don't you find it so?" She gathered her skirts as if to withdraw. But Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop achieved a smile.

"We have not enjoyed the pleasures of sight-seeing. On the contrary, we came to appear before the senate," she said.

Miss Greene surveyed her critically, with that look in which one woman inspects another woman's attire. She then extended her critical scrutiny to the dress of the others.

"To be sure!" she said. "I should have known."

The ladies again exchanged glances. Mrs. Barbourton plainly could not bear that their position should be equivocal. She doubtless had her little vainglorious wish to have their success known.

"Mrs. Overman Hodge Lathrop came down to appear in opposition to the woman's rights resolution!" She emphasized the word woman as if she would not for worlds have been a woman herself.

"Indeed!" exclaimed Miss Greene. "I am sure her appearance must have been a very convincing argument." She gave her opponent another searching glance. Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop was having difficulty in getting her breath.

"We have been having a taste of lobbying, Miss Greene," she began "and—"

"How unpleasant!" said she.

"You know, possibly," said Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop, regaining something of her position.

"Indeed I do," Miss Green assented, sweetly, "but where it is in the line of one's profession, duty obscures the unpleasantness. One cannot, you know, always choose one's occupation. Good morning!"

And catching her skirts, with a smile and a bow she left.

The successful lobbyists stood in silence a moment, looked one to another with wide and staring eyes. Then at last Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop spoke.

"Morley," she said, "I do wish you could learn to discriminate in your introductions."

CHAPTER XV.

Just before dinner Amelia and Vernon sat in the little waiting room of the hotel. Mrs. Overman Hodge Lathrop and her ladies had gone up to the suite they had taken and were engaged in repairing the toilets their political labors of the morning had somewhat damaged. Amelia had completed her toilet more quickly than they and had joined Vernon, waiting for her below.

They sat in the dim little room where Amelia could look across the corridor to the elevator, expecting every moment the coming of Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop. Now that they found themselves alone and face to face with the necessity of reconciliation, a constraint had fallen on them. Amelia constantly kept her eye on the elevator. Men were passing and repassing the open door, going to or coming from the bar-room, and their loud talk and laughter beat in waves into the dim little retreat of the lovers.

"To Be Sure," She Said. "I Should Have Known."

As Vernon sat there he imagined that all that talk was of him; more than all, that all that laughter was at him—though there was no more of either than there was every day when the legislators came over to the hotel for their big noon dinners. At last Amelia turned to him.

"You've got the blues, haven't you?" she said. It would seem that somehow he did her an injustice by having the blues.

"No," he answered.

"Then what's the matter?" she demanded.

Vernon glanced at her, and his glance carried its own reproach.

"Oh!" she said, as if suddenly recalling a trivial incident. "Still worrying about that?"

"Well," Vernon answered, "it has some seriousness for me."

Amelia, sitting properly erect, her hands folded in her lap, twisted about and faced him.

"You don't mean, Morley, that you are sorry it didn't pass, do you?"

"It puts me in rather an awkward position," he said. "I suppose you know that"

"I don't see how," Amelia replied.

"Well," Vernon explained, "to stand for a measure of that importance, and then at the final, critical moment, to fail—"

"Oh, I see!" said Amelia, moving away from him on the couch. "Of course, if you regret the time, if you'd rather have been over in the senate than to have been with me—why, of course!" She gave a little deprecating laugh.

Vernon leaned impulsively toward her.

"But, dear," he said, "you don't understand!"

"And after your begging me to come down to Springfield, to see you!" Amelia said. Her eyes were fixed on the elevator, and just at that moment the car came rushing down the shaft and swished itself to a stop just when, it seemed, it should have shattered itself to pieces at the bottom. The elevator boy clanged the iron door back, and Maria Greene stepped out.

"There she is now!" said Amelia, raising her head to see. Miss Greene paused a moment to reply to the greeting of some one of the politicians who stopped to speak to her.

Amelia's nose was elevated.

"And so that's the wonderful hair you all admire so much, is it?" she said.

"Well," replied Vernon, almost defiantly, "don't you think it is rather exceptional hair?"

Amelia turned on him with a look of superior and pitying penetration.

"Does that shade deceive you?" she asked. She smiled disconcertingly, as she looked away again at Maria Greene. That woman lawyer was just leaving the politicians.

"And to think of wearing that hat with that hair!" Amelia went on. "Though of course," she added, with deep meaning, "it may originally have been the right shade; the poor hat can't be expected to change its color."

Vernon had no answer for her.

"I wonder what explanation she'll have for her defeat?" said Amelia in a tone that could not conceal its spirit of triumph.

"I'm not worried about that," said Vernon. "I'm more concerned about the explanation I'll have."

"Dearest!" exclaimed Amelia, swiftly laying her hand on his. Her tone had changed, and as she leaned toward him with the new tenderness that her new manner exhaled Vernon felt a change within himself, and his heart swelled.

"Dearest," she said, in a voice that hesitated before the idea of some necessary reparation, "are you really so badly disappointed?"

He looked at her, then suddenly he drew her into his arms, and she let her head rest for an instant on his shoulder; but only for an instant. Then she exclaimed and was erect and all propriety.

"You forget where we are, dear," she said.

"I don't care about that," he replied, and then, glancing swiftly about in all directions, he kissed her.

"Morley!" she cried, and her cheeks were red, a new and happy red.

They sat there, looking at each other.

"You didn't consider, you didn't really consider her pretty, did you?" Amelia asked.

"Why, Amelia, what a question!"

"But you didn't? Don't evade, Morley."

"Oh, well, now, she's not bad looking, exactly, but as for beauty—well, she's rather what I'd call handsome."

"Handsome!" Amelia exclaimed, drawing back.

"Why, yes. Don't you see, dear?" Vernon was trying to laugh. "Can't you see the distinction? We call men handsome, don't we? Not pretty, or anything like that. But women! Ah, women! Them we call, now and then, beautiful! And you, darling, you are beautiful!"

They were face to face again, both smiling radiantly. Then Amelia drew away, saying:

"Morley, don't be ridiculous."

"But I'm dead in earnest, dear," he went on. "And I think you ought to make some sort of amends for all the misery you've caused me."

"You poor boy!" she said, with the pity that is part of a woman's triumph.

"I did it," he said, "just because I love you, and have learned in you what women are capable of, what they might do in politics—"

"In politics! Morley! Can you imagine me in politics? I thought you had a more exalted opinion of women; I thought you kept them on a higher plane."

"But you—" Vernon laughed, and shook his head at the mystery of it, but did not go on.

"Why, Morley, would you want to see your mother or your sister or me, or even Mrs. Hodge-Lathrop in politics?"

"Well," he said, with a sudden and serious emphasis, "not Mrs. Hodge-Lathrop exactly. She'd be chairman of the state central committee from the start, and, well—the machine would be a corker, that's all."

The elevator was rushing down again in its perilous descent, and when its door flew open they saw Mrs. Overman Hodge-Lathrop come out of the car. Vernon rose hastily.

"There she is," he said. "We mustn't keep her waiting."

Amelia rose, but she caught his hand and gave it a sudden pressure.

"But you haven't answered my question," she said, with a continuity of thought that was her final surprise for him. "Are you so very badly disappointed, after all?"

"Well, no," he said. "I don't think it would do. It would—well, it would complicate."

Mrs. Hodge-Lathrop was standing in the door, peering impatiently into the dim little room. They stared toward her.

"Anyway, dear heart," Amelia whispered as they went, "remember this—that you did it all for me."

THE END.

HUBBY EFFECTED QUICK CURE.

Sick Wife Aroused by Contemplation of Her Successor.

"William, dear," feebly called the invalid wife, who was supposed to be nearing the end of her earthly career.

"Yes, darling," answered the sorrowing husband. "What is it?"

"When I am gone," said she, "I feel that for the sake of the motherless little ones you should marry again."

"Do you really think it would be best, darling?" asked the faithful William.

"Yes, William, I really do," replied the invalid. "After a reasonable length of time you should seek the companionship of some good woman."

"Do you know, my dear," said the husband, "that you have lifted a great burden from my mind? Now, there is that charming widow Jones across the way. She has acted rather friendly toward me ever since you were taken ill. Of course, dear, she could never fill your place, but she is young, plump and pretty, and I'm sure she would do her best to lessen my grief."

"William Henry Brown!" exclaimed the female whose days were supposed to be numbered, as she partly raised herself upon the pillow, "if you ever dare install that red-headed, freckle-faced, squint-eyed hussy in my shoes, I'll—I'll—" And then she fainted.

But the next day Mrs. Brown was able to sit up, and two days later she was downstairs.

A Weed That Steals Oysters.

A seaweed has invaded the oyster beds of France and carried off 400,000 oysters. It has carried them off bodily, as a thief would do.

The minute seeds of this weed float up the English channel in the current of the Gulf stream, they settle on oysters in the Breton beds of Morbihan, Quiberon and Belle-Isle, and they grow to the size of a duck's egg.

They are full of water, but at maturity the water evaporates, and air takes its place. The egg-shaped seaweed is then a balloon, and like a balloon it lifts its oyster from the bottom and bears it out to sea.

Quick Relief is necessary in cases of Cramps, Colic, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum and Diarrhea.

Dr. D. Jayne's Carminative Balsam

is the quickest acting and most reliable remedy known for these affections. It stops pain immediately, and in almost every case brings about a speedy recovery. Keep it handy for the children's sake.

Sold by all druggists—per bottle, 25c.

Dr. D. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is an excellent tonic to overcome the exhaustion consequent upon a severe attack of Dysentery.

Had to Hear Evidence.

Some ladies were visiting Blanche's home one day. During the conversation, while the visitors were there, one of the ladies was describing how the blowflies laid eggs and they hatched out as maggots. Four-year-old Blanche did not seem to be interested in the conversation nor pay any attention to what they had been talking about. After the visitors had gone, Blanche said:

"Mamma, I don't believe flies lay eggs."

"Why?" asked the surprised mother.

"Because I never heard one cackle," explained the doubting Blanche.

Hospitals a Benefit to Property.

The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis has recently concluded an investigation, which shows that 67.5 per cent of the tuberculosis sanatoria and hospitals of the United States have been a benefit to the property and health of the communities in which they are located. In the case of more than 60 per cent. of the sanatoria the presence of the institutions has helped to increase the assessed value of surrounding property.

Her Dilemma.

Bessie—Oh, Mabel! I am in an awful dilemma. I've quarreled with Harry, and he wants me to send his ring back.

Mabel—That's too bad.

Bessie—But that isn't the point. I've forgotten which is his ring.

ORIGIN
Of a Famous Human Food.

The story of the great discoveries or inventions is always of interest.

An active brain worker who found himself hampered by lack of bodily strength and vigor and could not carry out the plans and enterprises he knew how to conduct, was led to study various foods and their effects upon the human system. In other words, before he could carry out his plans he had to find a food that would carry him along and renew his physical and mental strength.

He knew that a food which was brain and nerve builder (rather than a mere fat maker) was universally needed. He knew that meat with the average man does not accomplish the desired results. He knew that the soft gray substance in brain and nerve centers is made from Albumen and Phosphate of Potash obtained from food. Then he started to solve the problem.

Careful and extensive experiments evolved Grape-Nuts, the now famous food. It contains the brain and nerve building food elements in condition for easy digestion.

The result of eating Grape-Nuts daily is easily seen in a marked sturdiness and marked activity of the brain and nervous system, making it a pleasure for one to carry on the daily duties without fatigue or exhaustion.

Grape-Nuts food is in no sense a stimulant but is simply food which renews and replaces the daily waste of brain and nerves.

Its flavour is charming and being fully and thoroughly cooked at the factory it is served instantly with cream.

The signature of the brain worker spoken of, C. W. Post, is to be seen in each genuine package of Grape-Nuts.

Look in pkgs. for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville" "There's a reason."

D TAKE LONG WALK

alry to Go from Des Moines to Iowa City.

LL ATTEND ENCAMPMENT

oops F and G to Take Part in 54th Infantry Encampment to be Held Near Iowa City in August.

Des Moines.—Troops F and G of the cond United States cavalry have eived orders to hike overland from Moines to Iowa City, a distance 120 miles, and take part in the e days' encampment of the Fifty-rth Iowa infantry near the state versity town.

The regulars will ride their horses entire distance, taking about five for the march, arriving in Iowa y in time for the encampment ich begins Aug. 23. The return to Moines will be by rail. With m will go First Lieutenant Charles Johnson of the medical reserve ps and one private from the hos-l corps.

Troops E and H of the Second cav-y have been ordered to take part the encampments of the Fifty-third, ty-fifth and Fifty-sixth regiments the Iowa National guard, to be held pectively at Independence, Chari- and West Okoboji. In addition to two cavalry troops the machine platoon of the Second cavalry l participate in the Independence campment. The two troops will pro-ed to each of the three encamp-nts by rail.

A copy of the order assigning the ulars to duty was received by Adjt. n. Guy E. Logan from Brigadier neral Morton, commanding the de-rtment of the Missouri with head-rters at Omaha.

unday School Workers in Council.

Marshalltown.—The fourth annual sion of the international district lning school for Sunday school chers and workers was held here h a good enrollment. Dr. Cyrus J. phart, of Dayton, O., was dean of institute and had charge of the sses in Bible study. Several promi-nt Sunday school workers of the ntry are members of the faculty, cluding Miss Mina Stocker, of Ne-aska; Clarence Depew of Illinois; s. Maude J. Baldwin, of Indiana; d Rev. Frank F. Fitch, of Des ines. The advisory board of the titute comprises by states, A. M. cker, of St. Paul, for Minnesota: v. F. P. Leach, of Sioux Falls, for uth Dakota; E. E. Lacey, St. Louis, Missouri; Paul S. Dietrick, Lin-n, for Nebraska; Rev. J. Orchard, rgo, for North Dakota; and J. H. gle, Abilene, for Kansas. Prof. W. Brandenburg, of Mason City, Ia., president.

State Given Bloody Sheet.

Des Moines.—Covered with blood-ins, an old hospital sheet used as flag of truce in the civil war, has en presented to the state historical partment by Welker Given, son of e late Josiah Given, who was a rmer supreme court justice and a igadier general of Ohio volunteers the war of the rebellion. The sheet s made by Ohio women for the ldier boys in the Seventy-fourth io. It came to be used as a flag of ce after serving its purpose in the spital.

Byers Ruling Hits Six Saloons.

Des Moines.—Six Des Moines sa-ons have been illegally granted per-its and must close their doors at ce, according to Attorney General yers' interpretation of the Moon w, which became effective July 4. e holds that the cities of Iowa had right to adopt new consent resolu-ons after the law was approved by overnor Carroll, except where the mber of saloons was less than one each 1,000 inhabitants.

Mrs. Mitchell Talks at Normal.

Iowa City.—The Johnson County ormal Institute had an attendance 135, despite the inclement weath-. The main address was delivered Mrs. Hattie Moore-Mitchell of rake University, Des Moines, who oke ably on "A Trip Through the ighlands." Ed. Amherst Ott of Des oines and Rev. A. Kepford of the ate board of control delivered lec-res.

Rock Rapids May Be M. O. Town.

Rock Rapids.—The city council has reed to offer the City Water Works mpany $3,500 for its plant. The ant represents a total outlay of out $20,000, but the franchise has ly one more year to run, and it is pected that the company will ac-pt and that the city at a special ection will ratify the purchase.

Oakland Tragedy of Early Days.

Oakland.—The skeletons of two hu man forms were unearthed here by workmen engaged in excavating for the basement of the new Methodist church. The bodies were found within eighteen inches of the surface of the ground. They were taken out and laid on the grass near by, where they were viewed by the entire town. They were supposed to be the remains of Indians buried many years ago, but some of the old-timers think otherwise. Doctors who examined the skeletons claim that they are not the remains of Indians, but of two whites, a man and a woman. This recalls a tragedy or a series of tragedies that are supposed to have had their origin at this very spot. When the railroad was being built through here some thirty years ago, the railroad store was located there and a very rough element constantly thronged the place. An eating establishment was part of the business of the store and fights were of daily occurrence. A particularly quarrelsome couple were employed as cook and waitress respectively, who, when not fighting among themselves, were in a turmoil with some of the railroad hands, or the proprietor of the establishment, who was himself noted as a bad man. That the skeletons are the remains of the cook and his wife, who, it is remembered, mysteriously disappeared, is not doubted at all, but it is the firm belief of those here who remember the turbulent times at the railroad store.

Dies Hunting Son.

Council Bluffs, Iowa.—The body of Mrs. Mary Kranninger, aged 58, wife of John Kranninger, who was drowned while frantically searching for a son who had gone to Lake Manawa and had gotten caught in the storm, was recovered. The Krranningers live near the outskirts of the city, and near the school for the deaf. Mrs. Kranninger became alarmed over the continued absence of one of her five sons. With but one thought and desire, to aid the boy if he was in distress, Mrs. Kranninger took a lantern and started out in the direction of the city, thinking that possibly her son had lost his way in the darkness intensified after leaving the city streets. She evidently attempted to cross a small ravine which had become a torrent, and was swept from her feet and drowned. The lantern was found where it is supposed she fell, and the body more than a mile away.

Five sons and four daughters survive. The family did not report Mrs. Kranninger's absence until the body was recovered.

Girl Attacked at Ft. Dodge.

Ft. Dodge.—Two assaults were made in Ft. Dodge when H. G. Davis of San Antonio, Tex., just arrived, was knocked down and robbed of a roll of $175 and a seventeen jeweled gold watch, and when a young girl employed in a factory was attacked by a man who was frightened away by the screams of her girl companion, who bravely followed them when he started to drag his victim down a lonely road. Davis, who suffered at the hands of robbers, was beaten insensible by them and left on the sidewalk to be discovered after considerable time by a passerby. Neither the assailants of the man or woman have been located and citizens of the town are especially incensed and interested in the case of the girl.

Survived by 138 Descendants.

Des Moines.—John R. Hartgrave, one of the oldest residents of Franklin county, Ia., died at the home of his nephew, William Riddle, at the age of 87 years. During his life Mr. Hartgraves had the unusual distinction of having eight children, seventy grandchildren and sixty great grandchildren, all of whom survive him. He was married at the age of 18 and enjoyed sixty-three years of married life.

Aged 79, Takes First Train Ride.

Bloomfield.—Mrs. Eliza McCord, who is seventy-nine years of age, and who resides in Grove township, southwest of here, enjoyed her first ride on a train one day recently, going from Pulaski to West Grove. Although residing within six miles of the railroad for the past thirty-seven years, she was never on a train before.

Infuriated Cow Injures Man.

Eddyville.—While David Roberts and W. P. Chilton were bringing some cattle to market a cow became maddened by the heat. After running over fences and taking after a woman the beast knocked Mr. Roberts down. He sustained a compound fracture of the leg. The broken bone protruded from the flesh and the wound is serious.

Weston Belonged in Iowa.

Charles City.—The press here has discovered that Edward Payson Weston once was a resident of Iowa and lived in Charles City in the late 60's. While a resident here, the Press says, he secured a divorce from his wife, Marie Weston.

NEW SENSATION FOR DOBBIN

Come to Think of It, He Would Have Felt Funny Sitting in the Position Indicated.

The family horse, who rejoiced in the eminently proper equine name of Dobbin, had earned a rest by long service, and was accordingly sent away to the country to spend his declining years in the broad pastures of a farmer friend of his owner. The distance being somewhat excessive for his rheumatic legs, he was shipped to his new home by rail.

Little Edna, the family four-year-old, viewed the passing of Dobbin with unfeigned sorrow. She sat for a long time gazing disconsolately out of the window. At last, after a deep sigh, she turned with a more cheerful expression, and said:

"Did old Dobbin go on the choo-choo cars, mamma?"

"Yes, dear," answered her mother.

A broad grin spread over the little girl's face. "I was just thinking," she said, "how funny he must feel sitting up on the plush cushions.—Woman's Home Companion.

TIRED ALL THE TIME.

Languor, listlessness, dullness of spirits are often due to kidney disorders. Pain and weakness in the back, sides and hips, headaches, dizziness, urinary disorders are sure signs that the kidneys need immediate attention.

Delay is dangerous. Alonzo Adams, Osceola, Iowa, says: "My kidneys failed me. I suffered awful pain and was so weak I could not work, and often had to take to bed. I was dull and exhausted nearly all the time. I consulted doctors and used medicines, but only Doan's Kidney Pills helped me. Soon I was permanently cured."

Remember the name—Doan's. For sale by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo., N. Y.

Another Step Needed.

"I like my house all right," said Luschman, "except for one thing. I guess you'll have to fix that."

"What is it?" asked the architect.

"Several times lately I've nearly broken my neck reaching for another step at the head of the stairs when I got home late, so I guess you'd better put another step there."—Catholic Standard and Times.

TWO IOWA FARM BARGAINS

To Close Estate Quickly We Offer the finest 500 acre stock farm in Northern Iowa, two sets good improvements; all rich, deep black soil; three miles from two railroad towns; neighboring farms held at $80 to $100 per acre; heirs will sacrifice to close up estate at $70 per acre, $5,000 or more cash, balance easy at 5½%. Other farm, 200 acres, near Albia, Iowa, first-class improvements, ideal home farm, worth $75 per acre, for quick deal $47.50, easy terms. Write for complete details of these and sixteen other Iowa farm bargains. THE KELLY LAND SYSTEM, Des Moines, Iowa.

The man who accompanies his wife on a shopping tour is almost as uncomfortable as the woman who accompanies her husband to a ball game.

Better than gold—Like it in color—Hamlins Wizard Oil—the best of all remedies for rheumatism, neuralgia, and all pain, soreness and inflammation.

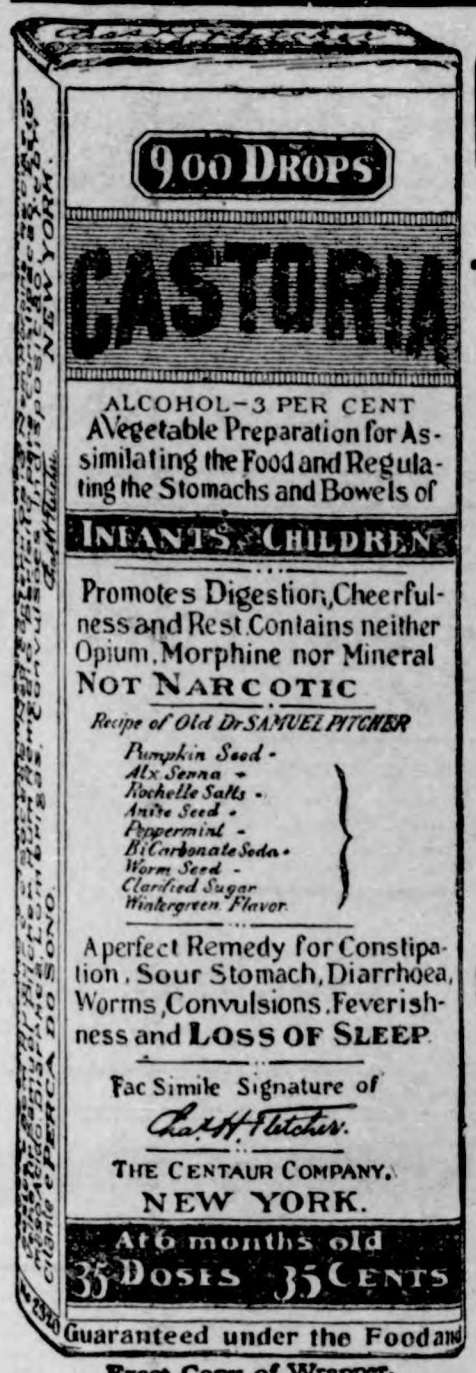
We lose money and comfort, and even temper sometimes by not learning to be more careful.—Dickens.

DON'T TAKE ANY CHANCES. The new RUSS BLUE does the best work. 5cts. at leading grocers. Avoid imitations.

Does the ugly chorus girl come under the head of "stage frights?"

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

The daughter's doings have been the mother's acts.



Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE

Shake Into Your Shoes

Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It relieves painful, swollen, smarting, nervous feet, and instantly takes the sting out of corns and bunions. It's the greatest comfort discovery of the age.

Allen's Foot-Ease makes tight-fitting or new shoes feel easy. It is a certain relief for ingrowing nails, perspiring, callous and hot, tired, aching feet. It is always in demand for use in Patent Leather Shoes and for Breaking in New Shoes. We have over 30,000 testimonials. TRY IT TODAY. Sold by all Druggists, 25c. Do not accept any Substitute. Sent by mail for 25c. in stamps.

"In a pinch, use Allen's Foot-Ease."

FREE TRIAL PACKAGE sent by mail. Address ALLEN S. OLMSTED, LE ROY, N, Y.

DRAKE UNIVERSITY

Established in 1881, its growth has been continuous, The annual attendance has increased until it has reached over 1800. More than 150 instructors are employed. Ten buildings are devoted exclusively to school purposes. Library facilities are unexcelled in the West.

Drake University is ideally located in the Capital city of Iowa, is open to both men and women on equal terms; expenses are low, and opportunities for remunerative employment are unusually good.

Fall Quarter opens September 20th. 1909.

COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS—Course of four years, leading to the degree of A. B., Ph. B., S. B. Courses requiring an additional year's work leading to the corresponding Master's degree.

COLLEGE OF THE BIBLE—English courses, leading to certificate, Graduate course, requiring three years' work, leading to degree of D. B.

COLLEGE OF LAW—Three-year course, leading to degree of LL. B.

COLLEGE OF MEDICINE—Four-year course, leading to degree of M. D. Two-year course in Pharmacy.

COLLEGE OF DENTISTRY—Three-year course leading to the degree of D. D. S.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION—Course of four years, leading to degree of Ed. B. Two-year courses arranged especially for Grade, Primary, Kindergarten, and Domestic Science teachers and supervisors. State certificates granted without examination.

COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS, including:

Conservatory of Music—Four-year courses in Voice, Piano, Pipe Organ, Violin, Cornet and other orchestral instruments, Harmony, Musical History and Theory.

School of Painting and Drawing—Courses in drawing, in painting in oil, pastel, water colors, etc.

School of Dramatic Art—Two-year courses in Physical Culture, Voice Training and Dramatic Reading.

THE UNIVERSITY HIGH SCHOOL—Classical, Scientific and Commercial courses, preparing students for entrance to college.

SPECIAL COURSES—Courses for Music Supervisors, Drawing Supervisors and for teachers who wish certificate work and instruction in methods. Music courses especially for children.

For catalogue or other information concerning any of these colleges or schools, address,

THE PRESIDENT, Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

Rheumatism

Nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness.

Lame Shoulder.

This is a common form of muscular rheumatism. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely four times a day and a quick cure is certain.

Lumbago.

When muscular rheumatism attacks the muscles in the small of the back it is called lumbago. It is usually quite severe and every movement adds to the pain, and especially when one attempts to straighten up. No internal treatment is required. Keep quiet, as every movement aggravates the disease, and apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and you will soon be well again.

Sprains and Bruises are cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment.

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

(Continued from 4th page.)

which is the better friend alike to the laboring man employed in the pulp-paper mills and those employed in the print shops of the country."

Senator Gore then goes on to show how the users of print paper are being systematically robbed by the paper trusts in this country. He showed that the cost of power for making paper was cheaper than in most any other country; that labor is as cheap in this country as it is in Canada, and that the cost of the raw material was nearly the same in both countries. However, the trust claims that it costs $8 57 more to make a ton of paper here than it does in Canada. Among other things, Mr. Gore said that when prices were quoted at $50 in New York delivered, the American mills delivered print paper in Bristol, England, at $43.50 per short ton.

The Shy Child.

The first important step toward helping a child of this kind is to give her self-confidence, even if you run the risk of making her vain and conceited. She needs a little wholesome praise to make her feel that her playmates will like her. Make her look as attractive as possible, and tell her that she is attractive; see that she is trained in all the arts and graces that will make her attractive; send her to dancing school. As she gets older see that she excels in games, in athletics, in anything that will give her confidence in herself when she associates with her schoolmates. If she is going away to school or college give her lessons on the banjo and guitar so that she can join the banjo and guitar clubs. If she has any talent of any kind by which she can entertain her friends help her to develop it. She must be taught to feel that she can help others to have a good time and that consequently she is welcome among them. Once that feeling is established the battle is won.—Harper's Bazar.

Was in a Tight Place.

For many years old Col. Lee resided in Ninth street, New York, near the Hotel St. Denis. He is still remembered by hundreds of New Yorkers for his bright manner and happy, apt remarks. When the project for erecting an equestrian statue to Gen. Washington in Union square was proposed Col. Lee was intrusted with one of the subscription papers for circulation. Shortly after receiving it he approached a well-known citizen and asked for a subscription. But the citizen declined to subscribe, stating in a rather pompous manner:

"I do not consider, sir, that there is any necessity for a monument to Mr. Washington. His fame is undying, sir; he is enshrined in the hearts of his countrymen."

"Is he enshrined in your heart?" softly inquired the colonel.

"He is, sir."

"Well, all I have to say," retorted Col. Lee, "is that he is in a tight place."—New York Press.

Elephant Turned Off Water.

Jule, one of the elephants at the Central park zoo in New York, gave a clever demonstration the other day of the wisdom of her tribe. There is a hydrant just outside of Jule's cage and until Saturday it had been fitted with a round handle to turn on and off the flow of water. On Saturday William Walker, the zoo plumber, fitted a new spigot on the hydrant and put it on a permanent T shaped handle. Jule carefully examined the handle several times Sunday. She looked it over again, and after much fumbling, turned it and produced a flow of water. Then she put her trunk under the stream, filled it and drank copiously. What pleased Keeper Snyder more than anything else was that she carefully turned off the flow of water after drinking.

A Mistake.

"I thought from the way that girl talked, she was the whole thing in the vaudeville sketch, and when I went to see the act, all she did was to appear as an assistant in a milliner's shop, pasting inside bands on hats."

"Oh, then she probably gave you a wrong impression by telling you she was a headliner."

Of Course.

Lou—'Tis love that makes the world go 'round.

Sue—What we really need is something to make the marriageable young men go 'round.

Attention PEOPLE!

Don't forget that the Gruetzmacher Bros. handle all kinds of stoves such as heaters, cook stoves and steel ranges.

Also a full line of hardware, groceries, flour and feed.

A complete line of implements also paints, oils and varnishes.

Rock and barrel salt. Barb wire and field fence.

Yours to please at the old stand,

Gruetzmacher Bros.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOW

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE. LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STATE. Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. ... d-ys tr atment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund ... All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines ... detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by mail ... press. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage. ... low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for terms ... sultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call ... to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without ... harmful instruments. Our ... fully explains.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the ... causing nervous debility, ... of the nervous system, etc., permanently cured.

BLOOD POISON —That terrible disease ... its stages, cured for life. Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, and all ... private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few days ... pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application ... description of above diseases ... effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrapper.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINES

RUPTURE, PILES

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolutely reliable and permanent. Write to or call and ... the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were afflicted ... Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia. — Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia. — E. C. Miller, Des Moines, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia. — John H. Looby, Des Moines, Ia.

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you ... postage paid. This book contains ... much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonial letters ...

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the ... Write today—it will pay you.

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES, IOWA

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:40 p. m.
82 ..... 2:50 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:35 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

PATENTS

DESIGNS
TRADE-MARKS
AND COPYRIGHTS
OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"

Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,

E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

McCALL PATTERNS 10¢ AND 15¢ NONE HIGHER

McCALL'S ... INCLUDING ...

McCALL PATTERNS
Celebrated for style, perfect fit, ... reliability nearly 40 years. Sold ... every city and town in the United ... Canada, or by mail direct. More ... any other make. Send for free ...

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
More subscribers than any other ... magazine—million a month. Invaluable styles, patterns, dressmaking, ... plain sewing, fancy needlework, ... etiquette, good stories, etc. Only ... year (worth double), including a ... Subscribe today, or send for sample ...

WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS to Agents. Postal brings premium ... and new cash prize offers. Address ...

THE McCALL CO., 238 to 248 W. 37th St., ...

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else ... In nervous prostration and ... weaknesses they are the ... remedy, as thousands have ...

FOR KIDNEY, LIVER ... STOMACH TROUBLES ...

it is the best medicine ever ... over a druggist's counter ...

Just Dust It on ...
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls ... work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bo... Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid ...
Money Back if Not Satisfied ...
The RED STAR HEALING ...
(25c. and 50c. Cans). GAR...

THE KLEMME TIMES

VOLUME XIII. NUMBER 51 | KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, JULY 22, 1909. | $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

ust as a few bushels of wheat planted in e ground become many bushels of grain, so will the oney you put in our bank from time to time become a g sum. The interest we will pay you will help it grow.

¶ Do not forget that we are pleased to place ¶ the facilities of this bank at your disposal
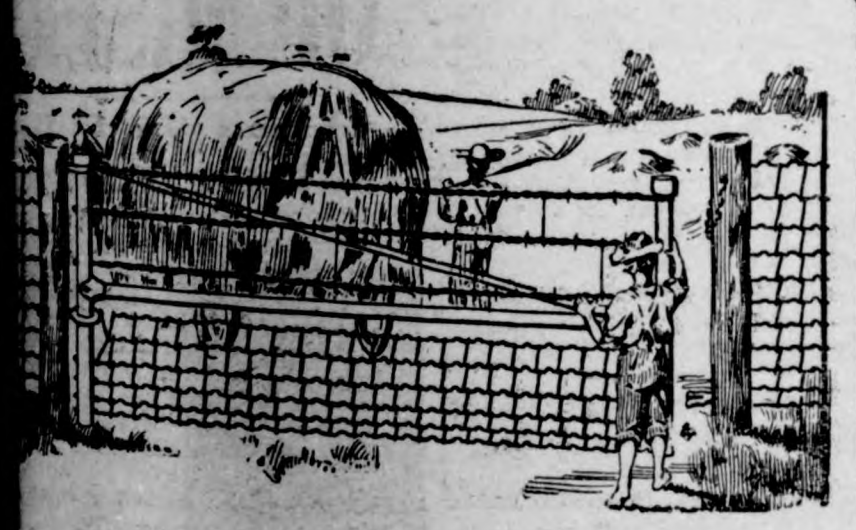
¶ and solicit your business. — — — — ¶

State Savings Bank.

lemme - - Iowa



owa Gates are more than a convenience if women or children ever use them for being so simple they are very light and can easily be ng either way. The IOWA gate is made to last—no castings to ak—no wearing parts—even the wires have galvanized stretchers ighten them. Will not blow down, burn or rot out. Get prices.

H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE L'ARSEN, AGENT
KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J. W. WATERMAN

NO CIGARETTES FOR IOWA MINORS

Many Changes in Laws of Iowa Went Into Effect July 4th.—A Few Important Ones.

Various changes were made in the laws of Iowa by the Thirty-third General Assembly, which changes went into effect July 4th. After that date the changes in the primary election law which requires rotation of names of candidates on the ballot goes into effect.

Now it is the duty of the county attorney to enforce the law and sheriffs will have to exercise themselves in uncovering evidence for the county prosecutor. Reporters in court get an increase in salary from $6 to $8 per day. No longer can clerks and judges of election place their own names on jury lists, for the law exempts them from jury service. Jurors who do serve will receive $2.50 per day instead of $2. Lawyers will no longer be accepted as surety on bonds for persons accused of crime.

No minor is allowed to smoke cigarettes—or if he does he is subject to a fine of $10. Search warrants may be issued for searching for cigarettes kept illegally the same as liquor. There will be no more public school fraternities or secret societies. First cousins can no longer marry within the state.

Compulsory education of deaf and blind children is in vogue and the tax for dependent soldiers and sailors is increased from one-half to one mill. Counties can levy a tax to support hospitals bequeathed to the county, and the public funds of counties must be placed at interest. The old law of assumption of risk, which placed the responsibility on an employe when he worked with defective machinery has been changed, and the responsibility shifts to the employer when he is informed of the defects. Then contributary negligence will no longer bar recovery, but will be a question for the jury to decide upon with regard to fixing the amount of damages to be awarded. Employers must have proof of age of minor children and they must be over 14 years old.

Saloons will be limited in mulct cities to one for each 1000 inhabitants and liquor drinking on trains is absolutely forbidden. There is now inspection of hotels with the requirement that they be both sanitary and safe.

There are some laws that will be of interest in rural districts. Hedge fence must be properly trimmed each year. Eight noxious weeds are described and must be kept mowed down. A lawful fence is legally declared to be "three rails not less than six inches wide and three-quarters of an inch thick."

The state normal school at Cedar Falls will hereafter be known as the "State Teachers College," and the old county poor farms will be referred to by the dignified name of "county homes."

Will Enforce New Weed Law in Wright County

Dows Advocate: We herewith publish a portion of a letter from the county attorney Bradford Knapp, to all township trustees: "35 G. A. Ch. 96 is the new 'Weed Law.' Under it weeds must be destroyed on highways and private grounds as well, and all township trustees are amenable to a fine of not more than $100 for failure to perform their duty under this act. Report to me if private persons refuse or neglect to destroy weeds and I will prosecute them.

"I further desire that you report to me every case within your townships where persons have tiled into the public road where the tiling on their own places cuts through rises of the ground and brings water out of its natural course and casts it upon the public highway and the same has resulted in damage to the highway. It is my intention to bring action in these cases and see if we cannot stop this practice."

IT

Should be borne in mind that saving money is the start towards wealth. Every man get rich, but everyone can save something. No matter how small your income may be, if you make up your mind to lay up part of your earnings every week, it may

CAN'T

RAIN

and then rain some more, but with a snug little sum to your credit in the bank you can laugh at hard times and poverty. While the Sun of Prosperity is shining is the time to save for the rainy days that are bound to come. If you have not already started an account with us, do it now. A good beginning is half the battle.

ALWAYS

The First National Bank

CAPITAL $25,000

Sees Mother Grow Young

"It would be hard to over-state the wonderful change in my mother since she began to use Electric Bitters," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick of Danforth, Me. "Although past 70 she seems really to be growing young again. She suffered untold misery from dyspepsia for 20 years. At last she could neither eat, drink nor sleep. Doctors gave her up and all remedies failed till Electric Bitters worked such wonders for her health." They invigorate all vital organs, cure liver and Kidney troubles, induce sleep, impart strength and appetite. Only 50c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

Another Easy Mark

The Waverly Independent tells of a band of gypsies who visited Charles City and worked various grafts. A Mr. Tubbs there permitted one of the women to tell him his fortune. In the process she had to have some money to do the trick with, and Mr. Tubbs considerately handed her his purse with $60 in it. The woman told the fortune and began counting the bills, stroking them with her hand. She told Mr. Tubbs not to be alarmed, as she would not take his money, and finally put the money back in the purse and handed it to him and he dropped it into his pocket, thinking no more about it till night. When he counted the money he found that $30 was missing. On account of all gypsy women looking alike to Mr. Tubbs, he is unable to locate the one who took his coin.

Iowa Shows 'Em

Prof. Holden, of the Iowa Agricultural College, "stood up for Iowa" rather effectively at Brookings, S. D., the other day. Gov. Vessey had made a patriotic talk, from the South Dakota viewpoint, telling how the natural resources of South Dakota were being properly developed, and suggesting that South Dakota now is or soon will be greater than Iowa in all lines of agriculture. When Prof. Holden's turn came he did not feel called upon to enter upon an elaborate defense of Iowa's agricultural prestige. Instead, he asked all members of the audience, a large outdoor gathering of farmers and their families, who had come from Iowa or who had ever lived there to hold up their hands. The hands of a large majority of the audience promptly went up. "No wonder you have the greatest state in the Union," smilingly remarked Prof. Holden, turning to Gov. Vessey. The governor and the audience saw the point and the spontaneous applause which followed was intended for both Iowa and South Dakota.—Ex.

In a suburb of Paris is a factory where cinematograph films are made. The company operating the business has a large tract of land fitted up as an ampitheater, within which are enacted the blood-curdling scenes which delight audiences in the moving picture shows. Recently pictures were made depicting the death of a young Christian maiden in a den of lions. Vestal virgins, courtiers and knights marched around the arena and then took seats safely outside a huge cage. A young girl was strapped upon a cross within the cage and seventeen real lions were let loose. The lions were exceptionally hungry and made short work of the poor martyr. They had been borrowed from an animal show and had been kept without food for three or four days. They tore the maiden limb from limb and spilled her blood all over the cage, but the maiden didn't even scream for help—her flesh was paper mache stuffed with raw beefsteaks.—Kensett News.

In 1915

Suddenly the great game in the summer of 1915 stopped.

"What's the trouble?" shouted the grandstand. "Let the game go on!"

"Make them play!" thundered the bleachers. "Soak the umpire!"

Just then the manager came out and held up his hand.

"Patience, gentlemen, patience! The game will go on just as soon as the fly cops can chase that fleet of airships from over the diamond. Those on them are catching the balls as fast as they are batted upward."

And then the fly cops began to fly from every direction.—Chicago News.

For the Public Good

One hears a good deal about the power of the press, but the fact is that no newspaper has very much real power over men or events in these days unless it is known to be standing sanely and steadfastly for the welfare of the whole community and nation. The day of party organs is past. Sensational papers appealing to popular passions cannot move thoughtful men—the men who make history. The only kind of newspaper that really has tremendous power in these days is the independent, reliable, disinterested journal of wide circulation, whose columns are known to stand always for the general good—for public honesty and a square deal, whatever happens. An excellent example of this sort of journalism is the Chicago Record-Herald. It has the enormous circulation that deservedly goes with the printing of all the news, but its power lies in its wise, conservative, independent editorial policy, which is shaped with one sole end in view—the public good. Its news and critical columns show the same spirit.

Life 100,000 Years Ago

Scientists have found in a cave in Switzerland bones of men, who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was in constant danger from wild beasts. Today the danger, as shown by A. W. Brown, of Alexander, Me., is largely from deadly disease. "If it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me, I could not have lived," he writes, "suffering as I did from a severe lung trouble and stubborn cough." To cure sore lungs, colds, obstinate coughs, and prevent pneumonia, it's the best medicine on earth. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co. Trial bottle free.

RACTICAL FORESTRY AS TAUGHT IN IOWA SCHOOLS.

Studying in the Woods.

A good beginning has been made in practical forestry in the schools of Iowa, the commencement being in the schools in Pottawattamie county. A recent dispatch from Washington stated that forestry is attracting wide attention among the schools of the United States. Not only have many colleges and universities introduced courses and even professional schools of forestry, but elementary phases of the subject have been introduced into hundreds of the graded and high schools, and teachers give enthusiastic reports of the success which is attending the new study. Public school teachers say that they have found in it a subject interesting to the children, and one which furnishes much attractive, tangible material to work upon, developing the child's observation, and being at once acceptable to the young mind, and most practical.

The work in Pottawattamie county was especially mentioned. This work had its inception in the suggestions made by Prof. W. N. Clifford, formerly superintendent of schools at Council Bluffs, who is now devoting part of his time to the work of the forestry bureau in Washington promoting the study in schools. It was taken up and carried to perfection, however, by Prof. E. R. Jackson, the county superintendent, who had worked it out very carefully and is making a success of it.

Accompanying this are snapshot views of the work actually being done in sub-district No. 2, Lewis township, under the direction of J. M. Tannehill, with Miss Margaret Fisher as teacher. The county superintendent visited the school at the invitation of the teacher on the day set for the trip to the woods. Before leaving the schoolhouse the pupils were told to hunt for certain things, such as trees planted to prevent erosion, girdling of trees, sprouting from stumps, etc. In less than ten minutes after reaching the woods two of the boys came tumbling down the hill crying: "We've found them; we've found them."

In regard to this work in Pottawattamie county, Supt. Jackson says:

"Personally, I have always felt a keen interest in nature study, and as a boy knew all the trees and flowers in the vicinity of my father's farm. As I grew older, I became more and more convinced that an acquaintance with nature had an ennobling effect on boys and girls. Then there is also the commercial side, for every one who is at all observant has realized the immense benefit the few trees still left us are to the soil, the air and to mankind directly and indirectly.

"So when this opportunity presented itself, I was glad to take up and spread among the schools of this county the more or less systematic study of forestry. The plan followed is outlined quite fully in letters which were sent out to school teachers in the county. Out of the 50 teachers to whom the first letter was sent, nearly 40 responded. To each of these a second letter was sent. A circular containing the outline of work was also prepared. The wood charts were of heavy cardboard and contained spaces for 40 specimens.

"It is too early to say much as to results yet. The completed charts and reports are coming in now. Usually, the parents of the pupils were interested and encouraged to work. Occasionally they objected, but I did not ask any teacher to continue in such cases unless she desired to do so. A great majority of the schools collected more than the 40 specimens required to fill the charts. Some have as many as 50 or 60. Some schools expect to continue the collections along other lines, and will begin next fall to collect seeds, grains, leaves, etc. Each chart was accompanied by a folder containing blanks for complete reports on each specimen collected. These were to be filled out following directions given in a key.

"Arbor day was observed appropriately in nearly all the schools of the county. Last year over 400 trees were planted on the school grounds of the county. This year, although I have no definite report, I believe almost as good results were obtained. In many cases shrubs, rose bushes and flowering plants also were set out.

"Some excellent reports on specimens have been compiled, and some interesting experiences are related by the teachers. The following, which is a copy of the first report filed last spring, will indicate what has been accomplished in most of the schools:

"'We followed outline as near as possible, covering about three-fourths of it with fairly good success. The 'Forestry Primer,' and 'Native and Planted Trees of Iowa,' proved most interesting to pupils. Our school has made a collection of 40 specimens, and has acquired a familiarity with trees in general. They have made complete reports on 12 specimens. My pupils have made an extensive study of home geography, but do not expect to exhibit any work at the county fair. We observed Arbor day with a program and have made two trips to the woods.'"

Forestry Class in Pottawattamie County.

MILLIONAIRE NOW A LAWYER

H. L. Polk.

At the last session of the Iowa supreme court there was admitted to the bar one of the richest young men of the state—Harry L. Polk of Des Moines. Mr. Polk is the president and general manager of the interurban lines running from Des Moines to Colfax and to Perry and is one of the heaviest stockholders in the city lines of the capital city. But in preparation for a business career he followed the example of his illustrious father and sought admission to the bar. He took the examination along with scores of young men who have not a dollar in the world and he received no favors at the hands of the committee.

MAGAZINE HAS SUSPENDED.

Sam Small, preacher, temperance lecturer and writer, erstwhile editor of the Golden West magazine, has absented himself from Waterloo and the financial backers of the publication have suspended it. Many readers have been patiently waiting for the July number. Many have quit waiting, for they have received word that there will be no July number and possibly no number at all. Small made his headquarters in Des Moines last year. He announced that he would establish a magazine in the west that would be national in its policy. Business men of Waterloo heard of this and came forward with a good financial offer. Small accepted the offer and went to Waterloo several months ago. Since that time two numbers of this magazine have appeared. W. P. Soash, wealthy Texas land dealer, was one of the chief backers.

EASTERNER LOST IN IOWA.

Charles L. Brinsmade, a New York capitalist, en route for Wyoming on a big land deal, was basely deserted in Creston and in his efforts to overtake his train a special was chartered and a thrilling run was made into Lincoln, Neb., where No. 9 was overtaken after leaving Creston almost 60 minutes ahead of the special. The dining car on No. 9 is always switched off there and when it was cut out it contained Mr. Brinsmade, who leisurely finished his dinner as his train pulled out. As soon as he comprehended the situation he climbed out and over the switch tracks to the offices, where he produced a roll of bills and asked the price of a special. Leaving $350 behind him, he climbed aboard a special.

NEW HEAD OF IOWA'S ELKS.

Lloyd R. Maxwell.

Lloyd R. Maxwell of Marshalltown, the new head of the order of Elks in Iowa, is a traveling man for a carriage company. He is president of the State Golf association and is an enthusiastic sportsman.

To Develop Submarine Mining.

Following the example set by Germany, the Russian admiralty intends to devote far more attention to submarine mining. Five mining transports are to be ordered from the three leading Russian shipbuilding yards.

World's Most Populous City.

London has a population of 4,7[illegible],75[illegible]

SURPRISED AT THE SCHEDULE

Colored Man Felt He Was Being Railroaded Into the Class of "High Financiers."

A colored man was tried the other day before a Charlestown court for stealing some clothes from a young white man. A pretty clear case was made out against the colored man and he confessed.

"I reckon I ain't got nothin' to say, white folks," he said with humility, "'ceptin' hit's jes laik it is."

"Well, since you admit your guilt," said the judge, "I will try to make it light for you. But first we will have to get an estimate of the value of the clothing. Mr. Plaintiff, what do you value these articles at?"

"The dress suit cost me $80, your honor," replied the young man, "the overcoat $75 and the silk hat $10."

"Mr. Jedge," broke in the accused, "I'd lak ter say des one word befo' you goes any fudder."

"All right; go ahead."

"I submit dat I tuk dem clo'es, boss man, but at no sich prices as dem!"

THAT FROZE HIM.

"I suppose," he said, ingratiatingly, "you often get spoken to by men?"

"Yes," she replied, "and by monkeys. But to-night there don't seem to be any men about!"

A Case for Sympathy.

Two matrons of a certain western city, whose respective matrimonial ventures did not in the first instance prove altogether satisfactory, met at a woman's club one day, when the first matron remarked:

"Hattie, I met your 'ex,' dear old Tom, the day before yesterday. We talked much of you."

"Is that so?" asked the other matron. "Did he seem sorry when you told him of my second marriage?"

"Indeed, he did; and said so most frankly!"

"Honest?"

"Honest! He said he was extremely sorry, though, he added, he didn't know the man personally."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Laymen Combat White Plague.

According to recent figures published by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, nearly 50 per cent. of those enlisted in the active campaign against consumption are laymen, and the percentage of laymen has tripled in the last four years.

Innovation.

Stella—Did she have an unusual wedding?

Bella—Yes; the church was decorated with common tropical plants instead of the rare.

HOME TESTING
A Sure and Easy Test on Coffee.

To decide the all important question of coffee, whether or not it is really the hidden cause of physical ails and approaching fixed diseases, one should make a test of ten days by leaving off coffee entirely and using well-made Postum.

If relief follows you may know to a certainty that coffee has been your vicious enemy. Of course you can take it back to your heart again, if you like to keep sick.

A lady says: "I had suffered with stomach trouble, nervousness and terrible sick headaches ever since I was a little child, for my people were always great coffee drinkers and let us children have all we wanted. I got so I thought I could not live without coffee, but I would not acknowledge that it caused my suffering.

"Then I read so many articles about Postum that I decided to give it a fair trial. I had not used it two weeks in place of coffee until I began to feel like a different person. The headache and nervousness disappeared and whereas I used to be sick two or three days out of a week while drinking coffee I am now well and strong and sturdy seven days a week, thanks to Postum.

"I had been using Postum three months and had never been sick a day when I thought I would experiment and see if it really was coffee that caused the trouble, so I began to drink coffee again and inside of a week I had a sick spell. I was so ill I was soon convinced that coffee was the cause of all my misery and I went back to Postum with the result that I was soon well and strong again and determined to stick to Postum and leave coffee alone in the future."

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

SHE HAD HIM ON THE HOO

Maiden Well Knew Lover Could N Resist Culinary Bait She Had So Cleverly Cast.

Janet had molded the domestic a fairs of the family with whom s lived for so many years that the ne of her intended marriage had mu the effect of an earthquake. "Ha you and David been engaged long ventured the mistress of the hou hold.

"One week when next Sabba comes," stated Janet briefly.

"And—and had you any thought marrying before that?" asked her m tress.

"Times I had and times I had no said the imperturbable Janet, "as a person will. But a month ago wh I gave David a wee bit of the ca I'd been making and he said to m 'Janet, have you the recipe firm your mind, lass, so you could ma it if Mrs. Mann's book would be f from your reach?' I knew well t time was drawing short.

"And when," said Janet, closing h eyes at the recollection, "I said him, 'David, lad, the recipe is copi in a little book of my own,' and I m the glint in his eye I reckon 'twould be within the month he'd m me."

A Series of Breakages.

"Banks had his engagement b ken."

"Did he take it hard?"

"Yes; after it was broken off, was all broken up, and then he bro down."

Important to Mothers.
Examine carefully every bottle CASTORIA a safe and sure remedy f infants and children, and see that

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

In Use For Over 30 Years.
The Kind You Have Always Boug

Each of us has the power of maki happier, sunnier, the little spot whe in our daily life is spent.—Archbish of Canterbury.

Imitations are all bought by carele folk. Yet one glance shows you t spear of real Wrigley's Spearmint.

Life has one great purpose, t growth of character.—Wesley.

AFTER FOUR YEARS OF MISER

Cured by Lydia E. Pin ham's Vegetable Compou

Baltimore, Md.—"For four ye my life was a misery to me. I suffer from irregula ties, terrible dr ging sensatio extreme nervo ness, and that gone feeling in stomach. I h given up hope ever being w when I began take Lydia E. Pin ham's Vegeta Compound. Th I felt as thou new life had be given me, and I am recommending to all my friends."—Mrs. W. S. Fow 1038 Lansdowne St., Baltimore, Md.

The most successful remedy in t country for the cure of all forms female complaints is Lydia E. Pin ham's Vegetable Compound. It h stood the test of years and to-day more widely and successfully used th any other female remedy. It has cur thousands of women who have be troubled with displacements, infla mation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, regularities, periodic pains, backac that bearing-down feeling, flatulen indigestion, and nervous prostrati after all other means had failed.

If you are suffering from any of th ailments, don't give up hope until y have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Ve table Compound a trial.

If you would like special advi write to Mrs. Pinkham, Ly Mass., for it. She has guid thousands to health, free charge.

SICK HEADACH

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cured these Little Pill

They also relieve D tress from Dyspepsia digestion and Too Hea Eating. A perfect r edy for Dizziness, N sea, Drowsiness, B Taste in the Mouth, C ed Tongue, Pain in Side, TORPID LIV

They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegeta

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PR

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature

Brent Good

REFUSE SUBSTITUT

WHY PEOPLE SUFFER.

o often the kidneys are the cause the sufferer is not aware of it. kidneys bring backache and side , lameness and stiffness, dizzi- headaches, tired feeling, urinary troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills cure the cause. Mrs. N. E. Graves, Villisca, Iowa, says: "I suffered from kidney trouble for years. The secretions were disordered, there e pains in my back and swellings he ankles. Often I had smother- spells. I had to be helped about. n's Kidney Pills cured me five rs ago and I have been well since. y saved my life." emember the name—Doan's. For by all dealers. 50 cents a box. ter-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

KNEW SOMETHING OF IT.

Williams (shaking his fountain n)—You have no idea how easily e pens run!

His Neighbor (applying a blotter to trousers)—Oh, I have an inkling.

No Need of Interference.

The two neighbors who were pass- the little cottage heard sounds as a terrific conflict inside and pped to listen.

Presently they heard a loud thump, if somebody had fallen to the floor.

"Grogan is beating his wife again!" ey said.

Bursting the door open, they rushed to the house.

"What's the trouble here?" they de- anded.

"Ther' ain't no trouble, gentlemen," lmly answered Mrs. Grogan, who d her husband down and was sit- g on his head, "Gwan!"

Shortcake.

The strawberry shortcake, I love it, love it! I prize it more dearly than ngue dare to tell! No sherbet or pud- g or pie is above it; there's nothing pastry I like half so well. Just give e a section as large as a platter, th freshly crushed berries spread er the lot, and I am contented and ppy, no matter what ailment or ouble or sorrows I've got. Ho, bring the shortcake, the strawberry ortcake, and always and ever I'm ck-on-the-spot!—Los Angeles Ex- ess.

Spectacular Oil Fire.

The most spectacular fire ever wit- ssed in the oil industry was at one the Des Bocas wells in Mexico. bout 60,000 barrels of oil were rned up daily for nearly two nths. The flames rose to heights 800 to 1,400 feet.

Nothing causes a young widow to up and take notice quicker than e discovery that another widow is the trail of the man she has spotted r No. 2.

Keenest Delights of Appetite and Anticipation

e realized in the first taste of de- cious

Post Toasties

and Cream

The golden-brown bits are sub- antial enough to take up the eam; crisp enough to make ushing them in the mouth an quisite pleasure; and the fla- —that belongs only to Post oasties—

"The Taste Lingers"

This dainty, tempting food is ade of pearly white corn, cooked, lled and toasted into "Toasties."

gular pkg; 10c; Large Family size 15c

Made by POSTUM CEREAL CO., LTD., Battle Creek, Mich.

CAN MAKE A LIVING

Iowa Paroled Convicts Justify Faith Placed in Them

STATE PAYS THE BEST WAGES

Only 7 Per Cent of Total Number of Paroled Men Have Failed to Make Good, According to Pardon Clerk's Report.

Des Moines, July 17.—Higher wages for paroled convicts and fewer violations of parole in Iowa than in any other state in the union is the highly gratifying showing made for the parole board and former Governor A. B. Cummins in the first table of comparative statistics ever prepared, which was completed by Miss Anna B. Cummins, pardon clerk in the office of Governor Carroll.

During the five year period ended Jan. 1, only 7 per cent of the total number paroled have failed to make good their promises of reform, or fifteen out of a total of 205. Of the 190 paroled convicts who have made good, complying with the conditions of their parole, the average monthly earnings are $49.76 each. Many of these men are working on farms and their earnings do not include board and lodging.

In Indiana the average monthly earnings of paroled convicts from the state reformatory is only $32.04, or less than two-thirds of the Iowa average. Other states show still smaller earnings.

Miss Cummins compared the record of paroled convicts who have violated their paroles in Iowa during the year 1908 with the same records in five other state, and found that whereas the convicts who failed to make good in Iowa during this year were only 10 per cent, in Michigan, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana the proportion was from 13 to 29 per cent.

"Undoubtedly the good showing is partly due to the extremely conservative policy of the parole board," said Miss Cummins. "The proportion of those paroled to those committed in this state is very small, being 8 per cent. During the period of five years ending Jan. 1, 1909, the total number of commitments to the penitentiary at Fort Madison and the reformatory at Anamosa was 2,154, while during the same period there were paroled of this number only 175, being 8 per cent. In addition to this number there were paroled before commitment during this period, 30 convicts, making the total number paroled during this five-year period 205."

Files Ten Complaints.

Ten prosecutions under the pure food laws were begun by State Food and Dairy Commissioner H. R. Wright, who mailed informations and chemists' reports to the various county attorneys where Mr. Wright's inspectors have been at work. The list of defendants follows:

Grand Union Tea company of Dubuque, charged with selling essence of wintergreen with artificial colorings and low in oil.

E. J. Edwards of Alta, H. Ahrens of Mapleton, W. C. and M. Rauscher of Mount Sterling and J. G. Cox of Mount Vernon, charged with selling adulterated linseed oil, in each case purchased from the American Linseed Oil company of Omaha.

Ira De Young of Keokuk, charged with selling imported French peas colored with sulphate of copper.

R. O. Smith of Bloomfield, charged with selling mislabeled vanilla flavoring extract.

G. Highley of Atlantic and A. B. Buffham of Oxford Junction, charged with selling mislabeled vanilla extract.

Charles B. Moore of Dubuque, charged with selling strawberry pop sweetened with saccharin.

Isaac Brandt Is Compiling Report.

Isaac Brandt is compiling a report of the deaths of all the old settlers of Iowa, at the request of a number of the different old settlers' societies. The report will cover all of the deaths during the last ten years and will include persons who have lived in Iowa forty years or more. Mr. Brandt is attempting to make the report an official one, and has announced that it will take him until Aug. 11 to complete it. He is one of the oldest settlers of Iowa and is intimately acquainted with practically every other early settler.

To Buy Farm Horses.

That the United States army authorities contemplate the purchase of Iowa horses is indicated by an order received by Colonel West directing that Lieutenant Robt. J. Raney visit all the towns within a radius of seventy-five miles of Des Moines and investigate the horse raising industry of the state, with a view to ascertaining what breeds of horses are most successfully raised in Iowa.

To Sell Great Western Property.

An ancillary decree was filed and an order made in the United States circuit court authorizing the sale of all Iowa property of the Chicago, Great Western railroad company, which became insolvent several months ago. The Iowa property is valued at fifteen or twenty million dollars and will be sold with the entire system at public auction in the city of St. Paul, Minn., by Albert E. Moore, special master in chancery, who was appointed by Judge Sanborn of the United States circuit court of appeals.

Lunatic to Sue State for $27,000,000.4

Notice of a suit for $27,000,000, which will shortly be started against the state of Iowa was received at the office of Governor Carroll. The suit will be started in the courts of the United States, Switzerland and Louisiana. The plaintiff is seeking to recover the foregoing sum because of "lousy treatment" at the Mount Pleasant asylum for the insane. Said plaintiff is Harvey Ryan, an inmate of the institution. It was a letter from him which gave Governor Carroll the first intimation of the impending suit.

100 Acres of Ground for Troops.

The army officers detailed to lay out the camp for the military tournament to be held in Des Moines, Sept. 20 to 26 have found that there is not enough room within the state fair grounds for encamping all the troops. The Commercial club committee in charge of the tournament has closed a lease for the use of thirty-five acres of additional ground lying south of the Rock Island entrance to the fair grounds. Altogether there will be about 100 acres of ground used for encamping the troops.

Fight for Junken Reward.

John W. Gray, a private detective at Ottumwa, was in Des Moines to present to Governor Carroll his claims for the $300 reward which was offered by the state for the arrest and conviction of John Junken, slayer of Clara Rosen of Ottumwa. Mr. Gray's visit brings out the fact that there are many claimants for the Junken reward and there is likely to be a spirited fight before the final decision is made as to who is entitled to the credit for capturing the negro.

Coming In Slowly.

Iowa corporations have been very slow in paying the $1 annual license fee required by a new law passed last winter at the instance of Secretary of State W. C. Hayward. So far only about 2,000 corporations have responded to the letters sent out by the secretary, although there are between 5,000 and 6,000 corporations actively engaged in business. About 4,000 of the letters sent to corporations have been returned marked "out of business."

Interurban King Comes to Iowa.

Des Moines, Iowa.—The purchase of the plant of the Des Moines Electric company by Congressman William B. McKinley of Champaign, Ill., and his declaration that he would favorably consider the development of any attractive field for interurban railroads in Iowa confirmed the rumor that has been prevalent for several days that Mr. McKinley would invade the Des Moines and Iowa field with his enterprises.

Brewers Enjoined.

On a petition filed by attorneys for its creditors, the Ottumwa Brewing and Ice company has been enjoined in United States district court from paying out any money without an order of court, or from removing from Ottumwa banks to places of deposit in any other city. A petition in bankruptcy for the concern was filed in June.

Establish Retreat.

A. E. Kepford, state tuberculosis lecturer, will send broadcast over the state a letter urging each county to establish retreats for the care of its advanced tuberculosis patients. In doing this the counties will only be taking advantage of the new county hospital law passed last winter by the Iowa legislature.

Miller President of Police Chiefs.

Des Moines, Iowa.—Police chiefs representing twenty-two Iowa cities and towns in convention effected a permanent organization which will be known as the Iowa Association of Police Chiefs. Chief of Police Miller of Des Moines, was by unanimous vote chosen as president.

Will Be Twice as Large.

Officers in charge of the coming military tourney to be held in Des Moines during the third week of September have returned from Toledo Ohio, where they witnessed a similar show. "It is a most wonderful sight," declared Geis Botsford, secretary of the Commercial club, "and beggars description. One has to see it to comprehend its magnitude. Our show will be twice as large."

A NEW "FEAT."

"Mummy! Mummy! look, here's baby walking on his hind legs."

Consistently Opposed.

"That actor is a queer fellow, as contradictory as he can be, even in his roles."

"What do you mean?"

"At present he is playing a crooked character in a straight drama."

A Rare Good Thing.

"Am using ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE, and can truly say I would not have been without it so long, had I known the relief it would give my aching feet. I think it a rare good thing for anyone having sore or tired feet.—Mrs. Matilda Holtwert, Providence, R. I." Sold by all Druggists, 25c. Ask to-day.

The greatest help to overcoming mistakes is acknowledging them.—Burrows.

The battle without goes as goes the battle within.

Real or counterfeit? Real mint leaf flavored Wrigley's Spearmint or rank imitations?

A man may live justly by avoiding what he blames in others.—Montaigne.

BEAUTIFUL WHITE CLOTHES are a delight to the eye. Be sure to get them by using RUSS BLUE. 5c at grocers.

Use your little hammer for nailing lies, but don't be a knocker.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

A good life is the readiest way to secure a good name.—Whichcot.

What flavor lasts? The real mint flavor in Wrigley's Spearmint.

Only a putty life is afraid of being worn out.

DAILY and SUNDAY FOR $1.00

The Des Moines Daily and Sunday News six full months for $1.00. Paper stops when time is out unless you renew.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT

Buy a Wabash Wagon

From your dealer or direct from our factory

40 styles and sizes for boys and girls of all ages from babyhood up, and larger Handy Wagons for men.

Illustrated price list FREE. WRITE FOR IT!

WABASH MANUFACTURING COMPANY 14 Mill St., Wabash, Indiana

Saves Time—Saves Money

NO STROPPING NO HONING

Gillette

KNOWN THE WORLD OVER

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c, and $1.00 at Druggists

LAND—IRRIGATED—LAND. Perpetual water right; fine water; productive soil; crop failures unknown; 50 bu. wheat per acre; 3½ to 5 tons alfalfa; healthful climate; free timber; easy terms; write now. LINWOOD LAND CO., Rock Springs, Wyoming.

WRIGLEY WRIGLEY WRIGLEY

Des Moines Directory

The State Insurance Company

of Des Moines, Iowa, has paid over FOUR MILLION DOLLARS for

Fire, Lightning and Tornado Losses

The season is on—get a Policy now.

Prompt and fair treatment is our motto.

W. N. U., DES MOINES, NO. 30–1909.

Famous English Detective Tries to Catch the French Gentleman Criminal

Arsène Lupin is bold. He announces beforehand in the papers what his next move is going to be. His story begins in the August number of

Short Stories

The first instalment is "No. 514—Series 23." It is a story that will hold your interest. The French Police finally give up in their attempt to trap the wily Lupin and send to England for Herlock Sholmes. Then follows a battle of wits. The clever French rogue against the keen reasoning English detective.

Send us $1.50 for a year's subscription to "Short Stories" and follow the fascinating, amusing Lupin. Every month, too, there are numbers of good, crisp, short stories printed in big, clear type. Every newsdealer can handle your subscription.

Short Stories Company, Ltd.
135 East 16th Street New York City

Paxtine

TOILET ANTISEPTIC

—NOTHING LIKE IT FOR—

THE TEETH Paxtine excels any dentifrice in cleansing, whitening and removing tartar from the teeth, besides destroying all germs of decay and disease which ordinary tooth preparations cannot do.

THE MOUTH Paxtine used as a mouth-wash disinfects the mouth and throat, purifies the breath, and kills the germs which collect in the mouth, causing sore throat, bad teeth, bad breath, grippe, and much sickness.

THE EYES when inflamed, tired, ache and burn, may be instantly relieved and strengthened by Paxtine.

CATARRH Paxtine will destroy the germs that cause catarrh, heal the inflammation and stop the discharge. It is a sure remedy for uterine catarrh.

Paxtine is a harmless yet powerful germicide, disinfectant and deodorizer. Used in bathing it destroys odors and leaves the body antiseptically clean.

FOR SALE AT DRUG STORES, 50c. OR POSTPAID BY MAIL.

LARGE SAMPLE FREE!

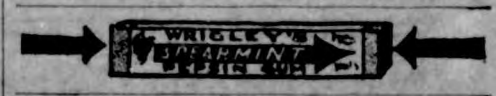
THE PAXTON TOILET CO., BOSTON, MASS.

WRIGLEY'S

Bad Taste

in your mouth removed while you wait—that's true. A Cascaret taken when the tongue is thick-coated with the nasty squeamish feeling in stomach, brings relief. It's easy, natural way to help nature help you. 903

CASCARETS—10c box—week's treatment. All druggists. Biggest seller in the world. Million boxes a month.



DAISY FLY KILLER placed anywhere attracts and kills all flies. Neat, clean, ornamental, convenient, cheap. Lasts all season. Cannot spill or tip over, will not soil or injure anything. Guaranteed effective. Of all dealers, or sent prepaid for 20c. Harold Somers, 150 De Kalb Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE FLAVOR LASTS

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Books free. Highest references. Best results.

For Sprains and Bruises and all pain, get A-B-C LINIMENT Sold by all Dealers.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water

HAMLINS WIZARD OIL THE OIL THAT PENETRATES GREAT FOR PAIN

GROCERIES & HARDWARE

We always have on hand a complete line. Our Groceries are always new and fresh and the line comprises all the staples and a dandy line of Canned Goods. Our line of Shelf and Heavy Hardware is complete. We invite you to call and inspect our goods.

We want you to see us about

OILS

Threshing season will soon be here. Our oils are the very best. Don't forget us.

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA

STOCK FOODS

We carry a full line of Dr. Hess' Scientific Veterinary Stock Preparations. These preparations have been thoroughly tried and proven to give absolute satisfaction. Dr. Hess & Clark guarantee back of every preparation.

Stock Food for horses and cattle.

Worm Powder for hogs and cattle.

Panacea for Gaps, Cholera and Roup. Makes the hens lay.

Instant Lice Killer kills Lice, Ticks, Fleas. A reliable disinfectant powder put up in cans with perforated top.

Heave Powder Always gives relief.

Distemper, Fever and Cough Remedy.

Healing Powder Heals from bottom and leaves no scar

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile. both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

Buy Your SCREENS NOW

The Flies Will Soon be Here

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, AGENT

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

Now comes Iowa City to the front reporting an earthquake shock. Wonder what kind of booze they drink down there?

Look out, you fishermen. One of the big crocodiles, about nine feet in length, weighing about 300 pounds, owned by the firm running a crocodile show in Eddyville, Iowa, escaped some time during Saturday night. In the morning when the keeper went to attend to their wants one of them was gone. A thorough search failed to reveal its whereabouts, and it is supposed to have gone into the DesMoines river.

Robert Ingersoll once said—"Make home the loafing place and playground of your children and ten chances to one the little feet that have tracked your floors with mud will not leave their foot prints along the paths of vice and crime; the sweet faces of your boys that have been such joy to you in their childhood will not adorn the rogue's gallery; the little hand that has been so often pressed to your lips will not push the chips across the gambler's table; the chubby arms of your daughters that haue so often entwined your neck will not be employed to embrace a street rowdy and the lips not pressed to those befouled with obscene language nor the wine that leads to shame."

The dapper little traveling man glanced at the menu card and then looked up at the pretty waitress. "Yes, it is, she answered, "and so was yesterday, and my name is Ella, and I know I am a peach and have pretty blue eyes, and I've been here quite a while and I like the place, and I don't think I'm too nice a girl to be working in a hotel; if I did I'd quit my job, and my wages are satisfactory, and I don't know if there is a show or dance in town tonight, and if there is I shall not go with you. and I'm from the country and I'm a respectable girl, and my brother is a cook in this hotel, and he weighs 200 pounds, last week he wiped up the dining room floor with a fresh fifty-dollar-a-month traveling man who tried to make a date with me. Now what will you have?" The dapper little traveling man said he was not very hungry and a cup of coffee and some hot cakes would do.

Is Good Material

It is learned through very good channels that in all probabilities Albert M. Deyoe of Hancock county will be a candidate for State Superintendent of Schools. Mr. Deyoe was a student of the Mason City schools in days gone by and was thorough in his work. He continued fitting himself for educational work and taught in the larger places and finally was elected to the superintendency of the Hancock county schools and was so well liked in that position that he has continued in that office for a good many years. Now the demand comes from all parts of the state for a man who understands the needs of the rural and the common schools, and in Mr. Deyoe we find that man. He would make an ideal State Superintendent, and here's hoping that he will receive the endorsement of all educators, and have no trouble in winning in the contest which will ensue.—Mason City Republican.

One Dollar

Mr. Farmer---It costs but a trifle more to buy printed letter heads and envelopes than it does to use any old thing, and certainly it looks more business-like to use printed stationery For a limited time we offer you 100 sheets good writing paper and 100 good envelopes, printed with your name and address, both for $1.00. Give us your order now.

The Times Printery

Elkhart Buggies

are the best made, best grade and easiest riding buggies on earth for the money.

FOR THIRTY-SIX YEARS

we have been selling direct and are The Largest Manufacturers in the World selling to the consumer exclusively.

We ship for examination and approval, guaranteeing safe delivery, and also to save you money. If you are not satisfied as to style, quality and price you are nothing out.

May We Send You Our Large Catalogue?

Elkhart Carriage & Harness Mfg. Co.
Elkhart, - - - - Indiana

Price $56.00 With Twin Auto Seat

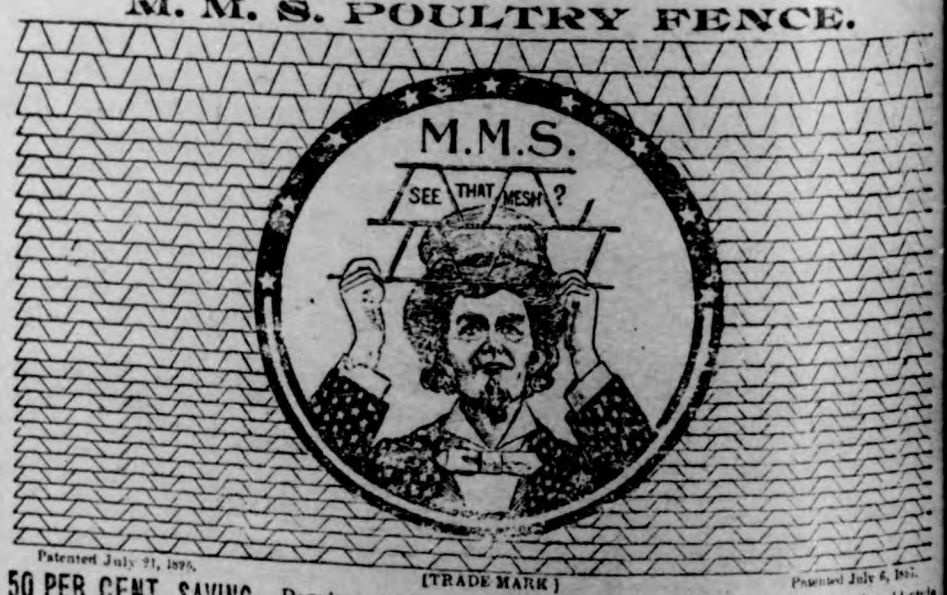
PETROLEUM COKE

A carload of COKE just received and another car to arrive soon. The supply is limited, so order at once as it has heretofore been impossible to get it later in the season. Also Best Grades in all Soft Coals at Prices that are RIGHT.

Highest Market Price Paid for Grain and Live Stock Six Days in the Week

H. C. LAU

M. M. S. POULTRY FENCE.



Patented July 21, 1896. (TRADE MARK) Patented July 6, 1897.

50 PER CENT. SAVING. Requires no top or bottom rail and only ¼ as many posts as the old style netting and makes a better fence. A full line of Field and Hog Fencing, Steel Picket Lawn Fence, Gates, Posts, Rail, etc. Write for full particulars.

UNION FENCE CO., De Kalb, Ill.

LEMME MARKET.

.....	60 to 62c
.....	38 to 40c
.....	80 to 100
.....	40 to 50c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	6.50 to 7.00
.....	3.00 to 6.00

CAL NEWS

fruits at Kluckhohn's.

Zinn tests eyes and es. 51tf more fine corn weather of the week.

Day left Monday on a outh Dakota.

Attorney Ramsey was e caller Tuesday.

nest line of candies in Kluckhohn's. 45tf rce Larsen has traded llac touring car for a he new ad of the First Bank on the first page .

Griewe made a business he county hub between uesday.

ain Hay Loaders are like hot cakes. They lies. See H. Lau & Son.

Bonnie Dow returned to e at Rake on Tuesday, eek's visit with Klem- ives.

lank is tearing up the len sidewalks along his e lots preparatory to in cement.

J. W. Scott and little rned home last Thurs- an extended visit with in Wisconsin.

h Ridder and family of visited here the past They made the trip in uto, returning home .

chneider, T. A. Potter itor Cornell, of Mason ere in Klemme a few Saturday on business, he trip by auto.

imes has about two or lumns of choice adver- ace for sale to any rep rm on the face of the o will pay the price.

Stiehl, Sr. was down rner last week Friday n friends and relatives. ehl always pulls the tch-string when he is me and he is always .

y Allen and his helpers cently finished new ce- lks in front of the Ger- eformed church; also e Times office south to and along the front of djoining the State Sav- k on the west.

Kluckhohn went to Friday, where he play- with the Dumont team Belmond. The latter n by a large majority— The same teams played Lake Saturday the ing 3 to 2 in favor of . "Bally" twirled the ee innings for Dumont good work.

obliged to take it for ill sell it out cheap; ess Stock Food. ess Poultry Panacea. ess Instant Louse Kill- ess Hog Worm Powder. ad at G. F. Schuler's Iowa.

Threshers Attention — W. R. Bloom has his threshing coal in, several varieties of the best qualities. Call and get prices. 51

Read Terhufen Bros. ad.

If you don't take the Times, you 0 2.

Read the new State Savings Bank ad.

Another soaker of a rain last Saturday night.

The Rock Island System has a change of ad.

G. W. Butts was up from Goodell Tuesday.

Mrs. Nissen returned home from Garner last Friday evening.

The Times enjoyed a very pleasant call from Wm. Greimann Monday.

Geo. Elder and family, of Northwood, visited here with relatives over Sunday.

Try Kluckhohn's ice cream soda with crushed fruit and you will become a regular customer.

Chas. Suckow is painting an elevator at Goodell this week. Mrs. Suckow and daughter Fern and Bonnie Dow drove down Monday.

F. A. Arnold and Fred Ridder were at Algona Tuesday. They went over to see the Glidden auto tourists who went through that town that day.

Among the names of physicians who have been granted certificates under reciprocity to practice in Iowa, we note the name of Edgar N. Zinn of this city.

N. L. Palmer and wife and Miss Vera Kimball left last Saturday evening for Clear Lake to spend Sunday, and on Monday they attended the Barnum and Bailey circus at Mason City.

Philip Bock cut one of the fingers on his right hand quite severely Monday morning while putting a sickle in the mowing machine. The sickle went in hard and he gave it a hard push and his hand slipped with the aboye result. The accident will put Philip on the retired list for a week or two, at least as far as haying is concerned.

Klemme people turned out quite well to the Garner base ball tournament this year and they saw some good ball and some awfully poor ball. A goodly number went up from here last Thursday to see the final game between Humboldt and the fast (?) Eldora team. Eldora has a much touted ball team, but they couldn't play a decent game of marbles, Humboldt simply wiping them off the face of the earth, the score being 12 to 2. It was so rotten that the odor could be detected a mile away. The ball games were all well attended and the merry-go-round did a rushing business, but the charge admission shows were all howling because the people didn't circulate their money more freely. We are told that Dr. Brackett and Bro. Kluckhohn buried the hatchet and went and had a drink of red lemonade and a ride on the merry go push together. The Garner base ball tournament for 1909 was then voted a grand success.

Tortured on a Horse

"For ten years I couldn't ride a horse without being in torture from piles," writes L. S. Napier, of Rugless, Ky., "when all doctors and other remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me." Infallible for piles, burns, scalds, cuts, boils, fever-sores, eczema, salt rheum, corns 25c. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

This is to call your attention to the new ad of State Savings Bank.

Frank Gruetzmacher was at Garner between trains yesterday.

Ice cream sodas. sundaes, and all kinds of cool refreshing drinks at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

Miss Alma and Gaezena Frohling of Belmond visited here with friends during the past week.

Arthur Wellemeyer is remodeling and improving the looks of the interior of his store this week.

Miss Avis Sage and Mrs. W. E. Sage drove down from Garner last Friday, returning the same day.

A. P. McGregor and wife and daughter, from Vinton, visited here yesterday at the home of W. R. Bloom.

Frank Kluckhohn and Vic Carlson took in the circus at Mason City Monday and fed peanuts to the elephant.

Goodell and Belmond indulged in a game of ball yesterday on the former's grounds, Belmond winning by a score of 8 to 1. "Bally" played with Goodell.

Fern Suckow returned home last week Wednesday evening from a visit with relatives at LuVerne, Iowa. She was accompanied home by her cousin, Bonnie Dow, of Rake, who is visiting Klemme relatives and friends.

John Griewe and one of his cows had a little tussle the other day because the cow insisted upon feasting on the neighbors' corn. As a result of the tussle John is limping around on an injured foot, while the cow was unhurt.

Rev. H. Achtermann and family have arrived from Buffalo, N. Y., and will make Klemme their home. Rev. Achtermann preached his first sermon to his new congregation in the German Reformed church last Sunday. The Times wishes to extend to this family a cordial welcome to Klemme and we hope their stay among us may be most pleasant.

On our inside pages this week will be found the first installment of a new continued story, "The Best Man," by Harold MacGrath, author of "The Man on the Box," "Hearts and Masks," etc. This is a very interesting story. Be sure and start it this week and read it all. You'll like it.

A Night Rider's Raid

The worst night riders are calomel, croton oil or aloes pills. They raid your bed to rob you of rest. Not so with Dr. King's New Life Pills. They never distress or inconvenience, but always cleanse the system, curing colds, headache, constipation, malaria 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

The Orleans Hotel on Spirit Lake has been rebuilt and will be opened on or about July 25th. Commencing on that day the Rock Island will stop trains 419, 420 and 431 at Orleans station for meals.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the Best and Surest

"It affords me pleasure to state that I consider the preparation known as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the best and surest of good results of any I have ever used in my family," says P. E. Herrington, of Mount Aerial, Ky. This is the universal verdict of all who use this remedy. Its cures are so prompt and effectual that people take pleasure in recommending it. For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Art Gibbs had charge of the yard of the Northern Lumber Co. last Monday while Mr. Palmer was at Mason City.

German M. E. Church Items

Will Lenke is taking sun baths in his brother's hay field.

Louis Sampson and wife took dinner with Wm. Sampson's on Sunday.

Ed Schaefer had the misfortune of losing a valuable horse last week.

Henry Sampson and wife, of Colesburg, are here visiting relatives.

Mrs. Gro, of Chicago, and Estella Gruetzmacher, of Galesburg, arrived on Thursday to visit with relatives.

Ed Wellemeyer of Garner and Mrs. Neumann from Nebraska spent Sunday with their nephew Arthur Wellemeyer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyer, from Morning Sun, arrived here Saturday afternoon to visit with Mrs. Meyer's sister, Mrs Gust Kahler.

Miss Matilda Rest of Gladbrook, who has been visiting with Mrs. Wessel and other friends the past few weeks, left for Garner on Saturday.

Carl Griffen met with a painful accident that is hurting his arm and hand severely. While he was helping put hay in the barn, the double-tree broke, striking him on the arm.

Rev. Wessel attended a directors meeting of the Equitable Insurance Co. last week, and on Monday this week he left for Colesburg, where he expects to visit with his parents and other relatives and also do some collecting for the Charles City College endowment fund.

Sunday being the fifteenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stille, they remembered the occasion by inviting some fifty of their relatives and friends to dinner. Little delicate-looking paper plates and a card with the name of the guest graced each one's place at the table. Everything bore the reminder of a wedding feast. When all seats were taken, a six course dinner was served To say the least, it was an elaborate and swell affair. Lydia and Edna Schuldt, Herbert Stille and Owen Noehring acted as waiters. Those present were: H. J. Stille and family. E. Schuldt and family, Aug. Lau and family, A. Koerner and family, F. Gruetzmacher and family, J. Terhufen and family. J. E. Stille and wife. W. Schuldt and wife, and Rev. Wessel and family.

DOCTORS
GEO. ZINN EDGAR ZINN
Office: State Savings Bank
Phone No. 19
KLEMME - - IOWA

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Phone No. 11. Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to calls day or night.
Eyes tested. Glasses fitted.

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
Eyes Tested Free.

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures
See me when you want a Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

F. C. GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Headquarters for part of Heinz' Fifty-Seven Varieties. and Pickling Vinegar.
Try these goods; they are fine.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
Call in

RESTAURANT
Fresh New Candies. Nicest Line in Town
Van Camp's Pork and Beans. Try them for lunch. Try our Golden Orangeade, Pop and Cider. Home-made Ice cream, Cones and Sodas.
—Home-made Bakery Goods,—
Lunches and Meals at all hours.
A. Kirkwood & Son

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

National Encampment
G. A. R.
SALT LAKE CITY
August 9-14, 1909
Why not take your vacation at the time of the encampment and go with the "boys in blue"
Thro' Scenic Colorado
To the city of the Mormons, one of the most interesting places in the country to visit? The things to do and the places to see are legion, and the added attraction of the trip through Colorado, that wonderland of Nature, can be enjoyed by planning your trip via
Rock Island-Frisco Lines
Ask for folder descriptive of the event and trip.
J. H. MAHER, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher

KLEMME - - - IOWA

IMPORTANT NEWS NOTES OF A WEEK

LATEST HAPPENINGS THE WORLD OVER TOLD IN ITEMIZED FORM.

EVENTS HERE AND THERE

Condensed Into a Few Lines for the Perusal of the Busy Man—Latest Personal Information.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

In a statement given out by his secretary President Taft practically tells congress the Republican party's pledges on the tariff must be kept or he will veto the bill.

Twenty-three members of the house visited President Taft and appealed to him to protect raw materials, saying their return to congress depended upon such action.

Democrats, for the first time in several years found a way in which they could defeat the Republicans. It was in a baseball game, the score being 26 to 16.

Democratic members of the house made an unsuccessful attempt to kill the provision in the urgency deficiency bill for $25,000 traveling expenses for the president.

President Taft summoned Senator Aldrich and Representative Payne to the White House and declared the tariff battle must be fought to a finish.

Ambassador Takahira is expected to be succeeded at Washington by K. Uchida, now stationed at Vienna.

Speaker Cannon refused to appoint as a conferee on the tariff, Representative Hill, who was chosen by President Taft.

By a vote of 317 to 14, all of those opposing being Republicans, the house adopted a resolution submitting the income question to state legislatures for a constitutional amendment.

PERSONAL.

Charles R. Crane of Chicago, one of the largest manufacturers of the United States, has been selected by President Taft as minister to China.

Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg was appointed chancellor of Germany to succeed Prince von Buelow.

Rev. Edward M. Dunne of Chicago, newly-appointed bishop of Peoria, took the oath of allegiance to the holy see at Washington.

J. U. Sammis of Lemars, Ia., was elected grand exalted ruler of the Elks and Detroit was selected as the meeting place of the grand lodge in 1910.

Gov. Johnson of Minnesota became seriously ill in St. Paul and it was feared another operation for appendicitis would be necessary.

Edward Payson Weston, the veteran pedestrian, reached San Francisco, five days behind his scheduled time of 100 days on his walk from New York.

William Jennings Bryan wrote a letter to President Taft urging an amendment providing for election of United States senators by the people.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt is now in Geona, Italy. She took a drive through that city accompanied by her sister, Miss Carow.

GENERAL NEWS.

Anarchists and socialists got into the strike at McKees Rocks, Pa., and urged the use of the torch and dynamite. The car company president refused to arbitrate.

The crown prince, Sultan Ahmed Mirza, was proclaimed shah of Persia in place of his father who abdicated when he fled to the Russian legation in Teheran to seek safety from the Nationalists.

W. E. Baker, engineer and Nelson Paulson, fireman, were killed and three other trainmen injured in a head-on collision of passenger trains on the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railway at Royal, Ill.

Paris has heard a story that Count Boni de Castellane is to wed Miss Marjorie Gould, daughter of George Gould and niece of his former wife who is now the Princess de Sagan.

An American in London told the police he had seen Leon Ling, slayer of Elsie Sigel in that city.

G. A. Neundorf of Clark, S. D., sent a boiled egg to the attorney general's office in Washington requesting an opinion as to its freshness. It was rotten.

Glen Curtiss, a New York aeronaut, made a flight of 31 minutes in his aeroplane at Hempstead, L. I.

Reports received in London said 300 were killed by earthquakes in southern Greece and the springs spouted hot water.

Thinking she had killed her husband Mrs. Fred Fricke, of Hammond, Ind., shot herself.

The president of the police in Hanover, Germany, has issued a decree warning women against the danger of wearing long hatpins. He says a woman whose hatpin causes an accident to another is liable to prosecution for assault.

The Mississippi flood reached its crest at St. Louis, the gauge registering 35.5 feet. It will be a week before the river is normal even if no more rain falls.

Myrtle Cress was acquitted of the charge of murdering her sweetheart, John Phillips, at Cripple Creek, Col., after it had been shown with a revolver that the killing was accidental.

American imports in June aggregated $124,693,497 and exceeded exports by $7,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller has transferred his 16-story office building and other Cleveland property to his son, John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

The great historical pageant in Bath, England, illustrating the long history of that city, opened with a very large attendance from the United Kingdom and other lands and representatives of nearly every town named Bath in the world.

The Photographers' Association of America met in annual convention in Rochester, N. Y., F. R. Barrows of Boston presiding.

A two-days' meeting of the Retail Shoe Dealers' association of Michigan was held in Detroit.

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw testified at the sanity hearing that her husband, Harry K. Thaw, threatened to kill her when released from the insane asylum.

Former President Roosevelt, writing in the Outlook, said the American multi-millionaire isn't a healthy development for the country.

Louis Rosenberg, a cigarmaker of Cleveland, O., was slain for his money by Frank Elebra who committed suicide in the St. Clair Flats near Port Huron, Mich. Samuel Frisbie, a third Cleveland man, attempted suicide after being arrested.

The packet of papers kept in a safety deposit box by J. B. Sayler, the Crescent City (Ill.) banker slain by Dr. W. R. Miller, was opened by his brothers and startling evidence against the slayer was found.

A report in Paris, which is denied by the fathers of both, said Duchess de Chaulnes, formerly Theodora Shonts, is to be married to Prince Joachim Murat.

The Catholic Educational association decided to hold its 1910 convention in Detroit, July 5, 6 and 7.

A son was born in Paris to Princess de Sagan, formerly Anna Gould, who was divorced from Count de Castellane.

Plans are being made in Washington and Mexico City for a meeting of Presidents Taft and Diaz at El Paso.

Eleven of the crew of a British submarine were drowned when the war vessel was sunk in collision with a cargo steamer near Cromer, England.

Several villages were destroyed and it is reported, many persons were killed by an earthquake in southern Greece.

Reproductions of etchings of Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln and Taft are being sent to adorn the walls of American embassies and legations throughout the world.

Experiments are to be made with the heliograph to ascertain its practicability as a means of communication for reporting fires in the national forests.

Because his mother was partly Japanese and partly Chinese William Knight, for 27 years in the navy and awarded a medal for bravery in the battle of Manila bay, was denied citizenship papers at New York.

In a riot of steel workers at McKees Rock, near Pittsburg, 100 men were injured, six of the strikers being seriously wounded by shots from rifles fired by deputy sheriffs and guards.

Wyatt H. Ingram, Jr., trust officer of the Hiberian Bank & Trust Company of New Orleans was arrested on a charge of embezzling $100,000.

According to Chinese of Denver the Chinese government will render the United States no aid in finding Leon Ling, slayer of Elsie Sigel, who is being protected by the Masons.

Former President Roosevelt and his party, after an all-day walk across an African desert, were forced to go without water and suffered much from thirst.

The body of Claude Hunt, who was drowned in Klinger lake near Sturgis Mich., with Miss Mary Loretta Davey of Chicago, was found by searchers.

"I'm going to pull off a little stunt to-day," said Tim Thomas of Oshkosh Wis., as he took his suit of clothes from a tailor and then went to a boarding house in Aberdeen and committed suicide.

Secretary of the Interior Ballinger said at Seattle that he had not clashed with Secretary Wilson, but that he and Gifford Pinchot differ as to the law on forest reserves.

Naval officers at Annapolis say it will be shown at the coming investigation of Lieut. Sutton's death that he shot at another when he killed himself.

TRACK TAKEN UP

Fort Dodge Citizens Are Incensed Against Railway.

TO ESCAPE PAVING EXPENSE

Fort Dodge, Des Moines & Southern Railroad Is Charged With Removing Tracks to Evade Paving Bills.

Fort Dodge, Ia., July 19.—During a conference between higher officials of the Fort Dodge-Des Moines & Southern railway and the city council, permission to remove the tracks situated on Twelfth street and Fourth avenue south, forming a part of the street railway system, was issued the company.

The action of the council follows official notification from the Fort Dodge, Des Moines & Southern that the tracks would be removed upon those streets. The obvious reason is to escape the expense of pavement, the contract for which has already been awarded. The proposed action of the company has aroused considerable feeling owing to the city service which has been only sufficient up to this point to hold down the franchise granted some time ago.

Furniture Van for Giant's Hearse.

Knoxville.—James L. Davis, the man who committed suicide by shooting himself in the head at his home, three and a half miles northeast of Knoxville, was the largest man in Marion county—a veritable giant of enormous strength and a chest like a horse, and weighed an even 360 pounds in overalls and shirt. The casket for his remains was shipped from Des Moines and is what is known to undertakers as a No. 3 extra. It is 24½ inches in depth, 2 feet 7 inches wide, 6 feet 2 inches on bottom inside and 7 fee 2 inches from outside to outside projections. It could not be carried in any hearse in the city and was taken to the cemetery in a furniture van. It was necessary to remove door facings in order to get the casket in and out of the house.

Corn Expert Is Pessimistic.

Des Moines.—"The Iowa corn crop is at the present time in the worst condition that I have ever seen it at this time of the year," said John Sundberg, president of the Iowa Corn Growers' association, while in Des Moines. Coming in direct contradiction to the reports of the government experts, who say that the corn crop is in fair condition. Mr. Sundberg's statement is rather unusual. "I have traveled all over the state, and have talked with farmers and corn experts. The southern part of the state has been especially hard hit and the crop there is in wretched condition," he continued. Mr. Sundberg says the corn is yellow from lack of cultivation and that it is extremely weedy. Besides this it is not nearly as far along as it should be at this time of year.

Iowa Girl Will Teach in Japan.

Mason City.—A flattering offer has been received by Miss Lucile Willson, a young woman who finished high school last year and has been one year in the state normal, to do kindergarten work in the schools of Japan. She has been sent a contract for three years at a salary of $160 per month with a summer vacation. She expects to complete her work at Cedar Falls and sail for Japan in August, 1910. One of the stipulations of the contract is that she shall not visit her own country during the three years' work in Japan. She may visit England, China, India or any other country save her own.

Poisons Self and Four Children.

Iowa City, Iowa.—Mrs. Ollie Oliphant, living near West Branch, poisoned her four children and herself. She gave the baby, Jesse, aged four months, strychnine in milk. The three older girls, Laura, Viola, and Nellie, the oldest ten years, were given strychnine in licorice gum. Mrs. Oliphant then drank a mixture of strychnine and arsenic in milk. Jessie died and Nellie is possibly fatally poisoned. The two older girls spit the licorice out on account of the bitter taste. She was arrested after the funeral of the baby was held.

Signs of Revolt in Lower House.

Washington, July 10.—Six Iowa republican members of the house refused to line up for a rule proposed by Speaker Cannon for consideration of the tariff bill. They were Representatives Hubbard, Haugen, Pickett, Good, Woods and Kendall. Representatives Hull, Dawson, Kennedy and Smith voted for the rule which the rules committee proposed.

Cigar Lighter Fires Big Hat.

Mason City.—Mrs. C. B. Harding chanced to be in one of the cigar stores and without noticing it came in close contact with a gas cigar burner and in a moment's time her hat was all on fire. It took quick work in removing it from her head before the fire had spread to her hair. She was badly frightened and her hands somewhat burned.

Old Settler's Election.

Villisca.—The Old Settlers' association elected the following officers: A. P. West, president; M. Cowgill, vice president; J. S. Boise, secretary, and F. F. Jones, treasurer. The executive committee, having in charge the preparation of the program, etc., for the coming fall meeting, is composed of the following: J. M. Patten, B. C. Hullinger, Dell Wallace, H. Heinsfester and H. Weber. It is the intention to make the next old settlers' meeting the most enjoyable event of the year in this city.

First White Child Born in Iowa Dead.

Milford.—Mrs. Simon Harker, probably the first white child born in Iowa, was buried at Spirit Lake. Her maiden name was Venetta Kennedy and she was born at Dubuque, Sept. 17, 1823. Her seven sons, all residents of this county, and her two daughters were all with her when she passed away. Her death is the first that has occurred in her immediate family in forty-five years.

Davis County Home Coming Day.

Bloomfield, Ia.—The first day of the Davis county fair will be "home coming day," all old and young Davis county friends and relatives now residing in other places are welcome to attend the home coming day, September 15. Governor Carroll, Lieutenant Governor Clark and General Weaver, all Davis county products will be present to take part on the program.

Lost Boy Found Working on Farm.

Iowa City.—Clarence Hughes, the 18-year-old son of Mrs. Luke Hughes, who disappeared from his home in the country, west of Iowa City, some months ago, has been discovered. His mother has located him on a farm, near Davenport, where he has been working some time, after making a trip to the Mississippi river metropolises, to "see the world."

Des Moines Man Wins Big Plum.

Des Moines.—Dispatches from Colorado state that Ivan Diggs drew No. 1 in the big government land lottery at Durango. Mr. Diggs gets an 80-acre farm in a rich fruit land belt that will be worth sortly $10,000. Mr. Digg's name does not appear in the city directory, and it is supposed that he resided in the country near Des Moines.

Call to Rev. Mr. Holmes.

Cedar Falls—Rev. O. H. Holmes of Algona, representative from Kossuth county, was extended a call to become pastor of the Congregational church here to succeed Dr. J. E. Snowden, who will retire on July 31 after fifty years in the ministry, twelve of which were at Cedar Falls.

Dobbins Gets Release Bond.

Council Bluffs.—John R. Dobbins has been released from the county jail and if there is anything to the rumors that have been current several members of the so-called Mabray aggregation are breathing easier. Dobbins was released on $6,000 bonds furnished by his attorneys.

Boy Commits Suicide.

Chariton.—August Lof, 13 years old, son of Mrs. T. J. Lof, who resides about five miles northwest of Chariton, committed suicide by hanging himself. He went upstairs shortly after dinner and committed the rash deed. No cause is known. His father died last December.

B. W. Haggard of Algona Is Dead.

Algona.—Benjamin Wilmot Haggard, for three years disbursing officer of the national house of representatives, died at the home of his father, D. A. Haggard. He had been confined to his bed for the past six months with tuberculosis and diabetes.

Rhodes Scholarship Exam.

Iowa City.—The examinations for the Rhodes scholarship in Iowa will be held on October 1 and 20. The dates have been set by the international authorities, and Iowa City has been selected as the place of meeting.

Seriously Hurt in Runaway.

Sheffield.—Dragged by a runaway team through four wire fences Fred Perin, a farmer here, was badly hurt and was severely cut with the wire.

Iowa Property Worth Two Billions.

Des Moines.—The value of real and personal property in the state of Iowa is placed at $2,445,458,961 in a report made by the state auditor.

LEGG WINS TITL

Minneapolis Golf Player Defe Guinand in Finals.

SETS NEW COURSE RECO

Cuts Under Bogey Score Fourt Times—Fights Manfully After Hard Week's Play and Against Odds.

Des Moines, July 19.—The t time was the charm for the gr Minneapolis golfer, Henry G. Le In the finals for the trans-Mississip championship the Minikahda man feated "Bun" Guinand, the slend Des Moines player, by the score 10 up and 8 to go. Legg in his thi time as finalist gave an astoundi revelation of the possibilities of t game of golf and his play will down in history. It was the greate golf ever played in the finals of transmississippi tournament by a man.

The Winners.

Championship—Harry G. Legg, M ikahda club, Minneapolis.

Runner up—Bernard G. Guina Waveland club, Des Moines.

Consolation—J. J. Elbert, Golf a Country club, Des Moines.

Runner up—Ralph Rider, Wavel club, Des Moines.

President's—A. C. Gordon, Hyp ion club, Des Moines.

Runner up—Jack Hughes, Oma Field club.

Director's—A. B. Cutts, Minikah club, Minneapolis.

Runner up—Will Bowman, Wa land club, Des Moines.

Secretary's—Ed McVey, Evanst club, Kansas City.

Runner up—A. W. Warren, St. J seph Country club.

Team championship—Hyperion cl Des Moines.

ADMIRES DES MOINES PUS

McKinley Declares No Offer Has Been Made to Purchase Street Car Line.

Des Moines, July 19.—Congressm William B. McKinley of Champai Ill., the new owner of the Des Moin electric light plant, arrived in the c to inspect his recently acquired pr erty. His coming, though unexpect was the magnet that quickly drew t interest of the entire business co munity and before he had been in t city two hours Secretary Lucius Wilson of the Greater Des Moin committee had arranged a boos meeting at the Savery which w largely attended considering the f that Saturday is a busy day. T meeting voiced an enthusiastic w come to Mr. McKinley, assurng h that Des Moines is awaiting men his type of accomplishment in prom ing its best interests.

Concerning the matter of the p chase of the local street railway, M McKinley stated last evening that deal has been made and that he do not control a share of the stock. admitted having talked the purch over with his general manager a eastern representative in compa with representatives of the Gene Electric company from whom he tained control of the electric li plant. But as to entering negotiati for purchasing the street rail plant, he denies that the matter been broached in other than the m general terms.

DES MOINES SAVES $48,439

Tax Levy This Year Is Reduced Mills Which Will Reduce Receipts $45,000.

Des Moines, July 19.—It cost $ 875.77—nearly a million dollars— run the city of Des Moines during year ending April 1, 1909. The sh of every man ,woman and child in expense is approximately $10, for per capita rate on a population 100,000 is exactly $9.56, and Moines does not have quite that m people. Most cities in Des Moi class are from $2 to $5 higher in average cost for each citizen.

But Des Moines' receipts during year in which the $998,875.77 spent amount to $333,414.43 more t the expenditures, or $1,332,290.20 all. The city's total holdings, w include cash in hand, real estate personal property April 1 were 906,427.04, while it owed $1,077,1 Of this debt $976,000 is in bonds. city has property value including 640,175 exempt, of $100,256,519 so actual indebtedness of the municip ty in bonds is about 1 per cent.

THE BEST MAN

by HAROLD MACGRATH

WITH ILLUSTRATIONS BY A. WEIL

AUTHOR of THE MAN ON THE BOX, HEARTS & MASKS

COPYRIGHT, 1907 — THE BOBBS — MERRILL CO.

CHAPTER I.

rrington folded the document and ghtfully balanced it on his palm. t an ironical old world it was! re was a perpendicular wrinkle ut his nose, and his lips had ned into a mere line which drooped he corners. The drone of a type- er in the adjoining room sound- bove the rattle-tattle of the street w. Through the open windows e a vague breath of summer redo- of flowers and grasses; for it was eleven o'clock of the morning, and smell of sun-baked brick and as- lt had not yet risen through the onical old world, indeed! Here, denly and unexpectedly, he found self upon the battlefield of love duty, where all honest men find mselves, sooner or later. To pit heart against the conscience, im- e against calculation! Heigh-ho! y is an implacable goddess, and e who serve her most loyally are t ruthlessly driven. She buffets nto this corner and into that, digs alls for the hesitant foot, and shes the vacillating.

Far beyond the smoking, ragged line Carrington could see the shift- glittering river and the great s going down to the sea. Present- he ashes from his dead cigar fell gray cascade down his coat and bled across his knees, but he gave heed.

s all men will, Carrington set ut to argue down his conscience; heart is so insistent a counselor. y should he give up the woman he ed, simply because duty demanded should? After all, was not duty ely social obligation? What was o him that the sheep were sheared? s it right that he, of all men, uld divide the house, throw the k pall of dishonesty over it, de- y his own happiness and hers, n so simple a thing as a match ld crumble into nothingness this ument to one man's greed and shness? The survival of the fit- ; if he put aside Self, who would k him? Few, and many would him a fool or a meddler. So many ces spoke that he seemed to hear e distinctly.

He alone had made these astonish- discoveries; he alone had fol- ed the cunningly hidden trail of serpent. He could stop where was and none would be the wiser. be sure, it was only a question of e when the scandal would become lic through other channels; but in t event he would not be held re- nsible for bringing about the catas- phe. Besides, the ways of the ser- t are devious and many, and other estigators might not come so close the trail.

He had gone about his investiga- s without the least idea where y would lead him. At the begin- g he had believed that the guilty s were none higher than petty offi- ls; but presently he found himself g over their heads, higher and her, until, behold! he was at the of the old serpent himself. A nt had carelessly dropped a bit information, and it had taken seed h this surprising result. Henry venaugh, millionaire promoter, ncier, trust magnate, director in undred money-gathering concerns; ry Cavenaugh, the father of the he loved and who loved him! ld it be he, indeed? It seemed in- dible.

t was not a case of misappropria- n of funds, such as a man may be ity of when temporarily hard ed. It was a bold and fraudulent ing of dividends that rightfully be- ged to the investors; of wrongfully ing statements of bolstered ex- es, lack of markets, long strikes omoted by Cavenaugh and his as- ates!), insufficient means of trans- tation. An annual dividend of en per cent. of many millions that been dishonestly passed over. The orts that there would be no divi- ds encouraged a slump in the list- price of the stock, and many had under par value, thereby netting Cavenaugh and others several mil- s. And the proof of all this lay his hand!

had been a keen hunt. Many and y a blind trail had he followed, to come back to the start again. that now remained for him to do to pass this document on to the ds of the intrepid district attorney, justice would be meted out to the lty.

er father! The picture of him rose denly and distinctly in his mind. Tall, powerfully built, a hooked nose, keen blue eyes, an aggressive chin, a repellent mouth, Henry Cavenaugh was the personification of the modern Croesus. Immutable in purpose, dogged in perseverance, a relentless enemy, a Jesuit in that the end always justified the means, he stood a pillar in the world of finance, where there is sometimes justice, but never any mercy. Thirty-five years before he had been a messenger in a stock-broker's office. Of his antecedents nothing was known until he broke one of the famous gold corners in the seventies, when a handsome, ruddy-cheeked little Irishman bobbed up serenely from nowhere in particular and claimed to be the great Cavenaugh's father. But his proofs were not convincing, and when the son showed a decided contempt for him, he gently subsided into oblivion and was heard of no more. From time to time Carrington gathered a small crumb of information regarding his sweetheart's grandfather; but whenever he broached the subject, however tactfully, everybody concerned headed the conversation for a different port.

Carrington had never laid eyes on the old gentleman, and, for all he knew to the contrary, he might be a myth. He reasoned that in all probability the grandfather was illiterate, uncouth, and rather an awkward piece of family furniture to handle, when the family proper were ingratiating themselves into the Chippendales of society. Unfortunately, Mother Cavenaugh, good-hearted and amiable in her way, had been stung by the bee of the climbers, and her one ambition was to establish herself and daughters in society; and had not he, Carrington, come of an aristocratic family (poor, it is true), the doors of the Cavenaugh manor would never have opened to his knock. Even as it was, he was persona non grata to the millionaire, who was mad for a duke in the family. Besides Cavenaugh had his suspicions of any lawyer who grubbed outside the breastworks.

Some doves circled above a church-spire a few streets over the way, breaking the sunbeams against their polished wings. Finally they settled on the slate roof and fell to strutting and waddling and swelling their breasts pompously. Carrington opened and refolded the document, but he did not take his eyes from the doves. What should he do? What ill wind had blown this thing into his doorway? Nothing had warned him of the impending tangle. Until two days ago Cavenaugh was at the other end of the world, so far as his investigations at that time were concerned.

He struck a match. The sliver of pine flared palely in the sunshine, writhed and dropped, black and charred, to the floor. He shrugged his shoulders. Chivalry of this sort was not the order of the day. There was something stronger than the voice of duty, something stronger than the voice of the heart; it was the voice of pity, which urged its appeal for the hundreds of men and women who had invested their all in the Cavenaugh concerns. The thought of their ultimate ruin, should Cavenaugh be permitted to pursue his course unchecked, bore heavily upon him. No, he could not do it. He must fight, even if he lost his all in the battle. It is a fine thing to right a wrong. All the great victories in the world have been won for others than the victors. That Cavenaugh was the father of the girl he loved must have no weight on the scales of justice.

Resolutely he thrust the document into his coat pocket, closed his desk and relighted his cigar. In that moment he had mapped out his plan of action. That very night he would lay the whole thing very clearly before the girl herself, and whatever decision she made, he would stand or fall by it, for he knew her to be the soul of honor.

Poor girl! It was a heart-breaking business. How in the world should he begin, and where should he stop? Ah, that was it! He would lay the matter before her in a manner that would conceal the vital nearness of the case, as if it were some client of his who was unknown to her. And when she judged the case, he would speak the bald truth. It would be a cruel blow, but nevertheless he must deal it. She loved her father, and after his own peculiar fashion her father loved her. She was the only one in the family who could wheedle him out of a purpose; to the rest of the family his word was law immutable. It was very hard, sighed Carrington. For the father he had neither pity nor sympathy; there were many ugly tales about his financial dealings; but his whole heart went out unreservedly to the girl.

When Carrington had gone to Cavenaugh, his heart in his throat, to speak to him relative to his daughter's hand, he unwittingly knocked off the top of a volcano.

"Marry my daughter?" Cavenaugh roared, emphasizing his wrath and disapproval with a bang of fist upon palm. "My daughter shall marry only among her equals, not among her inferiors. A king is not good enough for my Kate." There was another bang of the fist, decided and final. "A lawyer? Not if I know myself. I wouldn't trust a lawyer out of sight," bluntly. "Kate shall marry a duke or a prince, if I can find one suitable."

Carrington would have smiled had the moment been less serious.

"No man can possibly appreciate her worth more readily than I, sir," he replied, "or love her more dearly."

"Love?" with a snort. "Twaddle out of story-books!"

"But you yourself love her."

"I'm her father," Cavenaugh returned complacently, adding a gesture which had the effect of describing the fact that it was perfectly logical for a father to love his daughter, but that it wasn't logical at all for any other male biped to love her.

"I am sorry," said the disheartened suitor, rising. "I suppose that after this unpleasant interview—"

"Oh, you're a decent sort," interrupted Cavenaugh generously; "and if you are of a mind to behave yourself hereafter, you will always find a chair at my table. But my daughter is not for you, sir, emphatically not. That is all, sir;" and Cavenaugh picked up his evening paper.

After such a rebuff, most young men would have given up; but Carrington never gave up till there was no possibility of winning. Immediately after the interview he went to the higher court with his appeal.

"Let us have patience," the girl whispered. "I'll undertake to bring him to reason."

But Carrington went home that night without his love for the father increasing any.

And so the matter stood at the present time. The affair had gone neither forward nor backward.

Ah, were he less honest, how easily he could bring the old curmudgeon to terms! There was that in his pocket which would open the way to the altar quickly enough. But Carrington was manly and honest to the core, and to him blackmail stood among the basest of crimes. Many times during the past 48 hours the tempter had whispered in his ear that here was a way out of his difficulties; but the young man had listened unmoved.

During the summer and autumn months of the year the Cavenaughs lived at their country place over in New Jersey, and there Carrington spent the week-ends. There were horses to ride, golf and tennis, and a Saturday night dance at the Country club. To be with the girl you love, even if you can't have her, is some compensation. Cavenaugh never joined the fetes and sports of the summer-colonists, but he offered no objections to the feminine members of his household for selecting Carrington as their escort for the week-ends. Indeed, by now he began to consider Carrington as a harmless, sensible, well-groomed young man, who relieved him of all the painful duties to the frivolous. If the colonists insisted on coupling his daughter's name with Carrington's, let them do so; when the proper moment came he would disillusionize them. For himself, he always had some good old crony down to while away the dull Sundays; and together they consummated plans that gave the coup de grace to many a noble business galleon. This particular summer there were no dukes or princes floating around unattached, and Cavenaugh agreed that it was a commendable time to lay devices by which to ambush the winter money.

There were nights when Cavenaugh did not sleep very well; but of this, more anon.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Resolutely He Thrust the Document Into His Pocket.

WARNED BY THE DENTIST.

Dire Results of Biting Thread Worth Taking to Heart.

"I'll never be able to do much for you," said the dentist, "till you quit biting your thread."

"Dear me," said the woman, "that reminds me of the days when grandmother threatened me with a whipping if I didn't quit biting my nails."

"One habit is just as reprehensible as the other," said the dentist. "You ought to be able to see you own teeth, then you would realize that you deserve a good scolding. The edges are as uneven as a saw. Now, if you were a professional dressmaker, or a factory hand you would know better than to bite your thread. They seldom do it. They have learned the art of snipping it off with the scissors without loss of time, and don't have to maltreat their teeth. It is you women who do a good deal of sewing in a non-professional capacity who think the quickest way to break a thread is to bite it. That may be good for the progress of the work, but it is bad for the teeth.

"Fortunately, you can't bite with the whole mouthful of teeth at the same time, so most of them escape. Those that really do the work are the incisors on either side. They are in a terribly bad fix. The enamel is worn off, the ridges and corrugations are an eighth of an inch deep, and—"

"Oh, don't tell me anything more," cried the woman. "You frighten me. Just fix up my shattered teeth the best you know how, and I promise never to bite another thread."

NOT THE BUTCHER'S FAULT.

Mrs. Customer—That lamb you sent me, Mr. Stintwaite, was the largest and toughest I ever saw.

Mr. Stintwaite—Tut, tut. It's that boy been loitering again. I assure you, when that joint left the shop it was the sweetst little leg of lamb you could set eyes on, and I gave him strict orders to deliver it at once because you wanted it young.

TOLD TO USE CUTICURA.

After Specialist Failed to Cure Her Intense Itching Eczema—Had Been Tortured and Disfigured But

Was Soon Cured of Dread Humor.

"I contracted eczema and suffered intensely for about ten months. At times I thought I would scratch myself to pieces. My face and arms were covered with large red patches, so that I was ashamed to go out. I was advised to go to a doctor who was a specialist in skin diseases, but I received very little relief. I tried every known remedy, with the same results. I thought I would never get better until a friend of mine told me to try the Cuticura Remedies. So I tried them, and after four or five applications of Cuticura Ointment I was relieved of my unbearable itching. I used two sets of the Cuticura Remedies, and I am completely cured. Miss Barbara Kral, Highlandtown, Md., Jan. 9, '08."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

The advantage of living does not consist in length of days, but in the right improvement of them.—Montaigne.

Certainly not! The flavor won't last unless it's real Wrigley's Spearmint with a spear on every wrapper.

One trouble with the habitually crooked man is that he never knows which way he is turning.

NASTY YELLOW CLOTHES will forever disappear if you use RUSS BLUE. All good grocers, 5c.

No man is so insignificant as to be sure his example can do no hurt.—Renan.

Why is it called Spearmint? Because of the spear on every package. See it or keep your nickel.

Every one has his place and vocation on this earth.—Gladstone.

Libby's Food Products

Libby's Cooked Corned Beef

There's a marked distinction between Libby's Cooked Corned Beef and even the best that's sold in bulk.

Evenly and mildly cured and scientifically cooked in Libby's Great White Kitchen, all the natural flavor of the fresh, prime beef is retained. It is pure wholesome, delicious and ready to serve at meal time. Saves work and worry in summer.

Other Libby "Healthful" Meal-Time-Hints, all ready to serve, are:

Peerless Dried Beef
Vienna Sausage
Veal Loaf
Evaporated Milk
Baked Beans
Chow Chow
Mixed Pickles

"Purity goes hand in hand with Products of the Libby brand".

Write for free Booklet,—"How to make Good Things to Eat".

Insist on Libby's at your grocers.

Libby, McNeill & Libby Chicago

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

Rheumatism

Nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness.

Lame Shoulder.

This is a common form of muscular rheumatism. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely four times a day and a quick cure is certain.

Lumbago.

When muscular rheumatism attacks the muscles in the small of the back it is called lumbago. It is usually quite severe and every movement adds to the pain, and especially when one attempts to straighten up. No internal treatment is required. Keep quiet, as every movement aggravates the disease, and apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and you will soon be well again.

Sprains and Bruises are cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment.

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

COULDN'T SEE IT AS HE DID.

Why Old Man Wowton Lost the Services of His Laborers.

Old man Wowton, the meanest citizen in all the Blue Grass country, drove up to the market place in Lexington, where an army of negroes stood about or lay basking in the early morning sun waiting for some man to hire them. The old man was so stingy that he usually had great difficulty in engaging negroes to do extra work on his farm, but this time he struck a bargain immediately with big Bill Saunders and the half dozen powerful but lazy blacks who followed at his heels. All the others were greatly surprised to see this gang ambling out on the big road toward Mr. Wowton's place. Next morning they were mystified to see big Bill and his cronies again in the market place.

"Whadja doin' hyuh, Bill?" asked Hannibal Harrison Tyler.

"Lookin' fo' wuk," Bill replied, sadly.

"Thought you-all wuz wukkin' for Mistuh Wowton?"

"Yaas; we sut'nly wuz wuk'n fo' Mistuh Wowton. He come to me yistiddy mawnin' an' say: 'Come on out an' make hay fo' me. I ain't gointer pay you-all enny mo' dan one dolluh a day, but I jes' tell you dis—ev'y meal you-all sits down ter yo' gointer have fo' kin's o' meat an' fo' kin's o' bread.' So we-all tuk our foot in our han' an' went out ter make his hay crap."

"Well, den huccome you-all is come back?" Hannibal inquired.

"I gwine tell yuh," William replied with an injured air. "Yistiddy mawnin' we-all wukked in de fiel', cuttin' hay an' rakin' hay, an' spreadin' hay, ontwell de dinnuh ho'n blew at 12 o'clock. Den we goes inter de kitchen, an' all we sees on de big table is a lot o' mizz'bl' po'k an' greens an' bread. So I goes to de big house an' ax Mistuh Wowton ter come down, please, suh, an look at dat dinnuh. I say, 'Mistuh Wowton, whar dem fo' kin's o' meat you done promised, please, suh?'

"Mistuh Wowton he say: 'W'y, daiah dey is—fat meat, lean meat, skin an' bone. Daiah yuh fo' kin's o' meat.'

"Den I sez ter him, 'Mistuh Wowton, whar dem fo' kin's o' bread you done promised us?' En he say: 'W'y, William, daiah dey is—white bread, co'n bread, crus' an' crumb. Daiah yuh fo' kin's o' bread.' An' da's why we-all come back hyuh."—Harper's Weekly.

WINTER LIFE OF THE ESKIMO.

With a Night Three Months Long the People Simply Hibernate.

A writer in the London Magazine describes a visit he paid lasht year to describes a visit he paid last year to

The winter "igloos," or snow houses, are much more pretentious erections than the summer "tupeks," or tents of skins, and are made to resist the extreme cold of the Arctic winter, and to serve as a comfortable hibernating place for the months during which the sun never rises above the horizon. The foundation is usually made of stones, upon which cleverly shaped blocks of snow are built up to form a dome-shaped hut. After these have frozen together the interior is lined with skins.

A long tunnel is then constructed to serve as a porch, this being built very low and narrow, necessitating an entrance being made on hands and knees, closing the first skin door before opening the second, so as to admit as little of the icy atmosphere as possible.

Heat is supplied by an "ikomar," or oil stove, made from a kind of soapstone in the shape of an oval saucer. It is filled with seal or walrus oil, never sweet-smelling, and usually very rank.

In this floats the wick, which is made of moss. This stove not only serves for heating, but also for cooking purposes, though I believe the greater part of their food is eaten raw, or, at any rate, not more than warmed through.

I saw one man eat quite four pounds of raw bear-meat, which was frozen as hard as a rock, only waiting for a second for it to half thaw in his capacious mouth.

At the back of the "igloo," at the end remote from the door, is a raised bench covered with skins, which serves as the sleeping chamber. Here the whole family turn in, taking off every vestige of clothing, finding quite sufficient warmth in the thick bear and deer skins which serve as blankets.

A Homeopathic Cure.

"It is a queer way they propose to stop objectionable plays which are running."

"What?"

"They are going to get them on the run."

Attention

PEOPLE!

Don't forget that the Gruetzmacher Bros. handle all kinds of stoves such as heaters, cook stoves and steel ranges.

Also a full line of hardware, groceries, flour and feed.

A complete line of implements also paints, oils and varnishes.

Rock and barrel salt. Barb wire and field fence.

Yours to please at the old stand,

Gruetzmacher Bros.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOW

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE. LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STATE.

Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. Fifty days treatment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund money. All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines used. No detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by mail and express. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage. Charges low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for terms. Consultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call or write to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of men The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without the use of harmful instruments. Our book fully explains.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the scrotum causing nervous debility, weakness of the nervous system, etc., permanently cured.

BLOOD POISON —That terrible disease in all its stages, cured for life. Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, and all forms of private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few days without pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application, description of above diseases, effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrapper.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINES,

RUPTURE, PILES

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolutely reliable and permanent. Write to or call and see the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were afflicted with Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia. — Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia. — E. C. Miller, Des Moines, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia. — John H. Looby, Des Moines, Ia.

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you free, postage paid. This book contains much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonial letters. Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the book. Write today—it will pay you.

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES, IOWA

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:40 p. m.
82 ..... 2:50 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:35 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

PATENTS DESIGNS TRADE-MARKS AND COPYRIGHTS OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"

Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,
E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

McCALL PATTERNS 10¢ AND 15¢ NONE HIGHER

McCALL'S MAGAZINE 50¢ A YEAR INCLUDING A FREE

McCALL PATTERNS
Celebrated for style, perfect fit, simplicity, reliability nearly 40 years. Sold in every city and town in the United States, Canada, or by mail direct. More sold than any other make. Send for free catalog.

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
More subscribers than any other fashion magazine—million a month. Invaluable. Latest styles, patterns, dressmaking, millinery, plain sewing, fancy needlework, hairdressing, etiquette, good stories, etc. Only 50 cents a year (worth double), including a free pattern. Subscribe today, or send for sample copy.

WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS
to Agents. Postal brings premium catalog and new cash prize offers. Address

THE McCALL CO., 238 to 248 W. 37th St., NEW

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified.

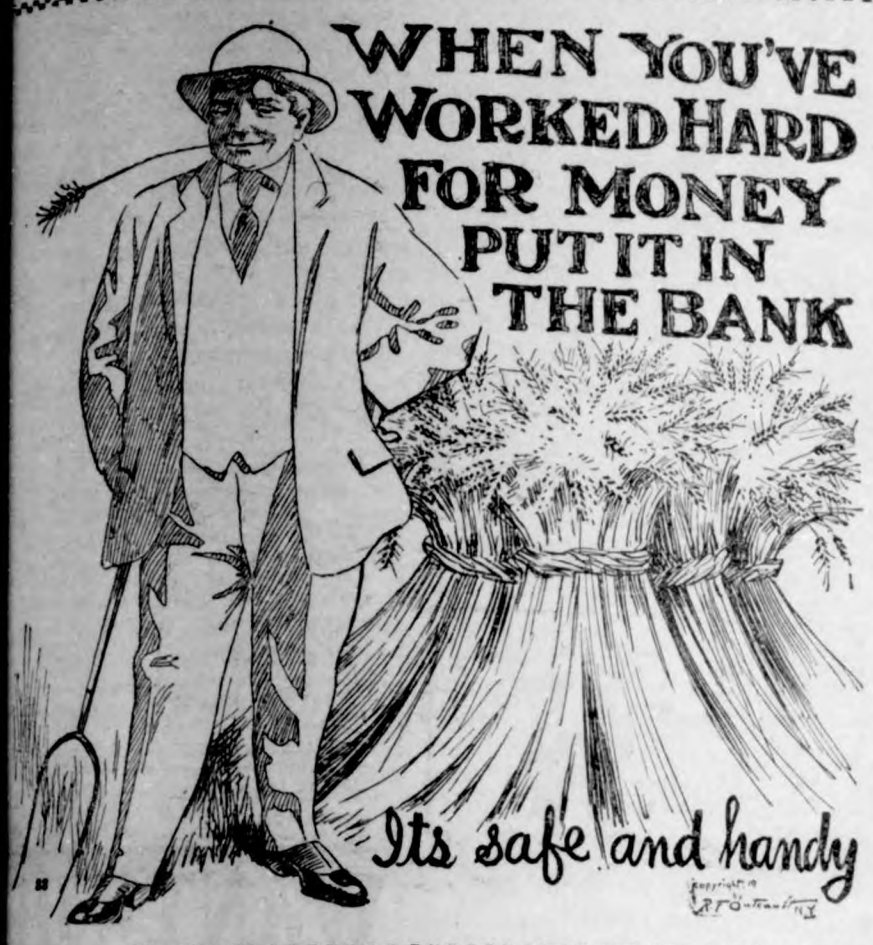
FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE

it is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

Just Dust it on the Sore.
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls while at work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bottom and Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid by Mail.
Money Back if Not Satisfied.
The RED STAR HEALING POWDER Co.
(25c. and 50c. Cans). GARNER, IOWA

THE KLEMME TIMES

VOLUME XIII. NUMBER 52 — KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, JULY 29, 1909. — $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

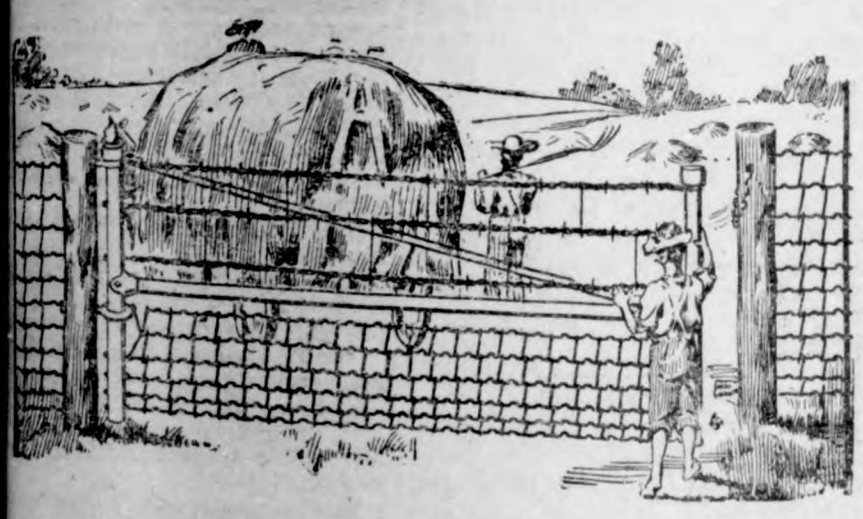


Just as a few bushels of wheat planted in the ground become many bushels of grain, so will the money you put in our bank from time to time become a big sum. The interest we will pay you will help it grow.

Do not forget that we are pleased to place the facilities of this bank at your disposal and solicit your business. — — — —

State Savings Bank.

Klemme - - Iowa



Iowa Gates are more than a convenience if women or children ever use them for being so simple they are very light and can easily be swung either way. The IOWA gate is made to last—no castings to break—no wearing parts—even the wires have galvanized stretchers to tighten them. Will not blow down, burn or rot out. Get prices.

J. H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, AGENT
KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J.W.WATERMAN

GETS A PAIL OF MONEY

Buffalo Center Merchant is the Recipient of a Nice Package From Unknown Friend

Chas. Leibsohn was somewhat bewildered Wednesday when he received a pail by express on which there was 55 cents charges and no name of the sender. Charles paid the charges and, though quite nervous, he proceeded to open the same, on inside of which, to his amazement, he found two sacks of money. On opening the sacks both were found to be well filled with pennies and in one of the sacks was the following note: "You are my friend, you have this coming. Your friend, nothing else." Charlie at once proceeded to count the two sacks of pennies and found that they contained just 2740. The pail that the money was shipped in is a small sized candy pail and was originally from the Johnson Biscuit Co. of Sioux City, Iowa, to one E. Nye, Lake Park, Iowa. The pail was shipped by express to Mr. Leibsohn from Dysart, Iowa, and the name of the sender was not given on the express bill. The sacks in which the money was tied are regular bank coin bags and on one of them is the name of a Cedar Rapids bank. The 2740 pennies weigh exactly nineteen pounds. Mr. Leibsohn is at a loss to know just who sent the money or what it is for. He has been in business in a number of places in the state and this money is evidently "conscience money," sent to pay an old account, yet Mr. Leibsohn says that he does not know of any old account of $27.40 that he has on his books, or does not know of anyone that owes him that amount. From the tone of the note it is evident that it rightly belongs to him, but why the sender took such pains to pay it all in pennies and who that party is, is a mystery which undoubtedly will never be solved. Charlie says if it is for a joke, it is the best one he ever had played on him, and if it is to settle an old account he is very glad to get it.—Buffalo Center Tribune.

Sees Mother Grow Young

"It would be hard to over-state the wonderful change in my mother since she began to use Electric Bitters," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick of Danforth, Me. "Although past 70 she seems really to be growing young again. She suffered untold misery from dyspepsia for 20 years. At last she could neither eat, drink nor sleep. Doctors gave her up and all remedies failed till Electric Bitters worked such wonders for her health." They invigorate all vital organs, cure liver and Kidney troubles, induce sleep, impart strength and appetite. Only 50c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

Country Roads

The Ida Grove Pioneer says: Our roads in this country are too wide. Not only is it a great expense to try and care for the whole space, but the unused space is a breeder of two-thirds of our weed trouble. Let us reduce the width of the roads to twenty-five or thirty feet and then make that all road, and a good one. The sale of the extra strip of land on each side of the real road would pay for the building of a permanent high way twenty-five feet wide of crushed rock and gravel.

Nothing more practical than this has been suggested throughout the long debate on good roads. What is true of Ida county is true of every other county in Iowa, and what is true of Iowa is equally true of Nebraska and South Dakota, and possibly of all other states. The suggestion made by the Pioneer is worth while as affecting the weed nuisance, over which there has been legislation and little corresponding benefit. There is much waste in county roads. The policy prevailing—or the absence of policy—is inexcusably extravagant.

The Pioneer's idea has been utilized in some of our cities, where the width of many streets has been reduced and much saving secured in the matter of paving and maintenance. If a town street, with considerable trafic, at a width of twenty-five or thirty feet, and in many instances less than that, amply serves the purpose, there is no reason why the country road should not be brought down to the limit indicated.

There is idle land, productive only of nuisance, appropriated to every highway that may be used to pay for the permanent improvement of the country road. That this land should have been held for present values may be all right, but as fast as the good roads are wanted, the surplus should go into improvements.—Sioux City Journal.

IT

Should be borne in mind that saving money is the start towards wealth. Every man get rich, but everyone can save something. No matter how small your income may be, if you make up your mind to lay up part of your earnings every week, it may

CAN'T

RAIN

and then rain some more, but with a snug little sum to your credit in the bank you can laugh at hard times and poverty. While the Sun of Prosperity is shining is the time to save for the rainy days that are bound to come. If you have not already started an account with us, do it now. A good beginning is half the battle.

ALWAYS

The First National Bank

CAPITAL $25,000

JOHN HARTFELDER BUYS BUSINESS

Is Now the Owner of the Meservey Meat Market Which He Purchased Last Week

J. F. Hartfelder, one of our most progressive farmers, has recently purchased a business in our neighboring town, Meservey. The particulars of the transaction are given in the following extract from last week's Meservey Messenger:

"A deal was closed last Saturday whereby J. F. Hartfelder purchased the building of H. J. Klemme and business of the Meservey meat market from A. Uiter Markt and will take possession next Monday. The shop will be under the management of Lou Jones, as Mr. Hartfelder will remain on his farm for a time at least. The services of Mr. Uiter Markt have been retained; he will do the killing and a part of the outside work pertaining to the business. We are informed that the building will be thoroughly renovated, painted and placed in first-class shape for the handling of meat and a complete stock will be carried. The people of this locality should see to it that Mr. Hartfelder's ambitions to give them a modern butcher shop meets with his expectations."

Life 100,000 Years Ago

Scientists have found in a cave in Switzerland bones of men, who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was in constant danger from wild beasts. Today the danger, as shown by A. W. Brown, of Alexander, Me., is largely from deadly disease. "If it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me, I could not have lived," he writes, "suffering as I did from a severe lung trouble and stubborn cough." To cure sore lungs, colds, obstinate coughs, and prevent pneumonia, it's the best medicine on earth. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co. Trial bottle free.

Of What She Died

An old German woman became ill and was taken by her husband to a hospital for treatment.

The first day she was there, when her husband called to inquire about her, the doctor said she was improving. On the second day he was told again of "great improvement." On the third and fourth days the assurance was again "a steady improvement." This was very encouraging to the old German, but when he called on the fifth day he was told that his wife was dead. In his grief he sought his favorite friend.

"Vat's der matter?" asked the sympathetic friend.

"Ach! My vife iss dead," replied the German.

"So? Vat did she die of?" asked the friend.

"Improvements," replied the husband.

Try It On the Dog

Belle Plaine Union: It is said to be customary when a new play is brought out to take it into the country towns and try it out before staging it in the cities. This is called "trying it on the dog." It might not be a bad idea to do likewise with the new tariff bill—and let Rhode Island be the dog.

Why Women Prefer It

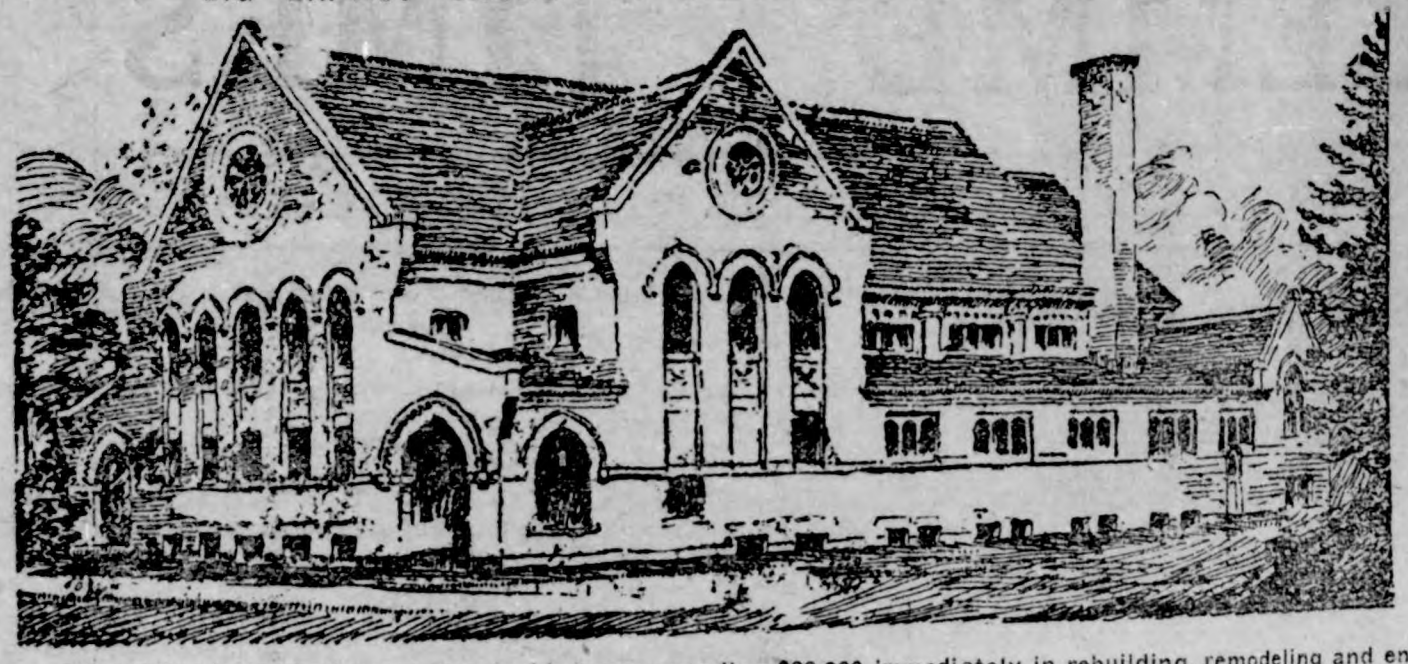
When the newsboy comes through the train with the Chicago papers, watch the married couple across the aisle. If the man is a well-regulated husband he will ask his wife which paper she prefers, and then you may lay odds that the one chosen will be the Record-Herald. There is no mystery about it. The man knows that he will find all the news in the Record-Herald, to be sure, but the woman knows that it is the only paper that also gives adequate attention to the things in which women are specially interested. In every daily issue she can find a bill of fare for the day's three meals, reliable society news, good book reviews, Mme. Qui Vive's pungent comments on beauty questions, bright verses and jokes without vulgarity, a cartoon that anybody can enjoy and a fair share of the news of the day relating to women. Every Monday there is "Martha's Management," a very helpful column of culinary topics. In the Sunday edition a whole section is devoted to women, including Marion Harland's famous page, Mme. Qui Vive's vivacious columns, Jennette Hope's fashions direct from Paris, Dame Curtsey's "Novelties in entertainment," and many special articles of timely interest. Then there is the Sunday Magazine of the Record-Herald, a real magazine full of good love stories and beautiful pictures. Do you wonder that women prefer the Record-Herald?

New Corporation for Garner

The Oregon Timber and Investment Company is a new Garner corporation which completed its organization July 9. They incorporated for $100,000. $35,000 have been subscribed and paid up. They already own 1000 acres of timber estimated to contain 45,000,000 feet of lumber. The officers are: F. M. Hanson, President, Wm. Schaper, Vice President; C. G. Bracher Secretary, and J. H. Michael, Treasurer, who are also directors. The additional directors are: C. J. Schneider, W. H. Ballard, J. C. Morrison and J. F. W. Vrba.

Read the advertisements and patronize the merchants who ask for your trade.

BIG BAPTIST CHURCH TO BE REMODELED AND ENLARGED.



Baptists of Marshalltown have decided upon spending $20,000 immediately in rebuilding, remodeling and enlarging their church in that city. When this work is done it will be one of the finest churches in central Iowa. There will be a banquet room 57x92 feet in size.

PROTEST AGAINST HANGING.

William R. Benkert.

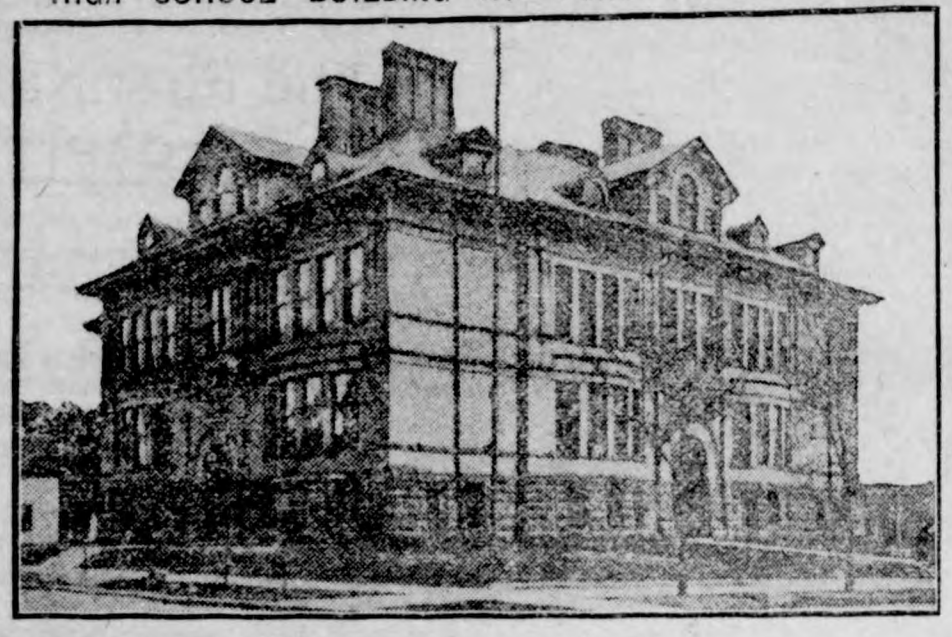
During the recent trial of the negro Junkin, in Centerville, for a capital crime committed in Ottumwa, a sensation was created by the publication of an appeal to the Christian sentiment of the people to prevent the hanging of the accused person. This appeal was on high grounds—the thought that the taking of human life is not a proper function of government and is in violation of the command to not kill. The appeal was signed by William R. Benkert, as chairman of the executive committee of the United Christian party.

There was much criticism of Mr. Benkert for this action, but it was entirely consistent with the principles advocated openly and courageously by the organization of which he is the head. That party has a platform which is not at all original and doesn't claim to be a new thing. In fact, the party might be open to the charge of plagiarism, for the platform entire consists of the Ten Commandments.

The United Christian party appears not to have attracted national attention, but that has not prevented the party going ahead and holding national conventions, maintaining an executive committee and engaging in the distribution of literature. Mr. Benkert is a resident of Davenport. The last national conference of the party was held in the famous Watch Tower on Rock Island in May, when plans were laid for organizing the various states and this was left largely to Mr. Benkert. He has the very great advantage that his wife, Mrs. Katherine Benkert, is secretary of the committee, so that there is not to be any friction in the workings of the organization. In fact, he is quite ready to concede to the secretary leadership in the good work and to accord to her more of the credit for that which has been accomplished than he takes to himself.

Mrs. Katherine M. Benkert.

HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING AT FORT DODGE REBUILT.



High School Building at Fort Dodge.

The splendid old high school building which was erected in Fort Dodge 12 years ago was completely destroyed by fire two years ago. Some of the walls were left standing, but it was possible to completely remodel the building and give it a much handsomer appearance in the rebuilding, which has been done, and to-day the city has a high school which the residents regard as one of the finest in the state.

BIG BILL FOR INSURANCE.

Iowa's life insurance bill annually is $10,645,453.41, which is a little more than $4 a year for every man, woman and child in the state. Auditor of State John L. Bleakley is issuing the insurance reports this year in three volumes instead of two. The first volume which is the fire insurance report is already out. The second volume will contain all life insurance reports except fraternal beneficiary and it will be out in a short time. The third volume will contain the fraternal beneficiary report only. The report shows that the ten old line Iowa life insurance companies had in force at the close of 1908, $112,851,757, while December 31, 1907, they had in force but $100,486,623. The amounts paid beneficiaries and policyholders increased from $1,207,663 to $1,288,571. The insurance in force by companies outside of Iowa doing a business here increased on the business done in Iowa from $174,667,735 to $186,439,254. The insurance in force by the Iowa and non-Iowa assessment companies increased from $78,257,000 to $85,542,620.

CLAY MODELING IN IOWA.

Interest taken by H. F. and L. C. Pumphrey, of Fairfield, in clay modeling may result in the establishment there of a pottery factory. The remarkable specimens of ware produced by the Pumphreys were shown some Chicago promoters and they are taking steps to establish a factory in case Jefferson county clay in found suitable. Business men of Fairfield have subscribed $350 for the erection of a kiln to test samples of clay in and the work will be begun in a short time. The kiln is already being erected. A number of small vessels burned in brick kilns here have commanded a good market, especially those decorated in natural colors by Mr. H. F. Pumphrey. The Pumphreys are now working on a life-size statue, "The Last of the Indians."

TO ENTERTAIN OLD VOTERS.

Mt. Pleasant will entertain the Fremont Voters' association of the First district, September 15. A meeting of the executive committee was held, and the preliminary arrangements made. The following members of the executive committee were present: J. A. Keck, Stockport, President; T. R. Rankin, Burlington; N. Crutchfield, Wapello, and J. A. Thomas, Mt. Pleasant. Dr. Schaeffer, of Keokuk, and S. C. Gardner, of Washington, were unable to be present. It was arranged to leave the details in charge of Mayor Dugade, J. A. Thomas and August Hettich, of Mt. Pleasant.

The German army numbers 5,000,000 men

AN IOWA SOLDIER MONUMENT.

Soldiers' Monument, Monticello.

In the beautiful little cemetery at Monticello, Ia., there was erected recently and unveiled with an appropriate program, a handsome monument dedicated to the unknown and unnamed dead of the rebellion, and especially to the departed members of Company H, Thirty-first Iowa Volunteers, a company which was raised in Jones county. The monument was the gift of S. S. Farwell, an old resident of the county, now quite feeble, but having the spirit of patriotism strong.

WILL USE HISTORIC ROAD.

The extension of the Council Bluffs & Omaha Street Railway company's lines to the school for the deaf, now about completed, will run for a short distance over the historic Lewis & Clark road. The county board of supervisors visited the school and granted permission for building the track over the road to a connection with the coal sheds at the institution. Ever since the school was established all fuel for the school has had to be hauled in wagons from Council Bluffs, a distance of nearly four miles. With the completion of the motor company's tracks coal cars will be switched to it and taken out and placed on a siding at the side of the heating plant.

Keen.

Self-importance is generally most keenly felt just after one has pounded one's thumb.

CALLING DOWN THE BOASTER

Good Little Story Told by William Dean Howells as a Rebuke to Spread-Eagleism.

"It was William Dean Howells," said a Chicago editor, "who first rebuked us Americans for our spread-eagleism, for our foolish boasting. I see that Mr. Howells has just joined a men's society for the promotion of woman suffrage. Trust him to be in the forefront always.

"I once heard Mr. Howells deliver a fourth of July oration in Maine. The orator preceding him had boasted a good deal. Mr. Howells showed that some of the man's boasts were even impious.

"He said that these spread-eagle boasters deserved the rebuke that the little child administered to the cackling hen that had just laid an egg. The child, angered by the hen's continuous cawk-cawk-cawk, cawk-cawk-cawk-cawk, shook his little finger at her and said:

"'You fink you're smart. But Dod made dat egg. You touldn't help but lay it!'"

WAS HE RIGHT.

Mrs. Rant—Do you think men are more clever than women?

Mr. Rant—Some men are.

Mrs. Rant—Who are they?

Mr. Rant—Single men.

He Bit.

The city man was jogging on toward the summer boarding-house in a rickety old wagon. The driver was glum and far from entertaining, and the city man felt rather lonely.

"Fine field over there," he ventured, after a long silence.

"Fine," grunted the driver.

"Who owns it?"

"Old man Bitt."

"Old man Bitt, eh? Who are those children stacking up hay?"

"Old man Bitt's boys."

"And what is his idea in having them out there in the field such a hot day?"

"Wal, I reckon he thinks every little Bitt helps, stranger. Anything else you want to know? Get up here, hosses."

Reputations.

"The Autocrat," remarked the Recondite Person, "made a remark the import of which escaped me until the other day. He said: 'Many a man has a reputation because of the reputation he expects to have some day.'"

"That's not a half bad remark," suggested the Practical Person, "but my son—just out from college, you know, and in the habit of thinking hump-backed thoughts, as it were—said something only this morning that appealed to me: 'Some men,' he said, 'get a reputation and keep it; other men get a reputation and make it keep them.'"

SURPRISED HIM
Doctor's Test of Food.

A doctor in Kansas experimented with his boy in a test of food and gives the particulars. He says:

"I naturally watch the effect of different foods on patients. My own little son, a lad of four, had been ill with pneumonia and during his convalescence did not seem to care for any kind of food.

"I knew something of Grape-Nuts and its rather fascinating flavor, and particularly of its nourishing and nerve-building powers, so I started the boy on Grape-Nuts and found from the first dish that he liked it.

"His mother gave it to him steadily and he began to improve at once. In less than a month he had gained about eight pounds and soon became so well and strong we had no further anxiety about him.

"An old patient of mine, 73 years old, came down with serious stomach trouble and before I was called had got so weak he could eat almost nothing, and was in a serious condition. He had tried almost every kind of food for the sick without avail.

"I immediately put him on Grape-Nuts with good, rich milk and just a little pinch of sugar. He exclaimed when I came next day 'Why doctor I never ate anything so good or that made me feel so much stronger.'

"I am pleased to say that he got well on Grape-Nuts, but he had to stick to it for two or three weeks, then he began to branch out a little with rice or an egg or two. He got entirely well in spite of his almost hopeless condition. He gained 22 pounds in two months which at his age is remarkable.

"I could quote a list of cases where Grape-Nuts has worked wonders."

"There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Have No Use for Pins.

All American exporters concer... are warned by Consul General D... that they'll never get rich by se... pins to the people of Shanghai. ... Chinese have no use for pins, ... says, "strings and knots and l... meeting every requirement of ... and female, young and old, to keep ... or her garments securely and a... fastened."

Starch, like everything else, is ... ing constantly improved, the p... Starches put on the market 25 y... ago are very different and inferio... those of the present day. In the... est discovery—Defiance Starch—... injurious chemicals are omitted, ... the addition of another ingredient ... vented by us, gives to the Starc... strength and smoothness never ... proached by other brands.

The Only Way.

"My wife never opens letters ... are addressed to me."

"You have 'em all sent to your ... address, do you?"—Cleveland Le...

It is a mother's duty to keep cons... on hand some reliable remedy for u... case of sudden accident or mishap t... children. Hamlins Wizard Oil ... depended upon for just such emerge...

It's no use talking about the p... of God if your life is a provoc... to your neighbors.

RUSS BLUE IS GOOD BLU... Preserves clothes and makes and ... them white as snow. All grocers 5c.

The wastes of love bring gr... riches than the wisdom of greed.

WANTS HE... LETTER ... PUBLISHE...

For Benefit of Women ... Suffer from Female Ill...

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a ... sufferer from female troubles ... caused a weak... and broken ... condition of ... system. I re... much of what I... E. Pinkham's ... etable Compo... had done for ... suffering wom... felt sure it ... help me, and I ... say it did hel... wonderfully. ... pains all left ... grew stronger, and within three mo... I was a perfectly well woman.

"I want this letter made publ... show the benefit women may d... from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege... Compound."—Mrs. JOHN G. MOL... 2115 Second St., North, Minnea... Minn.

Thousands of unsolicited and ... ine testimonials like the above ... the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkh... Vegetable Compound, which is ... exclusively from roots and herbs.

Women who suffer from thos... tressing ills peculiar to their sex s... not lose sight of these facts or d... the ability of Lydia E. Pinkh... Vegetable Compound to restore ... health.

If you want special advice ... to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, ... She will treat your letter as str... confidential. For 20 years ... has been helping sick wome... this way, free of charge. D... hesitate—write at once.

SICK HEADAC...

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cur... these Little P...

They also relie... tress from Dyspep... digestion and Too... Eating. A perfec... edy for Dizziness... sea, Drowsiness... Taste in the Mouth... ed Tongue, Pain ... Side, TORPID L...

They regulate the Bowels. Purely Veg...

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL P...

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Be... Fac-Simile Signatu...

REFUSE SUBSTITU...

The largest package and best goods on the market. A-B-C ... Only 25c at all Dealers—25c.

Des Moines Directo...

THRESH... HERMAN'S SUPP... Oils, Belting, Packing, Steam and Water Fittings, Pipe, etc., for the Farm or Home. Write, Phone or Telegra... orders to THE GLOBE MACHINERY & S... CO., 205-207 W. Court Ave., Des Moines, Iowa.

KODAKS The only ... line in the Amateur ... done by experts. Bromide enlarging. ... free booklet—Kodak on the Farm.

Des Moines Photo Materials

Machinery Machine Sho... Foundry, L... stock of used ma... in Iowa. ... Boilers, Steam ... Belting, Shafting, Hangers, etc., bought a... American Iron Works, 218-223 E. First St., Des Moi...

PARDON SMITH

Board Recommends Clemency for Aged Convict.

F AUTHOR OF "AMERICA"

r of Davenport Sent Up for ezzlement for Eleven Years ing East to Die at End of Five Year Term.

Moines, July 24.—Samuel Franith, once mayor of Davenport son of the author of "Americavicted of perjury, larceny and ement, has been granted a don by the board of parole subGov. B. F. Carroll's approval. , aged 73 years, tottering and from his five years' confine- Anamosa, will be allowed to to the old family home in Center, Mass., to live the deyears of his life with his wife pled daughter.

ically all the leading citizens enport pleaded for clemency old man. Though Smith was ed of large defalcations, in- the hard earned money of and orphans, sympathy for neer citizen and one time promawyer gained the upper hand minds of the people, many of were the largest losers by his was an early settler in Iowa. from an aristocratic New d family he settled with his Davenport in the early days. from the first a leader in the of the city. He was honored e office of mayor; was a leadhurch work, and was generally zed as a representative citizen enport.

Pharmacists Pass Examinations.

lady pharmacists passed the examination given by the state cy commission at Iowa City e 11, according to the list of ful candidates just announced cretary C. W. Larson. The xamination of the state pharboard will be given August 5. ing is the list of successful nts: Seth A. Bergren, Stanas. E. Booge, Sioux City; M. ntz, Waterloo; J. Albert Pierce, , Col.; J. A. Anderson, Iowa William Dolash, Tama; Oscar h, Waterloo; Charles M. Lynds, port; Elmer Weidenholft, Dev- Omer C. Bishart, Wayland; Reimersma, Sioux Center; C. Domina, Iowa City; Peter Jr., Marengo; P. S. Wanamakwa City; Phillip Sipfle, Clin- Harrison H. Gibbs, Cedar Rap- Frank E. Horak, Cedar Rap- Henry Henrichson, Clinton; R. Lent, Correctionville; Hararden, Casey; J. Rea Morford, ton; Alvin H. Kohl, Mechanicsand John H. Schumenman, Cells.

After Roads.

missioner E. G. Wylie has askrailroad commission to modify its rules which requires that package or article shipped by t in less than carload lots must arly marked with the name and s of the consignee. It is found here 200 or 300 brick or more pped every brick would have to arked, which is deemed clearly ctical.

ers for Large Sum.

requires the services of two men rry the vouchers filed in probate by the executors of the estate e late James Callanan. The pare the first filed since the death e millionaire in 1904. There are than 4,000 vouchers in the big and they account for the expene of more than $750,000.

to Play Golf Here.

t President William H. Taft will golf on the beautiful eighteencourse of the Golf and Country when he attends the military ament, September 20, is assured. as written President James B. er, Jr., of the Golf and Country saying that he would be pleased y over the local links.

an Naturalized.

e first woman in Iowa to apply naturalization papers since the law of the last general assembly into effect, July 1, was Anna Au- Bertha Steffens, who was granter first papers in district court. new law allows foreign-born womo become citizens. Miss Steffens born in Germany.

men File Affidavits.

ymen who allowed Lottie Louer from Ben Banning on breach of ise filed affidavits in district denying that they had been re- in their methods at arriving at rdict.

The Mabray and Crabtree Cases.

Des Monies, July 22.—That Corporal Lisle Crabtree, charged with the murder of Captain John C. Raymond of the Second cavalry, and J. C. Mabray, accused of using the United States mails to defraud, will both be tried before Judge McPherson in Des Moines at the next session of the federal court is the opinion of many of the local officers. And if so it will make the September term of the federal court by far the most important that has ever been held in this city and probably in the state of Iowa from a standpoint of general interest to the public.

Both cases have already been given the widest publicity. They affect a large number of people and both have many features of the tragic which has aroused a keen interest in everyone. Both men are anxious to be tried in the federal court in Des Moines—one because he fears his enemies in Council Bluffs. The federal officers are as anxious to try Mabray in Des Moines as he is to have his trial here because they believe they stand better chances of securing a conviction, while on the other hand the prisoner feels that he has a better chance for an acquittal. So with both sides favoring a hearing in this city it seems certain that it will be held here.

Shippers Win in Freight Rate Fight.

Live stock shippers won their fight before the state railroad commission when the ruling was made that the 31-foot minimum rate rule will be enforced until June 1, 1910, and it will be changed if conditions then are the same as at the present time. The compromise was based on the theory that railroads should not be required to furnish 31-foot cars when they have none, but that the shippers should be given sufficient notice before the change is made.

Applications for higher rates on candy, confectionery, hides and leather in rolls were denied, these decisions being victories for Freight Commissioner E. G. Wylie and other representatives of the shipping interests.

The commission ruled in favor of the creameries and an order was made that joint express rates equal to 80 per cent of the sum of the two locals be placed in effect. A reservation was made in favor of the express companies, allowing them to charge a reasonable amount for transfers.

No Mystery in Byers' Death.

Col. A. W. Swalm made a complete investigation into the circumstances surrounding the death of Lawrence Marshall Byers in London and reached the conclusion that everything possible was done by the doctors and nurses at the London nursing home where Professor Byers' death occurred, but that it was impossible for them to proong his life.

This information was conveyed to Maj. and Mrs. S. H. M. Byers in a letter which they received from Colonel Swalm, written at Southampton July 13. Colonel Swalm was unable to make the trip to America in charge of the body, as he could not secure leave of absence from his post as consul at Southampton in time to embark on the Majestic.

First Year Under Commision Plan.

Des Moines, Iowa.—It cost $998,875.77—nearly a million dollars—to run the city of Des Moines during the year ending April 1, 1909. The share of every man ,woman and child in this expense is approximately $10, for the per capita rate on a population of 100,000 is exactly $9.56, and Des Moines does not have quite that many people. Most cities in Des Moines' class are from $2 to $5 higher in the average cost for each citizen.

The Treasurers Are Chosen.

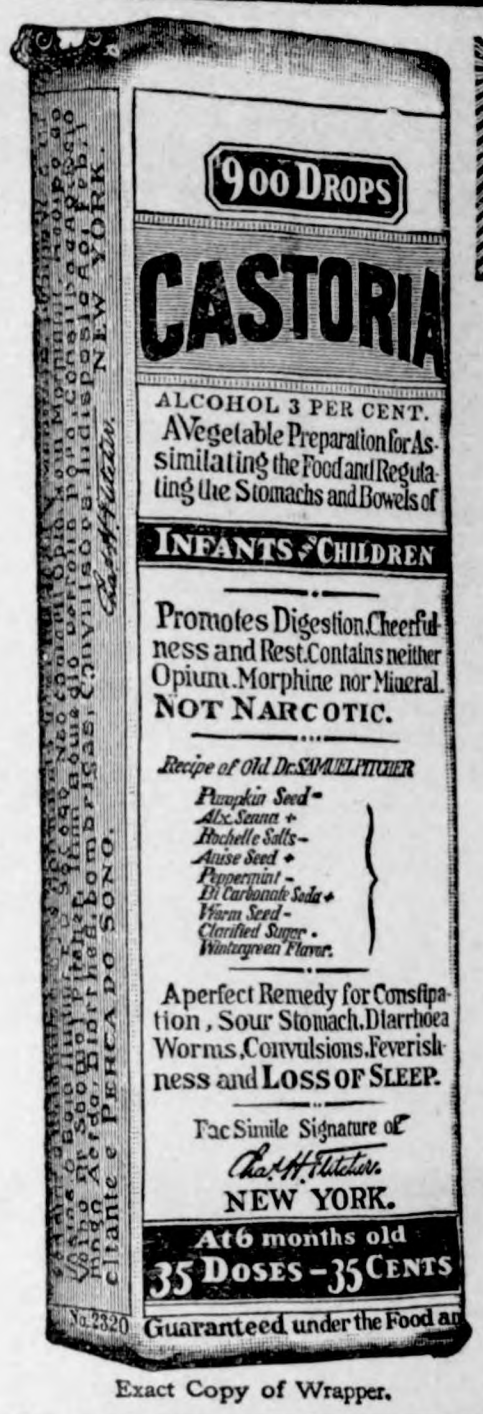
Shedding their coats and rolling up their sleeves the members of the newly created board of education met in the speakers' room at the state house. Treasurers for the three state educational institutions were elected as follows: H. N. Silliman, Cedar Falls; A. E. Swisher, Iowa City, and Herman Knapp, Ames. E. W. Stanton of Ames was elected secretary of that school. These officers will serve from July 1, 1909 to June 30, 1910.

Fine New Map Is Printed.

The placing of red stars to show the track connections of the various roads operating in Iowa is a feature of the new map of Iowa, which has just been completed and which is being sent out from the office of the state railroad commission. The map also shows all interurban lines up to date as well as the Mason City extension of the Iowa Short line.

"Long Distance" Divorce.

Although occupying the office of United States district attorney of Alaska, 3,000 miles from the city of Des Moines, J. J. Crossley, formerly senator from Madison county in the Iowa legislature, secured a divorce in the district court of Polk county on July 16, 1909. The decree was signed by Judge McHenry.



Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signatnre of Chas. H. Fletcher. and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS
Bears the Signature of
Chas. H. Fletcher.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

WHY, OF COURSE.

"Farmer, which of those cows of yours gives the buttermilk?"

"None of 'em. The goat."

SKIN ERUPTION CURED.

Was So Sore, Irritating and Painful That Little Sufferer Could Not Sleep —Scratched Constantly.

Cuticura's Efficacy Clearly Proven.

"When about two and a half years old my daughter broke out on her hips and the upper parts of her legs with a very irritating and painful eruption. It began in October; the first I noticed was a little red surface and a constant desire on her part to scratch her limbs. She could not sleep and the eruptions got sore, and yellow water came out of them. I had two doctors treat her, but she grew worse under their treatment. Then I bought the Cuticura Remedies and only used them two weeks when she was entirely well. This was in February. She has never had another rough place on her skin, and she is now fourteen years old. Mrs. R. R. Whitaker, Winchester, Tenn., Sept. 22, 1908."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Tuberculous Children.

In the cities of New York and Boston there are, according to special commissions which recently investigated the subject, over 30,000 children in these two cities alone that have tuberculosis. On the basis of these and other investigations it is estimated by certain authorities that there are nearly 1,000,000 school children in the United States to-day who will probably die of tuberculosis before they have reached the age of 18. This would mean that the public is paying annually about $7,500,000 for the education of children who will die before they reach the age of 18.

Sheer white goods, in fact, any fine wash goods when new, owe much of their attractiveness to the way they are laundered, this being done in a manner to enhance their textile beauty. Home laundering would be equally satisfactory if proper attention was given to starching, the first essential being good Starch, which has sufficient strength to stiffen, without thickening the goods. Try Defiance Starch and you will be pleasantly surprised at the improved appearance of your work.

His Need.

"What you require," said Knowitall, "is a thrifty, economical wife."

"Why?" asked his friend blankly.

"Because you're a poor young man," was the answer.

"You're wrong. What I need is a wealthy, liberal wife."

HELP!

Your digestion with delicious mint-leaf flavored

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT PEPSIN GUM
THE FLAVOR LASTS

Look for the spear — The flavor lasts

His Handicap.

Kind Lady—Ah, my poor man, why don't you straighten up and take your place in society?

Dusty Dan—What would be the use, mum? I am too restless to play "bridge."

When a fellow begins to feel that he couldn't live without a certain girl, he ought to marry her and see.

EVERY GOOD HOUSEKEEPER wants white clothes. It's easy if she uses RUSS BLUE. 5c at grocers.

He never has a message who does not know how to listen.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Gifts to God can never make up for thefts from men.

DAILY and SUNDAY

FOR $1.00

The Des Moines Daily and Sunday News six full months for $1.00. Paper stops when time is out unless you renew.

IOWA FARMS $4 PER ACRE CASH BALANCE ½ CROP TILL PAID

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Books free. Highest references. Best results.

Oklahoma

The New State

A brand new ILLUSTRATED BOOK about this wonderful section filled with valuable information for the intending settler. It's yours for the asking.

W. S. ST. GEORGE
Gen'l Passenger Agent, M. K. & T. Ry.
St. Louis, Mo.
Very Low Excursion Rates on 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of Each Month.
Ask for Particulars.

Biliousness

"I have used your valuable Cascarets and I find them perfect. Couldn't do without them. I have used them for some time for indigestion and biliousness and am now completely cured. Recommend them to everyone. Once tried, you will never be without them in the family."—Edward A. Marx, Albany, N.Y.

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good. Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken or Gripe. 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold in bulk. The genuine tablet stamped C C C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back. 929

HOMES with water protection, fruit and alfalfa farms. Government lands and Relinquishments in the Valley of Tularosa, the home of fine fruits, near depot. For information address with stamp, L. E. LUMBLEY, Monterey, N. M.

GROCERIES & HARDWARE

We always have on hand a complete line. Our Groceries are alwa s new and fresh and the line comprises all the staples and a dandy line of Canned Goods. Our line of Shelf and Heavy Hardware is complete. We invite you to call and inspect our goods.

We want you to see us about

OILS

Threshing season will soon be here. Our oils are the very best. Don't forget us.

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA

STOCK FOODS

We carry a full line of Dr. Hess' Scientific Veterinary Stock Preparations. These preparations have been thoroughly tried and proven to give absolute satisfaction. Dr. Hess & Clark guarantee back of every preparation.

Stock Food for horses and cattle.

Worm Powder for hogs and cattle.

Panacea for Gaps, Cholera and Roup. Makes the hens lay.

Instant Lice Killer kills Lice. Ticks, Fleas. A reliable disinfectant powder put up in cans with perforated top.

Heave Powder Always gives relief.

Distemper, Fever and Cough Remedy.

Healing Powder Heals from bottom and leaves no scar

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile. both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, AGENT

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

ELL CENTER

Special Correspondence:

Clifford Swartz visited his parents near Garner Sunday.

Mr. Babcock, of Kanawha, has rented the Fred Ax house.

Mrs. Hake, of Belmond, has been visiting at Joe Lawhorn's.

Mrs. Joe Lawhorn visited relatives at Garner over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wessels spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Esk.

Walter Stoker left Saturday for a visit with relatives at Waseca, Minn.

Herman Schuldt and wife, of Twin Lake, visited at Herman Barz' Sunday.

Hod Lawhorn and wife entertained Tom Nelson and wife and Mark Adwell and family Sunday.

Tortured on a Horse

"For ten years I couldn't ride a horse without being in torture from piles," writes L. S. Napier, of Rugless, Ky., "when all doctors and other remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me." Infallible for piles, burns, scalds, cuts, boils, fever-sores, eczema, salt rheum, corns 25c. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

GOODELL

From the Globe:

John Nolte was a Rowan visitor over Sunday.

Aug. Lau has had his elevator newly painted.

Wm. Beiers went to Chicago with stock the fore part of the week.

O. T. Bamford's children spent Sunday near Klemme at the home of Elmer Thomas.

Miss Mary Christensen left Monday for Kellogg, Iowa, where she has a position in a general store.

The Hall family are now living in Mrs. Avery's house in the south part of town. Mrs. Avery will spend a few months at the home of her brother in Minnesota.

A township Sunday School convention will be held at Center school house, Twin Lake township on Sunday Aug. 1st at 2:00 p m. A good program has been arranged and all are cordially invited to be present.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the Best and Surest

"It affords me pleasure to state that I consider the preparation known as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the best and surest of good results of any I have ever used in my family," says P. E. Herrington, of Mount Aerial, Ky. This is the universal verdict of all who use this remedy. Its cures are so prompt and effectual that people take pleasure in recommending it. For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

MESERVEY

From the Messenger:

Wm. Umverferth is reported quite seriously sick at his home northwest of town.

Rev. J. G. Theilken of the Reformed church, accompanied by his wife, came up from Palsville Wednesday and were making calls on the parishioners here. Many are the expressions of regret among the members of his church here of his decision to remove from among them.

The past two weeks has given a whole lot of encouragement to the farmers in this locality. Weather has been ideal and crops have greatly advanced. Oats that two weeks ago seemed nothing are making good, and corn is looking fine. The farmer has had to do his work this season in discouraging difficulties but there is splendid prospects for a reward to those that have been industrious

One Dollar

Mr. Farmer---It costs but a trifle more to buy printed letter heads and envelopes than it does to use any old thing, and certainly it looks more business-like to use printed stationery For a limited time we offer you 100 sheets good writing paper and 100 good envelopes, printed with your name and address, both for $1.00. Give us your order now.

The Times Printery

Elkhart Buggies

are the best made, best grade and easiest riding buggies on earth for the money.

FOR THIRTY-SIX YEARS

we have been selling direct and are The Largest Manufacturers in the World selling to the consumer exclusively.

We ship for examination and approval, guaranteeing safe delivery, and also to save you money. If you are not satisfied as to style, quality and price you are nothing out.

May We Send You Our Large Catalogue?

Elkhart Carriage & Harness Mfg. Co.
Elkhart, - - - - Indiana

Price $56.00 With Twin Auto Seat

PETROLEUM COKE

A carload of COKE just received and another car to arrive soon. The supply is limited, so order at once as it has heretofore been impossible to get it later in the season. Also Best Grades in all Soft Coals at Prices that are RIGHT.

Highest Market Price Paid for Grain and Live Stock Six Days in the Week

H. C. LAU

M. M. S. POULTRY FENCE.

Patented July 21, 1896. [TRADE MARK] Patented July 6, 1897.

50 PER CENT. SAVING. Requires no top or bottom rail and only ¼ as many posts as the old style netting and makes a better fence. A full line of Field and Hog Fencing, Steel Picket Lawn Fence, Gates, Posts, Rail, etc. Write for full particulars.

UNION FENCE CO., De Kalb, Ill.

KLEMME MARKET.

.....	60 to 62c
.....	34 to 35c
.....	80 to 100
.....	40 to 50c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	7.00 to 7.10
.....	3.00 to 6.00

CAL NEWS

fruits at Kluckhohn's.

r Zinn tests eyes and sses. 51tf finest line of candies in Kluckhohn's. 45tf to Mr. and Mrs. G. H. on Thursday, July 22, ghter was born to Mr s. Wm. Prull last Sunday g.

Gruetzmacher and fam- e here from Charles City nnday.

P. Ell was at Garner turday having some den- k done.

tal Lake had a big fire night, four or five build- ing destroyed.

Suckow has been paper- interior of Arthur Wel- r's store this week.

John Baumgartner and n left Monday for Lehigh, for a visit with relatives.

W. Lemke has concluded needs the home paper, added his name to our readers.

w shipment of Tables has een received at Welle- s. Extension tables and tables. 1w e Day and his crew of ters this week finished nstruction of a large new for Wm. Bachman on his rm six miles southeast of ne. The new building is feet, 14 foot posts, has a ent and is modern in ev- rticular.

printed stationery for Bock, Sr. and Ben Swalve our progressive farmers, ast week. These gentle- elieve in being up to-date rything. Give the farm a get your writing paper nvelopes printed, and be essive. The cost is tri-

. G. Houghton now repre- tte Mutual Life Insurance any of New York, the gest of Companies— one as the lowest proportion- xpenses and pays the high vidends (over 17 per cent ear.) See a policy that in- certain payment in case of , and all your money re- d with good interest IF LIVE. 52 3 gust Lau has certainly the paint fly this summer. as newly painted his ele- buildings in Klemme and ell, also his fine residence emme and the buildings on farm. While working on levator at Goodell he lost oustache. He did not say ut we opine that the wind blowing so hard at that altitude that his upper lip shaven clean by the gentle yrs.

ing obliged to take it for I will sell it out cheap;
Hess Stock Food.
Hess Poultry Panacea.
Hess Instant Louse Kill-
Hess Hog Worm Powder.
e had at G. F. Schuler's er, Iowa.

Brother Fred Sells to Brother John

Last week a deal was consumated whereby the Klemme meat market changes hands, John Griewe purchasing the business from his brother Fred, who has been running it for a short time. John has been working in the shop right along so he is not new to the business, and we predict for him success in his business venture. We have not been informed as to what Fred intends to do, but we hope he will continue to reside among us. The new proprietor took posession of the business Monday.

Threshers Attention — W. R. Bloom has his threshing coal in, several varieties of the best qualities Call and get prices. 51

Mrs. N. L. Palmer and Miss Vera Kimball were Garner visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Maus and children, of Rake, Iowa, are visiting at the Tom Blank home.

It's just what you need when you feed the thrashers—a new table—at Wellemeyer s. 1w

A new baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yahnke, Tuesday, July 26th.

The Dain Hay Loaders are selling like hot cakes. They are dandies. See H. Lau & Son.

Try Kluckhohn's ice cream soda with crushed fruit and you will become a regular customer.

Henry Henschen and family arrived here Tuesday from Fort Wayne, Indiana, for a visit at the Henschen home.

Having sold out, I desire those owing me on account to please call and settle as soon as possible. Fred C. Griewe.

Eru Lewis returned Tuesday from a six weeks' visit among friends and relatives at Beaver Dam and other Wisconsin points.

Mrs. J, H. Maher arrived in Klemme from Preston, Iowa, last Friday, for a visit with her husband, agent for the Rock Island.

W. R. Bloom shipped a car of hogs Sunday, H. C. Lau a car Wednesday, and Julius Priebe a car of cattle Wednesday. Mr. Priebe went in with his shipment.

New cement walks are being laid along the street in front of the barber shop, the opera house and the vacant lot of the Rock Island Plow Co. this week. H. Allen is doing the work.

"Mont" Pollock was found dead in his room at Garner last Thursday morning. It is supposed that he committed suicide as there was a bottle close at hand which had contained carbolic acid. The cause for the rash act is not known.

The mule is gone. No more will the people in the business part of town have sweet music to cheer them up in their strenuous daily labors. J. W. Scott has sold Jack to Henry Schwartz so while Jack has not really gone from town, still his melodious voice will hardly carry to the down town district. Just by chance G. A. Pabst was the proud possessor of this bunch of mule-flesh for a while last Saturday, but the Edison phonograph was not tuned right to chord with Jack's basso profundo, so Pabst sold him back to Scott. Here's hopin' Jack likes his new place.

A Night Rider's Raid

The worst night riders are calomel, croton oil or aloes pills. They raid your bed to rob you of rest. Not so with Dr. King's New Life Pills. They never distress or inconvenience, but always cleanse the system, curing colds, headache, constipation, malaria 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

Henry Yahnke Injured

Henry Yahnke was the victim of a very serious accident last Sunday afternoon and the results came near to being fatal. In company with a few friends he was engaged in playing base ball at the place of Albert Fuller. Henry was catching behind the bat without the usual mask to protect his face, when a foul tip hit him full in the face His nose was broken and the hemorrhage which followed was most severe and for a time it was feared he would not be able to survive. Medical aid was summoned immediately and it was with great difficulty that the flow of blood was stopped. At present he is resting easy and seems to be well on the way to a good recovery.

On Tuesday afternoon a number of his friends, members of the Klemme Camp M. W. A. went to Henry's place with teams and binders and proceeded to cut and shock up his oat crop. This is an act of kindness which no doubt will be highly appreciated by Mr. and Mrs. Yahnke. All his many friends hope Henry may speedily recover from the effects of his accident and soon be as good as new again.

Notice

To all owners, occupants or parties in control of real estate and lots in the Town of Klemme:

Please take notice that all noxious weeds growing upon said property shall be mowed before Aug. 5th, 1909, and all weeds on the streets and alleys within the town of Klemme shall be mowed before the 5th day of August, 1909, and on failure to cut such weeds before said date, they will be mowed by the street commissioner and the expense will be assessed to the abutting property.

F. GRUETZMACHER, Mayor.

Ice cream sodas. sundaes, and all kinds of cool refreshing drinks at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

German M. E. Church Items

Mrs. Hans Josten of Garner was a Klemme caller last Friday.

Ernest Wellemeyer returned to Charles City Tuesday morning.

Howard Terhufen is spending a few days in Germantown with his cousins.

Mrs. W. C. A. Gast has been quite sick the last week, suffering with gall-stones.

Wm. Sampson has been in Germantown of late assisting his son in-law, W. C. A. Gast, with his work.

Miss Carrie Philenwarth, of Monona, spent the fore part of this week with Mrs. Josten and other former Clayton county people.

The "Standard Bearer" Society will meet with Mrs. Wessel next week Friday evening. As this is the last meeting in this conference year, all members are urged to pay their dues by that time.

The members of the Klemme "Standard Bearer Society" are supporting a "Bible woman" in China, besides their regular missionary dues. To raise a small balance of this amount they served ice cream, cake. coffee and doughnuts on the church lawn Tuesday evening.

Mother Brouwer and Etna Suckow, of Garner. spent Sunday with the latter's parents in Germantown.

Henry Lenz of Lansing, Iowa, stopped off a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Yahnke, on his way home from Dakota.

Wm. Bredlow and wife and Albert Riemer and wife, of north Germantown. called on Grandma Gruetzmacher Sunday afternoon.

Our meat market has again changed proprietors. Fred C. Griewe has sold out to his brother and John is the new "butch."

Blanche Merten, of Charles City, spent Saturday and Sunday in Klemme, the guest of Emelia Lenz, returning Monday afternoon.

Ernest Weliemeyer has made a material change in the appearance of his brother's store. Practically there are now five separate departments in one building.

Prof. W. F. Finke of Charles City will conduct the fourth quarterly meeting Saturday and Sunday in the Germantown church. There will be no services in the Klemme church.

Since Mrs. H. L. Schuldt and daughters are about to move to Garner, a number of ladies, members of the W. F. M. Society gave Mrs. Schuldt a "Farewell," last week in the form of a surprise.

Lurena Wessel gave a party Monday evening in honor of Esther Huff of Charles City who had been visiting with her nearly a week. Her Sunday School classmates were the invited guests

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Griffen had their little daughter christened last Sunday, naming her Madeline Meta. A large circle of friends and relatives had been invited and a splendid dinner was served.

The weather last week was most favorable to the farmers. They put up a lot of hay and many cut oats. Though we were not in need of rain, like other localities. the mild sprinkle Sunday night was very refreshing.

Wm. Brandt, who was taken to the Osteopath Infirmary at Kirksville, Mo., in a helpless condition two months ago, returned last week so much improved that he is able to walk almost as well as a healthy person. He received many hearty handshakes at the church Sunday and his neighbors were all delighted to see him so much improved. He will return for further treatment in September.

DOCTORS
GEO. ZINN EDGAR ZINN
Office: State Savings Bank
Phone No. 19
KLEMME - - IOWA

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Phone No. 11. Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to calls, day or night.
Eyes tested. Glasses fitted.

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
Eyes Tested Free.

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures
See me when you want a Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

JOHN GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Headquarters for part of Heinz' Fifty-Seven Varieties, and Pickling Vinegar.
Try these goods; they are fine.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
Call in

RESTAURANT
Fresh New Candies, Nicest Line in Town
Van Camp's Pork and Beans. Try them for lunch. Try our Golden Orangeade, Pop and Cider. Home-made Ice cream, Cones and Sodas.
—Home-made Bakery Goods,—
Lunches and Meals at all hours.
A. Kirkwood & Son

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

National Encampment
G. A. R.
SALT LAKE CITY
August 9-14, 1909
Why not take your vacation at the time of the encampment and go with the "boys in blue"
Thro' Scenic Colorado
To the city of the Mormons, one of the most interesting places in the country to visit? The things to do and the places to see are legion, and the added attraction of the trip through Colorado, that wonderland of Nature, can be enjoyed by planning your trip via
Rock Island-Frisco Lines
Ask for folder descriptive of the event and trip.
J. H. MAHER, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. TILTON, Publisher

KLEMME - - - IOWA

SUMMARY OF A WEEK'S EVENTS

Latest News of Interest Boiled Down for the Busy Man.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Government statistics show a decrease of 20 per cent. in immigration to the United States for the month of June as compared with May.

The house passed the urgency deficiency bill which includes $25,000 traveling expenses for President Taft.

President Taft gave a dinner for the tariff conferees and attempted to break the deadlock into which Senator Aldrich and Representative Payne had gotten them.

James T. Lloyd of Missouri was elected chairman of the Democratic congressional campaign committee.

Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh will leave Washington for his summer home at Dublin, N. H., as soon as congress adjourns.

PERSONAL.

Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard university, in a Boston address said the twentieth century will bring about a new religiou.

William Franklin Willoughby, of Virginia, has been appointed assistant director of the census bureau.

Huntington Wilson, assistant secretary of state, is ill of appendicitis in Washington.

President Taft will attend the trans-Mississippi commercial congress in Denver, August 16.

The report that the king of Portugal is to wed Princess Alexandra of England was officially denied in London.

Judge Joseph R. Clarkson of Kenosha, Wis., who disappeared from Omaha for five months, 18 years ago, is again mysteriously missing.

Wayne M. Belvin, a New Yorker who was caught "short" in the wheat corner, was thrown out of the office of James A. Patten in Chicago by the "wheat king's" body guard.

Deep Sky, a Sioux Indian chief, procured a license in New York to wed Adele Rowland, a pretty white girl.

Henry Farman made a flight of 40 miles, lasting more than an hour, in his aeroplane, sailing from Chalons to Suippes, France.

John S. Wise, Jr., of New York, according to a report from Paris, France, said former President Roosevelt may be a candidate for mayor of New York.

GENERAL NEWS.

Two members of a party from Illinois were killed and two badly hurt when caught by a cloudburst in Two Mile canyon, near Boulder, Col.

Urged by his bride to tell the truth, J. L. Byrd of Memphis, Tenn., confessed to the Denver police that he had killed a man in Memphis two years ago.

Madarial Dhinagri, the Hindoo slayer of Lieut. Col. Sir William Hutt Curzon Wyllie and Dr. Cawas Lalcaca in London, was convicted and sentenced to die, in less than an hour. He thanked the court.

Cornelius Shea, former head of the Teamsters' union, when sentenced to from five to twenty-five years in prison for attempting to murder Alice Walsh in New York, was denounced by Judge Foster as a traitor to labor.

Mrs. Amos P. Dorrence, wife of a wealthy coal dealer of Helena, Mont., was slain in a hotel in Hot Springs, Ark., while her husband, an invalid, looked on, unable to aid her.

Max Ozzine was caught in a laundry machine at Hoboken, N. J., and literally wrung to death.

Richard Cannon, nephew of Speaker Cannon, and John Noone, a brewer of Danville, Ill., were hurt in an automobile accident at Crawfordsville, Ind.

Forty workmen were buried and 20 killed by the collapse of a building in St. Petersburg.

Detective James Griffin of the Chicago police force was indicted as the collector of bribes from resort keepers, several of whom are also under indictment.

It is reported from Mexico City that Presidents Taft and Diaz will meet at San Antonio instead of El Paso, Tex.

Robbers boarded an Erie train in New Jersey and, at the point of pistols, robbed passengers of their money and jewelry.

The American Telegraph & Telephone Company has taken over the Central District and Printing Telephone Company, the local Bell telephone concern of Pittsburg, Pa.

Fargo, N. D., rejected the commission form of government by 99 majority.

"Adam God," who was sentenced at Kansas City to 25 years in the penitentiary for the murder of Patrolman Nicholas Mullan last December, was taken to the penitentiary at Jefferson City.

Twenty workmen were killed by the collapse of a building under construction in St. Petersburg, Russia.

"Habitual aviators" have been barred as risks by the Travelers' Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn.

Fred G. Jenkins, teller of the Farmers' National bank at Cynthiana, Ky., and a prominent Baptist, shot and killed himself.

Creditors of a former wealthy resident of Latrobe, Pa., forced the sale by auction of a tomb at Greensburg, Pa., containing several bodies. The sale was conducted in a cemetery, despite pleas of persons whose dead rested in the lot put up for sale.

Wisconsin militia was ordered to be ready to go to Kenosha, where three men were shot in a riot of tannery strikers.

To protect themselves in the event of the death of E. H. Harriman, investors in securities of his railroads took out insurance policies on his life amounting to more than $1,000,000.

Three lives were lost when a cloudburst flooded Duluth, Minn., and caused great damage to property.

Capt. Peter C. Hains, slayer of William E. Annis, since his incarceration in Sing Sing penitentiary, has perfected an invention which will reduce the cost of cleansing city streets.

Advices were received in Washington that Argentine and Bolivia are endeavoring to settle their differences without going to war.

Figureheads that are to be removed from warships of the navy are to be loaned to the states for which the vessels are named.

Reports received in Houston, Tex., said 21 persons had lost their lives, scores were hurt and 13 were missing in the gulf storm.

Mrs. Agnes Mayfield was arrested in Chicago on a charge of shooting her mother, Mrs. H. G. Hinkley, following a quarrel over a Mexican mining deal in which they were interested.

George Staiger and Harold Banks, choir boys of Michigan City, Ind., were drowned in Lake Michigan in the presence of their pastor and eight choir boys.

The Norwegian steamer Tricolor, which arrived at Vancouver, B. C., brought the report that 300 persons had been killed by a volcano eruption and earthquake in Sumatra.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, in a speech in Minneapolis, said women should do police duty and help to fight fires if the suffrage movement wins.

President T. L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers, has received a telegram at Wilkesbarre, Pa., announcing that the dispute between the miners and their employers in northern Wyoming was settled.

The comptroller of the currency has designated South Omaha as one of the reserve cities for government money.

Senator Brown of Nebraska declared the statement of Justice Brewer of the supreme court concerning an income tax "utterly ridiculous, absurd and senile."

Francis J. Heney, who is in Alaska on the Copper river, says he rendered service to the government for every penny he received as special counsel.

An earthquake destroyed much property on the west coast of Sumatra last month, causing floods and an eruption of Mount Korintji, 12,400 feet high.

Twenty Russian political exiles forced a company of deported Russians at East Cape, Siberia, to seize boats for them to escape across Bering strait.

Galveston, Tex., was saved by the sea wall erected after the disaster in 1900 from a hurricane and tidal wave which caused the deaths of ten persons on a pier outside the city.

Great damage was done and the lives of many persons were in peril when dams on rivers in northern Wisconsin burst following a hard storm.

Indictments charging murder were returned at Watseka, Ill., against Mrs. Sayler, Dr. W. R. Miller and John Grunden, held in connection with the slaying of the Crescent City banker, J. B. Sayler.

Application was made in the federal court at Indianapolis for an injunction against the strikers at the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company's plant in Elwood, Ind.

Justice Brewer of the supreme court in a Milwaukee speech expressed disapproval of an income tax and declared for state rights.

A contingent of blue jackets from 150 British warships anchored in the Thames were feasted by the lord mayor and the corporation of London. The people gave the sea fighters an enthusiastic reception.

Browndel, Tex., was visited by a fire and partially destroyed. A large sawmill, together with much lumber also was burned.

BYERS STANDS PAT

Issues Exhaustive Brief in Support of His Contentions.

REASONS WHY HE IS RIGHT

Attorney General Says That All Petitions of Consent Granted After Date of Approval of Law Are Invalid.

Des Moines, July 26.—Attorney General Byers made public an exhaustive brief in support of his contention that the Moon law limiting the number of saloons to one for every 1,000 of population renders invalid all resolutions of consent passed by city councils between April 15, the date of the approval of the act by Governor Carroll, and July 4, the date on which it became effective.

Mr. Byers insists that his decision is sound for the reasons, which he states as follows:

First—Because the act is a remedial one—deals with a recognized evil—was enacted to restrict and to some extent cure the evil, and, therefore, to fully effectuate the purpose of the act it must operate upon both past and future transactions and conditions.

Second—To hold otherwise would make the act a mere "trick" and give it a ridiculous and absurd effect—instead of curing any existing evil and preventing its continuation in the future, it would increase the evil.

Third—It was the evident intention of the legislature to limit the exemption and exception to the persons holding resolutions of consent on the day the act became a law by the signature and approval of the governor.

Fourth—The statutes of the state provide that the courts shall construe the chapter relating to intoxicating liquors so as to prevent evasion.

Perched on Vault in Cemetery.

Marshalltown.—After having attempted three times to take her life while insane Mrs. Grace King Braley, aged 23, wife of Nathan Braley, a barber of this city, was committed to the state hospital at Independence for treatment. Two weeks ago Mrs. Braley suddenly disappeared from home, and after a search was found about midnight, sitting on top of the receiving vault in Riverside cemetery.

Hurled Sixty Feet by Train.

Sioux City.—While crossing the track of the Northwestern railroad near Mapleton, Ia., the light wagon in which Benjamin Rohmuller and Andrew Aller were riding was struck by a train. Both men were hurled sixty feet in the air. Mr. Rohmuller died at St. Joseph's hospital and Mr. Aller is in a critical condition.

Fire Destroys Historic Cabin.

Belle Plaine.—Fire destroyed a little cabin on the river road which was one of the earliest residences built in this part of the country. It has long been known as the John Greenlee place. It was one of the earliest residences built in Guinnville, or Guinn Town, adjoining Belle Plaine on the south.

State Hardware Men Buy.

Mason City.—Acting for the Iowa State Hardware association, President Miles and Secretary Sale have made purchase of one of the valuable locations in this city for the purpose of erecting an elegant building as headquarters of this flourishing and prospering association.

Dentists Elect Officers.

Mason City.—North Iowa dentists elected the following officers: President, Dr. C. M. Palmer of Charles City; vice president, Dr. P. H. Jones of Clear Lake; secretary, Dr. E. B. Cutler of Osage; treasurer, Dr. M. H. Martenson of Clear Lake.

Jaw Broken; Death Follows.

Burlington.—Information has been filed with Coroner Prugh here asking for an official investigation of the death of Henry Braunberger. It is claimed the man came to his death as the result of a blow in a fight which broke his jaw.

Estherville Boy Burns Barn.

Estherville.—The new $1,000 barn of C. R. Silcox, a farmer ten miles north of this city, was burned to the ground. The fire was caused by his 5-year-old son starting a fire in some straw and old hay in the hay mow. Nothing was saved.

To Lay New Rails.

Marshalltown.—The Iowa Central railroad is making preparations to lay thirty miles of new eighty pound steel on the northern division, between Ackley and Geneva. The rails will replace those of sixty pounds weight.

Big Fund for Good Roads.

Eldora.—Grundy county spent $34,000 last year for good roads which does not include the large sum paid out by the different towns for the keeping of the highways in good condition. Over $14,000 of the above amount was spent for the building and repair of bridges in the county. The largest sums were expended in Blackhawk township. $15,000 was expended by the township trustees on the roads. This makes the county along the front row of counties in expenditures for the improvement of the highways and has given the county a splendid reputation in the way of roads and road building.

Parmeter Golden Wedding.

Burlington.—One of the notable society events of special interest to the railroad people along the Burlington system east, west, north and south was the celebration of the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Parmenter of this city. The worthy couple were greeted by a large number of friends and relatives from in and out of the city.

Better Rural Schools.

Harlan.—Half of the school townships of Shelby county are now paying $50 per month for teachers holding first grade certificates, and $45 for teachers holding second grade certificates. It is but a few years since $40 per month was the highest wages paid in the country schools for first grade teachers.

Improvements at Mason City.

Mason City.—Extensive improvements are being made here by the Milwaukee company, who are enlarging their yards, rebuilding the division office, repairing the depot and fencing off a large part of the right of way near the station to be set to shrubbery and ornamental trees.

Woman Fails in Suicide Attempt.

Council Bluffs.—Mollie Bell, the white wife of Jordan D. Bell, colored, head waiter at the Grand hotel, swallowed a quantity of sugar of lead in an attempt to end her life. Two doctors pumped the poison from her stomach and she will recover.

New Masonic Temple.

Storm Lake.—Storm Lake Masons have decided to erect a Masonic temple, and for this purpose will build a third story over the buildings which are being erected by Maj. John F. Lacey and Parks Bros. in this city. The new lodge room will be the largest in the city.

Sumner Elected Secretary.

Des Moines.—Two hours after receiving the resignation of Dr. L. A. Thomas, upon which his re-election was conditional, the state board of health unanimously elected Dr. G. H. Sumner of Waterloo secretary of the state board of health before adjourning until October.

Hurt in Auto Accident.

Charles City.—While teaching his wife to run their auto at Nora Springs the machine ran up a telephone pole and the pole broke, striking Dr. E. Heflin on the collar bone and breaking it. The doctor is under the care of a brother physician.

Drops Dead on Street.

Charles City.—Claude Stewart, 25, dropped dead at Clarksville, south of here in Butler county while talking on the street. He had been troubled for years with heart disease and became over-heated in the hayfield.

Uncle Sam to Pay Soldiers.

Washington, July 24.—The claims for pay for services in the Cayuse Indian war of 1847 and 1848 in Oregon, filed by nine claimants will be allowed by the government at the rate of $1.50 a day.

Boone Balloonist Gets a Fall.

Sibley.—Roy E. Fye, balloonist of Boone, fell 100 feet from his craft and was badly crushed. One of his arms was broken, three ribs fractured, his nose smashed and his head badly bruised.

Garner Man Commits Suicide.

Mason City.—D. F. Pollock of Garner, a restauranteur, drank four ounces of carbolic acid and was found dead in his room. Poor health is given as the reason. He was 30 years old.

Wealthy Iowan Drowns Self.

Mount Ayr.—W. S. Parsons, one of the wealthy citizens of this place, committed suicide by jumping into the Missouri river at St. Joe, Mo.

Buys New Hampton Hotel.

New Hampton.—John Egan, formerly owner of the Julian hotel of Dubuque, has purchased the Arlington hotel here and will take possession Sept. 10.

Celebrates Ninetieth Birthday.

Belle Plaine.—Friends of Mrs. S. A. Pilbeam celebrated the ninetieth anniversary of her birthday by a reception and program.

6 KILLED, 10 HURT

In the Wabash Train Wreck Near Orrick, Mo.

CARS BURIED IN THE RIVER

Train Goes Into Missouri River When Bank Collapses—Geo. Metcalf, of Cedar Rapids, Among the Injured.

Kansas City, Mo., July 26.—Six lives lost, three perhaps fatally injured, is the result of the wreck of the Wabash passenger train No. 4, when it plunged into the Missouri river thirty miles east of here. The dead:

Charles Flowers, engineer, Kansas City.

Louis Bond, fireman, Moberly, Mo.

Harry Eckert, baggageman, St. Louis.

Daniel, 2-year-old son of E. T. King, Eldon, Mo.

Charles Anthony, laborer.

Jesse Oldham, laborer.

Seriously injured:

Frank Gardner of Mount Vernon, O.

Mrs. S. S. Hackett of Orrick, Mo.

Miss Irene Dorton of Orrick, Mo.

Among the injured who are expected to recover are:

P. W. Saathoff of St. Louis, cut about the head and side bruised.

Peter Nau of Cleveland, O., head bruised and arm dislocated.

Jacob Steinfield of Cleveland, O., severe blow on head.

George Metcalf of Cedar Rapids, Ia., collar bone broken.

E. L. Coles, of Nashville, Tenn., left shoulder sprained.

Mrs. C. Trupp of Dayton, O., side and back injured.

Eight mail clerks were saved only by the fact that the roof of their car was torn off and allowed them to get out on top of the car and swim for the shore. None escaped injury.

In the Des Moines sleeper E. T. King was holding his little son when the crash came; the child was instantly killed and Mr. King was unconscious when found.

Dr. Turner Lohvrek, a woman physician of St. Louis, was the heroine of the wreck, according to railroad officials and passengers. In thirty minutes she gave temporary treatment to twenty-seven injured persons. Several women passengers assisted her by preparing bandages.

Yesterday afternoon almost an acre of ground surrounding the scene of the wreck crumbled into the river, and last night a large part of the big stream was flowing over the ground formerly occupied by the road bed. It will be necessary to build almost a quarter of a mile of track around the washout.

IOWA POSTMASTERS MEET

The District Meeting Held at Mason City Elected Delegates to Des Moines Session.

Mason City, Ia., July 26.—To taboo red tape was the gist of the theme under discussion at the second annual meeting of the district association of postmasters. This was the burden of a carefully prepared paper read by Postmaster Mason of Hanlonton and was made the burden of the address of President C. O. Barry of Walker, the president of the Iowa association, who was present. It will be taken up at the state convention. The meeting was well attended. The officers elected were: W. D. McKercher, Manley, president; S. P. Juhl, Crystal Lake, vice president; W. A. Simpkins, Britt, secretary and treasurer.

The county vice presidents named are: Charles Terwillinger, Hancock; James Erickson, Winnebago; Mrs. Mason, Worth; William Gray, Cerro Gordo; H. E. Wyatt, Floyd; Robert Jensen, Mitchell.

Delegates to the state convention at Des Moines are: W. A. Simpkins, Britt; J. H. Thompson, Kanawha; J. Elickson, Thompson; Eugene Secor, Forest City; I. Bers, Kensett; A. T. Huso, Joice; H. E. Wyatt, Rockford; J. W. Clyde, Rudd; Asa Bailey, Thornton; W. J. Christians, Dougherty; Lydia Tesch, Mitchell; Robert Jensen, Carpenter.

Drowning Victim Is Found.

Adel, Ia., July 26.—Searchers found the body of Miss Nina Thorson of Northwood in the Raccoon river, three-quarters of a mile below the scene of the launch accident in which she lost her life Thursday night when Mrs. C. V. Dawson and Verne Macy were also drowned.

Wright Up Twenty Minutes.

Washington, D. C., July 26.—Orville Wright remained aloft in his aeroplane twenty minutes and thirty seconds in a trial at Fort Myer, and made a sucressful landing.

Was Simply and Tastefully Dressed in White.

THE BEST MAN

by HAROLD MACGRATH

WITH ILLUSTRATIONS BY A. Weil

AUTHOR of THE MAN ON THE BOX, HEARTS & MASKS

COPYRIGHT, 1907 — THE BOBBS — MERRILL CO.

SYNOPSIS.

Carrington loved Kate Cavenaugh, daughter of Multi-Millionaire Henry Cavenaugh. The latter liked Carrington, but refused him as a son-in-law. Young Carrington, a lawyer, held evidence of criminal financial operations, of which Cavenaugh was guilty. It was Carrington's duty to prosecute the rich man, but he decided to lay the whole matter before Kate.

CHAPTER I.—Continued.

Shortly after his determination to tell Kate half a truth, Carrington left the office and made an early train into New Jersey. All the way over to the Cavenaugh station he was restless and uneasy. The fatal papers still reposed in his pocket. He had not dared to leave them in the office safe; his partner, who had had no hand in the investigation, might stumble across them, and that was the last thing in the world he desired. He knew not exactly what to do with them; for they burned like fire in his pocket, and seemed to scorch his fingers whenever he touched them to learn if they were still there. A thousand and one absurd suppositions assailed him. Supposing, for instance, there should be a wreck; supposing he should be robbed; supposing he should leave his vest on the links; and so forth and so forth. It was very depressing. If only he stood in the open, unhandicapped; if only he might throw the gauntlet at Cavenaugh's feet the moment they met!

Ah, if he had only attended to his own affairs! But he hadn't; and his inquisitiveness had plunged him into a Chinese tangle from which there seemed to be no exit. But there was an exit; only, if at that moment Cassandra had whispered the secret into his ear, it would have appealed to him as the most improbable thing under the sun. However, there are no trustworthy Cassandras these sordid days; a single look into the future costs a dollar; and as for Greek choruses, they trundle push-carts on the East side.

He had broken bread and eaten salt at Cavenaugh's table and now it was decreed that he must betray him. It was not a pleasant thought. And still less pleasant was the thought of telling Kate (in a roundabout fashion, it is true) that her father was not an honest man. According to financial ethics, what Cavenaugh did was simply keen business instinct; nothing more. If you or I should happen to bend an odd cornice of the majestic pillar of law we'd be haled off to the county jail forthwith; but if we possessed the skill to smash the whole fabric, or, rather, to continue the metaphor, the whole pillar, the great world would sit up and admire us. What are old laws for, anyhow? Build you never so wisely your law, there will always be some one to come along and tack on a nice little amendment, subtly undoing in a moment what it took years of labor to accomplish. In this instance Cavenaugh had been careless; he had forgotten to introduce his amendment. An infinitesimal grain of sand will stop the best regulated clock. The infallible invariably die on the heels of their first victory.

On leaving the train, Carrington espied the Cavenaugh station carriage. The coachman was talking to a little wiry old man, whose gray eyes twinkled and whose complexion was mottled and withered like a wind-fall apple. Seeing Carrington draw nigh, the coachman touched his hat respectfully, while the little old man, who was rather shabbily dressed, stepped quickly around the corner of the platform. Evidently he did not wish to be inspected at close range. Carrington threw his suit-case and golf-bag into the carriage, and followed them. Thereupon the coachman touched the horses lightly, and they started westward at a brisk trot.

"Who's your friend?" asked Carrington, who, though never familiar, was always friendly toward his inferiors.

"He's no friend of mine, sir," answered the coachman, with well-bred contempt. "Miss Cavenaugh directed me to drive you straight to the club, sir."

"Very well," replied Carrington, lighting a cigar and settling back among the cushions.

Immediately he forgot all about the shabby old man, and began to inventory his troubles. He must hide the papers somewhere. All the evidence he had, together with the names of the witnesses, was on his person; for in making the whole he had prudently destroyed the numerous scraps. If this document fell into alien hands, the trouble would double itself. He puffed quickly, and the heat of the cigar put a smart on his tongue. He had nothing to do but wait.

On the steps of the club's porte cochere he was greeted by Miss Cavenaugh, who was simply and tastefully dressed in white. If there was a sudden cardiac disturbance in Carrington's breast, the girl's tender beauty certainly justified it. The fresh color on her cheeks and lips, the shining black hair that arched a white forehead, the darkly fringed blue eyes, the slender, rounded figure, the small feet and shapely hands, all combined to produce a picture of feminine loveliness warranted to charm any masculine eye. Let the curious question Cavenaugh's antecedents, if they were so inclined, thought Carrington; here was abundant evidence of what a certain old poet called the splendid corpuscle of aristocracy.

Her sister went by the sonorous name of Norah. She was 17, a bit of a tomboy, but of the same build and elegant carriage that distinguished Kate from ordinary mortals; only Norah's eyes were hazel-tinted and her hair was that warm brown of the heart of a chestnut bur. She was of merry temperament, quick to like or to dislike, and, like her sister, loyal to those she loved. Both girls possessed that uncommon gift in women, the perfect sense of justice. You never heard them gossiping about anybody; and when a veranda conversation drifted toward scandal, the Cavenaugh girls invariably drifted toward the farther end of the veranda. All the men admired them; they were such good fellows.

The mother of the girls was, as I have remarked, good-natured and amiable, inclined toward stoutness, and a willing listener to all that was going on. She considered it her bounden duty to keep informed regarding the doings of her intimate friends, but with total lack of malice. At this moment she occupied her favorite corner on the club veranda, and was engaged in animated tittle-tattle. She nodded and smiled at Carrington.

Norah was playing tennis. She waved her racket at the new arrival. Carrington was her beau-ideal.

He hurried into the dressing room and shortly returned in his golf flannels. He was a sturdy chap, not at all handsome, but possessing a countenance full of strong lines. He inspired your trust and confidence, which is far better than inspiring your admiration.

"I am not going to play to-day," said Kate, "so I'll follow over the course and watch you play. I haven't seen you for a whole week; and I can't talk and play, too," smiling.

"Forward, then!" cried Carrington, beckoning to his caddy.

He played a nervous, fidgety game that afternoon. Every time he teed his ball the document spoke from his pocket with an ominous crackle. There was not one brilliant stroke to his credit. This puzzled the girl, for only the previous week he had been runner-up in the annual tournament for crack amateurs. He made the ninth hole indifferently, then turned to the girl, smiling whimsically.

"You are not playing up to your form to-day, John," she observed.

"I admit it," he replied, tossing his club to the caddy, who, well versed in worldly affairs, serenely shouldered the bag and made off toward the clubhouse. "My heart isn't in the game, Kate. The fact is, I'm in a peck of trouble." He determined to tell her at once. There might not be another opportunity like this.

"Why, John!" reproachfully.

"Oh, it came only yesterday. I haven't been hiding it. I'm in a kind of pocket, and can't exactly see my way out. I want your advice; and you must be the jury and judge rolled into one."

They were standing on a hill, and far away they could see the pale line where the shimmering summer sea met the turquoise bowl of heaven.

"Tell me what your difficulty is, John, and I will judge it the best I know how."

He never knew what a simple, beautiful name John was till it fell from the lips of this girl. Many called him Jack; but only his mother and this girl called him John. He motioned toward the sandbox, and they sat down. The other players were well scattered about, out of hearing. He made out his case skillfully enough, giving his plaintiff and defendant fictitious names. The thing grew so real to him, as he went on, that toward the end he rose to the dramatics. The girl listened, but with never a glance at him Rather her gaze roved over the dancing gray waters and followed the lonely white sail that stood out to sea. And when he reached the climax, silence of some duration fell upon them.

"Should this man be punished?" he asked at length.

"He is guilty; he has broken two laws, the civic and human. Oh, the poor people!" pathetically. "They are never at peace; the wolf harries them, and the jackal; they are robbed, beaten and spurned. They are like sheep, not knowing how to fight. They arrest a man for his poverty; they applaud him for his greed. It is all very wrong."

The sail fell under the shadow of a cloud, and they both watched it till it flashed into the sunlight again.

"A woman's intuition is sometimes abnormally keen. You are strong enough to fight such things without the advice of a woman. Is there not something vital to me in all this? Is it not—is it not my father, John?"

CHAPTER II.

Carrington faced her swiftly. He had not expected this. There was something in her handsome eyes that barred the way to subterfuge. The lie died unspoken, and he dropped his gaze and began to dig up the turf with the toe of his shoe.

"Is it my father, John?"

"Yes. Oh, Kate," with a despairing gesture, "I'm the most miserable fellow alive! To think that this should fall into my hands, of all hands in the world!"

"Perhaps it is better so," quietly. "Nothing is without purpose. It might have come to test your honesty. But you are sure, John; it is not guesswork?"

"All the evidence is in my pocket. Say the word, and the wind shall carry it down to the sea. Say the word, heart o' mine!"

He made a quick movement toward his pocket, but she caught his arm.

"Do nothing foolish or hasty, John. Tearing up the evidence would not undo what is done. Sooner or later murder will out. If my father is culpable, if in his thoughtless greed for money he has robbed the poor, he must be made to restore what he has taken. I know my father; what he has done appears perfectly legitimate to him. Can he be put in prison?"

"It all depends upon how well he defends himself," evasively.

She went on. "I have been dreading something like this; so it is no great surprise to me. He is money-mad, money-mad; and he hears, sees, thinks nothing but money. But it hurts, John; I am a proud woman. My grandfather—" Her lips shut suddenly. "Money!" with a passionate wave of the hand. "How I hate the name of it, the sound of it, the thought of it! I love my father," with a defiant pride; "he has always been tender and kind to me; and I should not be of his flesh and blood had I not the desire to shield and protect him."

"The remedy is simple and close at hand," suggested Carrington, gently.

"Simple, but worthy of neither of us. I abhor anything that is not wholly honest. It is one of those strange freaks of nature (who holds herself accountable to no one) to give to me honesty that is the sum total of what should have been evenly distributed among my ancestors. If I were to tell all I know, all I have kept locked in my heart—"

"Don't do it, girl; it wouldn't matter in the least. You are you; and that is all there is to love. Why, I could not love you less if your great-great-grandfather was a pirate," lightly. "Love asks no questions; and ancestors worry me not at all; they are all comfortably dead."

"Not always. But if my perception of honor were less keen, I should laugh at what you call your evidence."

"Laugh?"

"Yes, indeed. I very well understand the tremendous power of money."

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

STICK TO THE SIMPLE LIFE.

Unfortunate French Couple Resolute in Refusing Charity.

Simple life is being practiced with a vengeance by a laborer and his family at Montgerou, near Corbell. The workman and his wife had hitherto been known as an industrious and thrifty couple, but they nevertheless found it difficult to make both ends meet, having to supoprt six small children, and a seventh being expected. The climax came when they were unable to pay their rent in October, and were evicted from the little flat which they had occupied because the husband had been out of work for some time, and could find no new occupation. He gathered up his few belongings and took up quarters for himself and his family under the arches of a railway bridge where he decided for the rest of his life to defy the state and modern civilization, which, he argued, had treated him, an honest man, so cruelly. The mayors of two adjoining localities went to see the family and offered to find free lodgings for them, but the workman and his wife refused. They met certain charitable persons of the neighborhood, who offered them money, food and clothing, in the same way. "Keep your money," they said, "we will not accept anything." A seventh child has been born, and still the strange couple refuse all aid. Their case has been brought to the notice of the prefecture of the department, and nothing less is spoken of than enforcing charity with energetic measures.—London Daily Telegraph.

COULDN'T GET SI TO ENTHUSE

Hired Man's Remarks Could Hardly Be Said to Be in Nature of of Compliment.

The young lawyer, having been nominated for the office of county attorney, thought to surprise an eccentric genius by the name of Si who was working as a hired man on the young lawyer's father's farm.

"Well, Si, what do you think?" the young man began.

"Sometimes one thing, Lonny, an' sometimes 'nother."

"But, Si, they have nominated me for county attorney."

"They might 'a' done worse, Lonny. Howsomever, don't holler till you're out of the woods."

The young attorney was duly elected, and on his next visit to the farm announced the fact unctuously to Si, who was at the woodpile, saw in hand.

"Well, Si, I am elected by a large majority. What do you think of that?"

"Well, Lonny, down in our parts where I was raised, when we wanted a stopper 'n' hadn't any cork, we generally took a corn cob."—Youth's Companion.

VERY ABRUPT.

Spring Poet—Yes, sir; I can write about anything, sir.

Irate Editor—Well, then, suppose you just right-about face and head for the door.

"A Cheap Skate."

"Joel Chandler Harris," said an Atlantan, "used to write comic newspaper editorials. Sometimes he made fun of other editors in them, too.

"Simon Simpson, a rival editor in Mobile, having been made fun of, wrote angrily in his rage:

"'Joel Harris has been getting off some cheap wit at our expense.'

"Joel, on reading this, grabbed his pen and dashed off, quick as a flash, for next day's issue:

"'It must have been cheap, Simon, to be at your expense.'"

Laundry work at home would be much more satisfactory if the right Starch were used. In order to get the desired stiffness, it is usually necessary to use so much starch that the beauty and fineness of the fabric is hidden behind a paste of varying thickness, which not only destroys the appearance, but also affects the wearing quality of the goods. This trouble can be entirely overcome by using Defiance Starch, as it can be applied much more thinly because of its greater strength than other makes.

Why He Led.

The angel was making up the list.

"I never asked my fellow man if it was hot enough for him," remarked Abou Ben Adhem.

And, lo! his name came in under the wire first.

A Tonic For The Whole Family

This splendid tonic will keep every member of your family in good health. Adults suffering from dyspepsia, or indigestion, general exhaustion or breakdown will find in this natural tonic renewed health and strength. Delicate, rapidly growing children will find in this tonic the assistance their digestive organs need to get the proper nourishment and strength from their food.

DR. D. JAYNE'S TONIC VERMIFUGE

acts directly on the stomach and other digestive organs, toning them up and enabling them to do their work properly. In this way it brings about permanent health and strength. On the other hand, ordinary tonics, which give artificial strength by stimulation and by supplying food material, are only effective as long as they are taken.

Sold by All Druggists—2 sizes, 50c. and 35c

Take Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant If you want to get rid of your Cough or Cold.

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

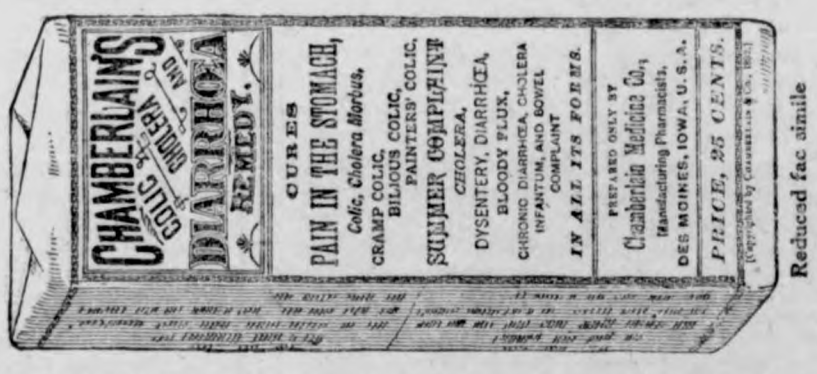
Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy

Acknowledged everywhere to be the most successful medicine in use for Bowel Complaints.

Can be depended upon in the most severe and dangerous cases.

REMEMBER ALWAYS CURES
CURES QUICKLY

MONEY RETURNED IF NOT SATISFIED



Reduced fac simile

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

EXERCISE FOR THE SEDENTARY.

Thirty Jumps Before Breakfast One of Two Recommended.

In the thick of winter busy men find their usual exercise curtailed, and must look about for some easy way in which to keep themselves in condition. Many walk to and from their places of business, but these generally live within three or four miles of their offices.

If you aren't one of these, try a regular course of jumping. One of your winter maxims should be: "Thirty jumps before breakfast." If you stick to this all through the cold spell you will come out in the spring as fit as a proverbial violin.

Take an ordinary heavy kitchen chair. Near it place a heavy rug or an ordinary front door mat. Jump on the chair, then jump off again onto the mat. Keep this up for 30 times, and your exercise is accomplished. In the long jump, jump from the bare floor onto an old mattress, in bare feet or in socks.

Vaulting is another splendid and easy exercise. A regular vaulting horse is, of course, seldom available, but an ordinary strong rail fence will be found serviceable for the purpose.

AT REST IN SPLENDID TOMBS.

Costly Monuments Over Infant English Princesses.

The Princesses Sophia and Mary, the infant daughters of James I., are buried at the east end of the north aisle of Henry VII.'s chapel, Westminster abbey, and their tombs are probably the most costly monuments which commemorate infants. Princess Sophia's tomb represents a cradle made of different colored marbles, with the figure of a child sleeping within it, and the lace of the counterpane and the embroidered cover are wonderfully wrought. Princess Mary's monument is quite different and is a sarcophagus, on which rests the reclining figure of a child. The angles at base are filled with small figures of children and the whole is richly ornamented. The epitaph is in Latin and the English translation is worth repeating for its pretty idea:

I have found gladness for myself and have left desire to my parents,
While you rejoice for me mourn with them!

In Fuller's time the tombs of the little princesses were much visited and in a passage in his writings he speaks of the tears which were shed by tender-hearted women over this remarkable monument.

Cost of an African Hunting License.

Here we enter upon the so-called Desert of Taru, which for 94 miles intervenes between Mazeras and Voi. It is far from being bare, for a juiceless grass and thorny copses alternate with patches of bare dust in the dry mud and in rainy weather. It is by no means destitute of life, however; we see herds of gazelles, sometimes from 60 to 200 together, perhaps a rhinoceros, a pack of sneaking jackals, a prowling hyena, a stealthy, graceful leopard or majestic lion. The animals show little fear of the train, for the high cost of a hunting license—about $250—and numerous limitations as to the number of heads to be killed by any one sportsman, greatly lessen the number of hunters. —National Magazine.

The Barren Inventor.

Minnie Maddern Fiske, whose knowledge of the New York slums is profound, condemned at a recent dinner the sterile work of a certain charity society.

"In fact," said the noted actress, smiling, "that society reminds me very forcibly of a Cincinnati tramp.

"This tramp, ragged and forlorn, stood up one cold morning in the police court dock, and the magistrate, frowning at him, said:

"'Profession?'

"'Inventor,' was the reply, in a hoarse voice.

"'What have you invented?' asked the magistrate.

"'Nothing,' said the prisoner, still more hoarsely, 'but I'm trying to.'"

Had Solved the Problem.

There was something about the face of the stranger who sat opposite to her in the tram car that was familiar to the stern lady. "Pardon me," she said. "If I am not mistaken, you are one of the poor, underpaid working girls, whom our Emancipation society tried to benefit—or, at least, you were a year ago." "That is so," said the stranger. "Then our society has evidently not been without influence, for you look prosperous now." "I have everything I want, and never was so happy in my life." "That's splendid. You must have solved the woman problem." "I have." "Glorious! Do tell me all about it!" "I'm married!"

Attention PEOPLE!

Don't forget that the Gruetzmacher Bros. handle all kinds of stoves such as heaters, cook stoves and steel ranges.

Also a full line of hardware, groceries, flour and feed.

A complete line of implements also paints, oils and varnishes.

Rock and barrel salt. Barb wire and field fence.

Yours to please at the old stand,

Gruetzmacher Bros.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOW

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE. LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STATE. Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. Trial ...ystrument free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund ... All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines used. ...detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by mail ... press. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage. ...low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for terms. ...sultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call or ... to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without the ... harmful instruments. Our ... full explains.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the scr... causing nervous debility, ... of the nervous system, etc., permanently cured.

BLOOD POISON —That terrible disease ... its stages, cured for life. ... Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhœa, Gleet and all ... private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few days ... pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application. ... description of above diseases, effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrapper.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINES, ...

RUPTURE, PILES

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolutely reliable and permanent. Write to or call and see the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were afflicted with Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia.
Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines, Ia.
E. C. Miller, Des Moines, Ia.
John H. Looby, Des Moines, Ia.

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you free postage paid. This book contains much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonial letters. Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the book. Write today—it will pay you.

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES, IOWA

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:40 p. m.
82 ..... 2:50 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:35 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

PATENTS

DESIGNS
TRADE-MARKS
AND COPYRIGHTS
OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"

Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,
E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

McCALL PATTERNS 10 AND 15 NONE HIGHER

McCALL'S MAGAZINE 50 A YEAR INCLUDING A FREE

McCALL PATTERNS
Celebrated for style, perfect fit, simplicity, reliability nearly 40 years. Sold in every city and town in the United States, Canada, or by mail direct. More in use than any other make. Send for free catalogue.

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
More subscribers than any other magazine—million a month. Invaluable for latest styles, patterns, dressmaking, millinery, plain sewing, fancy needlework, home adornment, etiquette, good stories, etc. Only 50 cents a year (worth double), including a free pattern. Subscribe today, or send for sample copy.

WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS to Agents. Postal brings premium catalogue and new cash prize offers. Address

THE McCALL CO., 238 to 248 W. 37th St., N. Y.

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and in female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified.

FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE

it is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

Just Dust it on the...
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls ... work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bo...
Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid ...
Money Back If Not Satisfied.
The RED STAR HEALING P...
(25c. and 50c. Cans). GAR...

THE KLEMME TIMES

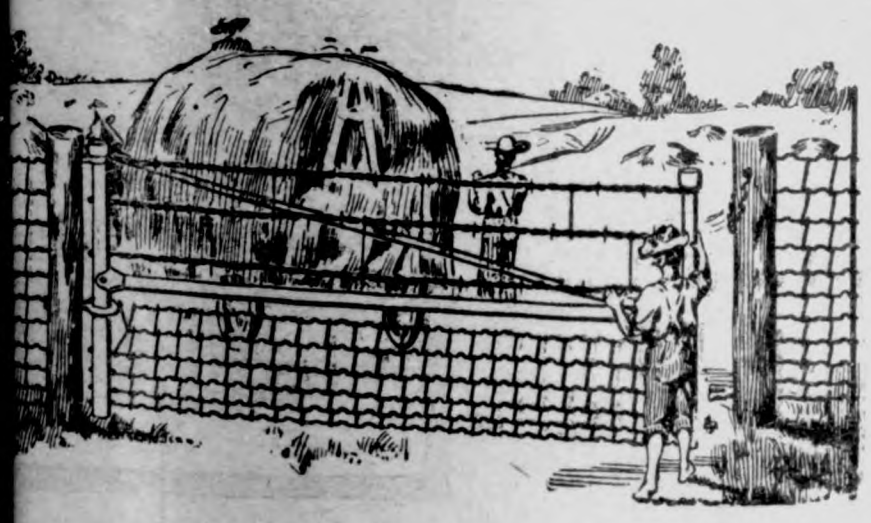
VOLUME XIV. NUMBER 1 — KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 5, 1909. — $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

Just as a few bushels of wheat planted in the ground become many bushels of grain, so will the money you put in our bank from time to time become a big sum. The interest we will pay you will help it grow.

¶ Do not forget that we are pleased to place the facilities of this bank at your disposal and solicit your business. — — — — ¶

State Savings Bank.

Klemme - - Iowa



Iowa Gates are more than a convenience if women or children ever use them for being so simple they are very light and can easily be swung either way. The IOWA gate is made to last—no castings to break—no wearing parts—even the wires have galvanized stretchers to tighten them. Will not blow down, burn or rot out. Get prices.

J. H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, AGENT
KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J.W.WATERMAN

A Farewell Reception

From the Fenton Reporter:

One of the pleasant events of the season was the reception given at the Homesteaders hall Tuesday evening in honor of the J. A. and A. A. Ridder families on the eve of their departure from Fenton. It being a fitting tribute to the memory of the associations of these families and the people of Fenton and vicinity. Their associations in business, church and social circles have been pleasant and conductive of advancement and in all they will be greatly missed. Their associations in a business way covered a large territory and universal regret is expressed because of their departure, but a hearty wish for success and happiness goes with them to their new home and business.

The reception was attended by over 300 people, having been planned and attended by members of the German Methodist church and citizens in general. W. F. Reimers and wife and Mr. Higgens and wife of Whittemore, were also in attendance. All during the evening the Fenton band rendered pleasant music. Rev. Klaus gave a few remarks appropriate to the occasion, then followed the serving of ice cream and cake, and a few hours of social enjoyment was spent.

The Ridder Bros. left this morning by way of St. Paul for Watertown, S. Dakota, to begin their work with the Manhattan Oil Co. Mrs. A. A. Ridder and children also departed this morning for Klemme where they will remain until a residence can be secured in Watertown. Mrs. J. A. Ridder will remain here with her mother and sisters until a residence is secured.

The Crime of Idleness

Idleness means trouble for anyone. Its the same with a lazy liver. It causes constipation, headache, jaundice, sallow complexion, pimples and blotches, loss of appetite, nausea, but Dr. King's New Life Pills soon banish liver troubles and build up your health. 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

Another View of the Road Question

The Hampton Recorder says: About once in eight or ten years some agricultural or country newspaper puts out the idea that our 66 foot roads in Iowa are too wide and that they ought to be reduced to 30 or 40 feet. The theory is that the land on each side of the wagon track is wasted and produces nothing, and the Britt Tribune suggests that the roads be cut to 30 feet and the remaining 36 feet sold to the adjoining owners at $75 to $100 an acre and the money expended in bettering the roadway. this is a nonsensical suggestion as the "adjoining owners" virtually own the land now, and if the roads or any portion thereof were vacated the land would revert to them. The land occupied by the roads is only leased, as it were, and the state itself could not take a foot of it for any purpose other than that for which it is now used. Many of the farmers in this county have the space on either side of the wagon track nicely seeded down and mow it each year. Stock does not run at large any more and we have seen cattle herded in the lanes by the adjoining farm owner. In short, the adjoining owner can use the land along his fences for any purpose that does not interfere with travel. Should the roads be cut to two rods in width, the owner of the 160 on one side of road would gain but an acre of ground which would hardly pay for moving his fences and trees.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Never Known to Fail

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend," says H. S Nichols, of Oakland, Ind. For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Bank With the — IT PAYS

FIRST NATIONAL

Capital, $25,000

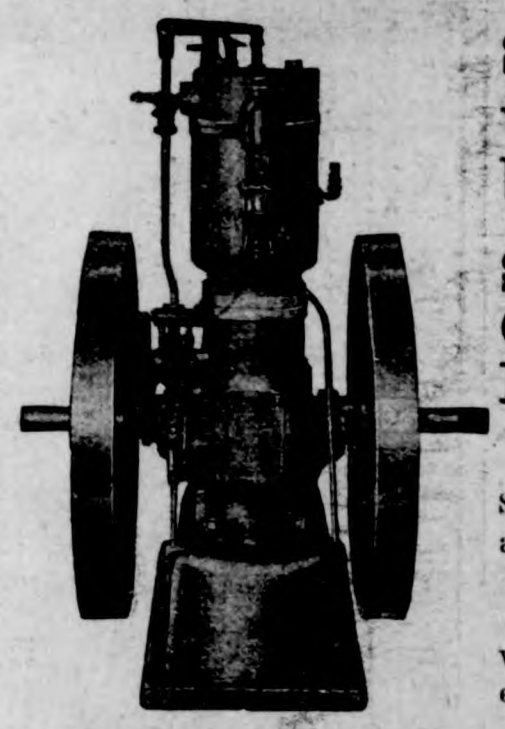
—o—

It's Many Safeguards for the People's Money:

It's large capital,
It's alert Board of Directors,
It's conservative policy

are for

YOUR PROTECTION



Save work, worry, money by using a

STOVER GASOLINE ENGINE

Made right—sold right. Send for an illustrated catalog of our wind mills and feed grinders.

ENGINES

Sandwich Mfg. Co.

Mason City, Iowa — General Agents

The Wheat Situation

Iowa State Register and Farmer: The pendulum is swinging back. There was a time when the demand regulated the wheat market. Then sprung up the age of speculation when dealers in margins controlled the range of prices. Just now the situation seems to be moulded by the domination of new crop influences the world over. The wheat is quite promising in some localities. there seems to be a steady advance in prices and it has been hinted that another corner will be attempted. With the world's supply adjusted as closely as it is and with winter wheat in this country so scarce. drouths in any one locality, or rust in another has but little influence. In this latitude we are in the midst of threshing the Iowa crop. Good prices prevail and there is a general feeling all along the line that a more diversified crop condition would be to the crop grower's advantage Wheat can fill an important place in this rotation, and winter wheat needs more friends and more farmers who are willing to take up its culture. Wheat being the chief food product of the world, and in the face of increased population, it appears to be safe to engage in the production of wheat under modern methods of procedure.

Washington's Plague Spots

lie in the low, marshy bottoms of the Potomac, the breeding ground of malaria germs. These germs cause chills, fever and ague, billiousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility and bring suffering or death to thousands yearly. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "They are the best all-round tonic and cure for malaria I ever used," writes R M. James of Louellen, S. C. They cure stomach, liver, kidney and blood troubles and will prevent typhoid. Try them, 50c. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Reliable Market Reports

Nothing gives a newspaper a firmer place in public confidence than a well established reputation for accurate and complete reports of the world's markets. Business men throughout the West have long esteemed the Chicago Record-Herald for the uniformly trustworthy way in which it covers the whole field of financial and commercial news. Whether you want to know what consols are worth in London or what railroad stocks are quoted at in New York, what price corn is bringing in Kansas City, or how wheat is selling at Minneapolis or Chicago, you can always turn to the financial and commercial pages of the Record-Herald with the certainty of getting the latest facts in full and unbiased form.

The men who write the local live stock, board of trade and financial news for the Record-Herald are experienced staff editors whose years of trusted acquaintance with leading men often give them inside tips on important news in advance of other papers. The only morning newspaper in Chicago having its own special correspondent to cover the New York Stock market is the Record-Herald. George S. Beachel's daily telegraphic reports from the stock and money markets of Wall street are models of insight and accuracy. The Record-Herald makes it a point to cover in full the financial reports of corporations and the banking activities of Chicago and the West. The "Speculative Gossip" and notes of Wall street and LaSalle street happenings are valued by the largest brokers for their glimpses of real "inside history" of the various markets.

Scared With a Hot Iron

or scalded by overturned kettle—cut with a knife—bruised by slammed door—injured by gun or in any other way—the thing needed at once is Bucklen's Arnica Salve to subdue inflamation and kill the pain. It's earth's supreme Healer, infallible for boils, ulcers, fever sores, eczema and piles. 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

SYNOPSIS.

Carrington loved Kate Cavenaugh, daughter of Multi-Millionaire Henry Cavenaugh. The latter liked Carrington, but refused him as a son-in-law. Young Carrington, a lawyer, held evidence of criminal financial operations, of which Cavenaugh was guilty. It was Carrington's duty to prosecute the rich man, but he decided to lay the whole matter before Kate. He did so the next day.

CHAPTER II.—Continued.

She laughed brokenly. "More than you. I can picture to you just what will happen." She rose. "There will, of course, be a great newspaper clamor; the interstate commissioners will put their heads together; there will be investigations by the government. That will be the attack. The keenest lawyers are on the side of corporations; that is because the state is niggard with her pay. Let me outline the defense. Father will resign from his high office, to be re-elected later when the public cools off! A new directorate will fill the place of the present one. Suddenly falsified entries will be discovered; the head bookkeeper will have disappeared. All fingers will point to him. He will be in South America, having been paid several thousand to go there. All this will make the passing of the dividend perfectly logical. The matter will never be tried in court. Money will do all this."

"My dear little woman, you reason like Pythagoras; but," Carrington added, gravely, "when I undertook to untangle this affair, I realized its huge proportions. For every redoubt your father has, I have an assault, for every wall a catapult, for every gate a petard. But, as I said before, you have only to say the word, and for the present nobody will be any the wiser."

"If I permitted you to do this, I should destroy my faith in both of us. It would erect a barrier which would be insurmountable. That is not the way out."

"I have weighed all these things," discouragedly.

He took the document from his pocket and caught it in a way that indicated how easily it might be ripped into halves, the halves into quarters, the quarters into infinitesimal squares of meaningless letters.

"Once more, shall I, Kate?"

"No, John. That would only make our difficulties greater. But I do ask this one favor; put your evidence into the hands of a strange attorney, have nothing to do with the prosecution; for my sake."

"I must have the night to think it over. Most of my attacks are not herein written; I dared keep them only in my head."

"I am very unhappy," said the girl.

He took her hand and kissed it reverently. He longed to console her, but no words he had in mind seemed adequate.

"Fore!" came lazily over the knoll. They were no longer alone. So together they wandered slowly back to the clubhouse. Tea was being served, and Carrington drank his abstractedly. From time to time he joined the conversation, but without any heart. Some of the busier ladies whispered that it looked this time as though Kate had given the young man his conge.

On the way home Norah, with her humorous comment on the weekly budget of gossip, saved the situation from any possible contretemps. Mrs. Cavenaugh was easy-going, but for all that she possessed remarkably observant eyes; and her eldest daughter was glad that they were occupied elsewhere.

Kate was very unhappy: her father was not honest, and the man she loved had come into the knowledge of the fact. Ah, how quickly shadow can darken sunshine!

"What did you make it in to-day, Mr. Carrington?" asked Norah.

"Make what?" he counter-questioned, absently.

"The course, Mr. Goose! What did you think I meant?"

"Oh," lamely, "I made a bad play at the beginning and gave it up."

By this time they had arrived at the gates, and everybody was thankful; Mrs. Cavenaugh, because her nose smarted with sunburn; Norah, because the gown she was to wear at the dance that night was new; Kate, because she wanted to be alone; and Carrington, because he wanted to learn whether the angel threw Jacob or Jacob threw the angel. The driver and the horses were glad to arrive because they were hungry

It took the young lawyer some time to dress for dinner that night. His usually direct mind vacillated between right and wrong, wrong and right; and he floated from one to the other like an unattached cork. He made a dozen annoying blunders in dressing. And when finally the pier-glass reflected an irreproachable and finished picture, he searched his cast-off vest for his growing monster and transferred it to the pocket of his coat. Monster! Here was no story-monster, like the creature of a Frankenstein; it was genuine, and was like to turn upon him at any moment and rend him. He shrugged and proceeded down the stairs. There are soliloquies that sometimes leave an unpleasant taste behind. So he pinned his faith to the banner of the late genial and hopeful Micawber; something might turn up for the benefit of all concerned.

"You Are Not Going, Are You, Grand pa?" asked Norah.

The hall and living room at the Cavenaugh manor were one and the same. There were bookcases ranging along the walls, window seats, a reading table and an ancient chimney seat. As Carrington turned the first landing he stopped.

"Father, I think it positively dreadful the way you treat poor grandpa." This was Norah.

There was a crackle of a newspaper.

"Never mind, Norah, darling; your grandpa is used to it. It doesn't matter at all."

It was the sight of the last speaker that brought Carrington to a stand. Norah's grandpa was no less a person than the shabbily dressed old man he had seen at the station that afternoon. What kind of family skeleton in the closet was he that they kept him en camera? He coughed and went on.

Norah was plucky, whole-hearted, frank and encouraging.

"Mr. Carrington" she said immediately, "this is my grandpa."

Carrington did not hesitate a moment, but smiled and thrust out his hand, which the other grasped with a questioning air of diffidence.

"Glad to meet you, sir," said Carrington.

Cavenaugh fils glanced over the top of his paper, scowled, and resumed his reading. Kate hadn't come down yet, so she missed this scene. When she did appear, there was no visible sign of any previous agitation. She and Norah were thoroughbreds.

"Why, grandpa!" she cried, extending her hand.

The old man bowed over it and kissed it, and his action was lacking neither in grace nor gallantry.

"I happened to be down this way on business," said the old man with a covert glance at his son, "and thought I'd drop in."

"Dinner is served," said the splendid butler, as he slid back the doors to the dining room.

The old man looked about him questioningly, and Norah slipped her arm through his. "You'll have to take me in, grandpa," she laughed.

The old man's eyes shone for a moment, and he patted her hand.

"I'm as proud as a king, Norah."

Now, Carrington could read between the lines. It was manifestly plain that grandpa was not welcome to Cavenaugh. But why? Mrs. Cavenaugh scarcely tolerated him. While the girls seldom if ever spoke of him, it was evident that both held him in their affections. There were many things going on in the Cavenaugh manor; and Carrington entered the dining room in a subdued state of mind.

By degrees Norah succeeded in drawing the pariah out of himself. Carrington was soon listening to an amazing range of adventures. The old man had seen Cuba in the filibusters' time, he had fought the Canadian constabulary as a Fenian, he had been a sailor, and had touched the shores of many strange lands. Grandpa Cavenaugh was anything but illiterate. Quite often there was a flash of wit, a well-turned phrase, a quotation. He had, besides, a comprehensive grasp of the politics of all countries.

Carrington saw at once that his half-formed opinion was a house of cards. There was no reason in the world why they should be ashamed of him, shunt him off into the side-track of obscurity, and begrudge him a plate at the table. Carrington realized that he was very close to some peculiar mystery, and that the old man's bitterest enemy was his son.

Throughout the meal the millionaire preserved a repelling silence. From time to time, when there was laughter, he scowled. Once or twice Mrs. Cavenaugh essayed to pass an observation across the table to him, but a curt nod was all she received for her pains. Presently Cavenaugh dropped his knife on his plate, and the pariah retreated meekly into his shell. In fact, he looked frightened, as if the thought had come to him that he had made an irreparable blunder in warming under his grandchildren's smiles.

"Carrington," said Midas, balling his napkin and tossing it on the table, "your particular branch is corporation law, isn't it?"

"Yes. The firm has some reputation in that branch." Carrington glanced curiously at his host. What was coming now? Was it possible that Cavenaugh had in some way learned of his discoveries and was about to placate him?

"I believe you handled successfully the D. & M. railroad deal?"

"We won in three courts."

"Well," continued Cavenaugh, "I've been thinking of you to-day. The P. & O. counsel has had to give up on account of poor health, and Matthewson spoke to me yesterday, asking if I knew a man who could fill his place. It pays seventeen thousand the year." He paused as if to let this magnificent salary sink into the deepest crevice of Carrington's soul. "What would you say to a permanent berth like that?" Cavenaugh positively beamed.

Kate stared at her father in astonishment. Was it possible that he was beginning to look favorably upon Carrington? Her glance traveled to Carrington. His expression she found puzzling.

"Seventeen thousand!" murmured the pariah, rubbing his hands, while his eyes sparkled.

Carrington deliberated for a space. He was hard put. He did not want to refuse this peace-offering, but nothing would make him accept it.

"This is very fine of you. Two years ago I should have jumped at the chance. But my agreement with my partner makes it impossible. I can not honestly break my contract within five years." He waited for the storm to burst, for Cavenaugh was not a patient man.

"Are you mad?" whispered Kate. A flush of anger swept over her at the thought of Carrington's lightly casting aside this evident olive branch.

"Would you have me accept it?" he returned, in a whisper lower than hers.

She paled. "I had forgotten," she said, with the pain of quick recollection.

The dinner came to its end, and everybody rose gratefully, for there seemed to be something tense in the air.

"Seventeen thousand honest dollars!" murmured the pariah, tagging along at the millionaire's heels.

Carrington threw him a swift penetrating glance; but the old man was looking ecstatically at the tinted angels on the ceiling. The old man might be perfectly guileless; but Carrington scented the faintly bitter aroma of irony.

Just before the carriage arrived to convey Carrington and the ladies to the club dance grandpa appeared, hat in hand and a humble smile on his face. It was a very attractive face, weather beaten though it was, penciled by the onset of 70 years.

"You are not going, are you, grandpa?" asked Norah.

"Yes, my child. I should be very lonesome here alone with your estimable father. I'll drop in to-morrow for Sunday dinner; that is, if you are not going to have company. I am glad that I met you, Mr. Carrington."

"Poor old grandpa!" sighed Norah when the door closed upon him. "He has the ridiculous idea that he isn't wanted."

Nobody pursued the subject and Norah began to preen herself.

An idea came to Carrington. He wanted to be rid of his document. He spoke to Kate, who nodded comprehensively. She led him into the dining room. In one corner, protected by a low screen, was a small safe. This she threw open, and Carrington put the envelope into one of the pigeon holes. The safe was absolutely empty, a fact which puzzled him not a little.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

A Gold Farm.

"Thanksgiving football is one form of gold farm," said a metallurgist; "but gold grows, and when the secret of its cultivation is discovered, we shall have gold farms literally.

"Miners, having set timber braces in gold mines, often find on the timber growths of gold. Growths of gold have, too, been perceived on the rocks of gold-bearing rivers. Gold has been discovered growing on sluice boxes.

"What causes these growths of gold we don't know. We do know that one essential is the percolation of water, a feature without which gold growths are never found. When we discover the other features—and no doubt science will discover them some day—the gold farmer will perhaps be as common as the farmer of fruit or truck."

To Stop Bleeding at the Nose.

A man in traveling from New England to his home in New Jersey had a violent nosebleed on the train. Every aid was rendered, and the usual remedies, such as ice on the neck, a key thrust down the back and all sorts of things, were ineffectually tried. So profuse was the hemorrhage that when New York was reached he was too weak to go to a physician unattended. The application of tincture of eucalyptus promptly stopped the bleeding. This is an exceedingly valuable remedy, and should be indelibly stamped upon our memories A small vial should be placed in every family medicine chest.

A SURE SIGN.

When It Appears Act at Once.

Trouble with the kidney secretions is a certain sign that your kidneys are deranged and that you should use Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure all irregularities and annoyances, remove backache and side pains and restore the kidneys to health.

Charles Cole, 204 N. Buckeye St., Iola, Kans., says: "The kidney secretions were irregular, scanty and painful and contained sediment. My back was stiff and lame and my limbs swelled. I grew weak and discouraged. Doan's Kidney Pills removed these troubles entirely. I have been well for two years."

Remember the name—Doan's. Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Good Evidence.

"When she hit him with the golf ball, did it knock him senseless?"

"I guess so. I understand they are soon to marry."—Central Methodist Advocate.

Greens are good for you. So is the fresh juice of crushed mint leaves in real Wrigley's Spearmint with a spear on it.

Not Worth the Time.

No man resolved to make the most of himself can spare time for personal contention.—Lincoln.

Let that spear stick in your memory. You won't get real Wrigley's spearmint unless it is on the wrapper.

Silence is indeed golden to those who are paid to keep quiet.

ASK YOUR OWN GROCER to give you RUSS BLUE. It will whiten your clothes and preserve your temper.

The good we do is an excellent antidote for the ill we think.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

People who admire us are always pleasant company.

NOW! THEN! CHEW

THEN You'll enjoy this.

Paxtine TOILET ANTISEPTIC

—NOTHING LIKE IT FOR—

THE TEETH Paxtine excels any dentifrice in cleansing, whitening and removing tartar from the teeth, besides destroying all germs of decay and disease which ordinary tooth preparations cannot do.

THE MOUTH Paxtine used as a mouth wash disinfects the mouth and throat, purifies the breath, and kills the germs which collect in the mouth, causing sore throat, bad teeth, bad breath, grippe, and much sickness.

THE EYES when inflamed, tired, and burn, may be instantly relieved and strengthened by Paxtine.

CATARRH Paxtine will destroy the germs that cause catarrh, heal the inflammation and stop the discharge. It is a remedy for uterine catarrh.

Paxtine is a harmless yet powerful germicide, disinfectant and deodorizer. Used in bathing it destroys odors and leaves the body antiseptically clean.

FOR SALE AT DRUG STORES, 50c. OR POSTPAID BY MAIL.

LARGE SAMPLE FREE!

THE PAXTON TOILET CO., BOSTON, MASS.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE FLAVOR LASTS

DAISY FLY KILLER placed anywhere attracts and kills all flies. Neat, clean, ornamental, convenient, cheap. Lasts all season. Will not spill or tip over, will not soil or injure anything. Guaranteed effective. Of dealers or sent prepaid for 20c. Harold Soper, 150 De Kalb Ave., Brooklyn, New York.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT

STATE LEVY IN 1909

Three and Four-Tenths Mills Fixed by Executive Council.

FRACTION LESS THAN IN 1908

Over Two Million Dollars Will Be Raised to Run Commonwealth of Iowa—Table of Assessed Valuations.

Des Moines, July 31.—Raises were made by the executive council in the assessed value of property subject to the state tax levy, which will be 3.4 mills this year, the figure necessary to raise the desired tax, $2,300,000.

On lands and town lots the figure came to $493,431,862, an increase of $7,538,440 over last year in the equalized values.

The figures on the railroad property were lowered according to the auditor's report which states that taxable value of railroad property was $64,524,659, while the Official Register gives the last year's figure at $63,527,616 under the head of aggregate assessed value. In the first instance there is a reduction, but taking the last figure means that the railroad property values were raised $158,798.

The final fixing of the value of the property belonging to the telegraph and telephone companies has not been completed, but the estimate is $3,500,000, which makes the totals $677,439,730 required by the 3.4 mills levy in raising the $2,300,000, the sum necessary for state purposes. With the total amount of taxable property known, the tax levy is easily fixed.

Following are the figures as definitely adjusted by the council:

	Actual assessed value.
Personal property	$125,904,108.00
Lands and town lots	483,431,862.00
Railroads	63,686,414.00
Interurbans	804,559.00
Sleeping cars	253,942.00
Express property	361,987.00
Equipment cars	150,800.00
Telegraph and Telephone property (estimated)	3,500,000.00
Total	$677,439,730.00

Told Court She'd Do As She Pleased.

Because she told Judge Howe in the district court that she would do just as she pleased regardless of his orders, America T. Yancy, a colored woman, was placed in the Polk county jail for contempt of court, and established a record of being the first woman ever sent to jail on such a charge in the history of the local courts.

Nagel Offers to Help.

Dean Frank Nagel of the Highland Park Conservatory of Music has offered to produce the fourth act of Il Trovatore at the benefit to be given by the Press club of Des Moines. It is possible that the grand opera will be presented in addition to the regular vaudeville at Ingersoll park on the evening of Monday, Aug. 23.

Hazers Tickled Man's Feet.

For removing the shoes and socks of a fellow student and tickling the soles of his feet, three male students at Highland Park college were summarily expelled by President Longwell, so it is stated. The alleged hazing occurred on the college campus and the students were caught in the act by a police officer.

Arraign Crabtree Soon.

Word was received from Col. M. L. Temple, United States district attorney in southern Iowa, that Lile Crabtree, slayer of Capt. John C. Raymond of the Second cavalry, Fort Des Moines, will probably be arraigned on the charge of murder before United States Judge McPherson within two or three weeks.

Board Approves Condemnation.

The state railroad commission issued a certificate giving approval to the condemnation of part of lot 26 in the factory addition to the city of Des Moines by the Des Moines Terminal company. The land is needed for additional yards.

Byers Son's Administrator.

Probate Commissioner James O'Brien appointed Major S. H. M. Byers administrator of the estate of his son, the late Lawrence Marshall Byers. The bond was fixed at $2,000. Prof. Byers' estate consists of about $1,000 worth of personal property.

Examine Clerks.

The United States civil service commission has announced an examination at Des Moines, September 1 for positions of deputy collector and clerk in the internal revenue service.

Iowa State and County Fairs.

Some of the county and district fairs in Iowa and their dates and names of their secretaries are:

Alta, Aug. 17-20—C. H. Wagersley.

Anamosa, Aug. 23-27—L. W. Russell.

Monticello, Aug 30-Sept. 3—F. W. Koop.

Manchester, Aug. 31-Sept. 3—T. Nelson.

Hampton, Sept. 28-30—S. A. Clock.

Maquoketa, Aug. 31-Sept. 3—B. D. Ely.

Marshalltown, Sept. 6-10—Wm. Clark.

Independence, Sept. 7-10—P. G. Freeman.

DeWitt, Sept. 7-10—E. J. Quigley.

West Union, Sept. 7-10—E. A. McIlree.

Vinton, Sept. 7-10—Arad Thompson.

National, Sept. 7-9—Henry Luehsen.

Dubuque, Sept. 13-18—D. C. Stewart.

Mason City, Sept. 21-24—C. H. Barber.

Waukon, Sept. 21-24—L. C. Overdorf.

The state fairs of Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois and Missouri are:

Des Moines, Aug. 27-Sept. 3—J. C. Simpson, secretary.

Hamline, Minn., Sept. 6-11—C. N. Cosgrove, secretary.

Sioux City, Iowa, Sept. 20-25—F. L. Wirick, secretary.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 1-9—J. K. Dickerson, secretary.

Sedalia, Mo., Oct. 2-8.—Jno T. Stinson, secretary.

Lincoln Names Officers.

Brigadier General James Rush Lincoln appointed Elliott E. Lambert of Newton as brigade quartermaster. Other appointments announced: On the staff of the governor—Aides: Col. John C. Loper of Des Moines, Col. Charles J. Wilson of Washington, Lieut. Col. George A. Smith of Clinton. As chief of the staff corps and departments—Lieut. Col. Charles G. Saunders of Council Bluffs, judge advocate general; Lieut. Col. Davis S. Fairchild, Jr., of Clinton, chief surgeon; Lieut. Col. Frank V. Bishop of Muscatine, chief of ordnance and acting chief inspector of small arms practice; Lieut Col. Leon W. Ainsworth of Des Moines, chief signal officer.

Prizes Offered for Best Butter.

Circular letters sent out by State Food and Dairy Commissioner H. R. Wright will notify every creamery in Iowa that gold medals and cash prizes await the successful exhibitors of butter, cheese and other dairy products at the Iowa state fair. Exhibits will be scored by Assistant Dairy Commissioners W. E. Johnson and J. J. Ross. Diplomas will also be given for butter scoring with a grade of 92 or above. The cash prizes for butter aggregate $600 and for cheese $55.

New Prison Will be Light.

With an abundance of sunlight the new prison house at Fort Madison will be one of the most up-to-date buildings of its kind in the United States. The building is 334½ feet in length and 51½ feet wide. It contains 480 cells in four tiers. The cells of the new structure are built of laminated steel and the windows are grated with the same. This is composed of alternated layers of soft and case hardened steel which resist both the saw and sledge hammer.

Smith and Crofford Sure of Liberty.

Gov. Carroll has not indicated what he will do with the recommendation of the board of parole that pardons be granted to Dr. J. W. Crafford and Samuel F. Smith, but will do so in the near future. It is considered certain that both men will be given their liberty, as the new evidence in the Crofford case tends to establish the innocence of this man, and Mr. Smith has practically the whole of Davenport asking for clemency for him.

Harris Is Re-Elected.

Henry C. Harris was re-elected president of the Des Moines Chautauqua at the meeting of the board of directors. Dr. A. L. Frisbie, pastor emeritus of the Plymouth Congregational church, was elected vice president. The other officers for the coming year are: Mrs. C. E. Risser, secretary; W. E. Hamlin, financial secretary, and C. E. Hunn, auditor.

Women Ready for City Beautiful.

Determined to make Des Moines a city beautiful at any cost either in the near or remote future, the civic committee of the Women's club has set about to awaken public pride to such a pitch that the city council will be authorized to send to the east for an expert who shall come to Des Moines and plat the city into a municipal art paradise.

Governor's Pardon to Make Them Free

Because M. E. Colt and John Sener want to go beyond the limits of the state, the board of parole has recommended to the governor that they be pardoned by him. Under the law of the board of parole, this body has only the right to parole men when they remain within the limits of the state.

Widow to Widowers.

Mr. Robert Marshall, a well-known London police court missionary, recently received the following letter:

"Dear Sir: Reading of you sometimes in newspapers, I take the liberty of asking if you know off a very respeckable man wishen to get married again. I have bean a widow for years now and am all alone in the world. Trusting to your honor and remaining yours respeckable, Mrs. ——, middle age."

ITCHED FOR TWELVE YEARS.

Eczema Made Hands and Feet Swell, Peel and Get Raw—Arms Affected, Too—Gave Up All Hope of Cure.

Quickly Cured by Cuticura.

"I suffered from eczema on my hands, arms and feet for about twelve years, my hands and feet would swell, sweat and itch, then would become callous and get very dry, then peel off and get raw. I tried most every kind of salve and ointment without success. I tried several doctors, but at last gave up thinking there was a cure for eczema. A friend of mine insisted on my trying the Cuticura Remedies, but I did not give them a trial until I got so bad that I had to do something. I secured a set and by the time they were used I could see a vast improvement and my hands and feet were healed up in no time. I have had no trouble since. Charles T. Bauer, Volant, Pa., Mar. 11, 1908."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Physician's Mean Trick.

A doctor was one day stopped in the streets by one of his woman patients whose malady was purely imaginary. The doctor, who was known for his intolerance of and nonsympathy with such invalids, after listening somewhat impatiently to the woman's detailed account of all her feelings and symptoms, told her to shut her eyes and put out her tongue. She promptly did so. On opening her eyes in a few seconds the doctor was nowhere to be seen, and the woman awoke to the fact that he had left her standing by herself in a busy thoroughfare with her eyes shut and her tongue hanging out.

And the Old Man Grinned.

"Duke," said the heiress, eagerly, "did you see father?"

"Yes."

"Well?"

"We talked about the weather."

"What? Lose your nerve again? Why don't you brace up and talk like a man?—a subject of a king on whose domain the sun never sets!"

"Can't," moaned the duke. "All the time I was in your father's office he kept grinning at a big painting."

"What painting?"

"The battle of Bunker Hill."

Exceptions.

"You don't have to be enthusiastic to succeed in some things," said the boarding-house philosopher; "I once saw a man achieve a speed of a mile a minute sliding down a mountain side, without the slightest effort on his part and without having had any ambition to do it.

THE NEW WOMAN
Made Over by Quitting Coffee.

Coffee probably wrecks a greater percentage of Southerners than of Northern people for Southerners use it more freely.

The work it does is distressing enough in some instances; as an illustration, a woman of Richmond, Va., writes:

"I was a coffee drinker for years and for about six years my health was completely shattered. I suffered fearfully with headache and nervousness, also palpitation of the heart and loss of appetite.

"My sight gradually began to fail and finally I lost the sight of one eye altogether. The eye was operated upon and the sight partially restored, then I became totally blind in the other eye.

"My doctor used to urge me to give up coffee, but I was willful and continued to drink it until finally in a case of severe illness the doctor insisted that I must give up the coffee, so I began using Postum, and in a month I felt like a new creature.

"I steadily gained in health and strength. About a month ago I began using Grape-Nuts food and the effect has been wonderful. I really feel like a new woman and have gained about 25 pounds.

"I am quite an elderly lady and before using Postum and Grape-nuts I could not walk a square without exceeding fatigue, now I walk ten or twelve without feeling it. Formerly in reading I could remember but little but now my memory holds fast what I read.

Several friends who have seen the remarkable effects of Postum and Grape-Nuts on me have urged that I give the facts to the public for the sake of suffering humanity, so, although I dislike publicity, you can publish this letter if you like."

Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Avoid Caustic and Acids

For Your

Kitchen

Old Dutch Cleanser

is greatly the best material for all metal utensils and kitchen uses and for all general household needs, AS IT—

Cleans
Scrubs
Scours
Polishes

—and does it BETTER and QUICKER than old-fashioned soaps, soap powders and scouring bricks.

If you cannot obtain Old Dutch Cleanser at your grocers send us his name and 10c in stamps (the regular price) and we will gladly send you a full size can.

Send for FREE illustrated booklet, "Hints for Housewives."

Cudahy—Maker—Omaha

WITH A JAR OF

ECZEMA ERYSIPELAS HERPES POISON IVY ERUPTIONS SCALDS

RESINOL

NETTLE RASH RING WORM ITCHING BURNS CHAFING ABRASIONS

in the house you have a quick, certain remedy for all kinds of Skin Diseases. A few applications will relieve the worst case of itching piles.

50 cts. a Jar of all Druggists, or sent direct on receipt of price.

RESINOL CHEMICAL COMPANY, BALTIMORE, MD.

Resinol Medicated Shaving Stick makes shaving easy.

Wonderful.

"This is a remarkable world!" exclaimed O'Brien. "I was walking down the street this morning and I met a man I hadn't seen for about twelve years."

"Yes," rejoined Murphy, "it is a remarkable world. I just had an experience much like that myself. I was walking down the street not ten minutes ago and I met two men—two, mind you—that I'd never met before."

Use Allen's Foot-Ease.

It is the only relief for Swollen Smarting, Tired, Aching, Hot, Sweating Feet, Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. Cures while you walk. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Don't accept any substitute. Sample sent FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Half Done.

"Your husband has merely fainted."

"Dear, dear, those men always do things by halves." — Meggendorfer Blaetter.

Chew it as you walk home. The flavor lasts as long as the walk and you get a wonderful appetite. Wrigley's Spearmint.

Men who travel on their nerve are apt to become nervous wrecks.

Sweet Eighteen.

A professor of the class in English history was telling his young men of the impressionable age about the Elizabethan era, when suddenly turning to one of the young men who seemed to be in a dream, with a far-away gaze, he said:

"And how old was Elizabeth, Mr. Case?"

"Eighteen last birthday," came the instant reply.

Style's Freakishness.

"I want to be dressed in the height of fashion," said Mr. Suddenroll.

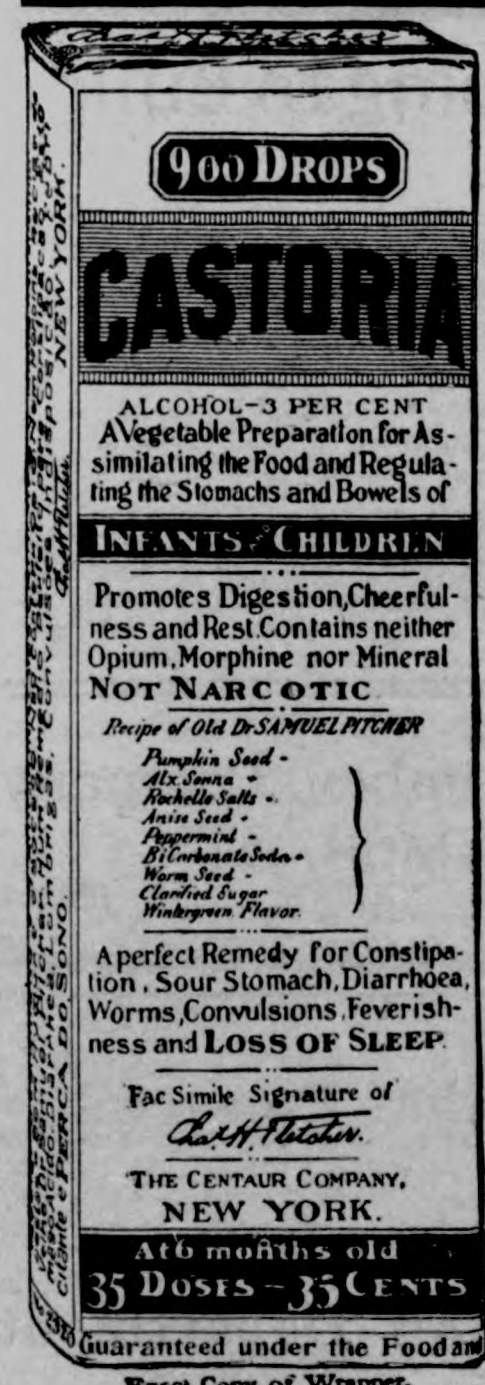
"I'll see to it that your clothes fit you perfectly," replied the tailor.

"But that's what I'm in doubt about. Is it fashionable just now to have your clothes fit?"

A feeling of security and freedom from anxiety pervades the home in which Hamlins Wizard Oil is kept constantly on hand. Mothers know it can always be depended upon in time of need.

We are generally too low in our aims, more anxious for safety than sanctity, for place than purity.

W. N. U., DES MOINES, NO. 32—1909.



Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

GROCERIES & HARDWARE

We always have on hand a complete line. Our Groceries are always new and fresh and the line comprises all the staples and a dandy line of Canned Goods. Our line of Shelf and Heavy Hardware is complete. We invite you to call and inspect our goods.

We want you to see us about

OILS

Threshing season will soon be here. Our oils are the very best. Don't forget us.

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

An Editor Goes to Church

The editor of the Oskaloosa Globe went to church recently and in the next issue he said: "The Globe man went to church Sunday to listen to the class sermon, hear the music and all that. He didn't feel 'funny' when he went in for every one seemed to be in rather a serious mood. It doesn't take much to amuse you in church though, does it? Among the musical numbers was an anthem. Now, this is no slur on the choir; the anthem was beautiful and especially well rendered. But when you come to analyze an anthem the way it is sung, it is liable to appeal to your risibilities. The anthem was, 'O, That I Had the Wings of a Dove.' To start out with, just imagine the average choir members with the wings of a dove. What they want is a flying machine. But to the knitting. The first tenor ambled to the front and told how he wanted 'the wings of a dove' three times, just that way you see. Just about the same time he got done the fair soprano got in the game and also wanted the wings of a dove three times, but explained the reason by saying, 'that I might fly away and be at rest, be at rest, be at rest,' three more times. Then the alto got the fever and she said, 'I'd build me a nest,' three times. But she scarcely got through until the big bewhiskered bass also decided he'd build a nest in a tree in the wilderness, the wilderness, the wilderness. The first tenor, fair soprano, the alto, the bewhiskered bass were now calmly perched on a nest in a tree in the wilderness. This was too much for the rest of the choir and the whole doggoned chorus rushed in and declared in loud tones, that if they had wings of a dove they'd fly away and be at rest on a nest in a tree in the wilderness. Are we to be blamed if we thought it would look mighty funny to see that crowd sitting around on nests in some tree in the wilderness especially if a wind storm like Saturday night came on? We doubt after all if they really would be at rest. Now the song writer ought to have this choir wishing that they were whole doves instead of merely having wings. There's nothing indecorous about a dove sitting in a nest in the wilderness, but when it comes to a 200-pound basso, a 240-pound soprano, and then the whole choir wanting to squat down 'on a nest in the wilderness to be at rest,'—well, that's what seemed funny to us. Can you blame us?"

One Dollar

Mr. Farmer---It costs but a trifle more to buy printed letter heads and envelopes than it does to use any old thing, and certainly it looks more business-like to use printed stationery For a limited time we offer you 100 sheets good writing paper and 100 good envelopes, printed with your name and address, both for $1.00. Give us your order now.

The Times Printery

Elkhart Buggies

are the best made, best grade and easiest riding buggies on earth for the money.

FOR THIRTY-SIX YEARS

we have been selling direct and are The Largest Manufacturers in the World selling to the consumer exclusively.

We ship for examination and approval, guaranteeing safe delivery, and also to save you money. If you are not satisfied as to style, quality and price you are nothing out.

May We Send You Our Large Catalogue?

Elkhart Carriage & Harness Mfg. Co.
Elkhart, - - - - Indiana

Price $56 With Two Auto Seat

STOCK FOODS

We carry a full line of Dr. Hess' Scientific Veterinary Stock Preparations. These preparations have been thoroughly tried and proven to give absolute satisfaction. Dr. Hess & Clark guarantee back of every preparation.

Stock Food for horses and cattle.

Worm Powder for hogs and cattle.

Panacea for Gaps, Cholera and Roup. Makes the hens lay.

Instant Lice Killer kills Lice. Ticks, Fleas. A reliable disinfectant powder put up in cans with perforated top.

Heave Powder Always gives relief.

Distemper, Fever and Cough Remedy.

Healing Powder Heals from bottom and leaves no scar

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

THRESHING COAL

The very best grades in Hocking Valley, Wineferd Splint, Indiana Block, Sootless and Washed Egg. Call and get prices.

Highest Market Price Paid for Grain and Live Stock Six Days in the Week

H. C. LAU

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile. both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

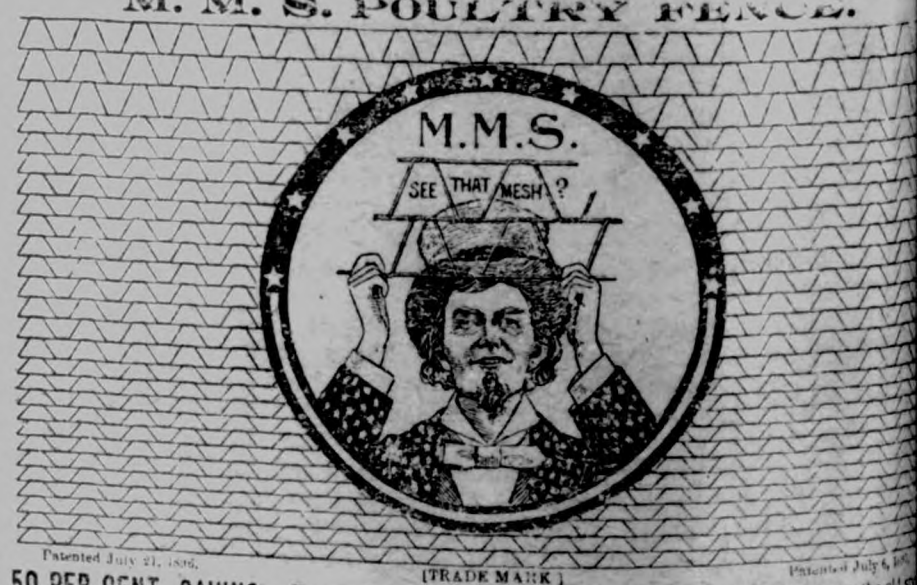
See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, AGENT

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

M. M. S. POULTRY FENCE.



Patented July 21, 1896. [TRADE MARK] Patented July 6, 1897.

50 PER CENT. SAVING. Requires no top or bottom rail and only ¼ as many posts as the old style netting and makes a better fence. A full line of Field and Hog Fence, Steel Picket Lawn Fence, Gates, Posts, Rail, etc. Write for full particulars.

UNION FENCE CO., De Kalb, Ill.

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

His Question

"Now, in order to subtract," explained a teacher to the class in mathematics, "things have to be of the same denomination. For instance we couldn't take three apples from four years, nor six horses from nine dogs."

A hand went up in the back of the room.

"Well, Johnny," smiled the unsuspecting teacher.

"Please, madam," shouted the boy, "can't you take four quarts of milk from three cows?"

Twas a Glorious Victory

There's rejoicing in Fedora, Tenn. A man's life has been saved, and no Dr. King's New Discovery is the ta of the town for curing C. V. Pepp of deadly lung hemorrhages. "I co not work nor get about," he write "and the doctor did me no good, b after using Dr. King's New Discove three weeks I feel like a new man a can do good work again." For wea sore or diseased lungs, coughs a colds, hemorrhages, hay fever, grippe, asthma or any bronchial affe tion it stands unrivaled. Price and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold a guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

KLEMME MARKET.

.....	55 to 60c
.....	32 to 34c
.....	80 to 90
.....	40 to 50c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	6.50 to 7.10
.....	3.00 to 6.00

OCAL NEWS

h fruits at Kluckhohn's.

or Zinn tests eyes and sses. 51tf

k Terhufen was a Clear isitor Monday.

. Bloom shipped a car of unday morning.

finest line of candies in t Kluckhohn's. 45tf

. Lew Lewis has been ser- sick the past week, but some better.

and see the new Robinson e Spreaders now on dis J. W. Scott's.

. Waterman has recently me cement walks built his residence.

just what you need when ed the thrashers—a new. at Wellemeyer's.

cr Kluckhohn and family, e Garner Signal, visited es in Klemme Sunday.

, Yahnke is at Buffalo this week helping his ed with his harvesting.

bing New—The latest ies' Belts and Collars just d at Mrs. John Josten's.

rence Larsen, M. I. Par- , A. Arnold and Fred went to Clear Lake and City Tuesday evening by obile.

E. Baumgartner was at Lake on Monday and ay John liked Bryan's all right, but didn't much of Carrie.

ry Yahnke, whose acci- e mentioned last week, en up and around since riday. On Saturday he d from another hen or- and also had a slight one day morning. It is hoped e will regain his former health.

Harlan and family arrived Cafey. Iowa, yesterday ill make Klemme their fu- home. Mr. Harlan has a position in F. Gruetz- r's shoe store and harness The Times extends wel- to this new family.

L. O. Turgason is pack- eir household goods and ove some time this week ir new home at Swea City, Mr. Turgason is agent e Rock Island. While re- ng their departure, their Klemme friends wish them ess and prosperity in ew home.

. G. Houghton now repre- te Mutual Life Insurance any of New York. the gest of Companies— one as the lowest proportion- penses and pays the high vidends (over 17 per cent ear.) See a policy that in- certain payment in case of and all your money re- with good interest. IF LIVE. 52 3

g obliged to take it for will sell it out cheap; Hess Stock Food. Hess Poultry Panacea. Hess Instant Louse Kill- Hess Hog Worm Powder. had at G. F. Schuler's r, Iowa.

Threshers Attention—W. R. Bloom has his threshing coal in, several varieties of the best qualities. Call and get prices. 51

Hot!

H. C. Lau has a change of ad. Read it.

P. M. Griesemer was at Garner the first of the week.

E. G. Ell and wife were at Clear Lake Monday to hear W. J. Bryan.

Try Kluckhohn's ice cream soda with crushed fruit and you will become a regular customer.

A new shipment of Tables has just been received at Wellemeyer's. Extension tables and dining tables.

H. C. Lau has raised his house and is fixing up the cellar and cistern. John Heuschen is doing the work.

Having sold out, I desire those owing me on account to please call and settle as soon as possible. Fred C. Griewe.

Lawrence Larsen is having the lumber hauled for a new barn on his farm. Work on the structure will be commenced soon.

J. F. Buss, of Holstein, Iowa, arrived in Klemme Tuesday for a visit with his brother, Elko Buss. He came here from Omaha.

C. C. Suckow and wife and F. J. Wenck, Dr. Missman and Chas. Yahnke went over to Clear Lake Tuesday evening to see Carrie Nation.

From what one is able to hear it would seem that the corn crop in Hancock county this year will be a good one. Oats this year is very thin but of good quality.

Harve Allen has completed the cement walk in front of the barber shop and the opera house. A concrete foundation is being placed under the barber shop building.

Chas. Albrecht returned home Tuesday evening. For the past six or seven weeks he has been traveling through the western states and seeing many sights of interest.

We notice that Al Koerner has been making some fine improvements around his place. He has put in some cement walks, a nice gravel driveway, and has greatly beautified his property.

A walk over our town will convince anyone that Klemme has some fine lawns and as well kept yards as any town in this part of the state. However, there are some places (just a few) where the weeds grow rank and unsightly and should be cut down.

The writer is in receipt of a card from P. C. Kossen, dated from Alkmaar, Netherlands, Europe, July 6th, in which he states that after August 15th he will again be in this country, at Grand Rapids, Michigan. Mr. Kossen is well known in Klemme having at one time been assistant cashier of the First National Bank.

A. O. Shoop and family left last Saturday with their household goods for Clear Lake, Ia., where Mrs. Shoop will visit for a few weeks, while A. O. goes on to Minneapolis where he has accepted a position and where the family will make their future home. Mr. Shoop has been employed here as harness maker for Frank Gruetzmacher and is a good workman. The friends of this family wish them prosperity in their new home.

A heavy rain fell last Friday evening.

A. Kirkwood & Son have a change of ad.

Mrs. C. P Ell and son are visiting at Thornton.

Read the new ad of the First National Bank in this issue.

Poultry wanted at the highest market price. H. Lau & Son. 2

Wm. F. Lau and family, of Garner, Sundayed in Klemme.

Fern Peck, of Garner was an over Sunday visitor with relatives here.

Britt is figuring on holding a base ball tournament the latter part of this month.

Ice cream sodas, sundaes, and all kinds of cool refreshing drinks at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

See our fine line of the best plows and corn binders before you buy. H. Lau & Son. 1-2

C. C. Suckow and family and Mrs. J. J. Suckow and children drove over to Clear Lake last Sunday.

W. R. Bloom and family drove over to Clear Lake Monday to hear W. J. Bryan speak at the Chautauqua.

All of the boys are wearing Carrie Nation hatchets and have joined the funnel gang since visiting Clear Lake this week.

This office printed bills this week announcing a public dance to be given in the Klemme opera house tomorrow evening, August 6th.

Mrs. W. E. Sage and little son Wilferd arrived last Saturday evening from Garner for a visit at the home of Mr, and Mrs. A. C. Flint.

Frank Kluckhohn was at Garner last Thursday and took in the Garner-Union ball game, which was won by the former by a score of 9 to 8.

M. A. Fell was down from Garner last Friday superintending the work of raising his building occupied by J. E. Baumgartner as a barber shop.

The customary fall picnic or carnival at Kanawha will be held this year on Tuesday, Aug. 17th. Some base ball teams, evenly matched, will be engaged; no admittance charge to games. Com. 2w

Harry Herberts and Miss Nellie Busick of Belmond, stole a march on their friends and were married at Garner, July 24th. They kept their marriage a secret until last Saturday. They are two of Belmond's most popular young people.

Dr. Geo. Zinn will soon have a force of carpenters at work on some fine new buildings on his farm east of town. He will erect a large barn, a corn crib and a hog house. Steve Day and his crew will do the work.

A. Kirkwood came up from Klemme Thursday evening for an over Sunday visit with his son, W. M. and wife, departing Monday for Gregory, South Dakota, for a visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mae Hubbard and family.—Ringsted Dispatch.

Today the Klemme Times has a birthday, if it didn't receive any gifts, this being the beginning of the fourteenth year of this paper's existence. We are going to try to make Volume XIV as good as we possibly can and at the same time we hope to do enough business to enable us to keep the wolf off our front porch. Now would be a dandy time to pay that subscription.

Lee Ell was at Garner Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. G. A. Pabst returned yesterday from a visit at Belmond.

Mrs. L Sampson and daughter Viola are visiting at Froelich, Iowa.

Mrs. Groh and daughter, Miss Stella Gruetzmacher, left yesterday for their home in Chicago after a few weeks' visit here.

We are not going to ask it it has been hot enough for you, because if it hasn't you are hard to please. The corn certainly has no excuse these days for not growing. Speaking of corn we might incidentally remark that we had roasting ears from our garden last Sunday.

Miss Vera Kimball, after a few weeks' visit here at the home of her aunt, Mrs. N. L. Palmer, left last Friday morning for Minneapolis where she will visit a week or two before returning to her home at Redfield, So. Dak. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer took her as far as Garner.

German M. E. Church Items

Klemme church is being thoroughly renovated.

Mrs. W. C. A. Gast is able to be out again after her sick spell.

Misses Hulda and Esther Gruetzmacher were at Garner last Friday.

We heard that a small crowd enjoyed a sherbert luncheon at Arthur Wellemeyer's Monday evening.

Mrs. Adolf Ridder and children arrived on Thursday. She expects to visit with her parents some time before departing for her new home at Watertown, So. Dak.

The Standard Bearers society will meet with Miss Wessel this week. All members are urgently requested to be present, as the election of officers is to be held.

The attendance at the quarterly meeting on Sunday was good in the morning and evening. Prof. Finke, though in ill health, preached three good sermons.

On Monday as Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Krause were driving towards town, their horses became frightened at seeing an automobile. The horses in turning quickly, broke the buggy tongue.

Poor Old Hisey

News has been received from Yale, South Dakota that Andrew Townsend Hisey, the erratic wheelbarrow candidate for president, known all over Iowa, was badly dealt with while there. He was making a speech when some of the "boys" grabbed the wheelbarrow and started to give him a free ride. He was thrown out and his arm was broken and he was badly jammed up otherwise.

DOCTORS
GEO. ZINN EDGAR ZINN
Office: State Savings Bank
Phone No. 19
KLEMME - - IOWA

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Phone No. 11. Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to calls, day or night.
Eyes tested. Glasses fitted.

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
Eyes Tested Free.

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures
See me when you want a Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

JOHN GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Headquarters for part of Heinz' Fifty-Seven Varieties. and Pickling Vinegar.
Try these goods; they are fine.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
Call in

RESTAURANT
Fresh New Candies, Nicest Line in Town
Try a "Lovers' Delight" the latest and best Ice Cream Sundae in town.
Try our Golden Orangeade, Pop and Ciders.
—Home-made Bakery Goods,—
Lunches and Meals at all hours.
A. Kirkwood & Son

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

National Encampment
G. A. R.
SALT LAKE CITY
August 9-14, 1909
Why not take your vacation at the time of the encampment and go with the "boys in blue"
Thro' Scenic Colorado
To the city of the Mormons, one of the most interesting places in the country to visit? The things to do and the places to see are legion, and the added attraction of the trip through Colorado, that wonderland of Nature, can be enjoyed by planning your trip via
Rock Island-Frisco Lines
Ask for folder descriptive of the event and trip.
J. H. MAHER, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

THE KLEMME TIMES

KALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher.

KLEMME, - - - IOWA

SUMMARY OF A WEEK'S EVENTS

Latest News of Interest Boiled Down for the Busy Man.

PERSONAL.

Leslie M. Shaw, former secretary of the treasury, in an address at Chautauqua, N. Y., said the people had made cowards of their congressmen and that Hearst would beat La Follette for the presidency if Roosevelt, Taft and Bryan should die.

Gov. John A. Johnson of Minnesota was the orator and central figure of "Swedish day" at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition at Seattle. Thousands of Swedes from all parts of the country took part in the festivities.

John Galvin, vice-mayor of Cincinnati, took the oath as mayor, succeeding the late Col. Leopold Markbreidt.

President Reyes of Colombia resigned and his successor will be elected August 3.

Prof. Charles Zubelin, sociologist of Boston, in an address at Cahutaugua, N. Y., called E. H. Harriman a financial pest.

Representative Tawney of Minnesota, replying to a magazine article, assailed Dr. Charles Richard Van Hise, president of Wisconsin university.

A report was received in New York that Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the suffragist terror of England, is coming to this country to stir up the women.

GENERAL NEWS.

Incomplete reports from the district devastated by the earthquake in Mexico indicated that more than 100 persons lost their lives and several towns were nearly destroyed.

Noah R. Marker, the absconding assistant cashier of the First National bank, returned to his home in Tipton, Ind., was arrested, taken to Muncie and released on a $10,000 bond. He said he had been fishing in Missouri and returned to spend his birthday with his family.

Following the report that the rebels had surrendered in Barcelona and the Moors had retreated from Melilla, official announcements given out at Madrid said the situation in Spain was improving. It is said 400 were slain and 1,000 wounded in the Barcelona battle.

Orville Wright won the $30,000 prize offered by congress, surpassed the government's requirements and set a new speed record for aeroplanes, in the final test at Fort Myer.

Harry Thaw's belief that he is a person of extreme ability may be the bar that will keep him in the madhouse, judging from the pertinent questions asked by Justice Mills who is hearing the sanity probe case.

Phillip Swift, son of Edward F. Swift, the Chicago packer, was seriously injured when his automobile, running a mile a minute, struck a telephone pole at Lake Geneva, Wis.

A person seeking revenge turned off the ventlating apparatus in a coal mine at Pittsburg, Kan., and 40 miners were evercome by gas.

When his launch caught fire in midstream, Attorney Fred Dicke of Two Rivers, Wis., leaped into the water took a rope in his teeth and pulled the boat to shallow water where three girls who had been badly burned sprung into the stream and saved themselves.

Two couples were married by Rev. George Whitehead of New York late at night, while the pastor was garbed in his pajamas and was barefooted.

Roy Griswold, who was arrested at Georgetown, Col., on suspicion that he was the slayer of Peter Waeltz at Belleville, Ill., proved an alibi and was released.

Claude Brooks, a negro, was hanged at Kansas City, Mo., for the murder of Sidney Herndon, a well-to-do real-estate owner, formerly of Tyler, Tex., Jan. 13, 1908.

It is announced that the government is planning to expend $6,000,000 on fortifications at San Pedro, Cal.

The murdered body of an unidentified man bound hand and foot was found by children in the woods near Randall, O.

Night riders have warned the builders to cease work on a new schoolhouse near Bethpage, Tenn., close to the Kentucky state line, and they have demanded the resignation of a trustee.

Detective Frank Wagner, who told the senatorial investigating committee that he had seen Stephenson aids pay money to members of the Wisconsin legislature, was convicted of perjury at Madison.

Mrs. William Jennings Bryan announced that the family would not live in Texas except during the winter months, but would continue to make their home at Lincoln, Neb.

Joseph H. Leison of Indiana, Joseph P. Walker of Denver, Col., and J. J. Harrington of Hartsell, Col., have sued Benjamin Marks, Ernest E. Hart, Jr., John J. Spindler, James C. Maybray and the First National Bank of Council Bluffs, Ia., for the recovery of money alleged to have been lost in sporting transactions.

The plant of the Murray & Nickel Manufacturing Company, located at South Elgin, Ill., burned. Explosion of a large milling machine started the fire. The loss is said to be $100,000.

The tariff conferees signed the Aldrich-Payne bill and reported it to the house after President Taft had whipped several of the insurgents into line for downward revision.

A report from Washington says James Wilson of Iowa, secretary of agriculture, who has been a cabinet officer longer than any other man, will resign in January and probably will be succeeded by Representative Scott of Kansas.

Eleven persons died in Chicago from heat and injuries sustained in an electrical storm.

District Attorney Jerome, after two days of grueling examination of Harry Thaw, failed to make the slayer of Stanford White show any signs of insanity.

Harry C. Pulliam, president of the National League of Professional Baseball Clubs, died in New York from the wound he inflicted when he shot himself in the head.

A barber at Winthrop Harbor declares he shaved off the beard of a man answering the description of Judge Clarkson, who disappeared from Kenosha, Wis.

The Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition company at Seattle has offered $25,000 for a race between either of the Wright brothers and Louis Bleriot, the French aviator who made the successful aeroplane flight across the English channel.

Harrison S. Green, a prominent Milwaukee lawyer, and five other passengers were hurt when a Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul train was wrecked at Duplainville, Wis.

The Chicago grand jury, which has already indicted a police inspector, a detective and others, returned indictments against 20 keepers of illegal establishments.

Fire caused a loss of $10,000 to buildings in Philo, Ill.

Arthur Eulan, John Ament and Henry Zebotski, while raising sunken logs from the Wisconsin river, about two miles south of Merrill, Wis., were drowned.

William H. Marker, cashier of the First National bank, Tipton, Ind., whose brother fled after stealing more than $100,000, resigned.

Mrs. John Mullarkey shot and killed Edward Axline and then committed suicide at Bellevue, Ky.

Six hundred miners of District No. 11 in Indiana have been ordered to return to work pending a review of their strike difficulty by T. L. Lewis, the national president.

W. P. Kreis, a union pressman, was shot and seriously wounded at Atlanta, Ga., by G. W. Stovall, a non-union pressman, who was attacked by union sympathizers aroused by a strike.

Albert Reece, 78 years old, of Danvers, Ill., was sentenced to one year in the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., for illegally drawing a war pension for 18 years. He drew a total of $2,000.

Harry Thaw showed no signs of insanity in his first day on the witness stand and more than held his own in a battle of wits with District Attorney Jerome.

With his kingdom facing civil war, King Alfonso declared martial law throughout his domain in an effort to check the riots which have already cost several hundreds of lives.

A dog is held prisoner in a Georgia jail and will be used as a witness against a negro who is charged with assaulting a woman. His mute testimony is expected to free the prisoner or send him to the gallows.

County officials at Peoria, Ill., decided to ask the next state legislature to pass a law providing whipping posts for men who abandon and beat their wives.

Roy Blake, a traveling photographer, arrested in Denver, Col., at the request of a former Belleville, Ill., woman who says he killed Peter Waltz, a Belleville photographer.

Police Magistrate Grannan of Baltimore acquitted Senator Stone of Missouri and said the senator was justified in slapping a negro, waiter on a Pennsylvania train, when the black was impudent to him.

William McCracken of Osage county, Okla., is under arrest in London, Ky., charged with feigning death to swindle an insurance company out of $5,000.

TO SPEND $150,000

Old Federal Building to Be Entirely Remodeled.

NEW POSTOFFICE READY NOV. 1

Col. West and His Aides Will Occupy First Floor—Cells to Be Added to Equipment of U. S. Marshal.

Des Moines, Aug. 2.—A sum of $150,000 will be spent by the United States government in remodeling the old federal building just as soon as the postoffice department moves into its new home on the river front about Nov. 1. Many changes will be made, the most important of which will be the removal of the officers' headquarters at Fort Des Moines to a new place on the first floor of the remodeled structure.

A representative of the treasury department at Washington will arrive in Des Moines in a few weeks to confer with the heads of the various departments as to how they wish to have their offices arranged. Plans and specifications will then be made and bids asked for. Work on the structure will commence about November 15.

The structure will be remodeled from the roof to the basement. Every particle of plaster will be taken off from the ground up so that everything can be rearranged.

Other big changes that will be made will include the removal of the customs office, collector of the revenue and the pension department from the second floor of the structure to the first floor.

Radical changes will be made on the third floor of the structure, which is now occupied by tthe office of the United States marshal, clerks of the circuit and district courts, civil service commission, federal court room, and Judge McPherson's private offices.

A set of prison cells will be placed in a room adjoining the marshal's office, where federal prisoners may be kept during trials, or to serve short sentences. The prisoners are kept in the Polk county jail at the present time. Sleeping quarters and a bath room will be provided for the deputy marshals, of whom there are three at the present time.

Changes will be made in the offices of the United States weather bureau, but just what they will be cannot be told at this time.

Must Own Permit or No Liquors.

Des Moines.—Efforts are being made to stop deliveries of liquor in the state except to the holders of permits. Decisions have been made in the district courts of the state holding that railroads and express companies have no right to deliver the goods except to those holding a permit to sell in the state and the present attempt is to shut off sending a waiter to the nearest saloon for a bottle of beer. It is said that Attorney General Byers holds that this is illegal, under the liquor laws of the state.

Visions of New Road.

Iowa City.—Is Iowa City to be on the line of an electric railway connecting Omaha and Chicago, is a question which many in this community are wondering about. Parties recently in this city engaged help to work on a surveying gang which is to map out such a line. The parties securing the help here have not approached any local capitalists, and it is believed here that the enterprise is being financed at one or the other of the great centers which it is proposed to connect.

Girl to Sanitarium.

Marshalltown.—Miss Gertrude Gregory, daughter of Councilman George Gregory of this city, and a student at the state university, left for Oakville, where she will become a patient in the state tuberculosis sanatorium. Miss Gregory was stricken with pneumonia while attending the university last spring and her illness affected her lungs.

Heads S. U. I. Nurses' School.

Iowa City.—Mrs. Anna C. Goodale, superintendent of Ellsworth's hospital at Cedar Falls, is to succeed Miss Margaret Earle as superintendent of the Homeopathic Training School for Nurses in this city. Miss Earle is now Mrs. Lloyd Canfield, having been secretly married a few weeks ago.

Boy Drowns in Fish Pond.

Knoxville.—Word was received here of the drowning of Martin Caffrey, aged 21, in a pond two miles from Caloma, in Franklin township, this county.

Assessments Changed by Council.

Des Moines.—Four counties will have an increase of 5 per cent over the farm land valuations reported by the county auditor, according to the order of the executive council in its work of assessment and equalization. The tax levy which will be 3.4 mills on the dollar, a reduction of one-tenth of a mill from last year.

Polk county is one of the counties to receive the 5 per cent increase. The others are Plymouth, Howard and Wapello. Dallas will receive a 4 per cent raise and other increases follow:

Three per cent—Fremont, Monona and Palo Alto.

Two per cent—Adams, Butler, Calhoun, Cass, Chickasaw, Clinton, Floyd, Lucas, Lyon, O'Brien, Union and Winnebago.

One per cent—Clay, Kossuth, Madison and Marion.

In Johnson county the council ordered a 3 per cent reduction over the figures presented by the county auditor.

Railroad assessed valuations were left practically unchanged for most of the roads in the state. The Des Moines Union figures were raised to a total of $120,750 owing to the increase in trackage from 4 to 5.16 miles.

A reduction of $80,250 was made in the assessed valuation of the Newton & Northwestern, now a part of the Des Moines, Fort Dorge & Southern.

Four interurban roads were valued at a higher figure, as follows: Fort Dodge, Des Moines & Southern, increase per mile from $2,000 to $2,050; Mason City & Clear Lake, from $1,000 to $1,500; Oskaloosa & Buxton, from $1,000 to $1,500; Waterloo, Cedar Falls & Northern, from $3,000 to $3,600 per mile. The new Albia interurban was valued for assessment at $2,000 per mile.

Assessed valuations of express companies were fixed at the same figures with one exception, the Pacific Express company, the assessed valuation of which was increased from $25 to $30 per mile.

Knoxville Pair Married 60 Years.

Knoxville.—Knoxville is rapidly acquiring the reputation of being the home of more venerable old married couples than any other place of like size in Iowa. On July 25, following close on the sixty-sixth anniversary of J. T. Gregory and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Lundy celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding day. In this case the most remarkable feature is noted in the fact that tthe old people were married in this county (Marion) and that the date of the wedding was July 25, 1849, at a time when the township in which they were married was a primeval wilderness without a name.

Kepford in Demonstration.

Storm Lake.—Following the lecture of Dr. A. E. Kepford, state lecturer on tuberculosis, at the Storm Lake Chautauqua, a demonstration was given on an infected animal which had been taken from the private dairy herd of a nearby farm. The animal was just fresh and the tubercular conditions were evident enough to make the demonstration of great practical benefit. Dr. Kepford states that this is the first time anything of the sort has been attempted by an Iowa Chautauqua and believes that such things will be of great practical benefit.

Nose Bleed May Kill Farmer.

Iowa City.—William Miller, a farmer of near Solon, is in a critical condition from a persistent hemorrhage from the nose. Miller was seized with a bleeding at the nose and at first thought little of it but upon its failing to yield to treatment his alarm was aroused and it required considerable medical aid to stop the flow of blood, which greatly weakened him.

Seeks a Parole.

Marshalltown.—After having been in the Anamosa state reformatory less than a year, Fred Tupper of Hartland, Wis., who was sentenced to five years for forgery last September, is now seeking a parole, and has written Rev. C. W. McCord of this city whom he victimized after McCord had befriended the young man, asking for his assistance.

Drainage Reduces Hay Crop.

Milford.—The redemption of so much land here by the use of drain tile and ditching will cause a loss in the hay crop and it is expected a shortage of at least 100,000 tons will result through this part of the state. Hundreds of acres of hitherto good hay land have been drained and put into crops.

Mrs. W. J. Teeters Dead.

Iowa City.—Mrs. W. J. Teeters, wife of Prof. Teeters, dean of the college of pharmacy of the university, died of convulsions. Her husband is in New Mexico. Their only child was killed in a runaway last year.

IOWA MAN KILL

W. H. Dahlquist is a Victim Spokane Wreck.

ELEVEN OTHERS MEET DE

Seventy-five Persons Injured w Electric Cars Collide at Cold water, Idaho—Spokane Hospital Filled.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 2.—T persons were killed and seventy were injured in a head-on collisio two electric cars on the Spokan Inland railway. The wreck occu at Coldwater, Wash., a station tween Coeur d'Alene, and Spok No. 20, westbount train, had left C d'Alene at 4:30 p. m., and had reached Coldwater when it met eastbound. Both trains were goi the rate of about fifteen miles an They crashed together without ing to the crews or passengers.

The heavily laden passenger c es were crushed. Men and wo were thrown from their seats, being hurled to the top of the coa while others were sent flying thr the windows. Several coaches the track and passengers were c under the pile of broken timber Uninjured passengers at once ried to telephones to call aid. A ial train of physicians hurried Spokane. Others hurried from C d'Alene and other places. The C d'Alene hospital is now filled wit jured. Only one of the train cre reported injured.

The dead:

ORVILLE PUERBAUGH, El Ind.

W. J. HOUSE, Scotia, Wash.

WILLIAM W. ONSETTE, Har ton, Wash.

A. P. WHITLEY, Memphis, Te

WILLIAM WARD, Wenat Wash.

JOHN VERNIE, Springfield, M

DOLLIE GOLDEN, Spokane, W

W. A. DAHLQUIST, Estherville

J. C. COX, Medical Lake, Was

A. D. M'DONALD, Drummond,

MRS. A. B. M'DONALD, Drum Mont.

ANDREW FASHION, Baker Ore.

Among the injured are.

Daniel Carmondy, 4619 Union nue, Chicago, fracture of leg an ternal injuries.

P. M. Waters, Pleasant Lake, I

Guy Tumbleson, Mullenville, K

Arthur Marvin, Victoria, Mont.

Charles Osburne, Freeport, bruises.

Mrs. Charles Osborne, Freepor scalp wounds and knee hurt.

C. P. Vansandt, Harrisonville, knee hurt.

E. L. Dixon, Norfolk, Neb., pound fracture of left leg

Arrangements for burying the are delayed pending word from tives in different parts of the U States.

TWELVE ARE HURT IN WR

John D. Lawrence, Mail Clerk, Very Critical Condition at t Methodist Hospital.

Des Moines, Aug. 2.—Twelve were injured and the passenge the entire train of the Overland ited of the Chicago, Milwaukee Paul railway miraculously es death in a wreck just east of crossing at Cambridge early Sat morning. The accident was c by a break a foot long in the rail of the track. The engine d leave the rails, but the six c were thrown into the ditch an mail and combined express cars splintered into kindling wood.

The list of the seriously injur as follows:

John D. Lawrence, Madrid, clerk; aged 46; married. Right and left shoulder fractured an jured internally.

Frank L. Eistonwaller, Cedar ids, mail clerk; aged 65. Cut on of head, left shoulder bruised.

E. A. Matkovick, Blysdale, laborer; aged 42. Cut on head.

Arthur Dodge, Toledo, O.; age Cut on forehead, ankle sprained

Ralph Santanatob, Chicago, I

W. E. Glenn, Springfield, S. D on forehead.

Andrew Gaydy, Chicago. Bruis head.

John McCarty, Chicago. Left sprained and bruised.

Charles H. Larabee, Ainsworth Side injured.

Charles F. Price, Chicago. C head, leg bruised.

Arthur Craig, colored, Kansas Cut on finger of right hand.

Jacob Gogo, East Cambridge, Cut and bruised over right eye.

Libby's Food Products

Libby's Vienna Sausage

Is distinctly different from any other sausage you ever tasted. Just try one can and it is sure to become a meal-time necessity, to be served at frequent intervals.

Libby's Vienna Sausage just suits for breakfast, is fine for luncheon and satisfies at dinner or supper. Like all of Libby's Food Products it is carefully cooked and prepared, ready to serve, in Libby's Great White Kitchen—the cleanest, most scientific kitchen in the world.

Other popular, ready-to-serve Libby Pure Foods are:—

Cooked Corned Beef
Peerless Dried Beef
Veal Loaf
Evaporated Milk
Baked Beans
Chow Chow
Mixed Pickles

Write for free booklet,—"How to make Good Things to Eat". Insist on Libby's at your grocers.

Libby, McNeill & Libby
Chicago

"To Orient."

Primarily and as its etymology is the verb to orient means to set an object in exact adjustment to the east, thence by a natural corollary to make it true with all the cardinal points of the compass. Then in the figurative and topical signification it is used to describe the attitude of a person duly adjusted to any standard of knowledge, morals or life.

The Force of Habit.

One of the campers had done something peculiarly idiotic, and the dean remarked, "Dick reminds me of Thomas' colt."

"What about Thomas' colt?" asked the boy cheerfully.

"Why," the dean responded, readily, before I lived in Maine when I was a boy an old man named Thomas had horses. He once put out to pasture a colt, which had been fed from its birth in a box stall and watered at the trough in the yard.

The pasture lay across a small stream and in the middle of the day the colt swam the stream to go up to the barnyard for a drink of water."—Youth's Companion.

A LONG WAY BACK.

George—There's Miss Passay. She says she's never been kissed.
Harry—Why, I've kissed her myself, long ago. She means not since she's remember.

Every package of
Post Toasties
contains a little book—
Bid-Bits made with
Post Toasties."
A couple of dozen recipes for fascinating dishes, to help in entertaining
home folks or company,
Large 10c and 15c—
At grocers.

TARIFF MEASURE MAKES CUT IN MANY SCHEDULES

Fight for Lower Duties on Wood Pulp and Print Paper Is Won.

SLIGHT INCREASE IN RATES ON HOSIERY.

Metal Schedules Are Lower—Duty on Rough Lumber Changed from $2 to $1.25 per Thousand Feet—Sugar and Tobacco Schedules Remain Substantially as Under the Dingley Bill—Little Change in Wool Duties.

Washington.—Tariff rates under the new measure, on the most important articles of consumption, have been decided on as follows:

In the lumber schedule the only increases were those on shingles from 30 cents to 50 cents per 1,000, and on briar wood and laurel wood for the use of pipe makers from the free list to 15 per cent. ad valorem. The rate on sawed lumber was decreased from $2 per 1,000 to $1.25 per 1,000. There was also a diminution on timber from one cent. per cubic foot to one-half cent, and on sawed boards of white wood and kindred woods from $1 per 1,000 to 50 cents per 1,000. The reduction in the differential rates in favor of dressed lumber averaged about one-third of the Dingley rate. Paving posts, railroad ties and telephone poles are reduced from 20 to 10 per cent. ad valorem; clapboards from $1.50 per 1,000 to $1.25; laths from 25 cents to 20 cents per 1,000, while fence posts and kindling wood were taken from the dutiable list and placed on the free list.

The only change in the sugar schedule consisted of a reduction of five-hundredths of a cent in the differential on refined sugar.

In agricultural products broom corn was taken from the free list and made dutiable at three dollars per ton. Hops are increased from 12 to 16 cents per pound. There are also increases on lemons, figs, almonds, pineapples and chicory root. The reductions in the agricultural schedule covered bacon and hams from five to four cents per pound, lard from two to one and one-half cents, fresh meats from two to one and one-half cents, and starch from one and one-half to one cent per pound. Tallow, wool grease, dextrin, peas, sugar beets, cabbages and salt were also lowered.

The wine and liquor schedule was increased throughout to 15 per cent. over the Dingley rates.

The cotton schedule was reconstructed and readjusted to bring the duties up to those collected during the first four years of the operation of the Dingley law and to the rate then collected under that law. Since that time the rates have been lowered, in some cases from 60 to 6 per cent. by court decisions. These new rates are equivalent to an addition, on the whole, of three per cent. ad valorem increase over that collected under the present law for last year.

Cotton Hosiery.

Cotton hosiery, valued at not more than $1 per dozen is increased from 50 to 70 cents per dozen pairs; more than $1 and less than $1.50 per dozen pairs, from 60 cents to 85 cents per dozen pairs; more than $1.50 and not more than $2, from 70 cents to 90 cents per dozen pairs.

The remaining rates on stockings are the same as under the present law.

Hemp is increased from $20 to $22.50 per ton and hackle hemp from $40 to $45 per ton. The cheaper laces remain as in the present law, but there is an increase from 60 to 70 per cent. on some of the higher priced laces. In this schedule single coarse yarns are reduced from seven cents to six cents per pound and gill nettings from 25 to 20 per cent. ad valorem.

There was a general reduction in carpets and mats.

A reduction from 20 cents to 15 cents is made in hydraulic hose. Oil cloth, including linoleum, was reduced about one-third.

There was practically no change in the wool schedule from the rates of the Dingley law, but there was a readjustment between tops and yarns and a small decrease on cloths with a cotton warp.

Mechanically ground wood pulp was exempted from duty and placed on the free list with a provision for a countervailing duty against Canada. The lower grade of printing paper was reduced from $6 to $3.75 per ton and the higher grade from $8 to $3.75. There is an increase on surface coated paper and lithographing prints including postcards and cigar labels.

Common window glass of the lower sizes, in which the imports are heavy, is given a reduction, and where changes were made in the chemical schedule there was a general decrease, except upon such articles as fancy soaps and perfumes, which were increased.

Probably the most marked reductions throughout any schedule in the bill as a result of the action of the two houses and of the conference committee are found in the metal schedule. Beginning with a decrease in the rate of iron ore from 40 to 15 cents per ton, there is a general reduction throughout that portion of the bill, pig iron going down from $4 to $2.50 per ton, and scrap iron from $4 to $1. The reduction on many of the items in this schedule amounts to about 50 per cent., and this reduction includes steel rails.

Other reductions in the metal schedule affect polished sheets, rolled sheets of iron, steel, copper, or nickel, steel ingots, cogged ingots, blooms and slabs; round iron or steel wire; steel bars or rods, co'd rolled, cold drawn, or cold hammered, or polished; anvils, axles; blacksmith's hammers and sledges, track tools, wedges and crowbars; bolts; cast iron pipes; cast hollow ware; chains; lap welded or jointed iron or steel boier tubes; cut nails and spikes; horseshoe nails; wire nails; spikes, nuts and washers; cut tacks; steel plates engraved; rivets; cross-cut saws, millsaws, circular saws, pit and drag saws, steel band saws and all other saws; screws; wheels for railway purposes; aluminum; momazite sand and thorite.

Bituminous coal goes down from 67 cents to 45 cents per ton, and there are reductions on gunpowder, matches and cartridges. Agricultural implements are cut from 20 to 15 per cent. ad valorem.

Hides were placed on the free list, while the rate on band and sole leather is reduced from 20 per cent. to five per cent. ad valorem, on dressed leather from 20 per cent. to 10 per cent.; boots and shoes from 25 per cent. to 10 per cent.

Fireworks are increased from 20 per cent. advalorem to 12 cents per pound; wearing apparel made of fur from 35 to 50 per cent, and the higher class jewerly from 60 per cent. to 85 per cent. ad valorem; pencil lead is given specific rates instead of ad valorem rates with a slight increase. For the first time moving picture films are named specifically in a tariff law. The bill gives them a positive rate of 1½ cents per foot.

Petroleum, crude and refined, including kerosene, gasoline, naphtha, benzine and similar petroleum products are made free of duty and are left even without a countervailing duty.

The Dingley rates on women's and children's gloves are allowed to stand. The only change is a reduction on "schmaschen" gloves not over 14 inches in length on which the rate is made $1.25 a dozen pairs instead of $1.75.

Miscellaneous Provisions.

A provision is included in the bill which levies on all articles upon which any foreign country pays a bounty or grant upon its exportation, an additional duty equal to the amount of such bounty.

It is required that all imported articles capable of being marked without impairment of their value shall be stamped with the name of the manufacturer and the country of origin.

A very elaborate provision for the administration of the customs laws was adopted by the conferees. It is practically the same as that adopted by the senate. It is intended to prevent undervaluation of articles on which there is no foreign market by which true values may be ascertained.

Provision is made for the establishment of a customs court of appeals, with headquarters in Washington. It will comprise a presiding judge and four associate judges, at salaries of $10,000 a year. There are to be appointed to conduct government cases before this court a special assistant attorney general at $10,000, a deputy assistant attorney general at $7,500, and four attorneys at $5,000 each.

The internal revenue tax on tobacco is amended, making the rates on chewing and smoking tobacco eight cents a pound. No change was made in the tax on cigars, except those weighing under three pounds per 1,000, which were increased from 54 to 75 cents per 1,000. The rates on cigarettes were increased to $1.25 per 1,000. A prohibition against the use of coupons or special gift pledges is incorporated in the new law.

The provision granting farmers the free sale of leaf tobacco places a restriction on the retail dealer which requires him to record every sale amounting to two pounds or more to one person in one day. A number of other ironclad requirements are included in the redraft of this section adopted by the conference committee, by which it was intended to prevent any frauds upon the internal revenues, and at the same time give as much of a local market as possible to the tobacco grower. The grower had contended for unrestricted sale of amounts up to ten pounds.

Foreign-built yachts are subject to an excise tax of seven dollars per gross ton, which is to be collected annually on the first day of September. In lieu of the excise tax the owner of a foreign built yacht or pleasure boat may pay a duty of 35 per cent. ad valorem on his yacht. This will entitle him to American registry. The excise tax provision was adopted because of the fact that some question has been raised about the ability of the government to enforce collection of import duties.

Corporation Tax.

Every corporation, joint stock company or association organized for profit, and every insurance company is required to pay annually an excise tax of one per cent. upon its entire net income over and above $5,000. This feature was put into the bill to raise additional revenues to apply on the treasury deficit. The section was prepared by Attorney General Wickersham, assisted by other able lawyers in the administrative circle, and great care was taken to guard against double taxation. It provides a form of publicity which will enable the government to exercise supervision over corporations. The form of returns which must be made by corporations, and other features of the corporation tax law were made public in detail during its consideration in the senate. It is estimated that from $20,000,000 to $30,000,000 a year will be collected under this form of federal taxation.

The secretary of the treasury is authorized to issue Panama canal bonds to the amount of $290,569,000, which sum, together with that already expended, equals the estimated cost of the Panama canal. It is not intended that the bonds shall be issued except as needed to provide money to carry on the work of canal construction. The bonds are to be payable 50 years from the date of issue, and will bear interest at a rate not exceeding three per cent. When the bonds are sold the secretary of the treasury will restore to the working balance the $50,000,000 paid originally for the canal property and the canal zone.

The re-enactment of the provision authorizing the issuance of treasury certificates for money borrowed to meet public expenditures, increases the amount of the authorization from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000. A large number of other provisions that are in force under the existing tariff law are included in the conference bill, with a few changes in phraseology in several cases.

The drawback provision of the Dingley law is incorporated in the conference bill in lieu of the drawback of the house bill which intended to permit the substitution of domestic material in the manufactured article for export to the same quantity that the imported material, upon which a drawback was obtainable, was used in the manufacture of similar articles for domestic consumption. An additional provision was adopted entitling users of domestic alcohol in the manufacture of perfumery and cosmetics to secure a drawback of internal revenue tax to the amount of alcohol used in an exported article.

Senate Ideas Accepted.

Practically all the administrative features of the bill which were adopted in the senate were accepted by the conferees. They include a new maximum and minimum feature, a corporation tax law instead of the inheritance tax adopted by the house, authorization for a bond issue to raise money to build the Panama canal, as well as numerous other features.

The maximum and minimum provision prescribes duties in accordance with the rates named in the dutiable list until March 31, 1910, when 25 per cent. ad valorem is to be added automatically as the maximum duty. The president is authorized to apply the minimum rates, however, to imports from a country which gives its best rates to the products of the United States and is made the judge as to whether a foreign country accords to the United States treatment which is reciprocal and equivalent. When he finds that this condition exists he is to issue a proclamation putting in effect the minimum rates and until the time of the proclamation the maximum rates will apply.

The president is empowered to employ such persons as may be required to secure information to assist the president in the discharge of the duties imposed upon him and information which will be useful to the officers of the government in the administration of the customs laws. The reciprocity treaty with Cuba is not affected by the maximum and minimum provision.

The president is empowered also to abrogate those reciprocity treaties which can be terminated by diplomatic action. It is made his duty to give 10 days' notice after the bill becomes a law of his intention to bring those treaties to an end. All other treaties which contain no stipulation in regard to their termination by diplomatic action shall be abrogated by a notice of six months from the president to those countries, the notice dating from April 30, 1909, on which date Secretary Knox notified foreign governments that the United States would soon ask them to enter into new tariff relations.

Don't take our word for it You must CHEW Wrigley's Spearmint to help your digestion.

Now a scientist says gold has a distinct odor. He must have been handed a bunch of the tainted kind.

Eat on, good folks! Wrigley's Spearmint prevents indigestion.

Undertake deliberately, but having begun, persevere.—Wren.

DON'T USE IMITATION BLUE.
Use genuine RUSS BLUE. It preserves clothes and makes them white as snow. 5c.

He's a stingy man who will not give you a smile.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
FOR ALL KIDNEY DISEASES
FOR RHEUMATISM
FOR BRIGHT'S DISEASE FOR BACKACHE
FOR DIABETES.
PER 375 "Guaranteed"

SICK HEADACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cured by these Little Pills.

They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.
Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature
Brent Good
REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

WRIGLEY WRIGLEY WRIGLEY

Nothing Like

them in the world. CASCARETS the biggest seller—why? Because it's the best medicine for the liver and bowels. It's what they will do for you—not what we say they will do—that makes CASCARETS famous. Millions use CASCARETS and it is all the medicine that they ever need to take. 904

CASCARETS 10c a box for a week's treatment, all druggists. Biggest seller in the world. Million boxes a month.

More Than Two Million Users
NO STROPPING NO HONING
TRADE Gillette MARK
KNOWN THE WORLD OVER

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT CHEWING GUM

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c, and $1.00 at Druggists

LAND—IRRIGATED—LAND. Perpetual water right; fine water; productive soil; crop failures unknown; 50 bu. wheat per acre; 3½ to 5 tons alfalfa; healthful climate; free timber; easy terms; write now. LINWOOD LAND CO., Rock Springs, Wyoming.

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Books free. Highest references. Best results.

WRIGLEY'S

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water

SEMA CREAM removes tan, sunburn, freckles and pimples. 10c size by mail. J. E. Cagwin, Ames, Ia.

A-B-C LINIMENT has stood the test—it is by far the best. Sold by all Dealers.

Des Moines Directory

EAT PURITY CHOCOLATES

M'f'd by Windsor-Purity Candy Co., Des Moines. For sale by all first-class dealers.

Talking Machine Free

trial to responsible people. Special outfit complete: Our Victor, Evans Special Model C, with 19-inch black horn; 1 extra 21-inch flowered horn; 1 self-cleaning record brush; 1 oil can; 1 bottle oil; 1 modulator; 1000 needles; 1 tube graphite; 1 record case (holds 50 records); 6 ten-inch records; 1 needle holder.

Our price $37.50—Worth $52.00. Sold for cash or monthly payments. Send for special outfit bargain list.

F. O. EVANS PIANO CO., Des Moines, Iowa

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

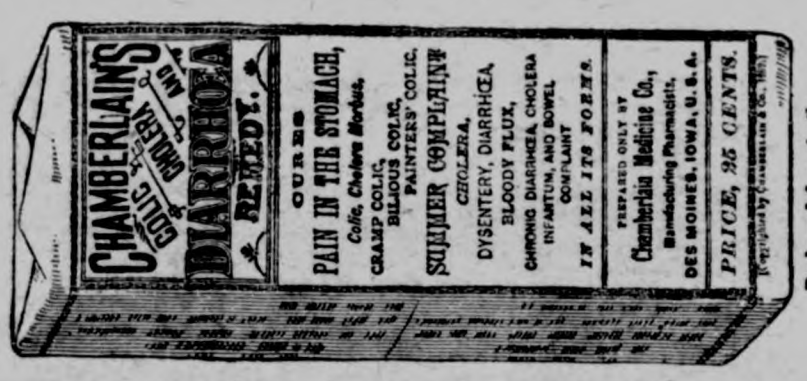
Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy

Acknowledged everywhere to be the most successful medicine in use for Bowel Complaints.

Can be depended upon in the most severe and dangerous cases.

REMEMBER ALWAYS CURES
CURES QUICKLY

MONEY RETURNED IF NOT SATISFIED



Reduced fac simile

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

GOODELL

From the Globe:

Miss Avis Gartin is visiting at the home of E. J. Bauman in St. Paul this week.

C. J Knott has sold his farm to Mr. Watermiller and will move to Washington about the first of the year.

Fred Nolte and Dave Friedman left Tuesday for the Alaska-Yukon exposition at Seattle. They will also register for land

A. D. White and daughters, Miss Mamie White and Mrs. Gittie Sweigard, left last Monday to take in the Alaska-Yukon exposition at Seattle and other points of interest. Mrs. Sweigard expects to register for land.

The Hall girls came out from Chicago Wednesday and are visiting at the home of their uncle, James Trumbell.

Mrs. D. E. Eldred and daughter Vera.. of Sheldon, Iowa, came last Friday and are the guests of relatives and friends.

The base ball game on last Tuesday between the married men and single men resulted in the score of 13 to 15 in favor of the single men.

Woman's Generous Act.

"I give and bequeath my real estate for the use of my husband during his life, and at his death, I direct that it be divided share and share alike between my children and any children that my husband may have with another wife after I am dead." This unusual generosity of a wife toward the children of her probable successor in the affections of her husband is an extract from the will of Mrs. Dorothy Creveling, late of Scott township, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Creveling died in 1877, leaving a fine farm and other valuable real estate. Her husband, Benson Creveling, and three children survived her. Later he married another and five children were born. Recently all of the eight children joined in a petition to the court for permission to sell the real estate at private sale and divide the proceeds.

Where Families Are Large.

Although the population of France is declining, there are parts where large families are not the exception, but the rule. The little village of Verrieres, near Pontalier on the Swiss frontier, where Gen. Bourbaki met with disaster in 1871, is a case in point. It is a picturesque spot. Families of ten or a dozen are common. Last week M. Simon, a farmer, celebrated his golden wedding in the presence of 42 children and grandchildren. Mme. L. Botte, a farmer's wife, has had 26 children. M. Crelier, the receiver of taxes, is the happy father of 25 children. M. Hamard, a farmer, is father to 20, and M. Lon[illegible]hamps' wife has borne him 19.—London Globe.

A Penurious Crowd.

"This new collection box," argued the inventor, "has some unique advantages. When you drop in a quarter or more it doesn't make a sound; drop in a dime and it tinkles a bell; a nickel blows a whistle and a penny fires a shot. And when you don't drop in anything the box takes your picture."

"No, thanks," said the pastor wearily; "I already have pictures of my entire congregation."—Detroit News-Tribune.

Had to Have Her Cigarettes.

Because the management of the hotel after a frantic but fruitless searching of the city, was unable to provide any of the peculiar brand of London cigarettes which she is accustomed to smoke and which she says are absolutely essential to her happiness, Mrs. George Wyndham, a wealthy and pretty young English woman, from exclusive Hyde Park, London, gave up her handsome apartments in the Hotel Plaza in New York. With her pretty and demure English maid she went to visit friends in Tuxedo park, where, she said, she would have no trouble in getting all of the cigarettes of the brand she so much desired, but of which she has been deprived.

At a Marathon Gait.

"Why did you give up your missionary labors so soon?"

"I found the chief's wife's cook book, and the first recipe started, 'To one fat missionary—' and then I started for

Attention

PEOPLE!

Don't forget that the Gruetzmacher Bros. handle all kinds of stoves such as heaters, cook stoves and steel ranges.

Also a full line of hardware, groceries, flour and feed.

A complete line of implements also paints, oils and varnishes.

Rock and barrel salt. Barb wire and field fence.

Yours to please at the old stand,

Gruetzmacher Bros.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOW

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE. LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STATE. Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. [illegible] d ys tr atment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund [illegible] All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines used. detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by mail and express. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage. Charges low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for terms. Consultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call or write to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without the [illegible] harmful instruments. Our [illegible] fully explains.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the scrotum causing nervous debility, weakness of the nervous system, etc., permanently cured.

BLOOD POISON —That terrible disease in [illegible] its stages, cured for life.

Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, and all forms of private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book —Cured in a few days without pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application, description of above diseases, effects and cure; sent sealed in plain wrapper.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINES,

RUPTURE, PILES

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED, My treatment is mild, absolutely reliable and permanent. Write to or call and see the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were afflicted with Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia.
Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines, Ia.
E. C. Miller, Des Moines, Ia.
John H. Looby, Des Moines, Ia.

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you free, postage paid. This book contains much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonial letters. Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the book. Write today—it will pay you.

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES, IOWA

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:40 p. m.
82 ..... 2:50 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:35 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

PATENTS

DESIGNS
TRADE-MARKS
AND COPYRIGHTS
OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"

Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,
E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

McCALL PATTERNS 10¢ AND 15¢ NONE HIGHER

McCALL'S MAGAZINE 50¢ A YEAR INCLUDING A FREE

McCALL PATTERNS
Celebrated for style, perfect fit, simplicity, reliability nearly 40 years. Sold in every city and town in the United States, Canada, or by mail direct. More so than any other make. Send for free catalogue.

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
More subscribers than any other magazine—million a month. Invaluable for latest styles, patterns, dressmaking, millinery, plain sewing, fancy needlework, hairdressing, etiquette, good stories, etc. Only 50 cents a year (worth double), including a free pattern. Subscribe today, or send for sample copy.

WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS to Agents. Postal brings premium catalogue and new cash prize offers. Address

THE McCALL CO., 238 to 248 W. 37th St., NEW YORK

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified.

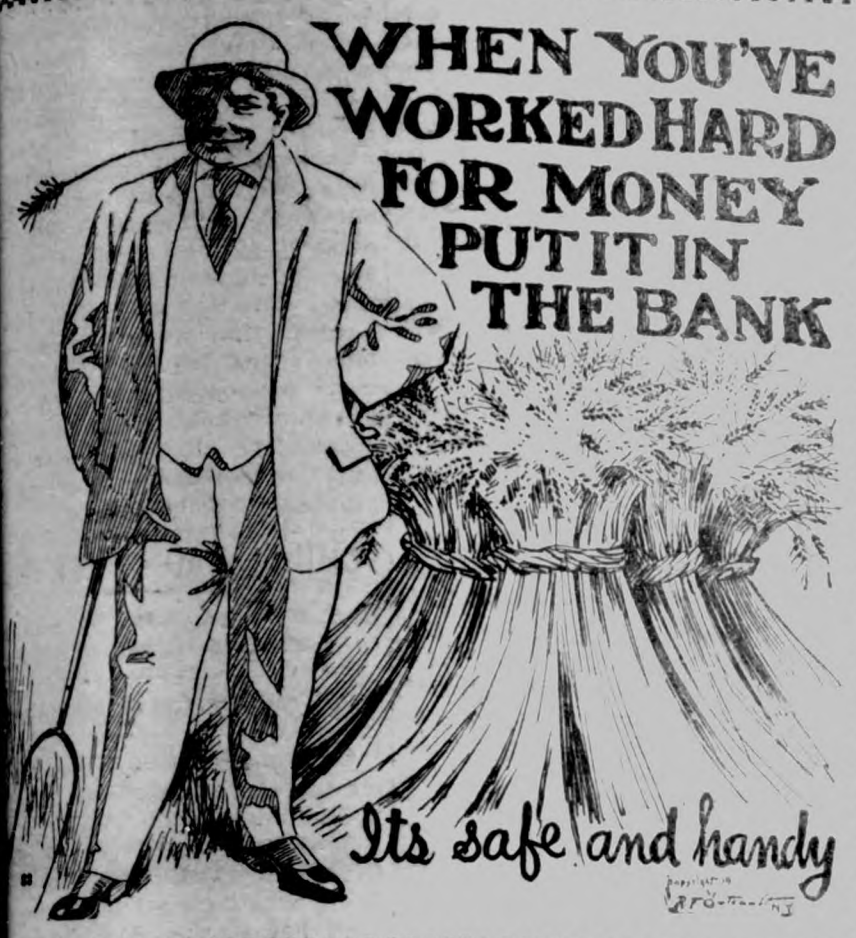
FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE

it is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

Just Dust it on the [illegible]
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls while at work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bottom. Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid by [illegible]
Money Back if Not Satisfied.
The RED STAR HEALING POWDER [illegible]
(25c. and 50c. Cans). GARNER [illegible]

THE KLEMME TIMES

VOLUME XIV. NUMBER 2 — KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 12, 1909. — $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE



ust as a few bushels of wheat planted in ground become many bushels of grain, so will the ney you put in our bank from time to time become a sum. The interest we will pay you will help it grow.

¶ Do not forget that we are pleased to place the facilities of this bank at your disposal and solicit your business. — — — —

State Savings Bank.

emme - - Iowa

A CONVINCER

The best convincer on earth is a good, honest trial of any line of goods.
We claim for our lumber and building material that it is as good or better than can be purchased elsewhere, and to substantiate this claim, we ask an honest trial of our goods. We can quote you as good a price as anyone.
May we figure on your next lumber bill?

H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, AGENT
KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN — J.W.WATERMAN

Farm Furrows

From the Homestead:

I painted my barns and sheds recently and I imagined that the cattle, pigs and horses were filled with pride over the neatness of their surroundings. The hogs scratch themselves on the corner of the shed before going into the mud, whereas formerly, this order was reversed.

One of the old sows broke through a crib door the other day and helped herself to half a bushel of corn. I wonder if she made enough gain so that I'll get my money back this winter when I market her, counting corn at seventy cents per bushel.

There is something about the rust problem that I don't understand. This year in our locality when oats had just headed out we had four or five very hot, sultry days, and every one expected that the crop would be ruined with rust. We are happily disappointed, however, as the straw is as clean and bright as any that I have seen.

It is related that a great business man of Chicago has the one word "Act" on a motto card at his desk. He claims that the motto has played no small part in helping him to success.

We don't do much dairying at our home, but I notice that the cows with good udders are the ones that raise the big, lusty calves that you can sell at an early age. A cow that will not give enough milk to make a good calf is a losing proposition regardless of the percentage of aristocratic blood she has in her veins.

I visited a farmer recently who lived twelve miles from the depot. I wanted to make a certain train and he knew it, and at one hour previous to train time he hadn't yet come in from the field to get ready for town. Fifteen minutes later, however, we were off in his auto and I made my train comfortably. We would have been pegging away at this distance for about two hours if we had depended upon the average old Dobbin.

The Crime of Idleness

Idleness means trouble for anyone. Its the same with a lazy liver. It causes constipation, headache, jaundice, sallow complexion, pimples and blotches, loss of appetite, nausea, but Dr. King's New Life Pills soon banish liver troubles and build up your health. 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

The Draft Horse

The horse breeder who is looking for profits should turn to the draft horse, says an exchange. It is almost as easy to raise a big salable draft horse as it is to raise a good steer. Look up the prices of the big drafters and compare them with the prices of the good driving horses. A good horse is sure to command $200, and show draft horses have been negotiated in the Chicago market up to $660 for a single drafter and $1,300 for matched draft pairs. Many of the best draft pairs sold at the Chicago market the current year have reached the very satisfactory figures of $750 to $850, and single offerings clear every week at $300 to $400 for industrial use and show purposes. There appears to be absolutely no danger of over production of good draft horses, as the industrial development of the country is on a greater scale of increase than horse breeding is asserted by a live stock writer of repute. There is no longer any apprehension that the automobile will herald a horseless age.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Never Known to Fail

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend." says H. S Nichols, of Oakland, Ind. For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Bank With the — IT PAYS

FIRST NATIONAL

Capital, $25,000

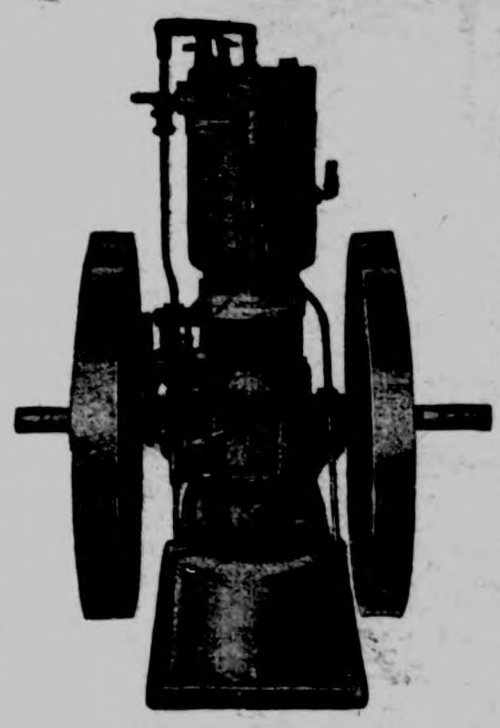
—o—

It's Many Safeguards for the People's Money:

It's large capital.
It's alert Board of Directors,
It's conservative policy

are for

YOUR PROTECTION



Save work, worry, money by using a

STOVER GASOLINE ENGINE

Made right—sold right. Send for an illustrated catalog of our wind mills and feed grinders.

ENGINES

Sandwich Mfg. Co.

Mason City, Iowa — General Agents

Clarion Ladies Drown

Mrs. C. L. Bennett and Misses Eva Porter and Hazel Huddleson were drowned in Elm lake, four miles east of Clarion. There was a party of fourteen young ladies spending a few days at one of the cottages at the lake, and they were returning from bathing. The launch and the row boat in tow were both capsized. Mr. C. L. Bennett, who was with the party, and Robt. Humphrey and Hugh Hartshorn, who were on the opposite side of the lake, worked heroically or the entire party would have perished.

An Auto Accident

Frank McCorkle, of Sexton, was seriously injured in an automobile accident at Algona last week. There were six in the auto, it run off a bank at a turn in the road and turned turtle. Three were seriously injured, hip and leg broken and injured internally. Miss Syred Nelson was pinned under the auto for an hour and a half before she could be released. Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Fuller and two daughters were badly cut and bruised. Frank was raised in southern Hancock county but has lived for several years in Algona and Sexton.—Britt Tribune.

Washington's Plague Spots

lie in the low, marshy bottoms of the Potomac, the breeding ground of malaria germs. These germs cause chills, fever and ague, billiousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility and bring suffering or death to thousands yearly. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "They are the best all-round tonic and cure for malaria I ever used," writes R. M. James of Louellen, S. C. They cure stomach, liver, kidney and blood troubles and will prevent typhoid. Try them, 50c. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Do Men Read Beauty Columns?

Your husband, madam, will deny it strenuously if you charge him openly across the breakfast cups with reading the columns in the morning paper devoted to the secrets of feminine beauty. But don't be too trustful. If you take the Chicago Record-Herald, as every well-regulated family should, you know all about Mme. Qui Vive's spicy column devoted to "The Woman Beautiful." Well, just watch the good man's eye and see it wander carelessly over to that quarter of the page. Then, if he disappears entirely behind the paper and comes forth with a smile as innocent as that of the cat after swallowing the canary, you may come to your own conclusion. Of course, if caught in the act, he may declare that he only reads the witty epigram with which Mme. Qui Vive heads her column every day. But be not deceived. You know very well that Mme. Qui Vive's whole department is as good as the cream at the top. Will a cat that steals a sip from the cream pitcher suddenly become honest after removing the top layer? No, there is a growing suspicion that a large number of highly respectable men —not all of them married, either—are in the daily habit of reading the beauty columns in the Record-Herald. We are naming no names at present but the suspected parties are being watched.

Scared With a Hot Iron

or scalded by overturned kettle—cut with a knife—bruised by slammed door—injured by gun or in any other way—the thing needed at once is Bucklen's Arnica Salve to subdue inflamation and kill the pain. It's earth's supreme Healer, infallible for boils, ulcers, fever sores, eczema and piles. 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

Don't forget the ice cream social on the lawn at Chas. Yahnke's next Saturday evening, August 14.

VETERANS MARCH IN GREAT REVIEW

PARADE OF THE GRAND ARMY IN SALT LAKE CITY

CLIMAX OF ENCAMPMENT

Old Soldiers Are Greeted with Cheers and Tears—Gathering in the Utah Capital Well Managed.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 11.—Forty-four departments of the Grand Army of the Republic, escorted by the Fifteenth United States infantry and the National Guard of Utah and followed by the Naval Veterans, the Ex-Union Prisoners of War, the Army Nurses in carriages, the Sons of Veterans and the women's organizations allied to the Grand Army, marched to-day in the parade that was the culminating feature of the forty-third national encampment. Many military bands and fife and drum corps made the music to which the old warriors kept step. The procession formed at Eagle Gate, which is one of Salt Lake City's many picturesque features.

Commander-in-Chief Nevius.

At the word of command the parade marched west on Main street and turned south down that thoroughfare, proceeding seven blocks between solid walls of cheering men, women and children. As the grizzled veterans passed the enthusiasm was tremendous and many a spectator wept unashamed as he realized that this was undoubtedly the last grand review for scores of the feeble heroes who trudged along with eyes on the flag for which they had given some of the best years of their lives.

When Seventh South street was reached the paraders themselves broke out in mighty cheering, for there they turned in front of the most beautiful feature of the day, the "Living Flag." On an immense stand were 2,600 children dressed in the national colors and so arranged that they made a perfect representation of a waving American flag.

The little ones had been drilled for many weeks, and while the old soldiers passed they sang patriotic airs.

Reviewed by Notables.

Countermarching, the parade now moved north on Main street back to South Temple street. Here, just to the left of the Brigham Young pioneer monument and close to Temple square, the reviewing stand had been erected. It was occupied by Commander-in-Chief Henry M. Nevius, Gov. William Spry of Utah, the chief executives of other states and a large number of other officials and distinguished guests. The parading bodies all passed in review, saluting those in the stand, and at once disbanded. All the bands as they arrived here were massed close to the stand and as the culmination of the parade, 4,000 school children marched by, the united bands playing and the children singing "Onward, Christian Soldiers."

Salt Lake City has thrown open her arms to the old soldiers, and never has the Grand Army been more enthusiastically received or more generously entertained than at this encampment.

The old soldiers have been very carefully looked after by the local committee on public comfort and private accommodations, and at the 24 information bureaus at the various railway stations and convenient places about the city. During the entire time of the encampment these committees have had the services of 300 high school cadets, whose duties have been to render every possible assistance to the visitors.

Henry M. Nevius, the commander-in-chief, arrived here Saturday with his staff and inspected the arrangements. On Sunday the city's guests began arriving by the thousand, and on Monday they came in so fast that the committee had to work like sailors to get them all housed in such a manner as to avoid congestion in any part of the city.

Big "Greetings" Meeting.

Monday evening came the first public event on the program—a great camp-fire in the assembly hall in the Temple grounds. All that night and throughout Tuesday the stream of arrivals continued, but by Tuesday evening practically all the visitors had been received and distributed. That night the greatest function of the encampment took place. This was the "Greetings" meeting in the Mormon Tabernacle. The immense building easily seats 10,000 persons, and it was filled to its capacity.

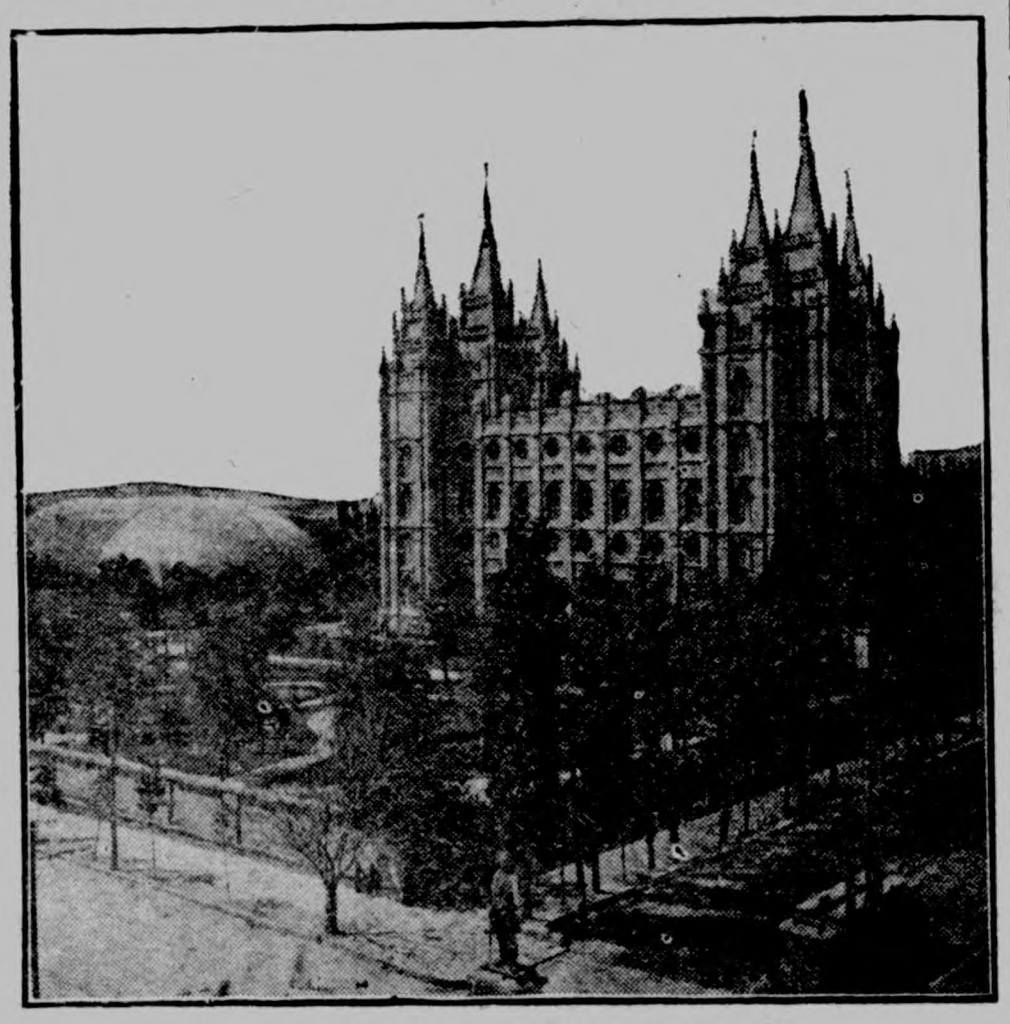
Col. Frank M. Starrett, the executive director of the encampment, called the vast assemblage to order and introduced William H. King of Salt Lake City, who acted as temporary chairman. He made a brief address and was followed by Gov William Spry of Utah, Mayor John S. Bradford of Salt Lake City, and L. H. Smythe, commander of the department of Utah, all of whom told in eloquent words how proud they were to welcome to the state and city the Grand Army and their friends.

Mr. King then introduced Commander-in-Chief Nevius, who was received with wild cheering and the waving of hats and handkerchiefs. As soon as the tumult had subsided, Commander Nevius delivered a graceful response to the welcoming speches and took the chair.

Then came the turn of the allied organizations and greetings to the veterans were uttered by President Genevieve Hagar Longfield Lane of the Ladies of the G. A. R., President Mary E. Gilman of the Woman's Relief Corps, President Clara E. Hoover of the Daughters of Veterans, Commander-in-Chief Edgar Allen of the Sons of Veterans, and President Rebecca Smith of the Army Nurses. The speechmaking was varied by the playing of patriotic airs by a band.

The exercises were brought to a close by the presentation of a handsome testimonial to Charles G. Burton, past commander-in-chief of the Grand Army.

The last three days of the encampment are, as usual, given up mainly to business sessions of the various organizations and election of officers.



The Temple and Tabernacle.

FOR PERFECT JELLY

FLAVOR, TRANSPARENCY AND CONSISTENCY THE CHIEF POINTS.

Expert Tells How Best Results May Be Achieved and Explains Some of the Reasons Why Product Is a Failure.

Now that the jelly-making season is here it reminds us that so many people who are recognized cooks have so poor an idea of good jelly. What is perfect jelly as we know it to-day? Some of us must learn to change our ideas in that regard. As judge of foods at the state fair and county institutes where women are supposed to bring their best we infer that jelly making is comparatively an undiscovered art. Flavor, transparency and consistency are the points to be considered. Hundreds of women have their jellies (good to them) passed by and cannot understand the reason. One great fault is that the judging is often done by incompetent people; an otherwise fine cook may be an extremely poor judge of jelly, and the standard of good jelly is what the judge has made it from year to year. Secure a judge who has had training and is recognized as authority, then follow her advice and the prize may be yours next year. If every person who enters an exhibit understands the score card and is not satisfied until she understands the standard of good jelly and knows why she did or did not receive the blue or red ribbon jelly making in that community will be improved. So much has been said of exhibits, as they are a great incentive in the rivalry which they create.

Now, then, how are we to tell perfect jelly when we see it? First, it must be well flavored, clear and of just the consistency to stand and keep the form of the mold when turned out. A quivering mass of transparent color.

A few reasons why some people cannot have good jelly. The fruit may be over-ripe, or picked after heavy rains, it may be cooked too long, or squeezed through the jelly bag or not well skimmed while cooking.

Jelly that seems very thin may, by standing in the sunlight for a day or two, be well thickened. When cold, pour over melted paraffin to preserve from germs and mold.

Some fruits are hard to jelly, as they lack the pectin, which is the gelatine of the fruit. To such fruits as strawberries and peaches, which lack this principle, currant and apple will supply the lack.

NELLIE MAXWELL.

The Home.

Do not put milk into cut-glass goblets. Milk clouds glass so that its original brilliancy cannot be restored.

A small broom made of stiff wire is convenient for use in cleaning skillets. Such a brush is easily kept clean.

When mosquitoes get into the house heat a shovel, pour a teaspoonful of carbolic acid on it and burn It kills or drives them out.

To kill fleas on a pet dog, if the animal is small, place him in a small bathtub of water and comb the hair with a fine comb. Water drowns these pests.

Butter Dumplings.

Take half a pound of butter and stir until it is all nice and soft; then take four well beaten eggs and mix it all well; a little salt; then thicken it with flour; be sure and make it good and stiff; strain your soup; have it boiling good; then drop into it by the spoonful. Boil 15 to 20 minutes. Can use boiling water, but then there is no waste by dropping them in the soup. This is a very rich dish.

Tomatoes Stuffed with Corn.

Hollow out a number of firm tomatoes which have been carefully peeled. Cut from the cobs enough boiled corn to fill the tomatoes, first mixing the corn with mayonaise dressing. Let the stuffed tomatoes stay on ice until ready to be served.

Nutmeg Shake.

Almost fill the shaker with milk, adding a teaspoonful of sugar, one egg and a little crushed ice. Then shake vigorously, pour into a tall glass and add a little grated nutmeg.

Italian Potatoes.

Cut six cold boiled potatoes into dice. Make a thick cream sauce by melting in a sauce-pan a tablespoonful of flour and one of butter, and stirring in half a pint of milk. When the sauce is ready put a layer of potatoes in a buttered baking dish. Then a layer of sauce, next a layer of cheese cut in dice and so on until the dish is full. Bake in a moderate oven until the potatoes are brown on top.

Many bristle brushes, if merely dusty, can be cleaned in cornmeal.

AN EASY WAY.

How to Cure Kidney Troubles Easily and Quickly.

It is needless to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the misery of backaches, rheumatic pains, urinary disorders, or risk the danger of diabetes or Bright's disease. The cure is easy. Treat the cause—the kidneys—with Doan's Kidney Pills. H. Mayne, Market St., Paris, Tenn., says: "Weak kidneys made my back stiff and lame. The urine was cloudy and irregular and I had to get up many times at night. I lost energy, became weak and could not work. Doan's Kidney Pills removed all the trouble and restored my health and strength."

Remember the name—Doan's. Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Like an Earthquake.

Former High Sheriff Chesterfield C. Middlebrooks, whose bungalow at Highland lake stands partly over the lake on stone and cement foundations, was awakened at four o'clock the other morning by loud noises which he says shook his bungalow like an earth tremor.

He says that after the household had been shaken out of a sound sleep, he, not waiting to dress, went outside to ascertain the cause of the noise. He found, he says, that a monster frog had its bed directly under the bungalow. The frog weighed fully six pounds, he says, and every time it croaked the bungalow cracked and shook.

Mr. Middlebrooks bought an anchor, strong rope and enough red flannel to bait 100 hooks, and will try to save his property by capturing the bullfrog.—Winsted (Conn.) dispatch to New York World.

Valuable Knowledge Spreading.

Every day sees hundreds of new recruits in the war against tuberculosis, and every day brings new methods for the fighting of the plague. The National association predicts that if the present degree of interest is maintained, within five years everybody in the United States will have been informed on the way to prevent and cure tuberculosis, and concerning the infectious nature of the disease. Two things in particular are needed, and for these the National association is working in every way. They are, a more complete registration of tuberculosis cases, and the further isolation of dangerous advanced cases of consumption.

Tea Possibilities.

"I have just had an invitation to an electrical tea to be given by a woman doctor," said the bachelor girl. "I'm looking forward to it and wondering what is going to happen to us—whether she will give us a little battery and let us entertain ourselves, make the tea on an electric stove, or just electrocute the bunch of us."

What Did He Mean?

The Major—I saved that rose you gave me last week, Miss Antique; for though it is withered it still reminds me of you!

Miss Antique—Sir!

ON FOOD

The Right Foundation of Health.

Proper food is the foundation of health. People can eat improper food for a time until there is a sudden collapse of the digestive organs, then all kinds of trouble follows.

The proper way out of the difficulty is to shift to the pure, scientific food, Grape-Nuts, for it rebuilds from the foundation up. A New Hampshire woman says:

"Last summer I was suddenly taken with indigestion and severe stomach trouble and could not eat food without great pain, my stomach was so sore I could hardly move about. This kept up until I was so miserable life was not worth living.

"Then a friend finally, after much argument, induced me to quit my former diet and try Grape-Nuts.

"Although I had but litttle faith I commenced to use it, and great was my surprise to find that I could eat it without the usual pain and distress in my stomach.

"So I kept on using Grape-Nuts and soon a marked improvement was shown, for my stomach was performing its regular work in a normal way without pain or distress.

"Very soon the yellow coating disappeared from my tongue, the dull, heavy feeling in my head disappeared, and my mind felt light and clear; the languid, tired feeling left, and altogether I felt as if I had been rebuilt. Strength and weight came back rapidly and I went back to my work with renewed ambition.

"To-day I am a new woman in mind as well as body, and I owe it all to this natural food, Grape-Nuts." "There's a Reason."

Look in pkgs. for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

AS STRAIGHT MEN SEE H

The Dead-Beat Is Probably the Despised Creature That Walk the Earth.

No man is wholly free from sin, so many lesser evils are tolerated a man should hesitate long before coming a dead-beat. Criminals ar spised and abhorred, but to the beat all that is coming, as well a contempt of his fellow men. The something at once so mean and s tle in taking advantage of the c dence which comes with friend that the hand of every man is t against a dead-beat as soon a reputation is well established. dead-beat may fondly imagine h living easy and making money out work, and, of course, he take account of the confidence he vio and the hardships he inflicts on ers. But, that aside, he really h harder time than the man wh honest and fair. He is compell move a good deal, and peace of he knows not. Like other typ crooks, he doesn't prosper, and finish is more unpleasant than th ginning.—Atchison Globe.

CHILD HAD SIXTY BOI

And Suffered Annually with a Scald-Like Humor on Her He Troubles Cured by Cuticura.

"When my little Vivian was six months old her head broke o boils. She had about sixty in all I used Cuticura Soap and Cu Ointment which cured her ent Some time later a humor broke o hind her ears and spread up o her head until it was nearly half ered. The humor looked like a very red with a sticky, clear fluid ing from it. This occurred spring. I always used Cuticura and Ointment which never fail heal it up. The last time it out it became so bad that I wa couraged. But I continued the Cuticura Soap, Ointment and vent until she was well and has been troubled in the last two y Mrs. M. A. Schwerin, 674 Spring Ave., Detroit, Mich., Feb. 24, 1 Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props.

Evening Things Up.

There is much rivalry bet Judges Rosalsky and O'Sullivan general sessions in New York an week it looked as if O'Sullivan the laugh on his rival for all tim had a man before him whose was Rosalsky, but who swore th was an Irishman. But Friday t were evened up when a man n Flynn was brought before Judg salsky and swore that he was a

Sheer white goods, in fact, an wash goods when new, owe mu their attractiveness to the way are laundered, this being done manner to enhance their textile ty. Home laundering would be ly satisfactory if proper attention given to starching, the first ess being good Starch, which has suf strength to stiffen, without thick the goods. Try Defiance Starch you will be pleasantly surprised improved appearance of your wo

A Trying Time.

Judge — Why did you strike man?

Prisoner — What would you judge, if you kept a grocery and a man came in and asked could take a moving picture of cheese?—Harper's Weekly.

Important to Mothers.

Examine carefully every bot CASTORIA a safe and sure rem Infants and children, and see t

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletc

In Use For Over 30 Years.

The Kind You Have Always B

Reprehensible to Allow It.

Husband (reading from his —Here, they say, is a comet towards the earth, traveling rate of a million miles a minut

Wife (awaking from a doze)- don't they enforce the speed better?

With a smooth iron and D Starch, you can launder your waist just as well at home steam laundry can; it will ha proper stiffness and finish, the be less wear and tear of the and it will be a positive pleas use a Starch that does not stick iron.

A Parting in High Life.

"What were the terms of t vorce?"

"She keeps the poodle."

Sore throat is no trifling ailme will sometimes carry infection to tire system through the food that Hamlins Wizard Oil is a sure, quic

If thy friend is honey do n him up altogether.

Nothing so good as the new BLUE. Delights the laundress. Imitations.

A malicious truth may do harm than an innocent lie.

...S BETTER RAILROADS."

... Writer Pays Tribute to ...oad Magnate as Builder-Up of the Country.

...dward H. Harriman is on a ... Europe. Ordinarily there ...eed be nothing added to this ...ement beyond an exhortation ...eror William to chain dow... his ...s and to other monarchs to ...ir crowns and other valuables ...afe at night. But Mr. Harri... going off on a pleasure trip, many mean things have been ...out him that it will not hurt change the tune a moment ...e is out of the country and ...le to take any advantage of ...e from the cold attitude of se... that is usually used in men... the name of Harriman.

...l the great railroad men de... in this generation, E. H. Har... is easily the biggest and the ...ys a writer in the Hutchinson Daily News. The head of a ... company, under the rules of ...me, must work for his stock... whether it is for the advan... politicians, shippers or con... It is his job to do the best for the interests entrusted to ...re. Harriman is not only a ...er, but he is a builder and an ...or. Lucky is the town, city ...mmunity that has a Harriman He insists on a good roadbed, ...rack, safe track and the con...ce and comfort of the traveler ...e shipper. The Harriman roads ...ted as the best in the coun... When Harriman gets hold of a ...se or played-out track and ...f way he proceeds to put it in ...lass condition. He does not ...he rates of fares, although he ...ss charges "a plenty," but he that enough of the funds go ...eal improvements to make a ...d. And that is where he stands of a good many others and why ...anism is not such a bad thing ...e people have been led to think. ...kes better railroads, and there ...e need for improvement that ...han there is in some others are being discussed. So far can see, he believes in giving interest along his road a fair

...s a public benefactor from that ...oint. He uses his power fairly. a great man, and as good or than the ordinary citizen who ...upon him as the personification ...e money power, seeking whom ...devour. He is a strong man financial world, but that should ...e against him, when the finan... ...orld is the object which most want to reach. He is a good ...can and he spends his money ...erican railroads, not on foreign race horses, old editions or bad habits. If he is not per... ...and we don't think he is—he is ...ception to the rule and is worthy praise of his fellow citizens for ...od he does and has done.

...Laughter a Series of Barks.

...ghing is barking, say the sci... ...s. The neck and head are ...n back while a series of short are emitted from the throat. ...ver musical the barks may be, ...are barks. The laugh begins ...a sudden and violent contraction ...e muscles of the chest and ab... ...n. But instead of opening to let ...r pass out of the lungs, the vocal approach each other and hold it But they are not strong enough ...ercise such opposition for more ...an instant, and the air, which is ... pressure, promptly escapes. As ...s so it makes the vocal cords vi... producing the bark. ...s obstruction and liberation of ...r expelled from the lungs repeats again and again at intervals of a ...er of a second. There are thus ...hearty laugh four barks a second, ...f continued, they go on at that ...as long as the air reserve in the holds out. The empty lungs then fill themselves, and this in... ...l is marked by a quick gasp for ...h, after which the barks are re... ...d. The barks occur in series gasps for breath at intervals. ...en laughter is violent, the entire participates. The upper part of ...trunk bends and straightens itself ...nately or sways to right and left. feet stamp on the floor, while the ...s are pressed upon the loins to ...erate the painful spasm.

Interviewing the Professor.

...o you don't think Mars would re... ...even if we did send signals?" ...am aimost convinced that there ...d be no response," answered Prof. ...ktum, adjusting his glasses. ...hen you don't believe that Mars ...habited?" ...n the contrary, I think it ex...ely probable that life similar to ...own exists on the sister planet." ...ut you don't give those people ...lt for intelligence equal to ours?" ...es. I am inclined to credit them even greater intelligence than display. There are many indica... ...s that they have a civilization old... ...han ours, in which case they ...ld have too much sense to fool ...y their time on any such imprac... proposition."

STATE HAS MONEY

Treasury Holds $200,000 More than Same Time Year Ago

ALL FUNDS IN GOOD SHAPE

Increased Levy, Increased Valuation of Property, and Larger Receipts from Inheritance Taxes Main Causes for Improvement.

Des Moines, Aug. 7.—The state of Iowa is worth nearly $200,000 more than it was this time last year. On Aug. 4, 1908, the general revenue on hand amounted to $345,240, while at the same time this year it was $531,912.

The increased levy, increased valuation of property and larger receipts from collateral inheritance taxes are the principal causes for the improvement in the state's financial condition, according to Treasurer Morrow.

Deputy Willis said that it is not likely that the state's resources will reach such a low ebb for years as they did during the fall of 1907. The hard times of that year caused everybody who had money coming from the state to draw it, and as a result the last quarter of 1907 shows the largest disbursements of any similar period in the history of the state. A total of $1,093,000 was paid out during these three months. During the last quarter of 1908 the disbursements reached $980,000 and in 1906 they amounted to $982,000.

Veteran Mail Man Expects to Quit.

"Jack" Heffelfinger, veteran postmaster in the capitol building, threatens to resign because the law passed by the last general assembly makes the duties of the office too arduous for an old soldier. Friends of Heffelfinger state that he will tender his resignation to the executive council within a few days. It has been practically decided that Owen Byrne, who is acting postmaster, will succeed Heffelfinger. The last legislature passed a law making one man responsible for the carrying of the mail to and from the state house and for its delivery to the offices in the building. Under the old law two men had done this work. The solons, however, raised the salary of the postmaster from $1,000 to $1,400. Heffelfinger has been dissatisfied for several weeks with the arrangement and has finally decided to return to his home in Guthrie Center. He is a candidate for a deputy fish commissionership.

Admen Hold Banquet.

The Des Moines Admen's club held a banquet supper at Haines Park, near Altoona. This was the first of a series of several trips planned by the club and was a success in every way. Delegates to the national convention to be held at Louisville, August 25, 26 and 27, were elected as follows: George W. Todd, Paul B. Lessing, A. M. Dahl and J. B. Runyan.

Dies as Result of a Fall.

Breaking her right hip in a fall two weeks ago, Mrs. Mary J. Kempton died at Mercy hospital. She was 81 years of age and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. James Webb of Des Moines, and three sons, H. W. Kempton of Des Moines, E. G. Kempton of Topeka, Kans., and A. S. Kempton of Seattle, Wash.

Nizert Is After His Parole Now.

Earl Nizert, the negro sent to the penitentiary for a criminal assault upon Miss Lizzie Agea, has applied for a parole. Sheriff Ness received a letter from the parole board asking about Nizert. Bill Gifford, sent down for larceny, is also after his release, and the parole board has asked Sheriff Ness about Gifford also.

Miller is Made Trustee.

Homer A. Miller was elected a trustee of the Northwestern Life Insurance company of Milwaukee. Other trustees elected were Edward B. Butler of Chicago and Murray Careton of St. Louis. George C. Markham was re-elected president, J. W. Skinner vice president and A. S. Hathaway secretary.

Van Duyn Is Commended.

In a letter received by State Labor Commissioner E. W. Van Duyn, he is warmly commended for his outspoken defense of the Iowa child labor law by Owen R. Lovejoy of New York, general secretary of the National Child Labor committee, and one of the leading workers for child labor reform.

Y. M. C. A. Quarters Enlarged.

Hereafter the Y. M. C. A. will use the whole association building instead of only the three lower floors. This will be an addition of two floors.

Missed One Drill in Six Years.

Captain Charles Tillotson Jr., the new commanding officer of company F, Fifty-fifth regiment, Iowa National guard, will march away with his company to the annual tour of field duty of his regiment at Chariton with a remarkable record in the Iowa National guard. He has been enlisted man, non-commission and officer for six years, regular and special, parades and encampments, he has only missed one drill. No wonder he is a company commander. Captain Tillotson was born August 14, 1875, and enlisted in the guard November 4, 1903. He was made a corporal February 13, 1904; quarter-master sergeant January 1, 1905; first sergeant, April 15, 1905; first lieutenant, November 4, 1905, and captain, June 16, 1909. He succeeds Captain Amos Brandt, who has had command of the company for several years, but resigned

Blind Folks Picnic.

Although they could not see the green grass and trees, a number of the blind in Des Moines made merry at a picnic in Grand View park. This is an annual occasion of the blind organization in Des Moines. Reports of the national meeting at Columbus, Ohio, were given by Miss Delia Hoyt and Mrs. Fessenmyer. Other business matters were attended to among which was the decision to have an exhibition of their handiwork at the state fair.

Bleakly Lets In Fraternal Company.

Admission to write insurance in Iowa has been granted to the National Protective Legion of Waverly, N. Y., by the state insurance department. This is the first fraternal order of the lodge system admitted to this state since the passage of a law two years ago. This prevented foreign companies from writing insurance unless they observed the National Fraternal congress table. The New York company observes this table.

Press Club Benefit.

The Press club of Des Moines has secured Ingersoll park for Monday night, August 23, when a benefit program will be given in connection with the regular vaudeville program. It will be fair week and the Press club expects good receipts from the theatre that night. The proceeds will be used to buy additional furniture for the club, which will be better furnished than any other club of its kind west of Chicago.

Ran Half Mile to Get Train.

That the morning Northwestern train had not stopped at Missouri Valley for a week was the allegation contained in a complaint filed before the state railroad commission by T. V. Collins. In his letter Mr. Collins described running a half mile to a junction near Missouri Valley where he succeeded in catching the train as it slowed down for orders from the operator.

Will Review the Fifty-fifth.

Governor B. F. Carroll and his staff will review the Fifty-fifth regiment of the Iowa National guard at Chariton on August 12. This will be the second appearance of the chief executive as commander in chief of the state's militia. A few days ago he and his staff made their first appearance at a review of the Fifty-third regiment held at Independence.

Railroads Will Appeal.

Following a conference in Chicago of representatives of the various railroads between Des Moines and Chicago, the railroads will appeal from the recent ruling of the interstate commerce commission lowering freight rates from the Mississippi river to this city. While the Rock Island is the only road directely effected all of them intend to put up a fight.

Solons Will Visit Fair.

Both Iowa senators and many congressmen have already assured Secretary J. C. Simpson that they will attend the state day exercises on Sept. 1 at the Iowa state fair and take part in the informal reception in honor of the distinguished public servants of the state to be held in the spacious corridor of the new administration building.

Would Locate Mother.

Chief of Police Miller received a letter from Mrs. N. E. Harper of Woolsey, S. D., desiring information of the whereabouts of the mother of Robert Stewart, a young man 27 years of age, killed there recently. He had been residing there about two years. She is believed to be in Des Moines.

Resume Work on Drake Girl's Gym.

Work on the girls' gymnasium has been resumed at Drake. New lights are being installed, steel ceilings will be put in place and the locker rooms improved. The money for the improvement was donated at commencement time by Miss Jennie Robinson a student some years ago.

Praises American Woman.

Alfred East says that American women, like American machines, need but little man power. The American woman, he says, is the most chummable woman in the world, therefore she is the most charming. Our excellent educational system, he thinks, is responsible for the fact that American women are such "good fellows."

Resinol Is Appreciated and Highly Recommended by Intelligent People in All Parts of the World.

I highly recommend Resinol Ointment to all persons who are troubled with skin eruptions of any kind. I have found these preparations most useful and efficacious in many cases.
M. F. Ryan, Bedford Sq., London.

When you hear a girl speak of a young man as being a bear—well, you can draw your own conclusions.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Chicken-hearted people are always ready to hatch up an excuse.

If you wish beautiful, clear white clothes, use the new RUSS BLUE. All grocers sell it.

Too often when the heart is willing the purse is weak.

INVALUABLE for Summer Complaints

Dysentery, Diarrhea, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Colic and Cramps. Also relieves Griping Pains, Sour Stomach, Vomiting, Sea Sickness, and Hysterics and Nervousness due to bowel affections.

DR. D. JAYNE'S Carminative Balsam

stops pain immediately and almost invariably brings about speedy recovery. This medicine is just as safe as it is effective. Get a bottle at your druggist's, and keep it always in the house. For the children's sake, don't go away for the Summer without taking a supply along.

Per Bottle, 25c

Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant is a reliable remedy for croup and whooping cough, coughs and colds.

Machinery Machine Shop and Foundry. Largest stock of used machinery in Iowa. Engines, Boilers, Steam Pumps, Belting, Shafting, Hangers, etc., bought and sold. American Iron Works, 213-223 E. First St., Des Moines, Iowa.

SICK HEADACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cured by these Little Pills.

They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

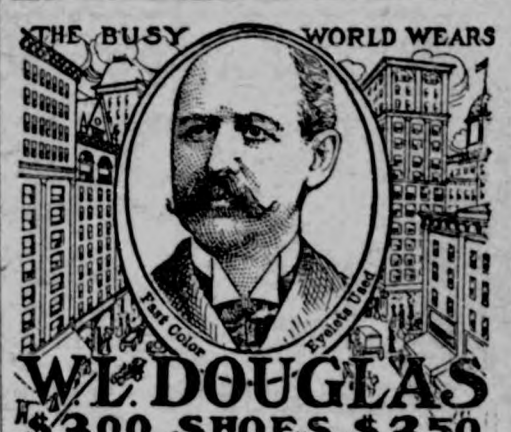
SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature

Brent Good

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.



W. L. DOUGLAS $3.00 SHOES $3.50

$4.00 and $5.00 Shoes
$2.00 and $2.50 Shoes
Boys' Shoes $1.00 to $3.00

W. L. DOUGLAS SHOES are Better Value for the Price Than Ever Before.

The quality, workmanship and style cannot be excelled. A trial is all that is needed to convince anyone that W. L. Douglas shoes hold their shape, fit better and wear longer than other makes.

W. L. Douglas reputation for the best shoes that can be produced for the price is world-wide. He stands back of every pair and guarantees full value to the wearer.

CAUTION. — See that W. L. Douglas name and the retail price is stamped on the bottom.

TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.

Shoes for Every Member of the Family, Men, Boys, Women, Misses and Children.

Wherever you live, W. L. Douglas shoes are within your reach. If your dealer cannot fit you, write for Mail Order Catalog. W.L.DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass.

Constipation

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am a well man. During the nine years before I used Cascarets I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Thanks to you, I am free from all that this morning. You can use this in behalf of suffering humanity. B. F. Fisher, Roanoke, Ill.

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good. Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken or Gripe. 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold in bulk. The genuine tablet stamped C C C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back. 930

LIVE STOCK AND MISCELLANEOUS

Electrotypes

IN GREAT VARIETY FOR SALE AT THE LOWEST PRICES BY WESTERN NEWSPAPER UNION

73 W. Adams St., Chicago

Readers of this paper desiring to buy anything advertised in its columns should insist upon having what they ask for, refusing all substitutes or imitations.

CHOLERA CURE and preventative. Hogs and Chickens. Will go in epidemic and prove same, or by express, pint 75c, quart $1.25, gallon $4.00. Dr. Townsend & Bro., Greenville, O.

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Books free. Highest references. Best results.

FREE TEXAS GUIDE. Write today. Owners names, prices, farms, ranches, colonization tracts. Buy from owners. Save commissions. Investors Guide, Columbus, Tex.

For Kidney, Liver and Bowel Trouble A-B-C TEA 25 cts. All Dealers. 25 cts.

SEMA CREAM removes tan, sunburn, freckles and pimples. 10c size by mail. J. E. Cagwin, Ames, Ia.

GROCERIES & HARDWARE

We always have on hand a complete line. Our Groceries are always new and fresh and the line comprises all the staples and a dandy line of Canned Goods. Our line of Shelf and Heavy Hardware is complete. We invite you to call and inspect our goods.

We want you to see us about

OILS

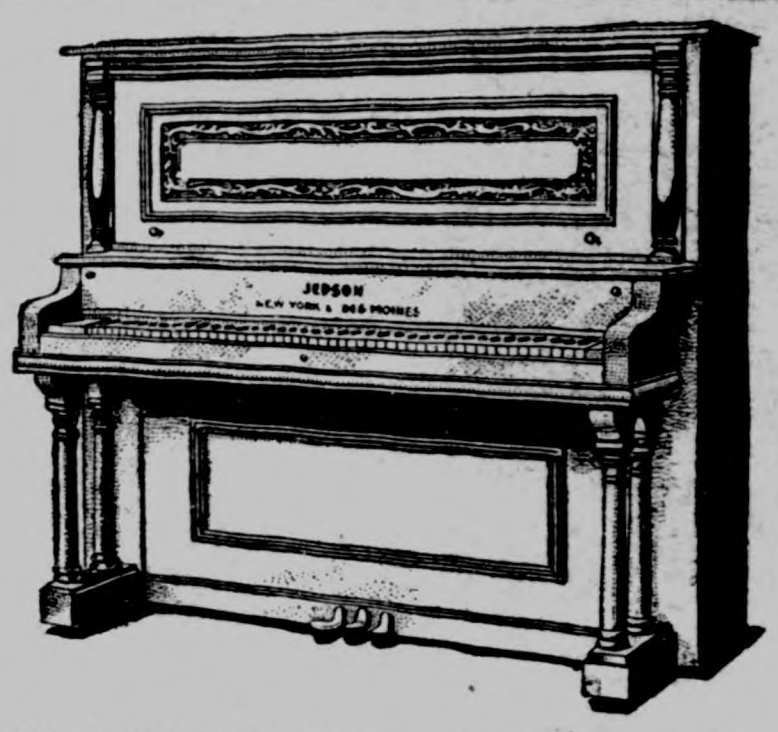
Threshing season will soon be here. Our oils are the very best. Don't forget us.

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA



MUSICAL GOODS

Pianos Six different styles, guaranteed to be right in tone, artistic in design and perfection in construction. Give us a chance to demonstrate these instruments to you. The prices on these instruments will surprise you.

SMOKERS SUPPLIES of every description—From the old familiar Missouri Meerschaum to the real genuine article. All the leading brands of Tobacco.

PRESCRIPTIONS—Bring them to us. They will be correctly compounded. A full line of Patent Medicines of every manufacture.

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile. both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, AGENT

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

MESERVEY

From the Messenger:

H. K. Pals has begun the construction of a cement walk around his premises.

Miss Alma Willer has severed her connection with Niagara hotel and is now staying at home. Miss Schaefer of Klemme succeeds Miss Willer in the hotel.

Frank Nissen experienced a runaway with a binder Tuesday that was a narrow escape from a serious affair. The machine was broken but the horses and Frank came out of the excitement unharmed.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lemke experienced a very exciting runaway at their home just north west from town Tuesday. Mr. Lemke had a team of colts hitched to a wagon and one extra horse traveling beside the team. He and Mrs. Lemke were driving from the yard when he left the wagon to open a gate. The team being somewhat spirited he got back into the wagon to do the driving, when they became unmanageable, throwing them both to the ground, Mrs. Lemke receiving very painful injuries. Dr. Agler was called and an examination showed no bones broken. It was a severe shaking and she will be confined to her bed for several days. Mr. Lemke escaped injury.

GOODELL

From the Globe:

E P. Hubbard was a business visitor at Klemme on Tuesday.

F. G. Church is attending a camp meeting at Clinton, Iowa, this week.

John McCorkle and wife were visitors at the J. D. Bachman home last Sunday.

Matt Smith lost a horse valued at about $300 on Monday—caused from eating clover.

Wm Langlitz has quit his dray business and is now working in the elevator for Wm. Beiers.

Miss Francis Parker returned Monday from Minnesota, and will visit relatives here for a few weeks.

The "Kid" base ball nines of Belmond and Goodell crossed bats here last Saturday—score 21 to 15 in favor of the Goodell boys.

Twas a Glorious Victory

There's rejoicing in Fedora, Tenn. A man's life has been saved, and now Dr. King's New Discovery is the talk of the town for curing C. V. Pepper of deadly lung hemorrhages. "I could not work nor get about," he writes, "and the doctor did me no good, but, after using Dr. King's New Discovery three weeks I feel like a new man and can do good work again." For weak, sore or diseased lungs, coughs and colds, hemorrhages, hay fever, la-grippe, asthma or any bronchial affection it stands unrivaled. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold and guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

One Dollar

Mr. Farmer---It costs but a trifle more to buy printed letter heads and envelopes than it does to use any old thing, and certainly it looks more business-like to use printed stationery For a limited time we offer you 100 sheets good writing paper and 100 good envelopes, printed with your name and address, both for $1.00. Give us your order now.

The Times Printery

DON'T FORGET

This store when you need anything in the line of Hardware and Farm Implements. Full line of Heaters, Cook Stoves and Ranges. The best makes in Farm Machinery. We also handle the best Paints, Oils and Varnish.

Groceries, Flour and Feed

Our prices are right. You are invited to call

GRUETZMACHER BROS.

THRESHING COAL

The very best grades in Hocking Valley, Wineferd Splint, Indiana Block, Sootless and Washed Egg. Call and get prices.

Highest Market Price Paid for Grain and Live Stock Six Days in the Week

H. C. LAU

M. M. S. POULTRY FENCE.

Patented July 21, 1896. [TRADE MARK] Patented July 6, 1897.

50 PER CENT. SAVING. Requires no top or bottom rail and only ¼ as many posts as the old style netting and makes a better fence. A full line of Field and Hog Fencing, Steel Picket Lawn Fence, Gates, Posts, Rail, etc. Write for full particulars.

UNION FENCE CO., De Kalb, Ill.

Elkhart Buggies

are the best made, best grade and easiest riding buggies on earth for the money.

FOR THIRTY-SIX YEARS

we have been selling direct and are The Largest Manufacturers in the World selling to the consumer exclusively.

We ship for examination and approval, guaranteeing safe delivery, and also to save you money. If you are not satisfied as to style, quality and price you are nothing out.

May We Send You Our Large Catalogue?

Elkhart Carriage & Harness Mfg. Co.
Elkhart, - - - - Indiana

Price $56
With Twin Auto Seat

KLEMME MARKET.

.....	55 to 55c
.....	30 to 33c
.....	80 to 90
.....	38 to 40c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	6.00 to 7.00
.....	3.00 to 6.00

LOCAL NEWS

esh fruits at Kluckhohn's.

e Ell made a trip to Garner Friday.

ctor Zinn tests eyes and lasses. 51tf

e finest line of candies in at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

rl Kraus has gone to Ven- to run an engine for Knop eriff Suurballe has returned is home in Garner from a o Denmark.

rn, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry ke, Sunday, August 8th, a t baby girl, l and see the new Robinson re Spreaders now on dis- at J. W. Scott's.

mething New—The latest dies' Belts and Collars just ved at Mrs. John Josten's.

n. Fuller and wife and hter drove over to Meser- Sunday for a visit with ds.

s. J. E. Baumgartner and ren returned Friday even- from Lehigh, Iowa, where had been visiting relatives.

s. Shafer and daughter returned last Friday ev- from a visit with the fam- Dr. Spooner at LuVerne, e ladies of the English M. urch will serve ice cream cake on the lawn of Mrs. Yahnke next Saturday g, August 14. All are ed.

ward Africa, at one time a ositor on the Times and known in Klemme and ock County generally, is editor of the Herald at ea. South Dakota, and has tly been appointed post- er of that hustling little Howard is an old-time d of the writer and we are d glad to hear that he is well and making good.

will pay the following s for poultry next Monday Tuesday, Aug. 16 and 17, ns.....10c

cks..... 8c
ring Chickens.....12c
Roosters..... 5c
ese 5c
t forget the dates.

ELL BROS.

D. G. Houghton now repre- the Mutual Life Insurance pany of New York. the gest of Companies— one has the lowest proportion- xpenses and pays the high vidends (over 17 per cent year.) See a policy that in- certain payment in case of , and all your money re- d with good interest IF LIVE. 52 3 ng obliged to take it for I will sell it out cheap;

Hess Stock Food.
Hess Poultry Panacea.
Hess Instant Louse Kill-

Hess Hog Worm Powder.
e had at G. F. Schuler's er, Iowa.

SENTENCED FOR LIFE

Two Popular Klemme People United in the Holy Bond of Matrimony.

On last Monday afternoon, at Garner, Iowa, occurred the marriage of Ralph Blank to Alma M. Poskae, Rev. Loemker officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Blank came on down to Klemme that same evening and were greeted at the Tom Blank home by a large and noisy charivari party, who, after playing a few tunes on a lot of old tin pans and being treated by the groom, departed for their homes wishing the happy couple all the good things of life.

The contracting parties are well known in Klemme, the groom having grown to manhood here and now holding a good position with Gruetzmacher Bros. He is an industrious young man of good habits. The bride is a Minneapolis young lady and has been employed as trimmer in Mrs. Josten's millinery store the past season. She has made a host of friends during her residence here. This young couple expect to go to housekeeping in the Harr house soon. The Times extends congratulations and hopes their married life may ever be happy.

Try Kluckhohn's ice cream soda with crushed fruit and you will become a regular customer.

Pay Up—All persons owing me on account are requested to settle at once. F. C. Griewe. 1

Mrs. A. C. Flint and children and Mrs. W. E. Sage and son were Garner visitors between trains Tuesday.

Threshers Attention — W. R. Bloom has his threshing coal in, several varieties of the best qualities. Call and get prices. 51

Note the change in the Rock Island time card. The southbound passenger now leaves at 7:34 p. m and the south bound freight at 2:35 p. m. The way freight going north has changed from 9:35 to 9:55 a. m.

Misses Nellie, Esther and Dora Lau left last Saturday for Chicago for a week's visit with a cousin. From there they will go to South Haven, Michigan, to visit for a couple of weeks with their uncle, Henry Rausch. During their absence Martha Lau and Lydia Becker are clerking in Waterman's store.

We have before mentioned in these columns the beautiful cemetery which we have here in Klemme, thanks to the efforts of the township trustees and the sexton, Wm. Fuller. There is one thing, however, which we think would be a good thing in this connection—that is, a Cemetery Association to work in conjunction with the trustees to keep the cemetery in good shape the year round and to provide for the cutting of the grass in the cemetery and on the lots which are owned by private parties. Some of these lots are kept up in fine shape while others are allowed to grow to weeds. The cost would not be great to keep the cemetery looking nice all the time, and we believe an organization of some kind to help the trustees would be a good thing. Our town should take a pride in the cemetery where rest many loved ones. Other towns have these associations and they result in much good. Why can't Klemme have a Cemetery Association?

Read the news on the last page this week.

Born, this morning, to Mr. and Mrs. Ab Maitland, a son.

John Baumgartner Sr. was here from Garner Tuesday.

Poultry wanted at the highest market price. H. Lau & Son. 2

Rev Baker is spending the week with his parents at Britt.

Mrs. Kenefick of Belmond visited here Tuesday at the Fred Haupt home.

R. M. Day is at Salt Lake City attending the National G. A. R. Encampment.

M. I. Parker is enjoying a visit from his parents and a sister from Waterville, Kansas.

Clarence Kluckhohn, George Lau and John Henschen were Garner visitors Friday.

Ice cream sodas, sundaes, and all kinds of cool refreshing drinks at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

W. R. Bloom shipped a car of hogs Sunday morning and H. C. Lau a car yesterday morning.

See our fine line of the best plows and corn binders before you buy. H. Lau & Son. 1-2

We had a nice rain Monday and Tuesday which did much good to gardens and pastures.

Albert Yahnke came down from Buffalo Center Tuesday for a short visit, returning home yesterday.

G. A. Pabst & Co., Queal & Co. and Gruetzmacher Bros. all have new ads this week for your consideration.

It is reported that "Wooly" had a nightmare the other night and thought he heard horses trotting down the street.

Dr. Geo. Zinn and Charley Yahnke accompanied Henry Yahnke to Mason City Tuesday to cousult a specialist in regard to Henry's recent injury.

Otto Lemke's little eighteen-months-old boy got hold of some kerosene in some way Monday and drank a quantity of it. He was a very sick boy for a few days but is now on the mend.

The customary fall picnic or carnival at Kanawha will be held this year on Tuesday, Aug. 17th. Some base ball teams, evenly matched, will be engaged; no admittance charge to games. Com. 2w

Hans Nissen and family, of Lehigh, Iowa, are visiting relatives here. We are told that Hans has purchased the residence property occupied by his mother and he is building a new cement sidewalk. He will paint the house and otherwise improve the property.

The writer was a Garner business visitor last Friday, and while there took in the ball game between Garner and the Oklahoma Indians. The Injuns were completely outclassed, Garner winning, 10 to 0. Garner has got a fast bunch together. They were defeated Thursday by Charles City, 5 to 2.

Britt will hold a base ball tournament on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 25, 26 and 27. On Wednesday forenoon Garner and Charles City will play and in the afternoon Britt and Clear Lake. On Thursday forenoon the winners in the first day's games will play for a purse of $150, and in the afternoon the losers for a purse of $150. On Friday one game will be played between Humboldt and the winner in the Thursday forenoon game for a purse of $150.

AFTER THE CHICKEN THIEVES

Farmers Are Going to Try to Protect Their Poultry Flocks.—Many Losses Reported

On account of the heavy losses of chickens throughout this territory by theft, it might be interesting to know who the parties are who have lost a goodly share of their flocks. About three weeks ago E. A. Cline, of Goodell, notified Ell. Bros. that he had lost 75 head of full-blood Leghorns. Shortly after this Ed Schaefer announced the loss of about 50 head of Plymouth Rock spring chickens. Tuesday, Aug. 10, Mr. Cobbs came to town and announced that he had lost about 100 hens and about 150 spring chickens. Mr. Cobbs has notified all the poultry buyers in surrounding towns of his loss and requested them to take notice of the kind of poultry they buy and if they get any of his kind to hold them for identification. Will Brandt has also been a heavy loser, losing almost his entire flock. There are also numerous other thefts reported and there is strong talk now among the farmers of organizing a society for the prevention of chicken stealing, and also the apprehension of the thieves; to arrest, convict and land them in the penitentiary where they will have ample time to reflect over their misdeeds. The state authorities have been notified and there is liable to be something doing when it is least expected. A purse of $200 has been suggested as being ample funds wherewith to hire expert ferrets to track down these midnight marauders,

German M. E. Church Items

The Standard Bearers elected officers last week.

T. Blank has been troubled with sore eyes of late,

A Mrs. Gauger, of Rockford, Ia., was a Germantown visitor.

Mrs. Josten leaves this week to prepare for her fall millinery trade.

The Klemme missionary society will meet with Mrs. Wessel today.

A missionary program will be given in our Klemme church Sunday evening.

Ella Schlei visited at Fenton over Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Weisbrod.

Chas. Gruetzmacher spent Sunday and part of Monday with his sick mother.

Aug. Wenz made Klemme a short call last week, returning to Charles City where he is at

(Continued on last page.)

DOCTORS
GEO. ZINN EDGAR ZINN
Office: State Savings Bank
Phone No. 19
KLEMME - - IOWA

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Phone No. 11. Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to calls, day or night.
Eyes tested. Glasses fitted.

W. G. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
Eyes Tested Free.

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures
See me when you want a Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

JOHN GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Headquarters for part of Heinz' Fifty-Seven Varieties. and Pickling Vinegar.
Try these goods; they are fine.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
Call in

RESTAURANT
Fresh New Candies, Nicest Line in Town
Try a "Lovers' Delight" the latest and best Ice Cream Sundae in town.
Try our Golden Orangeade, Pop and Ciders.
—Home-made Bakery Goods,— Lunches and Meals at all hours.
A. Kirkwood & Son

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

National Encampment
G. A. R.
SALT LAKE CITY
August 9-14, 1909
Why not take your vacation at the time of the encampment and go with the "boys in blue"
Thro' Scenic Colorado
To the city of the Mormons, one of the most interesting places in the country to visit? The things to do and the places to see are legion, and the added attraction of the trip through Colorado, that wonderland of Nature, can be enjoyed by planning your trip via
Rock Island-Frisco Lines
Ask for folder descriptive of the event and trip.
J. H. MAHER, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

The Klemme Times

C. H. MANN & CO., Publishers.

KLEMME, - - - IOWA

SUMMARY OF A WEEK'S EVENTS

Latest News of Interest Boiled Down for the Busy Man.

PERSONAL.

Judge Joseph R. Clarkson of Kenosha, Wis., who disappeared July 14, was found working in a pearl button factory in Sabula, Ia.

President Taft arrived at Beverly, Minn., where the "summer White House" is to be located until September 15, when he starts on a trip of 13,000 miles through the country.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, her sister, Miss Carrow, and her daughter, Miss Ethel, and son, Archie, are now visiting in Paris.

It is believed that Whitelaw Reid will remain as ambassador to Great Britain for a year at least.

Lord Kitchener has been appointed inspector general of the English Mediterranean forces with rank of field marshal.

The International Typographical union met in annual convention at St. Joseph, Mo., with President John M. Lynch in the chair.

Alton B. Parker, candidate for the presidency in 1904, said the new tariff law does not keep the pledges of the Republican party.

Capt. Rowland V. Webster, who was appointed by the Royal Geographical society to lead an expedition in search of the south pole, left Los Angeles, Cal., for New York, whence he will embark for London to prepare for the antarctic trip, to begin next August.

Dr. Calos F. MacDonald, a noted alienist, testified that Harry Thaw is insane and a dangerous man to be at large.

James A. Flaherty of Philadelphia was elected supreme knight of the Knights of Columbia at Mobile, Ala. M. H. Carmody of Grand Rapids, Mich., was elected deputy supreme knight.

Mark Twain has been ordered by his doctor to cut down his smoking to four smokes a day. He is suffering from "tobacco heart."

Charles H. Moyer was unanimously re-elected president of the Western Federation of Miners at Denver.

Emperor William has returned to Swinmunde, Germany, on the imperial yacht Hohenzollern from his regular summer cruise in northern waters.

H. Clay Pierce, an oil magnate of St. Louis, and Mrs. Virginia Prickett Burrows of Edwardsville, Ill., were married in London.

William Dean Howells, the author, is reported ill at his summer home at Eliot, Me. He will sail for Carlsbad next week with his daughter.

Caleb Powers, recently pardoned after a long term in a Kentucky prison for alleged complicity in the murder of Gov. Goebel, is said to be a candidate for congress in the Eleventh Kentucky district. It is also said he will soon wed Miss Eleanor Robson of York, Pa.

GENERAL NEWS.

"I'm sure that I'll be free," said Harry Thaw as his hearing to test his sanity came to a close before Justice Mills.

Thirty thousand men at Barcelona have prepared to carry on a guerrilla warfare against Spain and use bombs as weapons, unless certain prisoners are released.

The officials of the Pressed Steel Car Company at McKees Rocks, Pa., will ignore the demands of the 3,500 strikers and further trouble is feared there.

A St. Bernard dog saved the lives of a woman and three children when the husband and father in committing suicide with gas filled their house in New York with the deadly fumes.

Justice Samuel Doty and Constable Oscar Welty of Kokomo, Ind., had a desperate fight, the justice using his official seal with which to batter the officer's head while Welty pounded the court's cranium with a revolver.

Circuit Judge John T. Debolt of Honolulu received a letter threatening him with death if the Japanese on trial for rioting in connection with the plantation strike are convicted.

Cather Ahern of Laurel Hill, L. I., awoke to find a dream that her father had killed her mother with an ax was true.

John Dugan, when chased by a posse after killing John Jagans, near Danville, Ill., committed suicide.

Several thousand Illinoisans celebrated Illinois day at the Alaska-Yukon exposition.

Frank Nicolai, assistant cashier of the City National bank, Auburn, Ind., is missing and the bank's books show a shortage of $5,000 in cash.

Following the finding of a four-month-old dead baby with its skull crushed, James Pullman and May Williams of Mount Carmel, Ill., were arrested. It is charged that the man jumped off a train with the infant after an attempt to have it adopted in East St. Louis.

Alaska is being inspected by Norwegian experts with a view to a settlement of Norwegians in that district.

Higher diamond prices are shown in figures from southwest Africa. Americans, being more prosperous, are said to be willing to pay the advance.

The Payne tariff bill was passed by the senate by a vote of 47 to 31, President Taft signed the measure and the extraordinary session of congress, which began March 15, was adjourned.

The great National Irrigation congress opened at Seattle, Wash., with about 4,000 accredited delegates present besides thousands of others who are interested in the reclamation of desert lands. Among those in attendance are men from England, Germany, France, the Latin republics, China and Japan.

Prominent churchmen and laymen from all parts of the country gathered in Pittsburg, Pa., where the American Federation of Catholic Societies began its yearly convention.

Street car employes of Chicago by a large majority voted to strike unless the companies grant their demands for higher wages.

One man was killed and 60 hurt in a collision of a Pennsylvania railroad train and a car on the East Chicago and Whiting electric line at One Hundred and Fourth street and Indianapolis avenue, Chicago.

Abram C. Eby, mayor of Burkeville, Va., was arrested on a charge of theatening to dynamite property of the Pennsylvania railroad unless paid $45,000.

A letter written by Stanford White to Mae McKenzie, an actress, was used by the defense in the effort to have Harry Thaw, slayer of the architect, released from the insane asylum.

Robert Pohl, the thief, and Edward Larken, one of a posse, were killed and four others wounded following a bold robbery in the State bank of White Bear, Minn.

The second appeal in the famous Snell will case was filed in the Illinois supreme court.

Joseph Hensler killed his wife with a razor and then ended his own life at Houghton, Mich.

John W. Cravens, a banker of Spring Lake, Ia., and his wife were killed when a trolley car struck their auto at Alexandria, Ind.

The steamships Umbria and Etruria of the Cunard line are for sale, because their engines are regarded as out of date and burn too much coal. The vessels were Atlantic record-breakers about twenty years ago, being the first ships to cut the ocean trip to about six days.

French and American capital will establish a $50,000,000 steel plant in the City of Mexico within 12 months.

An earthquake has been reported from Brest, France, and the vicinity of that city. A number of buildings were rocked by the quake, and the people thrown into a state of panic.

Three trunks shipped by members of the "Black Hand," who stole two children in St. Louis, were traced to Chicago, but the bodies of the victims were not in them as had been feared.

Several persons were hurt at Battle Creek, Mich., when a storm blew down a circus tent and caused a panic as the animals set up a roar.

King Gustave of Sweden summoned members of parliament to Stockholm when the country was threatened with civil war as a result of a strike involving 250,000 persons.

For the first time in 15 years a murderer was beheaded in public in Paris, a large crowd witnessing the fall of the knife.

Laws governing Sunday closing, which have been in effect in Connecticut since 1722, were repealed by the state legislature.

The Alabama house passed a resolution for election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.

The deposed shah of Persia has been offered a pension of $75,000 a year if he will reveal the hiding place of the crown jewels and leave the country.

The strike of Italian quarrymen at Marblehead, Wis., came to an end after the Italian consul at Milwaukee had addressed the men and urged them to return to work.

Vessels of the United States navy in all parts of the world observed the one hundred and nineteenth anniversary of the navy organization on August 4.

While searching for Will Hendrix, an escaped murderer under life sentence, James Russell and Joseph Boren, deputy sheriffs of Oklahoma City, shot and wounded each other in the darkness by mistake.

LIVE STOCK SHOW

Entries for State Fair Exceed All Past Figures.

TEST CAPACITY OF NEW BARNS

Percherons Lead in Horse Classes, the Total for All Being 828—Shorthorns Lead in Cattle Entries, Totaling 866.

Des Moines, Aug. 9.—Horse and cattle entries for the Iowa State fair surpass previous records. The figures given out by Secretary John C. Simpson showed a marked increase in comparison to last year.

The new cattle barn will make possible the accommodation of all the entries, though the capacity of the stables will be strained by the many live stock exhibits.

The entry list closed last night, but the entries mailed on Monday were accepted. The figures follow: Standard bred drivers and saddlers 135, Shetland ponies 77, other ponies 12, Morgans 30, French and German coach 10, hackneys 13, Clydesdale 44, shires 76, Percheron 275, Belgians 95, draft animals 42, mules, 19, total 828. Shorthorns 262, Hereford 201, Angus 81, Galloway 39, Polled Durhams 28, Red Polled 52, Holstein 45, Jerseys 56, Ayrshire 28, Guernseys 75, total 866.

Organizes Hospital Corps.

Iowa City.—Maj. C. S. Grant, surgeon, has announced the personnel of the field hospital detachment which he was instructed to organize by Adjutant General Logan. It includes the following: First class sergeant, M. F. Joynt, Emmetsburg; sergeants, C. F. Brooks, Pierson; J. U. Smith, Iowa City. Privates, Fred Moore, Harlan; Merle B. Call, Iowa City; Paul McManus, Iowa City; Charles M. Hazard, Iowa City; R. C. Sherman, Fort Dodge. The officers of this detachment were transferred from the regimental hospital detachment of which Major Grant is in charge. The privates were recruited. The regimental detachment was cut down from seventeen to twelve men by the adjutant general, so there will have to be no recruiting to fill up its ranks.

Four Hurt in Auto Wreck.

West Union.—While a skilled demonstrator from La Crosse was running a new automobile a small pin broke i nthe steering device and the machine ran into a steep bank on one of the principal streets of West Union and overturned. James Blunt, who had just bought the car, his wife Miss Maud Blunt, his daughter, and Clyde Blunt, his son, were all caught under the car. The young lady received a broken arm and an injured spine. All the others were badly injured except the son, who escaped uninjured. The demonstrator was also bruised and burned. The machine was running only eight or ten miles an hour when the accident occurred.

Finds a $3,000 Pearl.

Davenport.—"Unlucky Jim," a clam dredger, who bore that name because he had a wife and nine children, and had never made a good "find," discovered a pearl in a clam he opened near Lansing that has changed his luck and name. W. L. Gardner of Le Clair and I. E. Anthony of Camanche have bought the pearl for $3,000 cash said to be the largest price ever actually paid for a fresh-water pearl, although larger figures have been reported in the past. The pearl weighs 50 grains, is flesh-colored, of fine luster and without a speck, and an almost perfect sphere.

Fails in a Race with Death.

Ames.—The funeral of Mrs. John Born of Ames was held at the Cottage Grove church. Mrs. Born died on the train at Ogden, Ia. Mr. and Mrs. Born had been west seeking a more beneficial climate for Mrs. Born's health. Upon being unsuccessful the invalid requested that she be brought home. The journey was too great and she died before reaching Ames.

Nashua Man Finds Fine Pearl.

Nashua.—Cedar river has given up in the past few years some very valuable pearls, but one of the best finds yet made was by James Hamm. He picked up a beautiful white pearl which he immediately sold to G. T. Greeley of Chicago, who, with his family, is camping here, for $250.

Polk Farm Land Cut Million.

Des Moines.—Iowa's executive council sitting as a board of equalization raised the value of Polk county land 5 per cent thus increasing it $1,000,000. Later, a meeting was called in the state house and the action was rescinded by reducing the valuation that amount.

Half Corn Crop Is Morrow's Dope.

Des Moines.—"The corn crop will not exceed half a crop," said State Treasurer W. W. Morrow in speaking of the conditions in Union, Adair, Clark, Decatur, Taylor and Ringgold counties. "However, throughout the state I believe we will have a good average crop this year. The hay and the oats are fine down our way," continued Mr. Morrow, who has just returned from his home near Afton. "They are pretty well through the harvest, though at no time has there been enough farm hands. The prospects are unusually fine, taking everything into consideration, for in June we had 14 inches of rain, and in the first eight days of July the rainfall was 6 inches. It can easily be seen that the outlook is splendid, considering the amount of water which fell in those thirty-eight days."

Boat Capsizes—Three Drown.

Clarion, Ia.—In a triple drowning here Mrs. C. S. Bennett, Hazel Hudelson and Eva Porter lost their lives on Elm Lake.

A party of a dozen girls went to the lake to spend two or three days. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett chaperoned the company.

The party had crossed the lake in a gasoline launch and a row boat. They enjoyed the bathing and were returning when the row boat began to sink. The girls crowded on the launch, which went down with all on board. People across the lake heard their cries of distress and heroically rescued all but three. The bodies have been recovered and brought to this city.

Fix Iowa Day at Oklahoma Fair.

Des Moines.—October 8 has been set apart as Iowa Day at the Oklahoma state fair and between 7,000 and 10,000 former Iowans are expected to gather on the fair grounds that day. This information was received at the office of Governor Carroll along with the notice that the governor, former Governor Larrabee and Senators Dolliver and Cummins have been elected honorary members of the Oklahoma State fair association.

Cedar Falls Woman Hurt.

Cedar Falls.—Mrs. G. W. Clark sustained most painful injuries, from which it will take a long time to recover, through a fall down the stairs of her daughter's residence. She is 71 years of age and the shock to her system, as well as her suffering, adds to the complications of the accident. She suffered a deep gash in the head, a fractured wrist and shoulder, besides bruises and sprains in every part of her body.

Myriads of Sand Flies.

Muscatine.—The fiercest storm of sand flies in years occurred here. Countless billions of flies brought to life by the excessive heat were blown to the city from the islands near here. All street lights were extinguished by them and people were forced to remain off the downtown streets to escape from being pounced upon by the maddened insects.

$10,000 Iowa City Farm Fire.

Iowa City.—Fire destroyed $10,000 worth of outbuildings, machinery, hay and grain on the John Meade farm, two miles west of the city. The fire was due to spontaneous combustion in the hay barn. The buildings were of the finest in the county. The loss is fully covered by insurance. A draft stallion worth $1,000 was also burned.

Father David Ill at Dubuque.

Dubuque.—Father David, for the past forty years a member of the Trappist monks here, is seriously ill at Mercy hospital and it is feared death is imminent. Father David has been for many years business manager of the Trappist monastery and is the best known priest monk in the order.

Earlham Calls For Bids.

Earlham.—The town council opened bids on August 2 for the erection of the water works and electric lighting system for which the town voted $17,000. Work will be rushed to the limit with the intention to install the lighting plant at once and the water plant as soon thereafter as possible.

Waverly Gets Gas Works.

Waverly.—The city of Waverly voted on the question of granting to James J. Donelon the right to erect and maintain gas works in the city. There was a light vote, scarcely any opposition having developed. There were 365 votes cast of which 358 were for and only 7 against the proposition.

Wreck Victim Recovered.

Des Moines.—Arthur Dodge of Toledo, O., who was injured in the wreck of the Milwaukee flyer at Cambridge several days ago, was discharged from the Methodist hospital. John Lawrence, the mail clerk who was severely hurt, is progressing rapidly toward recovery.

TO GREET CUMMINS

Senator Will Be Welcomed Home by Thousands Tonight.

700 CARPENTERS TO MARCH

Committee Has 2,000 Flags for Distribution, and Big Red Automobile Will Be Covered With Roses and Carnations.

Des Moines, Aug. 9.—When Senator Cummins steps off the train at the Rock Island station this evening he will be greeted by a welcoming cheer from thousands of throats and a patriotic salue from a sea of 2,000 flags which will be distributed among the throng at the passenger depot before the senator's arrival.

One of the main features of the big demonstration will be the march of the union carpenters. Seven hundred strong, local union No. 106, of which Senator Cummins is a member in good standing, will march in military order, four abreast, immediately following the six automobiles bearing the members of the reception committee.

A. Friedlich, who has had charge of making arrangements with the business houses for decorations, has announced that the entire line of march of the parade, from the Rock Island depot up Fourth street to Walnut, along Walnut to Ninth and south on Ninth to the Lincoln school, where the speeches will be made, will be draped with flags from every window.

The committee in charge has been beset with inquiries from women asking if they will be allowed to march in the parade. While no special arrangements have been made along this line, the women will be given a place if a large delegation turns out.

Harvey Ingham will be chairman of the meeting and speeches will be made by A. L. Urick, Mayor Mathis, Geis Botsford, Lucius Wilson and L. A. Jester. It is announced that Senator Cummins will also make a brief address.

YOUNG GIRL KILLS HERSELF

Mother Tries to Commit Suicide, But Is Prevented—Harvey Aroused by the Deed.

Knoxville, Ia., Aug. 9.—Following a bitter quarrel between her father and mother at their home in Harvey, Helen Mattox, a 15-year-old girl, committed suicide in a highly spectacular manner. The girl locked herself in her bed room and arraying herself in a white gown she knelt down in front of a mirror and pulled the trigger of a rifle she had secured. The bullet penetrated her heart.

Her step-father, who is W. A. Montgomery, is accused of having abused his wife so that she left home and walked ten miles to this place. When she reached here she was apprised of her daughter's suicide and became a raving maniac, attempting to destroy herself with a razor. She was placed in the county jail.

There is much excitement in Harvey over the deed. Mrs. Montgomery was taken back to Harvey. She will probably be placed in a sanitarium.

PROBE CHARLES CITY TRAGEDY

Sister of Boyer Causes Arrest and Arraignment of Lafe Phillips.

Charles City, Ia., Aug. 9.—On information sworn out by Mrs. Perrington sister of Charles Boyer, supposed to have met with foul play, Lafayette Phillips was arrested and arraigned before Justice Bradley, charged with murder. County Attorney Lockwood appeared for the state and Attorney J. P. Lloyd for the defendant. Phillips has been boarding with the Boyers. Sunday, August 1, Boyer disappeared; no trace can be found of him. Mrs. Boyer and Phillips were preparing to leave and Boyer's sister caused the warrant to be issued. Boyer is an employe of the gasoline engine factory. Phillips is a retired engineer and is well known as having been the engineer that made test runs of speed on the Northwestern and also on the Burlington between Chicago and Council Bluffs.

Dolliver Reception Tuesday Evening.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 9.—Senator Dolliver expects to reach Fort Dodge Tuesday noon. It is expected that the reception in his honor will be Tuesday evening. He departed at noon Saturday, but stopped over in Chicago, where his sister's child is very sick.

SYNOPSIS.

Carrington loved Kate Cavenaugh, daughter of Multi-Millionaire Henry Cavenaugh. The latter liked Carrington, but refused him as a son-in-law. Young Carrington, a lawyer, held evidence of criminal financial operations, of which Cavenaugh was guilty. It was Carrington's duty to prosecute the rich man, but he decided to lay the whole matter before Kate. He did so the next day. The young woman decided that to drop the case would be cowardly even though the accused was her father. Cavenaugh offered Carrington a position at $17,000 a year. He refused it. He hid his evidence in the Cavenaugh safe, after being introduced to the millionaire's father.

CHAPTER II.—Continued.

"We seldom use this," said the girl, reading the vague unspoken question in his eyes. "The jewel safe is upstairs in my room."

"It doesn't matter in the least," he replied, smiling, "so long as I may safely rid myself of these obnoxious papers. And if you do not mind, I'll leave them there till Monday morning. I've thought it all out, Kate. A man's only human, after all. I could never prosecute the case myself; I'd be thinking of you and the bread I have eaten. I'll turn the matter over to Challoner, and let him do as he thinks best. Of course, I shall be called as a witness when the case comes up in court, if it ever does."

She did not reply, but shut the door of the safe and rose from her knees.

The south side of the dining room was made up of long colonial windows that opened directly upon the lawn. They were more like doors than windows. She locked each one carefully and drew the curtain.

"Norah is probably growing impatient for us," she said.

With an indescribable impulse he suddenly drew her into his arms and kissed her. It might be the last he could ever claim.

"John!" she murmured, gently disengaging herself.

"I love you," he said, "and I could not help it. Everything looks so dark."

The clock in the hall chimed the quarter hour after 11. Cavenaugh was in his den. His desk was littered with sheets of paper, upon which were formidable columns of figures and dollar signs. He sat back in his chair and listened. He thought he heard a door or window close; he wasn't certain. It was probably one of the servants. He bit off the end of a fresh cigar and resumed his work. Let the young people play golf, if they wanted to, and dance and frivol away the precious hours; they would never know the joy of seeing one become two, two become four, and so on, till the adding grew into the ransoms of many kings. Ay, this was to live. Oh, the beautiful numerals! Brigade after brigade, corps after corps, they marched at a sign from him; an army greater than that of kings. To sit in a little room, as in a puppet booth, and juggle the policies of the nations! Yes, Kate should have a duke and Norah a prince; he would show them all some day. Recollecting Carrington, he frowned. Did the fellow know anything, that he felt the power to refuse an offer such as he had made at the dinner table? Bah! It would be like crushing some insect. He determined that this should be Carrington's last visit. His pen moved once more, and presently he became lost in his dreams of calculation.

But Cavenaugh's ears had not deceived him, however, for he had heard the sound of a closing window. A window had been closed, but none of the servants had been at hand.

At precisely 11 a man came swiftly but cautiously across the lawn. When he reached the long windows of the dining room he paused, but not irresolutely. There was a sharp rasping sound, followed by the uncertain glare that makes the light of a dark-lantern separate and individual, and a window swung noiselessly inward. The room was in total darkness. The man wore a short mask, a soft felt hat well down over his eyes. He cupped his hand to his ear and strained to catch any sound. Silence. Then he dropped behind the screen, consulted a slip of paper by the light of his lantern, and with a few quick turns of the combination knob opened the door of the safe. He extracted the envelope and thrust it into his pocket, without so much as a glance at its contents. In making his exit, the window struck on the sill. In pressing it the lock snapped loudly. This was the sound Cavenaugh heard. The burglar ran lightly across the lawn and disappeared beyond the hedges. And none too soon.

The Cavenaugh drag rolled over the hill and went clattering up to the porte-cochere.

On the way home Carrington, his mind still wavering between this expedient and that, decided that, after all, he would take charge of the papers himself. It didn't seem quite fair that Cavenaugh's safe should protect his ultimate disgrace. So, upon entering the house, he confided his desire to Kate, who threw aside her wraps and led him into the dining room. She had her own reasons for wishing the papers out of the safe. She turned on the lights and swirled the combination knob. At this moment Norah came in.

"What are you doing?" she asked.

"Mr. Carrington left some valuable papers in the safe, and he wants them."

Carrington wondered why Norah stared at Kate, then at Norah. If ever there was written on a face unfeigned dismay and astonishment, it was on the millionaire's. A moment before Carrington would have sworn that he was guilty; now he knew not what to believe. He grew bewildered. There had certainly been a burglar, but who was he?

"Mr. Carrington," said Cavenaugh, pulling himself together with an effort, "you need have no worry whatever. I will undertake to restore your documents. I offer you no explanations." He left them abruptly.

The young lawyer concluded to grope no longer. Somebody else would have to lead him out of this labyrinthine maze. All at once there came to him a sense of infinite relief. Providence had kindly taken the matter out of his hands.

"Never mind, Kate," he said. "For my part, I should be entirely satisfied if I never saw the miserable thing again."

"Father will find it for you." Her eyes were dim with tears of shame.

"What is it, girl?"

"Nothing that I can explain to you, John. Good night."

When he had gone to his room, Norah turned to her sister and sobbed on her breast.

"Oh, Kate!"

"What is the matter, child?"

"I told grandpa the combination!"

CHAPTER III.

Carrington tumbled out of bed at six and threw out the old-fashioned green blinds. A warm, golden summer morning greeted his eyes, and the peaceful calm of Sunday lay upon the

It Had Been Opened by Some One Who Knew the Combination.

gazed from him to her sister with so wild an expression.

"Papers?" she murmured.

Kate opened the door. She sprang to her feet in terror and dismay.

"What is it?" cried Carrington, who saw by her expression that something extraordinary had happened.

"They—it is not there!"

Norah sat down and hid her face on her arms.

Carrington rushed over to the safe, stooped and made a hasty examination. It had been opened by some one who knew the combination! He stood up, a cold chill wrinkling his spine. He saw it all distinctly. Cavenaugh knew. He had known all along. Cavenaugh had overheard him speak to Kate and had opened the safe after their departure for the club. It was all very cleverly done. He knew that Kate was utterly blameless. Then it dawned upon him that they appeared as though they accepted the catastrophe as not wholly unexpected! To what did this labyrinth lead?

A rattle of the curtain rings wheeled them about. They beheld Cavenaugh himself standing in the doorway.

"What's the trouble?" he asked, eyeing Carrington suspiciously.

Carrington answered him icily. "I left some legal documents of great value in this safe; they are no longer there."

Cavenaugh's jaw dropped. He land. A robin piped in an apple tree, an oriole flashed across the flower beds, and a bee buzzed just outside the sill. A brave day! He stepped into his tub, bathed, and dressed in his riding clothes, for there was to be a canter down to the sea and return before breakfast. From the window he could see the groom walking the beautiful thoroughbreds up and down the driveway. There were only two this morning; evidently Norah was not going.

The Cavenaugh girls had created almost a scandal and a revolution when they first appeared at Glenwood. People had read and talked about women riding like men, they had even seen pictures of them, but to find them close at hand was something of a shock. Yet, when they saw with what ease the Cavenaugh girls took the hedges, ditches and fences, how their mounts never suffered from saddle-galls, and, above all, how the two always kept even pace with the best men riders, opinion veered; and several ladies changed their habits.

Norah, who saw the droll side of things, once said that the accepted riding habit for women reminded her of a kimono for a harp.

Carrington stole gently down to the horses. He had great affection for the sleek thoroughbreds. Their ears went forward when they saw him, and they whinnied softly. He rubbed their velvet noses and in turn they nozzled him for sugar loaves. Had it not been for the night and the attendant mysteries, his happiness would have been complete. People waste many precious moments in useless retrospection; so Carrington resolutely forced the subject from his mind. One thing was certain, the Cavenaughs knew who the burglar was; and there was something strange in the idea of an empty safe in a millionaire's home. Pshaw! He took out the expected sugar loaves and extended them on both palms. The pair lipped his hand and crunched the sweets with evident relish.

"How are they to-day, James?"

"Fit for 20 miles, straight away or 'cross lots, sir. Your mount is feeling his oats this morning; he hasn't been out for a run since Thursday, sir. I've put the curb on him in case he takes it into his head to cut up shines. Here comes Miss Kate, sir."

Carrington's pulse rose. Kate was approaching them. She was pale but serene. She smiled a good morning, which took in the gentleman and the groom.

"I hope I haven't kept you waiting."

"Not a moment; I only just got down myself," said Carrington.

She mounted without assistance and adjusted her skirts. The filly began to waltz, impatient to be off.

"To the beach?" Carrington asked, swinging into his saddle.

She nodded and they started off toward the highway at a smart trot. Once there, the animals broke into an easy canter, which they maintained for a mile or more. Then Kate drew down to a walk.

"What a day!" said he, waving his hand toward the sea line.

There was color a-plenty on her cheeks now, and her eyes shone like precious stones. There is no exhilaration quite like it. She flicked the elders with her crop, and once or twice reached up for a ripening apple. In the air there was the strange sea smell, mingled with the warm scent of clover.

"I'll race you to the beach!" she cried, suddenly.

"Done! I'll give you to the sixth tree," He laughed. There was really nothing at all in the world but this beautiful girl, the horses, and the white road that wound in and out to the sea.

She trotted her mount to the sixth tree, turned, and then gave the signal. Away they went, the horses every bit as eager as their riders. With their ears laid back, their nostrils wide, their feet drumming, they thundered down the road. Carrington gained, but slowly, and he had to hold his right arm as a shield for his eyes, as the filly's heels threw back a steady rain of sand and gravel. Faster and faster; a milk wagon veered out just in time; foolish chickens scampered to the wrong side of the road, and the stray pigs in the orchards squealed and bolted inland. It was all very fine. And when they struck deep tawny sand the animals were neck and neck. It was now no easy task to bring them to a stop. Carrington's hunter had made up his mind to win, and the lithe filly was equally determined. As an expedient, they finally guided the animals toward the hull of an ancient wreck; nothing else would have stopped them.

"How I love it!" said Kate, breathlessly, as she slid from the saddle. "Beauty, you beat him, didn't you!" patting the dripping neck of her favorite.

They tethered the horses presently and sat down in the shade of the hull.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

A Wrong Attitude.

Hundreds of working girls to-day, who are toiling to support aging parents, or to aid younger children, are incomparably superior to many of the aristocrats of earth, because they are developing character—which is the only thing in this life that counts in the great scheme.

But the working girl and man who are filled with envy and hatred toward the rich are not to be admired or respected merely because they labor.

If you work only because you must, and hate your work, and hate every man who has wealth and leisure, do not imagine your labor makes you worthier than his wealth in the eyes of the Creator, for it does not.

Whether you are poor or rich is of small consideration in the long run, but what you are in character and principle is of eternal importance.

Causes of Blindness.

The dangers to which the modern eye is exposed fall into two great classes—disease and overuse from near work. Here another great consoling fact faces us, and that is that while overwork and consequent eye strain are by far the commonest troubles that befall the modern eye, discomfort and inefficiency are as far as they go in 99 cases out of 100. It is a fact that 99 9-10 per cent. of all blindness is due to disease and not to overwork.

More significant yet, seven-tenths of the diseases which produce blindness are the acute infections, against which civilization wages an unceasing and victorious conflict.—Woman's Home Companion.

LUCKY MAN.

She—Two men whom I refused to marry, sir, have become millionaires!
He—Is that the reason why?

OWES HER LIFE TO

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Vienna, W. Va.—"I feel that I owe the last ten years of my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Eleven years ago I was a walking shadow. I had been under the doctor's care but got no relief. My husband persuaded me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it worked like a charm. It relieved all my pains and misery. I advise all suffering women to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—MRS. EMMA WHEATON, Vienna, W. Va.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any similar medicine in the country, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every such suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

Libby's Food Products

Libby's Cooked Corned Beef

There's a marked distinction between Libby's Cooked Corned Beef and even the best that's sold in bulk.

Evenly and mildly cured and scientifically cooked in Libby's Great White Kitchen, all the natural flavor of the fresh, prime beef is retained. It is pure wholesome, delicious and ready to serve at meal time, Saves work and worry in summer.

Other Libby "Healthful" Meal-Time-Hints, all ready to serve, are:

Peerless Dried Beef
Vienna Sausage
Veal Loaf
Evaporated Milk
Baked Beans
Chow Chow
Mixed Pickles

"Purity goes hand in hand with Products of the Libby brand".

Write for free Booklet,—"How to make Good Things to Eat".

Insist on Libby's at your grocers.

Libby, McNeill & Libby
Chicago

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

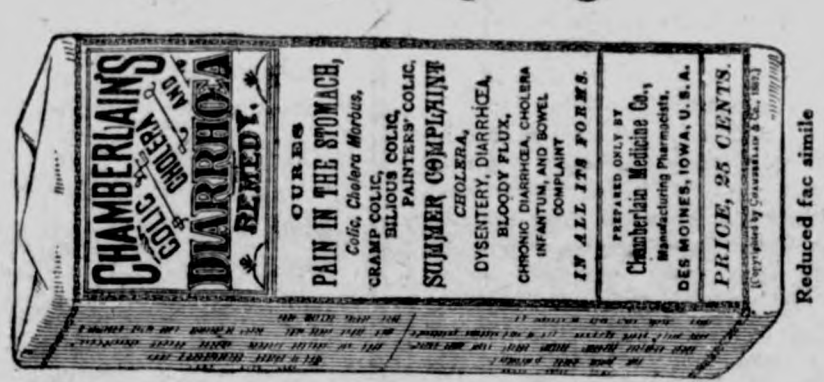
G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy

Acknowledged everywhere to be the most successful medicine in use for Bowel Complaints. Can be depended upon in the most severe and dangerous cases.

REMEMBER ALWAYS CURES CURES QUICKLY

MONEY RETURNED IF NOT SATISFIED



Reduced fac simile

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

(Continued from 5th page.)

tending the Chautauqua and taking medical treatment.

The missionary offering will be taken next Sunday in both churches.

Our genial editor did us a neat little job of printing, in German, last week.

Thirteen young people were taken into the church last Sunday, as full members. and one by letter.

In every direction the humming of the thrashing machine may be heard these days. The quality of grain is good but the quantity is very light.

Clarence Arnold has returned from his extended trip to the west coast, Yellowstone Park and many places of interest. He is highly pleased with his trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Holz, of Columbus, Wis., parents of Mrs. Chas. Schoenwetter, arrived last Friday to spend a week with their relatives, and especially to see Grandma Gruetzmacher, who is a sister to Mr. Holz.

The fourth and last quarterly conference was held in Klemme Monday morning, conducted by District Superintendent W. H. Rolfing. Most of the old officers were re elected. We will try and publish the full list next week.

The Northwest German Conference will hold its annual session in Klemme, Sept. 1-5. This will bring some 50 to 60 clergymen to our little city, besides some of the dignitaries of the church. Besides the business sessions each forenoon and committee work in the afternson of each day, the following is the program thus far arranged:

Wednesday evening. Conference Claimants Anniversary—Sermon by Rev. F. C. Steffler.

Thursday evening—Dr. J. H. Fitzwater on Home Mission and Church Extension.

Friday evening—Educational Anniversary Addresses by Dr. F. Schaub and Rev. J. W. Feller.

Saturday afternoon—Dr. O. S. Baketel on Sunday School Work.

Saturday evening—Missionary sermon by Rev. H. E. Hilmer.

Sunday forenoon-Sermon by Bishop J. L. Nuelsen.

Sunday afternoon—Sermon by Dr. F. Munz.

Sunday evening—Dr. Geo. B. Smyth on Foreign Missions.

ELL CENTER

Special Correspondence:

Elmer Yohn, Bert Auchampach, Hod and Charley Lawhorn drove to Garner Friday to the ball game.

Mr Haupt, of Twin Lake, has been putting up hay on the J. N. Sprole farm.

Mrs. Haskell and daughter, of Klemme, made several calls here one day last week.

Mrs. Charley Lawhorn spent Sunday afternoon with her sister, Mrs. Hod Lawhorn.

Mrs. Webner has been entertaining her grand-children from Klemme for a few days.

Hazel Lawhorn called on Hazel Groesbeck Friday afternoon

Elmer Yohn visited over Sunday at Forest City.

Messers Adwell, Nelson and Lawhorn accompanied by their wives, attended the dance at Ventura Saturday evening.

Charley Schneider and Mr. Hyde of Garner were in this vicinity Sunday evening with Schneider's auto.

The Garner ball team was defeated by Clear Lake Monday, score 4 to 1.

Books
Pamphlets
Letter Heads
Envelopes

Everything printed from

TYPE

At the Times office.

Cards
Invitations
Bill Heads
Posters

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOW

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE. LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STATE. Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. Fir... days treatment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund mo... All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines used. ... detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by mail and ex... press. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage. Cha... low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for terms. C... sultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call or w... to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without the use of harmful instruments. Our book fully explains.

VARICOCELE—Enlarged veins in the scrotum causing nervous debility, wasting of the nervous system, etc., permanently cured.

BLOOD POISON—That terrible disease in all its stages, cured for life. All Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, and all forms of private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few days without pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application, with description of above diseases, their effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrapper.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINES, I...

RUPTURE, PILES

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolutely reliable and permanent. Write to or call and see the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were afflicted with Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia.
Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines, Ia.
E. C. Miller, Des Moines, Ia.
John H. Looby, Des Moines, Ia.

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you free, postage paid. This book contains much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonial letters. Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the book. Write today—it will pay you.

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES, IOWA

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:34 p. m.
82 ..... 2:35 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:55 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

PATENTS

DESIGNS
TRADE-MARKS
AND COPYRIGHTS
OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"

Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,
E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

McCALL PATTERNS 10¢ AND 15¢ NONE HIGHER

McCALL'S MAGAZINE 50¢ A YEAR INCLUDING A FREE PA...

McCALL PATTERNS
Celebrated for style, perfect fit, simplicity, reliability nearly 40 years. Sold in nearly every city and town in the United States and Canada, or by mail direct. More sold than any other make. Send for free catalogue.

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
More subscribers than any other fashion magazine—million a month. Invaluable. Latest styles, patterns, dressmaking, millinery, plain sewing, fancy needlework, hairdressing, etiquette, good stories, etc. Only 50 cents a year (worth double), including a free pattern. Subscribe today, or send for sample copy.

WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS
to Agents. Postal brings premium catalogue and new cash prize offers. Address

THE McCALL CO., 238 to 248 W. 37th St., NEW Y...

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified.

FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE

it is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

Just Dust It on the Sore.
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls while at work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bottom and Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid by Mail.
Money Back if Not Satisfied.
The RED STAR HEALING POWDER Co.
(25c. and 50c. Cans). GARNER, IOWA

THE KLEMME TIMES

VOLUME XIV. NUMBER 3 — KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 19. 1909. — $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

Just as a few bushels of wheat planted in the ground become many bushels of grain, so will the money you put in our bank from time to time become a big sum. The interest we will pay you will help it grow.

¶ Do not forget that we are pleased to place the facilities of this bank at your disposal and solicit your business. — — — —

State Savings Bank.

Klemme - - Iowa

A CONVINCER

The best convincer on earth is a good, honest trial of any line of goods.
We claim for our lumber and building material that it is as good or better than can be purchased elsewhere, and to substantiate this claim, we ask an honest trial of our goods. We can quote you as good a price as anyone.
May we figure on your next lumber bill?

J. H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, AGENT
KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J.W.WATERMAN

STATEMENT

of the condition of the

State Savings Bank

organized under the laws of Iowa, located at Klemme, in the county of Hancock, at the close of business on the 10th day of August, A. D., 1969, made to the Auditor of State as required by law.

ASSETS

Amount of Bills, Bonds and other evidences of debt discounted or purchased actually owned by the Bank (carried out)		$107,573 02
Amount of cash on hand described as follows:
Gold coin,	455 00
Silver coin and bullion	455 15
Legal tender and national bank notes and subsidary coin	1085 00
Drafts and checks on other solvent banks and other cash items not dishonored on hand and belonging to the bank	2,316 96 / 1231 96	$3,227 11
Amount subject to be drawn at sight on deposit with solvent banks or bankers (specifying names and locations of the banks):
Continental Nat'l Bk. Chicago, Ill.	1,168 80
Merchants Nat'l Bk. Cedar Rapids, Iowa	2,292 62
Drovers Deposit National B Chicago, Ill	791 21
Farmers Nat'l Bk. Garner, Iowa	4,125 10
Century Savings Bk. Des Moines, Iowa	2,137 36	10,515 09
Overdrafts secured	1,743 27
Expense account		1,743 27
Value of real property (owned by the Bank)	9,949 34
Value of personal property [owned by the bank]	1,784 92	11,734 26
Total Assets		134,792 75

LIABILITIES

Amount of capial stock actually paid up in cash		15.000 00
Total amount due depositors, as follows:
Amount sight deposits	29.319.47
Amount time deposits	79,579.02	108,898.49
Indebtedness of every kind, due banks, bankers, or persons other than regular depositors:
Surplus fund	10,500 00
Other profits on hand (after deducting taxes and expenses)	394 26	10,894 26
Total Liabilities		134.792.75
Amount of all liabilities to the Bank on par of its directors:
as borrowers	5,085 74
as endorsers	3,632 82	8,718.56

STATE OF IOWA, HANCOCK COUNTY. } ss.

We, W. R. Bloom, President and P. M. Griesemer, Cashier, of the Bank above named, do solemnly swear that the foregoing statement is full, true and correct, to the best of our knowledge and belief, that the assets therein set forth are bona fide the propery of said Bank in its corporate capacity and that no part of the same has been loaned or advanced to said Bank for the purpose of being exhibited as a portion of its assets.

W. R. BLOOM, President.
P. M. GRIESEMER, Cashier.

SEAL — Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence by W. R. Bloom and P. M. Griesemer, this 16th day of August, A. D. 1909.

F. E. BLACKSTONE,
Notary Public in and for Hancock County

Attested by:

J. F. Hartfelder, }
Joseph E. Johnson, } Directors.

Bank With the — IT PAYS

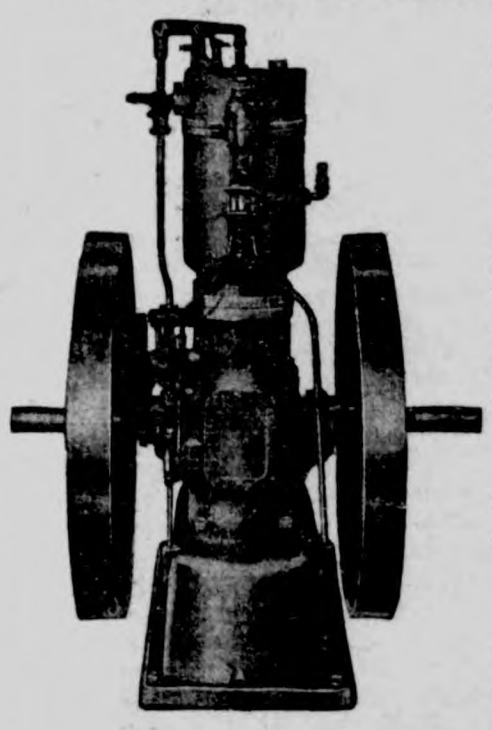
FIRST NATIONAL
Capital, $25,000

It's Many Safeguards for the People's Money:

It's large capital,
It's alert Board of Directors,
It's conservative policy

are for

YOUR PROTECTION



Save work, worry, money by using a

STOVER GASOLINE ENGINE

Made right—sold right. Send for an illustrated catalog of our wind mills and feed grinders.

ENGINES

Sandwich Mfg. Co.

Mason City, Iowa — General Agents

The Crime of Idleness

Idleness means trouble for anyone. Its the same with a lazy liver. It causes constipation, headache, jaundice, sallow complexion, pimples and blotches, loss of appetite, nausea, but Dr. King's New Life Pills soon banish liver troubles and build up your health. 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

The New Tariff Law

(From Wallaces' Farmer.)

The tariff bill is now a law. Some changes were made in the bill after it reached the conference committee, the most important being the elimination of the duty on hides, putting them on the free list. Some minor changes were made in the shoe and leather schedules, but nothing which affords the farmer and stockman adequate compensation for the reduction of $1.00 to $1.50 per head on the cattle he owns because of the removal of the hide duty.

A careful analysis of the bill will show that the interests of the consumers of the entire country, and of the producers of the west, received very little consideration. The tariff has been revised for the benefit of the highly protected interests; the consumer has not counted.

No matter how great the seeming victory of the protected interests, they cannot escape the after effects. The discussions in the senate in which the Iowa senators, Dolliver and Cummins, have taken conspicuous and honorable parts, have educated the people, and especially the western people, in a way nothing else would have done. The utter perfidy of both political parties in the matter of tariff revision must be apparent to everyone Heretofore western farmers have believed that when one of the great parties made pledges in its platform that it would do certain things if entrusted with power it would keep its pledges or at least make an honest effort to keep them. Neither party has done this. And President Taft, whose pledges for downward revision were most direct and specific, has permitted himself to be fooled, and placed in a position where he must assent to the bunco game. Had he taken a firm stand at the beginning and insisted on the redemption of the party pledges, he would have won easily. Failing to do this, had he kept entirely out of the discussion until the bill passed Congress, he would have been in a position to veto it if in his judgment it did not meet the needs of the situation. He waited until the measure went into the conference committee, when it was too late to bring about any real downward revision (except to take away the duty on hides) and thus committed himself to an endorsement of the bill when it finally passed. The president permitted the Aldrich crowd to bring discredit upon him as well as upon the republican party.

People from one end of the country to the other will now understand definitely that on the tariff question there is no difference between the parties. When the eloquent republican stump speakers advocate "protection to infant industries" and the democrats "tariff reform" the people will simply laugh in derision. They have seen democrats of the south and from Tammany working hand in glove with the republicans representing the protected industries.

Furthermore, they will see as never before that the tariff is really a local issue, involving no moral principle whatever, nor even a party principle. The sole question is how one section of the country can get an advantage over the others, and how these selfish interests can be combined for the aggrandizement of certain organizations of capitalists. Grave and dignified senators have been re-enacting

(Continued on 8th page.)

OPTOMETRY BOARD

Many Applications Are Being Received for Certificates.

EXAMINATIONS IN SEPTEMBER

Will Raise the Standards of Practice, So Secretary L. A. Thomas Thinks—Many Ask to Take Examinations.

Des Moines, Aug. 14.—Many applications for optometry certificates are being received by Dr. L. A. Thomas, secretary of the state board of health. The new law passed by the last general assembly states that opticians who have practiced for five years or more may receive what is called a "renewal certificate," thus exempting them from taking the examinations given by the new optometry board in September.

Already forty-five letters have been received by Dr. Thomas asking for the certificates and as fast as possible the cases are being investigated and the permits forwarded.

The proposed issuing of these certificates caused considerable discussion at the time of the passage of the law. According to decisions of the supreme court the doctors fitting glasses, etc., were regarded in the same light as medical practitioners. Thus a bill allowing a certificate on condition of five years' alleged violation of the law was claimed to be against public policy and contradictory to laws already enacted. But the supporters of the reform pushed it through, claiming that the change in the requirements could not be made all at once.

"The new board of optometry will raise the standards, I believe," said Dr. L. A. Thomas. "The first examinations come the latter part of September and already many of the applicants are preparing themselves for the exams at a special school started at Still college."

Postal Gain is 18 Per Cent.

That the business of Des Moines is increasing at a remarkable rate is evidenced by the report of postal receipts made public by George B. Garton, treasurer of the postoffice. It showed a gain of 18 per cent in the business done during the month of July, 1909, over the same period during 1908 and an increase of nearly twice that amount over that done during the month of July, 1907. Following are his figures:

July, 1909	$54,573.09
July, 1908	46.435.21
Increase	$ 8,435.88

Test Iowa Coal in Brick Kilns.

If the Shackelford Brick company's $75,000 continuous kiln is a success, $2,000,000 will be spent in two years by brick and tile manufacturers in and around Des Moines for the construction of similar kilns. Iowa's brick industry will be revolutionized and a mammoth glass factory will be established in Des Moines. The Shackelford company is spending almost $100,000 for an experiment to determine whether Iowa coal is gas producing. If it is the cost of fuel to manufacturers will be reduced 60 per cent, or less than the cost of natural gas.

4,000 Corporations Answer.

Four thousand Iowa corporations have complied with the provisions of the new law by sending to Secretary of State W. C. Hayward the required information and fee. Eleven thousand notices were sent out from the secretary's office. Letters have been returned and notices received accounting for 3,500 corporations which have gone out of business. This leaves 3,500 more corporations which must respond to the notification of the state before the time limit is reached.

Do Not Work Too Hard.

To oppose Roosevelt's "strenuous life" and to prevent people from overworking, Dr. A. E. Kepford, state tuberculosis expert, wrote President George E. MacLean of the State University of Iowa advocating the installation at Iowa City of a laboratory to study overstrain and fatigue, and prevent them wherever possible.

Merchants Bankrupt.

A first dividend of 40 per cent was declared on the bankrupt stock of Longnecker Bros., Farrar, Ia., merchants, adjudged bankrupt a month ago by W. H. Cathcart, the trustee. The total liabilities of the firm were $4,500.

Lodges to Hold Annual Picnic.

Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors of Des Moines and Valley Junction will hold their annual picnic at Union park Wednesday, Aug. 25.

Sort Old State Warrants.

J. F. Kelley, head of the state department of archives, is just finishing the laborious task of sorting and classifying 150,000 warrants issued by the state of Iowa. The warrants date back to No. 1, which was issued on March 12, 1840. No warrant blanks had been printed at that time, and the first one was written on a sheet of paper by T. Williams, territorial auditor of public acounts. It was for the sum of $28 and was made payable to Henry King. A blank form had been printed before it became necessary to issue No. 2. This was issued on June 3, 1840, to John F. Rague & Co., who built the capitol building at Iowa City. The warrant was for $10,000, and constituted the first payment on the new capitol.

Takes Place of Miss Garrison.

The Rev. Agnes Brookmiller, president of the woman's missionary board of the United Brethren church, has been elected superintendent of the Benedict home at Fort Dodge, to succeed Miss Hattie Garrison who was appointed matron of the reform school for girls at Mitchellville. Mrs. Emily Dodge of Algona has been elected matron of the Benedict home. Mrs. Dodge is district superintendent for the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Ida Wise of Des Moines, vice president of the W. C. T. U., is in temporary charge of the home.

Will Claim Excess on Freight.

Des Moines, Iowa.—Having received official notice from the Rock Island railroad company that it will contest in the courts the recent decision of the interstate commerce commission, Freight Commissioner E. G. Wylie announced at the meeting of the Greater Des Moines committee that Des Moines shippers should retaliate by filing claims against the railways for the return of excess freight charges paid during the last two years.

Government Road Agens.

Secretary James Wilson of the department of agriculture will furnish expert lecturers on corn and good roads at the corn exposition to be held in Des Moines this fall, according to a letter received by the Commercial club. With the lecturers will come a great amount of information and pictures of good roads. Moving pictures of various kinds of roads built in this country will be shown at the exposition.

Iowa Florists Meet In Des Moines.

Iowa florists will gather in Des Moines September 1 for their annual meeting. The date of the yearly session of the Society of Iowa Florists has been set in state fair week and the gathereing will be held in the rooms of the State Horticultural society in the capitol building at 8 o'clock on the Wednesday evening of fair week.

Made It Hot for Game Wardens.

Mrs. Nettie La See, fat, fair and forty, armed with a vocabulary the envy of an army teamster, nearly put to route Deputy Game Wardens Brees and Hall at the mouth of Beaver Creek, when the game wardens swooped down upon the alleged illegal lines and nets of her husband, Louis, and his brother, Ed, and confiscated them.

Mrs. Cutler Secures Divorce.

Anna M. Cutler was divorced in the district court from Edwin M. Cutler. Judge McHenry signed the decree. Mrs. Cutler gets property valued at $35,000 in settlement of her alimony claims. She also receives the care and custody of their minor child. The alimony is the largest in Polk county courts in many years.

Van Duyn Defends Child Labor Law.

Complaints by the probation officers that as a result of the state child labor law many children under 14 years of age get into juvenile court because they have no work to keep them out of mischief have brought out a defense of the law from State Labor Commissioner Van Duyn.

To Teach Drake Students.

John J. Halloran of the firm of Halloran & Starkey and Casper Schenk of the law firm of Schenk & Berryhill, were elected to the law faculty of Drake university. Mr. Halloran succeeds H. F. Dale, who resigned. Mr. Schenk will give instruction in corporation law.

New Alligator at Menagerie.

A baby alligator has been added to the menagerie at Union Park. The little amphibian was presented to Councilman Ash by Sergent Tom Denholm, of the police, and was sent out to the park at once as company for the one already there.

Board Purchases Detention Home.

The Polk county board of supervisors by a vote of three to two decided to purchase the Nelson property on Hull avenue for a juvenile detention home at a price of $8,000, which is $1,000 in excess of the limit allowed by law.

HEAD-ON COLLISION

Rio Grande Passenger Trains in Deadly Crash.

TEN KILLED AND MANY HURT

Disaster Near Husted, Colo., Between Colorado Springs and Palmer Lake, Caused by Failure to Obey Orders.

Two Iowans were injured in the wreck near Colorado Springs—E. C. Tannehill of Des Moines had his arm broken, and John Reinhart of Carson had a leg broken.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Aug. 16.—Nine persons are dead and others are expected to die, between forty and fifty are injured, three engines are in the ditch, two baggage cars, including the contents ,are smashed to kindling wood, and several passenger coaches are badly damaged as the result of a head-on collision between eastbound passenger train No. 8 and westbound passenger No. 1 on the Denver & Rio Grande near Husted, thirteen miles north of this city, Saturday night.

The wreck was due to a misunderstanding of orders, it is said. As No. 8 drew into Husted at about forty miles an hour, the crew of the engine saw a light engine standing on the switch north of the station. Mistaking the engine for the second section of No. 1, the crew did not stop and went through the station as fast as the two engines could draw the thirteen heavily laden coaches.

As soon as the train got out of the station, the engineer of the first engine of No. 8 saw another train coming slowly down the incline. He slammed on the air brakes and the emergency brakes and then shouted to the other members of the two crews to jump. Before they had time to jump No. 8 had rammed No. 1 so hard that all three engines lay in the ditch.

A relief train bearing physicians, surgeons and nurses was hurried to the rescue from this city; a wrecking crew was sent up from Pueblo. The dead and injured were brought to this city on the special and on No. 1.

Heroic work in helping the injured was done by a party of women tourists.

The dead: James Roseporka, Chicago; C. M. Larkin, Colorado Springs; C. S. Brown, Jerico Springs, Mo.; J. A. Gossage, fireman on engine No. 8, Colorado Springs; T. E. Murphy, traveling car agent, Denver; A. A. Davison, McPherson, Kas.; Attorney F. G. Frederick, St. Louis; F. W. Beless, Colorado Springs. James J. Parker, Chicago; Peter Nelson, Monroe, Neb..

An engineer was killed while beating his way to Denver, riding in the lead engine of the double-header. A portion of a body is reported to have been found at the scene of the wreck, but this is not confirmed.

The injured: Andrew Jacobson, Oldham, S. D., internal injuries; Elmer Jokisch, Virginia Falls, Ill., leg broken; J. I. Frank, McPherson, Kans., leg and head cut; F. J. Sedlacik, St. Louis, head cut, legs broken; Mrs. T. M. Randolph, Okmulgee, Okla., internal injuries; Fay Steck, Kansas City, slightly injured; John W. Roberts, Cambria, Mo., head cut, legs broken; E. C. Whitsidd, Jerico Springs, Mo., back injured; Henry C. Shipman, 1572 Kimball avenue, Chicago, ribs and leg broken; J. W. Leafgren, Axtell, Neb., legs cut; O. C. Skinner, Topeka, Kans., ribs broken; E. C. Tannehill, Des Moines, arm broken; John Reinhart, Carson, Ia., leg broken; Mrs. D. K. Seaton, Harrisburg, Ill., taken to the Acacia hotel, is suffering from a broken back. Her death is expected; G. H. McCreary of Dallas, Tex., severely injured; Eugene H. Harlacher, Eau Claire, Wis., slightly bruised; D. C. Hogan, Glouster, O., cut on back of head, slightly injured; Emil Kauther, 215 John street, Chicago, severely injured; Mrs. D. K. Heton, Harrisburg, Ill., sprained back, slightly injured; W. L. Ball, Decatur, Ill., sprained ankle.

Census Enumerators Named.

Washington, Aug. 16—President Taft has named the following census enumerators for Iowa:

First District—John W. Rowley of Keosouqua.

Second District—Asa A. Hall.

Seventh District—Sam Culbertson of Knoxville.

Burdette Not So Well.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 16.—The condition of Rev. Robert J. Burdette, the noted humorist and preacher, is not so favorable as it has been according to the report of his physicians. He is suffering intensely from sciatic rheumatism.

Chases Dirt

Old Dutch Cleanser

Once you learn how much easier, quicker and better you can keep your entire house in spic and span condition with this handy, all-round, mechanical cleanser, you will never use old-fashioned, destructive caustic and acid cleaners again. Old Dutch Cleanser

Cleans, Scrubs, Scours, Polishes

It takes the place of soap, soap-powders, scouring-bricks and metal-polishes, and saves you time, labor and money.

If your dealer does not keep Old Dutch Cleanser send us his name and 10 cents in stamps (the regular price) and we'll gladly pay 22 cents postage to send you a full-size can. Also write for our free booklet, "Hints for Housewives."

CUDAHY—OMAHA—MAKER

Large, Sifting-Top Can 10c

Wise is the man who closes his face before he says too much.

Ladies who take pride in clear, white clothes should use the new RUSS BLUE. Sold by grocers.

When a woman gets really sick she begins to wonder if she will look good in a halo.

Indigestion takes wings when the refreshing perfume of WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT is flying around!

Seeks the Man.

Tommy—Pop, what is the office that seeks the man?

Tommy's Pop—The tax office, my son.—Philadelphia Record.

Providential.

Mother—Why should we make Willie a doctor when there are so many new doctors every year?

Father—But think of all the new ailments!

Prepared for the Worst.

"How long had your wife's first husband been dead when you married her?"

"About eight months."

"Only eight months? Don't you think she was in a good deal of a hurry?"

"Oh, I don't know. We had been engaged for nearly two years."

Severe.

Samuel Gompers was talking in the smkoeroom of the Baltic about a recent newspaper attack on a rich corporation.

"It was a cruel attack," Mr. Gompers chuckled. "It was as cruel as the Jonesville Clarion's paragraph about old Deacon Hiram Ludlow.

"This paragraph header the Clarion's obituary column. It said:

"'Deacon Hiram Ludlow of Frisble township, aged 82, passed peacefully away on Thursday last from single blessedness to matrimonial bliss after a short but severe attack by Maria Higgins, a blooming widow of 37 summers.'"—Detroit Journal.

The man who does his best trust the world to do its part.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c

Too many men try to build a scraper on a one-story foundation

The more WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT they would chew—

The better their digestion grows.

Ought to Be.

"Is the man you recommend capable of good head work?"

"Well, he's a barber."

A Green One.

"Do you look for news of Howe's hunting trip in the sporting column?"

"No, in the obituaries."—Life.

An Argive Cowherd.

Argus was boasting of his 100 eyes.

"Think of putting on 50 pairs of goggles when you want to motor," he cried.

Never Satisfied.

Her—Oh, oh! Something's creeping down my back!

Him—Well, you'd make just as much fuss if it was crawling up your back. Let it alone.—Cleveland Leader.

Well, What?

"Pa!"

"Johnny, leave me alone and don't ask me another question!"

"Aw, jest one more an' then I'll keep still."

"Well, what is it?"

"What relation is a cousin german to a Dutch uncle?"—Cleveland Leader.

Fitted for the Job.

The general consulted the topographical chart. "You understand, colonel," he said, "that this charge on the enemy's fortification necessitates the most reckless disregard for human life?" "I understand, general," the colonel replied. "The forlorn hope that leads the movement will be composed exclusively of amateur chauffeurs."

Ready Cooked.

The crisp, brown flakes of

Post Toasties

Come to the breakfast table right, and exactly right from the package—no bother; no delay.

They have body too; these Post Toasties are firm enough to give you a delicious substantial mouthful before they melt away. "The Taste Lingers."

Sold by Grocers.

Made by POSTUM CEREAL CO., LIMITED.

BATTLE CREEK, MICHIGAN.

omances of Progress

By Albert Payson Terhune

ROBERT FULTON—The Man Who Beat Bad Luck.

day in 1806 a pale, thin man, shock of dark hair, landed in York. He was a failure. Nine- ears earlier, full of high hopes rtistic talent, he had sailed for nd to complete his education as rait painter. News had reached tive land that the young artist oolishly abandoned his chosen gion and had set to work on crazy mechanical contrivance could only prove useless. And reports showed the truth of fears, for young Robert Fulton eturning to his native land poor nsuccessful.

was the sort of man who literal- udes ideas. All of them were mechanical nature. While in nd he helped support himself by inventing apparatus for making ropes. Then he ght to Help eon's Navy.

d the first marine torpedo and it a submarine boat for naval re. He went to France, which hen at war with England, and to interest Napoleon in these. o far succeeded that he was al- to test them before a commis- Though the submarine boat remain under water for hours ould be guided at will, its speed low and it could made no prog- against the current. So the h government rejected it. Next as ordered to launch his torpe- at the British fleet off Brest. The ctiles failed to do any damage.

e laughing stock of all Europe, disappointed American returned w York. His friend, Robert Liv- on, lent him enough money to one more trial at the steamship. nt to England for one of Watt's es and, profiting by his own for- mistakes, started work on his and improved steamer. It was in an East river shipyard. It me customary for crowds to go nd watch the course of the boat's truction. Fulton christened it the mont. But it was popularly known Fulton's Folly." Fulton himself d to this ridicule by prophesying in a few years a steamboat would ble to cross the Atlantic. Such a forecast was derided as sheer insanity.

At last, on August 11, 1807, the Clermont was launched and started on her maiden trip to Albany. All New York turned out to make fun of the weird boat. And in looks the Clermont was worthy the derision she excited. She had a 140-foot keel and was 16½ feet wide. A single smoke-stack, fully 50 feet high, rose from her deck and her twin paddle wheels looked like the sails of a windmill. As she moved through the water an avalanche of sparks, fire and black smoke poured from the stack and the roar of the machinery and paddle wheels could be heard for miles.

She was a success. Fulton was vindicated. And now the inventor, who had heretofore been looked on as a harmless crank, was the nation's hero. He built other and faster steamboats in rapid succession. In 1812 he constructed the first steam ferry boat. Two years later he made the first steam warship, a 44-gun frigate, named "Fulton the First." Wealth and honors began to pour in on him. But just as he was about to reap the reward of his years of toil and misfortune he found his patents disputed and became involved in a maze of lawsuits. Most of these latter he lost.

Became in a Day the Nation's Hero.

His mind and nature embittered and his purse depleted by litigation; his health undermined by exposure from working out of doors in his shipyard during bad weather, Robert Fulton died in 1815, when only 49 years old.

He was buried in Trinity churchyard, New York, where a large monument has since been erected over his grave. There he lies, midway between the two rivers, every one of whose thousands of steam craft is a more sublime monument to his memory than any mausoleum which mortal hands could raise above the grave of the man who did so much for Progress and whom his fellow countrymen rewarded with ridicule and injustice.

(Copyrighted.)

AMUEL MORSE --- The Man Who Abolished Time and Space

American artist, coming home 832 after a successful career as ter and sculptor in Europe, sed his fellow passengers during voyage by explaining to them a r theory he was working out. The t was Samuel B. F. Morse, a New lander, who had been graduated Yale at 18 and had, like Robert on, gone to England to study art r Benjamin West. In his spare ents he dabbled, for recreation, electrical experiments. On the e-bound ship he had met a Dr. son, who had interested him still er in this subject. The theory which Morse entertained the oth- assengers was as follows:

has been proved that an elec- l current will pass instantaneous- long a wire of any length. If this ent is interrupted at any point a k will appear. Why not let such ark or succession of sparks repre- some part of speech—a letter, ber or other sound-symbol?

hen he petitioned congress for an ropriation in order that he might up an experimental line from Bal- re to Washington. The request was refused. Then he went to England and tried atent his invention. He failed. would other European countries st him. Every one seemed to on the telegraph as a useless, racticable fantasy.

ack to America came Morse, and e more went to Washington, where moved heaven and earth to get gress to appropriate $30,000 for telegraph. His efforts seemed in , and on the last evening congress in session in 1843 he went to his ings heartbroken and without e. This was the lowest ebb of his une. Without prospects, penni- , more than 50 years old, his in- tion everywhere rejected, he med to be one of the century's t abject failures.

arly next morning a young girl ed to see him. She was the ghter of the commissioner of pat- , and she brought the discouraged entor glorious news. At midnight, ost on the minute of adjournment, gress had voted Morse the $30,000 ropriation.

ng Struggle Congress.

he work of building the line from shington to Baltimore was begun once. In a year it was complete. May, 1844, the first message was . It was dictated by the girl who had brought Morse news of the appropriation, and it read: "What hath God wrought!" Now that the scheme was so triumphant a success it was at once adopted all over the world. But Dr. Jackson, who had talked over the subject with Morse on shipboard so many years before, now brought suit, claiming credit for all the latter had accomplished. The suit (unlike so many in which progress makers have been engaged) was decided in Morse's favor. Henceforth his way was smooth. European countries raised for him a testimonial of $80,000, and wealth and honors poured in from all sides.

Now that it was found easy to telegraph across limitless stretches of land, the next step was to attempt the laying of telegraph wires under water. It was found that by insulating these wires a cable could be laid under the English channel from England to France. Then came the idea of the Atlantic cable. That also originated with Morse. But here began a new series of setbacks and disappointments that dragged on for many years. Two Cyrus W. Field, who was the chief promoter of the scheme, would not give up, even in the face of these repeated disappointments. Through his efforts a third cable was attempted and this time was carried safely across the ocean. Electric communication was established. A monster ovation was planned in Field's honor. But on the very day it was to occur the cable again collapsed. For seven years nothing more was done. The project was abandoned as useless. Yet Field did not despair. At last, in 1860, the first permanent and practicable line was laid.

An Atlantic Cable at Last.

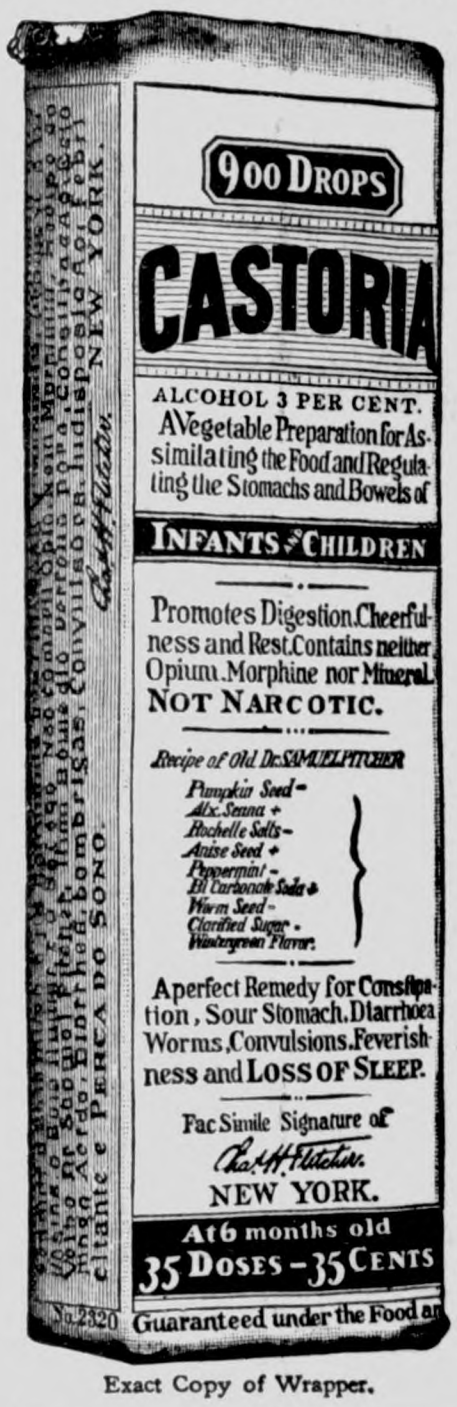
But to Morse above all others praise for telegraphy is due. He made no original electrical discoveries. In fact, various other men, while he was perfecting his machine, made more or less futile experiments along the same line. But it remained for Morse to combine all previous electric inventions and discoveries and put them to their first great practical uses. He lived to see that little strand of wire which in 1843 he stretched between two nearby cities extend until it had knit the whole civilized world in one mighty bond that revolutionized commerce, news and history itself; and forever annihilated time and space.

(Copyrighted.)

What is Castoria.

CASTORIA is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.



Exact Copy of Wrapper.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. F. Gerald Blattner, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "Your Castoria is good for children and I frequently prescribe it, always obtaining the desired results."

Dr. Gustave A. Eisengraeber, of St. Paul, Minn., says: "I have used your Castoria repeatedly in my practice with good results, and can recommend it as an excellent, mild and harmless remedy for children."

Dr. E. J. Dennis, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have used and prescribed your Castoria in my sanitarium and outside practice for a number of years and find it to be an excellent remedy for children."

Dr. S. A. Buchanan, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have used your Castoria in the case of my own baby and find it pleasant to take, and have obtained excellent results from its use."

Dr. J. E. Simpson, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in children and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market."

Dr. R. E. Eskildson, of Omaha, Neb., says: "I find your Castoria to be a standard family remedy. It is the best thing for infants and children I have ever known and I recommend it."

Dr. L. R. Robinson, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria certainly has merit. Is not its age, its continued use by mothers through all these years, and the many attempts to imitate it, sufficient recommendation? What can a physician add? Leave it to the mothers."

Dr. Edwin F. Pardee, of New York City, says: "For several years I have recommended your Castoria and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

Dr. N. B. Sizer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I object to what are called patent medicines, where maker alone knows what ingredients are put in them, but I know the formula of your Castoria and advise its use."

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS
Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

It is called SPEARMINT because of this spear on every package

Enjoy the lasting flavor of real delicious crushed mint-leaves

THOUSANDS OF TESTIMONIALS from grateful users have demonstrated that eruptions, inflammation and irritation of the skin, shingles, tetter, itching and inflamed piles, will promptly respond to the local application of

RESINOL

and their reports of the excellent results obtained furnish unquestionable proof of the value of this remedy. 50c a jar, all druggists, or sent direct on receipt of price. RESINOL CHEMICAL COMPANY, BALTIMORE, MD.

"It is as good for horses and dogs as for mankind."
W. P. Schmitz, Veterinarian, Hillsdale, Mass.

HAMLINS WIZARD OIL GREAT FOR PAIN
THE OIL THAT PENETRATES

DAISY FLY KILLER placed anywhere attracts and kills all flies. Neat, clean, ornamental, convenient, cheap. Lasts all season. Cannot spill or tip over, will not soil or injure anything. Guaranteed effective. Of all dealers, or sent prepaid for 20c. Harold Somers, 150 De Kalb Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

MINNESOTA LAND FOR SALE

I sell direct to the Farmer. No Agents, no Middlemen, no exorbitant commissions. If you want a good home in one of the best parts of the United States where land is selling for less than one-half its real value, write or call on H. L. WOOD, Cashier First National Bank, Warren, Minn.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE FLAVOR LASTS

A-B-C Liniment Cures Rheumatism, stops all pain, brings immediate relief. At all Druggist.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water

DEFIANCE STARCH easiest to work with and starches clothes nicest.

Paxtine
TOILET ANTISEPTIC
—NOTHING LIKE IT FOR—

THE TEETH Paxtine excels any dentifrice in cleansing, whitening and removing tartar from the teeth, besides destroying all germs of decay and disease which ordinary tooth preparations cannot do.

THE MOUTH Paxtine used as a mouth-wash disinfects the mouth and throat, purifies the breath, and kills the germs which collect in the mouth, causing sore throat, bad teeth, bad breath, grippe, and much sickness.

THE EYES when inflamed, tired, ache and burn, may be instantly relieved and strengthened by Paxtine.

CATARRH Paxtine will destroy the germs that cause catarrh, heal the inflammation and stop the discharge. It is a sure remedy for uterine catarrh.

Paxtine is a harmless yet powerful germicide, disinfectant and deodorizer. Used in bathing it destroys odors and leaves the body antiseptically clean.

FOR SALE AT DRUG STORES, 50c. OR POSTPAID BY MAIL.

LARGE SAMPLE FREE!

THE PAXTON TOILET CO., BOSTON, MASS.

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Books free. Highest references. Best results.

SEMA CREAM removes tan, sunburn, freckles and pimples. 10c size by mail. J. R. Cagwin, Ames, Ia.

Is Your Health Worth 10c?

That's what it costs to get a—week's treatment—of CASCARETS. They do more for you than any medicine on Earth. Sickness generally shows and starts first in the Bowels and Liver; CASCARETS cure these ills. It's so easy to try—why not start tonight and have help in the morning?

CASCARETS 10c a box for a week's treatment, all druggists. Biggest seller in the world. Million boxes a month. 905

WRIGLEY'S

Shave Yourself
NO STROPPING NO HONING
TRADE Gillette MARK
KNOWN THE WORLD OVER

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c, and $1.00 at Druggists.

WRIGLEY WRIGLEY WRIGLEY

GROCERIES & HARDWARE

We always have on hand a complete line. Our Groceries are always new and fresh and the line comprises all the staples and a dandy line of Canned Goods. Our line of Shelf and Heavy Hardware is complete. We invite you to call and inspect our goods.

We want you to see us about

OILS

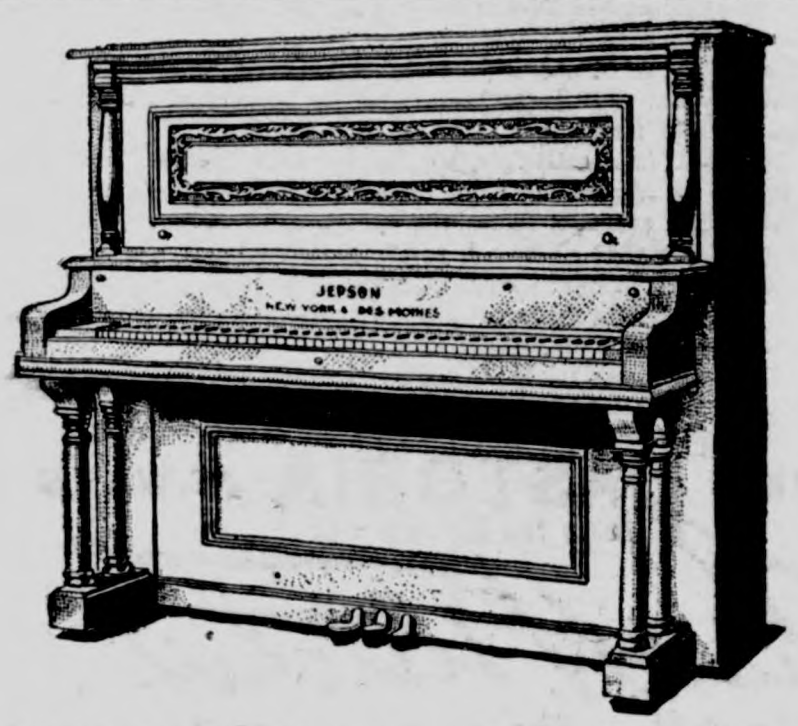
Threshing season will soon be here. Our oils are the very best. Don't forget us.

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA



MUSICAL GOODS

Pianos Six different styles, guaranteed to be right in tone, artistic in design and perfection in construction. Give us a chance to demonstrate these instruments to you. The prices on these instruments will surprise you.

SMOKERS SUPPLIES of every description—From the old familiar Missouri Meerschaum to the real genuine article. All the leading brands of Tobacco.

PRESCRIPTIONS—Bring them to us. They will be correctly compounded. A full line of Patent Medicines of every manufacture.

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile. both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, AGENT

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

Some Plant Diseases

During the past year a fungus disease of millet appeared at various places in Iowa. The botanical section of the Iowa Experiment Station found upon investigation that the disease was millet smut, a trouble very common in the millet growing sections of Europe. It was probably imported to this country in seed brought from Germany. Professor Pammel finds that the disease can be prevented by soaking the seed for two hours in a solution of one pound of formalin to forty-five gallons of water.

A full account of this disease, together with other fungus diseases affecting millet, wheat, oats, beans and melons, is given in Bulletin No. 104, of the Iowa Experiment Station. This bulletin has just been received from the printer. and may be obtained free of charge by applying to Director C. F. Curtiss, Iowa Experiment Station, Ames, Iowa

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Never Known to Fail

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend," says H. S Nichols, of Oakland, Ind. For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

New Decorative Idea.

The hostes who wishes something different is asked to try using striped and fancy grasses, rushes and little wild foliage plants that grow in damp places and along streams. A table can be made very pretty with these, using no flowers. Try it.

Washington's Plague Spots

lie in the low, marshy bottoms of the Potomac, the breeding ground of malaria germs. These germs cause chills, fever and ague, billiousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility and bring suffering or death to thousands yearly. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "They are the best all-round tonic and cure for malaria I ever used," writes R. M. James of Louellen, S. C. They cure stomach, liver. kidney and blood troubles and will prevent typhoid. Try them, 50c. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

An Agitator.

"There goes a man who has done much to arouse the people."

"Great labor agitator, eh?"

"No. Manufacturer of alarm clocks."

Twas a Glorious Victory

There's rejoicing in Fedora, Tenn. A man's life has been saved, and now Dr. King's New Discovery is the talk of the town for curing C. V. Pepper of deadly lung hemorrhages. "I could not work nor get about," he writes, "and the doctor did me no good, but, after using Dr. King's New Discovery three weeks I feel like a new man and can do good work again." For weak, sore or diseased lungs, coughs and colds, hemorrhages, hay fever, la-grippe, asthma or any bronchial affection it stands unrivaled. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold and guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

One Dollar

Mr. Farmer---It costs but a trifle more to buy printed letter heads and envelopes than it does to use any old thing, and certainly it looks more business-like to use printed stationery For a limited time we offer you 100 sheets good writing paper and 100 good envelopes, printed with your name and address, both for $1.00. Give us your order now.

The Times Printery

DON'T FORGET

This store when you need anything in the line of Hardware and Farm Implements. Full line of Heaters, Cook Stoves and Ranges. The best makes in Farm Machinery. We also handle the best Paints, Oils and Varnish.

Groceries, Flour and Feed

Our prices are right. You are invited to call

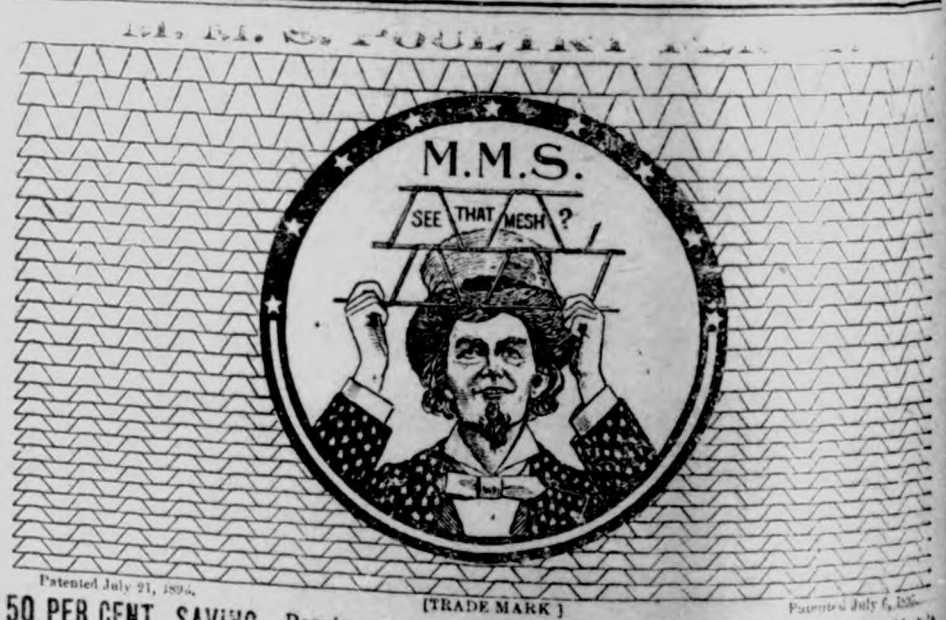
GRUETZMACHER BROS.

THRESHING COAL

The very best grades in Hocking Valley, Wineferd Splint, Indiana Block, Sootless and Washed Egg. Call and get prices.

Highest Market Price Paid for Grain and Live Stock Six Days in the Week

H. C. LAU



Patented July 21, 1896. [TRADE MARK] Patented July 6, 1897.

50 PER CENT. SAVING. Requires no top or bottom rail and only ⅓ as many posts as the old style netting and makes a better fence. A full line of Field and Hog Fencing, Steel Picket Lawn Fence, Gates, Posts, Rail, etc. Write for full particulars.

UNION FENCE CO., De Kalb, Ill.

Elkhart Buggies

are the best made, best grade and easiest riding buggies on earth for the money.

FOR THIRTY-SIX YEARS

we have been selling direct and are The Largest Manufacturers in the World selling to the consumer exclusively.

We ship for examination and approval, guaranteeing safe delivery, and also to save you money. If you are not satisfied as to style, quality and price you are nothing out.

May We Send You Our Large Catalogue?

Elkhart Carriage & Harness Mfg. Co.

Elkhart, - - - - Indiana

Price $56.00 With Twin Auto Seat

KLEMME MARKET.

.....	58 to 60c
.....	33 to 36c
.....	80 to 90
.....	38 to 45c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	6.75 to 7.10
.....	3.00 to 6.00

CAL NEWS

fruits at Kluckhohn's.

Lau shipped two cars of nday morning.

inest line of candies in Kluckhohn's. 45tf nd Mrs. Lew Lewis o Belmond and return forget the Britt base rnament on August 25,

s Hulda and Esther acher were Garner vis- iday.

ighest market price paid try. Bring it to us. H. on. 3-2

Palmer and Joe Miller unty seat visitors on last Friday.

E. A. Baker leaves this Minneapolis for a few sit with friends.

e cream social given by s of the English M. E. last Saturday evening e well attended.

zmacher Bros. have torn wooden walk in front of achine shed, and will new one of cement.

e told that the Nissen ative Patent Co. has re final action on its double tman and that the pat- been allowed,

O'Brien, aged 70 years, ck by lightning and in- tilled at the farm of his ord, seven miles north- Britt, on the afternoon st 5th.

leman with eight trick d forth to a large and ly appreciative audi- our street Tuesday ev- Three of the dogs were ll trained, one doing a re stunt and another rough the waltz act in creditable manner. It e a good little enter-

Church and Fred Runge ch recently purchased the famous Robinson spreaders sold by J. W. These gentlemen have ed this spreader and to be all O. K., just s claimed for it If you king of buying a spread Mr. Scott about the . 1w einmaier was here last m his home at Morris, nding to business mat- e is the owner of the t of Klemme occupied son Bros. He reports Illinois oat crop is way Iowa's but he didn't same about the corn. e acknowledges a very call from Mr. Klein-obliged to take it for ll sell it out cheap; ss Stock Food. ss Poultry Panacea. ss Instant Louse Kill- ss Hog Worm Powder. d at G. F. Schuler's Iowa.

John Hartfelder was at Meservey Saturday.

Roy Clark was here from Goodell Saturday.

Phillip Ell and wife were Garner callers Friday.

W. R. Bloom shipped a car of hogs Sunday morning.

Mrs. John Josten returned yesterday from St. Paul.

Fred Ralston shelled about 1200 bushels of corn last Saturday.

F. A Arnold was transacting business at the county seat yesterday.

Try Kluckhohn's ice cream soda with crushed fruit and you will become a regular customer.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Miner are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine new baby boy at their home yesterday.

Threshers Attention — W. R. Bloom has his threshing coal in, several varieties of the best qualities. Call and get prices. 51

The Times family is figuring on eating apples the coming winter. We were presented with some nice Duchess apples by Mrs. T. Blank.

See that your subscription to the Times is kept paid up. We do not like to dun anyone for a dollar, but Uncle Sam says we must keep our list paid up. How about your account with this paper?

Fred Haupt, one of our good farmer friends, drove up to our door and unloaded some fine roasting ears and a bushel of apples the other day. Fred is a capital, good fellow and he don't like to see a hungry editor.

That was certainly a hot ball game at Garner Monday. They do say that each one of the Clear Lake fellows carried a rabbit's foot and it is also rumored that the umpire favored the Lake boys. Score—Garner 4, Clear Lake 5, ten innings.

On looking over the new tariff bill, we were greatly relieved to find that the every-day household necessity, radium, is placed on the free list. Such consideration for the pocket-books of the "common peepul" is surely to be commended.

On Friday and Saturday of last week H C. Lau paid out $2,342.55 for 155 head of hogs which he took in on above two days. L. A. Dexter, from near Britt, received $884 45 for 49 hogs, and Messers Hopkey and Hoselton of near Meservey, also brought in 28 head. Klemme is pulling hard from a large surrounding territory, on account of the fine prices paid by our dealers for grain, stock, poultry, cream and all kinds of produce. When it comes to a matter of market, Klemme is always to be found right on the front seat.

Klemme will soon be entertaining the Northwest annual conference of the German Methodist Episcopal Church. For a small town this comes as quite an honor, and it behoves our people to see to it that their guests are well entertained and that our town puts on its very best appearance. This meeting will bring to Klemme some fifty or sixty clergymen and probably many influential members, as well as some of the high dignitaries of the church. The dates of the meeting are September 1st to 5th. You have plenty of lime to cut the weeds, clean up the streets and premises, and give these strangers a good impression of our big, little town Every citizen should take a pride in this and do his part.

Chas. Stiehl was a business visitor at Garner Monday.

Ice cream sodas, sundaes, and all kinds of cool refreshing drinks at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

I. E. Missman, of Garner, visited here last Sunday with his brother, Dr. W. F. Missman.

Mesdames G. W. Kluckhohn and John Gruetzmacher and Lola Kluckhohn were Garner visitors Monday.

Rev. McConnell, pastor of the Garner U. P. church, will fill the pulpit in the Klemme English M. E. church next Sunday morning and evening.

Miss Edna Boughton, of Belmond, visited here last week with Miss Fern Suckow. On Tuesday they went to Garner to visit with Neva Schuldt.

Mrs. Mary Suckow and two daughters, LaRue and Lucile, left Monday evening for their home at Unionville, Iowa, after a few weeks very pleasantly spent in visiting relatives and friends in and around Klemme.

We publish this week a statement of the condition of the State Savings Bank of Klemme at close of business on August 10th. By looking this over you will notice that this popular institution is enjoying a healthy and flourishing business, especially in the line of deposits

The past week has been a hot one, with numerous showers. The corn has been maturing rapidly and the rains have done an untold amount of good to gardens and pastures. The Hancock county corn crop this year gives promise of being a good one. Thrashing of small grain is being pushed rapidly.

Laura Stilson has filed notice of a suit for $5,000 damages against P. R. Gilligan on account of injuries received at the hands of defendant. It will be remembered that Miss Stilson was a domestic working in the Gilligan restaurant; in company with Mrs. Gilligan they were removing some furniture from the private rooms of Mr. Gilligan, when Mr. Gilligan shot and wounded each of them. The wife's suit for divorce is also on the docket for the coming term of court.—Kanawha Record.

German M. E. Church Items

Mrs. Hans Josten of Garner was in our burg Tuesday.

Geo. Gruetzmacher and wife called at the Geo. Ulrich place Sunday afternoon.

A number of our people are planning to go to the Des Moines State Fair next week.

John Gruetzmacher and family expect to move to their new home the last of this week.

Mrs. Louis Sampson and children returned Wednesday from their visit in Clayton county.

Ernest Wellemeyer returned Tuesday to assist his brother in the store, during the absence of Aug. Wenz.

Mrs Fritz, of Waterloo, was an over Sunday visitor with her brother, Geo. Ulrich of Germantown.

Raymond Gruetzmacher, of Charles City, arrived Tuesday evening to spend a few days with his kin folks.

A letter from Aug. Wenz informs us that his health is improving steadily and that he will be back in a week or ten days.

The subject of the sermon Sunday morning will be—Antinomianism, or Imputed vs. Imparted Righteousness.

Edw. Schaefer and family visited with C. C. Suckow and family in Klemme Sunday.

John Josten and son Earl have been enjoying the pleasures of country life this week, during the absence of Mrs. Josten.

Quite a number of our people spent a day or so under the weather, possibly caused by the weather, usually called summer complaint.

Grandma Gruetzmacher's condition has been about the same for several weeks. She suffers a great deal at times, but her vitality is remarkable.

Klemme is undergoing a general cleaning up this year. More cement walks are put in than ever before. Trees are being trimmed and lawns kept clean and a general improvement has been going on. We think next in order ought to be a moral cleaning up.

The woman's missionary society of Klemme elected the following officers last week: President, Mrs. F. Arnold, 1st Vice President, Mrs. E. H. Lenz, 2nd Vice President, Mrs. G. H. Wessel, Secretary, Mrs. H. Griewe; Treasurer, Mrs. Chas. Stiehl; Cor. Secretary, Mrs. F. Gruetzmacher.

The following church officers were elected at the quarterly conference last week for the coming conference year: Stewards, John Gruetzmacher, E. H. Lenz, Louis Sampson, Wm. Bredlow, H. C. Beier, W. F. Stille and E. G. Beier. Registering steward, John Gruetzmacher; District steward, H. C. Beier; Trustees, H. Lau, T. Blank, E. H. Bettin, C. Albright, F. Gruetzmacher, H. L. Suckow, Chas. Bredlow, W. H. Kraus, G. I. Schaper and Albert Riemer,

Great Alteration Sale of Pianos

Hundreds of fine new pianos, forming a part of Lyon & Healy's magnificent stock, have got to be removed from the third floor of their building at the corner of Wabash Avenue and Adams Street, Chicago, because of putting in new flooring. In order to dispose of the pianos with greater facility, extraordinarily low prices have been affixed. These figures are phenomenonally low. Lyon & Healy are making a determined effort to close out this great stock of instruments within the next few weeks so that the carpenters may pursue their work unhampered, and the prices have been reduced with this object in view. Send for a copy of list of bargains. If you do not wish to pay all cash for a piano you can arrange for monthly payments. Or make a visit of inspection some day soon.

Lyon & Healy exhibit the largest and most varied stock of pianos in the world—over 1,000 instruments.

DOCTORS
GEO. ZINN EDGAR ZINN
Office: State Savings Bank
Phone No. 19
KLEMME - - IOWA

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Phone No. 11. Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to calls day or night.
Eyes tested. Glasses fitted.

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
Eyes Tested Free.

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures
See me when you want a
Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

JOHN GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Headquarters for part of Heinz' Fifty-Seven Varieties, and Pickling Vinegar.
Try these goods; they are fine.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
Call in

RESTAURANT
Fresh New Candies. Nicest Line in Town
Try a "Lovers' Delight" the latest and best Ice Cream Sundae in town.
Try our Golden Orangeade, Pop and Ciders.
—Home-made Bakery Goods,—
Lunches and Meals at all hours.
A. Kirkwood & Son

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

When you go to Chicago it's worth while to land at La Salle Station, in the heart of the city—right down town, within a few minutes' walking distance of

THE WHOLESALE CENTER
THE BANKING CENTER
THE SHOPPING CENTER
THE HOTEL CENTER
THE THEATER CENTER

La Salle Station
ROCK ISLAND LINES
CHICAGO TERMINAL

is the only railway station on the elevated railway loop, the finest, most commodious and best-equipped station in Chicago.

Among the features that make La Salle Station a model of its kind are the handsome and convenient woman's parlor, with maid, nearby telegraph and telephone booths, baggage and parcel rooms and an excellent restaurant.

On your next trip East take the Rock Island and land in La Salle Station.

Time tables and information on request.

J. H. MAHER, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher.

KLEMME, - - - IOWA

SUMMARY OF A WEEK'S EVENTS

Latest News of Interest Boiled Down for the Busy Man.

PERSONAL.

Prof. Barry Gilbert of the college of law, University of Illinois, will return to the faculty of the University of Iowa.

Edward G. Feeney of Brooklyn was elected president of the American Federation of Catholic societies at the convention in Pittsburg.

E. H. Harriman will occupy his new $1,000,000 stone mansion on the summit of Tower hill, near Arden, N. Y., upon his return from Europe.

Harry K. Thaw in a signed statement, issued on the eve of the decision to be rendered by Justice Mills as to his sanity, fired some hot shots at the experts who say he is crazy and District Attorney Jerome who has fought bitterly against his release from the asylum.

Speaker Cannon upon his return to Danville, Ill., declared he will again be a candidate for congress and, if the people will, intends to remain in public life.

Jane Addams, head of Hull house in Chicago is being boomed for president of the United States by suffragettes of Boston.

William D. Mahon, president of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Elevated Railway Employes, will go to New York in a few days to organize the car employes there.

Frederick C. Van Duser, an American resident of London, has arrived in New York bearing a jewel from the American lodge of Masons in England for President Taft, in celebration of the fact that the president has been made an honorary member of that lodge.

GENERAL NEWS.

The United States will call a halt if Japan attempts to close the doors of China to American trade.

The First National bank at Tipton, Ind., which closed when the assistant cashier, Noah Marker, fled, was reopened.

King Alfonso has ordered all of Spain's warships to Melilla to save the army of 38,000 men from defeat by the Moors.

Friday the thirteenth was marked all over the country by an unusual number of murders and suicides.

According to a report in New York the Standard Oil Company is planning to erect a factory to make butter out of petroleum. Do you think you will relish such butter?

Marguerite Haley, 12 years old, mysteriously disappeared from a summer school at Lake Geneva, Wis. Her home is in Chicago.

The fisheries question which has agitated the Americans and Newfoundlers for years is to be settled by the Hague tribunal.

Food preservatives will be a subject for discussion at the annual convention of the Association of National and State Dairy and Food departments, which will begin at Denver, Aug. 24.

Charles Van Studdiford, husband of Grace Van Studdiford, the singer, received what may be a fracture of the skull when he was overcome by the heat and fell from a tallyho at Decatur, Ill.

The British battleship Swiftsure has left Malta for Crete and ships of other nations will follow, the intention being to impress the people of the island with the fact that respect for the rights of Turkey is demanded.

Regular troops, each armed with 300 rounds of ammunition, are keeping the strike sympathizers at Fort William, Ont., from repeating rioting. Fifteen persons were wounded in clashes.

Milton, Del., was swept by flames which destroyed the business district. When the fire company responded to the first alarm it found its apparatus burning.

The body of Albert Burt, who was so "economical" that his wife left him, was found hanging in the garret of his home at Mineola, L. I., and hidden near it in the rafters was $2,119.

The steamer Daniel J. Morrill was damaged $20,000 by collision with the steamer Henry Phipps in Whitefish bay.

Theodore Harris, who died recently in Louisville, by his will left his children $150 a month each and left over $1,000,000 to a baptist institution of Kentucky.

Mexican revolutionists have appealed to the Political Refuge and Defense league, whose headquarters is said to be in Chicago, for Jose G Raniel and Tromas Sarabia, arrested in San Antonio, Tex.

James K. Hackett, the actor through his attorney in New York denied that he had made a reconciliation with his wife, Mary Mannering.

Howard Quick and Percy Barron were killed by lightning while descending into a coal mine at Idaho Springs, Col. Quick's father was operating the machinery that runs the cage.

A plan for the settlement of the hatters' strike in Newark, N. J., and the Oranges, was agreed on at a conference held in Gov. Fort's cottage at Sea Girt. The agreement is to be signed by both parties within five days.

About 400 delegates attended the Christian Missionary Alliance convention in Cleveland.

Announcement is made by the department of agriculture at Washington of the discovery of a mixture to combat black rot, which has ravaged eastern vineyards.

Alfred and Leonardo Spino, brothers, who married sisters at St. Louis on the same day last October, have become fathers on the same day. One man possesses a boy and the other a girl.

Former Senator Wilson of Washington and John Farson, banker of Chicago, replied to attacks on Secretary Ballinger of the interior department before the National Irrigation congress at Spokane.

When the company refused to lend aid in removing the goods, the sheriff of Allegheny county declined to evict the families of any more of the strikers from houses of the Pressed Steel Car Company at McKees Rocks, Pa.

The investigation of the death of Lieut. James Sutton came to a close at Annapolis, Md., and the board of inquiry sent its verdict to Washington, where it will be made public by the secretary of the navy.

Prof. William Bernhardt of Washington was killed by a train at Burlington, Vt., where he was spending his vacation. He was deaf and did not hear the engine's warning whistle.

With only 142 miles of its line from Salt Lake City, Utah, to Oakland, Cal., to be constructed, the Western Pacific Company expects to have trains in operation between the two cities within 90 days.

Delight Weston, daughter of E. B. Weston, president of the Terre Haute (Ind.) Paper Company, received a balloon as a gift from her father on the occasion of her graduation from Smith college.

Gen. Frederick D. Grant, in an address in Pittsburg, predicted that airships will be the deciding factors in future warfare.

The council of Waterville, Kan., has passed an ordinance making it a misdemeanor to swear. "By chowder" was exempted as not being swearing.

George De Weese, 17 years old, son of William De Weese of Chicago, was drowned while bathing in the Kokosing river at Mount Vernon, O.

Daughters of the American Revolution are to take a conspicuous part in the Hudson-Fulton celebration at New York in October. They have established headquarters in Fifth avenue, where they will hold receptions, and have arranged for a large grandstand in Riverside park for members.

Priceless heirlooms and works of art were consumed in the fire which destroyed the home of Mrs. C. B. Alexander on Castle Point, Hoboken, N. J. A painting by Tonyea, of a Dutch farm scene, more than 400 years old, was lost. One of the valuable papers burned was the original deed by Queen Anne to Gov. Carteret, first English executive of that state, of the northern half of New Jersey.

Minneapolis was selected by the International Typographical union convention at St. Joseph, Mo., as its meeting place next year.

Former Gov. Pardee of California assailed Secretary of the Interior Ballinger before the National Irrigation congress at Spokane, saying the Taft cabinet officer favors a trust. A resolution was introduced in the congress favoring a $5,000,000,000 bond issue for irrigation, waterways and good roads.

Following the crusade at Ellis Island, N. Y., against societies which have been taking charge of immigrants, charges were made that immigrant girls have been sold for from $1 to $5 each.

Human skulls were introduced in evidence by a gunshot expert before the board of inquiry to prove that Lieut. James Sutton could not have committed suicide as claimed by fellow officers of the marine corps.

Belgrade, the capital of Servia, was startled by an explosion at the king's palace and rumors of a bomb murder spread quickly. It was found that Prince George had caused all the noise in experimenting with a new explosive.

WANT FRANCHISES

Lively Interurban Campaign Under Way at Marshalltown.

TWO COMPANIES ARE IN FIELD

One Plans to Take Over all Public Utilities—Interurban to Des Moines via Waterloo and Grundy Center.

Marshalltown, Ia., Aug. 16.—This city at the present time threatens to become overridden with interurban promoters, all clamoring for franchises, not only for right of way, but for a franchise controlling the public utilities of gas, electricity and street cars.

For several weeks J. H. McBride of Philadelphia and Henry S. Osborne and Andrew Stevenson of Chicago, representing the Iowa railroad project, have been here seeking to secure a hearing in the council. Mayor Ingledue has not looked upon their proposition with favor, and their proposed franchise ordinances have not been before the council.

Now H. W. Darling of Chicago has appeared, claiming to represent President Otis of the Western Trust & Savings bank, Chicago, with a contract to buy the Jones & Hovey local interests, investment in the street car system, electric light plant and gas works. Darling has posted a $10,000 forfeit to carry out his deal, providing the franchise is granted him for a period of twenty-five years.

Mayor Ingledue says that whoever gets the local franchise will have to sign a contract to furnish dollar gas within a few years' time, to give lower rates for both electric lights and power, and provide extensions to the street car system. McBride and his crowd promise to connect Marshalltown with Des Moines and Waterloo, via Eldora and Grundy Center, also with Boone and Perry. Darling says he will build an interurban to Grundy Center. Both sides promise lower rates for gas and electricity.

The Maddy Family Reunion

Knoxville.—The thirty-eighth regular annual reunion of the numerous branches of the Maddy family was held at the home of Thos. Maddy, on the Lone Lane, in Indiana township. Upwards of 200 persons were present, of whom 98 were Maddys or had married Maddys. The function was the thirty-eighth annual gathering of the family, the first reunion having been held June 4, 1871. The founder of the family, Thomas Maddy, Sr., came to this county fifty years ago. At present there are only three members of the original family alive. They are James, aged 85, Jacob, 77, and Thomas, 71. All three of the old gentlemen and their wives were present, with their scores of grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren.

Waterloo Girl Drowns.

Waterloo.—Miss Frances Allbee, aged 19 years, drowned in the Cedar river. One hundred people watched the death struggles of the girl before she went down after losing the water wings with which she was learning to swim. Vernon Allbee, her brother, seeing her plight, made desperate but unsuccessful efforts to reach her.

To Appeal Whitbeck Case.

West Union.—An appeal will be taken to the supreme court in the Whitbeck murder case. In this case Walter Whitbeck, a young man of Auburn township, was convicted last September of murder in the first degree for beating his father to death on March 18, 1908. He was sent up for life.

Wedded 50 Years.

Wapello.—Mr. and Mrs. John Otto, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home by inviting in a few old-time friends and relatives, who, together with the children of this venerable couple, spent a very happy day together. Mr. and Mrs. Otto were united in marriage Aug. 11, 1849.

Two Hundred Hogs Sell for $4,235.84.

Grundy Center.—A new record has just been made in the sale of hogs by one farmer from his own raising. Brown Brothers, who reside in Grundy county and who, a few years ago, paid $125, for their farm, turned off two hundred and fifty hogs which netted them a neat check of $4,235.48.

Two Farmers Lose Lives.

Cedar Rapids—Henry Donnelly, a wealthy farmer living near Walker, had a stroke of apoplexy and fell into the river while fishing. His body was not recovered for hours. George Ashlocka, a farmer living near Center Point, was fatally injured in a runaway accident.

Insane Man a "Sticker."

Creston—A sensation was caused here by one James A. Robinson, adjudged insane and who has been staying at the home of J. M. Jones of this city, a self invited guest, at least so far as Mr. Jones is concerned. Robinson claimed to be sent here by the Lord and could not be persuaded to leave by peaceable means and accordingly Mr. Jones ejected him, but he returned and when the police arrived they were attacked tooth and nail by several women who have been coming there to hold some sort of religious exercises. After a severe struggle in which it was necessary to deputize the cab driver Robinson was finally landed at the court house and later was adjudged insane and will be taken to Clarinda at once.

Woman Has Peculiar Disease.

Harlan.—A well known Harlan young woman is afflicted with a very rare and unusual affection of the eye. The ailment is hemorrhage of the iris, the blood being poured out at intervals into the interior portion of the eye, sometimes completely obscuring the pupil and causing temporary blindness. The blood usually remains in the anterior portion of the eye for about fifteen minutes but has sometimes lasted for half a day at a time. The case was submitted to a leading Omaha oculist who was exceedingly interested by the phenomenon. He reports that but one similar case is known to medical literature and that of a patient in Italy.

Killed in the Ogden Mine.

Boone.—One man killed, and five injured is the record of the Ogden mine in a few hours. H. K. Johlin was killed in a fall of slate. He was buried completely. When uncovered he was dead. Harry Coddington, terribly crushed in the same fall, may die. Jim Campbell, mule driver, was badly hurt by a mule. The animal's side touched an electric wire, and threw the animal on top of him. Charles Grant, Jim Mitchell and Lon Lumly, all drivers, were hurt in a serious manner in different ways about the mine.

Girl Calls on Lover—Dies Smiling.

Des Moines.—With a smile of perfect peace enlightening his features following the first visit from his sweetheart, Miss Della Berry, Guy Fisher, the 19-year-old boy who shot himself with suicidal intent, died at Mercy hospital. For the first time since the shooting, Miss Berry went to see the wounded boy at Mercy hospital. After she had bent over the narrow cot of the sufferer, a smile appeared upon his lips which never left, even after they were closed in death.

Cow Wrecks a Train.

Des Moines.—Reposing peacefully in the middle of the track, a mild mannered cow succeeded in ditching an entire freight train on the interurban railroad near Herrold. The train was pulled by the powerful electric locomotive, and the cow was not seen by the engineer until after the engine and several cars had been piled in the ditch. No one was injured.

Editor Furry Is Dead.

Alden.—The death of Mark J. Furry occurred at his home at Alden after an illness of more than two years of anaemia. Mr. Furry was born at Eldora in 1861, has always been a resident of Hardin county and has been prominent as a lawyer, politician and man of affairs in his section of the state for the past quarter century.

Editors Flay Parcels Post.

Mason City.—The Iowa Editorial association's last session resolved against the unlimited parcels post and other centralizing agencies of the postal department, and commended the postal department for its efforts to purge the mails of illegitimate second class matter. Resolutions approved the Greater Iowa movement.

Farmer Drowns in Turkey River.

Spillville. — Mathias Bena, 60, drowned himself in the Turkey river. He was at Conover the day prior and was making hay on his farm and was feeling well. His body was found in the river after it had been in water for several hours. He left no word of explanation. He leaves a wife and family.

Leg Is Cut Off at Ankle.

Council Bluffs.—C. A. Boone, 20 years old, assistant yard master of the Northwestern and a son of the assistant superintendent of this division was run over by a switch engine in the Northwestern yards and one of his feet was cut off at the ankle.

Insane Man Dying.

Knoxville—Jesse Collins, an insane man residing two miles north of Percy, Marion county, is said to be in a dying condition from the effects of a self-inflicted wound which severed his windpipe. He is a farmer 30 years old and married.

DISCOURAGED WOMEN.

A Word of Hope for Despairing Ones.

Kidney trouble makes weak, weary, worn women. Backache, hip pains, dizziness, headaches, nervousness, languor, urinary troubles make women suffer untold misery. Ailing kidneys are the cause. Cure them. Mrs. S. D. Ellison, N. Broadway, Lamar, Mo., says: "Kidney trouble wore me down till I had to take to bed. I had terrible pains in my body and limbs and the urine was annoying and full of sediment. I got worse and doctors failed to help. I was discouraged. Doan's Kidney Pills brought quick relief and a final cure and now I am in the best of health."

Remember the name—Doan's. Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Life's Unequal Combat.

You, a river, are contending with the ocean.—Latin.

Teach the little ones their A B C's and to look for the spear on WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT.

Resiliency of Language.

"I say, we are down on our luck!"

"Yes, we are certainly up against it!"

Ask Your Druggist for Allen's Foot-Ease.

"I tried ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE recently, and have just bought another supply. It has cured my corns, and the hot, burning and itching sensation in my feet which was almost unbearable, and I would not be without it now.—Mrs. W. J. Walker, Camden, N. J." Sold by all Druggists, 25c.

Getting at the Root.

Fair Patient—Oh, doctor, I'm positively all run down and I'm so miserable, I have that tired feeling all the time.

Physician—No doubt. Let me see your tongue.—Cleveland Leader.

His Colors.

"What are your son's college colors?"

"Well," answered Farmer Corntossel, "Josh has figured so strong in hazing and football, I should say they must be black and blue."

Her Intentions.

"Do you think your sister will marry me?"

"If you keep comin'."

"Have you heard her say anything about it?"

"I heard her tell ma that if you didn't stop comin' here so often she'd make things unpleasant for you."

Tuberculosis Spread by Whites.

According to a report of the United States census it is stated that the mortality of the Indians from tuberculosis is undoubtedly far higher than that of either the whites or the negroes, although it is believed by careful investigators that the disease was entirely absent before the advent of the white race in America.

Could She?

"When women get to voting," said the man, "they will have a great many more calls than they now have to put their hands in their pockets and give money to further important causes."

The woman looked thoughtful.

"I'm always willing, of course," she said, "to give money for a good cause, but as for putting my hand in my pocket—"

BAD DREAMS Caused by Coffee.

"I have been a coffee drinker, more or less, ever since I can remember, until a few months ago I became more and more nervous and irritable, and finally I could not sleep at night for I was horribly disturbed by dreams of all sorts and a species of distressing nightmare.

"Finally, after hearing the experience of numbers of friends who had quit coffee and were drinking Postum and learning of the great benefits they had derived, I concluded coffee must be the cause of my trouble, so I got some Postum and had it made strictly according to directions.

"I was astonished at the flavour and taste. It entirely took the place of coffee, and to my very great satisfaction I began to sleep peacefully and sweetly. My nerves improved, and I wish I could wean every man, woman and child from the unwholesome drug—ordinary coffee.

"People really do not appreciate or realize what a powerful drug it is and what terrible effect it has on the human system. If they did, hardly a pound of it would be sold. I would never think of going back to coffee again. I would almost as soon think of putting my hand in a fire after it had once been burned.

"A young lady friend of ours had stomach trouble for a long time, and could not get well as long as she used coffee. She finally quit coffee and began the use of Postum and is now perfectly well. Yours for health."

Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

SYNOPSIS.

Carrington loved Kate Cavenaugh, daughter of Multi-Millionaire Henry Cavenaugh. The latter liked Carrington, but refused him as a son-in-law. Young Carrington, a lawyer, held evidence of criminal financial operations, of which Cavenaugh was guilty. It was Carrington's duty to prosecute the rich man, but he decided to lay the whole matter before Kate. He did so the next day. The young woman decided that to drop the case would be cowardly even though the accused was her father. Cavenaugh offered Carrington a position at $17,000 a year. He refused it. He hid his evidence in the Cavenaugh safe, after being introduced to the millionaire's father. The evidence was stolen that night. Kate's sister Norah confided that she had told her grandfather the combination to the safe. Carrington and Kate went riding.

CHAPTER III.—Continued.

"Not more than I," sadly.

"Nothing like, is there, girl?"

"I hate automobiles," she answered, irrelevantly.

The old, old sea quarreled murmurously at their feet, and the white gulls sailed hither and thither, sometimes breasting the rollers just as they were about to topple over into running creamy foam. The man and the girl seemed perfectly content to remain voiceless. There was no sound but the song of the sea; the girl dreamed, and the man wondered what her dream was. Presently he glanced at his watch. He stood up, brushing the sand from his clothes.

"Half an hour between us and breakfast, Kate. All aboard!"

The night before might have been only an idle dream.

So they took the road back. Only the sea and the gulls saw the tender kiss.

The pariah sauntered in at two o'clock that afternoon, just as the family were sitting down to luncheon. He was a revelation. There was nothing shabby about him now. He wore a new suit, spats, a new straw hat, and twirled a light bamboo. There was something jaunty and confident in his air, a bubbling in his eyes; altogether, he was in fine fettle about something. He cast aside his hat and cane with a flourish.

"Aha! just in time," he said. "Another chair, William."

The butler sent a dubious glance at his master; there was the usual curt nod and the frown. So grandpa sat down beside Norah, whose usual effervescence had strangely subsided; he pinched her cheek, and deliberated between the cold ham and chicken.

"A fine day! A beautiful day! A day of days!" he cried, surrendering to the appetitious lure of both meats.

Nobody replied to this outburst of exuberance; nobody had the power to. A strange calm settled over every one. This was altogether a new kind of grandpa. There was nothing timid or hesitant here, nothing meek and humble; neither was there that insufferable self-assurance and arrogance of a disagreeable man. Grandpa's attitude was simply that of an equal, of a man of the world, of one who is confident of the power he holds in reserve; that was all. But for all that, he was a sensation of some magnitude. Carrington was seized with a wild desire to laugh. The truth came to him like an illumination; but he wisely held his peace.

"There is something in the air today that renews youth in old age; eh, my son?" with a sly wink at Cavenaugh.

Cavenaugh's expression of wonder began to freeze and remained frozen to the end of the meal. So all the honors of conversation fell to grandpa, who seemed to relish this new privilege.

"Father," said Cavenaugh, holding back his accumulated wrath, "I want to see you in my study."

"Immediately, my son. I was just about to make that same request." Grandpa looked at Kate, then at Carrington. "I suppose you young persons will invite poor old grandpa to the wedding?"

"Father!" This was altogether too much for patrician blood. Cavenaugh's face reddened and his fists closed ominously. "You will do me the honor, father, not to meddle with my private affairs. Kate is my daughter, and she shall marry the man it pleases me to accept."

Carrington felt this cut dart over grandpa's shoulder. He stirred uneasily.

"Oh, if that's the way you look at it!" with a comical deprecatory shrug. Grandpa touched Carrington on the arm. "Young man, do you love this girl? No false modesty, now; the truth, and nothing but the truth. Do you love her?"

"With all my heart!" Carrington grandpa.

felt the impulse occult. Something whispered that his whole future depended upon his answer.

"And you, Kate?"

"I love him, grandpa," bravely.

"That's all I want to know," said Cavenaugh released one of his fists; it fell upon the table and rattled things generally.

"Am I in my own house?" he bawled.

"That depends," answered grandpa, suavely. "You've got to behave yourself. Now, then, let us repair to the secret chamber of finance. It is the day of settlement," grimly.

Mrs. Cavenaugh was gently weeping. The dread moment had come, come when she had been lulled into the belief that it would never come. Kate understood, and longed to go to her and comfort her; and she trembled for her father, who knew nothing of the pit that lay at his feet. Carrington dallied with his fork; he wished he were anywhere in the world but at the Cavenaugh table. The desire to laugh recurred to him but he realized that the inclination was only hysterical.

"Hand Them Over."

Cavenaugh was already heading for the study. He was in a fine rage. Grandpa was close on his heels. At the threshold he turned once more to Carrington.

"You know your 'Tempest,' young man, I'm sure," he said. "Well, this is the revolt of Caliban—Caliban uplifted, as it were."

The door closed behind them, and father and son faced each other.

"I'll trouble you for those papers you took from the safe last night," said the son, heavily.

"Ah, indeed!" said grandpa.

"At once; I have reached the limit of my patience."

"So have I," returned grandpa. "Perhaps you know what these papers are about?"

"I know nothing whatever, save that they belong to Mr. Carrington. Hand them over."

Grandpa helped himself to a cigar and sat down. He puffed two or three times, eyed the lighted end and sighed with satisfaction.

"If you but knew what they were about, these papers, you would pay a cool million for their possession. My word, it is a droll situation; reads like the fourth act in a play. If you have a duke picked out for Kate, forget him."

"She will never marry Carrington!" Cavenaugh's voice rose in spite of his effort to control it.

"My son, they will hear you," the pariah warned. He blew a cloud of smoke into the air and sniffed it. "You never offered me this particular brand," reproachfully.

"Enjoy it," snapped the other, "for it is the last you will ever smoke in any house of mine."

"You don't tell me!"

"Those papers, instantly!"

"'Be it known by these presents, et cetera, et cetera,'" said the old man. He rose suddenly, the banter leaving his lips and eyes, and his jaw setting hard. "You had better get your check book handy, my son, for when I'm through with you, you'll be only too glad to fill out a blank for fifty thousand. I consider myself quite moderate. This young Carrington is a mighty shrewd fellow; and I'd rather have him as a friend than an enemy. He has made out his case so strongly that it will cost you a pretty penny to escape with a whole skin."

"What are you talking about?"

"The case of the people versus Cavenaugh et al. It concerns the clever way in which you and your partners slid under the seven per cent. dividend due your investors; which caused a slump in the price of the shares, forcing thousands to sell their stock; which you bought back at a handsome profit. Moloch! The millions you have are not enough; you must have more. There are about twelve of you in all, not one of you worth less than three millions. What a beautiful chance for blackmail!"

Cavenaugh stepped back, and his legs, striking a chair, toppled him into it. His father had become Medusa's head!

"Aha! That jars you some," chuckled grandpa.

It took Cavenaugh some time to recover his voice, and when he did it was faint and unnatural.

"Is this true?" he gasped.

"It is so true that I'll trouble you for the check now."

"Come, father, this is no time for nonsense." Cavenaugh waved his hand impatiently. "Let me see the document."

"Hardly. But the moment you place the check in my hands I shall be pleased to do so. But there must be no reservation to have payment stopped."

"I will not give you a single penny!" The mere suggestion of giving up so large a sum without a struggle seemed preposterous. "Not a penny! And furthermore, I am through with you for good and all. Shift for yourself hereafter. Fifty thousand! You make me laugh!"

"I shall make you laugh, my son; but not on the humorous side." The old man reached out his hand and struck the bell.

"What do you want?" asked Cavenaugh, mystified.

"I want the author of the document. I propose to take the family skeleton out of the closet and dangle it up and down before the young man's eyes You will laugh, I dare say."

Cavenaugh fell back in his chair again. The door opened and William looked in.

"You rang, sir?" to Cavenaugh fils

"No, William," said Cavenaugh pere, affably, "I rang. Call Mr. Carrington." The butler disappeared. "It is my turn, Henry, and I have waited a long time, as you very well know. Ha! Sit down, Mr. Carrington, sit down."

Carrington, who had entered, obeyed readily.

"You left some papers in the dining room safe last night," began grandpa.

"I was about to ask you to return them," replied Carrington, with assumed pleasantry.

The two Cavenaughs looked at each other blankly. Finally grandpa laughed.

"I told you he was clever!"

"It is true, then," snarled the millionaire, "that you have been meddling with affairs that in no wise concern you. I warn you that your case in court will not have a leg to stand on."

"I prefer not to discuss the merits of the case," said Carrington, quietly.

"I have been your host, sir; you have eaten at my table." Cavenaugh, as he spoke, was not without a certain dignity.

"All of which, recognizing the present situation, I profoundly regret."

"Good!" said grandpa. "Henry, if you had been the general they give you credit for, you would have offered Mr. Carrington that seventeen thousand two or three years ago. There is nothing so menacing to dishonesty as the free lance. Now, listen to me for a space. We'll come to the documentary evidence all in good time. I spoke of Caliban uplifted," ironically. "For years I have been treated as a pariah, as a beast of burden, as a messenger boy, as a go-between to take tricks that might have soiled my son's delicate hands. Father and son, yes; but in name only. Blood is thicker than water only when riches and ambition are not touched in the quick. This dutiful son of mine could easily have elevated me along with himself; but he would not do so. He was afraid that people might learn something of my past which would greatly hinder his advancement. He prospered, he grew rich and arrogant; he put his heel on my neck, and I dared not revolt. You wouldn't believe it, would you, Mr. Carrington, that I was graduated with honors from Oxford university. I speak three tongues fluently, and have a smattering of a dozen others; am a doctor of philosophy, an Egyptologist. But I was indolent, and loved good times, and so, you see, it came about that I fell into evil ways. Formerly, I was a burglar by profession."

(TO BE CONCLUDED.)

Medical Fees in Old Times.

The remuneration of physicians originally consisted in presents, but at the time of Hippocrates payment in money was already customary. Physicians received also public praise, the "crown of honor," the freedom of the city, the privilege of eating at the king's table. Physicians employed by the state received a yearly salary, as high as $2,000 in some instances. Rich people would pay enormous sums for a successful treatment, and a case is recorded in which $200,000 was paid.—New York Medical Journal.

What It Reminded Him Of.

When Gen. Schenck, whose greatest fame rests upon his having introduced the game of poker into England, first arrived in London as American minister to the court of St. James he took a little of his spare time to visit the sights of the British capital. Among other places he visited Mme. Tussaud's wax works.

"And what do you think of our great wax work exhibition?" asked a friend.

"Well," replied the general, "it struck me as being very like the ordinary English evening party."

Baskets of Straw.

Baskets containing butter shipped from Queensland to Great Britain are now made of straw. A company has been formed to work the business of straw-box making in Australia. Butter boxes hitherto have been made of pine, but the drain upon this timber owing to the heavy exports has been so severe that the wood is rapidly going up in price. At present 3,000,000 boxes are used in Australia annually, costing $1,000,000. The new box will save the dairy industry about $200,000 a year.

Jane—Why, Mabel, your hair is in frightful disorder. Did you forget to brush it?

Mabel (coldly)—If you knew a little more, Jane, you wouldn't be so hasty. This is the latest thing in coiffures—and it took me two hours to get it.

THOSE NEW HATS.

"Come into the garden, Maud,"
Said facetious-minded Fred.
"What's the use?" said Maudie—
"I have it on my head."

IN AGONY WITH ECZEMA.

Whole Body a Mass of Raw, Bleeding, Torturing Humor—Hoped Death Would End Fearful Suffering.

In Despair; Cured by Cuticura.

"Words cannot describe the terrible eczema I suffered with. It broke out on my head and kept spreading until it covered my whole body. I was almost a solid mass of sores from head to foot. I looked more like a piece of raw beef than a human being. The pain and agony endured seemed more than I could bear. Blood and pus oozed from the great sore on my scalp, from under my finger nails, and nearly all over my body. My ears were so crusted and swollen I was afraid they would break off. Every hair in my head fell out. I could not sit down, for my clothes would stick to the raw and bleeding flesh, making me cry out from the pain. My family doctor did all he could, but I got worse and worse. My condition was awful. I did not think I could live, and wanted death to come and end my frightful sufferings.

"In this condition my mother-in-law begged me to try the Cuticura Remedies. I said I would, but had no hope of recovery. But oh, what blessed relief I experienced after applying Cuticura Ointment. It cooled the bleeding and itching flesh and brought me the first real sleep I had had in weeks. It was as grateful as ice to a burning tongue. I would bathe with warm water and Cuticura Soap, then apply the Ointment freely. I also took Cuticura Resolvent for the blood. In a short time the sores stopped running, the flesh began to heal, and I knew I was to get well again. Then the hair on my head began to grow, and in a short time I was completely cured. I wish I could tell everybody who has eczema to use Cuticura. Mrs. Wm. Hunt, 135 Thomas St., Newark, N. J., Sept. 28, 1908."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

When a spinster marries a man who is already bald she doesn't get all that she is entitled to.

Real value!
A real nickel for real WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT.

It's as difficult for some people to let go as it is for others to catch on.

The new RUSS BLUE is much the best. Insist that your grocer gives you this brand. Refuse imitations.

Time will tell—unless the gossips beat it under the wire.

Fall in line for better digestion!
WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT.

Our mistakes of yesterday are responsible for our worries of to-day.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT

SICK HEADACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cured by these Little Pills.

They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature

Brent Good

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

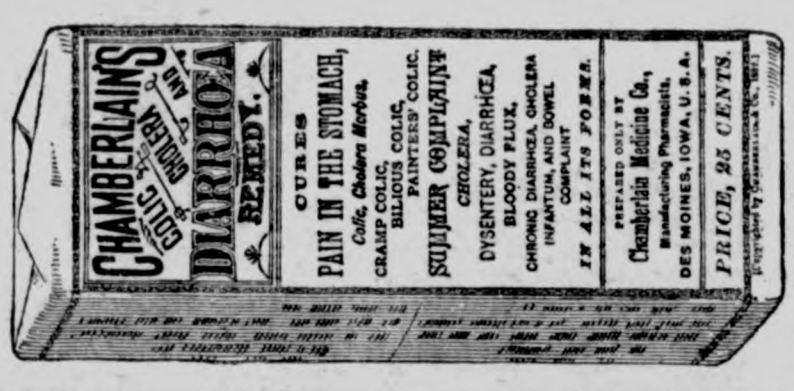
Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy

Acknowledged everywhere to be the most successful medicine in use for Bowel Complaints.

Can be depended upon in the most severe and dangerous cases.

REMEMBER ALWAYS CURES CURES QUICKLY

MONEY RETURNED IF NOT SATISFIED



Reduced fac simile

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

(Continued from 1st page.)

the scene which takes place in the barnyard every morning, namely. which of the interests they represent can get its feet in the trough first and get the most of the swill. Thinking men who do not want office and seek only the public good will not soon forget this.

But this is not all. The exposures by western senators of the inherent rottenness of some of the schedules have shattered faith in the party leaders. No man hereafter will be justified in placing confidence in Aldrich, Payne. Cannon or McEnery even when they speak the truth and advocate righteousness. They have been convicted at the bar of public opinion of attempting to deceive the people. The people never trust a man who is convicted of deceiving them.

But this is not the worst of it. Men who up to this time have religiously believed in the principles of protection will begin to doubt, or whi e retaining hold of the principle will doubt its practibility. They will say: Protection was all right in the good old days when statesmen were decently honest and were satisfied with protection so long as competition was active. When protection becomes prohibition, as in the case of iron and steel, and where combination has stifled competition, they will say: These infant industries which we built up by paying higher prices for products for the time have so prospered that the children have taken their mother by the throat and are masters of the house. They now demand higher and higher tariffs; demand that the ultimate consumer at home shall pay higher prices in order that they may sell cheaper to the ultimate consumer abroad and thus keep their factories going.

No matter how firmly the ultimate consumer may be rooted and grounded in the faith of protection, that faith will be shaken when both political parties lie to him in their platforms, when he realizes that schedules are framed to deceive, that certain cliques of capitalists have combined to hold him up by demanding higher prices at home than they gladly accept abroad. The conviction will gradually creep over him that he has been fooled and deceived, and that designing men have trifled with his honest convictions and made him pay tribute. He will then begin to see that the senators who have demanded a reduction of the schedules are the true friends of the protective principle, and that only by supporting them will it be possible to prevent big, black trouble to the entire country and to restore and maintain industrial peace.

A Wonderful News Service

Have you ever paused to think what a marvelous organization must be necessary to lay before you each day an accurate account of the happenings of yesterday in Europe, Asia, Africa, South America, Australia, the Islands of the sea and the whole expanse of our own continent, all in a single newspaper? The intricate network of cables and telegraph lines, the complicated chain of news-gathering agencies stretching across continents and oceans. the innumerable reporters working daily for you under tropic suns and over arctic snows—have you ever felt the romantic thrill of it all in reading a great modern newspaper such as the Chicago Record-Herald? We mention this paper especially because of the completeness of its domestic and foreign news service. It has a correspondent in every town or city of importance in the United States, a veritable army of them in all. In addition it has the benefit of the foreign news service of the New York Herald. famous for its world-wide cable system and for the reliability of its foreign news; also that of the New York World and the New York Journal of Commerce. Besides that of the great co-operative news gathering organization, the Associated Press. With such a vast and complete news service it is not strange that the Record-Herald so easily holds its own as one of the great newspapers of the world.

Seared With a Hot Iron

or scalded by overturned kettle—cut with a knife—bruised by slammed door—injured by gun or in any other way—the thing needed at once is Bucklen's Arnica Salve to subdue inflamation and Kill the pain. It's earth's supreme Healer, infallible for boils, ulcers, fever sores, eczema and piles. 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

Books
Pamphlets
Letter Heads
Envelopes

Everything printed from

TYPE

At the Times office.

Cards
Invitations
Bill Heads
Posters

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOW

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE. LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STATE. Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. days treatment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund. All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines. detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by mail. press. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage. low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for terms. sultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men. The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without the harmful instruments. Our fully explains.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the causing nervous debility, of the nervous system, e c., permanently cured.

BLOOD POISON —That terrible disease its stages, cured for life. Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, and all private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few days pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application description of above diseases effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrapper.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINES

RUPTURE, PILES

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolutely reliable and permanent. Write to or call and see the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were afflicted with Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia.
Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines, Ia.
E. C. Miller, Des Moines, Ia.
John H. Looby, Des Moines, Ia.

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you for postage paid. This book contains much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonial letters. Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the book. Write today—it will pay you.

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES, IOWA

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:34 p. m.
82 ..... 2:35 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:55 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

PATENTS

DESIGNS TRADE-MARKS AND COPYRIGHTS OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"

Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,

E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

McCALL PATTERNS 10¢ AND 15¢ NONE HIGHER

McCALL'S 50¢ A YEAR INCLUDING A FREE

McCALL PATTERNS
Celebrated for style, perfect fit, simplicity, reliability nearly 40 years. Sold in every city and town in the United States and Canada, or by mail direct. More than any other make. Send for free catalogue.

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
More subscribers than any other magazine—million a month. Invaluable for latest styles, patterns, dressmaking, millinery, plain sewing, fancy needlework, home decoration, etiquette, good stories, etc. Only 50¢ a year (worth double), including a free pattern. Subscribe today, or send for sample copy.

WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS to Agents. Postal brings premium list and new cash prize offers. Address

THE McCALL CO., 238 to 248 W. 37th St., N. Y.

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified.

FOR KIDNEY, LIVER & STOMACH TROUBLE

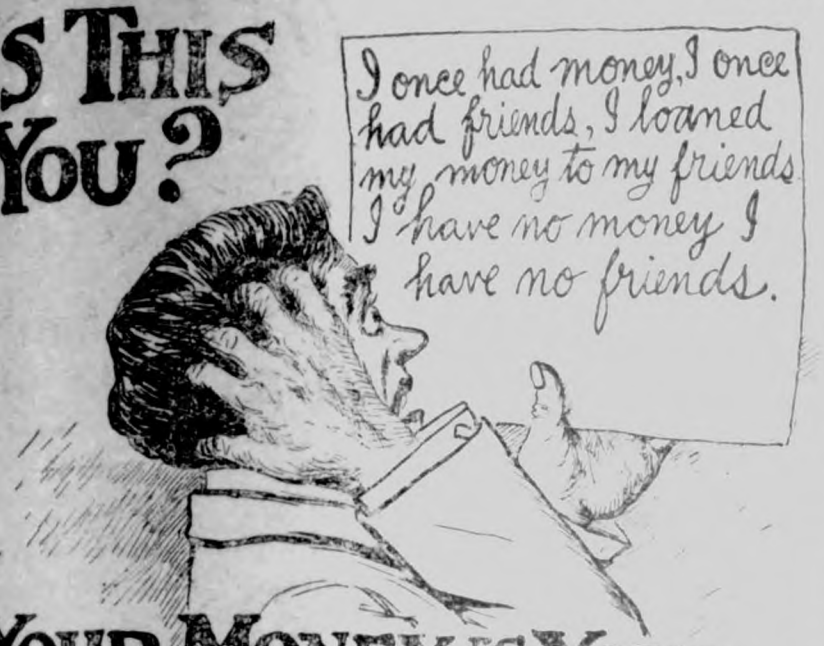
it is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

Just Dust It on the Sore.
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls
work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bottom
Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid
Money Back if Not Satisfied
The RED STAR HEALING POWDER
(25c. and 50c. Cans). CARBOLIZED

THE KLEMME TIMES

VOLUME XIV. NUMBER 4 — KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1909. — $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

IS THIS YOU?



YOUR MONEY IS YOUR BEST FRIEND, PUT IT IN THE BANK.

Have You Ever

had reverses and thought your friends would help you, and when you asked for help found that most friendships cease when they cost a man money

?

A savings account started today will save many bitter disappointments in after life.
Start today. We are here to help you save.

State Savings Bank.

Klemme - - Iowa

A CONVINCER

The best convincer on earth is a good, honest trial of any line of goods.
We claim for our lumber and building material that it is as good or better than can be purchased elsewhere, and to substantiate this claim, we ask an honest trial of our goods. We can quote you as good a price as anyone.
May we figure on your next lumber bill?

J. H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, AGENT
KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J.W.WATERMAN

Made Him Too Frisky

What is good for man is good for beast and its a poor rule that don't work both ways. Not far from Marshfield lives a contented couple on a farm. They think a great deal of each other and last March when the husband began to refuse his rations and kind of got sick like, it worried his wife. Nothing seemed to suit his taste and he went about doing his chores as if he were trying to save funeral expenses. Out in the barn his wife came across a package of condition powders like they feed horses and after reading its good qualities printed on the wrapper she vowed to try some on her husband. The next morning for breakfast she mixed a teaspoonful with his oatmeal. He ate it with a relish. The next day she repeated the dose and before the end of the week he jumped a five rail fence and turned a handspring. Before he had eaten a one-pound package he threw the hired man three times during the noon hour and cut up several capers like a 16-year-old would do. Then the good wife, tickled all over at her wonderful discovery, got another package, but before a half of it was fed up her husband got so frisky she could not keep him on the farm nor home nights. He just wants to prance around and make goo goo eyes at all the women and now his wife is in tears and talks about getting a divorce.—Marshfield (Wis.) News.

The Crime of Idleness

Idleness means trouble for anyone. Its the same with a lazy liver. It causes constipation, headache, jaundice, sallow complexion, pimples and blotches, loss of appetite, nausea, but Dr. King's New Life Pills soon banish liver troubles and build up your health. 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

The Child's Viewpoint.

Percy Alder, M. P., of London, told an amusing story of a small girl at a recent meeting of the Children's Happy Evenings association. The child had been sent away to the country for a holiday, and questioned as to what in all her holiday had pleased her most, this little slum maiden, whose London home adjoined a waste piece of land, replied: "Seeing no dead cats."

Birds Not Afraid of Man.

Among southern African birds which manifest wonderful tameness is the Cape wagtail, which not only penetrates to the living room in search of flies, but will pick them from the old Boer's velschoons as he sits on his stoep, and perch about his chair.

Washington's Plague Spots

lie in the low, marshy bottoms of the Potomac, the breeding ground of malaria germs. These germs cause chills, fever and ague, billiousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility and bring suffering or death to thousands yearly. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "They are the best all-round tonic and cure for malaria I ever used," writes R. M. James of Louellen, S. C. They cure stomach, liver, kidney and blood troubles and will prevent typhoid. Try them, 50c. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Shorty McCabe

Have you made the acquaintance of the latest hit in American humor—Sewell Ford's "Shorty McCabe stories? If not you are missing a heap of fun. Shorty is a character in every sense of the word. As an artist in humorous slang he can match George Ade's fables, and as a creator of original and witty phrases he can match Mr. Dooley, but Shorty can beat all his predecessors in the art of telling a good story. It is a genuine story every time too, with a hilariously funny plot and with characters that are alive and kicking, full of the quirks and absurdities of universal human nature.

Shorty McCabe, his better half, Sadie, and their laughable adventures in New York society can be found and enjoyed only in the Sunday Magazine of the Chicago Record-Herald, whose editor has the honor of having discovered Sewell Ford's powers as a humorist. This unique magazine is filled with good fiction and timely articles every week, written by many of the most noted authors of our day, but nothing seems able to overshadow the perennial interest in the Shorty McCabe stories, which appear every second week throughout the year. Wherever you go you will hear people talking and laughing over them. Thousands of people take the Sunday Record-Herald simply for its Sunday Magazine and the inimitable Shorty McCabe. It begins to be a question whether Shorty is not a more popular personage than Mr. Dooley.

Bank With the — IT PAYS

FIRST NATIONAL

Capital, $25,000

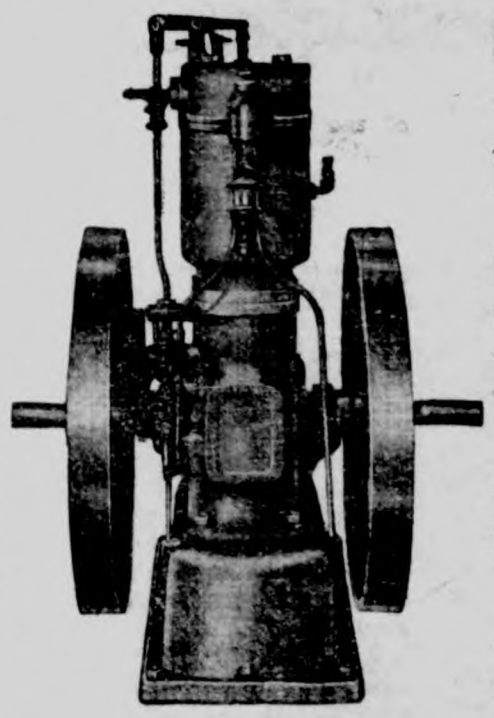
—o—

It's Many Safeguards for the People's Money:

It's large capital,
It's alert Board of Directors,
It's conservative policy

are for

YOUR PROTECTION



Save work, worry, money by using a

STOVER GASOLINE ENGINE

Made right—sold right. Send for an illustrated catalog of our wind mills and feed grinders.

ENGINES

Sandwich Mfg. Co.

Mason City, Iowa — General Agents

THRESHING COAL

The very best grades in Hocking Valley, Wineferd Splint, Indiana Block, Sootless and Washed Egg.
Call and get prices.

Highest Market Price Paid for Grain and Live Stock Six Days in the Week

H. C. LAU

DON'T FORGET

This store when you need anything in the line of Hardware and Farm Implements. Full line of Heaters, Cook Stoves and Ranges. The best makes in Farm Machinery. We also handle the best Paints, Oils and Varnish.

Groceries, Flour and Feed

Our prices are right. You are invited to call.

GRUETZMACHER BROS.

Twas a Glorious Victory

There's rejoicing in Fedora, Tenn. A man's life has been saved, and now Dr. King's New Discovery is the talk of the town for curing C. V. Pepper of deadly lung hemorrhages. "I could not work nor get about," he writes, "and the doctor did me no good, but, after using Dr. King's New Discovery three weeks I feel like a new man and can do good work again." For weak, sore or diseased lungs, coughs and colds, hemorrhages, hay fever, la-grippe, asthma or any bronchial affection it stands unrivaled. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold and guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

The Klemme Times

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher.

KLEMME, . . . IOWA

IMPORTANT NEWS NOTES OF A WEEK

LATEST HAPPENINGS THE WORLD OVER TOLD IN ITEMIZED FORM.

EVENTS HERE AND THERE

Condensed Into a Few Lines for the Perusal of the Busy Man—Latest Personal Information.

PERSONAL.

Secretary Nagel of the department of commerce and labor has returned to Washington to prepare for the next census so he can return to his summer home in Massachusetts next week. A considerable saving will be made, he has found, in the cost of taking the next census.

Edward H. Harriman, upon sailing for the United States from Cherbourg, said his health was improved and he would be glad to see the soil of America again.

GENERAL NEWS.

Twenty-five passengers, among them many women and children, and a crew of 15, had narrow escapes from death when the steamer Fred Swain burned to the water's edge on the Illinois river near Averyville.

When President Taft steps across the border into Mexico October 16 he will be the first of the nation's chief executives to visit a foreign country during his term of office. He will be invited to attend a bull fight.

In the second day's races on the Indianapolis speedway Strang broke the 100-mile speed record and Zengel set a new mark for ten miles.

W. D. Mahon, president of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes, arrived in Chicago to take up the fight for the union men, which threatens to result in a strike.

A report from Santiago, Chile, said many persons had been killed in a collision of trains near that city. No details were given.

Maj. George Tate, U. S. A., has again visited the Gettysburg battlefield to place a rose on the grave of his left leg which was shot off in that memorable battle between north and south.

Miss Virginia Paul, a Pennsylvania society girl, was drowned as she tried in vain to save the life of W. Brooke Lessig, a Philadelphia lawyer.

Daniel Hayes was killed and Misses Addie and Ola Porcher were injured near Brunswick, Ga., when a freight train struck a handcar on which they were riding.

After three years' work the commissioners on uniform laws throughout the United States, now meeting in Detroit, completed the draft of a proposed law to regulate the transfer of certificates of corporation stockzs.

The Porte will recognize King Ferdinand's title as King of the Bulgars.

Emperor William has authorized an outlay of $56,000,000 for the extension of Prussian state railroads.

Chile—Two trains were completely destroyed and many killed and injured in a collision 30 miles north of Santiago.

Through a memorandum signed at Mukden, August 19, by both governments, China agrees to assist Japan in construction of Antung-Mukden railroad, thus closing the recent rupture.

Orders have been issued to officers of the Great Northern steamship Minnesota, which is bringing to this country a party of Japanese business men, that the vessel shall make the trip to Seattle in record time.

Jean Gaston Darboux, secretary of the Academy of Sciences in Paris, will represent France at the Hudson-Fulton celebration in New York.

A general strike of cloakmakers has been ordered in New York city. Wages is the main question at issue.

Litigation, after a lapse of 25 years, has been resumed in New York over the Hamersley estate, amounting to about $5,000,000. Arthur Hamersley, aged 14, asks for an accounting.

More than 1,000 friends of William Grevel, for 25 years general manager of Fleischmann's Model bakery, famous for its bread line, attended his funeral in New York when he invited them to be present by means of a death notice printed in newspapers, which he had written before he died.

In holding Argyle Lett to the grand jury for the killing of Durwood Dentwood, the court at Henderson, Ky., decided that killing was sometimes justifiable, but that Lett had chosen the wrong time.

Otis Geary and his wife of Clear Lake, Ind., were instantly killed when a Lake Short train struck their buggy near Montgomery, Mich. Their three-year-old daughter had a wonderful escape from serious injury.

The opening of the Indianapolis automobile speedway was marred by the killing of William A. Bourque and Harry Holcomb, driver and mechanican of a Knox car, which crashed through a fence in the 250-mile race.

A bulletin issued by the United States census bureau shows that out of a church membership of nearly 33,000,000 in this country, males form considerably less than half the total.

It is estimated that the wealth of John D. Rockefeller, whose income now is $2,400 an hour, will reach the billion dollar mark when he is 80 years old, which is only ten years off.

With one of its pastors, two girls and two men reported missing within five weeks, the town of Williamsburg, Kan., is greatly wrought up.

William H. Wright, a former merchant of Neosho, Mo., who had been declared dead after his disappearance eight years ago, has returned to the hospital at Nevada, from which he escaped.

Abolition or curtailment of general delivery was the principal feature discussed in the first day's session by the National Association of Postmasters at Toledo, O.

Terre Haute, Ind., council committee will exonerate City Attorney F. S. Rawley at least from corrupt motives, for delay in the suit involving the traction company's franchise.

To test the automobile's value for fighting purposes Malcolm E. Parrott of the New York National Guard, started from New York to San Francisco, bearing dispatches from Maj. Gen. Wood to Gen. Weston.

The end of the gambling war between the state of Indiana and Tom Taggart and Lee Sinclair, owners of the resorts at French Lick and West Baden, occurred when $30,000 worth of gambling paraphernalia was burned by the authorities.

Gov. Comer of Alabama signed the bill providing submission of a constitutional prohibition amendment to a vote of the people within 90 days.

A uniform bill of lading is one of the demands made by the conference on uniform laws in session at Detroit Mich.

A tugboat of the Bayane River Company, bound from San Francisco for Panama, is long everdue and is believed to have been lost.

At Colon the first public playgrounds ever established on the isthmus of Panama are about to be opened.

Engineer William Bradley and Fireman Fred L. Graves were killed when the boiler of a west-bound Pere Marquette passenger train exploded near Grand Ledge, Mich., wrecking the train.

Postmasters to the number of 150, representing as many cities through out the country, are at the annual meeting of the National Association of Postmasters of the first-class, which opened in Toledo, O., to-day.

Half a pound of meat per day per person is the estimated average consumed by the 40,000 people in the isthmian canal zone.

The highest price paid for cotton in Montgomery, Ala., in 25 years was reached when the first new bale of the season was sold for 30 cents a pound.

Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture in his year book shows how, during his 12 years in office, the American farmer has increased the agricultural balance of trade from $234,000,000 to $411,000,000.

The court of inquiry decided that Lieut. Sutton of the United States marine corps shot and killed himself, either by accident or with suicidal intent.

The Greek flag over the fortress at Canea, Island of Crete, was shot down by marines from the warships of the four protecting powers, and the trouble which nearly led to war with Turkey was removed.

Ashley Deneen, son of the governor, is able to be about the executive mansion at Springfield, after a week's illness, which has caused his parents considerable concern.

After being on for four months, the "lid" in Wichita, Kan., has been pried loose and the town is again wide-open. But one restriction is placed on the dealers, and that is they must operate only on the second floors of buildings.

Following the shooting of an onlooker during a fight between strike sympathizers and imported workmen of the Pressed Steel Car Company, near Pittsburg, special precautions are being taken by the state constabulary to prevent a recurrence of trouble.

James Shaw Maxwell, senior magistrate of Glasgow, Scotland, who had made a trip over America, declares in an interview in New York that Canadian cities are ahead of those in this country. He finds them cleaner.

One man was shot and several injured by stones in a riot at the Pressed-Car Company's works at McKees Rocks, Pa. Strikers attempted to keep an alleged strike-breaker from entering the plant.

IOWA BUYS MUTUAL

Sale of Mutual Stock to Bell Company Causes Discussion.

MAY MERGE LOCAL SYSTEMS

Officers Say Subscribers Will Be Consulted in the Matter—Most Important Deal Recorded in Fifteen Years.

Des Moines, Aug. 23.—The Iowa Telephone company, by its vice president and general manager, George E. McFarland, announced the purchase of the Mutual Telephone company of Des Moines by securing possession of the majority of stock held by Charles and Clyde E. Brenton, bankers of Dallas Center, Ia.

The deal was later confirmed by the Brentons and other officers of the Mutual company, thus making it certain that one of the biggest and most important commercial transactions to the city of Des Moines, the state of Iowa and to the middle west has been consummated.

The deal was negotiated by Casper E. Yost of Omaha, president of the Nebraska Telephone company, who owns a controlling interest in the Iowa Telephone company.

The price paid for the controlling interest only was $600,000.

The value of all property owned by the Mutual company is $1,100,000.

The company is capitalized at $1,500,000. This was in 1896.

By the terms of the transfer the Iowa company takes possession of the following property: Three exchanges located in the city of Des Moines, one located at 1006-1008-1010 Grand avenue; one exchange at 812-814 Des Moines street and one exchange in Highland Park, 8,000 telephones and a modern cable system to supply these in Des Moines, fifteen rural stations with 9,000 telephones and the Boone County Telephone company and the triffic rights for connection with 250,000 telephones in the state of Iowa and traffic connections with every city in the middle west.

Has Its Own Way.

The deal also means that the Iowa Telephone company has secured the controlling interest in the hub of all independent telephone companies in the state of Iowa and has now the power to practically shut off all competition between the two concerns, which has always been very bitter.

Mutual Telephone company officers said the deal was one of the most important of its kind ever consummated in the United States, for not only the entire state of Iowa is affected, but the entire middle west.

INCUBATOR BABY IS STOLEN

Kansas Mother Lost Child and Says Real Mother Has No Right to Her.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 23.—Little Marion Bleakley, who was kidnaped at Topeka, was taken from her captors by officers here and two of the kidnapers were arrested.

The child was taken to police headquarters and will be returned to her home as soon as possible. Mrs. Edith Barclay and John Gentry were arrested at the Burlington railroad bridge.

The man, woman and child were passengers on a Chicago, Burlington & Quincy train, which they had boarded at Atchison, Kan. The train was stopped at the bridge in accordance with telegraphic orders sent from Atchison.

John Gentry, arrested in company with Mrs. Barclay and the stolen child, is an alleged gambler of Kansas City.

Mrs. Barclay was, until November, 1907, the legal foster mother of the child and entitled to its custody in the state, but what claim she can set up since the court decisions of the last two years remains to be settled.

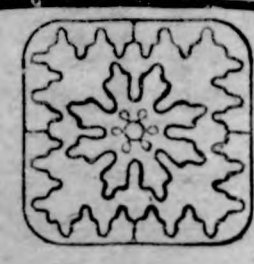
Many Killed in Strike Rioting.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 23—One state trooper, one deputy sheriff and three foreigners were shot and killed in a wild riot at the Pressed Steel Car plant in Schoenville, whose employes are now on strike. At least a score of persons were wounded, ten seriously. The rioting followed a day of quiet and broke out without warning.

Dog Causes Blody Fight.

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 23.—Reese Huck, a prominent farmer, was shot to death and four others were probably fatally wounded in a feud fight growing out of a controversy over a dog at Huntersville, twelve miles from here.

FREE



BEAUTIFUL SWISS DOILIES GIVEN AWAY

A BEAUTIFUL SWISS DOILIE W LL BE SENT TO ALL WHO SOLVE THE Jig Saw Puzzle

DIRECTIONS—Cut out the sections following the dotted lines, arrange them so as to make a square so it will read a certain sentence. If you will send it to us with your name plainly written on a self-addressed envelope, we will give you a beautiful Swiss Doilie Free. In addition to this we will give you a credit check for $25, good on any new piano in our ware rooms. Only one to each family permitted to enter.

We are giving these presents away that every home may know of the E ANS PIANO COMPANY and that we sell pianos "From Factory to Home."

Our Illustrated Catalog, describing our method of selling Pianos, Organs, Talking Machines and Musical Instruments direct from factory to home, eliminating all canvassers, soliciters and agents, giving to our customers the amount saved, will be mailed free upon application. Send your Solution at once, enclosing a self-addressed envelope.

F. O. EVANS PIANO CO., 901-903 Locust St., DES MOINES, IOWA

Railroad fare to Des Moines and return during State Fair refunded to those purchasing Pianos from us while here. "PIANOS FROM FACTORY TO HOME."

GREAT PEACE-TIME MOVEMENT

Over 6,000 Soldiers of the Regular Army Now Moving Toward Des Moines.

Fort Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 23.—The greatest peace-time movement of troops the United States has ever experienced is now in progress. Over 6,000 soldiers of the Regular Army, including cavalry, infantry, artillery, mountain batteries, engineering corps, pontoon and spar bridge trains, a balloon corps with captives, dirigibles and heavier-than-air craft for navigating the air, wagon trains carrying tents and supplies for the army, field bakeries, a hospital corps and seven great military bands are moving upon Des Moines from the four points of the compass. The columns are moving from Fort Leavenworth, from a concentration camp in Missouri, from Sparta, Wis., and from Fort Mead in South Dakota and Fort Russell in Wyoming. All troops are going over land and all are scheduled to meet in the city of Des Moines not later than September 17. The movement is a part of the regular fall manouvers requiring all troops to indulge in long practice marches. At Des Moines the troops will go into a camp that will cover 135 acres of ground on and adjoining the state fair grounds and will rest until September 20. On the morning of September 20 all the troops will parade through the principal streets of the Capital City in full dress regalia with colors flying and bands playing and will be reviewed by President Taft. President Taft will reach Des Moines at 7 a. m. and will remain until 2 p. m. After the great parade the troops will repair to the state fair grounds, where President Taft will deliver a half hour address on the army and what it means to the country. Following his address the troops will give a tournament program of three hours duration in which all of the manouvers employed in warfare will be exemplified. This will be the first of six afternoon programs to be given each day of the week of September 20. Over $3600 in prizes have been provided for the winning troops and the citizens of Des Moines have raised $3600 for this purpose.

It is expected that the greatest crowd Iowa has ever witnessed will be assembled at the fair grounds to hear President Taft and witness the tournament program on the afternoon of Monday, September 20, and that the attendance upon the following days to witness this greatest gathering of American troops in time of peace, will rival the gatherings of state fair week.

40,919 R. F. D. ROUTES IN U. S.

Uncle Sam Has Had Requests to Establish Over 60,000 Routes—Turned Down Nearly 20,000.

Washington, D. C.—The government now has 40,919 rural routes in operation through the United States, served by 40,804 carriers. Of these routes 622 are on a tri-weekly basis, in many instances one carrier serving two routes. On September 1 the postoffice department will establish 147 new rural routes and on October 1 it will put into operation fifty-four more. This will leave 1,230 petitions unacted upon. Up to the present month the postoffice department has received 60,180 petitions for rural service, upon 17,163 of which adverse reports were made.

FEATHERS WANTED. We highest cash pric
We will renovate feathers, make feath mattresses of feather beds, pillows, e Write or call for market prices.
RELIABLE FEATHER CO.
579 7 h S reet. - - - Des Moin

FURS TO ORDER AND REPAIR at 25 to 35 per cent discou Seal Skin and all other FURS MADE o to 1910 season style. All work stric guaranteed. S. B. SEFREN, 510 Loc Street, Des Moines, Iowa. Expert F rier, Designer, Cutter and Fitter.

AVIATION CARNIVAL BEGI

GREAT NUMBERS OF PEOP WITNESS FLIGHTS.

Aeronauts of Five Nations Are C testing for Handsome Prizes at Rheims, France.

Rheims, France, Aug. 23—T great carnival of aviation for wh aeronauts have been long prepari opened most auspiciously yester with an elimination race of t French entries to select the thr pilots to represent the Aero club France in the principal event of t week, the international cup of av tion. The nations taking part in carnival are France, America, A tria, England and Italy. Great nu bers of people, including many to ists from other countries, have ga ered here to witness the flights.

The entries for the various eve on the program include Lath (monoplane); Bleriot (monoplan Delagrange (biplane, with tail); P man (biplane); Sommer (biplan Santos-Dumont (monoplane); Co de Lambert, and Tissandier, pupils Wilbur Wright; Demarest (mo plane); Esnault-Pelterie (mo plane); Gobron (biplane, with t De Rue (biplane, with tail); Ruch net (biplane); Guffroy (monoplan and Glenn H. Curtiss (biplane). cial representative of the Aero club America.

It was hoped that the Wright bro ers would enter, but they declined is understood, on the ground that t objected to the clause in the r allowing machines to stop for rep or fuel during the running of races.

The grand prix de la Champa aggregating $20,000, will be awar to the pilot of the aeroplane wh has covered the greatest dista without a renewal of fuel or with coming in contact with the grou The prix de vitesse (speed test), a distance of 30 kilometers, will run on August 23 and 29, the pr totaling $4,000.

The prix de passengers, a prize $2,000, on August 23, will be awar to the pilot who has carried the gr est number of passengers a dista of 10 kilometers.

On Sunday, August 29, the prix l'altitude will be contested, the p of $2,000 to be accorded the avi attaining the greatest height.

Condemn Cows in Dairy.

Marshalltown.—In a test of eig five head of cows, comprising herd that furnishes milk to the Soldiers' home, in this city, ten the number were condemned by A. L. Wood of Hampton, and Dr J. Neiman of this city, assistant s veterinarians. Eight of the condem ed animals passed for food upon t slaughter under government ins tion, and one was so badly affe that it was declared fit only for t age.

SYNOPSIS.

Carrington loved Kate Cavenaugh, daughter of Multi-Millionaire Henry Cavenaugh. The latter liked Carrington, but refused him as a son-in-law. Young Carrington, a lawyer, held evidence of criminal financial operations, of which Cavenaugh was guilty. It was Carrington's duty to prosecute the rich man, but he decided to lay the whole matter before Kate. He did so the next day. The young woman decided that to drop the case would be cowardly even though the accused was her father. Cavenaugh offered Carrington a position at $17,000 a year. He refused it. He hid his evidence in the Cavenaugh safe, after being introduced to the millionaire's father. The evidence was stolen that night. Kate's sister Norah confided that she had told her grandfather the combination to the safe. Carrington and Kate went riding. Grandfather Cavenaugh reappeared. He called upon his son for $50,000 in return for the delivery of the evidence stolen from Carrington. The younger Cavenaugh refused his request. Then Carrington was called in to the conference and the grandfather began his life story.

CHAPTER III.—Continued.

He stopped, eying Carrington's stupefaction. The son gnawed his lips impotently.

"I was a master, after a fashion," resumed the old man, satisfied with his denouement. "I committed a dozen splendid burglaries. I never left a trail behind. The police sought for me, but did not know me either by name or by sight. This was the sword my son kept over my neck. The slightest rebellion, and he threatened to expose me. Oh, I know the boy well enough; he would have done it in those days. Once extradited to England, 30 years ago, no one would have connected our names. Yet he was afraid of me; he wasn't sure that at any time the old desire would spring up renewed. I robbed to gratify my craving for excitement rather than to fill my purse. I made an unhappy marriage; something Kate nor Norah shall do while I live. Henry was clever. He made me an allowance of two hundred a month. And how do you suppose he arranged the payment? On the first day of the month he placed the cash in a safe in the house and changed the combination. If I got the money without being caught it was mine; otherwise I went hungry. Ingenious idea, wasn't it? For I had all the excitement and none of the peril of a real burglary. Henry forgot yesterday that it was the first of the month."

The millionaire found it impossible to remain seated. He rose and paced the floor, his brows knit, his hands clenched. He was at bay. Carrington felt as if he were in the midst of some mad dream.

"Sometimes I succeeded in opening the safe; and sometimes, when luck went against me for two or three months, Norah tipped me the combination. She dared not do it too often. So the months went on. Once a month I was permitted to visit my grandchildren. My son grew richer and richer; for myself, I remained in the valley of humiliation. I had no chance. I had never met any of my son's friends; he took good care that I did not; so they were in total darkness as to my existence. But the ball and chain were knocked off last night. Your papers are, after all, only an incident. Caliban revolts. Mr. Carrington, my son! Oh, I am proud of him. I believed the genius for robbery was mine. I am a veritable tyro beside Henry. Half a dozen millions from the pockets of the poor at one fell swoop! Where's your Robin Hood and his ilk? But it isn't called robbery; it is called high finance."

He applied a match to his dead cigar and thoughtfully eyed his son.

"And there is a good joke on me, weaving in and out of all this. I regularly invested half my allowance in buying shares in my son's company, to insure my old age. It jarred me when I read the truth last night. I hate to be outwitted. Henry, sit down; you make me nervous."

"Well, what are you going to do?" asked the son. As he faced his father there was something lion-like in his expression.

"Sit down, my son, and I will tell you," answered the old man, quietly. He knew that his son was a fighter, and that to win he would have to strike quick and hard.

Cavenaugh flung himself into his chair. At that moment he did not know which he hated the most, his father or Carrington.

"First, you will write out that check for fifty thousand."

"Blackmail!"

"Nothing of the sort. For 20 years you have kept your heel on my neck. I could do nothing; opportunities came and I dared not grasp them; my genuine ability was allowed to rust. It is simply compensation. Blackmail? I think not. I could easily force a million from you. But I am and have been for years an honest man. And heaven knows how well I have paid for my early transgression," bitterly. "This hour is mine, and I propose to use it."

"What guaranty have I of your good faith?" fiercely.

"My word," calmly. "I have never yet broken it."

Carrington gazed longingly toward the door. It was horribly embarrassing. He began to realize that Kate's father would hate him bitterly, indeed, and that his own happiness looked very remote.

Cavenaugh turned to his desk, filled out the blank, and passed it to his father, who, with scarcely a glance at it, passed it back with a negative shake of the head.

"The official certifying stamp lies on your desk; use it."

There was no getting around this keen-eyed old man. He knew every point in the game.

"You will live to regret this," said Cavenaugh, his eyes sparkling with venom.

"And You Still Wish to Marry Me?" Asked the Girl.

"I have many things to regret; principally that fate made me a father." The old man passed the check over to Carrington. "You're a lawyer; does that look legal to you?"

Carrington signified that it did.

"Now, then, Henry, you will write down on official paper your resignation as president and director of the General Trust Company of America. You will give orders for the restitution of the millions that were fraudulently added to your capital. I am not the least interested in what manner the restitutions are made, so long as they are made. I am now representing the investors. As for your partners, it will be easy for you to impress them with the necessity of the action."

"And if I refuse?"

"Nothing less than the attorney general. I intend to make this business as complete as possible."

Cavenaugh turned again to his desk. He knew his father even as his father knew him. He wrote hurriedly, the pen sputtering angrily.

"What else?" with a cold fury.

Again the old man gave Carrington the paper.

"It is perfectly intelligible," he said. He began to feel a bit sorry for Cavenaugh, junior.

"Now, those papers," said Cavenaugh, sharply.

"I believe they belong to me," interposed Carrington.

Grandpa smiled. "It all depends."

"I could easily force you," suggestively.

Grandpa smiled again. "Of that I haven't the least doubt. Of course, what I have is only a copy?"

"It is the only copy in existence," replied Carrington, anxiously. And then a flush of shame mantled his cheeks. Where was his legal cunning?

"Ah!" The ejaculation came from Cavenaugh, junior.

"There is but one thing more," said grandpa, urbanely. "I am determined that Kate shall be happy. She shall marry Mr. Carrington before the snow flies. It is an excellent policy to keep valuable secrets in the family."

"Give your papers to the attorney general. I'll see you all hanged before I'll give my consent!" Cavenaugh roared out these words. His patience had truly reached the limit of endurance.

"Softly, softly!" murmured grandpa.

"I mean it!" con agitata.

"Ah, well; what will be, will be. Son, I came down here yesterday with altogether a different piece of business in mind. The documents I discovered last night changed these plans. You own rich oil lands in Texas; or, rather, you did own them before you sold out to the company. The land you sold was not, and never had been, legally yours; you owned not a single tuft of grass. Government land-grab, I believe they call it. It is not now a question of refunding money; it is a question of avoiding prison. The supreme court at Washington can not be purchased. It cost me five hundred, which I could ill afford, to get a copy of the original transfer. The real owner mistook me for you, son; that is how I learned. Your consent to this marriage; or, my word for it, I'll put you where you would have put me, had you dared. Quick! My patience is quite as tense as yours."

The collapse of Cavenaugh was total. He saw the futility of further struggle. Ah! and he had believed all these transgressions securely hidden and forgotten, that the fortress of his millions would protect him from all attack. Too late he realized that he had gone too far with his father. There was no mercy in the old man's eyes, and Cavenaugh knew in his heart that he deserved none.

"Very sensible," said the retired burglar. He folded the check and put it in his wallet, while his son covered his face with his hands. "Murder will out, even among the most pious. I know that what has passed between us will be forgotten by Mr. Carrington. For myself, I shall return to England. I have always had a horror of dying in this country. Like father, like son; the parable reads truly. It was in the blood, Mr. Carrington; it was in the blood. But Henry here went about it in a more genteel manner." He struck the bell. "William, send Miss Kate here.

Cavenaugh Turned to His Desk, Filled Out the Blank.

William bowed. He recognized the change; grandpa's voice was full of confident authority.

Kate entered the study shortly after. She had been weeping; her eyes were red. Seeing her father's bowed head, she sprang to his side like a lioness.

"What have they been doing to you, father?"

"Nothing but what is just," softly answered her parent. The little dukes and princes faded away as a dream fades.

"Grandpa—" she began.

"Child, it is all settled. The hatchet is buried in frozen ground. Your father consents to your marriage with Mr. Carrington. It has been a heated argument, but he has come around to my way of thinking. 'All's right with the world,' as Browning says. Bless you, my children, bless you!" with tender irony.

"And now, my papers," said Carrington, smiling up at the girl, reassuringly.

"And you still wish to marry me?" asked the girl, her face burning and her eyes moist.

"I'd marry you if your grandpa was Beelzebub himself!"

"Here's your papers, young man," said grandpa. He passed the envelope across the table.

"What's this?" cried Carrington.

"It means, my boy," said grandpa, "that blood is thicker than water, and that I really intended no harm to Henry. And then, besides, I like to win when all the odds are against me."

Carrington gently turned the envelope upside down. Nothing but burnt paper fluttered upon the table.

THE END.

Holiday Lavishness.

"Spending money is a thing that does not appeal to me much," remarked the man of simple tastes, "except just before a holiday. If there is anything I need in the way of what you might call a luxury, then is the time I get it, although on most other days of the year I think of the things my family needs always before I do my own. I'm always freer with tips on the eve of a holiday than at any other time, and on those days they never seem to me like a kind of blackmail, but I always give them liberally both as to amount and spirit. And the curious part of it is that when I look at the things I've bought under that influence I always have pangs of conscience, as I am now over a set of totally unnecessary mother-of-pearl waistcoat buttons and sleeve links that are the result of an ante-Thanksgiving present to myself."

A Good Inheritance.

No boy or girl can ever come to be utterly bad who remembers only love and tenderness and unselfishness and sweetness as associated with father and mother in the old-time home. Give them manly and womanly examples, give them training, give them the inspiration of devoted lives, give them these higher, deeper things. Do not care so much as to whether you are accumulating money, so that you can leave them a fortune. I really believe that the chances are against that's being a blessing for a boy. But leave them an accumulated fortune of memories and inspirations and examples and hopes, so that they are rich in brain and heart and soul and service. Then, if you happen to leave them the fortune besides, if they have all these, the fortune will be shorn of its possibilities of evil, and will become an instrument of the higher and nobler good.—Minot J. Savage.

PROVED BY TIME.

No Fear of Any Further Trouble.

David Price, Corydon, Ia., says: "I was in the last stage of kidney trouble—lame, weak, run down to a mere skeleton. My back was so bad I could hardly walk and the kidney secretions much disordered. A week after I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I could walk without a cane, and as I continued my health gradually returned. I was so grateful I made a public statement of my case, and now seven years have passed, I am still perfectly well."

Sold by all dealers. 50c a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

ONLY ONE HE EVER LOVED.

The Widower—Mary, do you know you are the only woman I ever loved?

The Widow—Oh, dear, George, you don't mean it?

The Widower—Yes, the rest were all girls!

Resinol Produces Immediate Results and Is the Surest Remedy Known for Itching Piles.

Resinol Ointment is the best thing ever produced for the relief and cure of itching piles, as can be proven by a single trial test. An occasional application will prevent the return of this annoying affection. It is an excellent healing remedy and we keep it in the house all the time.

J. R. Herzog, D. D. S., New York City.

Wedding Fee in Installments.

Some of the 'squires in rustic New Jersey seem to be pretty hard pushed for cash. To get the cash they do not hesitate to use most unusual methods. One of these J. P.'s advertised the other day that he was ready and willing to marry couples at any time, day or night, for a consideration of $5 and that he was willing to accept $1 in cash down and the rest in weekly installments of $1 until the fee of $5 was paid up. The very night after the first appearance of this advertisement the J. P. referred to was called upon to "make good" his bluff. Shortly after midnight a couple which had come in an automobile awakened him from his sleep and asked to be married under the installment plan offered in the advertisement. And the J. P. was game and made good.

He Was Well Equipped.

A Methodist bishop was recently a guest at the home of a friend who had two charming daughters. One morning the bishop, accompanied by the two young ladies, went out in the hope of catching some trout. An old fisherman, out for the same purpose, wishing to appear friendly, called out:

"Ketchin' many, pard?"

The bishop, straightening himself to his full height, replied: "Brother, I am a fisher of men."

"You've got the right kind o' bait, all right," was the fisherman's rejoinder.—Success Magazine.

Important to Mothers.

Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA a safe and sure remedy for infants and children, and see that it

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

In Use For Over 30 Years.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

Shows No Improvement.

"I don't see that her college education has improved her much."

"No?"

"No. She helps her mother with the housework just as if she hadn't been educated."—Detroit Free Press.

Don't dope yourself for every little pain. It only hurts your stomach. Such pain comes usually from local inflammation. A little rubbing with Hamlins Wizard Oil will stop it immediately.

A Feminine Chronometer.

Knicker—How long does your wife plan to be away?

Bocker—Two trunks.

A man seldom has as big a bank balance as he wants acquaintances to believe he has.

The new RUSS BLUE makes clothes whiter than snow. Delights the laundress. All grocers sell it.

The world sprinkled $1,000,000 worth of pepper on its food in 1908.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

A man who is good only on the surface is no good.

GROCERIES & HARDWARE

We always have on hand a complete line. Our Groceries are always new and fresh and the line comprises all the staples and a dandy line of Canned Goods. Our line of Shelf and Heavy Hardware is complete. We invite you to call and inspect our goods.

We want you to see us about

OILS

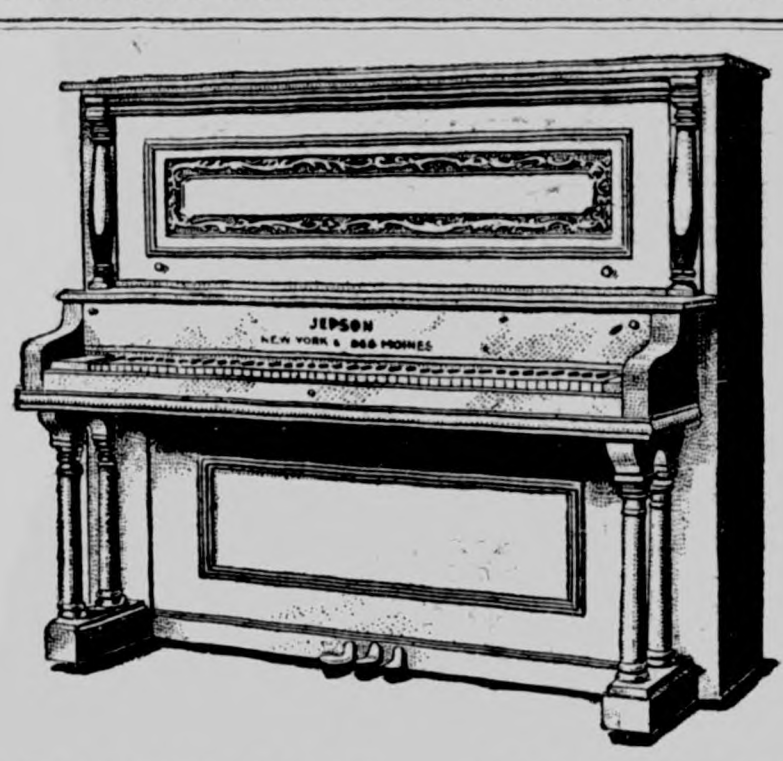
Threshing season will soon be here. Our oils are the very best. Don't forget us.

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA



MUSICAL GOODS

Pianos Six different styles, guaranteed to be right in tone, artistic in design and perfection in construction. Give us a chance to demonstrate these instruments to you. The prices on these instruments will surprise you.

SMOKERS SUPPLIES of every description—From the old familiar Missouri Meerschaum to the real genuine article. All the leading brands of Tobacco.

PRESCRIPTIONS—Bring them to us. They will be correctly compounded. A full line of Patent Medicines of every manufacture.

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile. both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, AGENT

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

German M. E. Church Items

PROGRAM

Of the 46th session of the Northwest German Conference to convene in Klemme, Iowa, Sept. 1-5, 1909:

Wednesday, Sept. 1

9:00 a. m.— Examinations of candidates for the ministry.

8:00 p. m.— Anniversary of Conference Claimants (old ministers.) Sermon by Rev. F. C. Steffler of Alden, Iowa, and an address by Dr, J. A. Multinger, of Chicago.

Thursday, Sept. 2

9:00 a. m.— Opening of the Conference. Communion service. Address by the Bishop. Conference business.

Afternoon— Committee meetings.

8:00 p. m.— Anniversary of home mission and church extension. Address by Dr. J. H. Fitzwater.

Friday, Sept. 3

9:00 a. m.— Conference business continued.

Afternoon—Committee work continued.

8:00 p. m.—Educational anniversary. Addresses by Dr. Fr. Schaub of Charles City and Rev. J. W. Feller of Dubuque.

Saturday, Sept. 4

9:00 a. m — Conference business continued.

Afternoon— Committee work continued.

3:30 p. m.—Sunday School anniversary. Address by Dr. O. S. Baketel of Chicago.

8:00 p. m.— Missionary Sermon by Rev. H. E. Hilmer of Crandon, S. D.

Sunday, Sept. 5

9.00 a. m.— Conference love feast.

10:30 a. m.—Sermon by Bishop Nuelsen.

2:30 p. m. — Ordination services

8:00 p. m.—Dr. Geo. B Smyth of San Francisco, Cal. will speak of Foreign Missions.

All the evening services and Sunday services will be held in a large tent which will be erected one block south of the city hall. We cordially invite all of our friends to attend any or all of the above meetings.

The addresses of Drs. Fitzwater, Baketel and Smyth will be in the English language.

All of our people being so very busy this week getting ready for conference, the "Standard Bearer Society" will postpone its meeting this week to some later date.

See that your subscription to the Times is kept paid up. We do not like to dun anyone for a dollar, but Uncle Sam says we must keep our list paid up. How about your account with this paper?

One Dollar

Mr. Farmer---It costs but a trifle more to buy printed letter heads and envelopes than it does to use any old thing, and certainly it looks more business like to use printed stationery For a limited time we offer you 100 sheets good writing paper and 100 good envelopes, printed with your name and address, both for $1.00. Give us your order now.

The Times Printery

Lips That Were Sealed

Do you want to read a clever love story?

¶A story that is interesting and entertaining from the first chapter to the last?

¶A story of an unselfish sister who is willing to sacrifice herself to save her brother?

¶A story of a designing "villian," but who is foiled in the end?

If so, then watch for the story which will soon be published in this paper entitled:

Lips That Were Sealed

We announce the arrival of our

New Dress Goods

All the new shades of

Green, Olive, Brown, Red, Blue and Black

We also have the new Satin finished Goods with "Jet buttons" for trimming.

It is a real pleasure for us to show you these goods and you will find it a pleasure to look them over.

mber, this is the finest and best line of Dress Goods we have ever shown—Come Now!

RTHUR WELLEMEYER

bout People You Know

LEMME MARKET.

.....	58 to 60c
.....	34 to 35½
.....	80 to 90
.....	38 to 45c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	7.00 to 7.20
.....	3.00 to 6.00

ruits at Kluckhohn's.

Velau is painting his e new ad of the State Bank.

erior of the meat mar- g re-painted.

enz and family spent at the Henry Beiers nter enjoyed a pleas- from C. B. Groesbeck ampson spent a few week at the W. C. A. e.

. Avery, of Goodell, ith friends in this vic- week.

Daylor, one of the pio ness men of Britt and nt years a merchant of , is dead.

ruetzmacher and fam- d Tuesday into their uired residence prop- outh Klemme.

Shoes for Children. ll commence soon; call my line and fi your out right. F. Gruetz- 4tf nry Medaus residence by Fred Musfeldt is ed and other improve- being made about the dersigned are now buy- n at Klemme for the Creamery Co. and so re of your patronage. market price always a fair test guaranteed. trial.

Cream Station

RHUFEN BROS.,
Klemme, Iowa.

bliged to take it for l sell it out cheap; s Stock Food. s Poultry Panacea. s Instant Louse Kills Hog Worm Powder. d at G. F. Schuler's owa.

Frona Frei was a Garner visitor Saturday.

L. A. Fuller was up from Belmond Friday.

Eyes tested. Glasses fitted. Dr. W. F. Missman.

The finest line of candies in town at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

Don't overlook the new State Savings Bank ad on page 1.

J. F. W. Vrba, of Garner, was here on business last Friday.

J. W. Waterman is treating his residence to a new coat of paint.

Wm. F. Lau and family were down from Garner to spend Sunday.

Mrs. Ralph Blank and Miss Aggie Blank were Garner visitors Saturday.

I am in need of cash and must ask those who owe me to pay up. Dr. Geo Zinn. 1w

Jack Henschen last week put in a cement crossing just north of the German M. E. church.

Mrs. Ruiter returned home last Saturday from a visit at Belmond, and since that time she has been quite sick.

The Eldora ball team defeated Garner last Saturday, score 5 to 4. Garner defeated Clear Lake Friday by a score of 4 to 3.

Mrs. W. E Sage and son Wilferd, who have been visiting here a few weeks with the Times family, left Tuesday evening for Iowa Falls to visit at the home of Mrs. Sage's sister.

A number of Klemme people are planning to take in the German Soldiers reunion at Woden on September 2nd. We hear that a special train will be run on the Rock Island for the occasion.

John Henschen and his efficient crew of helpers are putting in a cement crossing west from the German M. E. church corner. They have also laid a new cement walk along the front of Mrs. Schwichtenberg's property.

G. I. Schaper was a pleasant caller at this office Tuesday. He reports that his oats turned out fairly well this year and the quality is fine. His brother who lives in the southern part of the state writes him that the corn there is suffering badly for moisture. Hancock county is more fortunate than her neighbors further south,

H. C. Lau shipped a car of hogs yesterday.

Don't forget the Britt base ball tournament on August 25, 26 and 27.

Dr. Geo. Zinn is at Meservey today in consultation with Dr. Agler.

Esther Bloom was on the sick list a few days this week, but is now improving.

The highest market price paid for poultry. Bring it to us. H. Lau & Son. 3-2

Garner defeated Humboldt on the latter's grounds Monday by a score of 6 to 7.

Ice cream sodas, sundaes, and all kinds of cool refreshing drinks at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

John Griewe has a new acquisition in the shape of a ferocious, man-eating bull-dog.

M. I. Parker and C. A. Arnold accompanied by their sisters (?) automobiled to Belmond Tuesday.

The ladies will be especially interested in Arthur Wellemeyer's new ad this week. Be sure and read it.

Rev Hans Nissen and family left Tuesday for their home at Lehigh, after a two weeks' visit here with relatives.

New fall line of ladies' shoes received. I can show the latest and best approved styles at reasonable prices. Call and see my line. F. Gruetzmacher. 4tf

Harve Allen yesterday commenced the construction of a new cement walk along the front of Gruetzmacher Bros.' implement house.

We have received our fall line of millinery goods and will soon have something attractive to show you. Watch for announcement next week. Mrs Josten.

Bring in your Poultry this week Friday and Saturday, Aug. 27 and 28, and we will pay you 10½c for hens, 12½c for Springs, 8c for ducks, 5c for roosters and 5c for geese Ell Bros.

Ell Bros. sold their faithful old black dray team last week to Grundy Center parties who will use them on a dray line at that place. Ell Bros. are now driving a fine team of three-year olds.

Frank Allison, who is working on the Linden ranch, was the victim of a painful accident Wednesday evening of last week. While helping around the thrashing machine he got his left hand caught in the gearing of the stacker. One finger was so badly injured that amputation at the first joint was necessary, while another finger was badly mangled. The injured members are healing nicely.

Fred C. Griewe is at Mason City today on business.

Miss Gertrude Ely accompanied her sister, Miss Bessie, up from Belmond yesterday.

Try Kluckhohn's ice cream soda with crushed fruit and you will become a regular customer.

Mrs. G. A. Pabst and Mrs. W. R. Bloom and daughters, Esther and Gail, were Belmond visitors last Friday and Saturday.

L. A. Hientz is our new Rock Island agent, arriving here from Harris yesterday. J. H. Maher has gone to Clear Lake, S. D.

J. W. Morrison was here from Grundy Center last week buying horses. He purchased six head which he shipped out Sunday morning.

The Meservey Messenger has been sold by Joe A. Moore to H. H. Hallett, editor of the Thornton Enterprise, who will conduct both papers for a while at least.

Frank Kluckhohn and sister Lola went to Swea City yesterday. Frank will return this evening and Lola expects to stay for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. L. O. Turgason.

R. M. Day returned yesterday from his western trip. He took in the National G. A. R. Encampment at Salt Lake City and made an extensive trip through the state of Idaho.

It is said that an Iowa town has an ordinance providing a fine for the use of profane language inside the city limits. The fine is $3.00 for each profane word used. If we had such an ordinance in Klemme and it was properly enforced we could gravel our streets and put in cement crossings and pay for our water works system in a very short time and then have money to burn.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Never Known to Fail

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend." says H. S Nichols, of Oakland, Ind. For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

U.S. U.S. U.S.

UNITED STATES Cream Separators

save work of handling and washing pans or crocks. Skim all the cream from the milk. They are very strong and durable. Parts are few, simple, easy to get at. Have all conveniences such as low supply can, cream pail shelf, and easy to wash bowl. Examine the 1909 Model U. S. Separator at

U S U S U S

SOLD BY

ELL BROTHERS

DOCTORS

GEO. ZINN EDGAR ZINN

Office: State Savings Bank

Phone No. 19

KLEMME - - IOWA

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon,

Phone No. 11. Klemme, Iowa.

Office in the Shafer building.

Prompt attention given to calls day or night.

Eyes tested. Glasses fitted.

W. C. AMSOEN, OPT. D.

Graduate Optician,

Garner - - Iowa

☞ Eyes Tested Free.

W. R. BLOOM

Buyer and Shipper of

Grain and Live Stock

Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.

Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures

See me when you want a

Photograph

All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.

JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

JOHN GRIEWE

City Meat Market

Dealer in

All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Headquarters for part of Heinz' Fifty-Seven Varieties, and Pickling Vinegar.

Try these goods; they are fine.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER

The Tonsorial Artist

Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.

2nd door west of State Savings Bank

☞ Call in

RESTAURANT

Fresh New Candies, Nicest Line in Town

Try a "Lovers' Delight" the latest and best Ice Cream Sundae in town.

Try our Golden Orangeade, Pop and Ciders.

—Home-made Bakery Goods,— Lunches and Meals at all hours.

A. Kirkwood & Son

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.

The only livery in town

Good rigs and careful drivers

Rates reasonable

Your patronage solicited

CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

When you go to Chicago it's worth while to land at La Salle Station, in the heart of the city—right down town, within a few minutes' walking distance of

THE WHOLESALE CENTER
THE BANKING CENTER
THE SHOPPING CENTER
THE HOTEL CENTER
THE THEATER CENTER

La Salle Station

ROCK ISLAND LINES
CHICAGO TERMINAL

is the only railway station on the elevated railway loop, the finest, most commodious and best-equipped station in Chicago.

Among the features that make La Salle Station a model of its kind are the handsome and convenient woman's parlor, with maid, nearby telegraph and telephone booths, baggage and parcel rooms and an excellent restaurant.

On your next trip East take the Rock Island and land in La Salle Station.

Time tables and information on request.

L. A. HIENTZ, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

Fifty cents per acre is the price at which the State of Colorado is selling land in the Little Snake River valley, Routt County, Colorado, which is open for entry under the Carey Land Act.

Purchasers of land must also contract for a water right, to be paid for in ten annual assessments, the total cost including a perpetual water right in the Little Snake river canal system, being thirty-five dollars per acre.

This is pronounced one of the most fertile valleys in Colorado, and record crops of all grains, grasses and roots are now being raised there. Both the Moffat Road and the Union Pacific are building into the district.

Persons desiring full information about the land and water should write to the Routt County Colonization Co., 1734 Welton St., Denver, Colorado. The land is sold in tracts of 40, 80, 120 and 160 acres.

Those desiring land will have to act quickly, as the applications being received indicate that the desirable land will be quickly disposed of. The canal plans, water supply, etc., are all investigated and approved by the State Engineer.

A Classic in Kentucky.

They have been telling this story down in the Blue Grass so long that the Louisville Courier-Journal says it is regarded as a classic:

"Majah," announced the colonel, "I'll bet I've sweat no less than 17 gallons!"

"Begging your pardon, kunnel," returned the major, desisting from a long libation, "gentlemen don't sweat; they perspire. Horses sweat."

"Well, then," returned the now irritated colonel, glaring at the calm and contented critic of his diction, "by gad, suh, I'm a hoss!"

People Becoming Interested.

Evidence of the popular interest in the anti-consumption crusade is given in a statement made by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, to the effect that during the year ending August 31, nearly 3,000,000 people have attended tuberculosis exhibitions in various parts of the country. Besides the three traveling tuberculosis exhibitions of the national association, there are 28 exhibits of this kind throughout the United States. Four years ago there were only three such displays in the entire country.

Trifle Too Esthetic.

"There's no use o' talkin'," said Farmer Corntossel, as he sat down on the horse trough. "I can't git along with some o' these here summer guests." "What's the trouble?" "I have jes' been lectured by that good lookin' young woman with glasses fur sp'ilin' the color scheme of the garden by puttin' paris green on the vegetables."

Latest from Atchison.

This is the latest story in Atchison: A young visiting man was declaring that the theory is all nonsense about kissing being dangerous on account of germs conveyed from one mouth to another. "I've kissed hundreds of girls," he declared, "and I'm not dead yet."

Promptly one of the listeners inquired: "But what about the girls?"—Kansas City Journal.

Mother-in-Law Again.

Husband—Why do you hate to see me come home smiling?

Wife—Because I know it means something has happened to poor mother.—Illustrated Bits.

THREE REASONS
Each with Two Legs and Ten Fingers.

A Boston woman who is a fond mother writes an amusing article about her experience feeding her boys.

Among other things she says: "Three chubby, rosy-cheeked boys, Rob, Jack and Dick, aged 6, 4 and 2 years respectively, are three of our reasons for using and recomending the food, Grape-Nuts, for these youngsters have been fed on Grape-Nuts since infancy, and often between meals when other children would have been given candy.

"I gave a package of Grape-Nuts to a neighbor whose 3 year old child was a weazened little thing, ill half the time. The little tot ate the Grape-Nuts and cream greedily and the mother continued the good work, and it was not long before a truly wonderful change manifested itself in the child's face and body. The results were remarkable, even for Grape-Nuts.

"Both husband and I use Grape-Nuts every day and keep strong and well and have three of the finest, healthiest boys you can find in a day's march."

Many mothers instead of destroying the children's stomachs with candy and cake give the youngsters a handful of Grape-Nuts when they are begging for something in the way of sweets. The result is soon shown in greatly increased health, strength and mental activity.

"There's a Reason."

Look in pkgs. for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

M. E. CONFERENCE

Mason City to Be Scene of Big Methodist Meeting.

TO BE HELD TUESDAY, SEPT. 28

Bishop Berry Will Preside at Upper Iowa Conference—Contains 37,000 Members and 275 Regular Preachers.

Mason City, Ia., Aug. 23.—The Upper Iowa conference, one of the largest in western Methodism, will convene in this city Tuesday, September 28 with Bishop Berry presiding. The conference contains 37,000 members, 275 regular preachers and 329 churches. Lay delegates will also be present at this conference. The program in brief is as follows:

September 28—Examinations of undergraduates. Welcome addresses by Judge J. J. Clark and F. R. Currie. Response, Bishop Berry. Epworth league anniversary; addresses Drs. Randall and Lockwood.

September 29—Temperance day. Addresses by Bishop Berry, Rev. Hagerman of Des Moines, Dr. Hull of Waterloo, Home Mission and church extension anniversaries, address by Dr. Ward Platt of Philadelphia. Methodist brotherhood, address by Dr. Patterson of New York and Dr. N. M. Smith of Marshalltown.

September 30—Address, Bishop Berry, "A Minister of Sunshine and Sense." Business session. Woman's foreign missionary society anniversary, address by Miss Daisy Wood, missionary elect for India. Anniversary of Freedman's Aid, address by Rev. M. C. B. Mason of New York.

October 1—Address, Bishop Berry, "The Ministers' Chief Peril." Woman's Home Missionary society anniversary, address by Mrs. Mabel Qualm-Hilbish of Des Moines. Educational society anniversary, addresses by President Cooper and President Harlan. Sunday school institute conducted by Rev. Edgar Blake and Rev. S. R. Beatty of Marion.

October 2—Address, Bishop Berry, "That Mid-Week Meeting." Conference claimants anniversary, address by Rev. Hingely of Chicago. Laymen's anniversary meeting.

October 3—Conference love feast led by Rev. John Gammons. Sermon by Bishop Berry. Memorial addresses, followed by ordination services. Young People's rally, led by Rev. Sluffer of Osage. Anniversary of foreign missionary society, address by Dr. Stuntz of New York.

October 4—Address, Bishop Berry, "Unusual Forces of Evangelism." Business and reading of appointments.

Dairy Picnics Popular in Iowa.

Fertile.—This section of the country is thoroughly aroused over dairying. It has really shoved baseball tournaments and carnivals off the boards. Spontaneously several of the towns have advertised the dairymen's picnic and wherever they have been held they have been well patronized. Three were held the past week. At the Fertile celebration some of the leading men of the state were on for addresses and this was true also of Nora Springs and Plymouth. W. B. Barney, president of the dairy association; H. R. Wright, state food and dairy commissioner; Professor H. G. Van Pelt, state dairy expert; Sam Schilling of Chicago and S. B. Nichols appeared on all these programs. At Fertile the speaking was laid aside during the noon hour and all present enjoyed a barbecue of roast ox.

Gilman Man Buried Alive.

Marshalltown.—While engaged in making excavations for a sewer near Gilman, Ia., Thomas Barberry was buried under four tons of earth that caved in, filling the deep ditch in which he was working. Twenty men worked half an hour in rescuing the imprisoned man, who was taken out unconscious but still alive. All that saved Barberry was the formation of a pocket or air chamber about the man's head, giving him sufficient air to keep him alive until the work of rescue could be performed.

Companies Settle Claim.

Mason City.—A settlement was affected between representatives of the estate of the late Patrick Dunleavy, as plaintiff, and the Edison Light company and the Iowa Telephone company of Des Moines as defendants, whereby the two companies pay the sum of $5,700 for the life of Mr. Dunleavy.

Called to Fairfield Church.

Corning—Rev. A. G. Graves has accepted the call of the Congregational church at Fairfield to become their pastor and will commence his work the middle of September.

Big Telephone Changes.

Mason City.—A deal has just been closed whereby the Western Electric Telephone company of this city has purchased a controlling interest in the Algona Telephone system, which is valued at $25,000. The Algona sys- has exchanges at Algona, Whittemore and Bancroft. A complete reorganization of the officiary has been effected, with B. C. Way of this city at the head, and early next spring the plant at Algona will be rebuilt and new service installed. The officers elected were: President, B. C. Way, Mason City; vice president, L. J. Dickinson, Algona; secretary, D. J. Meighan, Mason City; treasurer, E. E. Conners, Algona. Directors, B. C. Way, T. A. Potter, D. J. Meighan, C. C. Summers, Mason City. E. L. Hall, Des Moines; J. L. Dickinson, B. H. Gardner, E. E. Conners and C. F. Lathrop, Algona.

Sunday School Workers to Meet.

Clear Lake.—The seventeenth annual conference of the Northwest District American Sunday School union will meet here on September 14 and will continue in session eight days. This district embraces the states of Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Minnesota, Iowa, South Dakota, North Dakota Nebraska and Montana. In this field are two hundred employed workers and these will all be present, beside a host of Sunday school enthusiasts. Superintendent G. P. Williams, D. D., of Chicago, will move his headquarters to this city. On the program will be addresses by Dr. E. P. Bancroft of New York, Dr. J. M. Andrews of Philadelphia, and Dr. Warren Carver of Boston, beside a number of lesser lights in the Sunday school work.

Remarkable Birthday Party.

Iowa City.—A birthday party of unusual type was celebrated here when Mrs. Catherine Wagner, one of Iowa City's early settlers, commemorated her 89th birthday. Aiding in the celebration were four pioneers, whose combined aged were nearly 300 years, who attended Mrs. Wagner's birthday party twenty-five years ago. They were Mrs. G. Sueppel, Mrs. A. Baschnagel, Mrs. Dora Louis and Mrs. T. Hohenschuh, all of Iowa City. Mrs. Wagner has lived here more than a half century, and is a woman of remarkable memory, despite her almost 90 years. She recalls the birth, and can give the exact age of every boy, girl, man and woman of her acquaintance, who has been born in Iowa City since she came here in the '50's.

Mail Carrier Quits at Age of 80.

Ames.—Charles Hamilton, who was recently appointed as mail carrier on rural route No. 1, out of this city, has assumed his duties. He was appointed to fill the place of Henry May, who resigned a couple of weeks ago at the age of eighty years. Colonel May was the first mail carrier in Story county to drive a rural route, and he was also the oldest in point of years. During his life he served the government in different capacities. He was United States consul to Gaboon, Africa, during the Lincoln administration.

Girl Saves Lives of Two.

Sioux City.—A young heroine whom all Sioux City is praising is 16-year-old Hazel Madden, an employe of a local department store. Seeing Fern Chester, aged 6, and Florence Delbridge, aged 7, wading to their certain death in the Missouri river, the Madden girl went to their aid alone. By the time she reached the little girls, they were up to their necks and rapidly sinking in a quicksand. It was all she could do to pull them out of the watery mire, but she accomplished the feat and rescued both the little girls unharmed.

Poor Wheat at Elliott.

Elliott.—During the past week or ten days of threshing the farmers have found out that the wheat crop was of a poor quality and very meager in quantity, some pieces only making 5 bushels to the acre and none over 18 or 20 bushels to the acre. The spring wheat was hardly worth cutting, but every one thought the winter wheat good, the oats are better in quantity and quality than last year.

Female Raffles at Work.

Des Moines—Money and jewelry valued at $300 was secured in two residences on West Seventh street by a female raffles, who is reported to have worked through the residence portion of the city. A number of other residences have been reported to the detective department as being entered, but no loss was discovered except in the two places.

New Cashier at Osceola.

Osceola.—Roy Armstrong of the Creston National bank has been elected cashier of the State bank of this place, which has over $200,000 deposits.

PAINT BEAUTY.

Assured of durability, the next thought in painting is beauty—the complete aim being durable beauty, or beautiful durability.

National Lead Company here again offer you the co-operation of their paint experts—this time in the line of color schemes, artistic, harmonious and appropriate. You have only to write National Lead Company, 1902 Trinity Building, New York City, for "Houseowners' Painting Outfit No. 49," and you will promptly receive what is really a complete guide to painting, including a book of color schemes for either exterior or interior painting (as you may request), a book of specifications, and also an instrument for detecting adulteration in paint materials. This outfit is sent free, and, to say the least, is well worth writing for.

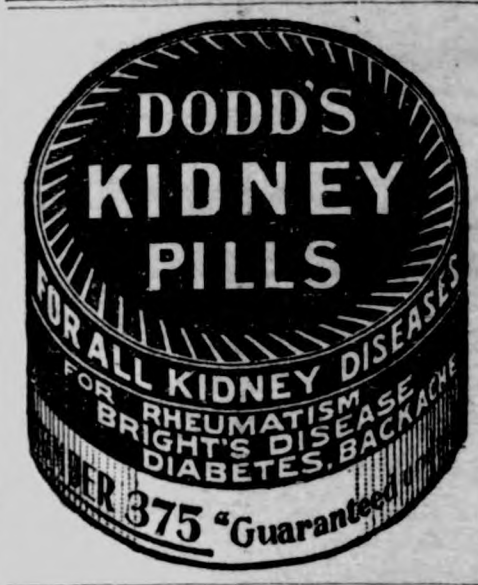
Appropriate Terms.

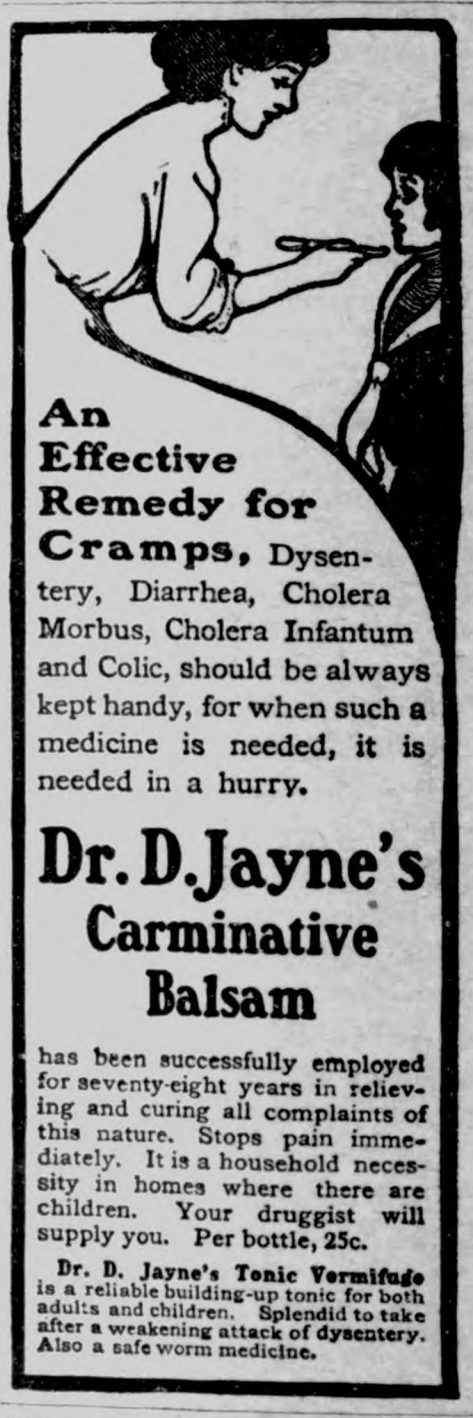
"Are Jake's rates for his aeroplane high?"

"You bet. Sky high."

DO YOUR CLOTHES LOOK YELLOW? If so, use the new RUSS BLUE. It will make them white as snow. All grocers.

The smile that is honest is the one that won't come off.





An Effective Remedy for Cramps, Dysentery, Diarrhea, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum and Colic, should be always kept handy, for when such a medicine is needed, it is needed in a hurry.

Dr. D. Jayne's Carminative Balsam

has been successfully employed for seventy-eight years in relieving and curing all complaints of this nature. Stops pain immediately. It is a household necessity in homes where there are children. Your druggist will supply you. Per bottle, 25c.

Dr. D. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is a reliable building-up tonic for both adults and children. Splendid to take after a weakening attack of dysentery. Also a safe worm medicine.

Machinery Machine Shop and Foundry. Largest stock of used machinery in Iowa. Engines, Boilers, Steam Pumps, Belting, Shafting, Hangers, etc., bought and sold. American Iron Works, 213-223 E. First St., Des Moines, Iowa

CUTICURA COMFORT

FOR LITTLE FAT FOLKS

Most grateful and comforting a warm bath with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointings with Cuticura. This pure, sweet, economical treatment brings immediate relief and refreshing sleep to tortured and disfigured little ones and rest to tired, fretted mothers. For eczemas, rashes, itchings, irritations and chafings, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are worth their weight in gold.

Sold throughout the world. Depots: London, Charterhouse Sq.; Paris, 5, Rue de la Paix; Australia, R. Towns & Co., Sydney; India, B. K. Paul, Calcutta; China, Hong Kong Drug Co.; Maruya, Ltd., Tokio; Russia, Ferrein, Moscow; So. Africa, Lennon, Ltd., Cape Town, etc.; United States, Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

This Trade-mark Eliminates Uncertainty in the purchase of paint materials. It is an absolute guarantee of purity and quality. For your protection see that it is on the side of every keg of white lead you buy.

NATIONAL LEAD COMPANY, 1902 Trinity Building, New York

A $—Dollar for a Dime

Why spend a dollar when 10c buys a box of CASCARETS at any drug store and get as directed—get the natural, easy way. Saves many dollars wasted on medicines that do not cure. Millions regulate with CASCARETS. Buy a box now and get a week's treatment—proof in the using.

CASCARETS 10c a box for a week's treatment, all druggists. Biggest seller in the world. Million boxes a month.

MINNESOTA LAND FOR SALE

I sell direct to the Farmer. No agents, no Middlemen, no exorbitant commissions. If you want a good home in one of the best parts of the United States where land is selling for less than one-half its real value, write or call on H. L. WOOD, Cashier First National Bank, Warren, Minn.

SEMA CREAM removes tan, sunburn, freckles and pimples. 10c size by mail. J. E. Cagwin, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

NCLE SAM'S FLOUR

vernment Seizes Government's Flour at Army Post.

IPPED IN BY OMAHA FIRM

dike Milling Company Which Is Preparing to Test Secretary Wilson's Decision, Loses 310 Sacks in Raid.

Des Moines, Aug. 21.—It was the vernment against the government en Frank Nichols, deputy United tes marshal, went to Fort Des ines, where he seized 310 sacks of ur that are claimed to be adulter- d.

The deputy marched right past the rd at the big gate and straight to headquarters of Colonel West d informed the commanding officer t he had come to seize the car d of flour sent to the quartermas- 's department from the Updike lling company of Omaha. The col- el was very much surprised but de no resistance to the deputy and mediately turned over the goods. t is claimed by the federal officials t the flour is bleached with nitro- peroxide, which is in violation of national pure food law.

The seizure is the fourth that has en made upon the flour manufac- ed by the Omaha concern in the st two weeks.

mand for Maps Large.

Though there was agitation in the t legislature to abolish the pub- ing of the official railroad maps, demand this year has been al- st double previous years. Requests received in every mail at the of- of the state railroad commission one of the peculiar features is t many of the senators and rep- entatives who were inclined to op- e the printing of the maps now for them through the mails.

rd Decides It Can Raise Rates.

owa's board of railroad commis- ers has the right to raise railroad es as well as lower them, ac- ding to an opinion handed down the board. It is the first time this stion has ever been passed upon. the board points out that "it is portant rather as an abstract prop- ion than otherwise for the reason t modern conditions all tend to a ering of rates rather than raising m."

Band to Give Concerts.

he largest band ever heard in Des ines will entertain the visitors to national military tournament at fair grounds the week of Septem- 19. It is planned by the Com- rcial club to give two to four band ncerts on the downtown streets ing the day and to mass the sev- l bands in attendance and give a gnificent concert of ninety minutes h evening.

oman Asks Citizenship.

lizabeth Peterson has made ap- cation in district court to Natural- ion Clerk Ed. Mahan for her first izenship papers. She desires to ounce her allegiance to the crown- heads of Norway and become a zen of this country so as to secure e of Uncle Sam's free land. She the second woman to seek natur- ation since the new law of 1906.

tors Will Greet Taft.

he platform from which President t will speak in Des Moines at the te house will accommodate 400 ple. One hundred and fifty Iowa tors have been honored with in- tions to occupy seats there and termed "vice presidents of the eting." The address will be given er the military review on the rning of Sept. 20.

ator Cummins Has Protege.

enator Cummins has brought back m Washington with him a young pino, Caesar Carballas by name. young man is a student of one he technical schools in Washington waited on table at the Arlington el where Mr. and Mrs. Cummins ed in Washington. He later be- e their horseman and will have ilar duties here.

men's Clubs Win.

eorge S. Kessler, city landscape hitect of Kansas City, probably l be employed by the city to come Des Moines and lay out a plan for extensive system of boulevards drives, the improvement and tification of the river front and grouping of the public buildings.

ck for State Fair Arrives.

ive stock exhibits are arriving at state fair grounds. The first ex- t of cattle came from L. A. Mc- ig, an Illinois breeder.

Every Day a Special Day.

Every day will be a special day at the Iowa state fair this year. Secretary John C. Simpson has just finished making up the complete program for the entire eight days, and it has been so arranged that there will be something doing every minute. More special attractions have been provided for this year's fair than ever before, and they are of a higher class than usual, acording to Mr. Simpson.

Friday, Aug. 27—Opening day.
Saturday, Aug. 28—Children's day.
Monday, Aug. 30—Des Moines day.
Tuesday, Aug. 31—Soldier's day.
Wednesday, Sept. 1—State day.
Thursday, Sept. 2—Old Settler's day.
Friday, Sept. 3—Parade day.

Old Settlers Picnic.

At the picnic of the Early Settlers association at Union park in Des Moines, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: W. H. McHenry, president; George L. Dobson, first vice president; Mae McClellan, second vice president; W. B. Keffer, secretary, James H. Dean, treasurer, and J. M. Corey, chaplain. Isaac Brandt was reelected historian. Isaac Brandt then read the mortuary list for the year. There were 151 names on the list, more than in any other year in the history of the association.

Corn Growers Will Meet.

September 2 is the date set by the Iowa Corn Growers' association for the annual meeting. The session will be held in the evening in the college exhibits building at the state fair grounds. On the afternoon of the same day, Thursday of state fair week, the Short Course association will have its annual meeting. The two gatherings will be held in the assembly hall, which has been fitted out in the college exhibits building.

Will Elect Secretary Soon.

A meeting of the new state conservation commission will be held in Des Monies probably the first week in September. Prof. Thomas H. Macbride of Iowa City was in Des Moines and consulted with A. C. Miller, chairman of the board, in regard to the meeting date. No definite date was fixed for the session at which a secretary will be elected, and the organization of the commission completed.

Demands Cheaper Rooms.

The Commercial club has announced that it will refuse to list rooms for the state fair information bureaus which command a higher price than $1 a night for two persons. Secretary Botsford declares the average visitor from outside the state does not care to pay more than 50 cents for his night's lodging.

Hog Exhibit Is Smaller.

"The great Iowa hog" will not be so much in evidence at the state fair this year as last. R. Sherman Johnston, superintendent of the swine department, who was in Des Moines, announced that the entries total 150 pens less than last year. About 1,000 pens, or 2,500 hogs, have been entered.

Governor Names Appraisers.

Byron Madison of Rockwell City, Jonas P. Johnson of Gowrie and E. R. Wood of Jefferson have been named by Governor Carroll as appraisers for the land comprising the meandered Pond Grove lake in Calhoun county. The land will be sold by the state as soon as the appraisement is completed.

Prefers Marriage to Arrest.

Rather than be placed on trial on a serious criminal charge, John Lewis, a barber of Grimes, Iowa, secured a marriage license to wed Miss Josie Swallow of Waukee, aged 18. A warrant for the arrest of Lewis has been in the hands of Sheriff Ness for a week or more, but Lewis could not be located.

Grinnell Firm Bankrupt.

The Citizens National bank, the Grinnell Savings bank and the Merchants National bank, all of Grinnell, have filed an involuntary petition in bankruptcy in the federal court against the Grinnell Blanket and Pad company. The three banks have claims aggregating $6,000 against the company.

Y. M. C. A. Shows Wondrous Gain.

The Y. M. C. A. of Des Moines has increased its membership from 900 in May to 1,200 at the present time. This is the summer membership, but as nearly three-fourths of these take out memberships for the winter, it is considered a wonderful gain.

Mrs. Perigo Juvenile Home Matron.

Mrs. Jerome E. Perigo will control the destinies of the Polk county children who are to be placed in the new juvenile home. Her name was selected from a list of a half dozen applicants at a meeting of the county supervisors.

WORTH MOUNTAINS OF GOLD

During Change of Life, says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Graniteville, Vt. — "I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved worth mountains of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter." — MRS. CHAS. BARCLAY, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life. It costs but little to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, as Mrs. Barclay says, it is "worth mountains of gold" to suffering women.

SICK HEADACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cured by these Little Pills.

They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature

Brent Good

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

Readers of this paper desiring to buy anything advertised in its columns should insist upon having what they ask for, refusing all substitutes or imitations.

NORTHEASTERN IDAHO

Come to Fremont County, which contains 250,000 acres of the richest sub-irrigated land in the state, and only 60 miles from Yellowstone Park. The land lays level, rich volcanic ash soil. Our lands produce oats 90 bushels; wheat, barley and speltz 60 bushels per acre, and alfalfa and timothy 5 to 7 tons. One of the greatest Dairy and Stock countries in the West. Price of land from $25 up, with a perpetual water right. Write for illustrated booklet and map.

IDAHO LAND & LOAN CO., ST. ANTHONY, IDAHO

LIVE STOCK AND MISCELLANEOUS ELECTROTYPES

In great variety for sale at the lowest prices by WESTERN NEWSPAPER UNION, 73 W. Adams St., Chicago

OWN AN IRRIGATED FARM

An Unprecedented Opportunity to Buy Irrigated Lands in an Ideal Climate, for $65 to $80 an Acre

Secretary Wilson of the U. S. Department of Agriculture is authority for the statement that the Laramie Valley contains "some of the best land on the face of the earth."

We offer for sale in 40, 80 and 160 acre tracts some of the best land in the Laramie Valley, Wyoming. It lies in the wonderfully rich river bottom, is under irrigation; is from 1 to 5 miles from the railroad station; only 12 to 17 miles from Laramie, a city of 10,000 population, the location of the Wyoming State University, and the Agricultural Experiment Station; and carries with it perpetual and inherent water rights, so there is no water tax. Water rights alone, on land producing the crops this land will produce are valued at $500 per acre.

Irrigated farms in the Laramie Valley produce enormous crops: Potatoes 200 to 600 bushels per acre; oats 70 to 137; wheat 50 to 70; barley 60 to 140; alfalfa 4 to 5 tons; hay 2 to 3 tons; sugar beets 20 to 25 tons; field peas 4 to 5 tons; onions 45 tons; turnips 40 tons; parsnips 30 tons. Alfalfa alone will net you from $50 to $55 per acre in one season, nearly paying for the land at the prices we are selling it.

Sixty miles south in the Ft. Collins (Colo.) district irrigated lands are selling for $200 to $300 an acre, and our lands will rapidly increase to those prices until they are worth three and four times what you can buy them for now. This is the invariable history of all irrigated lands. Now is the time to buy. You can buy these lands for investment and make them pay for themselves in four or five years without ever going near them. You can make them pay for themselves within a couple of years if you farm them yourself. Irrigated lands are the best investment in the world to-day. We have divided 7,000 acres in tracts as follows:

25 Special 80 Acre Tracts in Hay.

25 tracts of 80 acres each which are now seeded to timothy and redtop and yielding average annual crops of 2 tons an acre will be sold for $75 an acre, payable $2,000 cash, the balance in 1, 2 and 3 years with 6% interest. This hay is worth and sells for $10 to $15 per ton. If desired we will harvest this hay for you for three years, taking half the crop and giving you half the crop, free of all expense to you. This should net you a profit of $10 to $15 per acre, which is equal to 6% income on $160 to $250 value per acre. That is from 2 to 4 times what you can get out of land (rented) in Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa and Indiana, costing $100 to $150 an acre.

50 Special 80 Acre Tracts in Alfalfa.

50 tracts of 80 acres each will be seeded by us without cost to you to alfalfa, and harvested by us for you for three years, we taking half the crop and giving you half, if you desire. Alfalfa yields from 4 to 5 tons per acre, and sells for $12 to $18 per ton. These 50 tracts will be sold for $80 per acre, payable $2,000 cash, the balance 1, 2 and 3 years with 6% interest. Your net profits or returns per acre on the basis of a yield of 4 to 5 tons at the prices of $12 to $18 per ton would be $24 to $36 per acre, thus paying for the land in three to four years, by which time every acre should be worth from $160 to $200.

25 Special Tracts of 40 Acres Each.

25 tracts of 40 acres each will be sold for $65 an acre, payable $875 cash, the balance 1, 2 and 3 years with interest at 6%. These tracts are ready for raising oats, wheat, barley, potatoes, sugar beets, peas, turnips, tomatoes, cabbage, celery and cantaloupes. Wyoming produces a greater yield per acre of potatoes than any other state in the Union, not even excepting the famous Greeley (Colo.) district, which is only some 60 miles distant. 40 acres adjoining this property have made the phenomenal yield of 138 bushels of oats to the acre weighing 47 pounds to the bushel. Any farmer can make these tracts pay for themselves twice over in potatoes the first year.

Whether as an investment or as a home, you cannot buy better lands anywhere in the United States. Free excursion to buyers. Applications for allotments of these tracts will be recorded in the order of their receipt. Excursion day September 21. There are only 100 of these tracts, hence you will have to act quickly. Get your application on file to-day. Use the coupon.

Irrigated Lands Co.,
115 Adams Street,
Chicago, Ill.

Please send me your booklet, and register me as an applicant to purchase subject to inspection and perfect title, ———80 acre tract in hay at $75 per acre.

———80 acre tract in alfalfa at $80 per acre.
———40 acre tract at $65 per acre.

Name .....

Town..... State.....

You may buy one-half a tract or two or more tracts.

PATENTS Watson E. Coleman, Washington, D.C. Books free. Highest references. Best results.

A-B-C TEA Cures all Kidney, Stomach and Blood Disorders. Price 25c.

IOWA FARMS $1 PER ACRE CASH BALANCE ½ CROP TILL PAID

DRAKE UNIVERSITY

Established in 1881, its growth has been continuous, The annual attendance has increased until it has reached over 1800. More than 150 instructors are employed. Ten buildings are devoted exclusively to school purposes. Library facilities are unexcelled in the West.

Drake University is ideally located in the Capital city of Iowa, is open to both men and women on equal terms; expenses are low, and opportunities for remunerative employment are unusually good.

Fall Quarter opens September 20th. 1909.

COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS—Course of four years, leading to the degree of A. B., Ph. B., S. B. Courses requiring an additional year's work leading to the corresponding Master's degree.

COLLEGE OF THE BIBLE—English courses, leading to certificate. Graduate course, requiring three years' work, leading to degree of D. B.

COLLEGE OF LAW—Three-year course, leading to degree of LL. B.

COLLEGE OF MEDICINE—Four-year course, leading to degree of M. D. Two-year course in Pharmacy.

COLLEGE OF DENTISTRY—Three-year course leading to the degree of D. D. S.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION—Course of four years, leading to degree of Ed. B. Two-year courses arranged especially for Grade, Primary, Kindergarten, and Domestic Science teachers and supervisors. State certificates granted without examination.

COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS, including:

Conservatory of Music—Four-year courses in Voice, Piano, Pipe Organ, Violin, Cornet and other orchestral instruments, Harmony, Musical History and Theory.

School of Painting and Drawing—Courses in drawing, in painting in oil, pastel, water colors, etc.

School of Dramatic Art—Two-year courses in Physical Culture, Voice Training and Dramatic Reading.

THE UNIVERSITY HIGH SCHOOL—Classical, Scientific and Commercial courses, preparing students for entrance to college.

SPECIAL COURSES—Courses for Music Supervisors, Drawing Supervisors and for teachers who wish certificate work and instruction in methods. Music courses especially for children.

For catalogue or other information concerning any of these colleges or schools, address,

THE PRESIDENT, Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

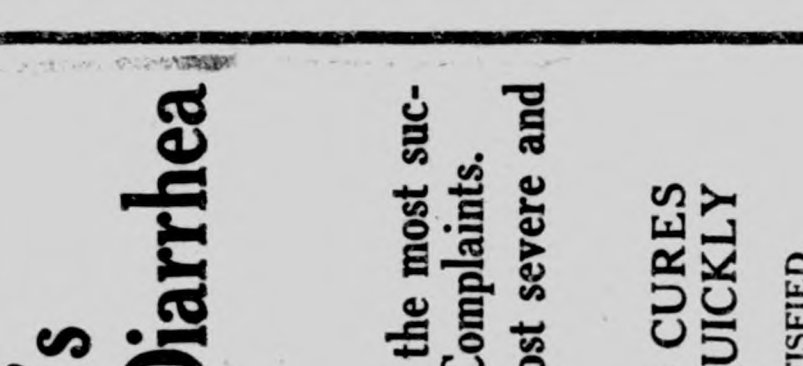
Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy

Acknowledged everywhere to be the most successful medicine in use for Bowel Complaints.

Can be depended upon in the most severe and dangerous cases.

REMEMBER ALWAYS CURES CURES QUICKLY

MONEY RETURNED IF NOT SATISFIED



Reduced fac simile

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

What Do You Know About This?

A novel machine which will shock grain, eight bundles to the shock, and may be attached to a self binder, has just been invented and was given a tryout at Klemme this week. The tryout is a complete success, the machine placing the bundles firmly on the ground and in much nicer shape than can be done by hand. As the bundles come from the machine they are caught and held in a vise like arrangement and at the will of the operator drop the shock to the ground, arms being arranged to steady the shock until it settles. The device is patented by A. T. Swenson and Keene Bros. —Times-Republican.

ELL CENTER

Special Correspondence:

Mr. and Mrs. Esk visited with Luke Wessels Sr. and family Sunday.

Hod Lawhorn and wife drove to Miller Sunday and spent the day with relatives.

Mrs. Haskir, of Klemme, visited at Dan Webner's Sr. Tuesday.

Mrs. Henry Freie and daughter, Liddie, visited at Joe Lawhorn's Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitkin of Garner, were here Monday.

(Too late for last week)

Will Gilbert of Garner visited at Joe Lawhorn's Sunday.

Miss Ruth Bonar came down from Forest City Saturday evening for a visit at Wm. Yohn's.

Joe Stoker and sister Ethel, of Forest City, were at Hod Lawhorn's over Sunday.

Gertie Wessel returned to her home Friday, after spending several weeks with relatives at Klemme.

Frank Schwartz of near Garner was a caller at Henry Josten's Sunday.

Seared With a Hot Iron

or scalded by overturned kettle—cut with a knife—bruised by slammed door—injured by gun or in any other way—the thing needed at once is Bucklen's Arnica Salve to subdue inflamation and kill the pain. It's earth's supreme Healer, infallible for boils, ulcers, fever sores, eczema and piles. 25c at G. A. Pabst & Co.

How He Hunted Bear.

A New York Irishman was visiting a friend in the Adirondacks and was taken with a desire to go hunting. Borrowing a gun from his friend he set off alone in search of game. Some time after his host heard a distant report of a gun. A few minutes later he heard some one shouting. From a window he spied, in the distance, his friend, hot-footing it for home, and behind him a bear, gaining at every step. Nearly spent, the pursued reached the door just in time to cry out:

"Quick, Mike! Quick! Open the door! I'm bringing him home aloive!"

Honors Easy.

People who were present smiled at the little passage of arms which took place between two young ladies at a luncheon recently. One of them, a bride, shaking hands in her characteristically cordial way, said to the other:

"I'm so glad to meet you! You have afforded me so very much amusement just lately."

"Amusement?" said the other.

"Oh, yes," went on the bride. "I've been through my husband's desk, and I've read all his old love letters. I found several very affectionate letters from you, and I enjoyed reading them, really, ever so much."

"I'm so glad you enjoyed them," purred the other. "But do come and see me very soon. Here is my card. I have the answers to all those letters and you might like to read them as well. Mr. X——'s letters are so much more affectionate than those I wrote to him. I know you'll enjoy reading them ever so much more than you did mine."

Books
Pamphlets
Letter Hea
Envelopes

Everything printed from

TYPE

At the Times office.

Cards
Invitations
Bill He Fosters

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLO

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICI
LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STA
Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES.
days treatment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refun
All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by ma press. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage.
low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for ter sultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without harmful instruments. fully explains.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the causing nervous debility, of the nervous system, etc., permanently

BLOOD POISON —That terrible dise its stages, cured for Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, and all private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few da pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon applica description of above dis effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrap

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOIN

RUPTURE, PILES

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolutely safe and permanent. Write to or call and the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were afflicted Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia.
Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines,
E. C. Miller, Des Moines,
John H. Looby, Des Moines

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you postage paid. This book co much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonial Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the Write today—it will pay you.

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES,

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:34 p. m.
82 ..... 2:35 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:55 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

PATENTS

DESIGNS
TRADE-MARKS
AND COPYRIGHTS
OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"

Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,
E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

McCALL PATTERNS 10¢ AND 15¢ NONE HIGHER

McCALL'S 5 YE INCLUDING

McCALL PATTERNS
Celebrated for style, perfect fit, reliability nearly 40 years. every city and town in the Canada, or by mail direct. any other make. Send for

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
More subscribers than any magazine—million a month. est styles, patterns, dressmaking, plain sewing, fancy needlework, etiquette, good stories, etc. year (worth double), including Subscribe today, or send for

WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS to Agents. Postal brings and new catalogue, offers. Address

THE McCALL CO., 238 to 248 W. 37th St.

Electr Bitter

Succeed when everything e
In nervous prostration and weaknesses they are the remedy, as thousands have

FOR KIDNEY, LIVER STOMACH TROU

it is the best medicine e over a druggist's count

Just Dust It on
HEALS Wire Cuts,
HEALS Collar Gall
work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the
Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prep
Money Back if Not Sat
The RED STAR HEALING
(25c. and 50c. Cans). GA

THE KLEMME TIMES

VOLUME XIV. NUMBER 5 KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1909. $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

IS THIS YOU?

YOUR MONEY IS YOUR BEST FRIEND, PUT IT IN THE BANK.

Have You Ever

d reverses and thought your friends would help you, and when you asked for help found that most friendships cease when they cost a man money savings account started today will save many bitter disappointments in after life.

?

Start today. We are here to help you save.

State Savings Bank.

lemme - - Iowa

A CONVINCER

The best convincer on earth is a good, honest trial of any line of goods.

We claim for our lumber and building material that it is as good or better than can be purchased elsewhere, and to substantiate this claim, we ask an honest trial of our goods. We can quote you as good a price as anyone.

May we figure on your next lumber bill?

H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, AGENT
KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J. W. WATERMAN

Grandma Gruetzmacher

"Therefore, once and yet again
Strew them o'er her bed of pain.
From her chamber take the gloom
With a light and flush of bloom.
So should one depart, who goes
Where no death can touch the Rose."

Thus sings the poet of the dying girl and flower.

It was not the flower that made the sick room of Grandma Gruetzmacher cheery and bright during her long illness, though boquets of flowers were always at her side; but it was the hope and assurance of eternal life in her soul, which made her so patient in dire suffering, and happy in the midst of pain. Her wasting body was a sight to move the strongest heart to pity. Slowly her life ebbed away, till she calmly passed away Monday afternoon.

Mary Holtz was born in Mecklenburg Schwerin, Germany, Dec. 12, 1831. At the age of twenty she was joined in marriage to Christof Gruetzmacher, with whom she enjoyed the pleasures and bore the burdens of life 46 years, till her husband died. To them were born eight children. A daughter died in infancy, a son at an early age, Rev. Fred preceeded her eleven years and Henry nearly six years.

About 56 years ago the family immigrated to America, settling near Columbus, Wis., where they resided 36 years, till they came to Hancock county, Iowa. Shortly after coming to this country, the deceased and her husband united with the Methodist Episcopal church. They soon became pillars in the local church in Wisconsin, and later in German township, this county. As their sons grew up they followed in the footsteps of their parents and their name has always been highly respected.

Mother Gruetzmacher was a devout Christian, a faithful member of the church, a good worker, and a kind neighbor and loving mother. It was the privilege of the writer of these lines to spend many precious moments at her bedside, during the last ten weeks of her life. Never did we hear her complain nor murmur. We found her always resigned and ready to go at the bidding of her Master. Only an hour before death came to bear her away did she give us the assurance that the Lord was near and all was well.

Funeral services were held yesterday forenoon at 10 o'clock at the German M. E. church, Rev. Wessel officiating, and the remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Klemme cemetery.

Relatives from out of town present at the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gruetzmacher, and Rev. and Mrs. Kaste, from Charles City; Mrs. Groh and son, Alfred Gruetzmacher, from Chicago. — (Written for the Times by Rev. G. H Wessel.

A majority of our business houses were closed yesterday forenoon during the hour of the funeral of the late Grandma Gruetzmacher.

Bank With the IT PAYS

FIRST NATIONAL

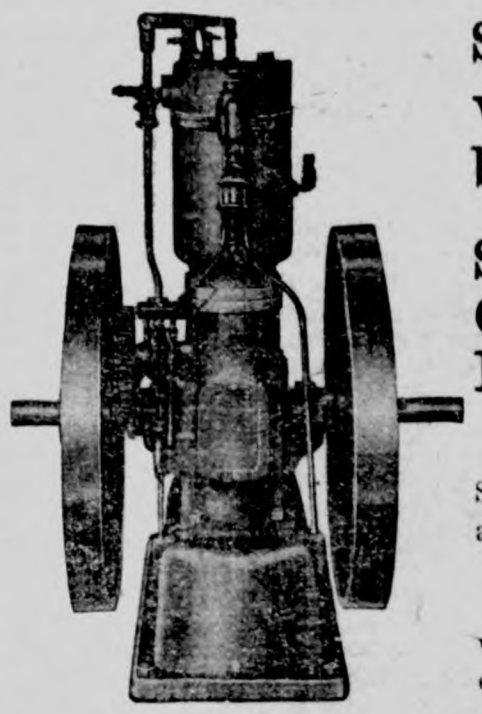
Capital, $25,000

It's Many Safeguards for the People's Money:

It's large capital,
It's alert Board of Directors,
It's conservative policy

are for

YOUR PROTECTION



Save work, worry, money by using a

STOVER GASOLINE ENGINE

Made right—sold right. Send for an illustrated catalog of our wind mills and feed grinders.

ENGINES

Sandwich Mfg. Co.

Mason City, Iowa General Agents

THE METHODIST PREACHERS ARE WITH US

Northwest German Conference Now Being Held in Klemme

The Forty-sixth Northwest Annual Conference of the German Methodist Episcopal Church is now in session in our little city and the attendance at all the meetings has been good. If the people of Klemme are on their extra good behavior this week, credit it to the fact that we have such a large number of the clergymen with us that their influence for good is contagious. We will endeavor to give this conference session a good write-up in our next issue.

For the benefit of our readers whom it might interest we republish the program for the remaining days of the conference:

Thursday, Sept. 2

Afternoon— Committee meetings.

8:00 p. m.— Anniversary of home mission and church extension. Address by Dr. J. H. Fitzwater.

Friday, Sept. 3

9:00 a. m.— Conference business continued.

Afternoon—Committee work continued.

8:00 p. m.—Educational anniversary. Addresses by Dr. Fr. Schaub of Charles City and Rev. J. W. Feller of Dubuque.

Saturday, Sept. 4

9:00 a. m — Conference business continued.

Afternoon— Committee work continued.

3:30 p. m.—Sunday School anniversary. Address by Dr. O. S. Baketel of Chicago.

8:00 p. m.— Missionary Sermon by Rev. H. E. Hilmer of Crandon, S. D.

Sunday, Sept. 5

9.00 a. m.— Conference love feast.

10:30 a. m.—Sermon by Bishop Nuelsen.

2:30 p. m. — Ordination services

8:00 p. m.—Dr. Geo. B Smyth of San Francisco, Cal. will speak of Foreign Missions.

All the evening services and Sunday services will be held in a large tent which will be erected one block south of the city hall. We cordially invite all of our friends to attend any or all of the above meetings.

The addresses of Drs. Fitzwater, Baketel and Smyth will be in the English language.

See that your subscription to the Times is kept paid up. We do not like to dun anyone for a dollar, but Uncle Sam says we must keep our list paid up. How about your account with this paper?

The Klemme Times

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher.

KLEMME, - - - IOWA

SUMMARY OF A WEEK'S EVENTS

Latest News of Interest Boiled Down for the Busy Man.

PERSONAL.

Henry Farman, the English aviator, made a flight of 111.78 miles at Rheims, breaking all previous distance records and winning the Grand Prix de la Champagne.

Albert Newhouse, an inmate of the poor house at Bloomington, Ill., to whom an uncle at Indianapolis left $200,000, wants a wife to share the good fortune with him.

Frank X. Riedinger of Delafield, Wis., who was believed to have been one of the victims of Belle Gunness' death farm at Laporte, Ind., is alive at Fairfield, Neb.

Capt. J. T. Chase, civil war veteran, who invented a hoop skirt 40 years ago, is the inventor of an airship, for which he has obtained a patent.

Edward H. Harriman, upon sailing for the United States from Cherbourg, said his health was improved and he would be glad to see the soil of America again.

Ex-Gov. R. E. Glenn of North Carolina, addressing an audience at Chautauqua, N. Y., said he had seen sights in Chicago and New York so vile that should he describe them he would be attacked by his male hearers and that the wrath of the Aimighty was sure to strike those cities.

Rev. Father Edward M. Dunne was consecrated bishop of Peoria, Ill., in Chicago, Mgr. Falconio, the papal delegate, conducting the ceremony.

Col. Duncan B. Cooper, who with his son, Robin, was found guilty of killing former Senator Carmack in Tennessee, inherits $11,655 from the estate of his brother, former Justice William F. Cooper, who died in New York, leaving $285,000.

William Travers Jerome announced that he would be a candidate for reelection as district attorney of New York. He will run independently.

Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture, speaking before the food convention at Denver, said the time is coming when there will be no adulteration of food.

George B. Moulder, chief gardener of the Illinois Central railroad, was elected president of the American Association of Railroad Gardeners, which held its third annual convention in Philadelphia.

GENERAL NEWS.

Alarming reports were spread concerning the condition of Edward H. Harriman, one being that a surgical operation for cancer had been performed upon him.

Elvert W. Shirk, president of the First National bank of Tipton, Ind., the assistant cashier of which, Noah R. Marker, recently fled, leaving a large shortage, was arrested in Chicago, charged with misappropriating $25,000. He gave bond.

Coroner Blackwell of Indianapolis placed the responsibility for the death of William Bourque and Harry Holcomb, killed in one of the auto races, upon the motor speedway commission.

Dispatches from Melilla said 1,000 Moors and 350 Spaniards had been killed in three days' fighting near there.

The Minneapolis-St. Louis through express on the Rock Island railroad jumped the track while running at a high rate of speed near Burlington, Ia., but no one was hurt.

The body of William Wade, a negro, who had shot 29 citizens in a street battle at Monroe, La., was burned in sight of a crowd including women and children.

By the bursting of a cannon at the farmers' picnic and fair at Escanaba, Mich., Paul Paulson, 18, a private in the Escanaba naval reserves, was killed, and Fred Winchester, also a private, dangerously injured.

Since a boy several years ago stole two silver dollars from the United States treasury while being shown through the vaults, visitors without special permission have been denied access to the 89 by 51 feet treasury room, in which is stored $165,000,000 in coin.

The fiftieth anniversary of the first oil well in the world was celebrated at Titusville, Pa., where Col. Edwin W. Drake struck petroleum by drilling on August 28, 1859.

Fire, following an explosion in the Kelly canning factory at Waverly, Ia., caused the death of George McRoberts, fatal injury to Mrs. Walter Davis, Irene Lockley and George Miller and the maiming of a score of others, the loss being $100,000 and 3,000,000 cans of corn.

A man said to be Santo Grace, is now in jail at Johnstown, Pa., charged with being one of the quartet who in July, 1904, held up Patrick F. Campbell, a mine paymaster, and secured $3,500 after killing Charles Hays, the driver, and seriously wounding Campbell.

Twenty-five kegs of beer defied the anti-canteen law by floating into Fort Slocum, near New York, on an ocean wave. The beer was seized quickly by the thirsty soldiers. Fifty kegs had been carried overboard from a small steamer.

A death pact, entered into because Frank E. Williamson, aged 19, could not obtain work, will result in the death of the young man and his sweetheart, Florence Lillian Wood, in Brooklyn, N. Y. Williamson shot the girl and then himself.

Harry S. Bates, member of a San Francisco shipping firm, will test the law forbidding the chartering of a foreign vessel to carry a cargo between two American ports.

The Isthmian canal commission will receive bids September 16 for the French junk which has accumulated along the line of the canal. The amount is estimated at from 45,000 to 120,000 tons.

Charles W. Fairbanks, former vice-president of the United States, and Rear Admiral G. B. Harber were received by the prince regent of China in private audience within the Forbidden City.

The fourth warning of an impending hurricane given ships on the Gulf of Mexico within a month reveals the fact that in September and October of each year a number of devastating storms strike that section of the tropics.

The national insurance commissioners in convention at Colorado Springs, Col., decided not to interfere with fraternal insurance methods, but to allow the fraternals to work out their own salvation.

Pearls and diamond earrings valued at $1,500 were found by customs inspectors at New York concealed on the person of Miss Catherine McKee of Harrisburg, Pa. She was arrested on her arrival from Europe.

The government is to pay $200 a month for a farm of 160 acres near College Park, Md., to be used for an aerial experimental station.

The police of St. Louis denied the kidnapers of the two Viviano children had written a second letter to the parents demanding that negotiations be resumed. The Vivianos declare they have obtained no news of the children.

The quartermaster's department of the army at Washington decided that too great publicity had been given the plan to exhume the body of Lieut. James N. Sutton and has withdrawn its permission. The dead officer's mother desired to have consecrated the ground where he was buried.

Ann Odelia Diss de Bar, notorious spiritualist swindler, who operated in Chicago a few years ago under the name of Vera P. Ava, was discovered in New York under an assumed name as one of the teachers in the "school of the Mahatmas." She has disappeared.

Consular agents have been instructed to make collection of the commercial laws of all Central and South American republics. The laws will be printed in English and distributed in the United States to encourage trade with the Latin-American countries.

The harbor of San Francisco can be mined and the port rendered safe from invasion in 48 hours, according to Capt. Ferguson of the coast artillery who had charge of the practice laying of mines in the bay.

The centenary of Hannibal Hamlin's birth was celebrated in Paris Hill, Me., by many present and former residents of that state, the feature of the day's ceremonies being the unveiling of a bronze tablet on the house where the statesman was born.

The United Bohemian Turners began a four-days' tournament in Chicago.

A report from Buenos Ayres said 200 lives had been lost when steamships loaded with excursionists, mostly women and children, colided at the entrance of the harbor at Montevideo.

Homer Cassube of Logansport, Ind., committed suicide in New York after writing a letter accusing his wife, a nurse of Cleveland, O., of causing him to take his life.

M. Paulhan, a French aviator, in a thriling flight in a rainstorm at Rheims, France, lowered the record of Wilbur Wright for time in the air to 2 hours, 53 minutes and 24 seconds, which is 33 minutes better than the American's mark.

The fifth convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America opened in Louisville, Ky.

LABOR DAY, SEPT. 6

Governor Carroll Names Day In Honor of Toilers.

IOWA HAS REASON FOR HOMAGE

In Beautiful Words the Chief Executive Pays Tribute to State's Workers in Labor Day Proclamation.

Des Moines, Aug. 28.—Governor Carroll has issued his Labor day proclamation calling attention to the fact that Monday, Sept. 6, has been set aside in honor of the men who toil. The governor's proclamation follows:

"Recognizing with keen appreciation the great factor which honest labor has been in the moral as well as the industrial development of the state, the general assembly of Iowa did, in its Twenty-third session, set aside the first Monday of September of each recurring year as a holiday, to be known as Labor day and to be observed by the people of Iowa as a day dedicated to those who as wage earners have contributed much to the wealth of the state. The setting aside of this day was not by accident, it was through a recognition of the modern struggle which the industrial classes have waged for their own betterment, an appreciation of the fact that free government depends in a great measure upon the general well being of the wage earners of the commonwealth and a thankfulness over the rapid adjustment between the different interests in our industrial life.

As a state free from industrial disturbance, a commonwealth where labor and the employers of labor work hand in hand toward industrial betterment, Iowa has reason to pay homage to this great majority of our people who work for wages and for individual and civil progress.

"Therefore I, B. F. Carroll, governor of the state of Iowa, in consonance with the action of the general assembly do hereby call attention to the fact that Monday, Sept. 6, is Labor Day, and I earnestly recommend that the citizens of Iowa, not only those who are employed but those as well who employ labor, observe this day in recognition of the progress which is being made along industrial lines. Let it be complimentary to those who labor and those who are in so large a measure responsible for the progress of our commonwealth.

"I recmmend that in so far as possible factories, stores and institutions be closed, thereby giving all an opportunity to enjoy and participate in the exercises and the celebration of the day and that due consideration be given to the day, the significance of which is of such vital importance to both our nation and our commonwealth."

Expert Hired to Beautify City.

Charles Mulford Robinson of Rochester, N. Y., expert in the art of making cities beautiful, has been employed by the city council to investigate Des Moines' possibilities and make a comprehensive plan for future improvements in streets, drives, parks, cemeteries, public and private buildings.

Dr. Still is Vice President.

Dr. S. S. Still, in company with several other osteopathic physicians, have returned to Des Moines from Minneapolis, where they were in attendance at the annual convention of the National Osteopathic convention. Dr. Still was elected vice president of the National association.

Brigham to Act as Judge.

State Librarian Johnson Brigham has been invited to act as one of the judges of the poems submittted in a contest to be held at Fairfield. At an old settlers' reunion to be held there one of the special features will be the crowning of the poet laureate of Jefferson county.

Girls Present Tableaux.

At the Geneva conference of the Y. W. C. A. members from the Des Moines delegation who belong to the local "Twenty-four Hour Club" will present a special feature on association day in the form of tableaux representing midnight, dawn, noon and twilight.

Applications Received.

Applications for certificates under the new Optometry law are being received wholesale by Secretary Louis Thomas. Five years practice entitles the applicant to a certificate without examination, if the application is made before Sept. 26.

Report Filed.

The Cedar Rapids and Marion railway has filed its annual report with the State Railroad commission.

Would Impeach Dr. Brown.

Relatives of Miss Maude Stone, the Leon, Ia., girl for whose death Dr. J. W. Clifford is now serving a twelve-year sentence in the Iowa penitentiary, will make a final effort to prevent his parole by Governor Carroll. M. F. Springer, a brother-in-law of the dead girl, has filed in the governor's office a number of affidavits in an attempt to impeach Dr. A. Brown, upon whose testimony the pardon board recommended a parole for Dr. Clifford. Lawyers, bankers and merchants of Leon have made affidavits attacking Dr. Brown's character and his reputation for truth and veracity. Dr. Clifford was convicted on evidence tending to show that Miss Stone died from the effects of a criminal operation performed by him.

Plan Marshalltown Dam.

Plans for the new dam to be built across the Iowa river at Marshalltown for the purpose of improving the city water supply have been submitted to State Architect Liebbe and the board of control by Mayor Ingledue and the engineer who prepared them. The last legislature appropriated $4,000 to help pay for the dam which will cost $15,000. The back water will provide a place which the inmates of the state soldiers' home may use for boating, bathing and fishing. Water for the home is supplied by the city water works.

Carroll Appoints Delegates.

Governor B. F. Carroll appointed Joe Morgan of Dubuque, W. L. Roach of Muscatine and Harry Green of Decorah as the delegates from Iowa to the eighth annual convention of the Upper Mississippi River Improvement association to be held at Winona, Minn., October 6 and 7. The officers of the association invited Governor Carroll to be present and speak at the convention, but the governor will be compelled to decline the invitation.

Miller Named as Delegate.

A. C. Miller, has been named by the Greater Des Moines committee as a delegate to the meeting of the Upper Mississippi River association, which convenes in Winona, Minn., Oct. 6 and 7. Mr. Miller is the chairman of the state conservation board, and will also represent this organization at the convention. It is expected that the mayor and the governor will also name delegates.

24,111 In Des Moines Schools.

The school census just completed by J. C. Byram, school truant officer, shows 24,111 children in Des Moines between 5 and 21 years of age. There are 1,695 more girls than boys between the ages of 5 and 21, and 151 more girls than boys between the ages of 7 and 14 years. The total number of boys is 11,708, girls 12,403. There are 550 more people this year than last year.

Byers Demands Receiver.

Charging violation of the state laws controlling corporations, Attorney General H. W. Byers has started action in the district court to secure a receiver for the Pure Food Cider company, and to dissolve the corporation. The Pure Food Cider company was incorporated in May of this year with a capital stock of $20,000, and has been operating in Des Moines.

Farmer and Merchant Bankrupt.

David C. Donnan, a Montezuma farmer, filed petition in bankruptcy with Commissioner McArthur. Mr. Donnan has debts to the amount of $3,640, while his assets are zero.

Reuben Mushkin, merchant at Marshalltown, also asks to be dismissed of his debts. Mushkin's liabilities are $1,345, and he, too, has nothing on the credit side of the ledger.

Wife to Accompany Gen. Grant.

Secretary Simpson of the statte department of agriculture has been advised that Gen. Frederick Dent Grant will be accompanied by his wife when he attends the Iowa state fair on soldiers' day. Gen. Grant will also remain over for the following day which will be Iowa Day when all the state officials will be present.

Bennett Elected Colonel.

E. R. Bennett of Des Moines will be colonel of the Fifty-fifth Iowa regiment as soon as a commission can be issued to him. Adjutant General Logan has counted the votes cast in the election to choose a successor to Gen. James Rush Lincoln and found that Lieutenant Colonel Bennett had a big majority.

Use Much Flour and Butter.

Bids for 12,150 barrels of flour, for the institutions of the state, were advertised for by the board of control. They also advertised for 290,700 pounds of butter.

Body to Colfax.

The body of George Hanning, the East Des Moines barber who shot and killed himself, was taken to Colfax for burial in the Hanning family lot.

LAND SUITS KNOCKED OU

RELATION OF UNITED STATES FIVE TRIBES REVIEWED.

Demurrers in Eastern Oklahoma T Cases Started by United States Are Sustained.

Muskogee, Okla.—Judge Ra Campbell has sustained the dem rers in the suits brought by the Uni States to set aside various deeds leases made by citizen allottees the five civilized tribes in eastern lahoma, and thus settled a legal troversy that had been the cause considerable concern in that part the state.

The court reviewed the relation the United States to the five tri since they became a nation, and fo that no vestige of title to the la allotted them now remains in United States. The demurrers volved the question of the citizens of these Indians and the court clared them to be citizens of United States with all the rig privileges and immunities of citi ship. It is held that the Un States cannot maintain these suits the principle that it sustains to individual Indian a trust relat such guardianship being incompat with citizenship, national and st

Finally the bills were held bad cause numerous defendants are jo in each bill who were connected many distinct transactions regar as many distinct tracts of land.

SEMI - CDNTENARY OF

Golden Anniversary of Drilling First Well in World Celebrated at Titusville.

Titusville, Pa., Aug. 28—Fifty y ago today petroleum was struck the first oil well ever drilled. momentous event took place on is now known as the Emory farm, south of Titusville, and today city is celebrating the golden versary in fitting style. The prog includes band concerts, speech ing, and all manner of amuseme and the fete will wind up this ing in a blaze of glory.

It was Col. Edwin W. Drake drilled that first oil well. He a pipe down to bed rock at a dep 36 feet, and from that point drilling began. At one time Drake's money gave out, and h not been for R. D. Fletcher of city the discovery of the art method of obtaining oil would been delayed several years. Fletcher came to the assistanc Col. Drake, and on August 28 drill tapped a vein of oil which 69½ feet below the surface of earth and produced 40 barrels a

FOR NEW DRAINAGE DI

Four Iowa Counties Contemplate ject Which Will Cost at Least $70,000.

Iowa Falls, Ia.—On the sixteen September the members of the b of supervisors of the counties Franklin, Wright, Hamilton and din will meet in this city to go a big drainage proposition. I joint drainage board decides t tablish the ditch and district, o the biggest drainage roposition this part of the state will be st It is estimated the big ditch w twenty-seven miles long, of whic en or eight miles will be in this ty. Nearly a million yards of will have to be moved, and at timate of 7 cents a yard, this an expenditure of $70,000. It ured that the ditch will drain acres of land lying in the above ties. About a mile of the d is in Franklin county.

GREAT NATIONAL TOURNA

To Be Held at the Fair Grounds Moines Is Attracting More Than National Attention.

Des Moines, Aug. 30.—The gre tional Tournament of the States Army to be held on th grounds at Des Moines, Septem to 25, and which is to be open Monday by President Taft, is a ing more than national attentio military attaches of the R French, Austrian, Italian and R legations at Washington and cial detail of five officers fro Royal Canadian army will atte tournament to witness the m ers and report upon the mobi United States troops to the arm their respective countries.

Great Fair is Open.

Des Moines, Aug. 27—With prospect of surpassing all pr expositions, the Iowa State fa formally opened this morning. ar program exercises start Sa

LIPS THAT WERE SEALED

BY ALMA MARTIN ESTABROOK

PICTURES BY A. WEIL

AUTHOR of "MY COUSIN PATRICIA"

COPYRIGHT BY J. B. LIPPINCOTT CO.

CHAPTER I.

Across the brilliant parquette, from the bishop's box, Miss Winstanley openly beckoned me with her little white black-dotted fan. Henrietta Winstanley is the bishop's sister, a lady more like her own fan than anything I can think of at the moment to compare her with; a small fluttering thing, constantly in motion, creating a pleasant stir wherever she happens to be, smelling deliciously of orris root or lavender, her black eyes sparkling like the iridescents on the fan.

There were beside her in the box the bishop, Barbara Hemingray, her brother Dan—the most popular young rascal in town—Ankony, acting president of the Central Savings Company, and, for the rest, a part of the Forlorn Hope, as Miss Winstanley calls the ardent band of Barbara's followers, whom she has always stoutly declared Barbara would have none of. I wish I had been as sure of it.

The bishop looked the bishop, or he would probably have been Dr. Winstanley, as his father had been before him, or Winstanley, attorney-at-law, following the way his maternal uncles had taken, or merely Winstanley, dealer in loans and real estate, as he once told me his predilection undeniably tended. But he looked the bishop, and his sister, who was much older than he, vowed that he should become what nature so evidently intended. No one ever understood clearly just how she contrived it, but that she had triumphantly arrived with him none could contradict. Indeed, whatever Miss Henrietta Winstanley undertakes she is pretty certain to accomplish.

She had declared to me often, and with warmth, that if she could help it Ankony should not marry Barbara Hemingray, as he very evidently proposed to do, if possible. Therefore I was not surprised at the summons which beckoned me as her aide-de-camp, for Ankony had been making the most unmistakable love to Barbara ever since the curtain had gone up and that part of the Forlorn Hope represented in the box had yielded itself to what was going on over the footlights.

"There's ingratitude for you," whispered she, as I bent over her.

"It looks more like devotion," I remarked dryly.

"I launched that man socially. He had been very nice about my charities, and one must make some return, you know; besides, he isn't altogether a bad sort. But he must not think he can marry Barbara Hemingray."

"Does he?"

She made a comprehensive gesture. "You can see for yourself. Such audaciousness I never knew! He seems to forget the gulf between them."

"The gulf of blood, eh?" said I.

"Exactly. What is there harder to get around? . . . I don't mind a self-made man—in the third generation; but Ankony is in the first, and proud of it. And he imagines that because Dan is in his employ he can force his attention on Barbara when and as he likes."

"Isn't it possible that he may not meet with quite the discouragement you think?" I suggested, with a smile that was mere braggadocio.

"Nonsense! You don't believe any such thing as that. Do you suppose for a minute that Barbara would receive him—or his impossible sister-in-law either, for the matter of that—if she didn't feel that she had to?" She sighed and hurried on: "One has to do so many awkward and unpleasant things when one is poor, and they are so poor. Do you know it's a fact that they have to depend entirely nowadays on Dan's salary? And so, you see, quite naturally, they must be decent to Mr. Ankony."

"How they manage to get on I don't know," I obsedved gravely.

Miss Winstanley shook her brisk little head. "No more do I. Dan isn't economical, you know—how can we expect him to be, with his bringing up? It's such a pity their father should have made that last unfortunate investment just before he died. It must be frightfully hard on them both; but the brunt of it falls on Barbara, as is natural, perhaps. You've noticed, haven't you, that when a man and woman practice economy together it's always the woman who, somehow, seems to get in the most exercise? I'm sure Dan is as considerate and careful as he knows how to be, but he is so generous, you know."

"Perhaps he's a bit too generous."

She nodded. "That's it, precisely. Now, those are his flowers that the poor little neglected Pratt girl is carrying to-night. It was sweet of him to send them, of course, but he couldn't afford to do it. It's done the girl no end of good I've no doubt, but Barbara, why"—she leaned closer to my ear—"I don't know that I ought to tell you, but I think I will: that is a made-over gown she has on this minute—twice made-over, if you want the truth."

"It's the prettiest gown in the house!" I exclaimed boldly.

"Only because it's on the prettiest girl," smiled she.

"But they say she isn't pretty, you know."

"Who says it? The envious? Of course; they always say such things. I admit she isn't a classic beauty, if that's what you mean."

"Thank heaven for it!" I fervently ejaculated.

Miss Winstanley twinkled as only Miss Winstanley can.

"I'll tell you what she is, Mr. Twining," she said, with warmth. "She is a genius, if she isn't a downright beauty; she is a genius for simplicity, and I don't know but that's better than being a radiant beauty. There is nothing so charming to my mind as simplicity. Look at her clothes, her hair, her manner, her style! All simple, irresistibly simple. And it isn't an assumed simplicity; it's inbred and genuine and delightful."

I captured the hand that swayed the little white fan and arrested it long enough to press its slender fingers.

"I don't blame you for loving her," she said, in a soft little voice; "I'd love her, too, if I were a man."

"You are putting it rather strong, aren't you?" I suggested.

"About you caring for her? Well, how do you put it?" and she turned to me with a smile.

"Frankly," I admitted, "I haven't as yet put it at all."

"What! You know what delays are."

"They are sometimes necessary and expedient," I pleaded.

"Necessary, perhaps, but never expedient. I don't believe in them."

"Then I must certainly endeavor to follow a course more in keeping with your ideas."

"Tell me why you men always have to be reminded of your p's and q's?" she demanded impatiently. "A woman looks after her own."

And, being reminded of her, she turned to the bishop, whose glasses had been leveled for a full minute on the box of Mrs. Jack Ankony opposite. Mrs. Ankony is Ankony's brother's wife, a pretty young woman, with all the ambitions that her family should have had and hadn't; so that her way is rather a difficult one to make, since the Ankonys are just taking their first society steps.

As I glanced toward Mrs. Ankony's box, I heard the bishop's sister begin to speak to the bishop of a widow of charitable inclinations and large means whom rumor says she is anxious he shall marry. I could see that she believed firmly in plentiful reminders.

I turned to Barbara at the moment, and Barbara to me. There was, I thought, a glimmer of something like relief in her eyes. I know her eyes very well indeed, and I am not usually mistaken in what they convey. I moved my chair close, as if I meant to stay. The fluffy sleeve of her gown touched my coat. It was a white gown, and Barbara is adorable in white—or, to speak more accurately, if that delightful state has its degrees of comparison, she is superlatively adorable in it.

"Do you care for the prima donna, Mr. Twining?" she asked.

"The prima donna?" I repeated vaguely.

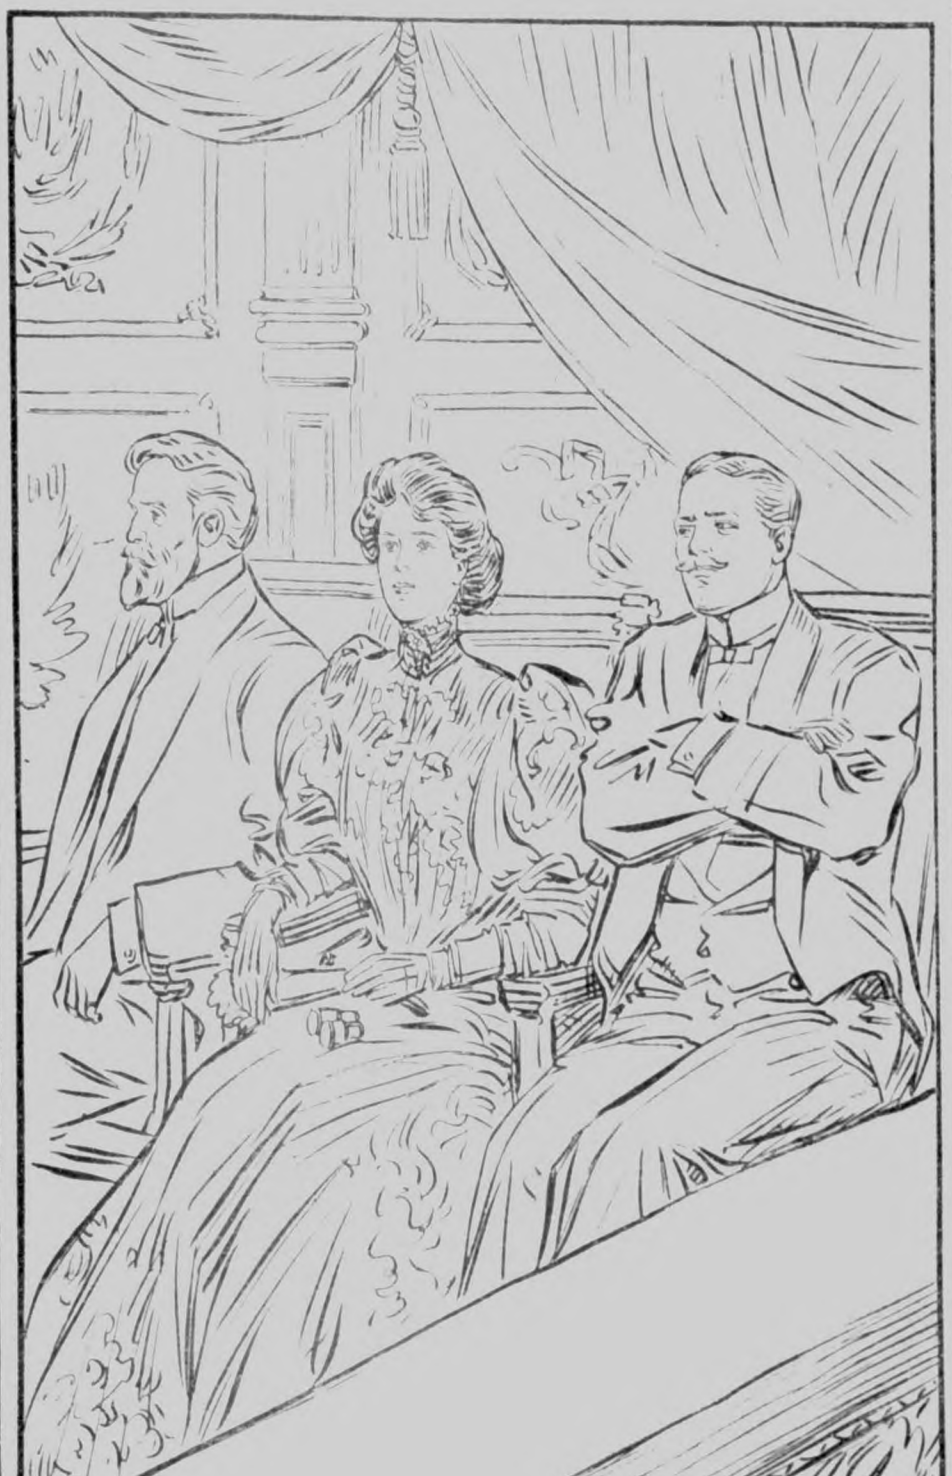
"There is one, you know," she said with one of her laughs that I am particularly fond of.

"I must admit to not having observed, but now that you have called my attention to her I shall certainly take note of her."

"Do," she counseled; "it isn't nice to appear so distraught."

"I am distracted," I confessed in her ear.

The ear and the cheek next to me grew very rosy. Barbara sat up with great dignity and looked out over the parquette, as if it had been neglected, like the prima donna.



Ankony, I Felt, Could Have Cheerfully Run Me Through.

Ankony, I felt, could cheerfully have run me through, but I looked at Miss Winstanley and took courage.

"Do you see Dan?" said Barbara presently. "He has been devoting himself to those overlooked Crump girls, and now he is smiling on Anne Bowers."

"His ability to make himself go round is touching. It ought to be appreciated."

"I'm sure it is. It's awfully nice of him, really," she insisted.

"Of course it is. I have often wished I might follow in his footsteps, but I never seem to come to the place where I'm ready to try. Do you, Ankony?"

"No; I've no fancy for indiscriminate love-making," he answered, rather nastily.

"Dear me, it isn't love-making at all," cried Miss Winstanley, whirling about at the first sound of an attack upon her favorite. "It's just his tender-heartedness. He can't see any one neglected. Why, I saw him driving with Rose Terrell the other day; I don't suppose anybody has taken her to drive in years. She looked radiant, poor thing!"

"Dan is a sort of social philanthropist," I suggested.

"It requires more money than the most of us have to be any sort of a philanthropist," Ankony muttered, in an aside that I alone caught. Or I thought I was the only one to catch it until I saw the way Barbara's cheeks were tingling and her eyes sparkling and then I knew that she had heard and that he would pay well for his remark.

At the moment Bishop Winstanley addressed his sister, and she turned from us, while Ankony leaned over to ask me if I had met his sister-in-law's guest, Miss Streeter.

"That's coming," said I amiably, not disposed to take myself off at the covert suggestion. "Pretty girl, isn't she?" and I looked to where the bishop's glasses had pointed. "Rather after the Madonna order, don't you think?"

"I don't know anything about 'em," Ankony replied.

Barbara tilted her head thoughtfully. "Sistine, isn't it?" she observed.

"Undoubtedly," I agreed.

"You'd like her," Ankony said. "I'm sure Edith"—Edith was Mrs. Jack—"would like to have you drop in on them to-night."

"I will—later," I said.

Miss Winstanley must have heard, for at the exact instant she reached back of her and squeezed my arm.

I stayed till the last act. I couldn't decently stay longer; besides, I knew Ankony well enough to be sure he would have it out with Barbara in spite of me. He had routed the Forlorn Hope by this time and had the field clear except for the watchful Miss Winstanley. But I remembered the flashing of Barbara's eyes and left them together cheerfully enough.

As I went out of the theater I brushed shoulders with Henrietta Winstanley, tripping along at her brother's side and keeping an eye out for me, as mine was trained for her.

"He proposed to her the minute you were gone," she whispered excitedly, "right under our noses! Think of it! But oh, you should have heard her refuse him!"

"I should have liked it better than anything else on earth," I admitted. "You are certain—"

"Why, you must have known she'd refuse him!"

"Far be it from me to set myself up as certain of anything with which a woman has to do."

She shook her head at me significantly.

"Make certain!" she cried.

I walked beside her for an instant in silence, and she slipped her fingers into mine.

"I do want to see you both happy," she said.

The bishop turned to us. "Fine-looking girl with Mrs. Ankony," he remarked. "Did you notice her?"

"The Sistine," I murmured absently.

"Eh? Miss Streeter."

"Yes, of course; Miss Streeter."

"I don't care for Mrs. Ankony, and I shouldn't care for her guest, in all probability," said his sister.

"My dear Henrietta, how very absurd!" he protested amiably. And then: "It seemed to me that Ankony was very attentive to Barbara to-night. Did you notice?"

Miss Winstanley laughed a crisp little laugh.

"Omit the qualifying adverb, or change it to 'offensively.' The man is wretchedly bred. Good-night, Mr. Twining. Come to see me when you have anything particularly pleasant to tell me, and do let that be soon."

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Narrowest Street in the World.

The seaport town of Great Yarmouth, in England, contains what is said to be the narrowest street in the world. It is known as Kitty Witches row, and its greatest width is 56 inches. Its entrance would seriously inconvenience a stout person trying to pass through it. Twenty-nine inches from wall to wall is all the room that can be spared in this part. Yarmouth is a quaint old town, containing many streets like Kitty Witches row. They are all called "rows," and are more picturesque than convenient. A hundred and forty-seven of these narrow streets, of a length of over seven miles in all, are to be found in the town.—New York Tribune.

Nurse for a Hotel.

At one of the hotels in New York a nurse has been installed whose duty it is to take care of the children of guests who come without nurses. The proprietor says that very often a woman is obliged to come without a nurse and in consequence is tied down by the baby and, moreover, obliged to consult a strange physician if it is ailing. The nurse takes care of all that and her services are not charged for.

Effort Appreciated.

"So you were deeply touched by the poem young Mr. Guffson wrote to you," said Maude.

"Yes," said Maymie.

"But it was not a good poem."

"I don't care. It was just as much trouble for him to write it as if he had been Shakespeare."

CHEW IT AFTER LUNCH

It digests the lunch—cleans the teeth—sweetens the breath—IF it's real

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT PEPSIN GUM

SICK HEADACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cured by these Little Pills.

They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature

Brent Good

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

Paxtine

TOILET ANTISEPTIC

—NOTHING LIKE IT FOR—

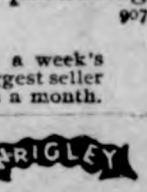
THE TEETH Paxtine excels any dentifrice in cleansing, whitening and removing tartar from the teeth, besides destroying all germs of decay and disease which ordinary tooth preparations cannot do.

THE MOUTH Paxtine used as a mouth-wash disinfects the mouth and throat, purifies the breath, and kills the germs which collect in the mouth, causing sore throat, bad teeth, bad breath, grippe, and much sickness.

THE EYES when inflamed, tired, ache and burn, may be instantly relieved and strengthened by Paxtine.

CATARRH Paxtine will destroy the germs that cause catarrh, heal the inflammation and stop the discharge. It is a sure remedy for uterine catarrh.

Paxtine is a harmless yet powerful germicide, disinfectant and deodorizer. Used in bathing it destroys odors and leaves the body antiseptically clean.



FOR SALE AT DRUG STORES, 50c. OR POSTPAID BY MAIL.

LARGE SAMPLE FREE!

THE PAXTON TOILET CO., BOSTON, MASS.

WRIGLEY'S

Stop

taking liquid physic or big or little pills, that which makes you worse instead of curing. Cathartics don't cure—they irritate and weaken the bowels. CASCARETS make the bowels strong, tone the muscles so they crawl and work—when they do this they are healthy, producing right results. 907

CASCARETS 10c a box for a week's treatment. All druggists. Biggest seller in the world. Million boxes a month.

WRIGLEY WRIGLEY WRIGLEY

This Trade-mark Eliminates All Uncertainty

in the purchase of paint materials. It is an absolute guarantee of purity and quality. For your own protection, see that it is on the side of every keg of white lead you buy.

NATIONAL LEAD COMPANY
1902 Trinity Building, New York

Nothing to Learn, Simply Shave
NO STROPPING NO HONING

TRADE Gillette MARK

KNOWN THE WORLD OVER

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE FLAVOR LASTS

A-B-C Liniment A useful remedy in a hundred ways. It is a family remedy. Sold by all Dealers.

GROCERIES & HARDWARE

We always have on hand a complete line. Our Groceries are always new and fresh and the line comprises all the staples and a dandy line of Canned Goods. Our line of Shelf and Heavy Hardware is complete. We invite you to call and inspect our goods.

We want you to see us about

OILS

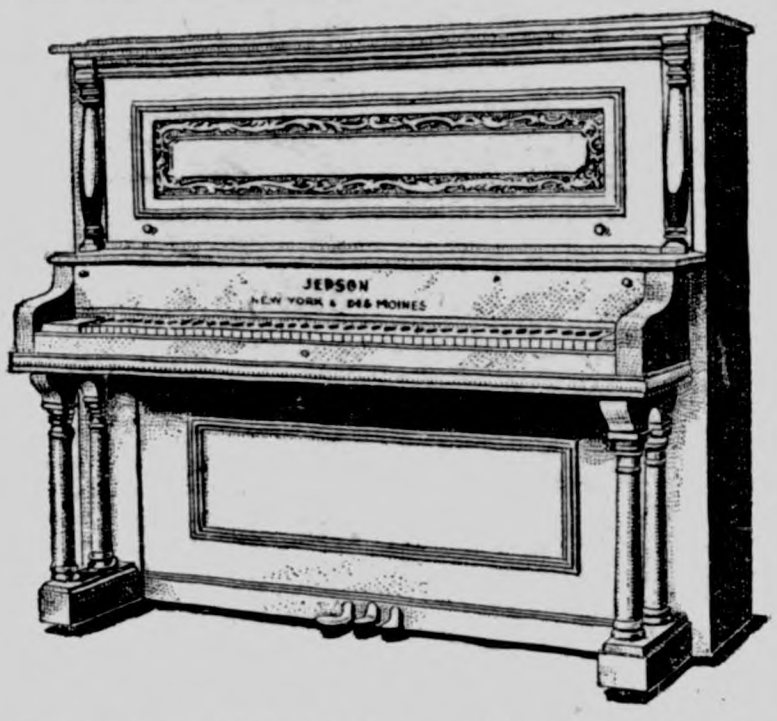
Threshing season will soon be here. Our oils are the very best. Don't forget us.

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA



MUSICAL GOODS

Pianos Six different styles, guaranteed to be right in tone, artistic in design and perfection in construction. Give us a chance to demonstrate these instruments to you. The prices on these instruments will surprise you.

SMOKERS SUPPLIES of every description—From the old familiar Missouri Meerschaum to the real genuine article. All the leading brands of Tobacco.

PRESCRIPTIONS—Bring them to us. They will be correctly compounded. A full line of Patent Medicines of every manufacture.

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile. both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, AGENT

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

ELL CENTER

Special Correspondence:

Cora Lawhorn returned to school at Garner Monday.

Henry Josten and wife visited with Twin Lake relatives Sunday.

Anderson Bros. will begin tiling on the Herman Barz farm this week.

Ell Center school will commence September 6th with Miss Mae Yohn as teacher.

Tom Nelson and wife entertained Mr. and Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Haskin of Klemme Sunday.

School commenced at the Groesbeck school this week, with Martha Gilbert, of Garner, teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Hod Lawhorn took in the tournament and visited friends at Britt Thursday of last week.

Mr. Babcock was called to Kanawha one day last week on account of the sickness of one of his children.

Night on Bald Mountain

On a lonely night Alex Benton of Fort Edward, N Y. climbed Bald Mountain to the home of a neighbor, tortured by asthma, bent on curing him with Dr. King's New Discovery, that had cured himself of asthma. This wonderful medicine soon relieved and quickly cured his neighbor. Later it cured his son's wife of a severe lung trouble. Millions believe it is the greatest throat and lung cure on earth. Coughs, colds, croup, hemorrhages and sore lungs are surely cured by it. Best for hay fever, grip and whooping cough. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

GOODELL

From the Globe:

S. S. Philbrick's are entertaining relatives this week.

F. G. Church is a business visitor at Des Moines this week.

Jake Bachman was a business visitor at Klemme last Monday.

Miss Mary Costello returned Monday from Eagle Grove, where she has been visiting for several days.

Mrs. E. S. Bowen, of Garner, came Tuesday and is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Adrian Elder.

Roscoe Merriss nd wife were calling on friends here last Sunday. Mr Merriss is employed as principal of the Armstrong public schools for the fall and winter.

A Piano at a Remarkable Price

Chicago's largest music house, Lyon & Healy, announces a gigantic alteration sale of pianos. Nearly 1,000 splendid instruments are offered without reserve until all are sold. In this stock are a great many standard and well-known makes.

It is necessary to move this great stock of pianos in order to make room for carpenters who are replacing flooring.

In Upright pianos new instruments may be had as low as $145. This is an unprecedented opportunity and one that may not occur again. Any piano not proving entirely satisfactory may be returned at their expense.

Arrange a visit of inspection to their warercoms, corner Wabash Avenue and Adams Street, this week so as to avoid disappointment.

Go With a Rush

The demand for that wonderful stomach, liver and kidney cure, Dr. King's New Life Pills—is astounding G. A. Pabst & Co. say they never saw the like. Its because they never fail to cure sour stomach, constipation, indigestion, billiousness, jaundice, sick headache, chills and malaria. Only 25c.

MILLINERY OPENING

Friday and Saturday, Sept. 3 and 4

We will have a fine display of Fall and Winter Millinery. A fine assortment of Pattern Hats and Trimmed Hats. We have the latest in the new colors and shades —the new Reseda and Olive Greens, Raspberry, Raisin, and all other new tints.

New Shirt Waists in lawn and silk. Hair ornaments. Also newest in collars.

Miss Lund, a first class trimmer, will be sure to please. Please call.

MRS. JOHN JOSTEN

DON'T FORGET

This store when you need anything in the line of Hardware and Farm Implements. Full line of Heaters, Cook Stoves and Ranges. The best makes in Farm Machinery. We also handle the best Paints, Oils and Varnish.

Groceries, Flour and Feed

Our prices are right. You are invited to call.

GRUETZMACHER BROS.

THRESHING COAL

The very best grades in Hocking Valley, Wineferd Splint, Indiana Block, Sootless and Washed Egg. Call and get prices.

Highest Market Price Paid for Grain and Live Stock Six Days in the Week

H. C. LAU

One Dollar

Mr. Farmer---It costs but a trifle more to buy printed letter heads and envelopes than it does to use any old thing, and certainly it looks more business-like to use printed stationery For a limited time we offer you 100 sheets good writing paper and 100 good envelopes, printed with your name and address, both for $1.00. Give us your order now.

The Times Printery

We announce the arrival of our

New Dress Goods

All the new shades of

Green, Olive, Brown, Red, Blue and Black

We also have the new Satin finished Goods with "Jet buttons" for trimming.

It is a real pleasure for us to show you these goods and you will find it a pleasure to look them over.

Remember, this is the finest and best line of Dress Goods we have ever shown—Come Now!

ARTHUR WELLEMEYER

About People You Know

KLEMME MARKET.

n.....	58 to 60c
s.....	30 to 34c
eat.....	80 to 90
ley.....	48 to 50c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
gs.....	6.75 to 7.10
tle.....	3.00 to 6.00

resh fruits at Kluckhohn's.

id you dig out your last win- s overcoat?

allace Pavey was at Forest Monday.

ure extracted honey for sale, a pound Herman Coobs. 3*

ettie Haskin returned home sday from Ringsted, Iowa ee H. Lau & Son for corn ders, wagons, buggies, etc.

everal of our German sol- rs are attending the reunion Woden today.

pecial mission services were d in the German Reformed rch last Sunday which were ely attended.

rs John Josten is now show- her new fall line of millin as you will note by her ad the fourth page. Her trim , Miss Lund, arrived from Paul Tuesday evening.

ou are going to miss a good g if you fail to read the new al story on our inside pages, ps That Were Sealed," which rts this week. Be sure to d the first installment.

wing to the fact that not all our people are able to under- nd German, we have decided old a service in the English E church Sunday morning. ere will be no services, how- r, in the evening. Pastor.

New Cream Station

The undersigned are now buying cream at Klemme for the Odell Creamery Co. and solicit a share of your patronage. Highest market price always paid and a fair test guaranteed. Give us a trial.

TERHUFEN BROS.,
Klemme, Iowa.

Being obliged to take it for I will sell it out cheap;
Dr. Hess Stock Food.
Dr. Hess Poultry Panacea.
Dr. Hess Instant Louse Kill-

Dr. Hess Hog Worm Powder. be had at G. F. Schuler's rner, Iowa.

Eyes tested. Glasses fitted. Dr. W. F. Missman.

H. Lau & Son are buying poultry every day. 5tf

The finest line of candies in town at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

School will commence in the Klemme schools next Monday

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wille were at Garner between trains Monday.

The Josten millinery store building is being treated to a new coat of paint.

Mrs. Herman Coobs and her daughter, Anna, were Forest City visitors Monday.

Sam Kirkwood left Saturday for a visit with relatives at Ringsted, Iowa, returning home Tuesday evening.

School Shoes for Children. School will commence soon; call and see my line and fit your children out right. F. Gruetzmacher 4tf

Mrs. E. P. Dow and little daughter, of Rake, Iowa, arrived here last Friday evening for a few weeks' visit with relatives and friends.

W. H. Sherwood and wife left Thursday for their home in Iowa Falls after a three weeks' visit with their son, W. L. They made the trip in an auto.

R. M. Day was a business visitor at Goodell last Thursday. On Friday he left for different points in South Dakota to attend to his farming interests

The ladies of the English M. E. church will give a supper at the parsonage next Saturday evening, Sept. 4th All are invited to come and enjoy the music and incidentally a good square meal.

C. B. Groesbeck believes the farmer has a right to just as many good things as anyone. so he has purchased an automobile —the Buick car formerly owned by Lawrence Larsen and M. I. Parker.

Prof. L. E. Bowker and family arrived in Klemme from Crystal Lake last week and are now comfortably settled in the residence recently vacated by John Gruetzmacher. Prof. Bowker comes to our schools well recommended and we hope his stay among us may be helpful and profitable. In behalf of the people of Klemme, the Times extends a cordial welcome to this new family.

Herman Coobs is a new subscriber to the Times.

Geo. R. Waterman and family visited at Garner Sunday.

Dr. Edgar Zinn was a business visitor at the county seat Tuesday.

Mrs Lew Lewis was a Belmond visitor Monday, returning Tuesday.

P. M. Griesemer and Rev. E. A. Baker attended the ball game at Britt last Friday.

Ice cream sodas, sundaes, and all kinds of cool refreshing drinks at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

J. F Wenck and wife and daughter Maude, of Garner, visited in this vicinity Sunday.

Keep a close watch on those yellow-legged chickens. The preachers have possession of the town.

C. C. Bartlette and Carl Gade of Iowa Falls, visited at the J. W. Griggs and Sherwood homes over Sunday.

Frank Freie was in Klemme a short time Monday. He has moved from Berlin, N. D., to Webster City, Iowa.

Klemme is sending a goodly delegation to the State Fair at Des Moines this year. Albert Koerner and wife and Herman Stille and wife went down Friday evening; Fred Ridder, Wes Schuldt, Wm Stille and John Stille left Saturday evening and H C. Lau and Byron Sweeley went Sunday.

Ell Bros. are paying 26c for cream.

Ell Bros give 24-hour settlement and pay 26c for cream.

You can get 26c for your cream at Ell Bros. and you don't have to wait 6 weeks for your money.

Thanksgiving will soon be here and you will want some money before that time! Sell your cream to Ell Bros. and get immediate settlement. They are paying 26c.

Editing a newspaper is a nice thing. If we publish jokes people say we are rattle brained. If we don't we are fossils. If we publish original matter they say we don't give them enough selections. If we give them selections they say we are too lazy to write. If we don't go to church we are heathens. If we do go we are hypocrites. If we remain at the office we ought to be out looking for news items. If we go out then we are not attending to business. If we wear old clothes they laugh at us. If we wear good clothes they say we have a pull. Now, what are we to do? Just as likely as not some one will say that we stole this from an exchange. And, by gum, we did.

Dr. Sowles, of Goodell, was in this city yesterday.

Mrs. Geo. Schroeder was here from Garner yesterday.

Dr. W. F. Missman was at Garner on professional business Monday.

Try Kluckhohn's ice cream soda with crushed fruit and you will become a regular customer.

F. J. Wenck and Rev. Baker were county seat visitors on baseball business Monday.

Rain today. The German soldiers at Woden will get wet on the outside as well as inside.

Herman Miller drove to Garner Sunday and visited at the home of his uncle, G. Schroeder.

W. R. Bloom left Monday for Dows and from there he went to Des Moines to see the big fair.

The editor of the Crystal Lake Chronicle took a lay off this week and attended the Iowa State Fair. Lucky man!

New fall line of ladies' shoes received. I can show the latest and best approved styles at reasonable prices. Call and see my line. F. Gruetzmacher. 4tf

Henry Freie and daughter, Fronia, went to Webster City last evening with Frank Freie for a couple of days' visit. Frank had been at Decorah, Ia., and was returning to his home at Webster City, via Klemme.

Crystal Lake Chronicle: Prof. L. E. Bowker loaded his household goods Tuesday afternoon and departed Wednesday morning for his new field of labor at Klemme, Iowa, where he has been elected as principal of the Klemme school for the ensuing year. Mr. Bowker has been principal of the school here for the past four years, and during that time has labored hard and faithfully for the best interests of the school and the advancement of his pupils. Mr. Bowker takes a strong interest in educational work and the patrons of the Klemme school are to be congratulated on securing his services.

U.S. U.S. U.S.

UNITED STATES Cream Separators

save work of handling and washing pans or crocks. Skim all the cream from the milk. They are very strong and durable. Parts are few, simple, easy to get at. Have all conveniences such as low supply can, cream pail shelf, and easy to wash bowl. Examine the 1909 Model U. S. Separator at

ELL BROTHERS

DOCTORS
GEO. ZINN EDGAR ZINN
Office: State Savings Bank
Phone No. 19
KLEMME - - IOWA

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Phone No. 11. Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to calls day or night.
Eyes tested. Glasses fitted.

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
☞ Eyes Tested Free.

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures
See me when you want a Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 15 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

JOHN GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Headquarters for part of Heinz' Fifty-Seven Varieties. and Pickling Vinegar.
Try these goods; they are fine.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
☞ Call in

RESTAURANT
Fresh New Candies, Nicest Line in Town
Try a "Lovers' Delight" the latest and best Ice Cream Sundae in town.
Try our Golden Orangeade, Pop and Ciders.
—Home-made Bakery Goods,—
Lunches and Meals at all hours.
A. Kirkwood & Son

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

When you go to Chicago it's worth while to land at La Salle Station, in the heart of the city—right down town, within a few minutes' walking distance of

THE WHOLESALE CENTER
THE BANKING CENTER
THE SHOPPING CENTER
THE HOTEL CENTER
THE THEATER CENTER

La Salle Station
ROCK ISLAND LINES
CHICAGO TERMINAL

is the only railway station on the elevated railway loop, the finest, most commodious and best-equipped station in Chicago.

Among the features that make La Salle Station a model of its kind are the handsome and convenient woman's parlor, with maid, nearby telegraph and telephone booths, baggage and parcel rooms and an excellent restaurant.

On your next trip East take the Rock Island and land in La Salle Station.

Time tables and information on request.

L. A. HIENTZ, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

PAINT DURABILITY.

The first thought in painting should, of course, be durability—and durability means simply pure paint properly applied. Pure paint is pure white lead and linseed oil (with or without tinting material).

Some years ago the paint-buyer was likely to get adulterated or counterfeit white lead if he was not familiar with brands. To-day he may buy with perfect safety if he only makes sure that the Dutch Boy Painter trademark is on the packages of white lead that he buys. This trademark was adopted by National Lead Company to distinguish the pure white lead made by them from the worthless adulterated and fake goods. It is a guarantee as valuable to the house-owner as the education of a paint expert could be.

No Infallible Method.

A leading mathematician of France gives another warning that there is no infallible method of doubling one's stakes after a loss. "All one can do," says he, "is to combine one's play so as to have a great chance of winning a little and a little chance of losing much, and many chances of losing little."

HUDSON-FULTON CELEBRATION

Chicago to New York City and Return $25.50.

Grand Trunk-Lehigh Valley Double Track Route, tickets on sale daily until September 30th. Liberal stop-overs. Apply to Agent of any Eastbound line or write W. S. Cookson, A. G. P. A., 135 Adams St., Chicago, Ill.

It's hard for some accountants to get their balance 'fore quitting work, but a darned sight harder regaining their equilibrium 'fore starting.

Shake Into Your Shoes

Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for your feet. It cures painful, swollen, smarting, sweating feet. Makes new shoes easy. Sold by all Druggists and Shoe Stores. 25c. Don't accept any substitute. Sample FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

When you hear one man trying to belittle another, it's safe to bet that the other is his superior.

DON'T TAKE ANY CHANCES.
The new RUSS BLUE does the best work. 5cts. at leading grocers. Avoid imitations.

Equipped for Fast Travel.

Sorrow is an evil with many feet.—Posidippus.

Look sharp! See the point?
It's the spear on real WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT!

Our idea of a wise man is one who never argues with a woman.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

It is the after effect of experience that counts.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT

SALES MANAGER WANTED to take orders for my Stand and Wind Shields for AUTOMOBILES. Sell easily and make good profits. Send 10c in stamps for beautifully colored illustrations and full particulars.
L. SHORT, MFR.
1493 Fifteenth Place
Chicago

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c, and $1.00 at Druggists

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT PEPSIN GUM

Des Moines Directory

Bale Ties For Hay and Straw
Des Moines Bale Tie Co., 8th and Vine Sts., Des Moines, Iowa

FURS TO ORDER AND REPAIRED
25 to 35 per cent discount
Seal skin and all other furs made over to 1910 season's style.
All Work Strictly Guaranteed
S. B. SEFREN, 510 Locust St., Des Moines, Ia.
Expert Furrier, Designer, Cutter and Fitter.

EAT PURITY CHOCOLATES
M'f'd by Windsor-Purity Candy Co., Des Moines
For sale by all first-class dealers.

IS WHIST WICKED?

Woman, Fired From Church, Appeals to District Conference

HER FRIENDS BACK HER UP

Twice Convicted of Violating the Methodist Discipline, Woman Wants Ames Meeting to Settle Case.

Adel, Aug. 30.—Mrs. Minnie Douglas, the Adel society woman, who, after two long and sensational trials, was ousted from the First Methodist church of Adel because she played whist, will appeal her case to the district conference, according to the Rev. A. E. Foutch of De Sota, who presided at the first trial in the case, and who is now at the Methodist hospital in Des Moines. The conference meets at Ames in September.

In the meantime, according to the Rev. Mr. Foutch, Mrs. Douglas is still playing whist and still attends the theater. And as a result of her excommunication, the church has divided into two factions, many openly upholding Mrs. Douglas. Mr. Foutch declared that many of Mrs. Douglas' friends have severed their connection with the church since the close of the trials. He says they are called the "insurgents."

The first trial was held at Adel last June, and caused a profound sensation in the community. Members of the congregation charged Mrs. Douglas with playing whist, and with being a regular attendant at the Adel theater. Both of these are in violation of the tenets of the church.

The defendant retained an attorney to fight her case. The first church tribunal found Mrs. Douglas guilty and recommended that she be expelled from the church. Her attorney, on the grounds of prejudice against his client, secured another trial at Menlo, and the evidence was submitted to a second tribunal. But this body upheld the decision of the first, and Mrs. Douglas was expelled from the church.

If she meets with defeat at the hands of the members of the district conference, Mrs. Douglas has announced her intention of carrying the case still higher up. She will go before the national conference of the Methodist church, which meets in 1912, and which is the highest tribunal of that denomination.

Des Moines Men Buy Iowa Farms.

Buffalo Center.—Several Winnebago county farms have recently changed hands and among them a half section to Barney Logan of Webster City at $57 an acre; a 160 acre farm to C. W. Gadd, president of the First National bank, here at $50 an acre; a 175 acre farm to the superintendent of schools, Professor Thornburg, Des Moines at $56 an acre; and a 160 acre farm to Professor Hanna of Highland Park college at $51 an acre. The C. C. Fisher farm was sold for $75 an acre, and it is considered as being one of the best in the county and easily worth, productively, as much as any $150 or $200 an acre farm in central Iowa. The purchaser of it got a bargain, as it is located only one mile from town.

Horses Bring Good Figure.

Des Moines.—"Horses are from $30 to $50 higher in Iowa at the present time than other parts of the country," said John Garrison, as he looked over some of the fine exhibits of horse flesh at the state fair. "The reason for this is the greater demand for the horses among the farmers of the state. It is useless to talk about shipping horses out of Iowa at the figures they are bringing here at the present time." Mr. Garrison formerly operated a horse barn on South Ninth street with bi-monthly sales, but was compelled to change his residence through ill health. He is now interested in an orange grove in Texas.

Married Fifty-seven Years Ago.

Boone—Prof. and Mrs. N. E. Goldthwaite celebrated their fifty-seventh wedding anniversary quietly at their home. They were married in Massachusetts in 1852, but soon came to the west where Professor Goldthwaite became prominent as an educator. Both are in the best of health.

To Manufacture Concrete.

Logan.—Machinery for the manufacture of concrete has been put up at the lime stone quarry and sand pit east of Logan by Mr. Frank Peckenpaugh, the owner of the quarry and pit.

Barn Destroyed.

Charles City—Lightning struck a large barn belonging to H. N. Ervay, near here. The barn and contents were destroyed.

New Depot at Ames College.

Des Moines.—So that the State Agricultural college at Ames may have adequate station facilities on the college campus, the finance committee of the board of education conferred with the interurban officers at the state house.

There is a difference of opinion between the Fort Dodge, Des Moines & Southern railway and the board of education on the construction of a new campus depot for the use of the students in going to and from the city of Ames. The specifications call for a brick platform, whereas it is claimed the contract with the state of Iowa called for a cement platform.

For the purpose of reaching a friendly understanding, Messrs. Boyd, Lambert and Emery met the officials, for it is desired by the board to furnish the Ames students with better transportation facilities from the college to the city.

Iowa Rural Letter Carriers Meet.

Des Moines.—The Iowa Rural Letter Carriers' association met in annual session in the Savery hotel, and the report of the secretary showed that it was in a flourishing condition. Iowa has more than 2,300 rural letter carriers, being second only to Illinois. The promoting of good roads was the main theme of the meeting, and among the prominent speakers was Thomas M. MacDonald of Ames, secretary of the Iowa highway commission. Others who spoke were Lucius E. Wilson, secretary of the Greater Des Moines committee, and E. T. Merideth, editor of Successful Farming. The carriers themselves discussed the parcels post, postal savings banks and other matters.

Next Meeting at Des Moines.

Des Moines.—The delegates to the Iowa League of Postmasters' convention held at the court house will hold their next year's convention in Des Moines, Tuesday and Wednesday of fair week. In so doing the postmasters plan to kill two birds with one stone, attending the state fair and the sessions of the order the same days. F. W. Jameson of Ashton delivered an address to the assembled postmaster on "Civil Service As a Factor in An Improved Postal Service," pointing out how easily the postal service has improved under the new system. J. A. French of Bancroft led the general discussion.

Shoots Woman and Self.

Council Bluffs—Andrew Madsen shot and fatally injured Mrs. Martha Rasmussen and then killed himself in a house at Fifth and Locust streets. Madsen had been courting the woman, who had been separated from her husband. Recently she affected a reconciliation with her husband and was forced to sever her friendly relations with Madsen. This fact angered Madsen, who was insanely jealous of the woman's husband.

Their Sixtieth Anniversary.

Dumfries—Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Plumer, surrounded by their eleven children, forty-one grand children and nine great grand children at their home in this quiet little country town, celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding day, and incidentally, the fifty-eighth anniversary of their arrival in this country, which has been their home continuously since they came here in the year 1851.

Button Factory on Iowa River.

Iowa City.—Iowa City has a new industry just started by Otto Davis, who has established a plant at Coralville station for making pearl buttons from the shells of Iowa river clams. Mr. Davis was formerly associated in the work at Muscatine and has proceeded far enough to ascertain that there is an adequate supply of high grade shells in the river at this point.

Horse Rescued From River.

Iowa City.—A livery horse which ran away stood all night in the Iowa river, with only its head out of the water, and was then rescued. The horse was driven by Jacob Hotz, Jr., who states that it began kicking and then ran away. He jumped from the buggy. It is thought the lines became twisted around a wheel and turned the horse into the water.

Methodists to Meet.

Mason City.—Arrangements for the Methodist Episcopal conference in this city, September 28, are being made. The conference will be here for one week. A new presiding elder to succeed Dr. H. W. Troy will probably be selected. Dr. Troy has had continual ill health. Many other changes will probably be made.

Suffers Fractured Skull.

Nora Springs.—From a blow of a sledge, which caught in a clothes line which was suspended over his head, J. P. Clark of this county, a well known farmer, is in a critical condition from a fractured skull. The full force of the heavy iron struck him in the forehead, breaking in the skull.

TWO DEAD IN WRECK

Warnicke, of Centerville, Iowa, Fatally Injured.

ON WABASH, NEAR GLENWOOD

Score Injured, Six Dangerously, as Result of Head-on Collision Between Passenger and Freight Trains in Missouri.

Glenwood, Mo., Aug. 30.—Two persons are dead and a score injured, six dangerously, as the result of a head on collision between a heavily loaded Wabash passenger train and freight train one mile south of here.

The dead:

Henry Lodwig, Queen City, Mo.

R. T. Thompson, Moberly, Mo., fireman of freight engine.

Among the injured are:

N. W. Warnicke, Centerville, Ia.; internally, fractured skull; serious.

J. W. Seigler, Moberly, Mo., mail clerk, badly scalded.

V. H. Kappler, Moberly, Mo., passenger fireman, back and side injured.

T. L. Carney, Moberly, Mo., baggagemaster, internal injuries; serious.

Grover Clark, Trenton, Mo., back and shoulder injured.

William Riley and wife, Downing, Mo., bruised on back and side and hips.

Mrs. Ida E. Thompson, Willmathville, Mo., bruised on body and serious internal injuries.

An extra freight train running at high speed collided with the passenger train on a curve.

The passenger train was crowded with persons going to the old soldiers' reunion at Glenwood, many women and children being aboard. The cause of the wreck is not fully determined.

TWO WOMEN HORSEWHIPPED

Missourians Turn Iowa Women Adrift on Mississippi Without Any Oars.

Keokuk, Ia., Aug. 30—Mrs. Lizzie Brown and her daughter, Maggie Brown, driven out of Keokuk in a recent crusade against the red light district, were tarred and feathered at Alexandria, Mo., five miles south of here, Friday night, the community having grown tired of their presence.

Saturday afternoon they again returned to Alexandria and at 11 o'clock last night another mob of forty men gathered at their home and gave them a horsewhipping, after which they were escorted to the bank of the Mississippi and, having been placed in a skiff without oars, were turned adrift on the broad bosom of the river with a threat not to return under penalty of death. They landed below Alexandria.

A strange man was treated likewise. Two men escaped from the mob.

ASBURY TO SUPERVISE CENSUS

Congressman Kendall Names Ottumwa Man in the Sixth Congressional District.

Ottumwa, Ia., Aug. 30.—Congressman N. E. Kendall has forwarded to the director of the census bureau at Washington the name of W. H. H. Ashbury of Ottumwa as supervisor of the census for the Sixth congressional district.

Mr. Ashbury will have his headquarters in Ottumwa during the census taking, and will have about 150 enumerators and a clerical force under his supervision. The work of taking the 1910 census will be done during the first half of 1910. The supervisor in charge of the work will be named in each congressional district, and this supervisor will be in active charge of the work.

Woman Ground to Death Under Car.

Des Monies, Aug. 30—Mrs. Ambrose Jeffrey, 1724 Second avenue, Cedar Rapids, was run over by a street car at East Thirteenth street and Grand avenue. The car crushed both of her legs above the knees and she died at 8 o'clock, shortly after reaching Mercy hospital where she was taken by the police.

Swisher Suicide—Found by Daughter.

Iowa City, Ia., Aug. 30—A. E. Swisher, a former president of the Iowa State Bar association, committed suicide by hanging. His act is said to have been caused by worry over financial troubles. The body was discovered by his daughter. He had been dead for some time.

Kansan Heads Attorneys General.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 30—Fred S. Jackson of Kansas was elected president of the Association of Attorneys General.

THE BEST REMEDY

For Women—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Noah, Ky. — "I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from headaches, nervous prostration, and hemorrhages. "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me well and strong, so that I can do all my housework, and attend to the store and post-office, and I feel much younger than I really am. "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most successful remedy for all kinds of female troubles, and I feel that I can never praise it enough." — MRS. LIZZIE HOLLAND, Noah, Ky.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease and pain.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

For 30 years it has been curing women from the worst forms of female ills — inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and nervous prostration.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

UNDER A DARK MOON.

Dolly—The motor boat is superior to the canoe even if we do have to carry a chaperon.

Dick—I should say so. The "chug-chug" makes such a racket she couldn't hear a smack to save herself."

An Escape.

"Are you sure that indicator registered the correct fare?"

"Yes," answered the taxicabman. "You aren't kicking, are you?"

"No, I'm congratulating myself. The way we went that far in so short a time we were mighty lucky not to get arrested for scorching."—Washington Star.

Hardly Flattered Himself.

Family Lawyer (to young heir)—Now, remember, my boy, that a fool and his money are soon parted.

Young Heir (impressively)—I contend, sir, to be the exception that proves the rule.

Even doctors disagree and when they do it helps to swell the population of one of the other two places.

IT WORKS

The Laborer Eats Food That Would Wreck an Office Man.

Men who are actively engaged in hard work can sometimes eat food that would wreck a man who is more closely confined.

This is illustrated in the following story:

"I was for 12 years clerk in a store working actively and drank coffee all the time without much trouble until after I entered the telegraph service.

"There I got very little exercise and drinking strong coffee, my nerves were unsteady and my stomach got weak and I was soon a very sick man. I quit meat and tobacco and in fact stopped eating everything which I thought might affect me except coffee, but still my condition grew worse, and I was all but a wreck.

"I finally quit coffee and commenced to use Postum a few years ago, and I am speaking the truth when I say, my condition commenced to improve immediately and today I am well and can eat anything I want without any bad effects, all due to shifting from coffee to Postum.

"I told my wife today I believe I could digest a brick if I had a cup of postum to go with it.

"We make it according to directions, boiling it full 20 minutes and use good rich cream and it is certainly delicious."

Look in pkgs. for a copy of the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

"There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

OWA'S GREAT FAIR

arger Number of Exhibits Than Ever Before.

G CROWDS IN ATTENDANCE

udging of Horses and Dairy Exhibits —Maude Campbell Wins First and Olive Snook Second Prize in Girls' Cooking Contest.

Des Moines, Aug. 30.—This is Des oines day at the state fair, and, om the large number that passed rough the gates early, it is predict- d that a new record for Monday at- ndance will be made before the ates close tonight.

The exhibits in all departments for is year's fair are larger and more merous than ever before.

Thanks to the children, all records ent by the board in the opening day this year's fair. At 7:00 o'clock aturday evening before the gates ere passed by any considerable num- er going to the night show, 21,271 eople had gone through the gates. f this number few more than 8,000 ere adults, and the rest children. he youngsters made themselves felt roughout the grounds all through he day.

Without the children, the numbers ere about the same as passed the ates to the fair a year ago, the fig- res for that day being given at 12,- 00.

Horse Exhibit.

G. H. Simpson of Wheaton, Ill., a ew exhibitor in the pony class took ost of the honors of the day, but harles Backman of this city, also a rst year man, was able to capture ost of the seconds and thirds. The lasses were exceptionally well filled, ome having as many as forty con- estants.

The mule classes were only started aturday, the major part of them go- g over until today.

The only judging done, except in he horses, was in the dairy exhibit here H. E. Forrester of Lake Mills on first, with a score of 97½ in the hole milk class. L. C. Peterson of tory City was a quarter of a point ehind, while L. O. Knudson of Man- won first in the gathered cream lass by a score of 97.

Boy Judges.

Following are the boys who are udging:

Herman Steen of West Liberty, C. . Hill of New Sharon, D. B. Hill of ew Sharon, David Wilson of West iberty, Bernard Myers of Des oines, Andrew Patience of Imogene, lbert Ruess of West Liberty, Harley Walker of Ames, Chester B. Stevens f West Liberty, Harry Nauman of est Liberty, Lloyd Wellendorf of lgona, Wallace Ashby of Polk City, William S. Lynes of Plainfield, Lon- le Freeman of Norwalk, Ryle S. Mc- ee of Indianola, Edward Vaughn of arion, Bennie Hiefman of West Lib- rty, George W. Boyack of Grinnell, lbert Leech of West Liberty, Earl . Waltz of Spaulding, R. O. Westley f Panora, Charles Leavens of Shell ock, Andrew J. Rector of Greeley, laude Mason of Iowa Falls, Bruce urvis of West Liberty, Paul V. Ox- y of Atalissa, Floyd S. Barnes of est Liberty, Edmond P. Hanson of ean, Roy Keables of Gilman, Jesse . Dowell of Bedford.

Girl Wins Prize.

Maude Campbell of Ames proved erself to be the best of the four oung ladies who took part in the ooking contest, scoring a total of 78 points out of a possible 200. Olive nook of Des Moines was second.

These are the girls who are partic- pating in the contest: Maude Camp- ell, Ames; Olive A. Snook, Des oines; Lena F. Thompson, Jamaica; arian Wentworth, State Center.

Four scholarships in any of the egular courses at the Iowa State col- ge and mechanic arts at Ames, val- ed at $200, $150, $125, and $100, and ne scholarship for a short course at he same college, valued at $25, will e awarded to the boys who do the ost efficient work in judging classes rain. He had resided there for the ast twenty years.

f horses, swine, cattle and samples of corn, assigned for the purpose, nd writing reasons substantiating heir judgment. Any boy living in owa who is under 21 years of age has the privilege of entering.

Three scholarships in any of the egular courses at Ames valued at $150, $100 and $75 and one scholar- ship in the short course of two weeks, valued at $25 will be awarded to the girls who do the best work in pre- paring certain food products and giv- ing the best reasons for using their methods.

Miss Edith G. Charlton of Ames has charge of the cooking contest and Prof. Edward N. Wentworth of Ames is superintending the boys' judging contest.

AND NO WONDER.

"I don't know why you moved, my dear. Your house was close to the golf links."

"I know; but I found the children were learning such bad language."

HAD AWFUL WEEPING ECZEMA

Face and Neck Were Raw—Terrible Itching, Inflammation and Soreness —All Treatments Failed.

Cuticura Proved a Great Success.

"Eczema began over the top of my ear. It cracked and then began to spread. I had three different doctors and tried several things, but they did me no good. At last one side of my face and my neck were raw. The water ran out of it so that I had to wear medicated cotton, and it was so inflamed and sore that I had to put a piece of cloth over my pillow to keep the water from it, and it would stain the cloth a sort of yellow. The eczema itched so that it seemed as though I could tear my face all to pieces. Then I began to use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and it was not more than three months before it was all healed up. Miss Ann Pearsons, Northfield, Vt., Dec. 19, 1907."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Style of Price.

"Are you going to raise any fancy crop on your suburban place this summer?" asked Jones of Smith, as they met in the business district.

"Well, yes," hesitatingly admitted Smith. "I am going to try to raise the mortgage."

The Air.

He—So you think married life ought to be one grand, sweet song?

She—Yes.

He—What air would you prefer for this matrimonial song?

She—I think a millionaire.

No more imitation flavors!
Enjoy the real refreshing crushed mint leaf flavor of WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT.

From the Life of the Protector.

Cromwell wished to be painted with the wart.

"Don't you mean the warthog?" they asked anxiously.

YELLOW CLOTHES ARE UNSIGHTLY. Keep them white with the new RUSS BLUE. Get the genuine. 5cts., at grocers.

And occasionally a man throws off trouble by putting on a bold front.

BED-BOUND FOR MONTHS.

Hope Abandoned After Physicians' Consultation.

Mrs. Enos Shearer, Yew and Washington Sts., Centralia, Wash., says: "For years I was weak and run down, could not sleep, my limbs swelled and the secretions were troublesome; pains were intense. I was fast in bed for four months. Three doctors said there was no cure for me, and I was given up to die. Being urged, I used Doan's Kidney Pills. Soon I was better and in a few weeks was about the house, well and strong again."

Sold by all dealers, 50 cents a box, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Willing to Try.

She—Do you think it would take you long to love a girl?

He—I don't know. How long have you got?—Yonkers Statesman.

Important to Mothers.

Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA a safe and sure remedy for infants and children, and see that it

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

In Use For Over 30 Years.
The Kind You Have Always Bought.

The Antispeed Argument.

"Was that a novel your messenger boy was reading?"

"Worse than that," answered the man in charge of the office. "It was the fable of the hare and the tortoise."

Still Inimitable.

First Cricket—Men are flying.

Second Cricket—Perhaps, but they can't make music with their legs.

Well, well!
That's indigestion after WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT!
Look for the spear. The flavor lasts.

Afterglow.

"Are you still in the blissful intoxication of love?"

"No. I've reached the headache now."—Exchange.

Lame back and Lumbago make a young man feel old. Hamlins Wizard Oil makes an old man feel young. Absolutely nothing like it for the relief of all pain.

Be Careful.

In going out after fame, make sure that you don't capture notoriety.

A good will offering—
A good digestion offering!
WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT.

Fame may come to a man suddenly and go just as quickly.

Millions of white teeth come from millions of sticks of WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT.

Undertakers also come under the head of scientific boxers.

Avoid Caustic and Acids

You can now do all your cleaning with one, handy, all-round cleanser, which cleans mechanically, not chemically. You can save time, labor and money, and keep your house spic and span, with

Old Dutch Cleanser

This new cleanser takes the place of soaps, soap-powders, scouring-bricks and metal-polishes, and does all their work in an easier, quicker and better way.

Cleans, Scrubs, Scours, Polishes

If your dealer doesn't keep it, send us his name and 10 cents in stamps (the regular price) and we'll send you a full-size can. Write for our free booklet, "Hints for Housewives."

CUDAHY—OMAHA—MAKER

Large, Sifting-Top Can 10c

FREE GOVERNMENT LAND!

CHEYENNE RIVER RESERVATION

3,000,000 Acres

of good land will be thrown open to Homesteaders October 4th to 23rd. The general land office has designated

Le Beau and Aberdeen, S.D.

on

M. & St. L. R. R.

as places to register for the drawing.

For rates, etc., write or ask any agent of the Iowa Central or Minneapolis and St. Louis road or

A. B. CUTTS, General Passenger and Ticket Agent
Minneapolis, Minn.

"Fuel Without a Fault"

The verdict of every one of the 100,000 users of Milwaukee Solvay Coke.

A clean, healthful fuel—the heat element of the mixture of excellent coals from which it is made. No waste, no clinkers to clog, no smudge nor smoke—no ashes to sift.

BUY MILWAUKEE Solvay Coke

"The Ideal Domestic Fuel"

It makes a safe and even oven fire—just right for baking. Women like it because it is odorless and clean—light in weight—lightens housecleaning work.

Men like it because it costs less than hard coal and goes farther—saves one-fifth of the fuel bill.

Solvay Coke does not burn out fire-pots or grates and can be used in any stove, range, heater or grate adaptable for hard coal.

2,000 dealers in the Northwest sell Milwaukee Solvay Coke—all sizes—ask your dealer, and write for interesting booklet of coke information to

PICKANDS, BROWN & COMPANY
Colby-Abbot Building - - Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM

DOUBLE TRACK

SPECIAL EXCURSIONS

Daily Until Sept. 30, 1909

CHICAGO to

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., AND RETURN		$25.70
BOSTON, MASS., AND RETURN		25.60
MONTREAL, QUE., AND RETURN		20.00
NEW YORK, N. Y., AND RETURN		25.50
PORTLAND, ME., AND RETURN		27.35
QUEBEC, QUE., AND RETURN		24.00
TORONTO, ONT., AND RETURN	DIRECT LINE	15.60
TORONTO, ONT., AND RETURN	via Niagara Falls	19.50

Tickets good via Niagara Falls and allow stopover at that point. Thirty days' return limit. Liberal stopovers.

Excursion fares to all Tourist Resorts in Canada, New England, New York and New Jersey. For full particulars apply to

W. S. COOKSON, A. G. P. A.
135 Adams Street Chicago, Illinois

RESINOL

has been prescribed for years by physicians all over the world in the treatment of skin diseases, itching, irritation, eczema and in dressing of boils, felons and carbuncles. It is acknowledged by them to be the very best ointment known for erysipelas, erythema, nettle rash, ringworm and a specific for itching piles. 50c. a jar, all druggists, or sent direct on receipt of price.

RESINOL CHEMICAL COMPANY, BALTIMORE, MD.

"I cannot praise RESINOL enough."
Mrs. Geo. A. Laney, Montreal, Canada.

HEIDER EVENERS

2-, 3-, 4-, 5-, & 6-Horse Plow Eveners are unequaled. Work like a charm. We make Clevises to attach Eveners to all Plows: also wagon doubletrees, singletrees, neck yokes, etc.

Heider 4-Horse Plow Evener permits working 4 horses abreast on Gang, Sulky or Disc Plow. One horse in furrow, 3 on land. Works free—no sidedraft. Coupled short—easy to attach. All horses pull equal.

Heider 3-Horse Wagon Evener—for Grain Drill,—3 horses on a Wagon, Manure Spreader, anywhere you want to use pole. No longer pole required.

Ask your dealer for Heider EVENERS and get the best. If he can't supply you, write us—don't accept any other. Insist on the Heider—none work so perfect.

HEIDER MFG. CO., DEPT 100, Carroll, Iowa

GOOD PATENTS Start Factories

We secure and promote patents. Represent 15 manufacturing firms looking for improvements. SUES & CO., Patent Attorneys, 210 D St., Washington, D. C. No advance fee. Advice free.

W. N. U., DES MOINES, NO. 36–1909.

FREE!

This beautiful watch and other fine premiums free to boys and girls for selling 25 pieces of jewelry at 10 cents each. No money, just send your name and we will mail the jewelry.

MEMPHIS C. G. CO.
201 Washington Ave., Memphis, Tenn.

PUTNAM FADELESS DYES

Color more goods brighter and faster colors than any other dye. One 10c package colors all fibers. They dye in cold water better than any other dye. You can dye any garment without ripping apart. Write for free booklet—How to Dye, Bleach and Mix Colors. MONROE DRUG CO., Quincy, Illinois.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

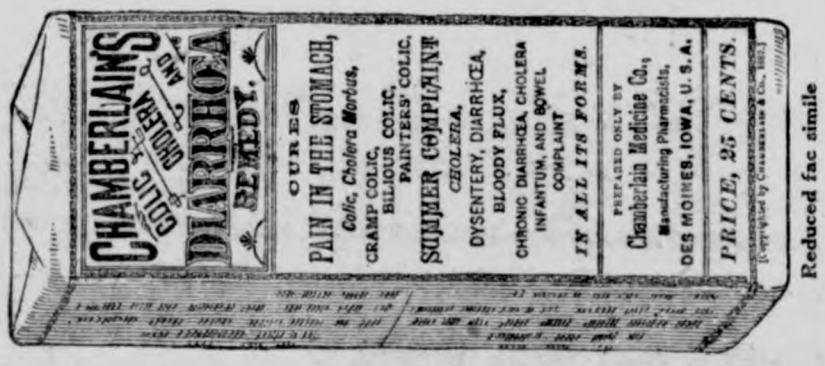
G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy

Acknowledged everywhere to be the most successful medicine in use for Bowel Complaints. Can be depended upon in the most severe and dangerous cases.

REMEMBER ALWAYS CURES CURES QUICKLY

MONEY RETURNED IF NOT SATISFIED



Reduced fac simile

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

A Heartache Cure

Atchison Globe: An Atchison young thing had a heart that ached, her honey-boy having taken his affections elsewhere, and her father recently shut himself up with her to reason with her.

"That honey-boy averaged spending 50 cents a week on you," he said. "Here's a dollar a week to take his place. Every time he called he cleaned out the refrigerator, your mother will see to it that your brothers do this in future. He kept you up late nights. Your baby sister is cross, and hereafter you will let the baby do this for you. He took posession of the most comfortable rocker on the porch; when you look at that rocker in future it will not be empty, bringing the pang to your heart that your silly novels tell about; it will be occupied by the man who paid for it, and that's me. Your mother and I stayed by you through colic and teething and are going to get you thru this if we have to take turns spanking you. Now take your eyes off the moon and look at the dust around you."

A Hurry Up Call

Quick! Mr. Druggist—Quick! A box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve—Here's a quarter—For the love of Moses, hurry! Baby's burned himself, terribly—Johnnie cut his foot with the axe—Mamie's scalded—Pa can't walk from piles—Billie has boils—and my corns ache. She got it and soon cured all the family. Its the greatest healer on earth. Sold by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Prizes for Good Menus

The patient housewife who is trying to cater to the needs of her family on a moderate income has to solve daily the same old problem, "What shall I cook for breakfast, for luncheon, for dinner?" The very monotony of the question gets on one's nerves, and there is a lot of real difficulty in planning a wholesome variety for each day. The Chicago Record-Herald has mercifully come to the aid of puzzled housewives by printing in each issue a set of three menus, with recipes, under the title "Meals for a Day." What is more, it gives four cash prizes every week for the best of these menus; and women all over the country are invited to compete. The terms of award and the names of the latest winners may be found in any Monday issue of the Record-Herald That is the day, too, when the "Martha's Management" column appears, with its helpful hints and advice to cooks and housekeepers. Marion Harland's Sunday page also gives a group of selected recipes, which if cut out each week and kept in a scrap book, will make a most valuable collection. Women not familiar with the prize menu feature of the Record-Herald should investigate it at once. Many have found it a handy means of getting fresh ideas and securing cash for those they already have.

Colic Quickly Cured

Colic is one of the most severe and painful diseases. It is quite common too. Almost everyone has an occasional attack. Fortunately there is a remedy that always affords quick relief and that has never been known to fail in any case. It is called Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Mr. Tod Robinson, a prominent merchant of Point Blank, Texas, says, "I have had several attacks of colic and in every instance one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy relieved me, and I never had to take more than two doses to effect a cure." For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

New Decorative Idea.

The hostes who wishes something different is asked to try using striped and fancy grasses, rushes and little wild foliage plants that grow in damp places and along streams. A table can be made very pretty with these, using no flowers. Try it.

The Road to Success

has many obstructions, but none so desperate as poor health. Success today demands health, but Electric Bitters is the greatest health builder the world has ever known. It compels perfect action of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, purifies and enriches the blood and tones and invigorates the whole system. Vigorous body and keen brain follow their use. You can't afford to slight Electric Bitters if weak, run-down or sickly. Only 50c. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Books
Pamphlets

Letter Heads
Envelopes

Everything printed from

TYPE

At the Times office.

Cards
Invitations

Bill Heads
Posters

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOW

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE. LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STATE.

Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. Fifte days treatment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund mone All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines need. detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by mail and express. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage. Charg low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for terms. Co sultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call or wr to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without the use harmful instruments. Our bo full explains.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the scrotum causing nervous debility, weakn of the nervous system, etc., permanently cured.

BLOOD POISON —That terrible disease in its stages, cured for life. Sk Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, and all forms private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few days with pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application, description of above diseases, effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrapper.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINES, I

RUPTURE, PILES

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolutely reliable and permanent. Write to or call and see the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were afflicted with Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia.
Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines, Ia.
E. C. Miller, Des Moines, Ia.
John H. Looby, Des Moines, Ia.

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you free, postage paid. This book contains much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonial letters. Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the book. Write today—it will pay you.

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES, IOWA

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:34 p. m.
82 ..... 2:35 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:55 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

PATENTS

DESIGNS
TRADE-MARKS
AND COPYRIGHTS
OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"

Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,
E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

McCALL PATTERNS 10¢ AND 15¢ NONE HIGHER

McCALL'S MAGAZINE 50¢ A YEAR INCLUDING A FREE

McCALL PATTERNS
Celebrated for style, perfect fit, simplicity, reliability nearly 40 years. Sold in every city and town in the United States, Canada, or by mail direct. More in any other make. Send for free catalogue.

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
More subscribers than any other magazine—million a month. Invaluable cut styles, patterns, dressmaking, millinery, plain sewing, fancy needlework, hairdressing, etiquette, good stories, etc. Only 50¢ a year (worth double), including a free pattern. Subscribe today, or send for sample copy.

WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS to Agents. Postal brings particulars and new cash prizes.

THE McCALL CO., 238 to 248 W. 37th St., N.Y.

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified.

FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE

it is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

Just Dust it on the
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls w
work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bott
Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid
Money Back if Not Satisfied.
The RED STAR HEALING POW
(25c. and 50c. Cans). GARNE

THE KLEMME TIMES

VOLUME XIV. NUMBER 6 — KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1909. — $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

On Next Tuesday, Sept. 14, 1909

we desire that everybody arrange to attend the HARRY TARVEAL SALE

A nice list of personal property, consisting of

6 Horses 6
32 Cattle 32
29 Hogs 29
20 tons Hay in barn
50 acres of Corn in field
1 DeLaval cream separator
Chickens, Machinery and other articles

TERMS: All sums of $10 and under Cash; over this amount a credit of 12 months' time will be given on approved notes.

Remember the date and turn out and help swell the crowd

State Savings Bank.

Klemme - - Iowa

ANNUAL NORTHWEST GERMAN CONFERENCE ADJOURNED MONDAY

Klemme Successfully Entertains Large Gathering of German Methodist Ministers and Is In Turn Highly Entertained by Them—Bishop Nuelsen Presides.—Many Fine Sermons.

APPOINTMENTS MADE

The Northwest German Conference which was organized forty-seven years ago, at that time included everything west of Chicago. Some years later the east end of this vast territory was cut off and organized separately as the Chicago German Conference. Once more it was divided, the North German Conference covering Minnesota and corners of Wisconsin and North Dakota besides other conferences having been organized south and west. At present the territory of this conference includes the northern part of Iowa, a small corner of Illinois, and Wisconsin and South Dakota.

Every minister was present, excepting two. Besides this, there were from forty to fifty visitors in attendance. Our people proved themselves equal to the occasion and found no trouble in entertaining them. Many expressed their surprise to find so many beautiful homes, nice lawns and streets in our little city. And the hospitality of our people was frequently commented upon.

Bishop Nuelsen presided with a dignity, seasoned with tenderness and forebearance. The business of the conference took up much more time than usual. A special closed session was held Friday afternoon and the conference barely finished its business Monday noon.

As the poles for the large tent did not arrive, the evening services were held in the church, which was not large enough to admit all. The Sunday services were held in the open air, for which the weather was most favorable. The sermons and addresses were good and listened to with much interest. As always, there were many collections taken and nearly $600 was contributed to various causes.

The exceptionally fine music furnished by the local choir deserves special and honorable mention and was a very enjoyable feature.

Much credit is due to the Klemme pastor, Rev. Wessel, for his untiring efforts and ceaseless labor to make the meeting a success and the guests comfortable. There is much joy and satisfaction among his members that he is returned to this charge.

The most interesting moment of an annual conference is when the appointments are read, and the church was crowded Monday noon when this the final part of the entire session came. Fifteen ministers were changed to other stations. Following is a complete list of the appointments:

Galena District—Supt. B C Brandenburg.
Basswood—Andrew Immer
Colesburg—L J Brenner
Decorah—H W Schneider
Dubuque—J W Feller
Freeport—H J Loemker
Galena—R L Hertel
Giard—F O Barz
LaCrosse, 1st church—J L Panzlau
LaCrosse, 2nd church—W J Witter
Lansing—A C Panzlau
Platville—W C Bergman
Sherrill—J F Zemke
Stitzer—To be supplied.
Tomah—G Haefner
Wood—G H Kohler
Yellow Creek—W P Schlein

South Dakota District—Supt. J F Hartke.
Charles Mix—To be supplied.
Crandon—H E Hilmer
Gettysburg—H A Westphal
Howard—Emil Witter
Parker—W J Loeck
Redfield—G C Clausen
Rosebud Mission—W F Belling
Rockham—J F Wilter
Webster and Buttler—G E Kienle
Wessington Springs—F J Hoffman
White—Jno Bury
Wilmot—E H Lewandowski

Upper Iowa District—Supt. W H Rolfing.
Alden—F C Steffler
Burt and Fenton—F H Schuldt
Charles City—J H Klaus
Dennison—To be supplied.
Flood Creek—A F Damerow
Garner and Hayfield—A W Gauger
Gladbrook—H R Schmidt
Klemme and Germantown—G H Wessel
LeMars—F H Thiel
Mason City—W H Klaus
Odebolt—C A Schuldt
Reinbeck—Wm Koerner
Rudd—O E Johnson
St Charles—J E Benz
Sioux City—Arthur Meyer
Spencer—J A Lemke
Storm Lake—Wm Hein
Varina—W Praemer

GERMAN METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, KLEMME, IOWA

Bank With the IT PAYS

FIRST NATIONAL

Capital, $25,000

It's Many Safeguards for the People's Money:

It's large capital,
It's alert Board of Directors,
It's conservative policy

are for

YOUR PROTECTION

A CONVINCER

The best convincer on earth is a good, honest trial of any line of goods.
We claim for our lumber and building material that it is as good or better than can be purchased elsewhere, and to substantiate this claim, we ask an honest trial of our goods. We can quote you as good a price as anyone.
May we figure on your next lumber bill?

J. H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, AGENT
KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J. W. WATERMAN

Colic Quickly Cured

Colic is one of the most severe and painful diseases. It is quite common too. Almost everyone has an occasional attack. Fortunately there is a remedy that always affords quick relief and that has never been known to fail in any case. It is called Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Mr. Tod Robinson, a prominent merchant of Point Blank, Texas, says, "I have had several attacks of colic and in every instance one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy relieved me, and I never had to take more than two doses to effect a cure." For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Of Interest to Book Lovers

This is an age of books, and every intelligent reader feels the need of keeping informed on the best among the thousands of new volumes that come from the press every year. The best way to do this is to subscribe for a good metropolitan newspaper that prints daily reviews of the most important books as fast as they appear. The Chicago Record-Herald is generally conceded to be the leading literary daily west of New York. It gives more attention to books than any other Chicago paper, treating them as a legitimate theme of everyday news and covering the whole range of current literature as if it believed books were actually as interesting to its readers as, say, the pork market or the latest murder. Its literary department, under the editorship of Edwin L. Shuman, is undoubtedly the most complete and the most ably conducted in the West. Mr. Shuman's literary judgments are eagerly sought by authors themselves and are quoted all over the country, and so are those of his able corps of skilled assistants. Walter Littlefield's weekly news-letter from New York keeps the Record-Herald's readers informed on all the forthcoming books of importance, and a cable dispatch from London every Sunday gives the latest book news of the English capital. Naturally persons with literary tastes prefer the Record-Herald to all other Chicago morning papers.

Night on Bald Mountain

On a lonely night Alex Benton of Fort Edward, N Y. climbed Bald Mountain to the home of a neighbor, tortured by asthma, bent on curing him with Dr. King's New Discovery, that had cured himself of asthma. This wonderful medicine soon relieved and quickly cured his neighbor. Later it cured his son's wife of a severe lung trouble. Millions believe it is the greatest throat and lung cure on earth. Coughs, colds, croup, hemorrhages and sore lungs are surely cured by it. Best for hay fever, grip and whooping cough. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Hancock County Fair, Britt, Iowa, September 21, 22, 23 and 24.

The Klemme Times

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher.

KLEMME, . . . IOWA

IMPORTANT NEWS NOTES OF A WEEK

LATEST HAPPENINGS THE WORLD OVER TOLD IN ITEMIZED FORM.

EVENTS HERE AND THERE

Condensed Into a Few Lines for the Perusal of the Busy Man—Latest Personal Information.

PERSONAL.

Paris J. Cox, for three years minister of Friends' church of Laporte, Ind., severed his connection with the Friends and will enter the Methodist ministry.

James Bryce, British ambassador at Washington, arrived in Ottawa, Ont., to consult with Sir Wilfrid Laurier on trade conditions consequent upon the Payne tariff law.

Levi H. Bancroft, speaker of the Wisconsin assembly, was the orator at the Wisconsin day celebration at the Seattle exposition.

Edward Butler, Jr., son of Col Butler, political boss of St. Louis, died suddenly in that city of heart failure while talking to his wife.

Justice William R. Day of the United States supreme court, delivered the address at Mackinac Island, Mich., at the unveiling of the new $7,000 statue of Pere Marquette.

President Taft has appointed A. P. Sawyer of Seatle to be auditor of Porto Rico, to succeed G. C. Ward.

Earl Grey, governor general of Canada, narrowly escaped death when he was lost and wandered for hours in the wilds of the northwest. A rescuing party found him.

Edward H. Harriman in a personal statement concerning his health said "I am all right."

Harry K. Thaw has been made librarian of the hospital for the criminal insane at Matteawan, N. Y.

Senator Carter of Montana declared at Seattle that charges of water power grabbing in his state were without foundation.

Glenn H. Curtiss won the international cup for the highest speed in the aviation events at Rheims, France, flying at the rate of 47.65 miles an hour.

Charles W. Morse, recently released from the Tombs prison, New York, on $125,000 bail, has begun his efforts to restore his fallen fortunes by attempting to regain control of the Metropolitan Steamship Company.

GENERAL NEWS.

John F. Hayner, who shot former Senator Summerville at Sleepy Eye, Minn., committed suicide by hanging in a cell in the jail at New Ulm, Minn.

Eastern Pennsylvania has had no real rain in the last several months and crops and pasturage have been destroyed by drought. Several factories have been closed because of the lack of water.

Ten thousand American and Mexican children will sing the national anthems of both nations at El Paso when Presidents Taft and Diaz meet.

Spokane, Wash., plans to give President Taft a "ciderfest" that will eclipse the possum dinner in Georgia.

Thirteen persons were injured, two perhaps fatally, when a Rock Island train struck a street car at Des Moines, Ia.

A circular sent by the Turkish government to all its provincial authorities discredits the reported sedition of Armenians and asserts that the purpose of Turkey is to treat Moslem and non-Moslem alike hereafter.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Cornwall, for 20 years Presbyterian missionaries in Foochoo, China, are reported dead from cholera.

"President Taft is a wise, just, magnanimous man, whose policies will secure for the colored people their full rights," declared Dr. William M. Alexander of Baltimore, secretary of the Lott Carey Colored Baptist Foreign Missionary conference.

The color line was obliterated at the state convention of Spanish war veterans at Pasadena, Cal., when a negro delegate said the black men's right to carry a musket beside the white gave him the privilege of comradeship.

A monument to Rev. James Lemen, Sr., a pioneer Baptist minister, was unveiled at Waterloo, Ia.

Delegates to the convention of the National Association of Letter Carriers at St. Paul, Minn., balloted for officers, Four thousand policemen will protect trees and shrubs in Riverside Park, New York, from the crowds which will watch the international naval parade at the Hudson-Fulton celebration.

Secretary Dickinson at Nashville, Tenn., intimated that investigation of the case of J. H. Booker, charged with hazing at West Point, will be re opened.

The National Association of Supervisory Post Office Employes met in annual convention in Chicago.

A "peace fleet" of eight armored United States cruisers sailed from San Francisco on a five months' trip to Japan and China.

A monument to Chief Menominee and his band of Pottawattomie Indians who were unjustly evicted from their reservation in Indiana in 1838 was unveiled at Twin Lake, Ind.

Thirty Japanese sent by their government to study commerce and trade in the United States, landed at Seattle. They will travel through 24 states.

Dr. Frederick A. Cook of Brooklyn, N. Y., on April 21, 1908, discovered the north pole, according to a message received from him by his wife and information sent to Copenhagen by the captain of the vessel on which he returned to that point.

Through a conference between the operators and the national executive board of the United Mine Workers of America the dispute with the 18,000 miners in the Pittsburg district has been settled, and 7,000 men now on strike will return to work.

At Sleepyeye, Minn., George W. Sommerville, former state senator, lawyer and politician, was shot and fatally wounded, in his private office, by John S. Hayner, manager of a large business block, in a dispute over money matters.

A message received by relatives at White Plains, N. Y., announced the death from cholera at Foo Choo, China, of Rev. and Mrs. George Cornwall, for 20 years Presbyterian missionaries in that country.

Through a deal involving millions the United States Steel Corporation has taken over the property known as the Kelly lands and Mines in Danville, Ill., district on which it held an option from the Hammond Company.

Krasnoyarsk, Siberia, is to be the place of exile of Alexander Lopukine, former chief of the Russian police department, who was convicted of activity as a revolutionary.

John R. Myrick, who enlisted in the union army as a private at the outbreak of the civil war, and who was retired as a brigadier-general in 1903, is dead in New York.

While playing with a shotgun at Nicholasville, Ky., James Littrell, eight years old, accidentally discharged the weapon and blew off the head of his six-year-old sister.

Fire destroyed the Savoy theater at Hamilton, Ont. Loss, $60,000. The theater belonged to the Stroud-Bennett syndicate, but was to have been taken over by the Shuberts.

During the funeral at Seattle of George E. Eccles, the wireless operator who perished on the steamer Ohio, every wireless telegraph instrument in the western division was silent for half an hour.

Mrs. Katherine Miller, formerly Mrs Kate Soffel, who served a two-year prison term for helping Jack and Edward Biddle, the murderers, escape from the county jail at Pittsburg, died of typhoid fever.

Tied to a tree by robbers, an employe of the Ingram-Day Lumber Company, suffered tortures for three days near Nugent, Miss. His mouth was stuffed with paper and rags and he was without food, while mosquitoes were torturing him.

President Taft has decided that Beverly, Mass., shall be the summer capital again next year, and has leased the cottage he now is occuying for the season.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and a delegate from Austria engaged in a war of words at the International Trades Unions congress in Paris when the latter attacked American labor for not joining the organization.

The United States and Europe were brought nearly three hours closer together when the great liner, Mauretania reduced her record from New York to Queenstown to four days, 14 hours and 27 minutes.

After slaying Cecil Norton, 15 years old, daughter of his housekeeper; his daughter Dorothy, aged 12, and setting fire to his house, Will Tibbetts, a wealthy farmer of Red Wood Falls, Minn., committed suicide.

Five persons, all relatives, were killed when a street car struck an automobile, near St. Louis.

A new tobacco war has been started at Covington, Ky., by the filing of a suit by Clark & Scott, independent manufacturers, against the Burley society, demanding $135,520, said to have been overcharged on tobacco bought by them.

An important amendment has been made to the navy regulations which places the engineer officer attached to a ship of war in line to succeed the executive officer.

FINE EVENING PROGRAMS

THIRTY FIRE DEPARTMENT COMPANIES IN ACTION.

Seven Military Bands, Merged Into One, Will Give Two-Hour Concert, Sept. 21-23.

Des Moines, Sept. 6.—Not content with the expenditure of $18,000 to secure the great tournament of the United States army to be participated in by 6,000 regular soldiers, representing all branches of the service from September 20 to 25, and an expenditure of $19,500 for street and private decorations, the business men of Des Moines will provide some splendid features for night entertainment. On Monday, Sept. 20, and Friday, Sept. 24, over thirty companies of the fire department with steamers, water towers, aerial trucks and other fighting apparatus, will make a run through the business streets in answer to an alarm and will extinguish a fire in an improvised building to be erected in River Front park. On Tuesday and Thursday nights, the seven military bands, merged into one of over 180 pieces, will give a patriotic program of two hours duration on the river front. These programs are for the evenings.

IOWA FISHERIES STATISTICS

Figures Gathered by the Government for the Year 1908 Issued by Census Bureau.

Washington, D. C.—The preliminary report of the fisheries of Iowa for the year ending Dec. 31, 1908, has been made by the census department. These statistics are confined to the fishing industry and do not include wholesale fish dealers or canneries. The final report will contain an analysis of the totals and will present statistics for other phases of the industry:

Independent fishermen	720
Wage-earning fishermen	66
Boats employed	829	$ 37,512
Apparatus of capture, total.		28,880
Crowfoot dredges		2,270
Fyke and hoop nets	2,455	7,550
Lines		740
Pounds nets	403	4,030
Seines	168	8,802
Trammel nets	257	4,990
Miscellaneous		280
Shore and accessory prop		10,520
Products in pounds		214,560
Black bass	54,100	5,596
Buffalo	565,600	22,780
Catfish	418,200	33,270
Carp, German	2,047,800	61,860
Crappie	114,700	4,670
Drum, fresh water	188,400	5,320
Eels	5,400	570
Sturgeon	223,400	16,480
Paddle-fish	5,900	350
Pike and pickerel	60,500	3,210
Pike perch (wall eyed)	37,600	2,730
Suckers	197,200	6,630
Sunfish and bream	126,600	2,670
White bass	4,700	290
Yellow perch	11,600	300
Turtles	92,800	1,820
Mussel shells	4,699,200	23,980
Pearls		11,450
Miscellaneous fish, frogs, and skins		1,590

THE VALUE OF AERIAL CRAFT

Practical Demonstration at National Military Tournament at Des Moines, Sept. 20-25.

Des Moines, Sept. 6.—The first practical demonstration of the value of aerial craft in warfare will be given at the great National Tournament of the United States Army in Des Moines, September 20 to 25, when Major Stutsman, Lieutenant Lamb and other distinguished aeronauts connected with the United States army, with dirigibles and other air craft, will make daily flights and attack and destroy, with high explosives, imaginary fortifications, camps, etc., all in plain sight of the state fair grounds, grand stand and other seats where an audience of over 20,000 can be cared for.

Big Ideas.

When Mrs. P. thought Robbie old enough to wear trousers, she, like many nother frugal mother, brought out an old pair of her husband's and began to cut them over. "What are you doing, mamma?" asked small Rob. "I am cutting out a nice little pair of trousers for you," said mamma, thinking how much pleasure it would give him. "But, mamma, why do you cut them little? If you would only leave them big, like they are, everybody would know then that I am a man," replied Robbie, much grieved. —The Delineator.

Walter Camp's Articles.

Mr. Walter Camp, who is considered the foremost figure and authority in the field of sports and games in America, has been engaged to write a series of articles for The Century Magazine during the coming year, beginning in November. The articles wil cover the development of athletics in America—foot ball, base ball, rowing, track athletics, golf, and tennis—and he will treat these subjects with reference to sports in colleges.

VALUE PAINTED ON.

Well painted is value added whether the house be built for one thousand dollars or ten thousand. Well painted means higher selling value, and higher occupying value—for there's an additional pleasure in living in the house that is well dressed.

National Lead Company assist in making the right use of the right paint by sending free upon request to all who ask for it, their "Houseowners' Painting Outfit No. 49." This outfit includes a book of color schemes for either exterior or interior painting, a book of specifications and an instrument for detecting aduiteration in paint materials. Address National Lead Company, 1902 Trinity Building, New York City, and the outfit will be promptly sent to you.

DANGER NOT CLOSE AT HAND

Men Will Run Things a Few Years Yet Is the Prophecy of the Observant Drummer.

A group of men were discussing the possibilities and dangers of woman suffrage. All but one expressed the fear that the movement was gaining such momentum that in a comparatively short time this fair land would be transformed and man no longer would be master. The exception, a commercial traveler, with years of experience in studying human nature, scoffed at their alarm.

"Don't worry," he said. "We'll be safe for a good many years yet. In all my trips about the country I find that two-thirds of the women travelers, even those who are self-reliant enough to gallivant about alone, can't go to bed even in a sleeping car without first looking under the berth to see if there is a man there. So long as that primitive feminine instinct survives our institutions are safe."

BABY HORRIBLY BURNED.

By Boiling Grease—Skin All Came Off One Side of Face and Head—Thought Her Disfigured for Life.

Used Cuticura: No Scar Left.

"My baby was sitting beside the fender and we were preparing the breakfast when the frying-pan full of boiling grease was upset and it went all over one side of her face and head. Some one wiped the scald with a towel, pulling the entire skin off. We took her to a doctor. He tended her a week and gave me some stuff to put on. But it all festered and I thought the baby was disfigured for life. I used about three boxes of Cuticura Ointment and it was wonderful how it healed. In about five weeks it was better and there wasn't a mark to tell where the scald had been. Her skin is just like velvet. Mrs. Hare, 1, Henry St., South Shields, Durham, England, March 22, 1908."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

THEN HE FLED.

Tramp—Kynd lydy, I 'aven't 'ad a bite all day.

Lady Fisher (very engrossed)—Er—er—have you tried a worm?

Chicago to Boston and Return $25.60.

Grand Trunk Double Track Route. Tickets on sale daily until September 30th, thirty-day limit. Liberal stopovers. Through sleepers daily, tourist sleepers Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays. Low fares to all tourist resorts in New England and Canada. Apply to Agent of any Eastbound line or write W. S. Cookson, A. G. P. A., 135 Adams St., Chicago, Ill.

It Was His Way.

A Kansas farmer was telling recently about the eavesdropping that goes on along the farmers' telephone line he is on. He said that whenever he talked he could hear the "click, click" of different receivers coming down.

"And you can bet," he amended, "that they never hear my receiver coming down. No, sir; I always hold on to the thing and let it down so easy that it doesn't click!"—Kansas City Journal.

Cures Human Skin Troubles and Is Equally Good for Our Pets and Domestic Animals.

Resinol Salve is my ideal and favored remedy wherever a salve is needed. It is as good for horses, dogs, etc., as for mankind. Truly a universal healing Ointment.

W. P. Schmitz, Vet., Hinsdale, Mass.

On Hill's Twofers.

Beacon—Is Shadby much of a smoker?

Hill—Not at home, but you ought to see him when he comes over to spend the evening with me!

FIRE INSURANCE

Iowa Has the Largest Mutual Company—Dwelling House Insurance at Actual Cost.

The Town Mutual Dwelling Ho Insurance Association of Des Moi is now the largest purely Mutual F Insurance company in the Uni States, having $38,000,000 of Dwell property Insurance in force, all Iowa. The association is managed C. E. Harsh, who has held the of of secretary since a few months a the organization of the associat seventeen years ago. The annual of management has been about fift cents per $1,000, and the Total C to Members has averaged about si five cents per $100 of Insurance ried for each five years. Inquire for local agent in Your Town.

A Suspicious Silence.

Howard was only 20 months o than the baby. He had some come to realize that Elwood, was creeping, was more likely t in mischief when quiet. One da called to his mother with a great of anxiety in his little voice: "M ma, I hear Elwood keeping stil The Delineator.

NASTY YELLOW CLOTHES will forever disappear if you use R BLUE. All good grocers, 5c.

Cathedral Insured for Large Su St. Paul's Cathedral, London, i sured for $475,000.

IF YOUR CHILD NEEDS A TONIC

—if your little boy or girl is delicate and sickly—go to the nearest druggist and get a bottle of

Dr. D. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge

This splendid tonic has been successful for four generations in making sickly children strong and healthy, and effectively expelling worms.

It is likewise a natural tonic for adults, and restores lasting health and strength to "run-down" systems by toning up the stomach and other digestive organs.

Sold by All Druggists—2 sizes, 50c. and 35c.

Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant is the most reliable remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Pleurisy.

SICK HEADACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cures these Little Pills

They also relieve distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PRICE.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Bear Fac-Simile Signature

Brent Good

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES

Sticky Sweating Palms

after taking salts or cathartic waters—did you ever notice that weary all gone feeling—the pain of your hands sweat—and nasty taste in your mouth—Cathartics only move by sweating your bowels—Do a lot of hurt—Try a CASCARET and see how much easier the job is done—how much better you feel.

CASCARETS 10c a box for a week's treatment, all druggists. Biggest seller in the world. Million boxes a month.

This Trade-Mark Eliminates Uncertainty

in the purchase of paint materials. It is an absolute guarantee of quality and purity. For your protection that it is on the label of every keg of white lead you buy.

NATIONAL LEAD COMPANY 1902 Trinity Building, New York

LIPS THAT WERE SEALED

BY ALMA MARTIN ESTABROOK

PICTURES BY A. WEIL

AUTHOR of "MY COUSIN PATRICIA."

COPYRIGHT BY J. B. LIPPINCOTT CO.

SYNOPSIS.

The story opens with a scene at a box party. Miss Henrietta Winstanley, sister of Bishop Winstanley, overheard Banker Ankony propose to Barbara Hemingray, whose brother Dan was in his employ. Dan was one of the town's popular young men.

CHAPTER I.—Continued.

She settled back in the bishop's landau with a satisfied little smile, and I leaned in and bent over her hand.

As they rolled away I turned to meet Dan Hemingray, who had just been shutting the carriage door on the spinster Averills and their almost despairing mamma.

"Barbara went with the Deans," he explained; "we're using other people's carriages these days, you know."

"Lucky to have 'em offered," I grumbled; "I don't. Walk over to the car with me. There's no harm in a street car."

"And mighty little comfort."

"That's largely a question of upbringing," I laughed.

"Or down-sitting," he grinned. Then he sighed, deeply and miserably, and tried to hide it in a series of coughs that did not deceive me.

"What's wrong?" I asked.

"Did you notice Ankony to-night?" he inquired.

"Yes. The fellow is a boor."

"His attentions were rather defiant, it seemed to me, as if—as if he challenged Barbara to cut him. Did you think so?"

"No. Why on earth should he have that attitude toward her? You're in his employ, but you are not bound to him, nor under any obligation whatever."

"No—no, that is—"

"See here," I broke in, rather impatiently, "there are plenty of concerns as big as his that would be glad to give you a good berth. Don't let him press his obnoxious attentions on your sister just because you happen to be giving him excellent service for his money.

Dan looked at me oddly. "You don't understand, Tom," he said.

"It seems to me I understand perfectly, and I'd like to thrash him for his impudence."

He laughed, but the troubled look came back quickly to his usually sunny face.

"Miss Winstanley says he proposed to her to-night," I said.

He looked positively ghastly at that. "Oh, good Lord!" he cried, "I hoped she could stave him off!"

"She didn't accept him."

"No, no—of course not. But I wish—"

"It seems to me," I cut in, "that you'd be glad to have it over. He was bound to offer himself sooner or later, and now that he's done it and she has refused him, you all understand each other, and he won't be forever underfoot, as he has been. It will be much less embarrassing all round."

He shook his head and, lighting a cigar, walked on moodily beside me.

"Ankony is the devil," he said nervously. "You don't understand."

CHAPTER II.

The next day Ankony sent for me. I am the legal adviser of the Central Savings Company.

He was looking particularly bellicose. It was at once evident to me that he had his foot on somebody's neck and meant to keep it there. I thought of what Miss Winstanley had said of self-made men in the first generation. Surely, I told myself, there were but few of them who were not belligerent.

"Here's a pretty kettle of fish!" Ankony declared.

I removed my gloves and found a comfortable chair. I was in no haste, as I am not greatly interested in the kettles of the acting president of the Central Savings Company, except as I am paid to become so, and Ankony's mood and the recollection of his aggressiveness the night before made me a little more antagonistic, if possible, than usual.

"It's the last thing in the world anybody would have thought likely to happen," he said. "Upon my soul, I don't see why it's so hard for a man to keep himself square these days. He has been going it a bit strong, perhaps, but I'm fond of him, and I'm not naturally suspicious, and the thought that he might be tempted never occurred to me."

"Would you mind going at it other end round?" I suggested, for I hate to guess at things.

He flushed. He hates suggestions. "If you want it flat, flat you'll get it," he said, coarsely. "Hemingray's been stealing from the company."

I smoothed my gloves.

"No," said I quietly; "oh, no; not Dan Hemingray."

Ankony was purple in a minute.

"You're mighty sure of that, are you?" he sneered.

"I am," said I; "I know Dan Hemingray."

"You know Jim Austin, too, don't you?"

I winced inwardly. Austin is an expert accountant, infallible, and an honest fellow besides.

"What of that?" I demanded.

"Well he says Hemingray is a thief."

"I'm sorry he thinks so," I remarked.

"You don't? You won't?"

"No, of course I won't."

"You mean that Austin's wrong?"

"He may be. No man is infallible always."

"Jim Austin hasn't been found making any mistakes that I know of."

"What does he say about it?" I asked.

"That Hemingray has taken about three thousand, and that he has been

"For God's Sake Think of Miss Hemingray."

taking it for more than six months. Of course I understand that under the circumstances—"

"Under no circumstances would I believe a thing like that until it had been proved to me."

"It won't take long to prove it. We'll call Austin."

"Wait. If you are convinced, you may convince me, if you can. I am not ready to talk with any one outside yet. Not even Austin."

He sneered openly. A sneer from a man like Ankony is not a nice thing to stand. I beat my gloves against my leg. I wanted to throw them in his face. But it was not at just the stage in the proceedings when I could afford to, so I held down my choler.

He dragged a chair to the table, and I followed. He flung open the books with an air of triumph that he had not the decency to conceal. I knew how he was smarting under Barbara's refusal.

For an hour we went over the accounts. Then we looked up and faced each other: Jim Austin had made no mistake.

"Social success is costly, you see," Ankony commented. "A poor man can't afford to make himself quite so nice to the halt and the sick and the blind."

"Nor can a rich man afford to make himself so insolent," said I. "You are talking of a friend of mine, remember."

"A nice kind of a friend, I must say!"

"An unfortunate one."

"I've no patience with that sort of thing, Twining," he declared, a little more conciliatingly.

"No, I don't expect you to have. Neither do I expect you to understand his temptation; I don't understand it myself, for I wasn't born a rich man's son, thank God, to have the silver spoon snatched suddenly out of my mouth and a rough pewter one pushed in in its place! It's not a pleasant experience that, and if we haven't gone through it we don't know anything about it. It takes a strong man to meet that sort of thing and not be upset by it. Dan isn't strong, perhaps; he is only open-hearted and big and generous and kind."

"And a thief," supplemented he.

"He was not an intentional one. He meant to put the money back, I am assured of that."

"Oh, they all expect to do that."

"I dare say," I replied unargumentatively.

"That's no excuse," he protested.

"I am not urging it as one."

"A man's a fool to take such chances."

"Discretion stands for morality with you, then?" I remarked.

"No such thing!" he cried. "There's no use in getting excited or sore about this thing, Twining."

I made a hasty calculation and offered him my proposition. It was to refund to him before the end of six weeks all that Hemingray had taken, with interest, Dan to be turned over to me, and nothing to be said of the affair to any one.

"I suppose you call that restitution?" he inquired.

"Something like it, yes."

"Well, I don't. We're tired of this thing of being robbed behind our backs by the men we trust. I didn't send for you to consider ways and means of getting the money back and letting Hemingray go scot free. I sent for you as the company's attorney to proceed at once with the necessary steps leading to his arrest and incarceration."

"Ah," said I, "now we understand each other."

He nodded.

"I would hardly have expected this of you, Ankony."

"You admit the theft, don't you?"

"Do you admit the motive that prompts you in the prosecution?"

"That's got nothing to do with it. But naturally—quite naturally, I'm sure—it is to our interest to stop this business and make an example of the thief. We've stood it too long already. This is the fifth time this has happened to the company in twice that many years. I tell you it won't do to let it go on."

I looked at him and smiled. It may not have been a very pleasant smile; I certainly didn't intend it to be, and he flushed beneath it.

"What do you mean?" he blustered.

"That what you are telling me is all nonsense," I retorted.

"Now that you've gone this far, perhaps you will go a little farther and make yourself plain," he cried angrily.

"Certainly. You were refused last night by Miss Hemingray."

"She told you that?"

"If you knew her better you would not ask such a question. She told me nothing. You made your proposal so public that the refusal was bound to be more or less so, and you have yourself to thank for the fact that I, with others, know of it. Now, to make her suffer, you throw her brother into prison."

He got up hotly and took a step or two toward me.

"Be careful what you say. You know better than that."

"Your habit has not been to run down offenders," I remarked.

"We've had to let several of them go because of their relation to members of the company. But there must be a stop somewhere, and I am in earnest when I say that it must be here. I'm sorry for the boy and for his sister, though I don't expect you to believe it. But—"

"No, don't," said I.

I took up my hat.

"Wait! Where are you going?"

"Back to my office."

"What for?"

"Because our interview is at an end."

"It's only begun. We must talk of how we are to proceed."

I walked toward the door.

"Am I to understand you refuse to have anything to do with the prosecution?" he cried.

"You certainly are, Ankony."

"I must remind you of your obligation to the company."

"There's an obligation before it," I said, my hand on the knob.

"That sounds very fine," he sneered. "Naturally, I can understand that you wish the Hemingray name kept clean, since—"

"Don't go any further, if you please. I shall send in my resignation at once."

"Oh, better think twice of that, Mr. Twining."

I went out and shut the door. But half-way down the hall I turned deliberately, hesitated only a moment, and went back. What pride I had for myself and for Dan and Barbara was gone. Matters must be amicably adjusted if possible.

"Ankony," I said, going in to him, "for God's sake think of Miss Hemingray, if you won't think of the boy. If she had accepted you last night, you would not have followed this course. You wouldn't have considered it. You would have been full of other plans this morning. Surely we can't hold women to blame for not caring for us when we ask them to. It's not fair. Love isn't to be compelled; you know that as well as I do. Think better of this. Won't you? You know what an honored place theirs has always been in the community. You know what luck they've had ever since their father's death, and how they've met it. You have been a guest in their house, a friend of them both. You must have admired their courage, their smiles, and the incomparable way in which they have both set themselves to make things come right. The boy has been weak."

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Pineapples in Queensland.

Altogether there are some 3,000 acres devoted to pineapple cultivation in Queensland, giving a yield of something like ten million pines a year. Two crops are gathered during the 12 months. Most of the owners of the plantations started without capital, and are now reaping about $250 an acre net profit. It is an industry from which returns are quickly obtained. Fifteen months after planting the grower is securing his first crop. Next year he should double his crop, because, like the banana, once the pineapple has borne fruit the stalk dies down, and its place is taken by one or more suckers, which, in their turn, fruit and die. A cider of remarkably fine quality can be made from the fruit.

Had a Fellow Feeling.

A little boy had lived for some time with a very penurious uncle, who was one day walking out with the child at his side, when a friend accosted him, accompanied by a greyhound. The little fellow, never having seen a dog of so slim and slight a texture, clasped the creature round the neck, with the impasioned cry:

"Oh, doggie, doggie, and did ye live wi' your uncle too, that ye are so thin?"

Giggling Is Exempt.

Now the chewing gum trust has reorganized to get a firmer grip on the jaws of our girls, but, thank heaven, no concern has proved strong enough so far to control the country's rippling giggles.—Houston Post.

PATIENT SUFFERING.

Many Women Think They Are Doomed to Backache.

It is not right for women to be always ailing with backache, urinary ills, headache and other symptoms of kidney disease. There is a way to end these troubles quickly. Mrs. John H. Wright, 606 East First St., Mitchell, S. D., says: "I suffered ten years with kidney complaint and a doctor told me I would never get more than temporary relief. A dragging pain and lameness in my back almost disabled me. Dizzy spells come and went and the kidney secretions were irregular. Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of these troubles and I feel better than for years past."

Sold by all dealers. 50c. a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

A Question of Grammar.

Hetty's uncle, who was a school teacher, met her on the street one beautiful May day and asked her if she was going out with the Maying party.

"No, I ain't going."

"Oh, my little dear," said her uncle, "you must not say 'I ain't going,'" and he proceeded to give her a little lesson in grammar. "You are not going. He is not going. We are not going. You are not going. They are not going. Now, can you say all that, Hetty?"

"Sure I can," she replied, making a courtesy. "There ain't nobody going."—Lutheran.

"Chickens a Nuisance."

"Chickens a nuisance," declares the Charleston News and Courier. What, fried?—Baltimore Sun.

Chickens a nuisance? Yes, when all they leave of your garden is a reminiscence; yes, when the young cock, full of the joy of life, rouses you in the early dawn; yes, when some low-browed, vulgar fowl whips the very life out of your blooded pet; yes, when the pip or other ailment worries the amateur breeder. But when fried? Never!

Brooklyn Flag Factory.

One of the biggest official flag factories in the world is in the Brooklyn navy yard. Between eighty and one hundred women work there all the year round making flags for the use of Uncle Sam's fighting ships. They use up 120,000 yards of bunting a year and fashion 418 different kinds of official flags. The flags cost $90,000 a year.

Drowning the Sound.

Helen—You enjoy singing?

Grace (raising her voice to high pitch)—Not particularly.

Helen—Then why do you sing?

Grace—Why, father is eating corn off the cob.

SENSE ABOUT FOOD

Facts About Food Worth Knowing.

It is a serious question sometimes to know just what to eat when a person's stomach is out of order and most foods cause trouble.

Grape-Nuts food can be taken at any time with the certainty that it will digest. Actual experience of people is valuable to anyone interested in foods.

A Terre Haute woman writes: "I had suffered with indigestion for about four years, ever since an attack of typhoid fever, and at times could eat nothing but the very lightest food, and then suffer such agony with my stomach I would wish I never had to eat anything.

"I was urged to try Grape-Nuts and since using it I do not have to starve myself any more, but I can eat it at any time and feel nourished and satisfied, dyspepsia is a thing of the past, and I am now strong and well.

"My husband also had an experience with Grape-Nuts. He was very weak and sickly in the spring. Could not attend to his work. He was under the doctor's care but medicine did not seem to do him any good until he began to leave off ordinary food and use Grape-Nuts. It was positively surprising to see the change in him. He grew better right off, and naturally he had none but words of praise for Grape-Nuts.

"Our boy thinks he cannot eat a meal without Grape-Nuts, and he learns so fast at school that his teacher and other scholars comment on it. I am satisfied that it is because of the great nourishing elements in Grape-Nuts."

"There's a Reason."

It contains the phosphate of potash from wheat and barley which combine with albumen to make the gray matter to daily refill the brain and nerve centers.

It is a pity that people do not know what to feed their children. There are many mothers who give their youngsters almost any kind of food and when they become sick begin to pour the medicine down them. The real way is to stick to proper food and be healthy and get along without medicine and expense.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

GROCERIES & HARDWARE

We always have on hand a complete line. Our Groceries are always new and fresh and the line comprises all the staples and a dandy line of Canned Goods. Our line of Shelf and Heavy Hardware is complete. We invite you to call and inspect our goods.

CREAM

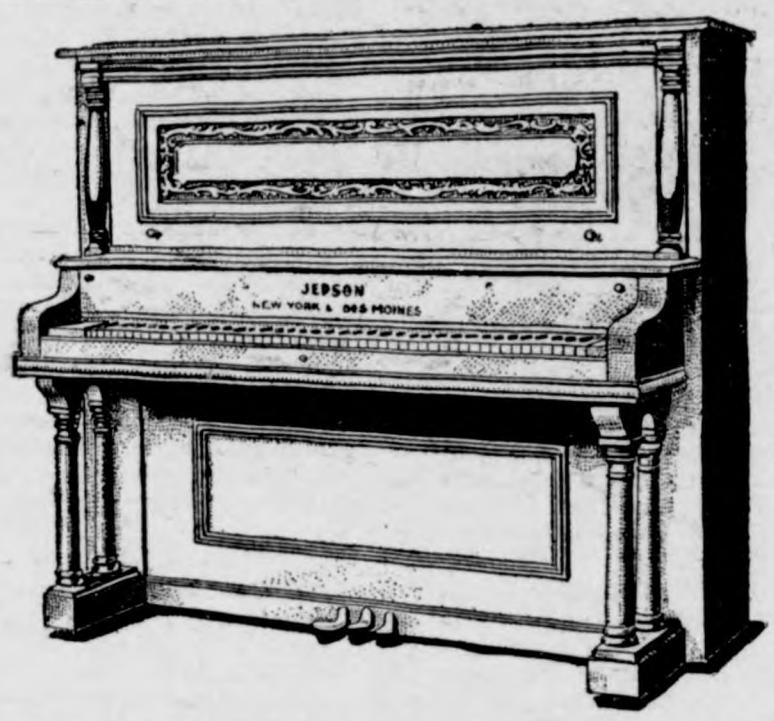
Try us with that next can of Cream. A fair test and a square deal guaranteed.

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA



MUSICAL GOODS

Pianos Six different styles, guaranteed to be right in tone, artistic in design and perfection in construction. Give us a chance to demonstrate these instruments to you. The prices on these instruments will surprise you.

SMOKERS SUPPLIES of every description—From the old familiar Missouri Meerschaum to the real genuine article. All the leading brands of Tobacco.

PRESCRIPTIONS—Bring them to us. They will be correctly compounded. A full line of Patent Medicines of every manufacture.

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile, both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, AGENT

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

Happily Wedded

Two more of the popular young people of Klemme have decided to travel the road of life in double harness.

On Wednesday afternoon, September eighth, at four o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, was solemnized the marriage of Miss Johanna K. Coobs to Wallace Pavey, Rev. Achtermann of the Klemme German Reformed church pronouncing the words that joined them for life. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few relatives and close friends of the contracting parties.

In the evening a reception was tendered the happy couple by the bride's parents, to which many friends were invited. A bountiful repast was served and social amusements were indulged in to the high enjoyment of all present,

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Coobs, who are among our good farmers, and she is held in high esteem by a large circle of friends. The groom is well known to our readers and numbers his friends in Klemme and vicinity by the score. He is holding a position in the blacksmith and wagon shop of J. W. Scott. The newly married couple will soon be at home to their friends in Klemme. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Pavey are unanimous in their wishes that they may enjoy a long life of happiness and abundant prosperity.

ELL CENTER

Special Correspondence:

Luella Yohn has been at Clear Lake a few days.

Wm. Baack was at Woden a few days last week.

Clifford Swartz spent Sunday with his parents near Garner.

Bert Auchampach and wife were at Ventura Saturday evening.

Mrs. Joe Lawhorn visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, at Garner Sunday.

Henry Josten and wife visited Sunday at the Haverkamp home in Germantown.

Bertha Haupt and Emma Born were visitors at Herman Barz' Friday of last week.

Henry Lewis of Klemme and Hod Lawhorn spent Saturday and Sunday at the Lake.

Johanna Wessels returned home from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Oleson of Clear Lake.

Mr. Casperson of near Garner is plowing on the Haverkamp place. He rented the farm for next year.

Go With a Rush

The demand for that wonderful stomach, liver and kidney cure, Dr. King's New Life Pills—is astounding G. A. Pabst & Co. say they never saw the like. Its because they never fail to cure sour stomach, constipation, indigestion, billiousness, jaundice, sick headache, chills and malaria. Only 25c.

MILLINERY OPENING

We have the finest display of Fall and Winter Millinery. A fine assortment of Pattern Hats and Trimmed Hats. We have the latest in the new colors and shades—the new Reseda and Olive Greens, Raspberry, Raisin, and all other new tints.

New Shirt Waists in lawn and silk. Hair ornaments. Also newest in collars.

Miss Lund, a first class trimmer, will be sure to please. Please call.

MRS. JOHN JOSTEN

DON'T FORGET

This store when you need anything in the line of Hardware and Farm Implements. Full line of Heaters, Cook Stoves and Ranges. The best makes in Farm Machinery. We also handle the best Paints, Oils and Varnish.

Groceries, Flour and Feed

Our prices are right. You are invited to call.

GRUETZMACHER BROS.

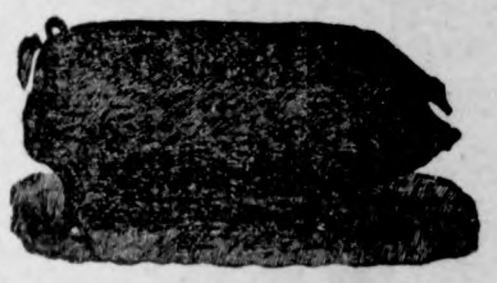
THRESHING COAL

The very best grades in Hocking Valley, Wineferd Splint, Indiana Block, Sootless and Washed Egg. Call and get prices.

Highest Market Price Paid for Grain and Live Stock Six Days in the Week

H. C. LAU

Thoroughbred Duroc Jersey Boars and Gilts For Sale



Two Strains. Sired by The Great Notcher and dams Ohio Chief; and others by Sure Money, dams Iowa Banker. This stock is first class in every respect.

——Call on or address——

J. T. GRIGGS. Goodell, Iowa

Save work, worry, money by using a

STOVER GASOLINE ENGINE

Made right—sold right. Send for an illustrated catalog of our wind mills and feed grinders.

ENGINES

Sandwich Mfg. Co.

Mason City, Iowa — General Agents

We announce the arrival of our

New Dress Goods

All the new shades of

Green, Olive, Brown, Red, Blue and Black

We also have the new Satin finished Goods with "Jet buttons" for trimming.

It is a real pleasure for us to show you these goods and you will find it a pleasure to look them over.

Remember, this is the finest and best line of Dress Goods we have ever shown—Come Now!

ARTHUR WELLEMEYER

About People You Know

KLEMME MARKET.

.....	58 to 60c
.....	30 to 33½
.....	80 to 90
.....	40 to 50c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	7.25 to 7.30
.....	3.00 to 6.00

sh fruits at Kluckhohn's.

d the new ad of the Rock System.

ater Coats for the baby, llemeyer's.

e finest line of candies in at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

. F. Lau and family were from Garner over Sunday.

e extracted honey for sale, pound Herman Coobs. 3*

H. Lau & Son for corn s, wagons, buggies, etc.

R. Waterman is having a r kitchen built onto his

R. Bloom and H. C. Lau shipped one car of hogs y morning.

't fail to read the ad of the Savings Bank and go to e next Tuesday.

rt Carlson and wife, of Kound, Iowa, were here ay to attend the funeral of e Mrs. O. E. Carlson.

. E. P. Dow and little ter returned Monday to home at Rake, after a visit ith friends and relatives.

ers will be interested in Griggs' ad in this issue going to sell some of his ted Duroc Jersey hogs. his ad.

and Mrs. Fred Haupt and al. Josten and daughter ed Tuesday evening from ended visit at points in Dakota

J. J. Wilson, the popular ey auctioneer, was in our Friday and made us a t call. While here he a card in the Times. it up. Mr. Wilson has bad siege of typhoid-pneu- during the summer, but y recovered and will be in the ring as usual this crying sales. He is a easant gentleman to meet.

g obliged to take it for will sell it out cheap; Hess Stock Food. Hess Poultry Panacea. Hess Instant Louse Kill-

Hess Hog Worm Powder. had at G. F. Schuler's , Iowa.

H. Lau & Son are buying poultry every day. 5tf

Eyes tested. Glasses fitted. Dr. W. F. Missman.

Knit Sweater Coats for Misses and Ladies, at Wellemeyer's.

Read the new ads of the State Savings Bank and Terhufen Bros.

We acknowledge a pleasant call from John Wenig last Saturday.

Miss Gertrude Parker, of Goodell, was visiting friends in Klemme Friday.

Ice cream sodas, sundaes, and all kinds of cool refreshing drinks at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

Mr. and Mrs Wm. Schaper and Rev. and Mrs. Keck were down from Garner Saturday.

The ladies of the English M. E. church served supper to the hungry people of Klemme at the parsonage last Saturday evening.

Luke Wessels was unfortunate yesterday in cutting his hand quite badly with an axe. It required several stitches to close the wound.

E. F. Kluckhohn, Dr. Richter, Arthur Kluckhohn and family and G. G. Washburn and family, of Garner, visited here Sunday at the home of G. W. Kluckhohn.

School commenced Monday with Prof. L. E. Bowker as principal, Miss Elnora Koerner teacher of the second room and Miss Emelia Lenz teacher in the primary room.

"Butch" Schroeder was here from Chicago Saturday shaking hands with old friends. He reports that his brother Charley, who is taking treatment in a Chicago hospital, is slowly improving in health.

Nels Palmer has put on a whole lot of style the past week or two. He has had cement walks put in along the whole north side of his lots, besides walks up to and around the house and a cement platform over the well and cistern. It is a dandy improvement.

New Sweater Coats for men, at Wellemeyer's.

H. L. Suckow was the victim of an accident last Saturday evening from which he escaped without serious injury. He fell down the cellar stairs at his home It was at first thought that he was badly injured. Medical aid was called at once and examination showed that there were no bones broken, although the victim was badly bruised and shocked. Mr. Suckow was able to be out Sunday.

DEATH OF MRS. O. E. CARLSON

Death is always sad, and when the dread messenger enters the home where there are small children and takes away the guiding hand of the household—the mother—then does it seem doubly sad. Even sadder yet does it seem when the mother gives up her own life in giving life to another, when a sweet little babe is left without the love and care and devotion which only a mother is able to give. How true it is that many times "God's ways seem dark," but in His all-wise being He surely knows what is for our good

One of the saddest visitations of the Death Angel that we have been called upon to chronicle for some time occurred last Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, when Mrs. Oscar E. Carlson passed into the Great Beyond, leaving to mourn her loss, a loving husband, two little sons, and a wee baby daughter who came into the world only about one day before the mother's death. Besides her immediate family, deceased leaves one brother and one sister, her parents having both died while she was quite young.

Hattie Swanson was born on January 17, 1886. On May 6th, 1903, she was united in marriage to Oscar E. Carlson and to this union were born three children as above mentioned. The funeral services were held Tuesday in the Congregational church at Goodell and interment was made in the Goodell cemetery.

It is hard to find words to express sympathy in such an affliction, but we know that the bereaved ones have the heartfelt sympathy of all our people in this sad hour when their home is darkened by the taking away of a kind and loving wife and mother.

Try Kluckhohn's ice cream soda with crushed fruit and you will become a regular customer.

Mrs. L. A. Turgasen and little son came down from Swea City last Thursday evening for a visit at the G. W. Kluckhohn home.

New fall line of ladies' shoes received. I can show the latest and best approved styles at reasonable prices. Call and see my line. F. Gruetzmacher. 4tf

Lawrence Larsen now has a new buzz-devil. It is a 1910 model five-passenger Buick touring car. He went to Mason City after the car Monday, accompanied by M. I. Parker and Clarence Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Missman and daughters Carrie and Esther and son Irving were down from Garner Sunday visiting with Dr. W. F. Missman.

German M. E. Church Items

Hugo Neff began work as clerk in the Wellemeyer store last week.

Alma Bettin left for Charles City last week to attend the city high school.

Minnie Schurmeyer, of Redfield, S. D., is a guest at the Arnold home.

Minnie Renzihausen of Monona, is spending a few weeks with her sisters.

The W. F. M. S. met with Mrs. W. F. Stille Tuesday afternoon for their monthly meeting.

Will Schmidt is now the assistant in the meat market and the white apron is real becoming to him.

Lurena Wessel and Ella Griewe departed for Charles City Tuesday morning to attend college.

A number of our good farmers are putting up their silos and the work of filling them will soon begin.

Charles Schaper of Wapello, Iowa, made his brother and sister a short visit, returning Monday evening.

James Schneider and wife, of Monona, arrived last week to visit their many friends and take in the conference.

Jacob Kraus, of Clayton county, is visiting his parents and other relatives in Klemme and Germantown.

Mrs. Edward Weisbrod, of Fenton, was an over Sunday

(Continued on last page.)

Col. J. J. Wilson
MESERVEY, IOWA
LIVE STOCK AUCTIONEER
Dates made at either bank in Klemme, Iowa. Terms reasonable.

U.S. U.S. U.S.
UNITED STATES
Cream Separators
U.S. U.S. U.S. U.S.

save work of handling and washing pans or crocks. Skim all the cream from the milk. They are very strong and durable. Parts are few, simple, easy to get at. Have all conveniences such as low supply can, cream pail shelf, and easy to wash bowl. Examine the 1909 Model U. S. Separator at

ELL BROTHERS

DOCTORS
GEO. ZINN EDGAR ZINN
Office: State Savings Bank
Phone No. 19
KLEMME - - IOWA

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Phone No. 11. Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to calls day or night.
Eyes tested. Glasses fitted.

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
Eyes Tested Free.

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures

See me when you want a
Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

JOHN GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Headquarters for part of Heinz' Fifty-Seven Varieties, and Pickling Vinegar.
Try these goods; they are fine.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
Call in

RESTAURANT
Fresh New Candies, Nicest Line in Town
Try a "Lovers' Delight" the latest and best Ice Cream Sundae in town.
Try our Golden Orangeade, Pop and Ciders.
—Home-made Bakery Goods,—
Lunches and Meals at all hours.
A. Kirkwood & Son

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

SPECIAL
For a Short Time Only
Rock Island Lines
will sell one-way Colonist Tickets
To California
AND
Pacific Northwest Points
DAILY
September 15th to October 15th

Only $33	from	Chicago
32	"	Peoria
32	"	St. Louis
25	"	Kansas City
25	"	St. Joseph
25	"	Omaha
32	"	Memphis

to California, with similar low fares to points in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Arizona and Old Mexico.
Travel Rock Island way, in Rock Island clean, comfortable, easy-riding, vestibuled tourist cars.
Let me tell you how delightfully and economically the trip can be made.

L. A. HIENTZ, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

FERTILE FARMS FOR THOUSANDS

AT THE OPENING OF THE STANDING ROCK AND CHEYENNE RIVER INDIAN RESERVATIONS.

Registration at Mobridge, Lemmon or Aberdeen, S. D., October 4 to 23.

The opening of the Standing Rock and Cheyenne River Indian Reservations in South Dakota and North Dakota in October will give thousands of people 160 acres of fertile farming lands for a small sum per acre.

If you intend to engage in farming or are now farming and wish to change your location, why not register for one of these farms? It costs nothing to register.

Aberdeen, South Dakota, on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, and Mobridge and Lemmon, South Dakota, on the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound Railway, are points of registration. You can register any day from October 4 to 23. The drawing will take place at Aberdeen on October 26.

This land opening will also give you a splendid opportunity to see the wonderful country opened through the construction of the new line to the Pacific Coast, at small additional cost over your railroad fare to points of registration.

Folders regarding this land opening and the country along the new line in South Dakota, North Dakota and Montana, free. F. A. Miller, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry., Chicago, Illinois.

SPOILED.

Biggs—Waiter, this steak is too tough to cut. Take it back.

Waiter—Sorry, sir, but I can't; you've bent it.

OPENING OF CHEYENNE RIVER INDIAN RESERVATION.

The General Land Office at Washington has designated Le Beau and Aberdeen, So. Dak., on the Minneapolis & St. Louis R. R. as registration points.

There will be about 7000 quarter sections allotted to settlers.

Who May Secure a Homestead.

Under the homestead laws of the United States any person, male of female, who is not the owner of more than 160 acres of land in any state or territory, who is a native born citizen of the United States, or has been naturalized, or declared his intention to become a naturalized citizen of the United States (i. e., one who has taken out his first papers of citizenship), who is over the age of 21 years or the head of a family, may make a homestead entry of not exceeding 160 acres of any of the unoccupied public lands of the United States.

Consumptives Need Not Leave Home.

Consumption can be cured, or arrested, in any section of the United States, and the percentage of cures in the east and the west is nearly the same. Any physician, therefore, who sends a person to the southwest without sufficient funds, or in an advanced or dying stage of the disease, is guilty of cruelty to his patient. Renewed efforts are being made to stop this practice, and to encourage the building of small local hospitals in every city and town in the country. Attempts are also being made in Southern California and in Texas to exclude indigent consumptives or to send them back to the east.

Care in Preparing Food.

In recent years scientists have proved that the value of food is measured largely by its purity; the result is the most stringent pure food laws that have ever been known.

One food that has stood out prominently as a perfectly clean and pure food and which was as pure before the enactment of these laws as it could possibly be is Quaker Oats; conceded by the experts to be the ideal food for making strength of muscle and brain. The best and cheapest of all foods. The Quaker Oats Company is the only manufacturer of oatmeal that has satisfactorily solved the problem of removing the husks and black specks which are so annoying when other brands are eaten. If you are convenient to the store buy the regular size packages; if not near the store, buy the large size family packages. 1

Naturally.

Magistrate (to witness)—I understand that you overheard the quarrel between the defendant and his wife?

Witness—Yes, sir.

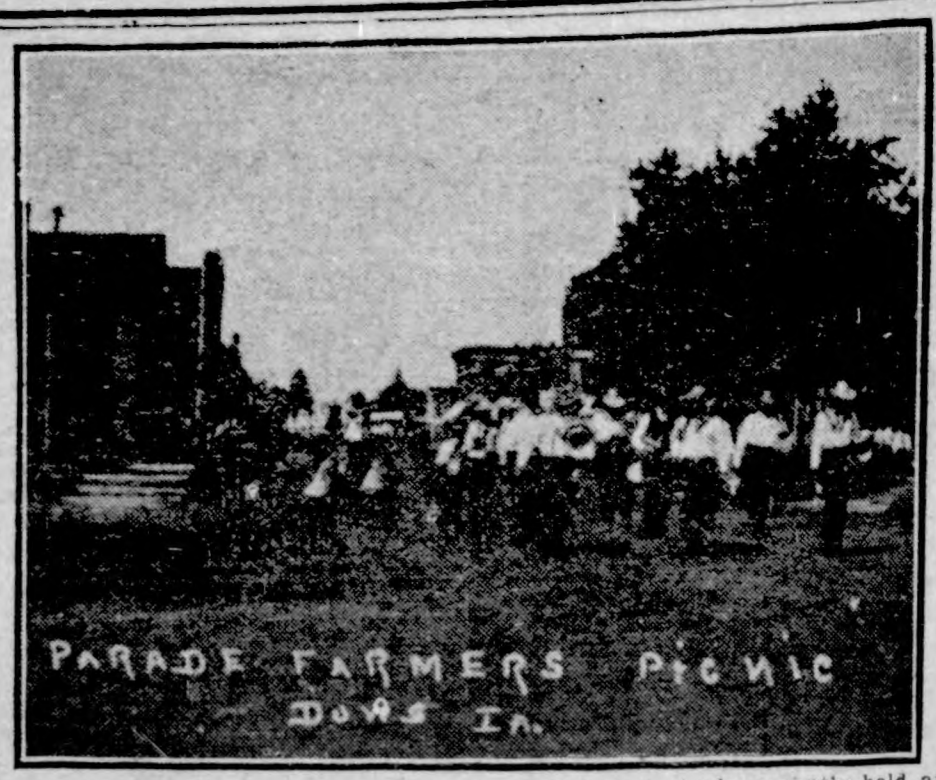
Magistrate—Tell the court, if you can, what he seemed to be doing.

Witness—He seemed to be doin' the listenin'.—Pearson's Weekly.

A Rude Suggestion.

"Why," asked the acquisitive young student, "do they call pretty women 'peaches?'"

"Because," growled the sour old bachelor, "pretty women are the fruit of mischief."



The above cut shows the parade at the farmers' picnic recently held at Dows, Ia. Over 5,000 farmers were in attendance, and coffee and buttermilk were served by the grain and creamery companies of that thriving city.

IOWA'S FAIR IS BEST

Everything Is In the Right Proportion.

COMPLETE IN EVERY DETAIL

Robert B. Ogilvie of Chicago Tells Wherein Big Exposition Surpasses That of All Other States.

Des Moines, Sept. 6.—"The Iowa State fair is the greatest of its kind in the United States," said Robert B. Ogilvie of Chicago, who was one of the judges in the horse department, and a visitor at many of the state fairs in this country.

"By greatest, I do not mean in point of attendance, receipts or any other one feature, but for being the best balanced, best rounded fair, it is superior to any of the others.

"Everything is in the right proportion here. The fair is complete in every detail. It is an all around fair, covering all the lines that a fair should.

"'Why is it so successful?' you ask. Simply because it is removed from politics, and you have comparatively young, efficient men in charge of it. I do not see how it could help being a success with such men as John C. Simpson and C. E. Cameron at the head.

"The management here has the proper attitude toward the public. They make it seem as though the people were entitled to the greatest consideration, etc. The officers take pains to make the people feel something is really due the patrons.

"This year's fair has been a great success. One of the principal reasons is because the directors have provided the best judges that can be secured, and the exhibitor is sure of a square deal. There may have been complaints the first day or two here, but you notice by the end of the week that they say it is all right, and that they have had honest treatment. That is another vital reason for the great success of the Iowa fair. And the longer one watches the fairs around the United States, the more one is impressed with the importance of the selection of good, impartial, competent judges."

Will Honor Ansel Briggs.

Andrew.—Elaborate preparations are being made by the Jackson County Historical society for entertaining the visitors at the dedication of the monument of Ansel Briggs, the first governor of Iowa, which is to be held at Andrew on September 22. A great many of the state officials and leading men of the state will be there. The guests will be met at the depot with automobiles which will take them to Andrew. Dinner will be served at Andrew and the guests will be taken back to the depot after the ceremonies.

Norwegians Meet at Dunbar.

Marshalltown—The Norwegian Old Settlers' association of Marshall county held its annual reunion and picnic near Dunbar. The principal addresses of the day were given by Ole O. Lien and the Rev. O. Qualen of this city, B. L. Wick of Cedar Rapids and D. J. Vinje of Nevada. H. G. Rinden of Dunbar is president of the association.

Sewers for Belle Plaine.

Belle Plaine.—The city council took decisive action in the matter of providing Belle Plaine with an adequate sewer system, by levying a sewer assessment of 3 mills for next year. There will also be a levy of 3 mills for the improvement fund, most of which will be expended for cement street and alley crossings.

Miss Phillips Aid to Holden.

Cedar Falls.—Miss Lura Phillips who taught for twelve years in the Cedar Falls public schools, and who last year was a candidate for the position of county superintendent of schools on the democratic ticket, has been appointed by the board of control to a position on Prof. P. G. Holden's staff of the department of agricultural extension in the Iowa State college. Her work will be in the division of schools of which A. V. Storms is the head. This department considers the educational side of agriculture as related to our secondary schools. The work will begin for Miss Phillips on October 1.

Comes Long Way to Wed.

Corning.—Miss Maude A. Walker of Winthrop, England, came here to meet her girlhood sweetheart, George Bugg, to whom she plighted troth fourteen years ago. The wedding occurred at the home of the aunt of the groom near Carbon. The bride wore the same shoes her mother wore when she was married in England forty years ago. This is the sixth time the shoes have been worn by a bride at her marriage, as four of Miss Walker's sisters as well as her mother and herself had used the shoes on a similar occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Bugg will reside in Corning.

Builds Modern Silo.

Mason City.—Charles Howell is erecting a modern silo under the direction of M. L. King, of the engineering department of the state agricultural school. The silo will be thirty feet high, eighteen feet in diameter, and will hold 200 tons of ensilage. It is build of concrete and steel.

Shoots Hubby Instead of Tree.

Iowa City.—Intending to hit a target on a tree, Mrs. Bert Loan shot her husband in the right shoulder. He had handed her a 22 caliber revolver and stepped behind the tree at which she was to shoot. The bullet is deeply imbedded and Loan is in a serious condition.

Three Hundred Acres of Pickles.

Marshalltown.—In order to be able to get a sufficient quantity of cucumbers with which to manufacture its output of pickles, the Marshall Vinegar company of this city has decided to raise its own cucumbers, and will plant 300 acres next season.

Dies at Soldier's Home.

Marshalltown.—After having been married sixty-two years, and lived to be one year past 90, Mrs. Martha A. Boyd of Arlington, Ia., died at the Soldier's home here, leaving the companion of her life, Alexander Boyd, at the age of 89.

Engineer Seriously Hurt.

Mason City—Alex Mottershed, an engineer on the Milwaukee road, was struck by a water tank cylinder and knocked from the engine onto a flat car. He suffered concussion of the brain, and his back and shoulder were injured.

Started Fire With Kerosene.

Harlan.—Attempting to start a fire with kerosene will prove fatal to Miss Mable Woods, 20-year-old daughter of Robert Woods. Her clothing caught fire and it is feared she cannot survive the burns.

Tries to Kill Himself.

Colfax.—James Goodman, who has a small feed store here, attempted suicide at his place of business by drinking a large quantity of aconite. He is about 60 years old and has a second wife.

Heether Very Ill.

Marshalltown.—Word has been received of the serious illness of J. A. Heether in Atlantic City, N. J. Mr. Heether is well known to Iowa railroad men. He was Wabash trainmaster at Moberly, Mo., for many years.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this alcoholic medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

BIG PROFITS from small INVESTMENTS

The man who goes to the Southwest and invests a little capital in land NOW, will surely reap big profits,

You can buy land now almost anywhere in the Southwest for $15.00 to $30.00 an acre—land that will treble in value when people realize the great opportunities awaiting them in that section.

It's a great country—a growing country—rich, fertile and healthful, and the opportunities for ambitious men to get a good start in life are simply great. But you must go NOW while prices are low—every day means dollars to you. Inspect the country—ask anybody living there what their experiences are—satisfy yourself that the Southwest is really the place that will bring big profits from small investments.

Special Excursions

on the First and Third Tuesdays, Each Month,

Round trip tickets good 25 days by the M., K. & T. Ry. cost $25 from St. Louis or Kansas City and $30 from Chicago or Des Moines. Stop-overs, so you can see the country thoroughly, are allowed going and returning.

"The Coming Country," an interesting paper containing authentic information about the Southwest will be sent on request—write today for copy.

W. S. ST. GEORGE, G. P. A.
M. K. T. Ry., 000 Wainwright Bldg.
St. Louis, Mo.

LAST CHANCE TO GET 160 ACRES OF LAND FREE

CHEYENNE RIVER RESERVATION

3,000,000 Acres

of good land will be thrown open to

Settlers Oct. 4th to 23rd, '09

The General Land Office has designated

Le Beau and Aberdeen, S. D.

ON THE

Minneapolis & St. Louis R. R.

as places to register for the drawing

For rates, etc., write or ask any agent of the Iowa Central or Minneapolis & St. Louis road or

A. B. CUTTS, General Passenger and Ticket Agent
Minneapolis, Minn.

COLONIST FARES TO THE WEST AND NORTHWEST.

Union Pacific Passenger Department announces that Colonist Fares will be in effect from Sept. 15 to Oct. 31, 1909, to all points in the West and Northwest.

This year the West looks more inviting than ever. Now is the time to secure land at low prices, and, at the same time, to visit the many interesting points in the West and Northwest, at which liberal stopover arrangements may be made.

A better estimate of raw lands can be made now than formerly, because these lands are in proximity to new farms that are producing wonderful crops.

For descriptive literature, write E. L. Lomax, G. P. A., U. P. R. R., Omaha, Neb.

Not Ambiguous at All.

The donkey is—or has been—associated with party politics in other countries besides our own.

In one of England's elections a candidate for parliament, the late Lord Rosebery, called attention to himself by the antics of a donkey over whose back two panniers were slung, bearing a placard on which was printed: "Vote for Papa."

It must be added, however, that in each pannier stood one of Lord Bath's daughters.—Youth's Companion.

Chicago to New York and Return $25.50.

Atlantic City and Return $25.70.

Grand Trunk-Lehigh Valley Double Track Route, tickets on sale daily until September 30th. Liberal stopovers. Apply to Agent of any Eastbound line or write W. S. Cookson, A. G. P. A., 135 Adams St., Chicago, Ill.

Too Conscientious to Rest.

"And where do you go for your summer vacation?"

"To the assembly grounds."

"What a delightful period of rest and relaxation you must anticipate."

"Oh, not at all. We always make it a point to attend every lecture."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

BEAUTIFUL WHITE CLOTHES are a delight to the eye. Be sure to get them by using RUSS BLUE. 5c at grocers.

The man who has a talkative wife may have a whole lot to say, but he seldom gets a chance to say it.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, small, sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Do not gripe.

It's too much to expect cross-bred dogs to be amiable.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

A guilty conscience is apt to be its own excuser.

AFTER DOCTORS FAILED

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her.

Willimantic, Conn.—"For five years I suffered untold agony from female troubles, causing backache, irregularities, dizziness and nervous prostration. It was impossible for me to walk upstairs without stopping on the way. I tried three different doctors and each told me something different. I received no benefit from any of them, but seemed to suffer more. The last doctor said nothing would restore my health. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to see what it would do, and I am restored to my natural health."—Mrs. ETTA DONOVAN, Box 299, Willimantic, Conn.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

Machinery Machine Shop and Foundry. Largest stock of used machinery in Iowa. Engines, Boilers, Steam Pumps, Belting, Shafting, Hangers, etc., bought and sold. American Iron Works, 213-223 E. First St., Des Moines, Iowa

Tone the Liver and Stomach and regulate the Bowels with A-B-C TEA Only 25c large package—all Dealers.

GREAT FAIR CLOSES

Net Receipts Less Than Those of a Year Ago.

COLD RAIN CAUSED THE DROP

Attendance Greater This Year Than Ever Before, but $8,000 More Was Paid in Premiums Than in 1908.

Des Moines, Sept. 4—The fifty-fifth annual Iowa state fair closed last night with a parade of $3,000,000 worth of live stock in the pavilion. The net receipts of the entire week were smaller than those of the season of 1908, although the gross receipts for the season will be about the same

Rain and cold are responsible for the falling off in the amount of receipts. In an effort to make this the greatest fair Iowa has ever known the management spent $8,000 more for premiums than on the previous year, and the general expenses were higher by several thousands of dollars.

When it comes to attendance, this year's fair had that of 1908 beaten by 42,640 Thursday night, but this increase is not sufficient to raise the profits above those of the preceding year

Night Show Presented.

The greatest feature of the fair—the live stock parade and show—was seen without a hitch in the program. The extraordinary number of entries in the stock departments made the exhibition much greater than in previous years and the large crowd thoroughly enjoyed this feautre each day

The dome of the pavilion was hung with the national colors and the flags of other nations. The boxes on the four sides were draped with bunting and many of the state officials and prominent stock men of the world occupied them. In the north box was Gov. B. F. Carroll and other state officers. The west boxes were occupied by the breeders and stock men, including A. B. Swift.

When the Iowa Brigade band struck up "The Star Spangled Banner" the big doors at the south end of the pavilion swung open and fifty magnificent Percheron and Belgian horses pranced into the arena behind attendants clad in white uniforms, shoes and caps. The big horses were decorated with blue ribbons won at various shows and fairs.

Cattle Win Applause.

But the big demonstration from the people who packed the seating capacity of the pavilion came when the Short-horn, Polled Durham and Red Polled cattle entered the ring. Some of the animals were literally covered with blue ribbons which were hung about their solid bodies in strings. Following these came the dairy cattle, the Holsteins, Jerseys, Guernseys and Ayrshires.

Between the stock parades were the vaudeville numbers by tumblers, comedians and acrobats. Never in the history of the fair have such high-class attractions been seen. Some of the acts actually had to be driven from the arena by the ringmaster in order to complete the program at the set time.

The hippodrome ended when Swift & Co.'s Percheron six horse team and J. Crouch & Sons' six horse team entered the arena after the parade of mules, ponies, saddle horses, Herefords, Angus and Galloway cattle.

The new method of showing the live stock is unique. The animals are led around the arena three times after entering and then the parade is divided into three parts, each section forming a circle. The stock in the inner circle parade one way, the second circle in the opposite direction and the outside circle in the same direction as the inner one. After this they are lined up face to face along the center of the arena.

Boys Win Scholarships.

The boys' judging contest, held in the pavilion on Monday, was decided by the judges The scholarships in Ames College go to the following:

First, Edward Vaughan, Marion, 87 1-3 per cent

Earl C. Girton, State Center, 85¾.

Bruce Purvis, West Liberty, 84 1-6.

Roy Keables, Gilman, 83¼

Ryle S. McKee, Indianola, 82⅜.

Jesse M. Dowell, Bedford, 80.

State Fair Attendance by Days.

Friday	17,000
Saturday	21,348
Sunday	26,785
Monday	45,000
Tuesday	58,107
Wednesday	59,400
Thursday	15,000
Total	242,640
Total week of 1908	200,000

White Steamers Use Kerosene as Fuel

THE WHITE STEAMER WHICH MADE A SUCCESSFUL PUBLIC DEMONSTRATION OF KEROSENE AS FUEL ON THE RECENT 2650-MILE GLIDDEN TOUR.

The most interesting announcement ever made in connection with the automobile industry was undoubtedly that made a month or two ago to the effect that the new models of the White Steam Cars could be run on kerosene, or coal oil, instead of gasoline. Everyone at once recognized that the use of the new fuel would add materially to the advantages which the White already possessed over other types of cars. There were some people, however, who were sceptical as to whether or not the new fuel could be used with complete success, and, therefore, the makers of the White Car, the White Company, of Cleveland, Ohio, determined to make a public demonstration of the new fuel in the 1909 Glidden Tour.

From the standpoint of the public, no test more satisfactory could have been selected. First of all, the distance covered on the Glidden Tour, from Detroit to Denver and thence to Kansas City, was 2650 miles. This was certainly more than sufficient to bring out any weaknesses, if such had existed. Still more important was the fact that the car was at all times while on the road under the supervision of observers named by those who entered other contesting cars. Therefore, it would have been impossible for the driver of the White to have even tightened a bolt without the fact being noted and a penalty inflicted. At night the cars were guarded by Pinkerton detectives and could not be approached by any one.

The complete success of the new fuel while on the 2650-mile public test and the advantages gained through its use were well described in the following dispatch which the correspondent of the New York Sun sent to his paper at the conclusion of the tour:

"A feature of the tour which was watched with special interest was that the White Steamer used kerosene, or 'coal oil,' as fuel instead of gasoline. The new fuel worked splendidly throughout the 2650-mile journey, and all claims made in its behalf were fully proven. First of all, as regards cheapness, the White driver secured kerosene all along the route from 6 cents to 10 cents cheaper per gallon than was paid for gasoline. Secondly, the new fuel was handled without any precautions, and it was not unusual to see kerosene being poured into the fuel tank while the crew of the car and an interested crowd stood by with lighted cigars and cigarettes. At the finish of the tour, the White was the only car permitted by the authorities to enter Convention Hall, where the technical examination took place, without draining its fuel tank. Thirdly, the new fuel proved to be absolutely without smoke or smell. Fourthly, kerosene could be purchased at whatever part of the route was most convenient, and not once during the trip through the ten States of the Middle West was there found a grocery store where kerosene was not readily and cheaply obtainable. Finally, the amount of fuel used on the trip showed that kerosene is at least fifteen per cent. more efficient, gallon for gallon, than gasoline. The car in other respects made a most creditable showing, and there was the usual rivalry among the observers to be assigned to the White so that they could ride with the maximum of comfort. The only adjustments or repairs charged against the car during the long trip were tightening a lubricator pipe and wiring a damaged mud guard. These penalties were not inflicted until more than 2000 miles had been completed with an absolutely perfect score."

A particularly interesting feature of the new White Steamer is that either kerosene or gasoline may be used as fuel. The necessary adjustments so that the fuel may be changed from kerosene to gasoline, or vice versa, may be made in a couple of minutes; but so completely successful has kerosene proved to be, that it is not believed that any purchasers will care to use gasoline.

The White Company report that the demand for their new steam cars—both the $2000-model and the $4000-model—exceed their most sanguine expectations. It is evident that the combination of steam—the power which everyone understands and has confidence in—with kerosene—the fuel which everyone has on hand and can handle without any danger—is thoroughly appreciated by up-to-date purchasers of automobiles.

Pests Worried by Pests.

Since the Dutch philosopher Leeuwenhoek discovered that the pupa of the flea was sometimes preyed on by the larvae of a mite, it has been well known that various small insects have their external parasites. And a recent communication to the Comptes Rendus of the Biological society of Paris by M. Bruyant, shows that many mosquitoes carry about mites in the larval stage. Those described belong to four different genera. They probably feed on the integumentary structures of the mosquitoes.

Important to Mothers.

Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA a safe and sure remedy for infants and children, and see that it

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

In Use For Over 30 Years.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

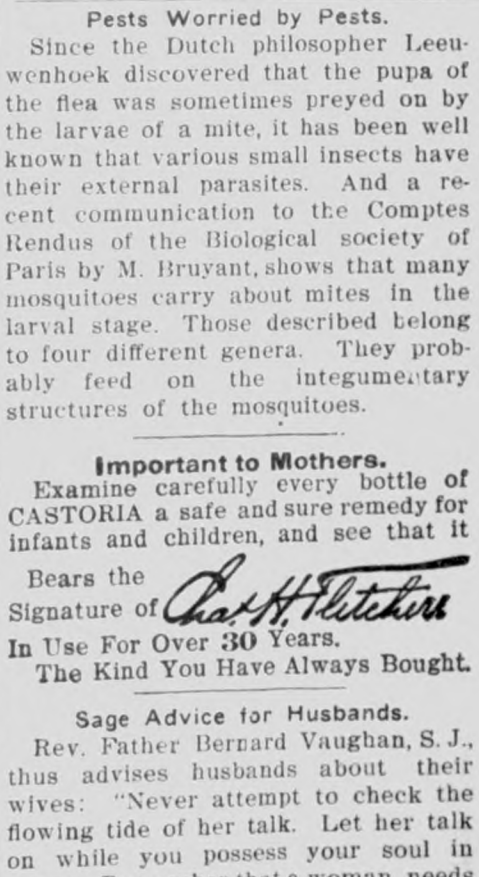
Sage Advice for Husbands.

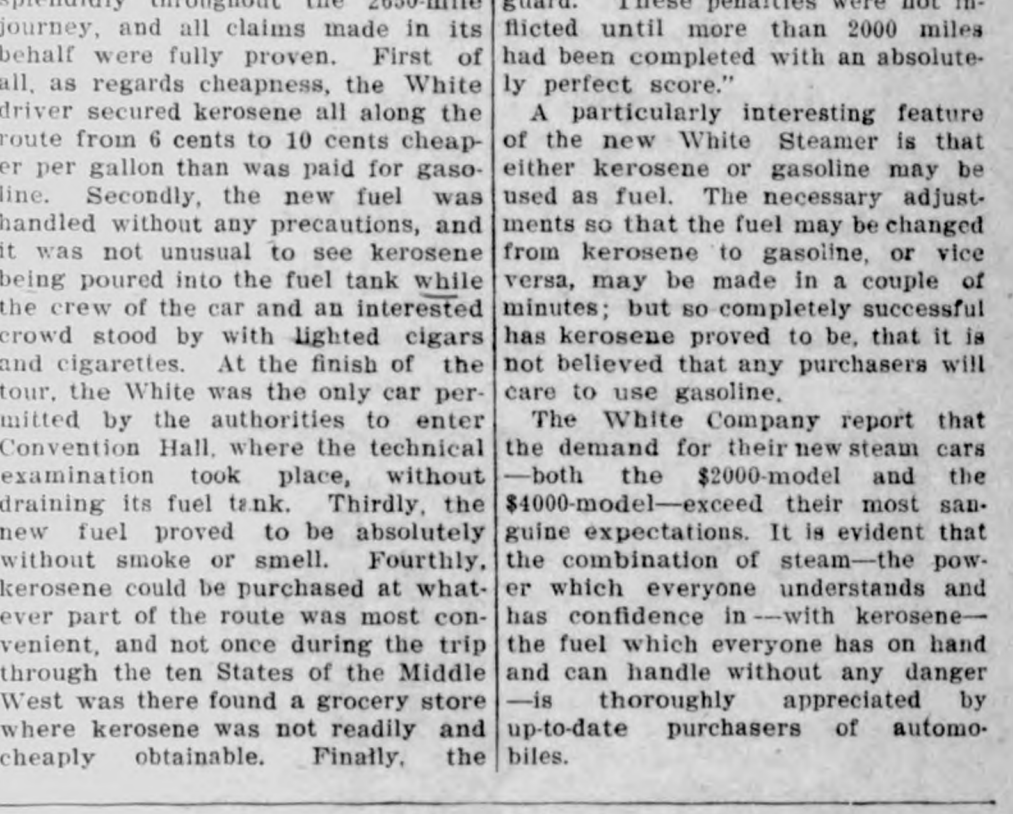
Rev. Father Bernard Vaughan, S. J., thus advises husbands about their wives: "Never attempt to check the flowing tide of her talk. Let her talk on while you possess your soul in peace. Remember that a woman needs many more safety valves and outlets for her temperament. Be patient with her."

Do your feet ever feel tired, achy and sore at night? Rub them with a little Hamlins Wizard Oil. They'll be glad in the morning and so will you.

Also Somewhat Rare.

The best treasure among men is a frugal tongue.—Hesiod.





The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

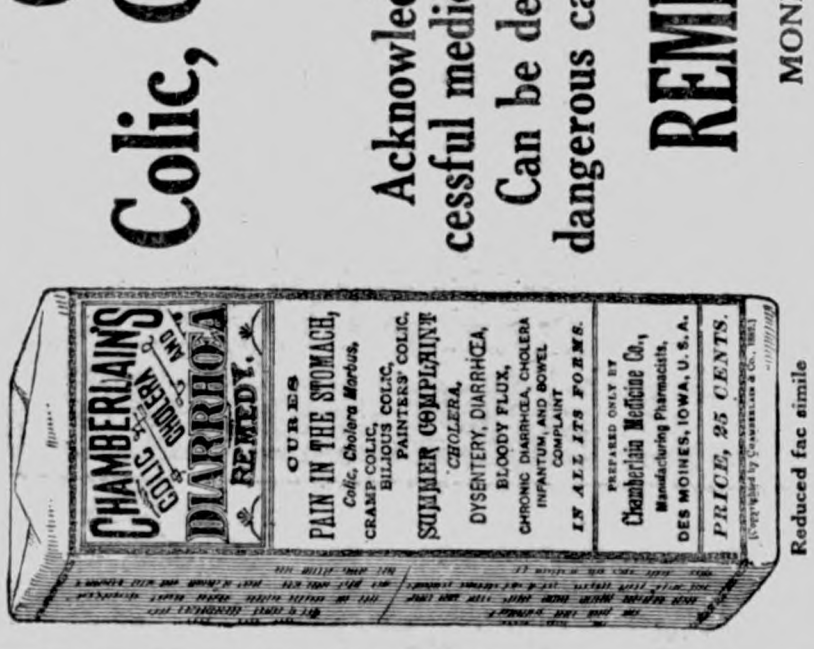
Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy

Acknowledged everywhere to be the most successful medicine in use for Bowel Complaints.

Can be depended upon in the most severe and dangerous cases.

REMEMBER ALWAYS CURES
CURES QUICKLY

MONEY RETURNED IF NOT SATISFIED



Reduced fac simile

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

(Continued from 5th page.)

visitor at the old homestead in Germantown.

Rev. and Mrs. Hartke are spending this week in Germantown visiting and looking after their farm interests.

Everything has seemed very quiet since all the ministers and so many visitors have returned home after conference It was a lively time for our little village.

A number of our Germantown people attended the funeral of Mrs. Carlson Tuesday. We extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved husband and the motherless children.

Henry Koerner of Charles City accompanied his daughter Elnora to this place last Saturday and took in the conference. His daughter began work as teacher in the second room of our school Monday.

A Hurry Up Call

Quick! Mr. Druggist—Quick! A box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve—Here's a quarter—For the love of Moses, hurry! Baby's burned himself, terribly—Johnnie cut his foot with the axe—Mamie's scalded—Pa can't walk from piles—Billie has boils—and my corns ache. She got it and soon cured all the family. Its the greatest healer on earth. Sold by G. A. Pabst & Co.

The following Ell Center items were sent us for publication: "Gertie Wessels left Klemme Tuesday evening on the passenger train going to Goodell where she will probably stay for some time, working two miles east of Goodell."— "Maggie and Lillie Hanson drove down to Joe Johnson's Wednesday evening and returned Thursday, attending a party there."

PUBLIC AUCTION

As I expect to move to North Dakota, I will offer at public auction to the highest bidder, without reserve, on farm rented by me, 4½ miles southwest of Klemme and 8 miles northwest of Goodell, on

Tuesday, Sept. 14, 1909

Commencing at 1 o clock p. m. the following described property:

6 Horses — One bay mare 15 yrs old, wt about 1300; 1 sucking colt; 1 bay mare 12 yrs. old. wt 1300; 1 bay gelding 7 yrs. old, wt 1300; 2 dark bay mares 6 and 7 yrs old, wt 2700.

32 Cattle—12 milch cows, six 1 year old heifers, two 1-year-old steers, one 2 year-old heifer, 10 spring calves, one 2-year-old high grade bull.

29 Hogs— 25 Spring Shoats and 4 brood sows

: 0 tons hay in barn.

50 acres excellent corn in field.

1 DeLaval cream separator

Chickens.

Machinery—Lumber wagon, 2 top buggies, Rock Island disc, 3-section drag, broadcast seeder, Deere-Mansur seeder, hay rake, corn planter and 120 rods wire, cultivator, riding stubble plow, 14-inch walking plow, hay rack, Champion tinder.

Household Goods and other articles too numerous to mention.

Terms—All sums of $10 and under Cash; over this amount a credit of 12 months time will be given on approved notes bearing 8 per cent interest.

Harry Tarveal, Prop.
Col. J. A Young, Auct.
P. M. Griesemer, Clerk.

The Road to Success

has many obstructions, but none so desperate as poor health. Success today demands health, but Electric Bitters is the greatest health builder the world has ever known. It compels perfect action of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, purifies and enriches the blood and tones and invigorates the whole system. Vigorous body and keen brain follow their use. You can't afford to slight Electric Bitters if weak, run-down or sickly. Only 50c. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Books
Pamphlets
Cards
Invitations
Letter He Envelopes
Bill He
Posters

Everything printed from

TYPE

At the Times office.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLO

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED. REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE. LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STAT

Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. days tr atment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medic nes u detention from business. Patients at a distan e treated by mail p.ess. Medicines s nt everywhere free from gaze or breakage. low. Thous nds of cases cured. State your case and send for term sultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men — The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without the harmful instruments. Our fully explains.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the s causing nervous debility, of the nervous system, etc., permanently cur

BLOOD POISON —That terrible disea its stages, cured for li Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet and all private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few days pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon applicat description of above disea effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrapp

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINE

RUPTURE, PILES

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolutely relia and permanent. Write to or call and the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were afflicted Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia.
Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines, Ia
E. C. Miller, Des Moines, Ia.
John H. Looby. Des Moines,

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you fr postage paid. This book conta much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonial lett

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the bo Write today—it will pay you.

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES, IO

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:34 p. m.
82 ..... 2:35 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:55 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

PATENTS DESIGNS TRADE-MARKS AND COPYRIGHTS OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"

Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address, E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

McCALL PATTERNS 10¢ AND 15¢ NONE HIGHER

McCALL'S M 50 A YEA INCLUDING AF

McCALL PATTERNS
Celebrated for style, perfect fit, simp reliability nearly 40 years. Sold every city and town in the United S Canada, or by mail direct. More any other make. Send for free

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
More subscribers than any othe magazine—million a month. Invalu est styles, patterns, dressmaking, plain sewing, fancy needlework, ha etiquette, good stories, etc. Only year (worth double), including a fr Subscribe today, or send for sam

WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS to Agents. Postal brings premium and new cash prize offers. Address

THE McCALL CO., 238 to 248 W. 37th St., N

Electr Bitters

Succeed when everything else In nervous prostration and f weaknesses they are the sup remedy, as thousands have tes

FOR KIDNEY, LIVER A STOMACH TROUBL

it is the best medicine ever over a druggist's counter.

Just Dust it on the
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls
work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bott
Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid
Money Back if Not Satisfied
The RED STAR HEALING POW
(25c. and 50c. Cans). GARNE

THE KLEMME TIMES

VOLUME XIV. NUMBER 7 — KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1909. — $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

Are You Protected

against sickness, business mistakes, being out of employment? The way to be absolutely sure is to Save Money.

¶Save all you can. Save it Now! While fortune is smiling on you come and open that savings account To-day.

State Savings Bank.

Klemme - - Iowa

A CONVINCER

The best convincer on earth is a good, honest trial of any line of goods.
We claim for our lumber and building material that it is as good or better than can be purchased elsewhere, and to substantiate this claim, we ask an honest trial of our goods. We can quote you as good a price as anyone.
May we figure on your next lumber bill?

J. H. Queal & Co. - - Lumber

LAWRENCE LARSEN, Agent
KLEMME, IOWA

J. W. WATERMAN

—Dealer In—

Groceries, Boots, Shoes — Ladies and Gents Furnishings — Dry Goods and Notions

FLOUR FEED SALT

Remember we also pay CASH for cream.

CALL IN J. W. WATERMAN

No. 6659 Report of the Condition of

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

At Klemme, in the State of Iowa, at the close of business Sept. 1, 1909.

RESOURCES

Loans and discounts		$104,612 01
Overdrafts secured and unsecured		2,824 20
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation		25,000 00
Premiums on U. S. bonds		1,032 75
Banking house furniture and fixtures		2,050 87
Due from National banks		13,835 82
Due from approved reserve agents		26,758 39
Checks and other cash items		296 63
Notes of other National banks		20 00
Fractional paper currency nickels and cents		92 16
Lawful money reserve in bank:
Specie	$ 7,813 95
Legal tender notes		7,813 95
Redemption fund with U. S. treasurer		1,250 00
Total		185,586 78

LIABILITIES

Capital stock paid in	25,000 00
Surplus fund	901 15
Undivided profits less expenses and taxes paid	1,137 39
National bank notes outstanding	25,000 00
Individual deposits subject to check	31,832 88
Demand certificates of deposit	101,715 36
Total	185,586 78

STATE OF IOWA, } ss
Hancock County, }

I, F. A. Arnold, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemny swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

F. A. Arnold, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10th day of September, 1909.

Frank M. Hanson,
[SEAL] Notary Public.

Correct—Attest:

C. H. Wiegmann
Aug. Lau
Aug. Barz
} Directors

Night on Bald Mountain

On a lonely night Alex Benton of Fort Edward, N. Y. climbed Bald Mountain to the home of a neighbor, tortured by asthma, bent on curing him with Dr. King's New Discovery, that had cured himself of asthma. This wonderful medicine soon relieved and quickly cured his neighbor. Later it cured his son's wife of a severe lung trouble. Millions believe it is the greatest throat and lung cure on earth. Coughs, colds, croup, hemorrhages and sore lungs are surely cured by it. Best for hay fever, grip and whooping cough. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Good Advice

Young man, remarked an observer, I notice you are not in school any longer. What's the matter? Think you have enough education to carry you through the world, or did you stay out because you didn't like to go? Didn't like the teacher, eh? Well, let me tell you the meanest teacher on earth is a dream of love beside some of the bosses you will work for in the cold, unfeeling years you will plow into when you will have to get out and hustle for yourself. Education is a valuable thing to a man, but to a boy it comes the cheapest. It costs you nothing now to get what many men in town would give all they possess for. You have the winning number in the lottery of education if you play it now. Loaf around a few years and you will always be a nothing. It is true that any man can make a living, but you will notice that the fellows who do it with their brains have an easier time than those fellows who do it with their muscles. At the present stage of the game jobs are not held by physical strength. Education will not crawl into your brain while you sleep. The thing you want to do is to hike off to school and stay there. Your holidays will come later when you need them.—Ex.

Good Dramatic Criticism

The late Richard Mansfield always felt that he owed more to the wise discernment and staunch support of the Chicago Record-Herald than to any other agency, outside himself, that contributed to his ultimate triumph as an actor. Ask any disinterested observer of theatrical matters today who is the best dramatic critic in Chicago, and ten to one he will say James O'Donnell Bennett of the Chicago Record-Herald. Mr. Bennett is unquestionably the leading critic in his domain in the West. He writes with a fearless fairness and a keen appreciation of real merit that makes his articles a genuine force for the betterment of the stage. His knowledge of the history and principles of dramatic art is sufficient to lend depth to his utterances, yet he has the newspaper man's knack of making his work breezy and interesting for the average man and woman. His columns are always newsy as well as reliable in their judgments. Anyone who will follow the dramatic, musical, literary and art departments of the Chicago Record-Herald from season to season need have to fear about keeping abreast of all that is latest and finest in the movement of modern culture.

TAXES

Among the many things the First National Bank does for its customers is to order receipts without extra charge.

The Second Installment is Now Due

We have complete lists of Ell, Avery, German and Twin Lake townships and the several drainage districts therein, and Town of Klemme.

The First National Bank
CAPITAL $25,000

DON'T FORGET

This store when you need anything in the line of Hardware and Farm Implements. Full line of Heaters, Cook Stoves and Ranges. The best makes in Farm Machinery. We also handle the best Paints, Oils and Varnish.

Groceries, Flour and Feed

Our prices are right. You are invited to call.

GRUETZMACHER BROS.

Colic Quickly Cured

Colic is one of the most severe and painful diseases. It is quite common too. Almost everyone has an occasional attack. Fortunately there is a remedy that always affords quick relief and that has never been known to fail in any case. It is called Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Mr. Tod Robinson, a prominent merchant of Point Blank, Texas, says, "I have had several attacks of colic and in every instance one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy relieved me, and I never had to take more than two doses to effect a cure." For sale by G. A. Pabst & Co.

GOODELL

From the Globe:

Jay Griggs went to Rowan last Friday to attend a hog sale.

J. J. Wilson, of Meservey, was a business visitor to Goodell on Friday.

Elmer Boren has been suffering for several days with a felon on his hand.

Mesdames Beiers and Hall attended German Methodist conference at Klemme last Saturday.

The Eldred girls, after several days visit with friedds here, returned to their home at Clear Lake Sunday.

Evangelist Baker, after two weeks' revival meetings at the U. B. church, returned to his home at Rushville, Illinois, Friday. Rev. Baker was a very earnest worker and much good was accomplished during his stay here.

Miss Annie Lemke, who has been visiting here for several weeks, returned to her home at Garner Monday.

Nearly 1,000 Pianos at a Bargain

Lyon & Healy, of Chicago, known everywhere as "The World's Largest Music House," are offering remarkable reductions on their great stock of Upright pianos in order to make room for carpenters putting in new flooring.

In this stock are new pianos of the highest quality, including nearly all known makes.

Lyon & Healy are offering this superb stock of pianos to the public at 20 to 40 per cent discount, in order that it may be moved quickly and the work of alteration facilitated thereby; so here is a chance to get a much better piano for any sum you have in mind than you can ordinarily obtain.

Write today for the list of pianos in this great alteration piano sale, which is an event entirely unprecedented in the history of piano-selling. Or arrange to make a visit of inspection to their salesrooms, corner Wabash Avenue and Adams Street, Chicago. Four distinct plans of easy payments, for those who do not wish to pay all cash.

School Notes

There are seven little folks in the beginner's class.

A few absences are already on record in the different grades.

A. Lau, president of the school board, made each of the rooms a visit Tuesday forenoon.

Notes that we think will be of interest to the pubic will be printed from week to week.

Ten pupils in the high school are taking Physical Geography and Book-keeping, these being two studies which they have not had before.

Total enrollment now is seventy-three, the number being quite equally divided among the rooms. The Intermediate room has the largest enrollment.

The school board, teachers, patrons and pupils each have a part to perform in our school and the educational interests of the community will suffer if any of these fail to do their part.

Ask Her This Question

"Do you know of any woman who ever received any benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?"

If any woman who is suffering with any ailment peculiar to her sex will ask her neighbors this question, she will be surprised at the result. There is hardly a community in this country where women cannot be found who have been restored to health by this famous old remedy, made exclusively from a simple formula of roots and herbs.

During the past 30 years we have published thousands of letters from these grateful women who have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and never in all that time have we published a testimonial without the writer's special permission. Never have we knowingly published a testimonial that was not truthful and genuine. Here is one just received a few days ago. If anyone doubts that this is a true and honest statement of a woman's experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound write and ask her.

Houston, Texas.—"When I first began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was a total wreck. I had been sick for three years with female troubles, chronic dyspepsia, and a liver trouble. I had tried several doctor's medicines, but nothing did me any good.

"For three years I lived on medicines and thought I would never get well, when I read an advertisment of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and was advised to try it.

"My husband got me one bottle of the Compound, and it did me so much good I continued its use. I am now a well woman and enjoy the best of health.

"I advise all women suffering from such troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. They won't regret it, for it will surely cure you."—Mrs. Bessie L. Hicks, 819 Cleveland St., Houston.

Any woman who is sick and suffering is foolish surely not to give such a medicine as this a trial. Why should it not do her as much good as it did Mrs. Hicks.

Opening of Cheyenne River Indian Reservation

(2,800,000 Acres)

Register for a free homestead October 4th to 23rd.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office at Washington has designated Le Beau and Aberdeen, S. Dak.

as registration points. These cities are reached best by the Iowa Central Ry. and

The Minneapolis & St. Louis R. R.

Le Beau is the Gateway to the Reservation and the only registration point where the lands can be seen from the town.

The country is fertile and well watered—the equal in all respects of land a few miles east that sells for $25.00 per acre.

Frequent trains and low fares. Full information on request.

For rates, etc., write or ask any agent of the Iowa Central or Minneapolis & St. Louis R. R. or

A. B. CUTTS, General Passenger and Ticket Agent
Minneapolis, Minnesota

A JAR OF RESINOL A JAR OF

is worth its weight in gold. It stops all itching, irritating skin diseases, eczema, erysipelas, ringworm, chapping or burns. A positive cure for itching and inflamed piles.

RESINOL CHEMICAL COMPANY, BALTIMORE, MD.

Resinol Ointment, Resinol Toilet Soap, Resinol Medicated Shaving Stick are sold at Drug Stores.

WRIGLEY'S

GOOD PATENTS Start Factories

We secure and promote patents. Represent 15 manufacturing firms looking for improvements. SUES & CO., Patent Attorneys, 210 D St., Washington, D. C. No advance fee. Advice free.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c. and $1.00 at Druggists

WRIGLEY WRIGLEY WRIGLEY

W. N. U., DES MOINES, NO. 38–1909.

WESLEYAN'S MONEY

First Hundred Thousand Is Nearly In Sight.

PLAN FOR STATE COMMISSION

Committees to Be Named by the Conference—Pella Chosen as Meeting Place for the Conference in 1910.

Winfield, Ia., Sept. 13.—In pursuance of a plan to form a state Methodist commission, a committee was appointed to represent the Iowa conference. The committee is composed of Elias A. Handy, C. N. Pace and J. R. Hanly. This committee will meet similar committees appointed by the other Iowa conferences, when plans will be formulated to carry on the movement.

Great enthusiasm prevailed here when Dr. Schell of Iowa Wesleyan university made his first report on the quarter million endowment campaign. He reported that he had raised $60,000 of the $75,000 necessary to secure the Andrew Carnegie donation of $25,000. Owing to the fact that only $15,000 is yet to be raised, he declared that the first $100,000 would be forthcoming within a year.

Pella was chosen as he meeting place for the 1910 conference. Pella secured the honor only after a warm fight. Four cities were strong bidders, Centerville, Knoxville, Pella and Bloomfield.

A resolution that the conference entertain itself next year was lost by a large majority. It was ordered by the coiference that Bishop Spellmeyer appoint a member from each district to formulate a different plan of entertainment, and report next year.

A rumor is afloat at the conference that the districts will be reduced in number from five to four, the Keokuk district to be absorbed by the others. Some dissatisfaction is being expressed over this plan.

A class of six has been received in full membership by the conference, and six were received on trial. Bishop Spellmeyer gave a fine advisory address to the new members.

The laymen held their convention and formed a permanent organization. Officers elected were: J. M. Beck of Centerville, president; L. S. Morgan of Burlington, secretary and C. E. Ward of Fairfield, treasurer. A hundred laymen were prestnt.

KILLED BY A TREE TRUNK

Heavy Tree Trunk Rebounds, Breaking Back and Ribs of James A. McKinney of Knoxville.

Knoxville, Ia., Sept. 13.—While engaged in cutting wood in his timber, James A. McKinney, aged 65 years, a farmer living three and a half miles west of this city, was killed by an immense tree which he had just felled.

In company with his two sons, Mr. McKinney had left home during the day to cut the tree down. The top of a large tree which he had just chopped down, became lodged in a it, the heavy trunk reboundtd breaking his back three times and all of his ribs on one side. He was killed instantly.

He is survived by his wife, two sons and three daughters, two of whom reside in Sac county. His two sons being present at the time of the accident, no inquest was deemed necessary.

Two Men Killed in Wreck.

Charles City, Ia., Sept. 13—Tne night gravel train on the Milwaukee leaving here about 8 o'clock going west, was wrecked about a mile this side of Bassett, about five miles from here. Rolly Waller, brakeman, was killed instantly, his neck and arm being broken. Peterson, another brakeman, was internally injured and died later. McLane, the conductor, was also injured, but it is thought not seriously.

Two Killed in Collision.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 13—Passenger train No. 89 on the Chicago, Burlington & auincy, southbound, and an extra stock train were in a headon collision at the station of Burnham, four miles southwest of Lincoln. Two men were killed outright and nine injured, one seriously.

For Paving at Dyersville.

Dyersville, Ia., Sept. 13.—A petition is being circulated here to have the main streets paved. The citizens are very enthusiastic over the prospect and the improvement will be a great boost to the town. Three new brick store buildings are being erected on Main street and the town is experiencing a building boom.

USE Old Dutch Cleanser

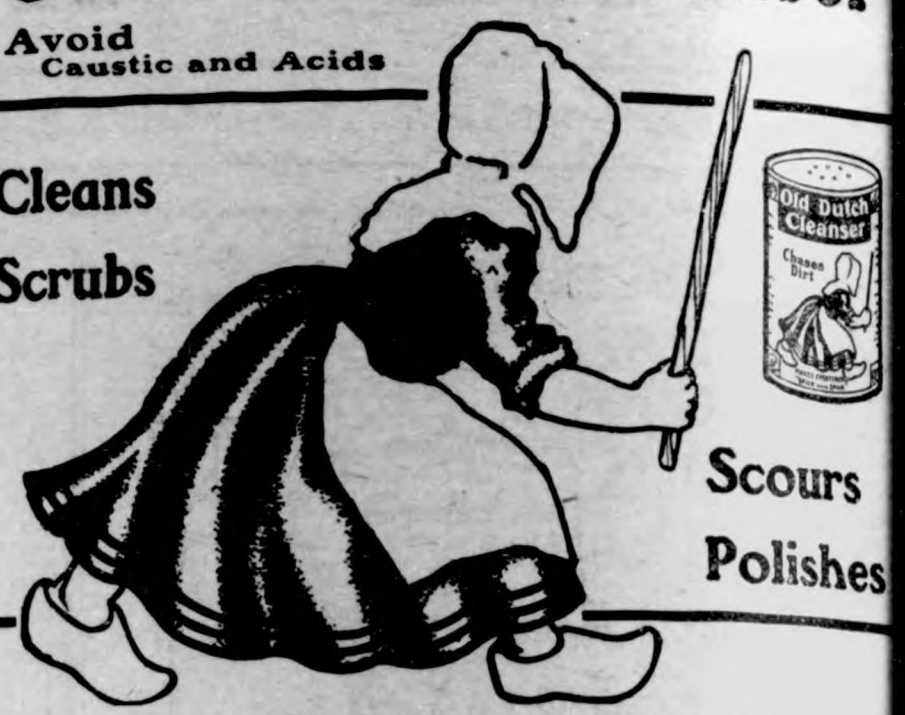
Avoid Caustic and Acids



Cleans
Scrubs
Scours
Polishes

This handy, all-round, mechanical cleanser does all kinds of cleaning, and does it easier, quicker and better than old-fashioned caustic and acid cleaners which eat into the surfaces they touch.

Large, Sifting-Top Can 10c

If your dealer does not keep Old Dutch Cleanser, send us his name and 10 cents in stamps (the regular price) and we'll gladly pay 22 cents postage to send you a full-size can. Also write for our free booklet, "Hints for Housewives."

CUDAHY—OMAHA—MAKER

WHY NOT?

One of the preachers has asked the members of his congregation to bring their canary birds to church. Why not try to save some of the parrots?

BIG PROFIT MADE ON LAND

Which Can Be Bought for a Mere Song in the Little Snake River Valley, Routt County, Colo.

A ten per cent profit on a valuation of over $200 an acre is what is being made now by farmers in the Little Snake River valley in Routt County, Colorado, and lands similar in quality and with gilt edged water rights are now offered by the State of Colorado under the Carey Act at $35.50 per acre on ten years' time.

This land will grow in abundance oats, potatoes, sugar beets and all other grains, grasses and root crops, and is suitable for all kinds of fruit, except possibly the most delicate of tree fruits.

The land is sold in tracts of 40, 80, 120 and 160 acres to citizens of the United States, or those who have declared their intentions of becoming citizens. There is no drawing in connection with this land; first come, first served being the policy.

If interested, write to the Routt County Colonization Co., 1734 Welton street, Denver, Colorado, for full information as to the land, special excursion rates, etc.

Any girl can hear compliments if she cultivates the habit of talking to herself.

Don't stop chewing Wrigley's Spearmint unless you want to stop digesting easily.

Great Britain has 500,000 horses available for the purpose of warfare.

Apples apples everywhere, & no indigestion

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT PEPSIN GUM prevents it

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT PEPSIN GUM

SICK HEADACH

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Positively cure these Little Pi

They also relieve tress from Dyspepsi digestion and Too H Eating. A perfect edy for Dizziness, sea, Drowsiness, Taste in the Mouth, ed Tongue, Pain i Side, TORPID LI

They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vege

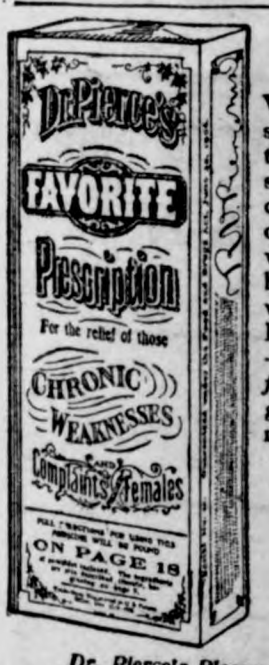
SMALL PILL. SMALL DOSE. SMALL PR

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

Genuine Must Bea Fac-Simile Signatur

REFUSE SUBSTITUT

FREE HOMESTEADS 14,000 quarter sec splendid fertile l open to settlers, on Cheyenne River and S ing Rock Reservations, in South Dakota. plicants should registei at Pierre Octob to 22nd. Complete display of products of lands, exhibited at Gasbe't Exposition d registration. Pierre nearest point to l which are chiefly in Pierre Land Distric all filings must be made there. Unique sions every day. Ample hotel accommoda Address Pierre Board of Trade, Pierre



Honored by Wome

When a woman speaks of her silent secret suffering she trusts you. Millions have bestowed this mark of confidence on Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. Everywhere there are women who bear witness to the wonder-working, curing-power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—which saves the suffering sex from pain, and successfully grapples with woman's weaknesses and stubborn ills.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG
IT MAKES SICK WOMEN WELL.

No woman's appeal was ever misdirected or her con fidence misplaced when she wrote for advice, t the WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Dr R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets induce mild natural bowel movement once a day.

Des Moines Directory

FURS TO ORDER AND REPAIRED 25 to 35 per cent discount Seal Skin and all other furs made over to 1910 season's style.
All Work Strictly Guaranteed
S. B. SEFREN, 510 Locust St., Des Moines, Ia.
Expert Furrier, Designer, Cutter and Fitter.

Bale Ties For Hay and Straw
Des Moines Bale Tie Co., 8th and Vine Sts., Des Moines, Iowa

Safe! Can't Cut Your Face
NO STROPPING NO HONI

TRADE Gillette MARK

KNOWN THE WORLD OV

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE FLAVOR LASTS

BIG GAIN IS SHOWN

Northwestern First of Big Railroads To Make Report.

PROFITS IN IOWA, $5,000,000

New Signal System Completed From Chicago to Omaha, and In the Operation of System It Has Saved Lives.

Des Moines, Sept. 13.—The report of the Northwestern railroad for the year ending June 30, 1909, is the first of the big railroad reports received by the railroad commission.

It shows the new signal system has been completed from Chicago to Omaha and in the operation of the line the signal system has saved lives. Last year there were a total of twenty-nine killed and this year a total of sixteen. There were more persons killed on crossing and more trespassers killed this year than last. The signal system would have no effect here, the difect being in the crossings.

The net profits for the road in Iowa this year were $5,000,000 and for the entire system of 7,637 miles $22,000,000. The 8,138 employes in Iowa were paid $4,890,000 and the 46,000 employes of the entire system were paid $27,000,000.

Iowa Baptists' Golden Jubilee.

Harlan.—The Des Moines Western Baptist association, consisting of forty Baptist churches, held its fiftieth anniversary here. Rev. E. J. Brownson of Boone was the moderator. Live topics pertaining to the churches were discussed. By vote of the association, about $70 was sent to Rev. S. H. Mitchell of Ames in token of sympathy and remembrance. Father Mitchell, now nearly 80 years old, was a pioneer in this association in Iowa. He planted new churches and fostered weak ones into strength. Mr. Mitchell has written a history of Iowa Baptists. After a laymen's banquet the association closed with an address on "The Church's Call to Social Service" by President L. D. Seaborn, Ph. D., of Des Moines College.

Farm Made Him $15,000.

Manchester.—A land deal, which involved one of the largest outlays of money, ever taken in the county was consumated during the week, when H. T. Hicks sold his farm of 160 acres in Hazel Grove township to John Doyle, a farmer of Jones county, paying at the rate of $75 per acre, or an actual outlay of $25,500 in cash. Seventeen years ago Mr. Hicks bought this farm for $10,000 of Ellis Winard, and by the advance of Delaware county land is able to clear an even $15,500 on the property.

Wagon Bridge Gives Way.

Algona.—Henry Pilgin, a farmer in the southern part of this county, was severely injured about the head when the span of a bridge over which he was driving with a load of tile, gave way, precipitating wagon, team and driver into the stream below. One of the horses was killed. Pilgin's injuries are not believed to be fatal.

Sells His Patent.

West Union.—Bert Westcott, a barber, has sold his patent for a corn planting machine for $15,000. Last spring working on his farm Westcott Westcott got the idea for the machine. He had a model made and tried it out. He secured his patent in July. The Hadley Pump company of Dubuque purchased the patent.

Iowa at Big Dairy Show.

Hampton.—The Iowa delegation of dairy farmers that will attend the fourth national dairy show at Milwaukee, Oct. 14 to 24, will be representative of the progressive element and one of the largest in point of numbers that has attended any of the national expositions.

Undertaker Commits Suicide.

Indianapolis—Henry G. McKenzie an undertaker, shot himself to death in his establishment, after having written a note designating the coffin he wished to be buried in. He added that "worry over business had driven him insane."

Iowa Scientist Home From Canada.

Ames.—Dr. L. H. Pammel has returned from a trip through the Canadian Rockies, where he went with a number of students to study the flora and attend the Winnipeg meeting of the British association.

Boone to Get Cheaper Gas.

Boone.—The city council has given the ordinance providing dollar gas, two readings, and notified the gas company to be present with objections, if any, at the time of the third reading.

WHAT IS PAINT?

The paint on a house is the extreme outside of the house. The wood is simply a structural under layer. That is as it should be. Unprotected wood will not well withstand weather. But paint made of pure white lead and linseed oil is an invulnerable armor against sun and rain, heat and cold. Such paint protects and preserves, fortifying the perishable wood with a complete metallic casing.

And the outside of the house is the looks of the house. A well-constructed building may be greatly depreciated by lack of painting or by poor painting.

National Lead Company have made it possible for every building owner to be absolutely sure of pure white lead paint before applying. They do this by putting upon every package of their white lead their Dutch Boy Painter trademark. That trademark is a complete guarantee.

Sub Rosa.

She—She told me you told her that secret I told you not to tell her.

He—The mean thing! I told her not to tell you I told her.

She—I promised her I wouldn't tell you she told me, so don't tell her I told you.

Chicago to Boston and Return $25.60.

Grand Trunk Double Track Route. Tickets on sale daily until September 30th, thirty-day limit. Liberal stopovers. Through sleepers daily, tourist sleepers Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays. Low fares to all tourist resorts in New England and Canada. Apply to Agent of any Eastbound line or write W. S. Cookson, A. G. P. A., 135 Adams St., Chicago, Ill.

Not Qualified for the Job.

Father (impressively)—"My son, I want you to be very attentive to your new teacher, who is a man of wide and general information. He can teach you everything you need to know." Small Boy (derisively)—"He? He don't know nothin'! Why, he can't even tell who's pitchin' in the league teams."

A Queer Malady.

Sprigg went to a noted physician to ask advice as to his health. In pompous tones he addressed the doctor:

"I—ah— have come to—ah—ask you—ah—what—what is—ah—the doosid mattaw with me—ah!"

"I find that your heart is affected," said the physician, gravely.

"Oh—ah—anything else—ah?"

"Yes; your lungs are affected, too."

"Anything—ah—else—ah?"

"Yes; your manners are also affected."

No Short Haul for Him.

"This is where you get off," said the railroad conductor.

"But I haven't rid fur enough," said the Billville man.

"Can't help that. You can't go any further on this ticket."

"My friend," said the man, "it's the furst time I ever rid on a railroad train, an' ef you ain't a better man than what I am I'm a-goin' to set right here till I see whar the road ends. I know it must end some're, an' I'm curious to see whar. Here's one more dollar. Now, go 'long an' let me alone!"

PRESSED HARD
Coffee's Weight on Old Age.

When prominent men realize the injurious effects of coffee and the change in health that Postum can bring, they are glad to lend their testimony for the benefit of others.

A superintendent of public schools in North Carolina says:

"My mother since her early childhood, was an inveterate coffee drinker and had been troubled with her heart for a number of years, and complained of that 'weak all over' feeling and sick stomach.

"Some time ago I was making an official visit to a distant part of the country and took dinner with one of the merchants of the place. I noticed a somewhat peculiar flavor of the coffee, and asked him concerning it. He replied that it was Postum.

"I was so pleased with it, that after the meal was over, I bought a package to carry home with me, and had wife prepare some for the next meal. The whole family liked it so well, that we discontinued coffee and used Postum entirely.

"I had really been at times very anxious concerning my mother's condition, but we noticed that after using Postum for a short time, she felt so much better than she did prior to its use, and had little trouble with her heart and no sick stomach; that the headaches were not so frequent, and her general condition much improved. This continued until she was as well and hearty as the rest of us.

"I know Postum has benefited myself and the other members of the family, but not in so marked a degree as in the case of my mother, as she was a victim of long standing."

Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

"There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

His Helping Hand.

First Him—When that man fell overboard, why did you throw the cigar I gave you after him?

Second Him—I thought I heard the poor devil call for a rope!

A Rare Good Thing.

"Am using ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE, and can truly say I would not have been without it so long, had I known the relief it would give my aching feet. I think it a rare good thing for anyone having sore or tired feet.—Mrs. Matilda Holtwert, Providence, R. I." Sold by all Druggists, 25c. Ask to-day.

Plans are being made for the electrification of the more important state railroads of Sweden.

Don't chew unless you chew beneficial gum. That's Wrigley's Spearmint.

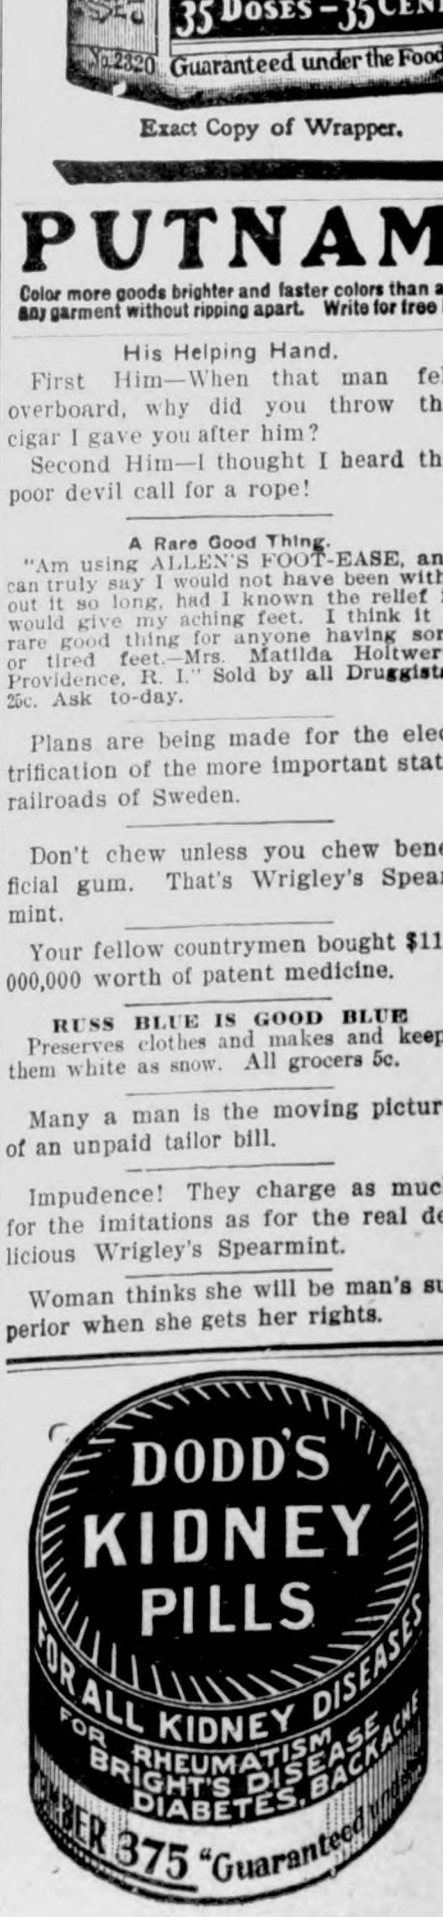
Your fellow countrymen bought $11,000,000 worth of patent medicine.

RUSS BLUE IS GOOD BLUE
Preserves clothes and makes and keeps them white as snow. All grocers 5c.

Many a man is the moving picture of an unpaid tailor bill.

Impudence! They charge as much for the imitations as for the real delicious Wrigley's Spearmint.

Woman thinks she will be man's superior when she gets her rights.



Physicians Recommend Castoria

CASTORIA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmaceutical societies and medical authorities. It is used by physicians with results most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionably the result of three facts: First—The indisputable evidence that it is harmless: Second—That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food: Third—It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for Castor Oil. It is absolutely safe. It does not contain any Opium, Morphine, or other narcotic and does not stupefy. It is unlike Soothing Syrups, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a Medical Journal to say. Our duty, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge, Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health, by regulating the system—not by stupefying it—and our readers are entitled to the information.—Hall's Journal of Health.

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. B. Halstead Scott, of Chicago, Ills., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria often for infants during my practice, and find it very satisfactory."

Dr. William Belmont, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "Your Castoria stands first in its class. In my thirty years of practice I can say I never have found anything that so filled the place."

Dr. J. H. Taft, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I have used your Castoria and found it an excellent remedy in my household and private practice for many years. The formula is excellent."

Dr. R. J. Hamlen, of Detroit, Mich., says: "I prescribe your Castoria extensively, as I have never found anything to equal it for children's troubles. I am aware that there are imitations in the field, but I always see that my patients get Fletcher's."

Dr. Wm. J McCrann, of Omaha, Neb., says: "As the father of thirteen children I certainly know something about your great medicine, and aside from my own family experience I have in my years of practice found Castoria a popular and efficient remedy in almost every home."

Dr. J. R. Clausen, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "The name that your Castoria has made for itself in the tens of thousands of homes blessed by the presence of children, scarcely needs to be supplemented by the endorsement of the medical profession, but I, for one, most heartily endorse it and believe it an excellent remedy."

Dr. R. M. Ward, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Physicians generally do not prescribe proprietary preparations, but in the case of Castoria my experience, like that of many other physicians, has taught me to make an exception. I prescribe your Castoria in my practice because I have found it to be a thoroughly reliable remedy for children's complaints. Any physician who has raised a family, as I have, will join me in heartiest recommendation of Castoria."

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS
Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years.
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

PUTNAM FADELESS DYES

Color more goods brighter and faster colors than any other dye. One 10c package colors all fibers. They dye in cold water better than any other dye. You can dye any garment without ripping apart. Write for free booklet—How to Dye, Bleach and Mix Colors. MONROE DRUG CO., Quincy, Illinois.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM
DOUBLE TRACK

SPECIAL EXCURSIONS
Daily Until Sept. 30, 1909

CHICAGO to

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., AND RETURN		$25.70
BOSTON, MASS., AND RETURN		25.60
MONTREAL, QUE., AND RETURN		20.00
NEW YORK, N. Y., AND RETURN		25.50
PORTLAND, ME., AND RETURN		27.35
QUEBEC, QUE., AND RETURN		24.00
TORONTO, ONT., AND RETURN	DIRECT LINE	15.60
TORONTO, ONT., AND RETURN	via Niagara Falls	19.50

Tickets good via Niagara Falls and allow stopover at that point. Thirty days' return limit. Liberal stopovers.

Excursion fares to all Tourist Resorts in Canada, New England, New York and New Jersey. For full particulars apply to

W. S. COOKSON, A. G. P. A.
135 Adams Street Chicago, Illinois

HAMLIN'S WIZARD OIL
THE OIL THAT PENETRATES
GREAT FOR PAIN

Nothing Too Good

for you. That's why we want you to take CASCARETS for liver and bowels. It's not advertising talk—but merit—the great, wonderful, lasting merit of CASCARETS that we want you to know by trial. Then you'll have faith—and join the millions who keep well by CASCARETS alone. 909

CASCARETS 10c a box for a week's treatment, all druggists. Biggest seller in the world. Million boxes a month.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT
PEPSIN GUM

Cure your Rheumatism, pains and aches with A-B-C LINIMENT
Get it from your Dealer.

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT

This Trade-mark Eliminates All Uncertainty in the purchase of paint materials. It is an absolute guarantee of purity and quality. For your own protection, see that it is on the side of every keg of white lead you buy.

NATIONAL LEAD COMPANY
1902 Trinity Building, New York

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water

GROCERIES & HARDWARE

We always have on hand a complete line. Our Groceries are always new and fresh and the line comprises all the staples and a dandy line of Canned Goods. Our line of Shelf and Heavy Hardware is complete. We invite you to call and inspect our goods.

CREAM

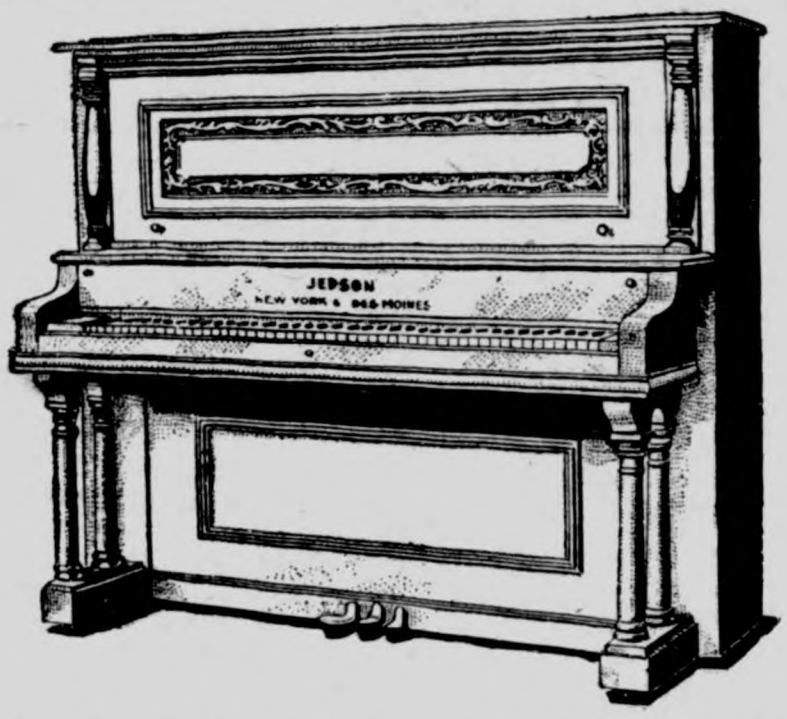
Try us with that next can of Cream. A fair test and a square deal guaranteed.

TERHUFEN BROS.

—PROPRIETORS OF THE—

ONE PRICE CASH STORE

KLEMME, IOWA



MUSICAL GOODS

Pianos Six different styles, guaranteed to be right in tone, artistic in design and perfection in construction. Give us a chance to demonstrate these instruments to you. The prices on these instruments will surprise you.

SMOKERS SUPPLIES of every description—From the old familiar Missouri Meerschaum to the real genuine article. All the leading brands of Tobacco.

PRESCRIPTIONS—Bring them to us. They will be correctly compounded. A full line of Patent Medicines of every manufacture.

G. A. PABST & CO.

DRUGGISTS

Are You Going to Build?

If so, let us figure on your Lumber bill. We have a large stock and a fine assortment of Lumber, Sash, Doors, Tile. both square and diamond Mesh Field Fence, and everything carried in a first class lumber yard. It will pay you to get our figures.....

See us when you want to buy TILE.

Northern Lumber Company

N. L. PALMER, AGENT

KLEMME . . . . . IOWA

"Printing That Pleases"

The TIMES Job Department

THE KLEMME TIMES

ALLEN C. FLINT, PUBLISHER

Published every Thursday at Klemme, Iowa.

Subscription price $1.00 per year in advance.

Entered at the Post Office at Klemme as second-class mail matter.

Locals 5 cents per line each insertion. Display advertising 10 cents per inch. Display advertising 7c per inch without chang by the year.

Advertising accounts due on the last publication day of each month. Job work cash on delivery.

CHILDREN OF JAPAN

YOUNGSTERS HAVE HAPPY TIME IN THAT COUNTRY.

Small Subjects of the Mikado Invariably Well Treated and Scientifically Brought Up—Are Never Struck in Anger.

The school age of the Japanese child of well-to-do families usually begins at six years of age, and up until this period the little Japs are under the care of their nurses and mothers. Few nurses, however, in Japan are allowed to exercise any discipline over their little charges, as the child in Japan is considered of great importance. Any Japanese mother who would venture to turn her children over to a hired nurse, as is frequently done by wealthy American mothers, would promptly be admonished, not only by her husband, but by all her male relatives on both sides of the family.

So the Japanese children, before six years of age, are punished by their mothers, but this amounts to little. To slap a child is deemed not only a sign of intense vulgarity and ignorance, but is considered a grave offense against the child. To strike a child on the head or face is thought cruel and unnatural, and apt to injure the child's health and intelligence. The Japanese child is seldom punished except for doing things apt to injure the child or some other person.

The principle used by the Japs in disciplining children is to guard them against wrong actions more than to constrain them through fear of punishment. Prevent wrong actions is their aim rather than to punish the child. Children are always admonished but seldom compelled.

When a Jap child is to be punished due notice is given the culprit, for parents or teachers or guardians are never supposed to lose their tempers or to punish in so-called hot blood. By an ancient and amusing custom all the household, including the servants, are allowed to try and beg the little offender off from his punishment. His or her little brothers and sisters usually offer to take the punishment on themselves. Angry looks and shouting or harsh expressions are always deprecated by the Japanese learned men when punishing children.

At school, in the younger grades, the teacher always attempts to guide his pupils by personal friendship rather than fear. The children in each class are taught to try to keep order among themselves, and the class captain, or kyuucho, is always allowed to call off the punishments. In high schools and institutions for graduate students the sentiment of each rules its conduct, and offenders are handled entirely by their fellow-students. This is extremely effective, and Japanese students have many times committed suicide rather than face their angry fellow-classmen after serious breaches of class etiquette.

The offenders are ignored by their classmen, and are never spoken to, in or out of the classrooms. A public apology by a naughty Japanese student is needed, and this apology must be made not to the professors of the institutions, but to the members of his class. Then when the public apology has been made a vote is taken and if a majority are in favor of pardoning the offending student he is received back by his classmates.

Go With a Rush

The demand for that wonderful stomach, liver and kidney cure, Dr. King's New Life Pills—is astounding G. A. Pabst & Co. say they never saw the like. It's because they never fail to cure sour stomach, constipation, indigestion, billiousness, jaundice, sick headache, chills and malaria. Only 25c.

MILLINERY OPENING

We have the finest display of Fall and Winter Millinery. A fine assortment of Pattern Hats and Trimmed Hats. We have the latest in the new colors and shades —the new Reseda and Olive Greens, Raspberry, Raisin, and all other new tints.

New Shirt Waists in lawn and silk. Hair ornaments. Also newest in collars.

Miss Lund, a first class trimmer, will be sure to please. Please call.

Women's and Children's Wearing Apparel

An opportunity to make your selections from a complete variety of styles such as are carried only in the large cities. As a representative of Chas. A. Stevens & Bros., Chicago, I am prepared to show you samples representing a complete stock of High-Grade Ready-to-wear for Women, Misses and Children at Exceptionally Low Prices and Satisfaction Guaranteed. Call and look over our beautiful samples.

Cloaks, Suits, Skirts, Waists, Furs, etc.,

MRS. JOHN JOSTEN

THRESHING COAL

The very best grades in Hocking Valley, Wineferd Splint, Indiana Block, Sootless and Washed Egg. Call and get prices.

Highest Market Price Paid for Grain and Live Stock Six Days in the Week

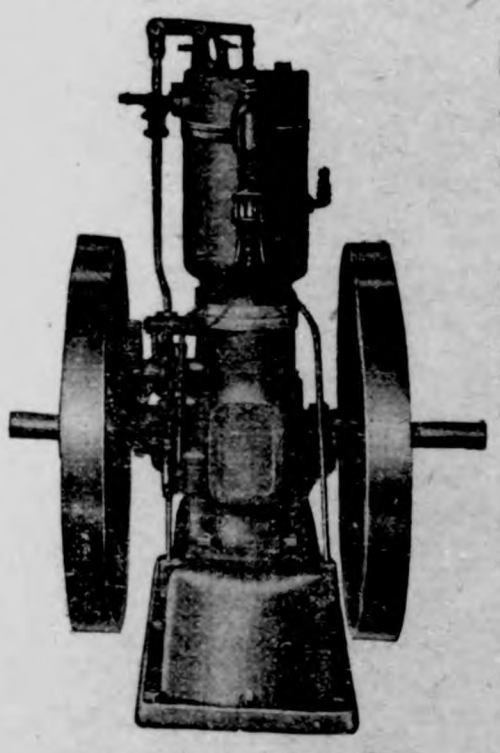
H. C. LAU

Thoroughbred Duroc Jersey Boars and Gilts For Sale

Two Strains. Sired by I Great Notcher and da Ohio Chief; and others Sure Money, dams I o Banker. This stock is fi class in every respect.

—Call on or address—

J. T. GRIGGS. Goodell, Iow



Save work, worry, money by using a

STOVER GASOLINE ENGINE

Made right—sold right Send for an illustrated ca alog of our wind mills and feed grin ers.

ENGINES

Sandwich Mfg. Co.

Mason City, Iowa General Agent

Cloaks

Come in and see the pretty DEER-SKIN and "POSSUM" Coats, the latest style for your baby—also pretty BEAR-SKINS in white, navy, brown, smoke, or snow drop, from $1.75 to $4.50
(Hoods to match all.)

Strong Warm Coats for school girls, age 6 to 14 blue, brown or green—@ $3.00 to $6.50.

In addition to our large line of Ladies' Black Coats, Auto Coats and Fancy Coats at from $4 to $20, we are showing with Fur Collar. They are as warm as a fur coat but not so heavy; look elegant and wear well —Price from $16 50 to $25. We also have a few extra Big Cloaks for stout ladies.

Ladies' Plush Lined Coats

PLEASE NOTE—These are positively the Biggest Values in Cloaks that I have ever offered. For example, the above Bearskin Coat @ $1.75 would have cost you $2 25 last year.

BUY NOW for the prettiest coats are usually gone before cold weather sets in.

LADIES' MAN-TAILORED SUITS

Buy your own goods and trimmings and have them made up into a Suit, Skirt, Jacket, Auto Coat, Rain Coat, or into any garment that you wish.

We have made arrangements with a reliable tailoring concern to whom we send goods and measurement and pattern; they do the work and return to us the completed garment.

We have 95 patterns or styles and over 300 swatches of cloth from which you may select your garment.

ARTHUR WELLEMEYER

About People You Know

KLEMME MARKET.

.....	58 to 60c
.....	32 to 34c
.....	80 to 90
.....	38 to 40c
.....	4 00 to 6.00
.....	7.00 to 7.50
.....	3.00 to 6.00

Sweely is critically ill.—

sh fruits at Kluckhohn's.

C. Lau shipped a car of yesterday.

R. Bloom returned home Omaha yesterday.

and Mrs. N. L. Palmer at Buffalo Center yesterday School will be held in English M. E. church at on Sunday, Sept. 19th.

O. Targasen was down Swea City Sunday visiting G. W. Kluckhohn home.

Tom Hamilton, of Gar- visited here Tuesday night her daughter, Mrs. Cos-ads this week — State gs Bank, First National Mrs. John Josten, Arthur eyer.

ry Behringer returned Minneapolis Thursday, e he has been attending the esota State Fair.

and Mrs. Wallace Pavey last Thursday night for ison, Iowa, for a visit at ome of Wallace's parents.

E. Baumgartner, Fred Hen , Del Countryman, John e and Jim Pavey took in air at Forest City last sday afternoon.

Big Andrew" Anderson and ermiller Bros. sold W. R. a car of money makers that brought the neat of $1255 15. How is that igh?

e German Reformed church a picnic in the Aug. Barz last Friday afternoon. weather was fine, the crowd large and all had the usual yable time.

---

ng obliged to take it for I will sell it out cheap;
Hess Stock Food.
Hess Poultry Panacea.
Hess Instant Louse Kill-

Hess Hog Worm Powder. be had at G. F. Schuler's er, Iowa.

W. R. Bloom shipped a car of hogs Sunday.

Jay Griggs was a Des Moines visitor a few days last week.

Edward Anderson, who has been visiting at the Joseph E. Johnson home, returned last Thursday to Graettinger, Iowa.

Miss Carrie Johnson left Monday for Mason City where she has again taken up her school work at the Memorial University.

Mrs. W. L. Sherwood and sister, Miss Nellie Griggs, have been spending a few days in St. Paul, visiting at the E. J. Bauman home and sight seeing at the fair.

The Times is in receipt of a remittance from Albert Bock, the letter being dated from Plymouth, Wisconsin, where he is attending school. He says the crops are good in that country.

The strength of the First National Bank lies not alone in its capital and resourses, but in the character and financial responsibility of the men who conduct its affairs as well. See their statement in this issue. 1

Dorthea M. Johnson of Morris, Ill., who has been visiting here with her cousins, Carrie and Hulda Johnson, left Thursday for Graettinger, Iowa, for a visit with her aunt. Misses Carrie and Hulda Johnson accompanied her as far as Garner.

Our reporter is told a good story on two local hunters who went out after the elusive ducks one day last week. They came to a very likely looking place for game, where there was a small pond and the rushes were higher than their heads. Hunter No. 1 told Hunter No. 2 to stay at a certain spot and he would go first north a ways and then a short distance west to see what he could scare up. No. 1 did start out in a northerly direction and then traveled west a ways when he thought he saw another pond a short distance away which he decided to investigate. After walking for some time in that direction he suddenly came upon Hunter No. 2. What is the answer? Did No. 1 travel in a circle or did No 2 disobey orders, and if so or not so, what brand of bait had they been using? Answers will be accepted only from the hunters or from "Bum" or "Wooly."

The finest line of candies in town at Kluckhohn's. 45tf

See H. Lau & Son for corn binders, wagons, buggies, etc.

Pure extracted honey for sale, 10c a pound Herman Coobs. 3*

Henry Lewis was at Ventura and Mason City last Sunday and Monday.

Miss Minnie Lau left Saturday evening for Chicago to visit with her brother.

Minnie Lenz left last Monday evening for Watertown, S. D., where she will visit with her sister.

Attention Farmers—I have a limited amount of the GENUINE RED TURKISH Winter Wheat for sale. Call at once. H. C. Lau.

New fall line of ladies' shoes received. I can show the latest and best approved styles at reasonable prices. Call and see my line. F. Gruetzmacher. 4tf Klemme merchants did a rushing business last Saturday, the old town being filled with teams all afternoon. The people know where to get well treated, as the town's large trade testifies.

Chas. Anderson has been here the past two weeks visiting his folks. He has been ditching in the vicinity of Gowrie, Iowa, and left on Monday for Laurel, Nebraske, where he will engage in the same kind of work.

Lew Lewis and Hod Lawhorn were at Clear Lake fishing last Friday and Saturday, and they had good success, too. Lew says it is all in having a good guide and taking along the right kind of bait, but he didn't tell us the kind they used.

George Ell was up from Belmond last Saturday on business. While here he called and had his name placed on our subscription list, so as to keep posted on the doings in his old home town. George reports that he has had lots of work this year.

The Farmers Picnic which was to have been held at Garner on Tuesday was not a success from a picnic standpoint, owing to the extreme wetness of the weather. However, the afternoon program was given in the opera house and was well attended considering the very bad state of the atmosphere above and muddy roads below. The Miller band was present and as usual dished up a nice assortment of melodies to enliven the occasion. The address of Mr. Greeley of Chicago was one of the best and most interesting talks we have heard for many moons.

H. Lau & Son are buying poultry every day. 5tf

Eyes tested. Glasses fitted. Dr. W. F. Missman.

Viola Freie is suffering from an attack of appendicitis

C. J. Schneider was down from Garner in his auto last Thursday.

Miss Amanda Arnold returned home one day last week from a visit at Kansas City.

C. C. Suckow was at Buffalo Center and Estherville the first of the week on business.

Miss Avis Sage was down from Garner Wednesday visiting with her sister, Mrs. A. C. Flint.

We issue a supplement this week in which may be found the program for the Hancock County Fair.

The Harry Tarveal sale last Tuesday was well attended despite the rainy weather, and everything sold well.

Miss Lund was at Goodell yesterday and this (Thursday) forenoon, conducting a special millinery sale for Mrs. John Josten.

For all the Ducks you can deliver up to Friday noon, Sept. 17th, we will pay 9c per pound. For Hens 11c and Old Roosters 5c. Ducks will be ½c less if delivered after Friday noon. Hens and Roosters will remain the same. Ell Bros. 1w

Ben, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Swalve, had his upper lip very badly cut last Thursday. While he and his father were climbing through a barbed wire fence, one of the wires slipped and caught the boy on the lip making an ugly wound. The cut was sewed up and the lad is getting along O. K.

German M. E. Church Items

Rev. G. Haefner filled the pulpit in Klemme, very acceptable Sunday evening.

Mrs. W. H. Kraus left for Colesburg last week where she will visit his parents and other relatives.

Anna Griewe opened her fall term of school in district No. 7 of German township, on Monday morning

The Womans Missionary society of Klemme will hold their

(Continued on page 8)

Col. J. J. Wilson
MESERVEY, IOWA
LIVE STOCK AUCTIONEER
Dates made at either bank in Klemme, Iowa. Terms reasonable.

DOCTORS
GEO. ZINN EDGAR ZINN
Office: State Savings Bank
Phone No. 19
KLEMME - - IOWA

DR. W. F. MISSMAN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
Phone No. 11. Klemme, Iowa.
Office in the Shafer building.
Prompt attention given to calls day or night.
Eyes tested. Glasses fitted.

W. C. AMSDEN, OPT. D.
Graduate Optician,
Garner - - Iowa
Eyes Tested Free.

W. R. BLOOM
Buyer and Shipper of
Grain and Live Stock
Best Grades of Hard and Soft Coal. Will be prepared to furnish my patrons with the celebrated Petroleum COKE about July 1st. Leave your orders while you can get the coke.
Stock wanted 6 days in the week

Pictures
See me when you want a
Photograph
All kinds—inside or outdoor views. I make a specialty of photo postal cards, 75 cents a dozen. Good work at reasonable prices.
JOE MILLER, KLEMME IOWA

JOHN GRIEWE
City Meat Market
Dealer in
All kinds of Fresh and Cured Meats. Canned goods and oysters in season. Headquarters for part of Heinz' Fifty-Seven Varieties. and Pickling Vinegar.
Try these goods; they are fine.

J. E. BAUMGARTNER
The Tonsorial Artist
Will give you an easy shave or a neat hair cut.
2nd door west of State Savings Bank
Call in

RESTAURANT
Fresh New Candies, Nicest Line in Town
Try a "Lovers' Delight" the latest and best Ice Cream Sundae in town.
Try our Golden Orangeade, Pop and Ciders.
—Home-made Bakery Goods,—
Lunches and Meals at all hours.
A. Kirkwood & Son

LIVERY and FEED STABLE.
The only livery in town
Good rigs and careful drivers
Rates reasonable
Your patronage solicited
CHAS. L. YAHNKE, Proprietor.

SPECIAL
For a Short Time Only
Rock Island Lines
will sell one-way
Colonist Tickets
To California
AND
Pacific Northwest Points
DAILY
September 15th to October 15th

Only $33	from	Chicago
32	"	Peoria
32	"	St. Louis
25	"	Kansas City
25	"	St. Joseph
25	"	Omaha
32	"	Memphis

to California, with similar low fares to points in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Arizona and Old Mexico.
Travel Rock Island way, in Rock Island clean, comfortable, easy-riding, vestibuled tourist cars.
Let me tell you how delightfully and economically the trip can be made.
L. A. HIENTZ, Agent,
Rock Island Lines,
Klemme, Iowa

The Klemme Times

ALLEN C. FLINT, Publisher.

KLEMME, . . . IOWA

SUMMARY OF A WEEK'S EVENTS

Latest News of Interest Boiled Down for the Busy Man.

PERSONAL.

For playing against the Logan Squares in Chicago, John Kling, the holdout catcher of the Cubs, will be barred from participating in major league baseball for three years.

W. E. Hotchkiss of Chicago and Otto J. Habhegger of Milwaukee were appointed by President Taft to supervise the taking of the census in those cities next year.

Lord Kitchener has been appointed field marshal of the British army.

Bishop Edmund M. Dunne was enthroned in the diocese of Peoria in a solemn ceremony in the presence of 500 priests and Catholic dignitaries.

Walter S. Bond of New York has climbed Mont Blanc from Chamonix in nine hours, breaking the record of 9½ hours achieved by Morehead in 1865.

Speaker Cannon while on a visit to New York, said he would return to Danville, Ill., his home, to look after his fences, as, he said, he is a poor man and needs the job.

GENERAL NEWS.

Edward H. Harriman, the greatest railroad financier and organizer the world ever has known died at his home at Arden, N. Y., surrounded by his family and physicians after an illness of several months. Tributes to his greatness and power were received from hundreds of the leaders in the world's finance. Mr. Harriman was 61 years old. Simple arrangements were made for the funeral.

Commander Peary arrived at Battle Harbor, Labrador, and sent a brief summary of his discovery of the north pole. In earlier messages he declared Dr. Frederick Cook never found the pole and quoted the Eskimos as proof of his assertion. Dr. Cook in Copenhagen, replied that he had been there, believed Peary also succeeded and declared he would produce his proof at the proper time.

Dr. Frederick E. Cook sailed from Christiansand, Denmark, for New York, and on his arrival about September 20, will produce proofs in refutation of Commander Peary's charge that he never did reach the north pole.

John Dorsey, an employe of a wild-west show, was arrested at Omaha charged with murdering Othello Ratliff, aged 11 years.

Jack Johnson, the world's heavyweight champion, defeated Al Kaufman in a ten-round fight at San Francisco, although he failed to knock him out.

Scott Sprague was shot and killed in Cincinnati and his wife, formerly Miss Cross of Rockford, Ill., was held by the police until it is determined whether he was slain or had committed suicide.

President Taft summoned Attorney General Wickersham to Beverly to discuss with him the Ballinger-Pinchot quarrel.

John Early, who was held in Washington as a leper, but later declared not to be suffering from the disease, was cut off the United States pension rolls.

Orville Wright, accompanied by the wife of an officer of the German army, made a thrilling airship flight at Berlin.

J. Pierpont Morgan, the New York banker, has offered, it is said, to furnish Dr. Cook with any money he may need to bring proofs from Greenland that he discovered the north pole.

The board of trustees of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church met in Cincinnati. The treasurer's report shows $500,000 raised for home mission work within the last year.

Colorado has received $5,410 as a tax on the estate of the late Gen. W. J. Palmer, founder of Colorado Springs. It was the second largest tax ever paid the state.

Col. George W. Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama isthmian canal commission, arrived at Beverly, Mass., to consult with President Taft concerning a successor to Gov. J. S. Blackburn of the canal zone, who submitted his resignation last week.

LIPS THAT WERE SEALED

BY ALMA MARTIN ESTABROOK

PICTURES BY A. WEIL — AUTHOR of "MY COUSIN PATRICIA."

COPYRIGHT BY J. B. LIPPINCOTT CO.

SYNOPSIS.

The story opens with a scene at a box party. Miss Henrietta Winstanley, sister of Bishop Winstanley overheard Banker Ankony propose to Barbara Hemingray, whose brother Dan was in his employ. Dan was one of the town's popular young men. He showed some nervousness when Attorney Tom Twining told him Barbara refused Ankony. Ankony the following day, summoning Twining, accused Dan of looting the bank. Twining refused to prosecute.

CHAPTER II.—Continued.

"He stole the money—" he broke in.

"Yes, I know he did. I'm not exonerating him; I'm not trying to. It was a crime, and I recognize it, of course, and your right to prosecute, if you are so determined. But put yourself in his place if you can. He is simply prodigal in his kindness. There are more people in town to-day who have been buoyed up and brightened by him than by any other man, old or young. Maybe he did take your money to help do it. But as much as he ever expected to do anything he expected to pay it all back. He stinted himself; it was only with others he was generous. And then his sister—he wanted to make things easy for her if he could. He was ashamed to admit that he couldn't keep it up. Foolish? Of course it was foolish. But you admire him a little for trying to carry his end of the Hemingray string as it had always been kept up, don't you? You see what it has already cost him. Don't make it cost him everything he's got. Give him another chance. He'll redeem himself. You'll see. Try him."

"You ask too much."

"Too much! I only ask what you've done for fellows that were rascals and deep-dyed culprits. Surely you can give him the leniency you gave them As for the bad influence, there won't be any, as you must admit, since no one knows of it, nor will know of it if you do as I ask. Let the boy go, Ankony."

"I can't."

"Rubbish. Will you?"

"I will not, Mr. Twining. I must proceed with the prosecution."

I pulled myself in hand with a strong effort.

"If I did what I want to do, I'd throttle you, Ankony," I said, and I went out and shut the door between him and my rage, which was becoming ungovernable.

I spent the rest of the morning in a determined effort to find something to change the course of events and save Dan. But all my determination and eagerness went for nothing. There was absolutely nothing I could lay hands upon. Ankony was inexorable and vindictive. And no help could come outside of Ankony. There was no further appeal to be made to him.

As I was leaving the office on a further search, which, I admitted even as I undertook it, promised nothing, I ran face to face with Barbara in the hallway. A glance at her showed me that she knew. She had smiled through losses and bereavement and pain, but she was not smiling now. The Hemingrays knew how to meet vicissitude but not dishonor. Shame had burned the brightness from her eyes and seared dry that deeper well of cheer in her brave heart.

She looked at me dimly, as if in that acute moment I did not enter in, and she could not concentrate her half-paralyzed faculties upon me. It was startling to see her so. Her face, without a smile, smote me. An agony of longing to do something, say something, offer something of help, was upon me, but I felt its futility. What could I do, with bound hands?

I bowed to her and moved on to my further office. At the door, however, I turned to look after her, and was astonished to see her pause before Ankony's office. Then I understood: She was going to intercede for Dan. As the comprehension swept over me, I called to her. I would not have her humiliate herself uselessly. But she did not hear me, and passed in, and I told myself that perhaps, after all, she might move him; certainly any man—but Ankony was a monster, not a man. His pride was always keener than his emotion, and his pride was smarting.

I left my door open to be ready if there should be anything I could do for her, but when she came down the hall Ankony was with her. He was all deference and attention, radiating satisfaction and triumph. Yet Barbara was smiling—not the old smile, to be sure, but as if in tremendous relief—and the despair had faded from her eyes, while her head was lifted with the old proud poise, and her step was not leaden as it had been when she passed down the hall.

"Perhaps your brother might like to go to join my brother Jack for a while," Ankony was saying, as they passed my door. "The company rather needs him out there, and he might find the change pleasant."

So she had gained Dan's freedom—his one more chance!

I went out to tramp and settle my nerves. I needed to readjust myself to the situation. When I came back I found my resignation, which I had sent to Ankony several hours earlier, lying on my desk. It had been returned to me with a note from him saying the company refused to consider it, as the reason for my urging it had been removed, and it was therefore hoped that our former relations might continue.

I tore the note and the resignation across.

"So much for the charm and the persuasive powers of a woman," I muttered. "No man is adamant."

CHAPTER III.

"Felicitate me," commanded Mrs. Jack Ankony the next day, as she brought her cart up to the curb and leaned down to me with a smile of complete satisfaction.

"Gladly, if you will give me a new reason for it," I replied. "There are so many well-known ones, but I have heard of nothing new. What is it?"

"Flatterer! But, really, don't you know? Haven't you heard? Am I actually to be the news-bearer?"

"I know nothing, I assure you. I never hear things, Mrs. Ankony, until everyobdy else has heard them. Do take pity on me, won't you?"

"But I supposed you would have heard—you, of all people, not to know! Why, it's in all the papers. That is, it's going to be to-night."

"But I am not the seventh daughter of the seventh daughter, you know; I can't read the future, nor the papers till they come out."

She made a funny little mouth. "If you tease me, Mr. Twining, perhaps I shan't tell you."

"Oh, but you will," I smiled; "nothing could keep you from it."

"Frankly, nothing could," she laughingly admitted.

"Then tell me, do," I begged.

She leaned down to me, composing her face from merriment to tranquility.

"I'm the happiest woman in town to-day; the charming Miss Hemingray is to marry my husband's brother. Don't you think I have a right to be?"

I had just strength to stoop and pat the head of a ridiculous spaniel that sprang out of the cart and frisked about my feet.

"Are you surprised?" she challenged.

I continued to fondle the spaniel.

"I'm never surprised at anything, Mrs. Ankony."

"Oh, how like a very old person that sounds!"

"I am old—very old, in experience."

Mrs. Ankony nodded ready assent. "So I should have said, Mr. Twining, but you are also very clever."

I stood up with recovered equilibrium.

"What a pleasant exchange of compliments!" I observed.

"Do you know," she remarked thoughtfully, "it seems rather a pity we should have known each other so slightly, Mr. Twining. I believe we have each missed something by it."

"The loss I am sure is all mine, and I have often regretted it. Is it, do you think, too late to remedy so lamentable a matter?" I inquired, trying to rise to the situation as a half-hearted fish rises to the fly.

"It is just possible we may see more of each other now, since my brother is very fond of having his friends about him, and, as you are one of his wife's—dear me! how premature I am, but then one is certain there will be no slip here, and that she will be his wife—one of Miss Hemingray's greatest friends — you are, aren't you?"

"She has none better," I replied.

"Yes, so I thought, and of course Edward will wish her to continue to see her old acquaintances and friends just as before, so I dare say we may often meet."

I writhed inwardly beneath her pretty patronage, and understood in a measure little Henrietta Winstanley's feelings for her.

"But in the meantime," she continued pleasantly, "I hope you will come to see Cecelia and me. Good-by. Remember, we shall expect you." She gathered up the reins and then thought better of leaving me to find my way afoot up the avenue.

"Why not let me give you a lift?" she asked.

"Thank you, but I am leaving the avenue a block or two up."

"Ah, too bad! Bless me, look at this, pray! Here is Cecelia now—my cousin Miss Streeter, you know—and the bishop."

"The bishop?" I echoed. "What bishop?"

She laughed gaily.

"I don't wonder you are surprised," she said; "Bishop Winstanley," and, as we turned to look at them, she could not help the complacent little tuck her lips took. I did not blame her for it.

"How she fits her name, doesn't she?" I exclaimed.

"Cecelia? Why, yes, I suppose so. Oh, and the bishop is such a dear! Cecelia is an ardent horsewoman, and when he found we had no good in our stable—I never ride, you —what does he do but insist bringing her one of his. S fellow."

"The mount?" I inquired.

"And the bishop," she smile at me. "Now, if you will, yo hand my dog up. I almost forg in the excitement of the minute

I chased him over the gra captured him finally, tongue out

"Poor dear, you must forgi the exercise he made you tak is so playful. He doesn't kno tiresome playfulness is."

I handed him up with a car was remembering the turn h served me.

"I do believe you like him." s clared.

"I do. But I am killing a littl if I must acknowledge the truth waiting to see the bishop and Streeter go by. How slowly come!"

"They look well together, they?" she murmured critically

"The ensemble is perfect," I s

"How quaint you are!" she la

We turned with smiles and b the bishop and his companion. were indeed imposing. The bowed guardedly, as if she fea disarrange her halo, and the beamed, a little guiltily, it seem me. Later I found it to be a case of the mouse and the abse

Mrs. Ankony whirled along opposite direction after they ha and in a blur of emotions I h down the avenue, not sure w meant to bring up, but presentl ing myself ascending the Wins steps. I was not clearly consci my reason for wanting to see etta Winstanley just then excep she always clarified things for and certainly they had never it worse than now.

To my great disappointment, I that she had gone out of town an invalid friend, and that her and destination were not kno home, depending as they did up caprice of the friend. Her s thought it probable, however, th would not be back in town for s weeks, perhaps a month.

I turned from her door in the est regret, but my tumbling th had already begun to steady selves into something reser calm, and I saw things a little clearly: One thing I perceived startling clearness, and that wa Barbara had given herself for liberty and good name.

What it meant to her drove for the moment, all thought of w meant to me, but later my own lion arose and rioted—to no e was indeed the hopelessness o that smote me from the beginni felt like a paralyzed man in But he listens for the sound rescuers, and for me there co no help. There had been but o to save Dan—a way so hideous not even suggested itself to m Barbara, loving him as she di determined to save him, had t of it at once and had not hesita take it, monstrous as it was cruelty.

That Dan could accept so h price of her astonished me, knew that she dominated him affairs of their every-day life, could understand that, sick as h with despair and remorse, he yield to her fierce persuasion, out at first realizing just wh was offering for his honor.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

"I Do Believe You Like Him," She Declared.

Difficult to Do.

A teacher in one of Brooklyn' lic schools is a stickler for c ness. So often have orders com cleanliness must be observed the boys of her class that so the urchins have even inquir their parents what it means to cure your finger nails.

Of course there is a "bad b the class. One day the teache to him: "Tommy, do you know is a great deal of dirt behind ears?"

"There ain't neither," Tommy.

"It is wrong to dispute me," the teacher; "but you need no my word for it. If you really believe me, look for yourself."

The Height of Praise.

The limit of praise for food reached the other day in the avenue restaurant in New where the old-fashioned confid waiters are still to be found. well known to the place came i late at night for supper and ask man who had taken his orde years: "What's good to-day." tell you, sir," was the reply, just got some clams in, fresh fro water and (this in a whisper) I mind telling you, sir, they're so the waiters are eating 'em selves."

Point Sometimes Overlooke

"De man dat squeezes a doll hard," said Uncle Eben, "is lia lose his grip on de coin an' hav fingers besides."

The chief asset of humanity conviction that the game is while. To lose that would mea versal bankruptcy.—Collier's

EARY'S VOYAGE TO THE NORTH POLE

rst Authentic Account of the Arctic Explorer's Expedition, by Himself.

ves Brief Summary of Progress To and From Frozen North---Explanation of Condensed Dispatch By Well-Known Scientist.

NOTICE TO PUBLISHERS.

The following preliminary account Commander Peary of his success- voyage to the north pole was is- on September 8 by the New York s Company at the request of Com- der Peary and for his protection, book only, copyrighted and ex- for sale before any part of it reproduced by any newspaper in United States or Europe, in order btain the full protection of the pyright laws. The reproduction of account, in any form, without per- sion, is forbidden. The penalties violation of this form of copyright ude imprisonment for any person g or abetting such violation. pyright, 1909, by the New York s Company.

port on the Discovery of the North Pole by Robert E. Peary, Com- mander U. S. N., Copyright, 1909, by Charles R. Miller, as Vice-Pres- dent of the New York Times Com- pany.

ttle Harbor, Labrador, via Wire- Cape Ray, N. F.—As it may be ossible to get my full story through time, partly as a prelude which stimulate interest and partly to stall possible leaks, I am sending a brief summary of my voyage to north pole, which is to be printed tly as written.

Summary of Expedition.

ummary of north polar expedition he Peary Arctic club: The steam- Roosevelt left New York on July 6, ; left Sydney on July 17; arrived Cape York, Greenland, August 1; Etah, Greenland, August 8; ar- Cape Sheridan, at Grant Land, ptember 1; wintered at Cape Sheri- n.

The sledge expedition left the sevelt February 15, 1909, and ted for the north. Arrived at Cape mbia on March 1; passed British rd, March 2; delay by open wa- March 2 and 3; held up by open er, March 4 to 11; crossed the ty-fourth parallel, March 11; en- tered open lead, March 15; ssed eighty-fifth parallel, March 18; ssed eighty-sixth parallel, March encountered open lead, March 23; ssed Norwegian record, March 23; ssed Italian record, March 24; en- tered open lead, March 26; ssed eighty-seventh parallel, March passed American record, March encountered open lead, March 28; d up by open water, March 29; ssed eighty-eighth parallel, April 2; ssed eighty-ninth parallel, April 4; north pole, April 6.

All returning left north pole April 7, reached Cape Columbia April 23, arriving on board Roosevelt April 27.

The Roosevelt left Cape Sheridan July 18; passed Cape Sabine August 8; left Cape York August 26; arrived at Indian Harbor with all members of expedition returning in good health except Prof. Ross G. Marvin, drowned April 10, when 45 miles north of Cape Columbia, returning from 86 degrees north latitude in command of the supporting party.

ROBERT E. PEARY.

EXPLANATION OF MESSAGE.

By Cyrus C. Adams.

[Member of American Geographical Society.]

[Copyright: 1909: By New York Times.]

New York.—The foregoing dispatch, though condensed, tells clearly the leading facts in the story, not only of Peary's journey to the north pole, but also of a remarkably fast sledge trip over the ice of the open polar sea.

The dispatch says that the Roosevelt passed the winter of 1908-1909 at Cape Sheridan, on the coast of Grant Land. The vessel had threaded the comparatively narrow channels, several hundreds of miles in length, leading from Cape Sabine to the Arctic ocean.

Conditions Were Favorable.

This journey is apt to be difficult and sometimes impossible, but the conditions were evidently favorable. The ship that disappeared in the fog while the crew of Peary's auxiliary steamer Erik were watching its departure from Etah made a good passage through the long channels, and arrived safely on the shores of the sea, where the explorer was to start on his sledges for the north pole.

But at Cape Sheridan Peary was not as far west as he probably had hoped to be. He had announced his intention, in the previous year, of making his sledge route to the pole along some meridian much further to the west of his route in 1906, when he made the highest north attained up to that time—87 d. 6 m.

Impeded by Drift of Ice.

On that occasion he was greatly impeded by the rapid drift of the ice to the east which a little retarded his progress north, and worse still, carried him so far to the east that he had to make his landing on the coast of North Greenland, many days' march from the Roosevelt, his base of supplies.

Eskimos of the Polar Regions.

How the News Reached the World.

On his expedition of 1905-06 he tried hard to force the Roosevelt a good distance to the west of Cape Sheridan, but the ice baffled him. For one reason or another on the edge of the arctic winter last year he did not or could not take his vessel along the northern coast of Grant Land to the west of Cape Sheridan, and so it spent last winter not so far from its old berth in the ice in the winter of 1905-6.

The sledge expedition left the Roosevelt on February 15, while it was still practically dark in that latitude. The sun scarcely begins to peer above the hills for a few minutes a day, even several hundred miles to the south of the coast where the Roosevelt was wintering. It comes into view a little later in that more northern latitude and the party made slow time to the west as it felt its way along.

Coast Difficult to Travel.

The northern Grant Land coast is likely to be exceedingly difficult to traverse, especially in the early spring, on account of the masses of sea ice that have been pressed on the shore or broken into great blocks and stranded along the sea edge.

It is no wonder that it took the party 15 days to travel westward as fas as Cape Columbia. It is likely, however, that Commander Peary succeeded, before winter set in, in cacheing supplies to the westward so as to accelerate a little the westward movement of the sledge party before it struck out northward over the sea.

Peary's summary seems to show that he was a little over 35 days on the journey from the land to the north pole. In this time he was delayed about 14 days by water leads, leaving a little more than three weeks for the actual sledging work.

We may get a good idea of the average rate of travel by taking the first sea and the north pole records. He passed the British record on March 2 and reached the pole on April 6. The distance between them is 460 statute miles, and the time in making the journey was 34 days, including the time of detention by water leads. This is an average of little less than 12 miles a day, which is the best record ever attained for long route sledging on the open polar sea.

Records of Other Explorers.

The Italian, Cagni, of the duke of the Abruzzi expedition, who made the highest record till Peary beat it in 1906, made an average of only about seven miles a day on his great journey, and in ten days, on account of deep snow, they covered only 43½ miles to the north of their ship. Cagni expressed the wish before he started that he might make ten miles a day, but said he knew this was impossible.

Peary has not only reached the pole but he has attained it at an earlier date in the year than any of the other high records in the arctic have been made. He was at the pole one day earlier in the year than Nansen reached 86 degrees and five minutes, 19 days earlier than Cagni reached 86 degrees 34 minutes.

This is significant of the surpassing achievement in sledge work that Peary has accomplished, because all such endeavor is necessarily limited on one side, as far as sea journeys are concerned, by the time of sunrise.

A TEXAS CLERGYMAN

Speaks Out for the Benefit of Suffering Thousands.

Rev. G. M. Gray, Baptist clergyman, of Whitesboro, Tex., says: "Four years ago I suffered misery with lumbago. Every movement was one of pain. Doan's Kidney Pills removed the whole difficulty after only a short time. Although I do not like to have my name used publicly, I make an exception in this case, so that other sufferers from kidney trouble may profit by my experience."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

SIX MONTHS.

Mrs. Bill—Now, tell me at once—where have you been all this time?

Bill — Why, dear, it hasn't been long.

Mrs. Bill—How dare you tell me that? You have been out all night.

CUTICURA CURED HIM.

Eczema Came on Legs and Ankles—Could Not Wear Shoes Because

Of Bad Scaling and Itching.

"I have been successfully cured of dry eczema. I was inspecting the removal of noxious weeds from the edge of a river and was constantly in the dust from the weeds. At night I cleansed my limbs but felt a prickly sensation. I paid no attention to it for two years but I noticed a scum on my legs like fish scales. I did not attend to it until it came to be too itchy and sore and began getting two running sores. My ankles were all sore and scabby and I could not wear shoes. I had to use carpet and felt slippers for weeks. I got a cake of the Cuticura Soap and some Cuticura Ointment. In less than ten days I could put on my boots and in less than three weeks I was free from the confounded itching. Capt. George P. Bliss, Chief of Police, Morris, Manitoba, Mar. 20, 1907, and Sept. 24, 1908."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Mottoes of a Queen.

Her majesty, the queen of Portugal, pins her faith, it is said, to the following mottoes:

Keep out of doors all you can. Breathe outdoor air, live in it, revel in it. Don't shut yourself up. Build your houses so that the air supply is good. Throw away your portieres and bric-a-brac. Don't have useless trifles about you.

Have a favorite form of exercise and make the most of it. Ride on horseback if you can; cycle if you cannot get a horse; do anything to get out in the open air.

Don't overeat. Drink little and let that little be pure. Don't try to dress too much, yet dress as well as you are able. Wear everything you can to make yourself lovely.

Why We Are Stronger.

The old Greeks and Romans were great admirers of health and strength; their pictures and statuary made the muscles of the men stand out like cords.

As a matter of fact we have athletes and strong men—men fed on fine strength making food such as Quaker Oats—that would win in any contest with the old Roman or Greek champions.

It's a matter of food. The finest food for making strength of bone, muscle and nerve is fine oatmeal. Quaker Oats is the best because it is pure, no husks or stems or black specks. Farmers' wives are finding that by feeding the farm hands plentifully on Quaker Oats they get the best results in work and economy. If you are convenient to the store, buy the regular size packages; if not near the store buy the large size family package. 2

Industrial Education.

For training the workman the technical school can never supplant the workshop. The system that is likely to give the best results is a combination of part time apprenticeship and compulsory attendance at technical schools.—London Electrical Review.

Don't think Wrigley's Spearmint only helps digestion. It perfumes the breath.

Bees sometimes fly two miles from the hive and find their way back without difficulty.

FERTILE FARMS FOR THOUSANDS

AT THE OPENING OF THE STANDING ROCK AND CHEYENNE RIVER INDIAN RESERVATIONS.

Registration at Mobridge, Lemmon or Aberdeen, S. D., October 4 to 23.

The opening of the Standing Rock and Cheyenne River Indian Reservations in South Dakota and North Dakota in October will give thousands of people 160 acres of fertile farming lands for a small sum per acre.

If you intend to engage in farming or are now farming and wish to change your location, why not register for one of these farms? It costs nothing to register.

Aberdeen, South Dakota, on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, and Mobridge and Lemmon, South Dakota, on the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound Railway, are points of registration. You can register any day from October 4 to 23. The drawing will take place at Aberdeen on October 26.

This land opening will also give you a splendid opportunity to see the wonderful country opened through the construction of the new line to the Pacific Coast, at small additional cost over your railroad fare to points of registration.

Folders regarding this land opening and the country along the new line in South Dakota, North Dakota and Montana, free. F. A. Miller, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry., Chicago, Illinois.

True Thrift.

"When visiting a certain town in the Midlands," says a medical man, "I was told of an extraordinary incident wherein the main figure, an economical housewife, exhibited, under trying circumstances, a trait quite characteristic of her. It seems that she had by mistake taken a quantity of poison—mercurial poison—the antidote for which, as all should know, comprises the whites of eggs. When this antidote was being administered, the order for which the unfortunate lady had overheard, she managed to murmur, although almost unconscious, "Mary, Mary! Save the yolks for the puddings!"—Tit-Bits.

LOW COLONIST FARES TO THE WEST AND NORTHWEST.

Union Pacific Passenger Department announces that Colonist Fares will be in effect from Sept. 15 to Oct. 15, 1909, to all points in the West and Northwest.

This year the West looks more promising than ever. Now is the time to secure land at low prices, and, at the same time, to visit the many interesting points in the West and Northwest, at which liberal stopover arrangements may be made.

A better estimate of raw lands can be made now than formerly, because these lands are in proximity to new farms that are producing wonderful crops.

For descriptive literature, write to E. L. Lomax, G. P. A., U. P. R. R., Omaha, Neb.

By Automobile Up Mount Rainier.

United States Engineer Eugene Ricksecker celebrated Independence day by throwing open the government road in the Mount Rainer National park. Vehicles and horsemen now have an excellent thoroughfare from tidewater to Narada falls, near snow line in Paradise valley. Mr. Ricksecker says that autos and wagons can now make the trip with comfort. The maximum grade on the road is four per cent. Nearly a score of automobiles, all loaded, went to the mountain.

Chicago to New York and Return $25.50.

Atlantic City and Return $25.70.

Grand Trunk-Lehigh Valley Double Track Route, tickets on sale daily until September 30th. Liberal stopovers. Apply to Agent of any Eastbound line or write W. S. Cookson, A. G. P. A., 135 Adams St., Chicago, Ill.

When a man has enough money laid aside to keep him on Easy street the rest of his days, he ought to give others a chance.

Good for Sore Eyes, for 100 years PETTIT'S EYE SALVE has positively cured eye diseases everywhere. All druggists or Howard Bros., Buffalo, N. Y.

When a girl orders flowers sent home it's a sign that she expects the neighbors to think some man sent them.

EVERY GOOD HOUSEKEEPER wants white clothes. It's easy if she uses RUSS BLUE. 5c at grocers.

Watch any man long enough and you will see him do something he ought to be ashamed of.

Don't think Wrigley's Spearmint only perfumes the breath. It helps digestion.

At a rose competition in Paris recently, 69 entirely new varieties of roses were exhibited.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

In Madagascar everyone wears silk, which is cheaper than linen.

Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. The favorite family laxative.

A dead beat always gets more credit than he deserves.

The Goodell Concrete Mfg. Co.

of Goodell, Iowa

wishes to inform the public that they have completed their factory and installed their machinery and are making cement tile that are ranging in sizes from 5 to 16 inches made by the only tamping tile machine on earth today. We make the wire connected building block the only dry wall block, also the 4 wire reinforced Electrica Cement Post, Cement Water Tanks, Cement Chimney Blocks and a first class brick. We invite you to inspect our goods and get prices.

Yours respectfully,

Luken & Gilbert, Props.

The City Dray Line

Will do your coal and other hauling at reasonable rates. Leave your orders at the store or ring up No. 37.

ELL BROS. Klemme, Iowa

City Dray Line

All work done promptly and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give me a call.

G. R. WATERMAN,
Proprietor.

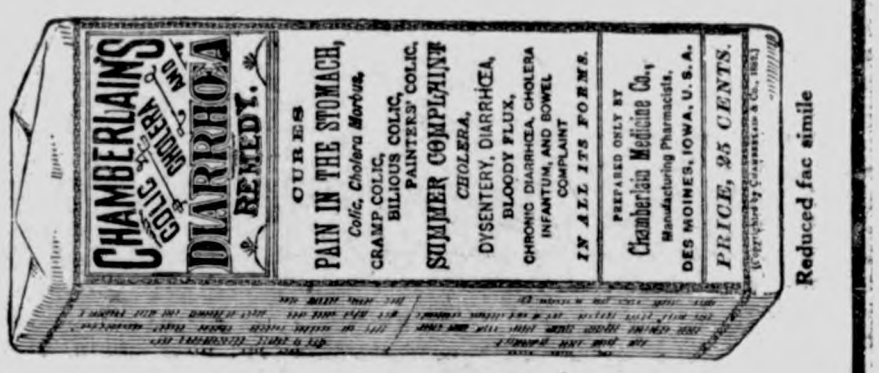
Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy

Acknowledged everywhere to be the most successful medicine in use for Bowel Complaints.

Can be depended upon in the most severe and dangerous cases.

REMEMBER ALWAYS CURES
CURES QUICKLY

MONEY RETURNED IF NOT SATISFIED



Reduced fac simile

SUBSCRIBE FOR

THE TIMES

$1.00 A YEAR

(Continued from 5th page.)

monthly meeting with Mrs. Arnold this afternoon (Thursday.)

T. Blank went to Estherville last Saturday where he expects to be engaged all of this week.

Mrs. Erdmann, of Oklahoma, has been spending a few weeks among Klemme and Germantown people renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs. Goodheil, of Mason City, spent a few days of last week with her sister. Mrs. Geo. Gruetzmacher. She returned Saturdry afternoon.

Minnie Lenz departed Monday evening for Watertown, S. D., where she will remain an indefinite time with her sister Mrs. Adolf Ridder.

Edward Holthaus and family arrived from Colesburg Saturday evening to visit at the home of father and mother Kraus, the parents of Mrs. Holthaus.

Rev. G. Haefner and wife spent a pleasant week among their children after conference. They remain in Tomah. Wis., another year, where their labors are highly appreciated.

A convention of the Sunday Schools of Ell and German townships will be held in the Germantown church, Sunday. Sept. 26. A full program will be published next week.

The writer called on August Wenz last week and found him much improved, at the home of his sister in Britt. We expect him in Klemme this week for a short visit.

The Klemme "Standard Bearer Society" will meet Friday evening at the E. H. Lenz home. This society did good work last year both in their study and support of missions. They begin the new year with a good program if all do their duty.

We were sorry to see Rev. Baker leave us this week to resume his studies. We learned to know and respect him as a pleasant, clean, upright young man, with whom it was a pleasure to associate. We have no doubt he will make a faithful minister.

A Hurry Up Call

Quick! Mr. Druggist—Quick! A box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve—Here's a quarter—For the love of Moses, hurry! Baby's burned himself, terribly—Johnnie cut his foot with the axe—Mamie's scalded—Pa can't walk from piles—Billie has boils—and my corns ache. She got it and soon cured all the family. Its the greatest healer on earth. Sold by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Fierce, All Right.

"Now," said the teacher, who had been describing the habits of bears, "what is the fiercest animal in the polar regions, Johnny?"

"Why—er—er," stammered Johnny.

"Come, don't you remember?" The pol—"

"Oh, sure! The polecat."

Last Chance.

"Father," said little Rollo, "what is an electoral college?"

"It's a last chance, my son, for such able and esteemed members of society as didn't get on a notification committee to come forward and prove that they are really prominent citizens."—Washington Star.

The Road to Success

has many obstructions, but none so desperate as poor health. Success today demands health, but Electric Bitters is the greatest health builder the world has ever known. It compels perfect action of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, purifies and enriches the blood and tones and invigorates the whole system. Vigorous body and keen brain follow their use. You can't afford to slight Electric Bitters if weak, run-down or sickly. Only 50c. Guaranteed by G. A. Pabst & Co.

Books — Letter Heads
Pamphlets — Envelopes

Everything printed from

TYPE

At the Times office.

Cards — Bill Heads
Invitations — Posters

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOW

OLDEST IN AGE AND LONGEST LOCATED, REGULAR GRADUATES IN MEDICINE. LONGEST ESTABLISHED AND MOST RELIABLE SPECIALISTS IN THE STATE. Authorized to treat CHRONIC, NERVOUS AND SPECIAL DISEASES. Fifte... days treatment free. If not satisfactory we guarantee to refund mon... All medicines furnished ready for use—no injurious medicines used. ... detention from business. Patients at a distance treated by mail and ex... press. Medicines sent everywhere free from gaze or breakage. Charg... low. Thousands of cases cured. State your case and send for terms. Co... sultation FREE and confidential, in person or by letter. Call or wr... to-day. Don't delay.

NERVOUS DEBILITY AND WEAKNESSES of Men The results of youthful follies and excesses—causing losses by dreams or with urine, pimples and blotches on the face, rushes of blood to the head, pains in the back, forgetfulness, bashfulness, loss of vital forces, loss of manhood, etc., cured for life. We can stop unnatural losses, restore lost vitality, develop and mature young or middle aged and make them fit for marriage.

HYDROCELE Dropsy of the scrotum cured without pain.

KIDNEY, BLADDER & PROSTATIC DISEASES Successfully treated and permanently cured.

STRICTURE radically cured without the use... harmful instruments. Our bo... fully explains.

VARICOCELE —Enlarged veins in the scrotum causing nervous debility, weakn... of the nervous system, etc., permanently cured.

BLOOD POISON —That terrible disease in... its stages, cured for life. N... Diseases, Sores, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, and all forms ... private diseases cured to stay Cured.

PHIMOSIS See Book—Cured in a few days with... pain.

BOOK FREE TO MEN upon application, w... description of above diseases, ... effects and cure, sent sealed in plain wrapper.

DRS. FELLOWS & FELLOWS CO., 325 WALNUT ST., DES MOINES, I...

RUPTURE, PILES

CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, CURE GUARANTEED.

YOU PAY NOTHING UNTIL CURED. My treatment is mild, absolutely reliable and permanent. Write to or call and see the parties whose names I publish in this advertisement, they were afflicted with Rupture or Piles I cured THEM and can CURE YOU.

R. E. Busby, Clearfield, Ia. — Silas C. Sweet, Des Moines, Ia.
Cas. Tucker, Boone, Ia. — E. C. Miller, Des Moines, Ia.
W. C. Hoff, Des Moines, Ia. — John H. Looby, Des Moines, Ia.

SEND FOR MY 52 PAGE FREE BOOK for men, I will send it to you free, postage paid. This book contains much information of great value to anyone afflicted, and many testimonial letters. Whether you take treatment or not, you are welcome to the book. Write today—it will pay you.

SPECIALIST ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS

F. W. McCanon, M. D., DES MOINES, IOWA

Rock Island System

TIME TABLE.

Klemme, Iowa.

Going South.

436 ..... 7:34 p. m.
82 ..... 2:35 p. m.

Going North.

81 ..... 9:55 a. m.
435 ..... 1:46 p. m.

Stock Extra every Wednesday and Sunday. All regular trains carry passengers.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

PATENTS

DESIGNS
TRADE-MARKS
AND COPYRIGHTS
OBTAINED

ADVICE AS TO PATENTABILITY FREE
Notice in "Inventive Age"
Book "How to obtain Patents"

Charges moderate. No fee till patent is secured. Letters strictly confidential. Address,

E. G. SIGGERS, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Never fails. Buy it now. It may save life.

McCALL PATTERNS 10¢ AND 15¢ NONE HIGHER

McCALL'S MAGAZINE 50¢ A YEAR INCLUDING A FREE ...

McCALL PATTERNS
Celebrated for style, perfect fit, simplicity, reliability nearly 40 years. Sold in ... every city and town in the United States, Canada, or by mail direct. More sold ... any other make. Send for free catal...

McCALL'S MAGAZINE
More subscribers than any other fa... magazine—million a month. Invaluable, ... est styles, patterns, dressmaking, millin... plain sewing, fancy needlework, hairdres... etiquette, good stories, etc. Only 50 cen... year (worth double), including a free pat... Subscribe today, or send for sample ...

WONDERFUL INDUCEMENTS
to Agents. Postal brings premium cata... and new cash prize offers. Address

THE McCALL CO., 238 to 246 W. 37th St., NEW Y...

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified.

FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE it is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

Just Dust it on the Sore...
HEALS Wire Cuts.
HEALS Collar Galls while work.
HEALS Old Sores.
HEALS From the Bottom ...
Leaves No Scar.
At Druggists' or Prepaid by M...
Money Back if Not Satisfied.
The RED STAR HEALING POWDER ...
(25c. and 50c. Cans). GARNER, IO...

THE KLEMME TIMES

VOLUME XIV. NUMBER 8 KLEMME, IOWA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1909. $1 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

Taxes

Twice in each year the taxes levied upon property become due and as the time for the last payment for 1908 tax becomes due on Oct. 1st, we kindly ask that you get in your order for taxes early and avoid the rush which is usually prevalent at the County Treasurer's office on the last few days before due date.....

We have complete lists of everything and will be pleased to pay your taxes without any charge whatever—Phone us if you do not wish to take the time to come to town to order your receipt.....

TAXES

Taxes

State Savings Bank.

Klemme - - Iowa

A CONVINCER

